

An Understated Dominance By Marina Vittori

Chapter 1661

When Tyler Juding asked Bai Ye for the sword.

The other side, the east, is a hundred miles away from Qinshan Mountain.

Adam Spanner is leading an elite force to rush to Qinshan in a hurry.

Because the incident happened suddenly, he did not have many troops, only 500 people.

However, these five hundred people are all his personal guards, they are very powerful, and there are many martial arts masters among them.

Taken together, even against an ordinary army of ten thousand people, it is not weak at all.

"Hurry! Hurry up!"

"Give me more power and make sure to get to internal energyxia Temple as soon as possible!"

Adam Spanner was sitting in the car, urging him non-stop, looking very anxious.

This reaction was a bit shocking in the eyes of the two female officers in the same car.

You must know that Lord Military God is famous for his calmness. No matter what happened in the past, he would remain calm and deal with it calmly.

what is it today?

Why so impatient?

What happened?

"What's going on with Scarlet Spanner? Is there any news?" Adam Spanner suddenly asked.

"The young lady was temporarily assigned by the family elder to perform a mission. We cannot be contacted for the time being. However, we have left a message. As soon as the young lady comes back, we will rush over to provide support." A female officer replied.

"Performing a shitty mission! I think those old immortals are deliberately obstructing it!" Adam Spanner couldn't help but cursed.

At this juncture, sending Scarlet Spanner, who is the most powerful, is obviously to divert the tiger away from the mountain.

It can be seen that the Spanner Family was afraid of offending the imperial power and acquiesced in Logan Rhys's murder.

"Master, Mr. Dustin has his own destiny. He will be fine for sure. You don't have to be too anxious." The female officer comforted him.

"It's not that simple."

Adam Spanner said solemnly: "Now the entire Stonia City is in turmoil, and even the forces behind the imperial power have begun to take action. If I am not wrong, the murderous case ten years ago will be staged again!"

"What? So serious?" The two female officers were startled.

The murder case ten years ago caused a storm in Stonia, and it is still a taboo that no one dares to mention.

It is hard for them to imagine that if something like this happened again, how many more people would die?

"Brother Dustin, Brother Dustin, you must hold on, I'll be there soon!"

Adam Spanner frowned deeply and his whole body tensed up.

Ten years ago, he was still underage and had no power. He could not help Dustin at all and could only watch the murder happen.

But it's different now. He has the ability and the confidence to fight against this unfair world with his brothers.

So no matter what, even if he threw away the black gauze hat on his head, he would keep Dustin alive.

Just like Dustin protected him many years ago.

"Crunch——!"

Just when Adam Spanner was anxious, the leading vehicle in front suddenly came to a sudden stop.

The following vehicles were also forced to apply their brakes.

"What's going on? Why did you stop?!"

Adam Spanner immediately took out his walkie-talkie and asked.

"Sir, there is a car blocking the road ahead and we can't pass." The walkie-talkie quickly responded.

"Blocking the road?"

Adam Spanner frowned, jumped out of the car and took a look, and sure enough, he found that a hundred meters ahead, a large truck was lying across the middle of the road, blocking the way.

In the large truck, stood a man wearing a faceless mask.

"Who are you? How dare you block my way?" Adam Spanner shouted loudly.

"Lord Military God, the front is forbidden, you should go back." The masked man said calmly.

"What if I don't come back?" Adam Spanner's eyes flashed fiercely.

"If Lord Military God doesn't listen to your advice, then don't blame us for being rude." The masked man said.

"Hmph! I want to see if you can stop me!" Adam Spanner waved his hand and shouted directly: "Kill me!"

The situation is critical now, and no matter who blocks the way, he will never show mercy.

Chapter 1662

"kill!"

Five hundred elite soldiers jumped out of their vehicles and rushed forward to fight.

At this moment, the carriage of the large truck opened from the side, and it was densely packed with people.

These people were dressed in black attire, with faceless masks, holding steel knives, and had powerful auras. They were obviously martial arts masters.

"superior!"

The masked man on the roof of the car swung his long sword, and the warriors in the car immediately attacked him without any hesitation.

The two groups of people soon started a fierce fight.

Adam Spanner had more troops and horses, and they were well-trained, integrating offense and defense, and his momentum was amazing.

As for the masked killers, their combat power is equally impressive. In a group of five, they not only cooperate with each other tacitly, but they are also very fierce when charging.

For a while, the two sides were fighting back and forth, evenly matched.

“Sterling Reidshu Si?”

Adam Spanner took a closer look and quickly saw the clues.

It was obvious that these masked killers were carefully selected warriors.

If it were a around the whole country sect, it would never be possible to be so uniform when fighting.

Only warriors who have undergone strict official training can reach such a level.

Looking at the entire Stonia, the only one who has this strength and this motive is the Sterling Reidshu Division.

Even powerful organizations like the Sterling Reidshu Division were mobilized. It seemed that the matter was more serious than he expected.

...

At this moment, five hundred miles away.

A remote mountain forest.

Scarlet Spanner is leading an elite team on a mission to suppress bandits.

They thought they would encounter some obstacles, but as soon as these bandits saw the regular army, they were like mice seeing cats. They immediately abandoned the stronghold and fled.

There wasn't even any decent resistance.

Scarlet Spanner easily completed the mission without losing any soldiers or generals.

Chapter 1663

At this moment, at the foot of internal energy Mountain.

Roars, shouts of death, and screams were endless.

Dustin, with one man and one sword, shuttled around in the army of 100,000 people. Wherever the sword passed, it was unstoppable.

With every sword kill, more than a dozen people fell in a pool of blood.

However, no matter how Dustin fought and how brave he was, the number of soldiers and horses around him did not decrease at all, but instead increased in number.

Like a raging wave, one wave follows another, one wave overshadows the other, endlessly, as if there is no end at all.

Even if an army of one hundred thousand soldiers stood still and stretched their necks to be hacked, it would take at least three days and three nights to hack them.

What's more, these 100,000 troops are all elite, equipped with armor and shields, so it is not easy to kill them.

Although Dustin was strong, it was obviously impossible to massacre an army of 100,000 people by himself.

Humans are not machines and cannot engage in high-intensity fighting all the time.

Every time Dustin swings a sword, he will consume a little energy.

Nothing can be seen in a short period of time, but as time goes by, fatigue slowly accumulates, and strength wears away little by little. The final result is that Dustin will be killed by the sea of people tactics.

"Hmph! Kill, kill, I want to see how long you can hold out?"

Mark Montgomery stood watching the battle from a distance, with a sneer on his lips.

Anyway, it was not his soldier who died, so he didn't feel bad at all.

With the combat power Logan Rhys showed, killing ten thousand people was probably the limit.

Once its strength is exhausted, it becomes a lamb to be slaughtered.

"I didn't expect that this guy's cultivation would improve so much after just one year of not seeing him. He is really a disaster."

Nestor whispered secretly, his face expressionless.

With Logan Rhys's talent, if he is given a few more years to develop, he may become truly unstoppable.

"Kill, kill, kill! Kill for me!"

The eight commanders commanded the soldiers and kept charging forward to kill without any fear of life or death.

They received a death order from above. No matter what, no matter how many people were sacrificed, they had to complete the mission.

Just as the two sides were fighting in full swing, a white mist suddenly appeared in the mountains and forests in the distance.

The white mist was blown by the wind and began to spread rapidly.

In just a few minutes, it had spread to the battlefield and seeped into the crowd little by little.

"It's strange, now that the sun is shining high, why is there still fog?"

The warriors of the sect who had survived before looked at the mist surrounding them and couldn't help but look puzzled.

"Don't be alarmed, this kind of phenomenon often occurs in the deep mountains and forests." A middle-aged man said.

"No! This fog...is a bit strange!"

At this time, the beautiful young woman from Feiyan Sect sniffed slightly and immediately frowned.

"What's weird?"

The white-haired old man from Jinglei Sect asked tentatively.

"The forest is so big, but this white mist is coming towards us. The most important thing is that in this mist, I smell a strange fragrance. Someone must have done it on purpose!" The beautiful young woman said with a solemn expression.

"Man-made?"

The white-haired old man's expression changed: "You mean, this fog is poisonous?"

"possible!"

The beautiful young woman nodded heavily, then reacted immediately and ordered: "Quick! Inform Mr. Montgomery immediately and tell them to be careful of the fog!"

As soon as he finished speaking, something unexpected happened.

Several of the weaker female disciples of Feiyan Sect felt dizzy and weak.

After staggering for a few steps, he fell to the ground with a "thud".

Seeing this scene, all the warriors' expressions changed.

They didn't have time to think, so they immediately sat on the floor and began to hold their breath to expel the poison.

If possible, take Jiedu Dan to prevent unexpected events.

This is a matter of life and there is no room for carelessness.

Chapter 1664

"Boom, boom, boom, boom, boom..."

Not long after several female warriors fell, many more warriors fainted and fell to the ground.

Moreover, this situation is still spreading rapidly and has reached the point where it is out of control.

The soldiers who stood in the back row and were the first to inhale the white mist began to fall to the ground one by one like dominoes being overturned.

Tens of people, hundreds of people, thousands of people, ten thousand people... A large number of soldiers showed symptoms of poisoning one after another, and it was impossible to prevent them.

Wherever the white mist passed, it was like a strong wind sweeping down fallen leaves. In just a few minutes, nearly half of the 100,000-strong army fell.

"What's going on? Why do all the people behind fall down?"

The eight commanders quickly noticed something strange and couldn't help but look shocked.

"Poisonous! The mist is poisonous! Everyone, be careful!!"

An officer exclaimed, but it was too late.

More and more soldiers are falling to the ground due to poisoning, and there is no sign of stopping.

If this continues, the entire army will soon be annihilated.

"Quick! Take the antidote!" The eight commanders roared angrily.

The medical team will always have some detoxification drugs on hand.

However, compared to an army of 100,000, this detoxification drug is undoubtedly a drop in the bucket.

Of course, there are not many people to care about at this moment, and only one person can be saved.

"How could this happen? How could poisonous mist appear in such a good place? Who is behind the scenes?"

Mark Montgomery frowned and looked around.

Because the scene was so chaotic, there was no clue at all.

"Could it be that Logan Rhys has helpers?"

Nestor narrowed his eyes, and his face became a bit sinister.

The poison in the white mist is very weak, so it won't have much impact on martial arts masters.

But it is very effective against these armed soldiers.

In a few minutes, it is estimated that 90% of the people will fall. By then, the human wave strategy will be self-defeating.

"rise!"

Finally, Nestor couldn't help but take action.

His body was shaken, and a golden light burst out from his body.

The golden light seemed to have spirituality, rapidly transforming and expanding, and in the blink of an eye, it turned into a huge glaring Vajra.

"Roar-!!"

Nestor suddenly roared, and the angry-eyed King Kong behind him also opened his mouth and let out an earth-shattering lion's roar.

Along with it, there is a powerful hurricane.

With the blessing of the sound wave power, the hurricane swept forward all the way. Wherever it passed, white mist was blown away, and it was completely filled with wind and residual clouds.

In the encirclement just now, Nestor opened a big gap in just one breath.

Seeing this scene, everyone couldn't help but be secretly frightened.

Is this the tenth-ranked man on the world-shattering list?

Just a long roar dispersed half of the overwhelming white fog, easily breaking the killing trap.

This strength is truly terrifying!

"Who is pretending to be a ghost here? If you have the ability, come out and see him!"

Nestor suddenly spoke, and his voice carried a special wave, which instantly spread throughout the mountain range, with a long echo.

For a moment, birds flew everywhere in shock.

"You bastard of the imperial court, take your people and get out of here, otherwise, I will let you all die here!" A clear female voice came from afar.

Immediately afterwards, a giant black eagle soared into the sky from a distance at an extremely fast speed.

Everyone took a closer look and saw a young girl sitting on top of the giant eagle.

It was Abigail who arrived in time!

Chapter 1665

Abigail rode a black giant eagle, constantly circling over everyone's heads.

A pair of cold eyes looked down at the dense crowd underground.

Because Nestor took action in time, the poisonous fog just poisoned only half of the people.

Of course, with her methods, it would not be difficult to poison the remaining half of the people.

The thing that the Mystical Order is least afraid of is the human sea tactic.

"Abigail?"

Looking at the girl riding an eagle in the sky, Dustin couldn't help but be a little surprised.

Unexpectedly, the one who arrived fastest was himself, his apprentice.

"Uncle, are you okay?" Abigail asked from the distance.

"It's okay, I can still hold on." Dustin responded with a smile.

While talking, he took out a pill and threw it into his mouth.

He had been killing a lot just now, which had consumed a lot of energy. Both his energy and physical strength needed to be replenished.

Fortunately, he always has various elixirs on him, which can just be used to make up for the lack of strength.

"Girl, who are you? How dare you meddle in your own business here?" Nestor raised his head.

"Trying to trick me? Do you think I'm stupid?"

Abigail sneered: "Old man, I still say the same thing, the people who brought you get out quickly, or I will spill the poison and kill all of you!"

"Huh! I'm not old, but my tone is not young. Do you know who we are?" Nestor said with a cold face.

"Who are you that has nothing to do with me? If you keep nagging me, I will poison you!" Abigail shouted.

"Arrogant!" Nestor was angry.

I saw him raise his hand and slap it into the air.

"Buzz——!"

A golden palm shadow instantly shot out, pierced the sky, and directly hit the black giant eagle that Abigail was riding.

Just when he was about to hit the target, he saw a "whoosh", and a white sword light cut from the side and struck the golden palm shadow hard.

"boom!"

There was a loud bang.

The sword light and palm shadow exploded, turning into dots of light waves and dissipating.

The one who drew the sword was naturally Dustin.

"Ah! You old bastard actually carried out a sneak attack? How shameless!"

Seeing that the situation was not good, Abigail immediately controlled the giant eagle and rose a certain distance again. At the same time, she took out a black ball and smashed it into the ground, cursing: "I'll poison you to death!"

The black ball landed with a bang at an extremely fast speed, and then exploded on the spot with a bang.

In an instant, a large amount of black mist spurting out, covering a hundred meters in radius like a scourge, and it continued to expand.

The skin of soldiers exposed to the black mist quickly began to rot and suppurate, and their flesh and blood fell off piece by piece.

In just a few breaths, white bones can be seen.

Not only the skin and flesh, but also the clothes and armor will be corroded bit by bit by the black mist.

Its powerful toxicity is simply terrifying.

"ah-!"

"My body? My body is melting!"

"Save me? Who will save me?!"

Wherever the black mist passed, there was screams and wails.

The armed soldiers fell to the ground row after row, rolling in pain.

The attack of this kind of corrosive poison is more unbearable than torture, especially the terrible visual impact, which is even more terrifying.

"Quick! Get out of the way! Don't touch the black mist!"

The remaining survivors looked horrified and moved away from the poisonous mist, for fear of being contaminated at all.

Chapter 1666 -

The black mist bomb Abigail just threw was a hundred times more vicious than the white mist created before.

White mist is a chronic poison. After poisoning, the limbs will become weak and the person will fall unconscious. If rescued in time, there is still a chance of survival.

But the black mist is different. Its powerful corrosiveness can turn a living person into a corpse in just a few seconds.

And it was still the kind of corpse that was mutilated with blood and flesh and had no human shape.

“What a witch!”

Mark Montgomery looked at Abigail above her head and gritted her teeth with hatred.

A poisonous mist bomb wiped out elite soldiers several hundred meters away. This killing efficiency was simply astonishing.

If the opponent throws a few more, 99% of the people here will probably not be spared.

“How’s it going? You know how powerful this girl is, right?”

Abigail rode a giant eagle and shouted condescendingly: “Old man, if you know what’s going on, get out of here right away, or I’ll throw down a few more poisonous mist bombs and make sure you die without a burial place!”

As she spoke, she took out a few more black balls and shook them in her hand, full of threats.

The soldiers underground were frightened and scattered, looking for bunkers to hide.

However, there is no suitable hiding place in this wilderness to prevent the poisonous mist from invading.

The so-called bunker is just self-comfort.

“Master Wei, what should we do now? How about we withdraw first?”

A commander ran forward sweating profusely, with panic on his face.

If they were dealing with Logan Rhys, they could move forward bravely with their large number of soldiers and generals.

But the problem was that Abigail’s poison was so powerful that they couldn’t even see anyone, so they suffered numerous casualties and died in such a miserable state that they really couldn’t withstand it.

They were all soldiers brought out by themselves, so naturally they couldn’t bear to die in vain.

“withdraw?”

Nestor glanced coldly: “The order from above is to kill Logan Rhys at all costs. Are you planning to become deserters?”

“Master Wei! We are not trying to escape, we are just planning to stay away from the danger for the time being. It will not be too late to carry out the mission after we find a way to detoxify.” The commander explained.

“A hundred thousand troops were forced to flee by a little girl. If word of this gets out, how will your eight commanders lose their face? Where is the majesty of the royal family?” Nestor said coldly.

“Master Wei, what do you think we should do? Our brothers can’t sacrifice their lives in vain, right?” the commander said with a sad face.

Neither advancing nor retreating, what should we do?

“A death order has been issued from above. Even if all 100,000 people die today, we must not take a step back!” Nestor’s eyes were cold.

“ah?”

Hearing this, the leader was dumbfounded.

If they can’t retreat even if they all die, wouldn’t they be treated as cannon fodder?

“Sir! The general’s military orders will be ignored. I can’t just watch my brother die in vain, so I have no choice but to disobey the order!”

The commander clasped his fists, stopped talking nonsense, turned around and left, shouting at the same time: “Brothers from the Red Letter Battalion, listen to my order and all retreat!”

“Escape from battle and disturb the morale of the army. You should be killed!”

Nestor suddenly reached out, grabbed the commander’s neck, and squeezed hard.

“Click!”

With a crisp sound, the commander’s neck was broken on the spot, and his entire head was torn off, with blood splattering everywhere.

His headless body trembled slightly before finally falling to the ground.

“Whoever dares to disobey and disrespect orders will be punished!”

Nestor grabbed the commander’s head and threw him directly into the Red Letter Camp.

This bloody and brutal scene shocked everyone, and they were so angry that they dared not speak out.

If you retreat now, you will not only be killed, but you will also be stigmatized as a deserter.

By then, not only will there be no pension, but the family members will also suffer.

So now they have no choice, even if they die, they have to fight hard!

Chapter 1667 -

After everyone was calmed down, Nestor glanced at the sky again and said coldly: “Little girl, I don’t believe that the poison in your hand can kill everyone here. If you really have this ability, even though Take action.”

“What? You don’t even care about the lives of your subordinates?” Abigail frowned slightly.

She has many types of poisons on her, but unfortunately they are not large in quantity.

Especially the corrosive poison that was just released. There are only three in hand. Even if you throw them all away, it is impossible to destroy all the enemies.

That’s why she made all kinds of threats to try to scare off the enemy.

But she didn’t expect that Nestor was so cruel and ruthless and didn’t care about the life and death of the people around him.

“The people present are all brave men who are not afraid of life and death. As long as they can complete their mission, I believe they are willing to sacrifice themselves.” Nestor said calmly.

“That’s right!”

Mark Montgomery shouted loudly: “Witch! I advise you not to meddle in other people’s business, and get out of here immediately, otherwise you will die today!”

“Huh! What a bunch of heartless people! Since you are seeking your own death, don’t blame me!”

Abigail’s pretty face turned cold, she stopped talking nonsense, and hit Nestor and his group with three poisonous fog bombs.

As the saying goes, to capture the thief first, capture the king. As long as Nestor and Mark Montgomery are killed, I believe these soldiers will defeat themselves.

“Master Wei! Flash!”

Seeing the poisonous mist bombs falling, Mark Montgomery’s complexion changed and she quickly retreated, fearing that she would be contaminated even a little bit.

Although the martial arts master’s internal energy can protect him from all poisons, he does not dare to take any risks.

After all, he had seen everything that happened to the soldiers just now.

If the corrosive poison cannot be blocked by the true energy, if it falls on the body, the face will be disfigured at best, and the skin will peel off and the flesh will rot at worst.

“snort!”

Nestor did not dodge or avoid.

The huge angry-eyed King Kong broke out of his body again, then waved his huge palm and slapped three poisonous mist bombs hard.

“Bang, bang, bang...”

The three poisonous fog bombs were like ping pong balls that were knocked away, flying hundreds of meters away in an instant and exploding in the crowd.

In an instant, a large amount of black mist spewed out again.

Thousands of armed soldiers were directly swallowed by the black mist.

Screams, calls for help, and wails came and went.

Those who were poisoned ran around, while those who were not poisoned retreated crazily, fearing that they would be implicated.

Soon, the entire battlefield was in chaos.

After the previous horrific experiences, many soldiers had lost their fighting spirit and their bodies could not stop shaking.

No matter how well-trained they are, they are still human.

People will be afraid, fearful, and have all kinds of negative emotions.

They would rather fight the enemy head-on and spill their blood on the battlefield than be poisoned to death for no apparent reason.

“Let’s see how much you can block!”

Abigail didn’t give up. She moved her hands and found a row of white beads between her fingers, then threw them down.

“Bang, bang, bang, bang, bang...”

The white beads suddenly exploded before they even hit the ground.

A large amount of white mist spurted out, covering a distance of hundreds of meters in the blink of an eye, blocking everyone’s sight.

Although the white poisonous mist is not as ferocious as the black poisonous mist, it is superior in its large amount and wide coverage.

“Uncle! Let’s go!”

While the black and white poisonous fog disturbed the crowd, Abigail piloted the black giant eagle and swooped down from high altitude, flying in the direction of Dustin.

The poison on her body has been exhausted, and the best option now is to take Dustin and run away.

Seeing Abigail swooping down, Dustin reacted quickly. With a little step, he jumped directly into the air and landed firmly on the back of the giant eagle.

“Xiao Hei! Get out of here quickly!”

Abigail patted the giant eagle on the back.

The giant eagle screamed, its huge wings suddenly fluttered, and it instantly raised its body and flew away at an extremely fast speed.

“Great! It’s finally safe!” Abigail looked happy.

Chapter 1668

Looking back, I found that Nestor and others were still struggling in the white mist, and they couldn’t even tell their direction.

“careful!”

At this time, Dustin’s expression suddenly changed and he immediately stood in front of Abigail.

The whole body’s true energy spurted out, forming a Xuanwu shield on the body surface.

“call out–!”

The next second, a sharp black arrow pierced the sky, pierced the body of the giant eagle with lightning speed, and then hit the Xuanwu shield with its remaining force.

“boom!”

There was a loud bang.

The Xuanwu shield exploded on the spot, and the powerful impact directly knocked Dustin and the two away.

The giant eagle, which was pierced by a sharp arrow in the chest, died suddenly on the spot and fell from a high altitude without even letting out a scream.

"Xiao Hei!"

Abigail exclaimed.

This giant eagle is the mount of the Sorceress of the Mystical Order, and it is a relic left by her mother.

She usually cherishes the giant eagle very much and even regards the giant eagle as a friend. She never expected that she would die here today.

"call out-!"

Along with a sound of breaking through the air, a second black arrow shot out from the woods and suddenly hit Dustin and the two who were still in the air.

This arrow is faster and more powerful, and contains the power to destroy the world.

Wherever the arrow passed, even the space was distorted.

"The sky!"

Dustin pointed his sword forward a little, and the sword in the sky behind him was instantly unsheathed, turned into a black light, and collided heavily with the arrow.

"boom!"

There was another loud noise.

The black arrow exploded, and Dustin's Sky Sword was sent flying dozens of meters away, spinning in the air.

"What a powerful force!" Dustin looked solemn.

His Sky Sword was indestructible and could easily break whatever it encountered in the past.

Unexpectedly, he was shot back by an arrow today and almost lost control.

The strength of this archery man is truly unfathomable!

"Who stabbed someone in the back? Get out of here!"

Dustin shouted towards the mountains and forests in the distance.

"Hahaha....."

Accompanied by a burst of laughter.

A middle-aged man with a thin build, dressed in fine clothes, suddenly rose into the air and landed firmly on the leaves of a big tree.

Its body floats with the wind, as light as a feather.

There is no breath leaking from the whole body, as if heaven and earth are integrated into one, and there is no trace of reality or reality at all.

"Did you just kill my Xiaohei?" Abigail gritted her teeth, her face full of anger.

"It's just a beast. If you kill it, you'll kill it." The middle-aged man in fine clothes said calmly.

"You dare to kill my Xiao Hei, I want you to pay with your life!"

Abigail roared angrily and was about to step forward to take revenge, but Dustin reached out to stop him: "Don't be impulsive! This person is not simple!"

"Hehehe... Little prince, we meet again after ten years of separation." The middle-aged man in rich clothes said with a smile.

"Who are you?" Dustin asked in a deep voice.

"My surname is Sterling, and my given name is Reid Shu." The middle-aged man in fine clothes bowed his hand.

"Are you Sterlingyang Shu?!" Dustin's pupils shrank and his expression became more solemn.

Sterling Reidshu, a powerful grand master, is currently the director of the Sterling Reidshu Department.

Shocking list, ranked eighth!

Chapter 1669 -

Looking at the smiling, harmless man in front of him, Dustin's heart instantly sank to the bottom.

Nestor is already extremely difficult to deal with, but unexpectedly, Sterling Reidshu will appear again.

You know, Sterling Reidshu has been in charge of Wusi for many years. Not only is his strength unpredictable, but he is also a ruthless character that makes people laugh.

All sects must obey their orders, and anyone who disobeys them will be suppressed by the Sterling Reidshu Division, and in serious cases, the sect may be exterminated.

"It seems that the young prince still remembers Xiaguan. It is really an honor for Xiaguan." Sterling Reidshu looked like a tiger with a smile on his face.

"I didn't expect that even the director of the Thompsontang Town Military Division was dispatched. The Dragon Guard Pavilion is going to kill them all!" Dustin began to slowly accumulate strength.

He had just entered the realm of Grand Master, and he had no confidence in facing an established Grand Master like Sterlingyang Shu.

Now, all we can do is try our best.

"Little prince, you should never come to Stonia alone. Without the protection of the three masters of the Rhys Family, you are just a lamb to be slaughtered." Sterling Reidshu said with a smile.

"It might not be that easy to kill me."

Dustin stretched out his hand and made a move, and the Cang internal energyong Sword made a “whoosh” sound, crossed a distance of tens of meters, and landed firmly in his hand.

“My young prince, resistance is in vain. Save yourself some dignity. If you commit suicide now, you will suffer less physical pain.” Sterling Reid wrote.

“* you! If you want to kill my master, you have to ask me first if I agree!”

Abigail suddenly took a step forward, and a black aura spurted out instantly, forming the shadow of a black phoenix above her head.

The black phoenix is lifelike and majestic, with black flames rising between its wings.

It looks extremely scary.

“oh?”

Seeing this scene, Sterling Reidshu couldn't help but raise his eyebrows slightly, and was quite surprised: “I didn't expect that you would already reach the realm of a ultimate Grandmaster at such a young age. When did the Dragonmarsh Kingdom have such a genius like you?”

“None of your business!” Abigail glared.

“wrong.....”

At this time, Sterlingyang Shu seemed to have seen some clues and said: “Your realm is unstable. It is probably not a result of your own cultivation, but more like some kind of inheritance. With the blood of Phoenix and proficient in voodoo techniques, I didn't guess If I'm wrong, you should be the new Sorceress of the Mystical Order, right?”

“So what?”

Seeing that her identity was exposed, Abigail no longer hid her identity. Fortunately, she showed her cards: “Sterling! I'm warning you, Dustin is my master. If anything happens to him today, I will let the entire Stonia City be buried with him!”

“Hehehe...”

Hearing this, Sterling Reidshu laughed again: “Little girl, it seems you haven’t figured out the situation yet. Logan Rhys is now recognized as a national thief. If you dare to help him, you will become the enemy of the entire Dragonmarsh Kingdom. You will bear the consequences.” Can you afford it?”

“I don’t care what the consequences are. If anyone wants to hurt my master, I will kill his whole family!” Abigail said sternly.

“How stubborn!”

Sterling Reidshu shook his head: “It seems that I have to find an opportunity to give your Mystical Order a look. At least I have to let you understand who is the real master of the Dragonmarsh Kingdom.”

“Hmph! Do you think I’m afraid of you?!” Abigail was not afraid at all.

The main altar of Mystical Order is located in the primeval forest, which is surrounded by dangers and is easy to defend but difficult to attack.

No matter how many soldiers and horses there are, as long as they dare to trespass into the territory of the Mystical Order, they will never return.

“Master Sterling, you came at the right time.”

At this time, Nestor had walked out of the white mist and appeared behind Dustin and the two of them, and said loudly: “These two are so scheming that they almost escaped. In order to avoid long nights and long dreams, how about we join forces to eliminate the trouble as soon as possible?”

“Master Wei, after all you are the number one master in the palace, how can you not even deal with these two little kids?” Sterling Reidshu said with a half-smile.

“The number one master in the palace is just a false name. In front of Master Sterling, he is not worth mentioning at all.”

Nestor said in a neither humble nor arrogant tone: “Besides, today is a very important matter, so we should focus on completing the task. We can’t be careless in the slightest.”

“Since Mr. Wei has said so, please take action first, I will be on the side to help you capture the formation.” Sterling Reidshu was unmoved.

Chapter 1670 -

Hearing this, Nestor couldn't help but frown slightly, but he quickly returned to normal and said calmly: “Okay, it's all up to Mr. Sterling's arrangement.”

Although some were dissatisfied with Sterlingyang Shu's cold-shouldered look on, with his strength, it was not a problem at all to deal with Dustin and Abigail.

At most it would take some effort.

“Young prince, you can't escape today, so let me send you to the west!”

Before Nestor finished speaking, the whole thing turned into an afterimage and suddenly rushed towards Dustin.

“Abigail! Keep an eye on Sterlingyang Shu for me, I will deal with this gelding!”

Dustin's Cangqiong sword trembled, and he stabbed forward without dodging or dodging.

The two of them had made an agreement to fight a year ago, and today they just took advantage of this opportunity to fight to the death!

“Bang, bang, bang...”

The two figures soon intertwined and started a fierce battle.

Dustin's swordsmanship is superb and he has received the true inheritance of the Sword Immortal. With the blessing of the sword internal energyqiong, his attacks are particularly sharp, and he can kill with every move.

On the other hand, Nestor practices Daluo Diamond Kung Fu, which is a top defensive technique.

Once practiced, it will be invulnerable to weapons, water and fire, and will be protected by a diamond, making it extremely powerful.

The most important thing is that Nestor has maintained the body of a boy for decades and has never leaked Yuanyang. It can be said that he has practiced the Da Luo Vajra Kung Fu to the extreme.

Even if Dustin had the Cang internal energyong Sword, it would be difficult to break through the defense for a while.

When Dustin and Nestor were fighting fiercely, Abigail did not dare to be distracted and stared at Sterlingyang Shu.

They are both ultimate Grandmasters, but her realm is that she has inherited the power of the Phoenix. Although it is very powerful, she has not fully digested it because the time is too short.

She has no problem dealing with ordinary ultimate Grandmasters, but against a top expert like Sterlingyang Shu who is on the astonishing list, she has no chance of winning.

Of course, even if she knew she couldn't beat him, she wouldn't back down.

Once she retreats, Dustin will be attacked from both sides and will definitely die!

"Little girl, you want to fight me?" Sterling Reidshu raised his eyebrows slightly.

"So what?" Abigail said with a cold face.

"Haha...your courage is commendable."

Sterling Reidshu smiled: "Okay, today I will give you a chance. If you can block three of my arrows, I will spare your life."

"Tch! It's not certain who will die!" Abigail said sarcastically.

"First arrow, get ready."

Sterling Reidshu had a playful smile on his lips, and at the same time made a bow and arrow gesture.

The strange thing is that there was no bow and arrow in his hand, but just after the movement was made, a large black bow appeared out of thin air.

On the fully drawn bow string, there was also a sharp arrow that exuded a cold light.

“call out!”

Sterling Reidshu loosened his fingers, and the black sharp arrow shot out instantly, carrying the sound of wind and thunder, and suddenly hit Abigail.

Abigail's pupils shrank and she immediately dodged sideways.

However, just as she dodged, the black arrow suddenly turned and hit Abigail's chest accurately, as if it had a spiritual power.

“boom!”

There was a loud bang.

Abigail flew more than ten meters away in an instant and hit a boulder heavily. She vomited blood and looked pale.
