

An Understated Dominance By Marina Vittori

Chapter 1831

“Although the method is good, it has a drawback.”

Nangong Po said thoughtfully: “The new king’s succession requires official permission and hundreds of officials to testify, otherwise it will be difficult to convince others. To obtain the official will, it takes at least three days to invite hundreds of officials to testify. Days, given our current situation, we simply can’t last that long.”

“Isn’t it? Is it so troublesome for the new king to succeed?”

Cornelius Ao frowned slightly: “Everyone knows that Thorian is the son of the prince, so it is natural for him to succeed the Prince of West Lucozia.”

“Yes! They say that emergency measures should be followed, and extraordinary things should be done in extraordinary times.” Zhou Bo echoed.

“You two think that to succeed to the throne of West Lucozia is to choose the king of the mountain? You just need to plant a flag, drink a few bowls of wine, and say a few heroic words and that’s it? Don’t be ridiculous!”

Nangong Po said speechlessly: “The throne of West Lucozia is not only related to the people of West Lucozia, but also to the people of the world. If West Lucozia is in chaos, the world will be in chaos. If West Lucozia is safe, the world will be safe. It is no exaggeration to say that our West Lucozia The weight of the throne is no less important than the throne of the official family. For such an important position, how can you just choose it? Just sit down? “

“What Marquis Nangong said makes sense. Although I really want Thorian to succeed to the throne and stabilize the morale of the army, succession to the throne is not a child’s play. If it is too hasty, it will be counterproductive and make people’s talk.” Princess Elara shook his head.

There are no rules and no rules. The position of King of West Lucozia is too important. There is no official edict and no witnesses from civil and military officials. It doesn't count at all.

"You just stick to the rules, look forward and backward, and miss opportunities." Cornelius Ao said angrily.

"If the young prince cannot succeed to the throne now, won't we be doomed once Dustin Kate's army comes to the border?" Zhou Bo frowned.

"Marquis Wen, don't you have another idea? Just tell him straight away and stop trying to keep it secret." Nangong Po looked at Wen Shun again.

"The second method is a little more complicated and more risky. The success rate is only about 50%." Wen Shun said.

"Fifty percent? It's a bit low, but you can give it a try. What can you do?" Cornelius Ao asked tentatively.

"Go straight to the beheading operation."

Wen Wen said in an astonishing voice: "Our biggest threat now is Dustin Kate. If he dies and the trees fall and the hozens scatter, the generals under his command will not pose much of a threat, and the crisis in the palace will naturally be lifted."

"Decapitation operation?"

Cornelius Ao touched his chin and said solemnly: "It seems feasible, but the risk is too great. Dustin Kate is surrounded by many soldiers and masters. If we want to assassinate him, it will undoubtedly be as difficult as climbing to the sky."

"Yes! Now that the two sides have started a war, Dustin Kate will definitely be cautious and guard against assassinations. The strongest among us is Wu Linghou." Zhou Bo took advantage of the situation and looked at Nangong Po.

"Hey! What do you think I'm doing? I don't want to die!" Nangong Po refused.

Dustin Kate is likely to have a powerful person at the Grand Master level hidden beside him.

With his strength, let alone whether the assassination can be successful, even if it is successful, there will be only death in the end.

It was obviously impossible for him and Dustin Kate to trade their lives.

“If Wu Linghou doesn’t go, then who else is suitable?”

Zhou Bo frowned and said: “Let’s go for a while. Where can we find a powerful assassin who is not afraid of death?”

“Let me go. I am certain that I can trade with Dustin Kate.” At this time, Shi Changning suddenly stood up.

As the captain of the Royal Guards, his strength is infinitely close to that of the Grand Master.

If you try your best, you will be able to fight even a real grand master.

Chapter 1832

Shi Changning’s voice instantly attracted everyone’s attention.

Princess Elara opened her mouth but stopped talking.

Shi Changning is a personal guard of the palace and someone she trusts very much. To be honest, she doesn’t want him to risk his life.

But in this case, there seems to be no more suitable candidate.

“General Shi is powerful and loyal. If he assassinates Dustin Kate, he does have a slight chance.” Cornelius Ao nodded.

As the captain of the prince’s personal guard, there is no doubt about his strength, and his loyalty is even more so.

“General Shi, it’s not that I look down on you, but you alone may not be enough.” Nangong Po suddenly spoke.

“Wait! Isn’t there still the legendary human killer?”

Zhou Bo's eyes suddenly lit up and he said: "The reputation of human slaughter is resounding throughout the world. In terms of strength, he should be no worse than General Shi, right?"

"No, Mr. Tyler is far better than me." Shi Changning said truthfully.

Although he is the captain of the prince's personal guard and is known as the top expert in the prince's palace, in fact, killing Tylerfu is the prince's real trump card.

The three ultimate Grandmasters of West Lucozia are the Sword Immortal, the Drunken Maniac, and the Human Slaughterer.

Now that the Sword Immortal has fallen and Jiu Kuang has disappeared, the remaining Ren Tu has become one of the strongest men in West Lucozia, and his strength has already reached the Grand Master level.

He was ashamed of himself.

"Great! Since Human Tu is powerful and even more powerful than General Shi, wouldn't it be more reliable to ask someone to slaughter the horse?" Zhou Bo said in high spirits.

"I'm sorry. Mr. Tyler has been missing since he left the palace. It's impossible for Mr. Tyler to take action." Shi Changning replied.

"Missing?"

Cornelius Ao frowned: "What the hell is this Albert doing? The palace is in danger, and this guy actually disappeared. It's really unreasonable!"

"Human Tu, didn't you realize that the situation was not good and ran away?" Zhou Bo asked tentatively.

"Marquis Zhou, be careful what you say!"

Shi Changning's face turned cold: "Master Tyler is loyal and devoted to the country and the people. He will never become a deserter!"

"Sorry, sorry, I just can't speak sometimes with my mouth." Zhou Bo smiled coquettishly.

I almost forgot the prestige of Tu Tylerfu among the soldiers and civilians of West Lucozia.

Although he has retreated behind the scenes for many years, his glorious achievements can never be erased.

The evil reputation of massacre is for the enemy country. In the eyes of West Lucozia soldiers and people, massacre Tylerfu is undoubtedly the savior.

“If Albert is not here, the success rate of assassinating Dustin Kate is very low.” Nangong Po shook his head.

“I’m willing to give it a try, even if it means risking my life.” Shi Changning looked determined.

“General Shi, I am willing to help you succeed.”

At this time, a man in black walked out of the crowd.

The man holding a black sword and covered in blood was none other than Dustin in disguise.

“you?”

Princess Elara looked up and down, and suddenly realized: “Are you the mysterious master who just rushed into the midst of thousands of troops alone and captured Chen Chao and Kang Qiao?”

“Mysterious master?”

As soon as these words came out, everyone’s eyes were focused on Dustin.

Except for Thorian Rhys and Wen Wen, no one here knew Dustin’s identity.

But being able to capture the two major princes of Chen Dynasty and Kangqiao alive from an army of tens of thousands is enough to prove his strength.

Chapter 1833

“No! This is too dangerous!”

Seeing that Dustin was about to take risks, Thorian Rhys immediately stopped him.

He knew that his eldest brother was very strong, but Dustin Kate gathered a lot of masters around him.

As the saying goes, two fists are hard to beat with four hands. Once the elder brother fails in the assassination, he will probably be surrounded and killed by all the masters.

As the future King of West Lucozia, he must not put himself in danger.

“Young prince, take risks when it’s time to take risks. At critical moments like this, someone has to sacrifice. Besides, you’re just a guard, so why are you so nervous?” Zhou Bo said nonchalantly.

“I won’t do it if I say no!” Thorian Rhys almost shouted.

A powerful force of intimidation burst out in an instant, causing Zhou Bo to take a few steps back with a look of horror on his face.

Not only Zhou Bo, but also everyone else looked at each other, not knowing why.

No one expected that Thorian Rhys would have such a big reaction.

As if realizing that he was a little emotional, Thorian Rhys took a deep breath, suppressed the turmoil in his heart, and said calmly: “Uncle Zhou, the life of the guard is also life, and he is not inferior to us. We can’t let people sacrifice in vain, otherwise what will happen in the future? To convince the public?”

“Yes, yes, the young prince is absolutely right.” Zhou Bo smiled coquettishly.

But I was secretly underestimating it in my heart. Did this kid take the wrong medicine? Why make such a fuss over a guard?

“This won’t work, that won’t work either, so what should we do now? Do we have to sit back and wait for death?” Cornelius Ao sighed.

“Actually, I have a good idea.” Nangong Po suddenly said.

“Oh? What can I do?” Princess Elara raised his eyebrows slightly.

“Dustin Kate’s confidence is the Black Dragon Army, we can start from this aspect.”

Nangong Po analyzed carefully: “I believe everyone knows that except during wars, only the prince and the marshal’s soldiers can mobilize the Black Dragon Army openly. Even if Dustin Kate can mobilize the army in the name of King Qin Fang, his priority is still far away. Lower than the Marshal’s Talisman.

As long as the young prince can hold the marshal’s talisman and find several generals of the Black Dragon Army overnight, he can convince them to use them for us.

In this way, Dustin Kate had nothing to rely on and was self-defeating! “

After listening, Cornelius Ao couldn’t help but his eyes lit up: “It makes sense! Why didn’t I think of it before? As long as the Black Dragon Army is controlled with the Marshal’s Talisman, then even if Dustin Kate has the ability to reach the sky, he will not be able to make any big waves!”

“Oh, by the way, Princess, the prince’s marshal’s talisman should still be there, right?” Nangong Po suddenly asked.

“Yes, the prince’s military talisman is hidden in a safe place.” Princess Elara nodded.

“That’s good.” Nangong Po nodded: “To resolve the crisis now, the only way to trouble the princess is to invite the Marshal’s Talisman!”

“Requesting a military talisman?” Princess Elara frowned slightly.

It’s not that she hasn’t considered this before, but the Marshal Talisman is very important. With it, it is equivalent to completely controlling the Black Dragon Army.

Dustin Kate used various threats and inducements before, just hoping to get the Marshal’s Talisman.

What she is most worried about now is that if the military talisman is not properly kept after requesting it, it falls into the hands of Dustin Kate.

Then the palace’s only hope of making a comeback was completely ruined.

By then, Dustin Kate can sit on the throne openly and openly.

Even if the officials come forward, they can't save the situation.

"Princess, this is the only way right now." Nangong Po advised.

"Mom, please bring out the soldier symbols. Only in this way can we reduce the number of fearless sacrifices." Thorian Rhys said seriously.

"this....."

Princess Elara hesitated for a moment, but finally nodded: "Okay, now that the situation has come to an end, we have no other choice. Everyone, please go to the mansion and wait while I go get the military talisman."

Although it's a bit risky, it's the best option if you want to win without a fight.

Chapter 1834

In the side hall of the palace.

The four southern princes sat down one after another and waited quietly.

Everyone has a different look and is thoughtful.

Nangong Po was drinking tea leisurely, while Wen Wen closed his eyes and rested without saying a word. Zhou Bo looked around and observed the layout of the palace's side hall.

As for Cornelius Ao, he was a little impatient, sometimes standing, sometimes sitting, and sometimes pacing back and forth.

After waiting for about a stick of incense, Princess Elara led Thorian Rhys and Shi Changning into the side hall.

In his hand, he also held an exquisite red sandalwood box.

"Everyone, the marshal's soldiers have arrived."

Princess Elara put the red sandalwood box on the table, opened it and saw a golden tiger charm lying inside.

The tiger talisman is carved lifelike and full of majesty.

On the body of the tiger talisman, there is also a line of golden text engraved on it: The talisman of soldiers and armors, the left is for the king, and the right is for the cool.

“It’s indeed the Marshal’s Talisman!”

After seeing the tiger talisman, Cornelius Ao couldn’t help but his eyes lit up: “With this military talisman in hand, we can dispatch the Black Dragon Army. By then, Dustin Kate’s conspiracy will be defeated!”

“Young prince! Without further ado, quickly take the military talisman to the Black Dragon Army’s station, meet the protagonists first, and identify yourself, so as not to be taken advantage of by Dustin Kate.” Zhou Bo urged.

“The marshal’s military talisman is very important. Dustin Kate will never sit still and wait for death. The young prince’s trip will be extremely dangerous, so he must be fully prepared.” Wen Shun reminded.

“I understand. I have already discussed with my mother. I will send ten teams of spies out of the city from all directions, and I will be among them. Even if Dustin Kate is prepared, he will not be able to find me in a short time. Wait until he When I realized the danger, I was probably already at the Black Dragon Army’s station.” Thorian Rhys said with a serious face.

“That’s good.”

Wen Wen nodded, and then said: “Little prince, only you and the princess can know the whereabouts this time. You must not tell the third person to avoid accidents.”

“Thank you Uncle Wen for reminding me, I will be careful.” Thorian Rhys nodded.

“Without further delay, let’s take action quickly.” Wen Shun said.

“etc.....”

At this time, Nangong Po suddenly said: “Is there something wrong with this soldier talisman?”

“has a problem?”

Thorian Rhys frowned: “What’s wrong?”

“I remember that the prince’s military talisman didn’t look like this. Could it have been stolen?” Nangong Po said with some confusion.

“impossible!”

Princess Elara rejected it flatly: “The prince’s military talisman is hidden in the secret room. No one else knows about it except me and the prince. There is no way it will be compromised.”

“That’s strange.” Nangong Po squinted his eyes and looked carefully.

“Uncle Nangong, did you see it wrong?” Thorian Rhys asked.

Nangong Po took the soldier talisman from Thorian Rhys and began to observe it carefully.

At this moment, Wen Shun seemed to have seen something, and his expression suddenly changed: “Young prince! Be careful with the weapon talisman!”

As soon as he finished speaking, Nangong Po suddenly smiled evilly, then with a turn of his wrist, the soldier symbol suddenly disappeared.

“Little prince! Thank you very much!”

Nangong Po suddenly stamped his foot, and his whole body suddenly rose up from the ground, directly hitting the roof, and disappeared into the darkness at an extremely fast speed.

Everything happened so suddenly that no one present could fully react.

From Nangong Po receiving the military talisman to walking away, it only took two seconds.

In just a blink of an eye, Nangong Po disappeared completely along with the military talisman.

“Nangong Po is a traitor! Get the soldier talisman back quickly! Otherwise, the palace will be in danger!”

Chapter 1835

Wen Wen was the first to react and yelled loudly.

“Quick! Go chase the soldier talisman!”

Doctor Li immediately gave the order.

“Chase!”

Shi Changning suddenly drew his sword, led a group of dragon guards, and galloped away in the direction where Nangong Po disappeared.

“how so?”

Thorian Rhys was stunned and stood there, at a loss.

He really didn't expect that Nangong Po would snatch the weapon talisman, so he didn't take any precautions.

By the time he reacted, Nangong Po had already fled.

“Little prince, Nangong Po should be Dustin Kate's man. The reason why he fully supports you and helps the palace to quell the chaos is so that you can let go of your guard and completely trust him. When the time is right, he will take the opportunity to take away the weapon talisman and destroy us. Forced into a desperate situation!” Wen Shun said in a deep voice.

“What the hell! I didn't expect that Nangong Po was actually a traitor. It's so abominable!” Cornelius Ao was furious.

“No wonder Nangong Po has just been proposing to use the Black Dragon Army to suppress Dustin Kate with military talismans. He has been doing it for a long time. He is doing it to pave the way for snatching the military talismans. This guy is really insidious and cunning!” Zhou Bo shouted angrily.

“If the soldier talisman cannot be recovered and falls into Dustin Kate's hands, then we... will be completely defeated!” Princess Elara frowned with a solemn expression.

The marshal's military talisman determines the military power of the Black Dragon Army.

The presence of the military talisman is equivalent to controlling the entire Black Dragon Army.

If before, Dustin Kate still needed to use various excuses and the majesty of his connections to mobilize the Black Dragon Army.

Then after getting the soldier talisman, Dustin Kate can order the whole army openly.

By then, no matter how hard they struggle, it will be of no avail.

Once an army of 500,000 troops arrives at the city, no one will be able to stop it in West Lucozia and even the whole world!

“Mom, I’m sorry, it’s all my fault. If I had been more careful just now, maybe nothing would have happened.” Thorian Rhys looked guilty.

The marshal’s talisman was lost from his hand. No matter what, he could not escape the blame.

“Silly boy, this matter has nothing to do with you. It’s because Nangong Po hid it too deeply. None of us expected that he was actually a traitor.” Princess Elara forced a smile.

“I’m going to chase him now, and I will definitely bring the soldier talisman back!”

Thorian Rhys pulled out his knife and was about to run out.

“etc!”

Wen Shun immediately stood in front and said in a deep voice: “My young prince, Nangong Po is very powerful and extraordinary. With your current strength, there is no point in catching up. On the contrary, you will get yourself involved.”

“We can’t just sit there and wait for death, right?” Thorian Rhys frowned.

“General Shi has already gone after him. If we can catch up, we still have hope. If we can’t, we must prepare for the worst.” Wen Shun looked serious.

“Worst plan? What do you mean?” Zhou Bo asked.

“What do you think will be the consequences if the military talisman falls into Dustin Kate’s hands?” Wen Shun asked rhetorically.

“This...” Zhou Bo frowned, his face a little ugly.

“We are all those who resist Dustin Kate. To him, we are a thorn in his side. Once he takes power, we will all die!”

Wen Shun said, then looked at Thorian Rhys and Princess Elara, and said in a solemn tone: “As for the young prince and princess, although they will not die, they will be under house arrest for a lifetime and will never see the light of day again!”

“If that’s the case, it’s better to fight them directly!” Cornelius Ao said angrily.

“Can you fight the 500,000 Black Dragon Army?” Wen Shun said.

“What should we do?” Cornelius Ao frowned.

“My suggestion is to be prepared to escape first.”

Wen Shun glanced around: “If General Shi can recover the soldier talisman, it would be best. If he can’t recover it, then escape from the palace and West Lucozia first, and then make plans later.”

Chapter 1836
