

PUNISHED BY HIS LOVE

I' m Sorry My Love Novel Alternative

Chapter 2478

Suzi's whole person is stunned.

Obviously, on the other end of the phone, it was not Galia's voice, but a cold and emotionless male voice.

"May I ask who you are?"

"Are you a family member of the patient?" The voice on the other end was still cold.

Suzi was suddenly stunned: "What did you say, the patient! Who is sick! Is the owner of the phone?"

The voice on the other end was cold and stern: "Who are you, who are you from the patient, if it is the patient's family member? Or friends, please tell me, we are looking for the family members of the patient! If not, please hang up immediately, so as not to affect our work."

"I am, I am, I am!" Suzi said repeatedly To: "I'm the patient's sister, please tell me what's wrong with the patient? Where is it, I'll come right now?" Suzi's voice was already trembling.

The other end sighed: "This is the southern town closest to Hong Kong. The patient was hit by a car, and there is no life-threatening situation. If it is a family member, please come over immediately!

" Don't turn off your phone, and don't call anyone else, I'll be in your city in three hours!" Suzi said hurriedly.

After closing the line, she immediately got into her car, started the engine and went straight to the airport.

Do not!

After walking through an intersection, she realized again that it would take several hours to go to the airport to buy a ticket and go through the security check terminal. Then she immediately changed the train and went to the high-speed rail station.

Even if it is a standing ticket, it will only take two or three hours.

Along the way, she was using Bluetooth to leave messages with Rayna and Arron.

“Rayna, I have something to do out of town. You should keep an eye on the company these days. When you have time, go see Galia’s parents.” “Shaoqin, something happened to Galia. She was injured in the southern border city. I’m at the hospital, I’ve already rushed over, I think your suspicions are right, you’ll call me back immediately after driving.”

After leaving the message, Suzi drove all the way to the high-speed rail station.

Luckily for her, when she got there, there was a car that left in fifteen minutes.

It is also the fastest high-speed train.

It takes about two and a half hours to get there.

For Suzi, these two and a half hours were really a huge torment.

She was anxious and restless.

Only in the aisle, walking back and forth.

Half an hour after getting on the high-speed train, Suzi received a call from Arron, and his emergency meeting was finally over.

When Arron saw Suzi’s message, his heart skipped a beat.

In fact, just a few hours later, when Suzi first told her about Galia and her dead non-brother, Arron had already sent an email to inform him all over the world.

However, it was still a step too late.

Indeed, as he thought, that force was extraordinary.

And the three brothers of the Shu family are just puppets being used by others. There is still someone behind the three brothers of the Shu family, that mysterious person. Until now, Arron has not found out his details.

But there was one thing Arron understood.

That person came for the Fu Group.

The three brothers of the Shu family, Darius and Galia, were the first fortresses they wanted to conquer.

If the Shu family is disintegrated and Galia and Darius are scattered, for Suzi and Arron, at least they will be busy for a while, and that mysterious person is going to take advantage of the chaos to directly attack the Fu family.

But what can you think of?

In just one night, something happened to Galia.

From Suzi's non-stop calls all morning until Suzi left a message to visit Galia in a hospital in a small southern town, Arron made it clear.

The mysterious man has already made his move.

Moreover, Galia has already been victimized, and as for life and death, it is still unknown.

With a heavy heart, he sent a message back to Suzi: "Suzi, go check the situation first, and I'll be there later."

Chapter 2479

"Good!" After

closing the line, Suzi pondered silently.

She wants to be calm.

The more you encounter things, the more calm you have to be.

The time was minute by minute, as if a whole year had passed. In fact, only half an hour later, Suzi's cell phone rang again.

She picked it up and looked at it, and then connected: "Hello, Ming Zhen?"

Darius on the other end immediately said: "Suzi, I'm a little busy in the morning, you call me and ask Galia, what's the matter with you? "

Suzi: "..."

It stands to reason that the first thing in Galia's mobile phone should be Darius's mobile phone number, the first time Galia had an accident, the local doctor must have called too. Just call Darius.

But, Suzi listened from the phone, as if Darius didn't know that Galia had an accident? Remember the URL

What's up with this?

Suzi paused, then calmly said, "It's okay Ming Zhen, I have nothing to do with her."

"Oh, that's good." At that end, Shu Ming Zhen breathed a sigh of relief, and then said: "I was busy with too many things a while ago. From the death of my grandfather to the time when my three brothers came back to be a demon, I still haven't caught my breath.

Just a few days later, it's Galia's birthday. Fourth brother Fu, the children, the couple Youming, the couple Zeyan, and Joan, come to my house together, and we will reunite.

Okay?"

Suzi still replied calmly: " OK."

After taking a calm breath, she continued: "Azhen, if there's nothing wrong, I'll hang up first."

"Okay Suzi, bye." Darius's voice was normal, so Suzi couldn't see it. anything out of the ordinary.

After closing the line, Suzi immediately called Arron without stopping: “Shaoqin, you must not communicate with Darius about Galia’s accident in the southern town, understand?”

At the other end, Arron said in a calm voice: “I understand, I won’t contact anyone until I find out the real behind the scenes!”

“Okay!”

After the couple reached an agreement, Suzi hung up the phone.

Along the way, she was extremely alert. Although she closed her eyes to rest her mind, her spirit was highly concentrated.

Fortunately, everything was fine along the way, so Suzi breathed a sigh of relief and got off the high-speed rail to the local city. Suzi took a taxi and went directly to Galia’s hospital without even drinking his saliva.

Fortunately, the hospital is huge.

When she got to the place, she called the doctor with Galia’s mobile phone again: “Hello, doctor, I’ve already arrived at the place, and I’m right outside the hospital gate. Which department and ward are you from?”

At that end, the doctor’s tone was very calm: “You enter the gate and turn left, then turn right to the end, then turn left, there is an elevator. Your elevator goes to the twelfth floor. You can see it except the elevator.

” Complicated, Suzi was a little impatient.

There was a bit of complaint in her tone: “You can tell me that department directly, can’t you?” On the other end, the doctor has hung up the phone.

Suzi: “...”

Fortunately, she has a good memory, and she can remember the route the other party said once and walk down the route. After five minutes, Suzi got on the elevator and got out of the elevator again.

As soon as she went out, she could feel the silence in the ward.

Following that, Suzi also saw a few big characters written on the opposite ward: ICU Intensive Care Unit.

Suzi's heart skipped a beat when she mentioned her throat. After seeing the doctor, her voice changed: "Doctor... I'm Galia's family, may I ask Galia her..."

She I didn't have the courage to ask, and I didn't dare to think.

The doctor said calmly: "The patient is basically out of danger."
