

Fled With CEO's Twin Babies Chapter 31 - 40

Chapter 31 I Was Serious

When it came to divorce, Joe looked gloomy.

“Stop talking about it, Mia.” He put one hand in his pocket and stood still, with only certainty in his eyes. “I don’t believe that you will really marry David.”

Mia loved him so much in the past. How could she fall in love with David so soon and even marry him?

Mia gradually stopped smiling and looked straight at Joe with her dark eyes. “It’s been five years. Why do you think I’m stupid enough to love you who don’t care about me at all? Mr. Smith, Your conceit also requires a limit.”

Joe walked up to Mia step by step with a gloomy face and reached out to pinch her chin. “Mia, Limit? Will David give you 200 million dollars in three years?”

The sarcasm in his eyes hurt Mia. She calmly pushed away his fingers one by one and did not retreat at all. “Joe, I don’t owe you anything.”

When she was with him, she gave him all her love without reservation, and even after she left...

It was Joe who chose to give up on her love. She didn’t do anything wrong.

“Is that so?” Joe laughed coldly. “I’d like to see if the Johnson Family dares to let you be their family member, Mia.”

Mia didn't say anything more, picked up the document on the table, and walked out quickly.

Watching her leave, Joe once again felt that something was out of his control.

Joe took out a cigarette, lit it, and then called Jack.

Back at the apartment, Mia found that David came, sitting in the living room with a gloomy face and cigarette butts all over the floor.

Mia raised her eyebrows. Since David knew that she didn't like the smell of cigarettes, he had never smoked in front of her.

Now...

"You know?" She sighed slightly. "It happened so suddenly today. I..."

Before she could finish her words, David reached out and hugged her.

Mia stiffened and hesitated for a long time but still couldn't push him away.

The mellow smell of tobacco filled her nose in an instant. David suppressed the cruelty in his voice and said, "I've checked. Zack, that bastard, took the money and targeted you on purpose this time. Don't worry. He won't have another chance in the future."

Mia had already guessed this, withdrew from David's arms, and said seriously, "Do you know that this is a society ruled by law?"

David was stunned, raised his eyebrows, and said, "Are you concerned about me?"

Mia glared at him grumpily. "If you talk nonsense again, go back quickly."

It was not easy for David to get a hug. How could he dare to talk nonsense again?

He quickly straightened his expression and said, “Don’t worry. I don’t need to deal with Zack. He has a lot of enemies. As long as some rumors are spread, many people will deal with him.”

Mia also knew that although David looked careless, he actually had his own principles, so she nodded.

Mia noticed that the apartment was particularly quiet, so she looked at David and asked, “Where are Ben and Anna?”

David rubbed his nose and said, “After receiving the news, I was worried that you were not in a good state, so I sent them to the Johnson’s Mansion.”

“The Johnson’s Mansion?”

Mia was a little surprised. Although Mrs. Lucky Johnson occasionally took Ben and Anna to the resort villa when they were abroad, Mr. Goergic Johnson was not around at that time.

Now Mr. Goergic Johnson had clearly expressed his dislike for her. If she was involved too much, she was afraid that he would become more unhappy.

However, David waved his hand and said, “Didn’t you see how my mom treated Ben and Anna? If my dad dares to say no, I’m afraid he will sleep on the road today.”

Although Mia did not believe what David said, she knew that his parents had a good relationship from his description. She felt a little envious.

She didn’t know if it was a coincidence that none of the people around her had a good marriage. She also felt happy to hear such a harmonious couple’s life.

Before leaving, David looked into Mia's eyes seriously and said, "I used to be an idiot, but I have never done anything idiot since I met you. I won't force you and just hope that you can consider me seriously."

Chapter 32 Zack's in Prison

Mia was stunned.

In the past, David had joked about marrying her, but Mia didn't take it seriously. For this time, she could tell he meant it.

"I..." Before Mia could say anything, David pulled her sleeve and stopped her.

"I know you weren't interested in me. But I... I still dream for a chance..." David started in a hurry but ended up stammering, "Please don't reject me immediately...at least not now. I can't handle hearing rejections from you... I sincerely ask you to consider me. I will give you my everything as long as you give me a chance."

Mia had never seen him like this before, nervous like a boy who had done something wrong.

Mia can't help laughing. "You left no time for me to reply. Shall I speak now?"

David let go her sleeve and took a step back. "Sorry. Go ahead."

"I want to say..." Mia withdrew her smile and said seriously, "Because what's I've experienced before, I may not be able to accept another man in my life so quickly...but..."

"...I will try hard to get rid of my shadow as soon as possible."

W

David's eyes lit up.

“Mia, I...”

“But to be honest, I currently only consider you as a fri...”

“That's enough!” David was wearing a broad smile.

He knew that if she continued, the content would not be what he wanted to hear. But it's enough to know she had let go her previous relationship.

“I still have something to do, so I'll leave first.”

David quickly turned around, waved his hand with his back to Mia, and left elegantly.

Early the next morning, Frank called to inform Mia that Zack had been arrested.

“It is said that he was beaten in a sack on his way back last night, and then was taken away by the police.” Frank briefly explained what had happened to Zack.

Mia didn't expect that Zack would be caught before she could make any moves.

“Besides, all members of the Chamber of Commerce present yesterday were also caught...”

It was not difficult to bring down Zack, but it was difficult to throw every member of the Chamber into jail overnight. The tactics and power behind this were astonishing.

Mia knew that David would take action, so she was not too surprised. “Since Zack has already been imprisoned, we can take away what we have prepared for him.”

Frank agreed.

“How are your injuries going?” Mia asked with concern.

“Thank you for your concern, Miss Clinton. Jack sent me to the hospital yesterday.”

Frank paused for a moment. “He has been inquiring about your information from me...”

“Don’t worry about him. He won’t bother you anymore.” Mia said certainly.

Someone as proud as Joe would never come back looking for her after she humiliating him.

Chapter 33 Mia Was Back

“B*tch Mia!”

Meanwhile, in the White House, Leah threw her phone on the sofa, cursing angrily.

She had a crush on Joe, but Mia married him instead and became Mrs. Smith. After Mia left, she had spent so much effort to get close to David, but why that b*tch Mia come back again and got in her way?

Leah’s mother, Diana, curled her lips and shouted to her husband Levi, “I told you that Mia was unreliable, but you insisted on marrying her into the Smith Family. Look what is happening now? She’s back and made so many troubles for us!”

“Shut up.”

Head of the family, Levi exclaimed coldly, interrupting their complaints.

“What’s the point of complaining now? We need her. Shut up and ask her back.”

Leah widened her eyes. “Dad! Are you crazy? I don’t want her back!”

Diana also looked embarrassed. “That’s right. Don’t forget what we have done to her, and how she was married into the Smith Family. Now she divorced Joe and hooked up with Mr. Johnson. How could she come back?”

She didn’t want to see Mia at all. Every time she saw her, she would think of Judy, whom she hated the most.

Seeing that they were still unclear about the current situation, Levi slapped the table hard and said, “Get out of here if you don’t want to find her! Do you think the White Family still has the same power as before?!”

Ever since Mia privately divorced Joe, the Smith Family had no support for the White Family. He had been blocked from seeking Joe several times! Now, the White family was barely able to maintain its basic operations and one careless move would result in a complete loss!

It was not easy for Mia to get a link with the Johnson Family again. How could he let her go?

He stared at Diana and Leah gloomily. “If you still want to live a rich life, go and get her back! Otherwise, you will be homeless on the street!”

As soon as he finished speaking, the nanny ran over and said, “Sir, Miss White is back!”

The three of them, who had been arguing fiercely just now, suddenly looked at each other. “She’s back now?”

Mia walked slowly into the living room, followed by David, whose face was cold.

After knowing that she was going to the White Family, David insisted on following her. Mia couldn’t refuse him several times, so she had to agree.

Anyway, he had helped her find out the past, so it didn’t matter about his coming.

Seeing that her ex “parent” and ex “sister” were all here, Mia raised her eyebrows.

Levi smiled kindly. “Mia, we’ve waited for you for so long! It’s good to have you back.”

He gave Diana a subtle look, and she reacted quickly. Her eyes immediately turned red, speaking with a pitiful tone. “Poor girl, why didn’t you come home immediately when you flied back to the country? We are your family!”

Leah glanced at her parents, who put on fake faces. She forced a smile at David and called him sweetly, “David. I miss you so much.”

“You are good at acting.” David didn’t even look at Leah, found a sofa, and sat down. “I have an entertainment company under my command. Can you guys consider debuting? Your acting skills. are much better than some of my actors and actress’.”

As soon as David said that, the atmosphere in the living room suddenly dissipated.

Mia also curled her lips and looked around. “What about my grandma who is seriously ill because she misses me too much? I really want to see her.”

Chapter 34 Who were Her Real Parents?

Levi looked embarrassed. “She has gone back to the countryside to recuperate. If you want to see her, I’ll pick her up tomorrow.”

Diana also stepped forward and tried to pull Mia. “You seem to have lost a lot of weight. Let me take a good look at you.”

Mia nimbly dodged and looked at Diana coldly.

“What are you doing?” Seeing this, Leah shouted, “Our parents have been worried about you. Is this how you treat them?!”

“Our parents?”

As if she had heard something funny, Mia curled her lips and asked, “Are they really my parents?”

Levi and Diana changed their expressions.

“What nonsense are you talking about?” Levi scolded loudly. “You’ve been out for five years and you don’t even recognize us? Or do you think you can leave your family behind just because you’ve hooked up with the Johnson Family?”

Diana grabbed Levi and cried, “She was wronged back then. It’s normal for her to feel sad and talk nonsense now. Don’t take her words seriously.”

Levi was still full of anger but didn’t say anything more.

When Mia saw their pretentious performance, the sarcasm in her eyes deepened.

She had seen this scene countless times in the past. They forced Mia to do something she didn’t want to do through their talking, and then they comforted her hypocritically..

Mia was physically disgusted.

She sneered and said, “I’ll ask you again. Are you really my biological parents?”

Levi was furious. He raised his hand, smashed the ashtray on the table to the ground, and cursed loudly, “What nonsense are you talking about!”

David moved quickly and pulled Mia with a sullen face. The thick glass shattered at their feet and scattered.

Leah looked at Levi in surprise. Wasn’t his reaction a little too intense?

Diana was also shocked, quickly stopped him, and said, “What are you doing? You almost hurt them.”

“I think you have forgotten your parents with the support of the Johnson Family.” Levi pushed Diana away angrily, pointed at Mia, and scolded her. “We gave birth to you and raised you. We have done so much for you, but you don’t even recognize us” because of a moment of grievance!”

Diana staggered and barely managed to stand firm with the help of the sofa.

Hearing what Levi said, she also cried. “When I was pregnant...”

“You were pregnant...?” Mia was tired of their back-and-forth act and interrupted Diana.

“Do you know Judy Clinton?”

As soon as these words came out, the room suddenly quieted down, and the face of Diana turned even paler.

Levi was silent for a moment and then flew into a rage. “Who is she? Who did you hear this from?”

Diana’s heart suddenly fell.

How did Mia know Judy and how could she know Judy?!

Diana forced a smile and said, “I don’t know her. Who is she? Is she your friend?”

Seeing that the two of them still refused to admit it, Mia simply threw out a few photos from her bag. They were photos of Diana and a beautiful woman.

The beautiful woman in the photo had a slightly bulging abdomen and a sweet smile on her face. Diana was carefully supporting her with a gloomy smile.

The moment Diana saw the photo, her legs went weak. She fell down on the sofa and took a long time to come to her senses.

“Where did you find this photo?”

She had clearly destroyed all the photos of them.

Chapter 35 The Truth of the Past

Mia didn't answer her question. Instead, she stared at Diana with burning eyes and asked, “Do you still want to say that you don't know Judy?”

Diana burst into tears.

“She is indeed my friend but passed away many years ago, so I don't remember for a while.” Diana looked at Mia with tears in her eyes. “I don't know what others have said to you, but you are indeed my daughter.”

“I was with her when Diana gave birth to you! She almost died. How dare you insult her like this!”

Levi was furious, picked up the phone on the table, and threw it at Mia.

Mia didn't expect him to do this. When she reacted, David had already hugged her and protected her in his arms.

She hurriedly looked at David and asked, “Are you all right? Where did you get hurt?”

“My back.” David waved his hand. “I’m fine.”

He patted Mia on the back to comfort her and then turned to look at Levi.

He didn’t say anything, but everyone could clearly feel that he was angry.

Although it just hit his back, David could feel how much strength Levi had used just now. If it had hit Mia in the face...

He quickly stepped forward and grabbed Levi by the collar. His eyes were full of hostility. “Do you want to die?!”

Looking at the imposing David in front of him, Levi was shocked.

In the past, Joe’s neglect of Mia made them take it for granted that David would treat her the same way. They didn’t expect that a phone that almost hit her would make him so angry.

Was David serious about her?

“I just made a mistake.” Levi quickly apologized. “Mia listened to the rumors and actually felt that she was not our child. Isn’t that too absurd?”

Mia looked at Levi coldly, and her eyes were full of coldness. “I didn’t expect that you haven’t made any progress after so many years.”

Back then, when they forced her to marry Joe, they used this kind of attitude, using both soft and hard tactics without any bottom line.

“You idiot!”

Levi was so angry that he took two steps forward, but was stopped by David.

Mia didn't bother to say anything more and threw out another stack of documents. "My birthday is on November 25th, but there was no record of Diana being hospitalized that day. Did she give birth to me at home?"

Diana looked at the case file and opened her mouth but didn't say anything.

"Not only that, she didn't have any records of obstetrics and gynecology one year before my birth. On the contrary, she had accompanied Judy many times to have a checkup. Do you want to see the records?"

The more Mia said, the paler Diana looked.

Levi was also frightened. Back then, when the incident had happened, they had been so focused on dealing with the problems around them that they had forgotten about the hospital records.

He calmed down and sighed deeply. "Since you know, I won't hide it from you. You are indeed not our biological daughter."

Leah and Diana exclaimed at the same time.

"Judy died in an accident when you were just born. It happened so suddenly that she only had time to entrust you to us before she passed away. We were worried that you would be sad because of this when you grew up, so we simply hid it."

Levi sighed deeply and said with pity in his eyes, "Even so, our feelings for you are true. Don't you know that?"

Mia looked at him quietly for a while and sneered. "Is it really that simple?"

Chapter 36 Diana's Explanation

Mia originally wanted to see how Whites would react when they found out that she knew the truth, but their reaction made her feel sick and bored.

“When Judy past away, not only did she entrust me to you, but also left a huge amount of inheritance. These inheritances fell into your hands and were used as the first bucket of money for the development of the White Group. Yet you dicided to never tell me the truth.”

Mia tore their lies apart.

“Judy probably never dreamed that her best friend would easily betray her. Not only did you erase her existence, but also tried to throw me into the orphanage several times.”

When she was a child, Mia always wondered why Diana had a completely opposite attitude toward her and towards Leah. As long as Leah smiled, Diana would give her all the love, and even if she tried her best, she would rarely get encouragement from.

Diana.

And she even took Mia to the prphanage. She once wanted to ABANDON her.

Truth explained the matter.

As soon as Mia finished speaking, the living room fell into indescribable.silence.

Leah looked at her parents in shock. Mia was not her biological sister!

She instantly understood why her parents had treated Mia so bad in the past.

Levi reacted very quickly and slapped Diana in the face.

“Did you try to send her to the orphanage?” Levi was really angry. He never thought that Diana would be so stupid.

Not only had she done this, but she had also been caught.

Seeing the couple blaming each other, Mia was not moved at all.

Leah complained, “Do you have to do this? Even if you’re not their biological daughter, didn’t mom and dad bring you up? Don’t you know how to be grateful?”

Mia glanced at Leah sarcastically and said, “Grateful? Do you know that your parents were just the most ordinary employees before they adopted me? Because they got the inheritance left. by MY MOTHER, the White Family had the capital to start a business. Later, when they ran out of cash, they made a deal with the Smith family in exchange for more money.”

“They drugged me, and sent me onto someone’s bed.”

Mia sneered. “If you were me, would you be grateful to them?”

Leah was at a loss for words.

Diana took a step forward and grabbed Mia’s sleeve, pleading, “I was wrong. In the past, I wasn’t prepared to raise a kid and felt that I couldn’t take good care of you, so I tried to put you in good hands. But I was wrong. I regretted it. Can you forgive me? I’ll make it up to you, okay?”

“I could forgive you,” Mia coldly brushed off her hand, “As long as you kneel down in front of my mother’s grave, confess your crime and apologize.”

Leah screamed, “How dare you!”

She wanted to pull Mia, but David stopped her.

Diana looked at Mia incredulously. When she saw Mia’s face similar to Judy’s, she suddenly went crazy.

“I knew it! You and Judy are exactly the same!”

Diana raised her hand and tried to slap Mia.

Chapter 37 We Still Had a Debt to Settle

Seeing this, David quickly stepped forward and stopped her.

Diana stared venomously at Mia. “Judy is an extremely hypocritical person! She seems to be very kind to me, but in fact, she treats me like a maid! She gave me those branded bags and clothes just to mock me for not being able to afford them. In the end, she died! Why should I help her raise her daughter?!”

“If we didn’t put you on Mr. Smith’s bed, do you think you had a chance to become Lady Smith? I would marry you to an abuser or a drug addict. I want you to be tortured and die in pain!”

Slap!

“I usually don’t hit women unless she’s not a human.” David stared at Diana with a cold face.

Although David used to be a playboy, he had always respected women. He had never thought that one day he would hate a woman so much and even hurt her.

Leah screamed, “David, how could you hit my mom!”

How could he help that b*tch Mia like this!

Diana covered her face and said with hatred in her eyes, “You are exactly the same as Judy. She was also a whore and sleeping men to climb up! I bet you don’t know who your father is.”

It was David who hit her, but she only scolded Mia.

Levi saw that he couldn’t cover it up anymore, so he simply fell out with Mia. He pointed at her and scolded, “You ungrateful monster. Get out of my house!”

Looking at Whites' ugly faces, Mia simply pulled David to sit down on the sofa. "I'm afraid I can't leave."

Hearing her words, Levi thought that she was willing to make concessions, so he said stiffly, "You're right. After all, we're a family. You'll need us at your back when you get married in the future."

Mia smiled.

She looked straight at Levi with undisguised sarcasm in her eyes. "Don't worry. I have a lot of family members, and they are my biological relatives."

Levi looked gloomy. No wonder Mia was so confident to make trouble. It turned out that she had found her real family.

"Good. Since you have found your real family, don't ever come to us anymore."

Mia smiled and said, "That's fine, but I have to settle the debt with you."

"Debt?" Levi looked at Mia warily. "I don't remember owe you anything."

Mia slowly put several documents on the table and motioned for Levi to have a look.

Levi picked up the papers. Once he looked at them his eyes suddenly widened, and his first reaction was to tear the papers apart.

Mia said in a cold tone, "Save some effort. These are just copies. I have many of them"

Levi froze on the spot.

Diana and Leah, who were standing by the side, noticed that something was wrong. They quickly picked up the rest papers and read them. Their expressions changed drastically.

These were the IOU documents that Mia had taken from Joe, as well as the notarized inheritance certificate that Judy's Law Firm had submitted. These items were worth 280 million dollars in total.

Diana screamed and raised her hand to slap Mia in the face.

However, she was firmly restrained by Mia.

Chapter 38 The Truth of A Million Dollars

Mia said with anger in her dark eyes, "Do you think I'm still that poor little girl who can be beaten and scolded by you at will?"

She only exerted a little force with her hand, but enough to make Diana stumble.

Diana was shocked for a moment and then pounced crazily again. "How dare you? How dare you ask for money from us?!"

She looked ferocious, like a crazy shrew. She didn't have the temperament of a noblewoman that she was usually proud of.

"If you dare to touch me, I'll add one-thousandth of interest." Mia stood still and looked at her, saying in a cold tone.

Diana was nailed to the spot like a punctured balloon.

Her chest rose and fell violently. If sights could kill others, she would probably dismember Mia.

Leah couldn't believe it either. When she got up this morning, she was still the Miss of a rich and powerful family, but now she had become a pauper who owed hundreds of millions.

This was impossible!

V

Levi obviously couldn't accept this and said with a straight face, "Impossible. I won't pay you back."

Mia had already expected this. She handed over a business card, on which was the phone number of the Legal Department of the Horizon Group.

"What's this?" Levi looked at her warily, afraid that she would take out another agreement.

"Since you don't want to pay back the money, let's meet in court!" Mia said in a relaxed tone. Obviously, she was looking forward to Levi refusing to pay back the money. "You definitely don't have so much money on hand. I've already calculated that the current estimated value of the White Group is 250 million dollars. The court will force you to go bankrupt and repay me."

Levi was so angry that he wanted to Mia die. "Don't even think about it!"

Handing over the White Group was tantamount to cutting off his source of income, making him return to the days when he worked for others.

Seeing that Levi was in a bad state, David secretly stood in front of Mia to prevent him from attacking her.

When Mia saw his actions, a trace of moving flashed across her eyes.

It seemed that David would always stand in front of her and help her as soon as she needed him.

Perhaps...

“What do you want us to do?” After being angry for a long time, Levi found that he had no choice but to beg her for mercy.

Like a stray dog, he had no choice but to accept the result.

Noticing that Levi had made a concession, Mia took out her mobile phone and put it in front of them. “Why don’t we play a game? Tell me the truth and I’ll deduct a million dollars. What do you think?”

“10 million.” Levi was keenly aware of the intention of Mia and tried to propose conditions.

Mia glanced at him lightly and said, “I remember that you once taught me don’t push so far, or it will be in vain.”

Levi was speechless.

He gritted his teeth and said, “Okay, but you have to allow us to pay off the rest of the debts in thirty years.”

“Ten years.” Mia said firmly, “If there is an abnormal operation during this period, the White Group must be transferred to me in advance.”

Levi didn’t expect Mia wouldn’t give in and didn’t say anything with a gloomy face.

Mia was not in a hurry, took out a document, and said, “Take a look.”

Surprisingly, it listed all the conditions that Mia had mentioned just now. She was sure that he would agree.

Chapter 39 Entered the Hospital

“No! You can’t sign it!”

Just as Levi was about to sign it, Diana pounced on him and pushed him away.

Levi frowned. “What’s wrong with you?”

Diana pointed at Levi and scolded, “I think you’re the crazy one! It’s two hundred million dollars, not a small sum. We’ve worked so hard to raise her. Why should we give her the money?”

Her gaze fell on David and she said maliciously, “Do you know where Mia got the money? Joe gave it to her! Aren’t you her fiancé? Don’t you think you’ve been cheated?”

“When we married Mia to Joe, she was very resistant! But later, she was still obedient...”

“Very good.”

Mia was not as afraid to hear her continued words as Diana had imagined. Even David showed no signs of getting angry. The two of them looked at Diana as if they were looking at a clown.

On the contrary, Levi and Leah glared at her.

“I know what you mean. There’s no need to sign this contract anymore.” Mia glanced at Diana indifferently, turned around, and walked out.

Levi immediately panicked. If he paid off in debt over ten years, there was still a possibility of him turning over. Or he could leave nothing for Mia. But if she left now, he would never have another chance!

Slap!

He gritted his teeth and slapped Diana hard in the face. “Shut up if you don’t understand! If you talk nonsense again, we’ll divorce!”

Diana looked at Levi in disbelief and immediately got into a fight with him. “Levi! If it weren’t for me, you wouldn’t be where you are today! How dare you hit me!”

Her attacks were crazy and fast, and Levi was powerless to resist. The two of them fought fiercely.

They didn’t notice that Mia and David had already left the White Family villa during this period of time.

“When Levi comes to sign the contract, I will officially change my name. Mia White will my past then.”

The trip to the White Family was smoother than Mia had imagined. As long as Levi didn’t want to go bankrupt and become poor immediately, he wouldn’t dare to say anything more.

David also smiled and said, “Congratulations on getting rid of the White Family. Why don’t I treat you to dinner?”

Mia glanced at him helplessly. When she was about to speak, David’s cell phone rang.

David was annoyed. Who was calling him at this time?

As soon as he picked it up, his expression completely changed.

“What’s wrong?” Mia looked at him strangely and saw his bad expression. He pursed his lips and said, “Ben and Anna have been sent to the hospital.”

“What?!” Mia was shocked. “What’s going on?”

“Don’t worry. Lucky said that they have arrived at the hospital now. It shouldn’t be a big problem.” David explained guiltily. Mia trusted him, so she entrusted her children to him. He didn’t expect that something would go wrong.

He knew how important the children were to Mia, so he quickly stepped on the accelerator and rushed to the hospital with Mia.

After driving to the hospital, David went to the fifth floor according to the address provided by Lucky, but he didn’t see them.

Mia suddenly came up with a lot of ominous speculations. With a pale face, she hurriedly stopped a doctor in a white coat. “Hello, do you know that a pair of twins were hospitalized just now?”

The doctor stopped and looked at Mia. “You mean the two children who are allergic to food. Their condition is now under control. They are probably drawing blood in the blood collection room.”

Allergy?

Chapter 40 Encountered with Joe by Chance

Mia was slightly stunned but quickly came to her senses and thanked him.

“I’ve already told Lucky about their taboo foods. How could it be?” David was also very surprised. He knew how much she cared about the two children. How could she make such a mistake?

Mia quickly asked about the direction of the blood collection room, but before she could take two steps, she was stopped. “Mia?”

It was Joe.

Mia turned with a pale face, and her heart almost jumped out of her throat.

She glanced at David secretly. He soon understood what she meant and left quietly.

Mia tried her best to suppress her anxiety and looked at Joe impatiently. “What’s the matter?”

Joe didn’t care about her impatience. Frowning, he asked, “Why are you here?”

“This is a hospital. Why can’t I be here?” Mia kept looking in the direction of the blood collection room. She didn’t want to waste time with Joe at all and just wanted to go and see Ben and Anna as soon as possible.

Joe immediately became sullen.

Before he could speak, Wendy, who was wearing a hospital gown, quickly walked over with a gentle smile on her face.

“Joe?”

When Wendy saw Joe holding onto Mia, her expression changed dramatically and she grabbed onto Joe’s hand as if she was trying to demonstrate their intimate relationship.

Joe tried to move his arm but failed.

No wonder he asked her so nervously. It turned out that he worried that Mia would follow them and hurt Wendy.

was

Mia said with sarcasm in her eyes, “Don’t worry. If I knew that you were in this hospital, I would never come here.”

She was worried about the children and didn’t want them to meet Joe. She turned around and was about to leave.

Wendy quickly stopped Mia and said affectionately, “Mia, It was the reporter’s problem that caused our previous conflict. Are you willing to forgive me?”

Mia glanced at her lightly and said, “If I were you, I wouldn’t ask

Wendy felt so wronged that her eyes turned red. She reached out to hold Mia’s hand, but Mia pushed her away.

“Sorry, I’m not a casual person. Don’t touch me.”

Wendy gasped and was in so much pain that she was about to cry.

“Joe and I truly love each other. I... I’m pregnant.” Wendy lowered her head, looking very sad.

Mia sneered and said, "It's not me who made you pregnant. What's the use of telling me?"

Wendy slightly changed her expression, but soon raised her head pitifully, "I just hope that for the sake of the child..."

As she spoke, she paid attention to Joe's attitude.

Ever since the incident on Twitter, Joe had clearly become indifferent. In the past few days, he didn't even call her.

It had not been easy for Wendy to reach this stage, so she would not allow her to fail here.

Mia suddenly approached, and Wendy took a step back subconsciously.

Seeing her like this, Mia curled her lips sarcastically. "It's none of my business."

Wendy widened her eyes, but Mia did not give her a chance to speak. "No matter whose child you are pregnant with, it has nothing to do with me. I only hope that your moving love will last forever. You two must be with each other and not come out to harm others. Don't worry, I will bless you."

After saying that, Mia didn't want to see Wendy continue to pretend to be pitiful, so she turned around and left.

Wendy was so angry that her face turned pale. She wanted to curse Mia with the most vicious words, but when she thought of Joe, who was standing beside her, she suppressed her anger.

She looked at Joe with red-rimmed eyes. "I just want to apologize to Mia."
