An understated Dominance – Dahlia and Dustin Chapter 1098

Chapter 1098: Life Saved

“Dustin, brother!”

When Dustin left, Shiela felt anxious and hurriedly followed him, apologizing, “Dustin, I’m really sorry. I didn’t expect Dr Tanaka to come. It’s all my fault. Please don’t be angry.”

“Shiela, I’m not angry. From a doctor’s perspective, I also hope your father gets well. It’s just a pity that no one believes me,” Dustin shook his head.

He had already warned them repeatedly, but if they didn’t believe him, he couldn’t force them.

“Dustin, I believe in you, but...”

Shiela hesitated. As the daughter, she couldn’t make the final decision.

“Shiela, it’s okay. You go back to the ward. I’ll have a cup of coffee outside. If you need anything, just call me,” Dustin smiled and patted her shoulder.

“Alright.”

Shiela nodded and reluctantly went back into the ward.

She felt guilty for making him go through all this trouble.

“Shiela, why do you care about that guy? Let him leave. What’s so remarkable about an insurance salesman? Is he worth your attention?” After Shiela entered the room, Vivian started provoking again.

“That’s right! With Dr Tanaka here, why do we need this guy to interfere?” Chase glanced outside the door and expressed his disdain.

“Dr Tanaka, no one is bothering you anymore. Please hurry and treat the patient,” Lily urged.

“Alright, seeing your sincerity, I’ll help you one more time.”

Dr Tanaka pretended to nod solemnly, then opened the black medicine bottle again and fed all the brewed golden jade soup into Mr. Murray’s mouth.

After that, he took silver needles from his medicine box and pierced various acupuncture points on Mr. Murray’s body.

He continued to pierce more than a dozen needles before finally stopping.

“My acupuncture and moxibustion techniques can also clear meridians and regulate blood and internal energy. With the priceless golden jade soup, I guarantee that the patient will make a full recovery!” Dr Tanaka said confidently.

“If that’s the case, then it’s great.”

Lily was nervous and stared at Mr. Murray on the hospital bed intently.

Once the golden jade soup was ingested, its effects quickly took hold. Mr. Murray’s originally pale face gradually became rosy and radiant.

His weak breathing became strong and vigorous.

All the physiological parameters on the monitor gradually returned to normal.

In just a few minutes, Mr. Murray’s heart rate, blood pressure, pulse rate, body temperature, and other indicators had all returned to standard values.

Although he had not regained consciousness, he had essentially stabilized and was no longer in danger.

“It’s effective! The patient’s physiological parameters have returned to normal, and his condition is completely stable!”

“No wonder Dr Tanaka is so amazing. With just a few needles and some medicine, he easily saved a patient with a terminal illness. Incredible!”

“A divine physician! Truly a miraculous healer!”

Seeing Mr. Murray looking healthy and energetic, everyone was excited and filled with admiration.

Earlier, so many doctors had been powerless, but when Dr Tanaka stepped in, he effortlessly pulled Mr. Murray back from the brink of death.

His medical skills were truly incredible!

“Aunt, Shiela, I wasn’t wrong, was I? With Dr Tanaka here, Uncle will definitely be safe,” Garrett Murray said with a smile.

“Dr Tanaka is indeed amazing. Our entire family is extremely grateful!” Lily was overjoyed.

Previously, Mr. Murray had lain in bed like a dead man, cold all over, and his breathing was terrifyingly weak.

But now, his face was rosy and full of vitality, as if he had been given a new lease on life.

“Thank you for treating me. This is the clearest choice you’ll make in your life. Otherwise, the patient wouldn’t have survived until tomorrow.” Dr Tanaka tilted his head slightly, exuding self-confidence.

“That’s right! With Dr Tanaka’s divine medical skills, no one can compare to him among the doctors in Dragonmarsh.”

“In front of Dr Tanaka, the doctors in Dragonmarsh are all incompetent, and their skills are far inferior. They are completely incomparable.”

“There’s nothing we can do. In terms of top talent, Kingdom of the Golden Phoenix completely outshines Dragonmarsh. What’s most shameful is that these doctors in the country not only lack ability but also like to pretend. They don't admit their incompetence, and they deserve to be looked down upon!" Chase expressed his disdain.
