

An Understated Dominance By Marina Vittori

Chapter 1851 -

"Presumptuous!"

Dustin Kate glared: "As a strong man at the Grand Master level, I don't believe that my decades of accumulation can't compare to a young boy like you!"

1

"Since Third Uncle is so stubborn, then... Don't blame me for being arrogant, please!"

Dustin stretched out one hand and made a gesture of invitation.

"Watch the knife!"

Dustin Kate didn't waste any time. He stepped forward and launched a fierce attack.

Dustin Kate's sword skills are very fast and extremely fierce. His swords are deadly and they all go towards the vital points.

Although there are no very flashy moves, they are extremely practical and have basically no flaws.

Dustin Kate was already gifted, coupled with years of honing on the battlefield and the fusion of various exquisite sword skills.

Now, he can be said to have gathered the strengths of hundreds of schools of thought, abandoned all shortcomings, and created a set of unique sword techniques of his own.

This set of sword techniques focuses on speed, accuracy and ruthlessness.

He kills enemies quickly, attacks accurately, and his sword skills are fierce and unstoppable.

Once used, thousands of troops and horses must avoid its sharp edge.

Facing Dustin Kate's powerful offensive, Dustin's figure flashed continuously, like falling leaves in the wind, erratic and elusive.

The two of them were attacking and defending, and they were fighting back and forth, making it difficult to tell the difference.

The people around were watching intently and in astonishment. In order to avoid hurting innocent people, everyone distanced themselves, leaving enough space for Dustin and Dustin Kate to perform.

After all, these two are powerful men at the Grand Master level.

Every blow has the power to crack mountains and crack rocks. Let alone a direct confrontation, even if it is just the aftermath of the battle, it can easily kill someone.

"I didn't expect Dustin Kate to be so strong. He is already a martial arts master. Coupled with his rich combat experience, Logan may not be able to get any advantages."

Princess Elara squinted her eyes and stared at the battlefield ahead.

With her eyesight, she could barely tell who was who, but she couldn't see clearly their movements because they were too fast.

"Dustin Kate, this thief, really hides his secrets. Ten years ago, he was on par with us. I didn't expect that ten years later, he would have grown to such a terrifying level." Cornelius Ao frowned slightly.

In the past two years, he barely managed to break through to the level of martial arts master.

But Dustin Kate was already a ultimate Grandmaster, and there was a world of difference between the two.

"How can he be an ordinary person if he can sit in the position of General of the Hussars?"

Wen Shun said calmly: "Besides, few of the blood of the Rhys Family are useless. Compared with Dustin Kate, His Royal Highness the Crown Prince , can be considered a real monster."

"That's right!"

Zhou Bo nodded in agreement: "No matter how talented Dustin Kate is, he is already in his forties. It is acceptable to become a grand master, but His Royal Highness, But in his twenties, at such a young age, he has such strength. Looking at the whole world, he is a unique existence." " Hehe... It seems to be the truth." Hearing this , Cornelius Ao couldn't help but grin.

Although Dustin Kate was extremely talented, he was still far inferior to a peerless genius like His Royal Highness.

If His Royal Highness the Crown Prince inherits the throne, West Lucozia will definitely be even more glorious in the future.

"Don't be too happy too early. Although Logan's martial arts talent is higher than that of Dustin Kate, he is still young after all. There is a gap of more than twenty years between the two sides. Whether it is strength or combat experience, Dustin Kate is stronger, so today Whether Logan can win this battle is still unknown." Princess Elara said seriously.

Out of consideration for the interests of the palace, she naturally hoped that Dustin would win.

But judging from the situation at hand, it is obvious that Dustin Kate is superior.

Chapter 1852 -

"The princess is right. Even though His Royal Highness is powerful, he is still too young after all. Facing an old fox like Dustin Kate, the chance of winning is not high." Cornelius Ao said thoughtfully.

Dustin is a genius, but Dustin Kate is not an ordinary person. After practicing for more than twenty years, the gap is very terrifying.

So it is still unclear who will win in the end.

"I have a different opinion." Wen Shun spoke again.

"Marquis Wen, do you think His Royal Highness has a higher chance of winning?" Zhou Bo asked tentatively.

"Yes."

Wen Shun nodded: "Your Majesty is well strategized and resourceful. If you can agree to this competition, you are confident enough to win. We should trust your Majesty's judgment."

"Having said that, there are too many changes in the duel with force. Especially for experts of the same level, even the smallest mistake can turn the tide of the battle. Until the last moment, no one can judge the outcome, not even the prince." Cornelius Ao said.

"I say this not only because of the prince, but also because of a more important point." Wen Shun said.

"Oh? Which point?" Cornelius Ao raised his eyebrows.

"Have you ever heard of the World Shattering List?" Wen Shun suddenly asked.

"Never heard of it." Cornelius Ao shook his head.

He was very experienced in marching and fighting, but he didn't know much about things in the arena.

"I know this."

Zhou Bo suddenly interrupted: "The World Shattering List is the most valuable list in the world. Anyone who can be on the list is the top martial arts expert. I remember, the World Shattering List is the most valuable list in the world. The top three are Cornelius Xuanji of Longhu Mountain, Li Yuanwu, the master of Longge Pavilion, and Bai Ye, the West Lucozia Sword Immortal."

1

"What? Bai Ye, the Sword Immortal of West Lucozia, can only be ranked third?"

Cornelius Ao's eyes widened, and he was very surprised. .

In his eyes, Sword Immortal Bai Ye is not only the most powerful warrior in West Lucozia, but also the strongest in the world.

With shocking swordsmanship, he is invincible and unstoppable.

So far, no one has been able to pass the three swords in Bai Ye's hands.

Such an almost god-like existence can only rank third on the shocking list, which is really shocking.

"Although I dare not say that the World Shattering List contains all the powerful people in the world, the top batch are basically included in it. It is no exaggeration to say that the top ten warriors in the World Shattering List are the ten strongest people in the world. !" Wen Ming said in a sonorous tone.

"Sword Immortal Bai can only rank third. The gold content of this world-shaking list is indeed frighteningly high, but why do you bring this up so politely? Does it have anything to do with us?" Cornelius Ao was a little surprised.

"I forgot to tell you, the current shocking list has been updated, and our Crown Prince happens to be ranked tenth!" Wen Wen said in a surprising tone.

"What? His Royal Highness is actually a powerful person on the shocking list? Is it true?" Cornelius Ao's eyes widened.

"Marquis Wen, are you kidding me? His Royal Highness is actually on the list?" Zhou Bo couldn't believe it.

Cornelius Ao may not know the value of the World Shattering List, but he knows very well that it is the list that all warriors dream of, and it is the lifelong pursuit of countless people.

If the ranking on the world-shattering list is correct, doesn't it mean that His Royal Highness is the tenth most powerful person in the world?

Isn't this too evil? !

"The world-shaking list has only been updated recently, so not many people know about it, but His Royal Highness is indeed on the list." Wen Shun said seriously.

"If that's the case, that would be great. I didn't expect that His Highness the Crown Prince would grow to such an extent after not seeing him for ten years. It's really terrifying!" Zhou Bo was surprised and happy.

He is now a member of the royal family. The stronger Dustin is, the higher his chance of winning.

If he defeats Dustin Kate and becomes the new king, he will also gain a lot of benefits.

"Wait a minute! Your Highness is on the world-shattering list. Is Dustin Kate on the list?" Cornelius Ao suddenly asked.

Chapter 1853 -

"Of course not."

Wen Shun shook his head and said: "In fact, there is an unwritten rule in the World Shattering List. Senior royal officials cannot be on the list."

1

"So, Dustin Kate can't be on the list? Or he doesn't have the strength. On the list?" Cornelius Ao asked.

"He can't make it on the list, and he don't have the strength to make it." Wen Shun said.

"Then I'll be relieved." Cornelius Ao breathed a sigh of relief.

"If the Shocking Ranking is correct, then His Royal Highness must be stronger than Dustin Kate. As long as he does not underestimate the enemy, he should be able to win steadily." Zhou Bo analyzed.

"Having said that, you still have to be careful." Princess Elara murmured to herself.

She felt very complicated about Dustin's excellence.

On the one hand, she hoped that Dustin would win and save the palace's face.

On the other hand, she was worried. If Dustin became king in the future, would he attack her son like Dustin Kate?

You know, her son has unconditional trust in Dustin, and even has a sense of dependence.

Once Dustin crossed the river and burned the bridge, her son died without knowing how.

At this moment, on the battlefield.

Dustin and Dustin Kate were fighting more and more fiercely.

The speed of both sides was so fast that ordinary soldiers could barely see two blurry figures intertwining with each other, and from time to time there would be an explosion, causing a powerful shock wave.

"We have been fighting for so long. With the strength of the general, we should have won long ago. Why hasn't it been won yet?"

Nangong Po squinted his eyes and quietly observed the battle situation.

From the surface, it seems that Dustin Kate has always been the main attacker, while Dustin has been passively defensive.

Normally, with Dustin Kate's offensive, he would be able to defeat his opponent in three minutes. But now, even though they were having a cup of tea, there was no winner or loser. It was really weird.

"Dustin is also a strong man at the Grand Master level, so he is definitely not that easy to deal with. If the general wants to win, he will have to fight tooth and nail," Harmon Liang said.

"At this point, it's impossible not to fight hard. Once defeated, the general will be in danger." Gao Yuan shook his head.

"You two, if the general is really defeated, what are your plans?" Nangong asked unexpectedly.

"What plans can you have? Of course I will die with the general." Harmon Liang said as if he were dead.

"That's right! As the general's confidants, we should live and die with the general." Gao Yuan spoke righteously.

"Why are you two so confused?"

Nangong Po said meaningfully: "The general is the general, we are us, everyone has the right to survive, we don't need to sacrifice ourselves for others, right?" "What Wu Linghou said What do you mean?" Harmon Liang raised his eyebrows slightly.

"It would be best if the general can win. If not, we must be prepared to protect ourselves." Nangong Po said in a low voice.

"Aren't you going to surrender?!" Gao Liang's face darkened.

"He who knows the current affairs is a hero, but ants are greedy for life, let alone humans?"

Nangong Po began to follow the temptations: "Two generals, we have climbed to where we are today with great difficulty. We will still have a great life in the future, and will we enjoy it?" With all your glory and wealth, are you willing to be buried here? Besides, if you don't think about yourself, you have to think about your family and friends, right? If you die, what will happen to your family? What will happen to your wife and daughter? Who will take care of them?

Harmon Liang and Gao Yuan looked at each other, obviously losing their initial determination.

Chapter 1854 -

"General Harmon, what do you think?"

Gao Yuan tentatively spoke, looking a little hesitant.

Although he belongs to Dustin Kate, he is particularly in awe of Rufus Rhys, the Prince of West Lucozia.

If Rufus Rhys died, he could follow Dustin Kate in rebellion without hesitation.

But the problem is that if Rufus Rhys is not dead, the situation will become completely different, and he has to weigh the consequences.

As Nangong Po said, he doesn't have to think about himself, but he has to think about his family and friends.

"General Gao, it's not the last moment yet. You can't make decisions arbitrarily. I'm more optimistic about the battle between the general and Dustin. As long as the general can win, we still have hope of making a comeback." Harmon Liang said meaningfully.

"That's right, that's right! The general has incredible skills and will definitely win. How can little Dustin be the opponent of the general?" Gao Yuan nodded repeatedly.

"Marquis Wu Ling, don't shake the morale of the army here. We are all in the same boat. We all suffer. If there is any accident, you will not be able to survive alone." Harmon Liang beat.

"I'm just kindly reminding you that if you two don't appreciate it, forget it." Nangong Po shrugged.

Different ways do not lead to mutual understanding. Since the two of them can't understand what he means, no matter how much they say, it's useless.

For him, survival is the most important, followed by power, wealth, and everything else can be abandoned.

While several people were talking, the situation on the battlefield suddenly changed.

Perhaps because he was too tired from fighting, Dustin Kate's offensive obviously slowed down.

On the other hand, Dustin was still lively and energetic, not affected at all.

In fact, he never used all his strength and allowed Dustin Kate to use it.

On the one hand, it is intended to test and, on the other hand, it is prepared.

If Dustin Kate is really related to the collapse of the Dragon Protection Pavilion, then there must be people from the Dragon Protection Pavilion hidden around him.

In other words, the experts from the Dragon Protection Pavilion might be lying in wait around.

Dustin Kate was no threat to him, but Dragon Protection Pavilion was different.

The current Pavilion Master Ji Yuanzun of the Dragon Protection Pavilion is ranked fifth in the world-shattering list, far superior to him.

Once he makes a sneak attack, if he is not prepared, he may be seriously injured or even die.

"Third uncle, stop it. You are no match for me. There is no point in continuing the fight."

Dustin said calmly while dodging around: "You and I are both Rhys Family members. There is no need to fight for life or death. As long as you are willing to look back, you will still be a general and you can still enjoy all the wealth and honor."

"Dustin! Do you think I am a three-year-old child? If I fall, I may not see the sun tomorrow!" Dustin Kate shouted.

Throughout the ages, the struggle for the throne has always been do or die, and there is no third way.

In his opinion, if he failed today, he would be dead.

"Third uncle, I know that Dragon Protection Pavilion is behind the scenes. You also listened to the villain's slander and acted impulsively, so you did such a stupid thing. I can assure you that as long as you reveal the person behind the scenes, I will never care about you." Dustin said seriously.

"Hmph! Do you think I will believe you?" Dustin Kate looked cold.

Although he said this, the attack movements in his hands were unconsciously slowed down a bit.

"Third uncle, you should know very well that you are at the end of your rope. If you don't want to be in trouble, you have to agree to my conditions. This is your chance to make up for your mistakes." Dustin said.

"If Rufus Rhys said this to me, I would believe it to a certain extent, but you, a young boy, why should I believe you?" Dustin Kate shouted.

"You may not believe it, but do you have any other choice?"

Dustin said calmly: "Third uncle, I only tell you this because of my relationship with relatives. If it were someone else, it would already be their corpse."

"What? Are you scaring me? Do you think you have won me? Stop dreaming!" Dustin Kate said.
