

Cruel Heart Lover Novel

Chapter 61

Selena quickly ran to the bathroom behind her, opened a compartment and got in, opened the huge black satchel, took out tools, and began to put on makeup.

When she came out of the bathroom again, Selena was already a gray-haired old woman.

The cell phone text message rang.

Selena took out her phone and looked, it was indeed from Louis.

The Demon King: Selena! You are limited to appear in front of me within five minutes, otherwise I will announce our relationship immediately!

fcuk!

Selena checked her makeup for the last time, and then hurried towards the most crowded place.

Selena's expression was helpless and anxious, "Cough cough, give way...cough cough, good girls, can you let my old woman take a look at Ah Ye?"

"Ah! Everyone, don't squeeze! There is a very old woman here!"

"Uh, mother-in-law, why do you want to meet our Makino? Could it be that you are also a fan of Makino!"

"Oh my god! Our Makino is worthy of killing both young and old! We even have grandma fans! Everyone, make way for grandma!"

"Grandma, how old are you?"

Selena hunched over, beat her back, and thanked her again and again, "Girl, thank you, thank you, I am eighty, and I really like this young man because he looks very much like my grandson! My grandson is very I work far away, and I don't see him several times throughout the year..." As he spoke, he began to wipe away tears.

"Makino! Makino! Here is a fan of your grandma! You should meet her!"

"Yeah, meet her! Poor..."

With the enthusiastic help of the fans, Selena quickly squeezed inside.

In the center surrounded by the crowd, Louis brushed back his unruly blond hair with his fingers, took off his sunglasses, and a trace of suspicion crossed his handsome face, "Grandma fan?"

"Yes, yes! The old man is eighty years old! I came to the airport to see you on a hot day! She said that she likes you very much, because you look like her grandson who works in a foreign country!"

As soon as the fans' words fell, Louis walked along a passage made by the crowd, and saw a wrinkled old woman wearing dusty coarse clothes and leaning on a cane...

Louis's expression became extremely distorted in an instant, "I..."

He swallowed back the word "grass" with the last ounce of reason, staring at the "grandmother" with an expression that almost strangled her to death.

Of course, all of this happened in just one second, and fans didn't notice his abnormality.

"Ah...grandson...good grandson...grandma misses you so much..." Selena threw herself on Louis's body with a stride, ravaged his yellow hair with her hands, and cried until her heart broke.

The little girls at the scene watched this warm and touching scene, all crying together, and the sound of the media's shutters was also one after another.

"Selena! You wait for me tonight!" Louis gnashed his teeth in her ear and lowered his voice.

"Ah, grandson, grandson! Why are you losing weight again? Grandma loves you so much!" Selena was fascinated by the performance, and Louis's most important hairstyle had been rubbed into a chicken coop.

Seeing that Louis was about to explode on the spot, his manager Lei Ming hurried out to rescue him, "Hey, let's make room, this grandma is overly sad and a little weak, we will be responsible for sending her home!"

Louis maintained a gentle and considerate expression, but secretly pinched someone's hand and left the airport quickly.

Chapter 62

In the black nanny van.

"Good grandson, do you know where grandma lives?"

"Selena, why don't you call your grandson again?"

"Sun Zai! How about I just call it?"

"I...I'm going to fight with you!"

"Come on! I'm afraid you won't come!"

"Ah! Dmn woman, you really beat me!"

There was a rattling sound in the rear compartment, and Lei Ming, the agent driving in front, was speechless, "Louis, I told you earlier that you couldn't beat her, but I don't believe you, now it's all right? Tomorrow's headline will be from the big beauty Picking up the plane has become an old woman picking up the plane..."

Louis, who was pinched by Selena's backhand, was full of anger, "Shut up!"

Lei Ming looked at the battle behind him from the rearview mirror, and twitched the corners of his mouth, "Selena, can you take it easy? Brother Suan, please! He still has a play, a commercial, and an advertisement this month." magazine cover..."

"I know, Brother Ming, I don't want to slap my face... Be honest!"

At this moment, Louis didn't have the handsome and high-spirited look he had when he was at the airport. He was handcuffed and his hands were pressed on the car seat, as if he had just been raped by someone.

"Selena...you forced me to..."

Selena was having a good time beating, Louis caught off guard and put the two handcuffed wrists around her neck, and then pressed down hard...

Looking at the handsome face that suddenly enlarged in front of her eyes, Selena subconsciously leaned back, with a careless smile on her face, "Why, if you can't win, just use beauty tricks?"

Just when he was about to touch the other's lips, Louis suddenly turned his head away, "Ouch..."

"Hahahahaha..." Selena laughed so hard that she covered her stomach and rolled into a ball, "Come on! k!ss, k!ss here! Isn't grandma's make-up beautiful today?"

Looking at Selena's wrinkled and pockmarked face, Louis was lying there like a dead fish, with nothing to love.

Selena finally had enough of laughing, and got up panting, "Why, are you so angry? Who told you to frame me first! Why don't I get revenge?"

"ba5tard, I haven't seen you for so long, don't you miss me at all? You beat me up as soon as we met!" Louis glared at her angrily, with a trace of grievance in his eyes.

Selena smiled, "Think about it, didn't I just tell you at the airport, grandma misses you so much!"

In order not to be pissed off, Louis finally gave up communicating with her, raised his handcuffed hands, and said angrily, "Quickly untie me, where the hell did you get the handcuffs? It's a prohibited item!"

Selena rubbed her chin, "I think I bought this from a sex toy store on Taobao! It's 20% off, only 9.9!"

Louis: "..."

Lei Ming: "..."

Worried that the two would fight again, Lei Ming quickly changed the subject, "The reporter and the fans have separated, where are we going now?"

Louis took out a small mirror to save his hairstyle, and said without raising his head, "Go back to my villa on the outskirts of the city."

Selena straightened up immediately, "Then put me down on the side of the road, and I'll take a taxi back by myself!"

"Oh, you still want to run tonight? Let me see where else you can go!" Louis gritted his teeth gloomily, pressed the central control and locked the car door.

Selena blacked out, knowing it would happen.

Along the way, the more the car drove, the more Selena felt something was wrong. Why is this direction so familiar?

"Jiang Tuhao, do you still have property in city b? Could your villa be in the Platinum Emperor Palace?" Selena asked tentatively.

Louis snorted, "Yeah, what's the matter? It's too late for me to hug my thigh now! Unless you call me Grandpa!"

Selena was a little lost at the moment.

So coincidentally, Louis's villa is also in the Platinum Emperor Palace?

For some reason, her brain suddenly started beeping the alarm, which gave her a bad premonition...

Chapter 63

After the car drove into the gate, Selena asked casually, "Louis, what number do you live?"

"Number six."

Selena was slightly startled when she heard the words, it turned out to be number six.

The villas of the Platinum Emperor Palace are also divided into three, six, and nine grades. The best is undoubtedly the No. 8 castle where the Great Demon King Lu lives. There is a large lake garden behind it, and there is also a private golf course, covering the largest area. Next is Villa No. 7 of Saul next door, and No. 6 is the same size as No. 7.

No one knew who the owner of No. 6 was until now, but it turned out to be Louis.

Seeing that Lei Ming was going to drive to the right, Selena reminded subconsciously, "Hey, Brother Ming, don't go this way, the road is blocked..."

"How do you know the road is blocked?" Louis asked immediately.

Selena's heart skipped a beat, and she gave him a calm look, "Didn't you see the warning sign next to it?"

In fact, that section of the road was smashed by a drunk driving rich second generation, and she saw it with her own eyes when she passed by yesterday.

Louis glanced at the "Road Maintenance Ahead" warning sign on the side of the road, and said "Oh".

Selena secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

Although she had a legitimate reason to live in Daniel, it was too troublesome and difficult to explain clearly, one more thing would be better than one less thing!

After arriving at the place, Selena's face was full of resentment, she really wanted to sneak home and hug Rick!

Lei Ming got out of the car and asked Louis, "There are always people cleaning here, so you can live here directly. After you return to your country, do you want to live here or the apartment arranged by the company? If you live here, the traffic may be a bit slow." inconvenient."

Selena thought to herself, don't live here! Otherwise, what should I do if I bump into it one day?

"Let's see the situation, we'll talk about it later!" Louis waved his hands impatiently, and gave Lei Ming a urging look.

Lei Ming sighed and looked at the two of them, and said worriedly, "Don't make it too late, Louis, don't forget that you have to..."

"I know, I know!" Louis ignored the wind and dragged Selena into the house like a bandit.

Lei Ming: He no longer had any hope that the two of them would be able to get up tomorrow morning...

After entering, Louis pointed his fingers with a sharpening expression, "Don't listen to Brother Ming, Selena, you must fight with me for 300 rounds tonight! See if I don't torture you to death!"

Selena gave him a sideways look with contempt, "Hehe, come here, the defeated general dares to speak wild words! I'll convince you to call me grandma!"

"Good idea! You must be calling me grandpa!" Louis buried his head and rummaged through his huge suitcase, "The latest equipment I brought back from abroad is cheap for you!"

After finishing speaking, she glanced at her with a face full of horror, "Go and wash my whole body quickly, it's so eye-catching! Do you want to use this trick to reduce my combat effectiveness? Shameless! If I lose, I won't admit it. I will follow you!" Say!"

"Low a fart, it's almost as good as lowering myself. Do you think I'll feel good if I do this?" Selena pulled off the thick wig on her head and unbuttoned her neckline. She is completely hurting the enemy one thousand and self-damaging eight hundred.

Louis turned on the big-screen TV in the living room and started to connect the wires, "I have clothes in my room, you can find which ones you can wear! Hurry up! My fighting spirit is already hungry and thirsty!"

Selena looked at his excited little face speechlessly.

When other people go back to China, they always find hot girls and lovers to have sex with. This guy is good, dragging her to play games all night long! It's a snake spirit disease!

Chapter 64

Louis skillfully installed the game equipment, took out a few bags of jelly potato chips and dried fish from nowhere, hummed a song and took a bottle of good wine from the wine cellar.

Everything was ready, he sat cross-legged on the ground, and was gearing up to try his fluency first, when the doorbell outside suddenly rang.

Louis's face turned dark immediately, and he didn't even open the door. He immediately called Lei Ming back in a rage, "Don't press it! I promise I'll be there on time tomorrow morning, can't I? Treat me like a beast every day, and don't even play games." Let's fight, believe it or not, I'm quitting..."

"Ah? Press what?" Lei Ming, who had been sprayed on the phone for a long time, was at a loss.

Louis choked suddenly, "Didn't you ring my doorbell outside?"

"I've come a long way, and I'm driving!" Lei Ming said innocently.

"Who could it be... Not many people know that I live here..." Louis murmured suspiciously.

"Could it be that the address was leaked? Be careful, don't open the door indiscriminately, what if it's the media! Selena is still with you!" Lei Ming immediately said vigilantly.

Louis cut it, and said indifferently, "That's right! So what if you see her here?"

Lei Ming had no choice but to say, "Louis, I'm not talking about you. Even if you want to help her out of good intentions, you have to be accepted! Selena has made it clear that she doesn't want to get on your boat..."

Louis frowned immediately, "What kind of thief ship! Who are you calling a thief ship!"

The doorbell outside the door was still ringing, every five seconds, very regularly.

"I won't tell you anymore, I'll open the door! Who is it this late at night..." Louis hung up the phone and walked impatiently to the living room.

Louis purposely leaned over to see who was outside from the electronic surveillance, but he was dumbfounded, as if he had seen a ghost.

"Dmn it! Daniel!!! Why is he here..."

At the gate, a man was wearing gray home clothes, a pair of slippers on his feet, and something unknown in his hand. Although he was dressed casually, Louis inexplicably felt a gust of cold wind from the glacier blowing into the base of his neck, making him shiver.

Louis panicked like a rabbit when he saw a wolf. After the doorbell rang twice, he took a deep breath and opened the door.

The moment the door was opened, the attitude that was originally careless suddenly became respectful, "Uh, why are you here..."

"Look at you." The man replied blankly.

"Oh... hurry up, please come in! Please come in..." Louis hurriedly ushered people in.

Daniel casually glanced at the game controller on the ground, as well as snacks and wine, and then sat down on the sofa.

Noticing Daniel's gaze, Louis coughed lightly to explain, "Well, this job is too tiring, it's rare to relax."

Daniel didn't pay attention to this question, and asked casually, "When did you arrive?"

"It's not long since we arrived." Louis searched for a long time and finally found a bag of tea leaves, but there was no hot water, so he could only take a bottle of mineral water from the refrigerator, "I haven't boiled water at home, can I drink this?"

"Don't worry, I'll leave after a while." Daniel pointed at the boxes he brought over, "Your mother gave them to you."

"It's fine to just send someone to deliver these things to me, why bother you to go there yourself at night!" Louis complained to his mother a hundred times in his heart, why should he send them here? I don't know if he fears this person the most? Well, needless to say, his mother must have known about it before asking him to investigate...

Chapter 65

"How long are you going to stay?" Daniel asked in the tone of an elder and boss.

Louis sat up straight, and replied politely, "If there is no accident, it should be settled in China when I come back this time. Although all the film and television practitioners in the industry are crowding abroad these days, in fact, this In the past few years, the domestic film and television industry has developed rapidly, and the market is very large, so it is necessary to study abroad, but I don't think the cart should be put before the horse, and the root and focus should still be placed in China!"

"En." Daniel nodded his head in a rare affirmation of his words.

Louis breathed a sigh of relief, and then asked with concern, "How is Rick?"

Daniel: "Not bad."

"By the way, I brought him toys and some small gifts for you. I was planning to visit tomorrow, but I didn't expect you to come first..." Louis hurriedly took out the prepared gifts from the box.

Daniel: "Thank you."

And then...then it was cold.

As a result, the sound of water coming from the bathroom suddenly became clear...

Louis scratched his head in embarrassment.

Daniel naturally understood something, and he stood up after explaining a few words, "I'm leaving, you can go back and see your mother when you have time."

"Okay, I'll see you off!"

Louis sent people out as if he had been pardoned, when suddenly there was a thunderous voice behind him...

"Louis...what kind of rotten clothes are you! How can I wear them with such a big hole in the back!"

Daniel, who had already got up and was about to leave, was accompanied by the voice, and his whole body paused as if his acupuncture points had been tapped. After a second, he slowly turned around, his ice-blade gaze piercing in the direction of the sound. shoot over...

The girl was barefoot, her hair was wet, her cheeks were flushed naturally because she had just bathed, and she was standing at the entrance of the bath in a panic. She was wearing a large men's T-shirt, which was near the right side A large piece was broken at the waist, exposing the white skin like jade...

Louis didn't notice Daniel's expression. He just wanted to die. Seeing that this god was about to leave, couldn't this dead girl come out later?

"I broke this one while riding a bike and forgot to throw it away. If you don't choose so many clothes, why do you have to pick one with a hole in it!" Louis replied to Selena speechlessly, then turned around in embarrassment. Going to Daniel, he introduced, "Well, this is my friend, Selena..."

After finishing speaking, Louis suddenly noticed that Selena's expression was a little strange.

Staring straight at Daniel was like losing his soul...

This Dmn girl, even if Daniel looks pretty good, she doesn't have to be like this, her eyes are straight...

Seeing Selena like this, Louis felt very unhappy, and said with a straight face, "Selena, this is my uncle, Daniel, the president of the Lu Group. What are you doing so stupidly? Call me!"

At this moment, Selena, whose hair was dripping with water and still clutching the torn piece of her clothes, finally found her own voice, and with an extremely mysterious expression, said dryly, "Uncle...uncle ...?"

The tone of the word Selena's uncle was a question mark, but it sounded like an affirmative sentence to Daniel's ears as if Selena was calling him uncle, so that face instantly looked like a big devil who had just washed eighteen layers of blood. Hell, the cold and terrifying aura all over his body made both of them tremble in fright...

I don't know how long this weird atmosphere lasted, but Daniel's frozen eyes fell on Selena, "The person you said you want to pick up is Louis?"

Louis next to him was stunned when he heard this, "Selena, do you know my uncle?"
