

Cruel Heart Lover Novel

Chapter 30

The opening ceremony of "The World".

The main creators of the crew were all present, the flashing lights came and went, the media was like a cloud, and there were a lot of fans outside who heard the news.

Most of the media were surrounding Susie, who played the female lead, and Zhao Sizhou, who played the male lead.

One is Empire's leading female star, and the other is the best actor of the Academy Awards. The combination of the two sides of the strait, the combination of handsome men and beautiful women, naturally attracts attention.

"Susie, we all know that you and Sizhou are working together as a couple this time. This is already the second time you have worked together as a couple. I wonder if you would fall in love with a man like Sizhou in real life?"

"Haha, Sizhou is indeed very attractive, but no, I don't have any extra heart for him!"

As soon as the words fell, all the media began to boo.

Susie announced the news that she had a boyfriend a year ago, and people from all walks of life went to dig out the inside story. They found out that the other party was actually the son of Su Hongguang, the boss of Yifeng Group. He was tall, handsome and rich, which instantly made everyone envious.

Although the fans are very sad, but today's fans are not as repulsive to their idols' marriage and love as they used to be. Most of them still wish their idols to find a lover.

Susie's popularity hasn't diminished since she made her relationship public, but instead, topics such as "tall, handsome and rich boyfriend" and "winner in life" continue to maintain popularity.

Zhao Sizhou who was next to him was also very good at answering, clutching his chest on the spot and making a heartache, "Miss Shangguan, you are so cruel, this king gave you all my heart!"

This time Susie played the female lead named Shangguan Yingrong, and Zhao Sizhou played the role of a prince.

The reporters laughed and teased Zhao Sizhou after hearing the words, and the atmosphere was very enthusiastic.

This time, apart from the actors who played the male and female leads, the one who attracted the most attention was the actor who played the second female lead, so Guo Qisheng also surrounded a group of people.

"Director Guo, why didn't you see Meng Changge's actor? Will she be there today?"

"of course."

"It is rumored that Jia Qingqing failed to audition before because you thought Jia Qingqing was not beautiful enough. Is this true?"

This question is obviously meant to provoke trouble.

However, Director Guo is also an old Jianghu, and he speaks impeccably, "The role of Meng Changge does have high requirements on the appearance of an actor, but appearance is not the only criterion. Jia Qingqing's appearance is definitely fine, but it feels that it is far from our requirements. There is still a certain gap!"

"I heard that Meng Changge's actor is a newcomer, right? Since Meng Changge's role is so demanding if she rashly uses a newcomer, can she fully control it?"

What's going on today, aren't there enough red envelopes? The reporter's questions became sharper and sharper, and they were all aimed at the second female.

"This question will wait until our drama comes out, everyone will wait and see!"

The reporters still refused to let go of this question and asked aggressively, "Director Guo, does Meng Changge's actor look better than Jia Qingqing?"

It's not over yet!

yes! She is prettier than Jia Qingqing!

What a once-in-a-century beauty, when you see Selena, let's see if you dare to brag about Jia Qingqing like that!

"Well, each has its own merits, each has its own merits... You will know when people come..."

Guo Qisheng was already getting impatient with being asked, at this moment, he passed a group of reporters and saw a person appearing at the end of the red carpet, his eyes were surprised for three seconds before he recovered, and then he smiled, "No, Say Cao Cao and Cao Cao will arrive!"
