

The Guardian's Sword By Talking Cigarette

Chapter 571-580

Chapter 571

Willow did not have time to care about the people outside the world, but she could not help. but reach out and gently stroked the diamond ring on her finger.

It did not matter if this diamond ring was worth millions.

The important thing was that she could feel the love and care that Sean had for her.

Furthermore, the middle-aged man said just now the meaning of this diamond ring was that they would be together forever, and this even made Willow feel a warm feeling in her heart.

Sean seldom said any sweet nothings to her.

Even giving her gifts was so low profile and unassuming.

When other people gave someone a gift worth a hundred dollars, they would be itching to say. that they spent thousands of dollars on it.”

As for Sean, Willow was really helpless when he told her that he only spent tens of thousands of dollars.

Although Sean did not say it, his intentions for Willow were all shown through these details.

Any girl would be very moved.

“Okay, don't talk about this anymore.”

Old Madam Quinn frowned and pondered for a moment, then she waved her hands and reprimanded everyone.

"I don't care if this diamond ring is really worth a million, Sean must leave today.

"Not to mention a million, even five million or even tens of millions, it's nothing compared to the future of the Quinn family.

"I think you should understand what I mean."

Old Madam Quinn said while looking at everyone.

"Grandma, I agree with you!"

"I agree with grandma too!"

Simon and Faye were the first to raise their hands again.

The rest of the Quinn family also nodded silently.

Even though Sean had some money, he still had to leave now.

Regarding this matter, Fion also had no opinion and silently found a chair to sit down.

"Grandma, do you still want to drive Sean away now?"

"The demise of the Bennett family has nothing to do with Reach For Will Group, and also nothing to do with that Mr. Yancey you mentioned.

"How can you be sure that Mr. Yancey will give us the agreement?"

"Are you going to drive Sean out of the Quinn family just for a few words from others?"

Willow's face was full of incomprehension. Old Madam Quinn's stubbornness made her feel very helpless.

“Even if there is only a slight chance, I’m willing to try.

“Because, Willow, I want to tell you something very clearly..

“The Quinn family can survive without Sean, but without the collaboration with Reach For Will Group, we can’t.

“So, what do you think? What will I choose? How should I choose?”

Old Madam Quinn widened her eyes and stared at Willow.

Willow, on the other hand, was stunned and unable to speak.

Old Madam Quinn had already made her words very clear.

The Quinn family could give up Sean because Sean was of no use to the Quinn family. Even if there was, it could not compare to the huge benefits brought by Reach For Will Group. Therefore, even if there was only a glimmer of hope, Old Madam Quinn was willing to try.

As for Sean, he had to leave the Quinn family.

This was not only the thought of Old Madam Quinn but also the thought of the entire Quinn family.

“Willow, in fact, Sean now has the ability to take care of himself.

“By now, there should be some money enough for him to live on.

“He was in a catatonic state before and I agreed when you said that you wanted to take care of him.

“So now, even if he leaves the Quinn family, he can live a good life.

“Why are you unwilling to give the Quinn family a chance?”

“I beg you, okay?”

Seeing that Willow did not speak, Old Madam Quinn softened her tone a little.

“Phew!”

Willow slowly exhaled and looked at the Quinn family.

Every pair of eyes were staring at her and the meaning in their eyes was very simple.

That was, they wanted Willow to agree to it.

Everyone stared and put Willow under tremendous pressure.

“Willow, Old Madam Quinn is right.

“Actually, you don’t have to insist on letting Sean stay.

“He can still survive even if he leaves now. You don’t have to worry about it.”

Fion frowned slightly and persuaded Willow.

Willow retracted her gaze and looked at the only person who might speak for Sean.

Kent Quinn!

In the two years of living, Kent’s attitude towards Sean had been pretty good.

At this time, Willow was alone and helpless and the only person she could rely on was Kent.

Just as Kent was about to speak, Old Madam Quinn spoke first.

“Willow, as long as Sean leaves.

“I promise to help him live comfortably for the rest of his life.

“With the strength of the Quill family, it’s no problem to take care of one person.

“However, if the Quinn family declines further and we can’t make ends meet in the future, then everything will be hard to say.”

The words of Old Madam Quinn sounded like a discussion, but in fact, they carried some threats.

Kent swallowed the words he had prepared originally.

“Willow, that’s it.

“As long as you can live, it’s the same wherever you are.”

Kent sighed slightly and persuaded Willow. When Willow heard this, she felt that she had no hope at all.

The Guardian’s Sword By Talking Cigarette Chapter 572

Chapter 572

She also understood that Sean could still survive after leaving the Quinn family.

However, deep down in her heart, since she did not know the reason why, when she thought of Sean being driven out of the Quinn family like a stray dog, she felt extremely uncomfortable.

“Alright! I agree.”

Willow took a deep breath, then looked up at everyone.

“Hehe. You agree? What else you can do even if you don’t want to agree?”

Faye sneered. Her expression became more and more disdainful.

Hearing Willow say this, Old Madam Quinn and many members of the Quinn family immediately showed smiles.

Willow had always been the biggest obstacle for them to drive away Sean.

If it was not for Willow, Sean would never have had the chance to walk into the Quinn family’s doorstep.

Now that Willow had finally given in, they were really excited from the bottom of their hearts. After a lapse of two years, Sean, the eyesore of the Quinn family, was finally going to leave soon. That kind of joy was simply beyond words to describe.

“Comfortable.”

Simon smiled and thought about how he would avenge the slap in the face by Sean once Sean left the Quinn family.

When Sean was still with the Quinn family, Willow was there to protect him, so he could not do anything to Sean.

C

Once things got out of hand, it would only make others laugh.

However, as long as Sean was banished from the Quinn family, then Simon would have no worries at all about whatever he wanted to do.

“Willow, you didn’t disappoint me.

“I’m really happy.

“Your late grandfather will be very happy too when he knows.”

Old Madam Quinn held Willow’s palm with a wide smile on her face..

“I don’t think my grandpa will be happy.”

However, Willow shook her head and smiled bitterly.

The words that she said startled Old Madam Quinn.

“My grandfather is more open–minded. He never was controlling when it came to marriages for his family.

“Even my father and the others had freedom of choice in marriage, right?

“So, the marriage that he personally arranged must be...’

When Willow said this, she slowly closed her mouth and did not say more.

However, the Quinn family still understood what Willow meant.

Old Master Quinn, Levi Quinn, had never made any arranged marriages for his family before Willow.

For him to arrange a marriage, meant that things were not as simple as they seemed.

Therefore, now that the Quinn family was trying to ruin the marriage between Willow and Sean, how could Levi Quinn be happy about that?

“Grandma, don’t talk about these things anymore.

“You guys are right! It’s time for Sean to leave.

“But, I’ll leave with him. I’ve been taking care of him for two years, I’m not used to it without him.”

Willow looked calm. She said as she looked up at the Quinn family.

“Willow!”

Just as Willow’s voice fell, Fion and Kent, including Old Madam Quinn, suddenly yelled loudly.

However, Willow sat on the chair with an undisturbed expression and did not react at all.

The firmness in her eyes told everyone that she would definitely not change this decision.

“Are you crazy, Willow?”

“Why do you say that?”

Fion took a step forward, held Willow’s shoulders with both hands, and shouted at her.

“Mom! As I said, I took care of him for two years, which has long since become a habit.

“Now, you all let him leave, he can indeed continue to survive.

“But, can I get used to it?”

“Two years, more than seven hundred days and nights!”

Willow slowly stretched out her palm and looked at everyone with a desolate look in her eyes.

“More than seven hundred days and nights, even a cat will have feelings.

“And you ask me to throw him out now, wouldn’t I feel bad?”

When Willow said this, her eyes became red and it seemed that she was about to cry.

However, she stubbornly raised her face to prevent the tears from flowing.

“Of course, I know the situation at hand that he has to leave.

“Grandma, you all are also thinking about the future of the Quinn family, so I’ll agree.

“However, I’ll follow him and I’ll continue to take care of him.”

Willow exhaled and looked at Old Madam Quinn with extremely serious eyes.

“You! You must be crazy!

“I want him to go, not to let you go!

“Tell me, once you leave, what will you support his living with?”

“If you leave, you won’t even be able to find a job!”

Old Madam Quinn was trembling with anger. She pointed at Willow and shouted angrily.

“I’d rather eat bread than let him live alone.

“Because he can’t live without me.

“He only has me by his side.”

Willow stood up slowly, her eyes becoming more and more determined.

“Impossible! I tell you! It’s absolutely impossible!

“If you dare to make such a decision, from now on, whether you live or die has nothing to do with the Quinn family.

“From now on, the Quinn family will have no unworthy descendants like you!”

Old Madam Quinn slapped the table suddenly, pointed at Willow, and shouted.

She did not believe that Willow would cut ties with the Quinn family for Sean’s sake.

If Willow really did this, then she would be a big fool.

“Grandma, no matter what you say, I won’t let him live alone.

“You can choose to disown me, but I’ll always recognize you and the Quinn family.”

Willow waved her hand slightly as if she had made a decision and would never change again.

Old Madam Quinn became angrier. She pointed at Willow with a trembling palm and gritted her teeth until there was a creaking sound.

Fion and some of the members of the Quinn family were all looking at Willow exasperatedly.

They really did not understand what was so good about that cripple Sean and actually fascinated Willow like this?

“I really want to know what kind of magic potion Sean gave you?”

Old Madam Quinn sat down slowly and tried to calm down the anger in her heart.

“He didn’t give me any magic potion.

“But I could feel that he cares about me and that kind of care is unconditional.

“He doesn’t need me to do anything and he has no intention to use or exploit me. He just wants to protect me.

“He loves me.”

Willow looked at the Quinn family. She shared her feelings in front of everyone for the first time in two years.

The Guardian's Sword By Talking Cigarette

Chapter 573

Chapter 573

Previously, Willow had never admitted that Sean liked her.

She would not even admit that she liked Sean.

Today, however, she seemed to not want to hide it any longer.

It seemed that she suddenly recognized her heart at the moment when the Quinn family was determined to drive Sean away.

Hearing Willow said this, Old Madam Quinn and everyone all lowered their heads. subconsciously.

They had to admit that Willow was indeed a bargaining chip in their hearts.

They wanted to use Willow in exchange for the connection of the Zimmer family so that the business of the Quinn family could be prosperous.

As for Sean, he really had no intention of using her in any manner.

He had to rely on Willow to live when he was in a catatonic state before.

However, he could survive without Willow now but he was still willing to stay by Willow's side and did those things for Willow.

This showed that Sean really loved Willow without wanting anything in return.

“Unfortunately, you can’t consider love to be everything.”

Faye sneered and spoke sarcastically next to her again.

“No! You must not leave the Quinn family.”

Old Madam Quinn was silent for a few seconds, then suddenly raised her head and said in a strong tone.

With an attitude that was somewhat arrogant and unreasonable.

“Grandma, didn’t you always say that I’m not capable enough?”

“You can find a more capable person to replace me at the branch office.”

“There will be no loss or impact on the company even if I’m not there.”

Willow said softly to Old Madam Quinn with a calm expression.

However, Old Madam Quinn could not help turning red when she heard this.

Although she said this to Willow, it was really just some angry remarks.

She was just angry that Willow made those ridiculous decisions for Sean.

This made the Quinn family feel ashamed for two years.

That was why she deliberately said those words to belittle Willow.

In fact, Willow’s ability was obvious to all.

At least, she was more capable than Simon and Faye.

If Simon or Faye were really allowed to manage the Quinn Corporation’s branch office, they definitely would not be as good as Willow.

Therefore, Old Madam Quinn would never let Willow leave.

“Willow, no matter what you say, I’ll definitely not let you go.

“Do you know why?”

Old Madam Quinn frowned and looked at Willow as she tried to calm her tone.

“I don’t know.”

Willow did not want to talk too much to Old Madam Quinn now.

However, after hearing Old Madam Quinn’s question, she still answered.

“You also know that the Quinn family had the opportunity to collaborate with the Reach For

Will Group this time because of the arrangement of Young Master Zimmer.

“And what Young Master Zimmer thinks of you, I believe you know better than us.

“If you leave the Quinn family, what will Young Master Zimmer think?

“Can this partnership still be signed?”

When Old Madam Quinn said these words, the Quinn family nodded.

This was indeed true.

Quill tried so hard to please Old Madam Quinn and even to please the entire Quinn family.

He did it all purposely for Willow.

Hence, once Willow left the Quinn family, what would Quill do?

Maybe he would definitely change his mind and even cancel the collaboration between the Reach For Will Group and the Quinn family.

At that time, all the efforts made by Old Madam Quinn would really be in vain!

Therefore, no matter what, Willow absolutely could not leave.

"Willow, I think you can understand what I'm saying.

"I'll tell you in one word, if you leave the Quinn family, then this cooperation will be lost.

"If Young Master Zimmer gets angry, maybe he'll vent his anger at the Quinn family. Or when Young Master Zimmer joins forces with the Reach For Will Group to deal with the Quinn family, what should we do?"

After Old Madam Quinn said these words, Willow became more and more silent.

"So, if you leave, it means that the Quinn family will be pushed into the fire pit.

"If you leave, it means that you'll be abandoning the Quinn family. You're leaving the Quinn family to the wolves!

"Do you wish the Quinn family to be destroyed like the Bennett family and sold off to the highest bidder at a fraction of their worth?"

Old Madam Quinn widened her eyes and shouted at Willow.

Willow was completely stunned.

Of course, she did not want that to happen.

The Quinn Residence was where she was born and raised. How could she be willing to watch the decline of the Quinn family?

She had such a pure character that she was willing to take care of Sean for two years when she first met Sean before.

She was raised in the Quinn Residence for so many years, so how could she be willing to let it fall?

Therefore, Old Madam Quinn's words really hit Willow's heart, which left her unable to utter a word.

"If you really wish the Quinn family to suffer the same fate as the Bennett family.

"Then, just pretend I didn't say these words.

"You can leave now!"

Old Madam Quinn pointed to the door as she said to Willow.

The Guardian's Sword By Talking Cigarette Chapter 574

Chapter 574

As for Willow, she was stunned and did not say a word.

Then, she slowly raised her head and looked at the sky.

At this moment, Willow felt that she was really helpless. So helpless.

However, there was no one around who could help her.

She even thought of contacting Wade Yancey.

However, after thinking about the relationship between Wade and Sean, she had no choice but to give up.

No one could help her.

Moreover, her own abilities were very limited.

There was simply no choice but to accept reality.

“Okay! Okay! I agree, I agree.”

Willow smiled mirthlessly and then nodded heavily.

On no ground existed an excellent which satisfied the decencies of both the God and the beloved.

In the face of such a choice, Willow would ultimately have to live up to one person.

The Quinn family was her roots, so she still had to choose the Quinn family after all.

As for Sean, she could only apologize to him.

“Willow, you don’t need to be too upset.

“Sean can still live after he leaves and you can go to see him too..

“So, what are you worried about? Just do as Old Madam Quinn says.”

Fion wiped the corner of Willow’s eyes. She felt a little distressed.

After all, Willow was her daughter.

It was just that she had been down this road before, so she knew even more that you could not consider love to be everything.

Poverty consumed marriage.

Although Willow felt uncomfortable now, if she chose Quill Zimmer, her future life would definitely be extremely comfortable.

However, if she chose Sean and she had to face a cripple every day in the future, what would her life be like?

Fion felt that she was doing this for Willow's good.

"Willow, the Quinn family really can't fall..

"I support your grandma this time."

Kent also sighed with some guilt in his eyes.

"Dad, mom, say no more, I know.

"The Quinn family will not fall." a

Willow wiped the corners of her eyes and sat down on the chair again.

Desperate and helpless. Completely accepted fate.

"Good! Willow, if Sean comes over later, you just speak to him and let him leave the Quinn. family.

"Didn't he say it before that he won't leave even if we drive him away?"

"He'll only leave if you speak in person.

"Let me see if he really listens to you.

Willow's eldest uncle, Samuel Quinn, said as he nodded to Willow.

“Me?”

Willow’s smile became more bitter upon hearing the words from Samuel.

“Yes! Only you can do it.”

Old Madam Quinn also nodded.

“Okay! Then, I’ll tell him.”

At this time, Willow seemed to have accepted her fate and she was completely submissive.

She was just a woman. She was powerless to resist all this after all.

There was no choice but to compromise.

Since there was no point in holding on to it any longer, it was better to get through this matter quickly.

Willow did not want to stay here any longer.

“Oh! Willow, as long as Sean leaves, the Quinn family will definitely get better and better.

“At that time, you’ll be a great hero.

“Sean will also have a bit of credit, hehe...’

Faye smiled and deliberately used words to mollify Willow.

Hearing this, Willow slowly turned her head and glanced at Faye.

“You’re so sure that after Sean leaves the Quinn family, the Quinn family will get better and better?”

Willow stared at Faye for a few seconds and asked softly.

“Of course, I’m very sure of it!

“In the past two years, our family has been talked about behind our backs by many people. They have been making fun of the Quinn family because of Sean the cripple!

“He finally regained his consciousness, but as a result, he mixed up with those strange people outside and offended the Reach For Will Group.

“If it weren’t for him, we would have signed a partnership agreement with the Reach For Will Group already.”

Faye sneered as she folded her arms in front of her chest. Her eyes were full of disdain.

“He may have done something wrong at times, but I promise, he never did anything bad. “Since you think that once Sean leaves, the Quinn family will definitely prosper.

“Then, say no more.”

Willow sat on the chair and said with a calm tone.

However, Willow’s attitude made Faye feel angry.

Ever since she was a child, Faye was not as good as Willow in her studies nor as good as Willow in her appearance.

After growing up, her working ability was not comparable to Willow’s.

Even Quill liked Willow but not her.

The combination of all these things made Faye resent Willow to the bone.

Willow's current attitude made the resentment in her heart explode.

"Who do you think you are? Why should I listen to you!"

"I tell you, you take your cripple fiancé as a treasure. But in the eyes of the Quinn family, he is. not even comparable to a piece of sh*t.

"Today, I'm telling you what I think of you!"

Faye pointed at Willow as she slammed her hand on the table and stood up.

The people next to her wanted to stop her, but Faye seemed to be insane and they were unable to stop her at all.

The Guardian's Sword By Talking Cigarette

Chapter 575

Chapter 575

"The Quinn family is famous in River City and we actually got involved with such a crippled loser.

"In the past two years, how many people have made fun of the Quinn family because of this matter?"

"Also, you, Willow Quinn, are a daughter of the Quinn family no matter what. Why do you insist to keep a cripple in the Quinn family?"

"You're shameless! The Quinn family feels ashamed!"

As Faye spoke, resentment burst out in her heart and she began to speak without holding back her words.

“Faye, mind your words!”

Old Madam Quinn frowned and scolded.

“Grandma, am I talking nonsense? I’m telling the truth!”

“Look at her attitude! She still asked me how I can be sure that if Sean leaves the Quinn Residence, the Quinn family will get better and better.

“Why? Do you think that after Sean leaves, the Quinn family will not be as good as before?”

“I tell you! As long as he gets out of the Quinn family, the Quinn family will only get better and better!”

Faye sneered. Her tone was extremely confident.

“Correct!”

Simon immediately stood up and took over the conversation.

“As long as Sean gets out of the Quinn family, within two days, the Quinn family will sign a partnership agreement with Reach For Will Group.

“In less than a month, the Quinn family will be able to restore their previous standing!”

Simon and Faye sang in the same tune and the other members of the Quinn family also nodded along.

This was the fact that was in front of them.

Wade had already spoken in person that he would immediately draw up an agreement once Sean left the Quinn family.

Therefore, driving Sean away was the first and most crucial step.

"Willow, Faye's words are a bit extreme.

"But, it does make sense.

"Only once he leaves the Quinn family will the Quinn family prosper.

"I also believe that without him in the Quinn family, it will definitely be better!"

Old Madam Quinn slowly turned her head, looked at Willow, and said.

"Grandma, I understand. You may say no more."

Willow's gaze glanced over the faces of the Quinn family again.

Simon's sneer, Faye's disdain, and arrogance, as well as the joyous expressions of the others. Including the firmness on Old Madam Quinn's face, it was deeply imprinted in Willow's eyes. "Sean, how I hope you can see how they look like at this time.

"How I hope that you can really fight hard for yourself and let them regret their decision. today!

"Let them know that they are the ones who misread you!"

Willow slowly raised her head and recited these words in her heart, but in the end, there was a bit of bitterness appeared on the corner of her mouth.

Hope, after all, was just hope.

It was two very different things from reality.

The reality was that Sean had no background and he had no relatives in this River City.

The reality was that he was just a cripple with some soldier's wages in his hand.

Including Homer Larson and others he knew, maybe it was just because Sean had some money in his hand, so they just put him off with fair words.

This was reality.

Now Willow could only recognize the reality and accept it.

Vroom vroom!

Soon, there was a sound of a car coming from outside the door.

Immediately afterward, Sean was pushed to the door by Ziegler.

"Hah, people who don't know may think he's a big boss that has a driver."

Seeing this scene, Simon pouted even more disdainfully.

"He just couldn't drive himself, so..."

Willow subconsciously wanted to defend Sean, but when she said this, she slowly closed her mouth again.

When the Quinn family's impression of Sean did not change, no matter what was explained to them, they would not believe or care.

As soon as Sean came in, he felt that the atmosphere was not right.

Old Madam Quinn glanced at Sean and frowned.

"Sean, today we're discussing family matters."

The sneer in Simon's and the other's expression was even more undisguised.

“Ziegler, just wait for me in the car.”

After Sean finished speaking, Ziegler nodded immediately, then closed the door and waited.

outside.

After Ziegler closed the door, Sean slowly turned his head to look at the Quinn family.

His gaze was calm with an indifferent expression.

Upon seeing Sean’s expression, Simon and the others felt that Sean seemed to have guessed their thoughts.

“Willow, I have a gift for you.”

Sean paused for two seconds, then suddenly shook his head and chuckled.

Fine!

Since the entire Quinn family was here, he decided to take this opportunity to clarify something with them.

As long as Willow signed this agreement, the entire Quinn family, including Old Madam Quinn, would no longer dare to treat Willow coldly.

“I think you’d better wait and give it later.

“Today, there is a very important task for you to do.”

Faye laughed with a full sneer on her face.

Although Sean did not understand what Faye meant, he had long been accustomed to the strange attitude of the Quinn family, so he did not care.

He moved his wheelchair and approached Willow directly.

“Sean, I’ve something to tell you.”

Willow lowered her head and was silent for a few seconds, then slowly raised her head to look at Sean.

“Well, I’ve something to tell you too.”

33

Sean chuckled lightly, nodded, and was about to open the briefcase in his hand.

The Guardian’s Sword By Talking Cigarette Chapter 576

Chapter 576

“Let me speak first.”

Willow paused and said through gritted teeth.

“Okay, you go first.”

Sean nodded and slowly took out a document from his briefcase.

However, the Quinn family had no time to pay attention to Sean.

“I think, it’s time for you to... Leave the Quinn family.”

Willow gritted her teeth, then suddenly raised her head and looked at Sean seriously.

Swoosh!

The whole place became silent instantly.

The Quinn family suppressed their happiness and kept silent.

After two years, they could finally drive Sean away!

Sean stopped when he heard this. His hand that had just taken out half of the agreement froze in midair.

“What did you say?”

The smile on Sean’s face gradually disappeared and he frowned at Willow.

“I said!”

Willow took a deep breath and said, “You, Sean Lennon, it’s time for you to leave the Quinn family.”

This time, her voice was even louder and reached Sean’s ears extremely clearly.

Many members of the Quinn family had smug smiles on the corners of their mouths.

Sean was also a little dazed. Soon after, he slowly put the agreement back into his briefcase.

Then, Sean raised his head and looked at the Quinn family. His gaze glanced over the faces of Old Madam Quinn and the others.

“What did they do to you?”

“What did they say to you?”

Sean’s first reaction was that he knew that it must be the Quinn family who did a h*ll of a job.

"No one said anything to me.

"We did discuss a bit about you.

"We all think that you have the ability to take care of yourself now and you don't need to stay in the Quinn Family anymore."

Willow suddenly stood up and said to Sean with incomparable firmness.

There was a hint of determination in those eyes.

"I said before that, I stayed in the Quinn family for you.

"I want to stay by your side to make up for what you've done for me in the past two years."

Sean looked at Willow's gaze and said to her with a tone that was more serious than Willow's.

"I don't need your compensation or you to protect me.

"I took care of you for two years just out of responsibility.

"And now, I've a clear conscience.

"You, it's time to leave my house."

Willow's head was buzzing. She said these words as if she had gone crazy.

Sean's eyes widened slightly and stared at Willow seriously.

He could not believe that Willow had said such a word to him.

However, the seriousness in Willow's eyes and the determination in her tone let Sean feel that Willow was not joking.

As long as the matter was about Willow, Sean could not keep calm nor could he think about the problem calmly.

“Sean, what are you still waiting for?”

“Didn’t you say before that you stayed at the Quinn family for Willow’s sake?”

“You also said that no one can drive you away unless Willow speaks in person.

“Now, Willow has spoken in person, so now what are you still waiting for? Why don’t you leave?”

Simon sneered and shouted at Sean.

Sean, however, did not even look at him. His gaze only stayed on Willow alone.

All the outside voices were ignored by him. He only cared about Willow.

“This Quinn family is blind!”

“Not only are their eyes blind, but the heart is also blind!”

Ziegler, who was waiting outside the door, could not help sighing. Then, he took out his mobile phone and walked far away.

Although Homer Larson had told him that he would be Sean’s driver from now on, he did not need to report to Homer about anything.

However, he had to report this matter to Homer.

“Willow, I just want to ask you a question.

“Did someone force you to make this decision?”

“No matter who this person is and what kind of background he has, I, Sean Lennon, will definitely make him kneel and surrender!”

Sean slowly raised his head and spoke seriously to Willow.

“What do you think you are, Sean?”

213

“It’s so funny! Kneel down and surrender? I, Simon Quinn, will tell you today...”

Simon took a step forward, pointed at Sean, and was about to speak.

“Shut the f*ck up!”

Sean suddenly turned his head and shouted at Simon.

At this moment, the strong aura of Sean burst out instantly.

The murderous aura created by the years of experience on the battlefield was even more undisguised and surged wildly.

His aura was as sharp as a knife and his deep eyes were as sharp as electricity.

Simon’s whole body trembled with fright and closed his mouth slowly.

No longer dared to say a word.

“Willow, tell me.”

Sean retracted his gaze and looked at Willow.

He also guessed just now that the Quinn family forced Willow to drive him away.

However, Wade's matter had been resolved, presumably, they already knew it now. There was absolutely no reason to drive him away because of Reach For Will Group.

The Guardian's Sword By Talking Cigarette

Chapter 577

Chapter 577

Therefore, Sean really did not understand.

"No one forced me.

"I'm just... fed up with this kind of life.

"I don't want to face a cripple all day, do you understand?"

Willow suddenly stepped forward and shouted at Sean.

Sean widened his eyes slightly and then a bitter smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

At this moment, his heart was twitching uncontrollably.

"I understand.

Sean nodded lightly.

"Good that you understood, then just leave.

"From now on, the Quinn family owes you nothing."

Willow widened her eyes and she felt as if blood was draining from her heart. Alas, she still gritted her teeth, took off the diamond ring in her hand, and threw it in front of Sean.

Sean reached out to pick it up, glanced at it dully, and had complicated feelings.

Having lived in with the Quinn family for so long, no matter how Simon and the others made. fun of him, he never felt anything.

As long as Willow cared about him, he felt that everything could be tolerated.

At this time, however, Willow said such heartless words, which made Sean only feel that something was ripped out of his chest.

"Willow, I ask you one last time.

"You, are you really going to drive me away?"

Sean slowly raised his head. His expression had returned to calm.

Willow gritted her teeth and stared at Sean. Her heart hurt as if it pierced.

He wanted to say something but could not even say a word.

Old Madam Quinn and the others were so anxious that they all wanted to speak for Willow.

"Hmph! You really thought that you were somebody?"

"You still asked Willow if she really wanted to drive you away? I tell you, the Quinn family will get better and better once you leave..

"It's something worth celebrating!"

Faye smiled coldly with a face full of disdain.

Sean ignored the words of others and just waited for Willow's answer.

"You will only drag down the Quinn family.

"Once you leave, the Quinn family will definitely be better." Willow took a deep breath, then looked at Sean and said.

"Alright!"

Hearing this answer, Sean slowly leaned back on the wheelchair with an inexplicable smile on his face.

age

"In the past, I was on the battlefield and I was named the commander at the of fifteen. "Old Master Quinn, Levi Quinn, has begged my adoptive father many times to make this marriage with the Quinn family.

"My adoptive father thought that Old Master Quinn's achievements were outstanding and he had made great contributions, so my adoptive father agreed.

"But how did he ever know if the descendants of the Quinn family are really all elite and outstanding people?

"In the past, when I was at my best, it was the Quinn family who begged me.

"Now when I'm down, the one who steps and tramples on me the most is the Quinn family."

Sean's expression was calm. He said these words in a calm tone.

However, for some unknown reason, the Quinn family did not even have a single refutation. They were all listening quietly.

“The Quinn family took me in, I’ll remember this kindness.

“I’ll also remember the humiliation that the Quinn family has done to me.

“As for resentment, we call it even.

“From now on, I, Sean Lennon, do not owe and have nothing to do with the Quinn family.

“I only hope that you all will not regret it someday.”

Sean took a deep look at Willow, then turned the wheelchair and was about to leave.

“It’s a g*ddamn shame for you, who the hell are you talking to here?

“Don’t keep saying that you used to be a big shot in the army, you’re just a cripple now.

“As long as you leave the Quinn family, we can immediately sign a partnership agreement with Reach For Will Group. Why would we regret it?

“Not only will I not regret it, but I’ll buy fireworks to celebrate later!”

Simon sneered and said disdainfully to Sean’s back.

Sean stopped slowly and then slowly took out a document from his briefcase.

“Actually, I was going to give the Quinn family a gift today.

“But now, it’s unnecessary.”

As soon as he was finished speaking, Sean held the contract in his hand and tore it in half.

Rip!

The agreement was torn into two halves and then into four quarters by Sean.

After a few seconds, it had been shredded into confetti.

He lightly flicked his palm and the shredded paper scattered in the wind..

“Get out! Get out now!”

Simon stepped forward and shouted again.

Bang!

At this moment, the door was kicked open by someone.

Tap tap!

Immediately afterward, two teams of bodyguards in black stepped in.

The Quinn family froze for a moment.

When they passed through the open door and saw the outside scene clearly, they could not help but freeze.

A lot of cars had been parked outside the Old Madam Quinn’s house.

Each one was of great value. The Rolls–Royce in front was even more conspicuous.

The front of the cars was facing forward, all with double flashing lights that were facing the gate of the Quinn Residence.

If these luxury cars were nothing, the person standing in front of the car would definitely make the Quinn family’s hearts beat faster.

Homer Larson from Larson Pharmaceuticals. Hayden Luke, the head of Jading District's government office. Gordon Zigger, the head of the Candine District's government office...

Furthermore, Bill Wallace, the boss of the underworld in River City.

In addition to the few of them, some well-dressed middle-aged people also stood quietly and waited.

The black, the white, and the business world. Luxury cars. Big bosses. All gathered together.

Chapter 578

The Quinn family was stunned for a moment.

What was going on here?

A wealthy businessman and the people from the government office. Why did they all come to the Quinn Residence?

You would never reach out to someone except to ask for help.

These people all had extraordinary identities. If they gathered here at this time, there must be something important!

"This..."

When the Quinn family humiliated Sean, each one spoke louder than the other.

At this time, however, they all seemed to be struck dumb.

Sean frowned slightly and turned to look at Ziegler.

These people were not called by him, so apart from Ziegler, there was no one else.

Sure enough, Ziegler's face turned red and he bowed his head a little embarrassedly.

Sean retracted his gaze and shook his head slightly. In fact, Ziegler had no intention of doing

1. SO.

Therefore, Sean would not blame him too much.

"Mr. Larson? And the gentlemen here, may I know your reason for coming here?"

"Please come in and have a cup of tea first?"

Old Madam Quinn was silent for a few seconds but she still smiled and greeted them.

After all, as the elder of the Quinn family, she must stand up for the Quinn family at this time.

Normally, Willow's eldest uncle, Samuel Quinn, would be the one to do so, but she could not rely on him when it really matters.

"Old Madam Quinn, we don't have time for a cup of tea.

"We're here today for one thing."

Homer stepped forward slowly and the middle-aged people with extraordinary identities. around him followed slowly.

"I heard that the Quinn family does not welcome Mr. Lennon.

"Since that's the case, then we're here to pick up Mr. Lennon to leave."

Homer looked at the people around him and then looked at Old Madam Quinn and said softly.

The voice was not loud but it sounded like a thunderbolt on the ground in the ears of the Quinn family.

Old Madam Quinn froze. Fion was stunned.

Willow widened her beautiful eyes and her eyes were full of shock.

As for Simon, Faye, and the rest of the Quinn family, their eyes widened suddenly and their mouths were so wide that they could fit a duck egg inside.

Silence. Deathly silence..

In this entire place, the Quinn family, Homer and the others, as well as the bodyguards in black, there were nearly a hundred people here.

That being said, it was like a no man's land, which was extremely quiet that you could have heard a pin drop.

Homer and these people actually came to pick up Sean?

How was this possible?

As for Homer and these people, if you simply picked one among them, any one of them was a well-known and powerful person in Lumina Town.

Even if the Quinn family faced these people at the same time, they could only maintain a polite attitude and dared not cross any of them.

As for Sean, he was just a loser that the Quinn family tried so hard to get rid of.

However, at this time, the loser that they tried to get rid of was greeted by a big shot like Homer and the others!

Was this really not a joke?

“Hsss!”

This time, Simon was the first to react and then he took a breath.

Immediately afterward, the Quinn family turned their attention to Sean.

Was this really not a dream?

Sean looked indifferent at this time. He looked extremely calm.

It was as if all of this was natural.

Confusing. It was so confusing!

No one in the Quinn family would have thought that such a thing would happen.

“Mr. Lennon, if things are done.

“Let’s go, shall we? I booked a table at the Reach For Will Lakeside Hotel to slaughter a fatted calf for you.”

Homer stepped forward and smiled at Sean without looking at the Quinn family.

Homer and the others were going to kill a fatted calf for Sean?

The Quinn family was stunned again.

Were Homer’s words meant to be satirizing the Quinn family?

Sean was unhappy with the Quinn family?

Did it not mean that Sean’s staying with the Quinn family could be said to have aggrieved him? “Ahem, Mr. Lennon, can we sit down since there’s something to discuss?”

Old Madam Quinn looked at Homer and was about to speak.

However, before she could say a word, Homer directly waved his hand to interrupt.

“No need!

“When I talked to the Quinn family nicely back then, the Quinn family didn’t seem to take my words seriously.

“If that’s the case, then there’s no need to talk now.”

There was a slight sneer in Homer’s tone.

During the whole process, Sean did not say a word. He just let Homer and these people speak to the Quinn family.

“Back then? What did Mr. Larson say back then?”

Old Madam Quinn did not react for a while.

“I came to the Quinn Residence in person and told everyone.

“The partnership between Larson Pharmaceuticals and the Quinn family was brought together by Mr. Lennon.

“Did the Quinn family take my words seriously?”

When Homer said this, Old Madam Quinn froze for a moment.

Willow suddenly widened her eyes, raised her head, and looked at Sean.

Immediately afterward, she turned to look at the Quinn family.

When the Quinn family met Willow's eyes, they all lowered their heads with a light cough.

They did not inform Willow's family about this.

Therefore, Willow did not even know that the partnership of Larson Pharmaceuticals and the Quinn family was brought together by Sean. Now, the truth was finally revealed.

The Guardian's Sword By Talking Cigarette

Chapter 579

EVE

Chapter 579

Sean did not lie to her.

It was just that the Quinn family kept this matter from her.

As for why, they probably did not want Willow to change her impression of Sean?

At this time, Willow finally understood everything.

Sean had never lied to her. The collaboration with Larson Pharmaceuticals had nothing to do with Quill Zimmer.

All of them were brought by Sean!

The more Willow thought about it, the more guilty she felt.

However, now that she had said those heartless words to Sean, would Sean still forgive her?

"Willow, what's done is done. Don't think so much about it."

Fion walked slowly to Willow's side and said with a sigh.

It was only now that she really realized what kind of existence Sean was.

At least, he was definitely not a useless loser as what the Quinn family said!

What kind of loser could afford a luxury Bentley car? What kind of loser could spend tens of millions of dollars to buy a villa?

What kind of loser could let Larson Pharmaceuticals and other big shots come to meet them in person?

If such a person was called a loser, then she, Fion Wilson, was also willing to be a loser!

However, things had developed so far that there was absolutely no way back.

Old Madam Quinn must also have her own plans.

"Mom..."

Willow clenched her palm slightly and gave Sean a deep look.

At this time, Sean did not look at her at all.

The corners of Willow's mouth showed bitterness. Yes, she said such heartless words to Sean. just now, so Sean would definitely hate her, right?

"At that time, because of Mr. Lennon, the Larson Pharmaceuticals was willing to lose their own profits and let the Quinn family gain the benefits.

"Since Mr. Lennon is about to leave the Quinn family now, then I'll unilaterally suspend the collaboration."

After Homer finished saying this, he slowly stepped forward and was about to wheel Sean out.

“Mr. Larson, if you do this, you’ve to pay a large amount for the penalty!”

Simon suddenly stepped forward and shouted at Homer.

The middle-aged people around Homer could not help but sneer.

Sure enough, you could not be too kind to people, or you would end up turning against each other.

The collaboration between the Larson Pharmaceuticals and the Quinn family was originally because the Larson Pharmaceuticals gave up all its own interests and completely let the Quinn family take the benefits.

It was fine if the Quinn family did not know how to be grateful, and now, they still required Homer to pay the penalty.

This was really a bit ridiculous.

If the descendants of the Quinn family continued to behave this way, no one would be able to stop them from falling.

“Haha! Sure!

“For the sake of Mr. Lennon, I’ll pay you the penalty.”

Homer waved his hand and smiled indifferently. Then, he stopped talking to them.

“Mr. Lennon, let’s go now, shall we?”

Homer lowered his head slightly and asked Sean again.

Sean finally moved his gaze, glanced over at the Quinn family, and looked at Willow.

“I said before that no one can threaten you to do something you don’t want to do.”

When Sean said these words, the Quinn family was silent.

If Sean said this before, it would be sounded like a joke for the Quinn family.

However, with Homer and the others supporting Sean now, their mindset had changed dramatically;

Even many Quinn family members could not help but wonder if it was the right decision to drive Sean away?

It was because of the connections that Sean showed at this time, you could tell that his status in this River City was definitely not low!

If the Quinn family maintained a good relationship with Sean, the situation of the Quinn family could be guaranteed not to fall any further.

Therefore, many members of the Quinn family were a little hesitant.

"I also said that.

"I stayed with the Quinn family just for you, just to stay by your side.

"For your countless days and nights of care over the past two years, for your tireless hard work and uncomplaining dedication over the past two years.

"So, I don't care what anyone says. As long as you don't tell me to leave, then I won't leave. "Now, I want to ask you one last time. Are you really going to drive me away?"

Sean looked calm but there was still a hint of distress in his eyes. He admitted that Willow's position in his heart was really important.

Therefore, he would ask again and again.

If it were someone else, with his character, he would not say a word at all.

“You can leave as soon as you want. Don’t talk so much nonsense.”

Simon was angry and shouted on the spot.

At this time, he knew that there was no way out, so he could only stand firmly on Quill Zimmer’s side.

In this way, the Quinn family still had a chance to survive.

Otherwise, if they offended Homer and these people at the same time, they would definitely have a hard time in the future.

Willow was silent for nearly half a minute but still shook her head.

“I’ve thought about it, you’d better leave.”

There were some things she could understand that even fighting for it was useless.

Hence, it was better to just cut it off completely.

“Okay.”

Sean paused for two seconds, then nodded lightly, turned the wheelchair, and moved towards.

outside.

“Sean, if you still have some conscience, you should know what are the things that you shouldn’t do.”

Old Madam Quinn stepped forward and shouted at Sean’s back.

The Guardian's Sword By Talking Cigarette

Chapter 580

Chapter 580

When Sean heard the words, a sneer appeared on the corner of his mouth, but he still stopped.

"Don't worry, Old Madam Quinn.

"Larson Pharmaceuticals, including Mr. Luke and the others, will not take action against the Quinn family.

"So, you can put your heart back inside your body.

"I just hope that the day the Quinn family begs me to come back never comes.

After Sean finished speaking, he did not stop and directly left the Quinn Residence.

Homer and the others personally escorted him. Then, the convoy drove away.

Inside the car, Homer looked at Sean with some embarrassment.

"Mr. Lennon, I know I was a little presumptuous, but in my heart, I really couldn't stand by..."

Homer explained softly to Sean.

"It's alright. What's done is done.

Sean waved his hand slightly and did not mean to blame Homer.

Now, he was not in the mood to think about anything else.

He did not care what the Quinn family said to him.

However, Willow's words mattered to him.

Today, Willow personally said the words to drive him away. His heart was broken.

No matter what the reason, Sean had already asked Willow many times, but Willow still firmly asked him to leave.

In this case, Sean could only accept it.

"Mr. Lennon, I can see that Ms. Quinn seems to be forced to make this decision.

"So, I think you should talk to her?"

"I can help you ask her out in the name of the Larson Pharmaceuticals..."

Homer cautiously and tentatively asked.

"No need."

Sean immediately waved his hand when he heard the words.

"Whether she was helpless or not.

"I've already spoken to her very clearly.

"But she still asked to me leave, which shows that she just doesn't trust me in her heart."

When Sean said this, the corners of his mouth looked a little bitter.

Since Willow did not trust him, no matter what he said or did, he could not change Willow's decision and thoughts.

Then he could just accept it.

“Well...

“Is it true that you don’t want us to deal with the Quinn family?”

Homer thought for a while and asked this question again.

“You don’t have to do this, I’ve already got plans.”

Sean waved his hand and replied. He said that he would not let Homer and the others take action against the Quinn family.

However, he did not say that he would not let Reach For Will Group deal with the Quinn family.

The establishment of Reach For Will Group was originally to curb the Zimmer family and the Quinn family, as well as to leave a way out for Willow.

Since Willow had completely turned against Sean now, then he would not show any mercy towards the Quinn family.

From then on, he and the Quinn family had only grudges and no grace.

Quinn Residence.

Until Sean and others left for a long time, the courtyard was still quiet.

Two years ago, Sean fell into despair and was sent here quietly.

He was in a catatonic state and disabled. Moreover, he was treated coldly by the Quinn family.

Two years later, luxury cars and all the big shots gathered just to pick him up and leave.

This huge contrast really left everyone confused.

Everyone was thinking about everything just now with complicated emotions.

Everything seemed to be a dream.

“Was it wrong for us to do this?”

Old Madam Quinn was silent for a long time and she was the first to speak to break the silence.

“Grandma, there’s nothing wrong with it.

“Even if Sean knows a few people, it doesn’t mean anything.”
