

The Abandoned Wife Chapter 1 - The Abandoned Wife

Chapter 1: The Abandoned Wife

In an abandoned room, on a wooden bed layed a beautiful girl with long silky hair and very sharp features. She was as pretty as snow white from the movie Snow White. One would wonder why she was still on her bed when the sun was already up in the sky. This girl's name was Anna McClain. Anna was a twenty one year old girl who lost her parents at a young age and lived with her abusive uncle. Suddenly a knock was heard on the door

" Sister Anna get up, mom will soon be here and you know how she behaves when she is angry".

That was the voice of her adorable little cousin Daniel.

Anna, who was asleep suddenly jolted up from the bed and rushed to the bathroom and started her morning rituals. As she was getting ready she said to herself

"Anna, how could you sleep that long you know how grumpy she gets when she doesn't get her morning tea on time . You are lucky she didn't wake up on time today or else you would have been dead meat .

The woman she was talking about was her aunt Mrs Jane McClain Aka her worst nightmare.

Anna hurriedly took her bath and rushed to the living room to find her uncle and aunt talking to a man in a suit. She hurriedly passed them so they wouldn't notice her. She entered the kitchen and started preparing breakfast . She made fried eggs and toast. As she was passing through the dinning room, she overheard her uncle talking about getting her married. She rushed to the living room and said

"I don't want to get married"
