With a sigh, he He added, "But let me tell you, she's been in the operating room for four or five almost six hours, and she hasn't come out yet." It's been almost six hours.

Isn't that the time when Suzi called Galia for the first time?

That is to say, just after she called Galia, Galia had a car accident?

This is not, we just turned on the phone and received your call before we looked for it.

Miss, can you show me your ID card? We want to confirm whether you are a family member of the injured person. If you are really worried about us, you can call the police. It is better for us to deal with these matters in front of the police. . "

Suzi lowered his head, shook his head, and said disappointedly, "No, I understand. As soon as she finished speaking, the lights in the operating room went out, and then the door of the operating room opened, and several tired doctors came out with the operating cart, and the people in the cart were covered with quilts

Doctor, tell me now! The tired doctor sighed: “Miss, when we received the ambulance mission, Miss Yan was already lying in a pool of blood. We don’t know how she was injured, but she is out of danger now.”
