Chapter 856

Upon hearing this, the fake emperor suddenly stood up, his eyes filled with disbelief and a hint of panic.

Andrius actually led troops to the Swallows to capture him!

How dare he?!

“What?”

The Seventh Elder was furious and broke off the armrests of his chair with a snap. His face was filled with boundless anger. “Andrius Moonshade, a mere youngster, dares to surround the territory of the Swallows? How dare he?!”

He immediately stood up and walked out angrily, leading the four experts furiously. He wanted to see what Andrius was really made of.

A moment later, the Seventh Elder appeared at the entrance, blocking Andrius who was about to charge inside.

“Andrius Moonshade! This is the territory of the Swallows. I give you ten seconds to leave, or disaster will befall you!”

The Swallows glared at Andrius emotionlessly, showing their determination to defend their place.

“The Swallows’ territory?” Andrius stared directly at the Seventh Elder, his eyes filled with fearless righteousness like a mighty wind. “Regardless of whether this is the Swallows’ or another family’s territory, it’s all a part of Florence’s land.

“Am I not in my own country? No one can stand above Florence’s laws, and no one can shield the eternal criminal of Florence!”

“He led to the tragic deaths of the Lycantroops’ officers, making their spirits unable to rest in peace. This is his first crime!

“He secretly researched insect poisons and used Florence’s soldiers as collateral. This is his second crime!

“He impersonated the emperor and committed unlawful acts, causing Florence to fall into chaos. This is his third crime!

“All three crimes are enough to warrant his life!” Andrius’ words were righteous and fearless.

The Seventh Elder sneered and asked disdainfully, “What exactly do you want, Andrius?”

Andrius said loudly, “I want to capture the traitor and restore justice!”

It was just nine words, but the weight behind them was heavier than a thousand pounds. He wanted to arrest the fake emperor before the eyes of the Seventh Elder.

It was not just an arrest. It was a blatant slap in the face to the Swallows and a violation of the long-standing rules!

“Insolence!” The Seventh Elder was enraged upon hearing this. “Andrius Moonshade, if you dare to step one foot into the Swallows’ territory today, what awaits you is the relentless pursuit of the Swallows, the first of the four great ancient martial families!

“They’ll chase you to the ends of the earth until your death! Have you thought it through?”

The Seventh Elder’s eyes were like a snake, radiating a cold and ruthless aura. Andrius’ reflection in his eyes shattered instantly.

It was clear that the killing intent in his heart had reached an unimaginable level.

Facing the Seventh Elder’s gaze, Andrius suddenly smiled as he said, “Attack!”

Swoosh...

As soon as he spoke, the elite soldiers from the Lycantroops immediately surged forward like a tidal wave.

The Seventh Elder's eyes could not help but twitch.

He never thought that Andrius would truly possess the guts and determination to wage war against the Swallows, and it would be a battle to the death!

"Charge!" he uttered a single word coldly.

Behind him, the four experts rushed into the sea of soldiers like a raging storm.

A great battle was about to erupt.

Chapter 857

Andrius did not remain idle. He charged into the courtyard to capture the fake emperor.

"Insolence!" the Seventh Elder shouted expressionlessly and blocked Andrius' path.

Bam!

Andrius threw a punch without hesitation. His punch was like a dragon, stirring up a tempest.

However, the Seventh Elder was powerful. He calmly raised his hand to block Andrius' punch and countered with a palm strike to his chest.

Andrius turned his fist into a palm and clashed with the attack.

Bam!

An overwhelming force burst out.

The Seventh Elder merely swayed slightly, but Andrius was pushed back three steps before regaining his footing.

The gap in their strength was quite significant.

“Hmph.”

After repelling Andrius with a palm strike, the Seventh Elder snorted and immediately advanced toward him.

Andrius hands waved as he blocked move after move from the Seventh Elder. However, the immense strength of his opponent forced him to retreat step by step until he was backed into a corner.

The Seventh Elder stared at Andrius and said with a cold smile, “I wondered how amazing you were, but you’re still only at the early stage of Martial Lord.

‘Becoming a Martial Lord before 30 years old is indeed something to be proud of.

Unfortunately, since you encountered me today, your death is imminent!”

The Seventh Elder continued to speak, trying to disturb Andrius’ concentration and deliver a fatal blow.

“Wolf King!”

“Wolf King!”

Several elite soldiers nearby saw the situation and immediately shouted as they rushed over

However, the Seventh Elder did not even look back. He swung his hands and sent the Lycantroops elites flying through the air, spitting blood as they went

Whoosh

While the Seventh Elder was dealing with the Lycantroops, Andrtus suddenly lunged with incredible speed.

His left hand was curled in a claw, and his right hand in a fist His movements were swift as lightning, carrying a chilling wind

“Trifling skill.”

The Seventh Elder sneered and turned to launch a powerful double-palm strike.

Even before the palm strike reached, the wind it blew up was fierce, making it impossible to keep one’s eyes open.

The wall behind Andrius immediately cracked and collapsed with a resounding crash, demonstrating the tremendous force behind the attack.

Andrius was alarmed and instantly gathered his inner energy to confront the attack.

Boom...

The next moment, their four palms clashed.

Andrius felt as if a mountain were pressing down on him, and then he was sent flying like a kite with a broken string. He crashed heavily into the wall behind him before falling to the ground.

“Pfft...”

He struggled to get up but felt as if his internal organs had been rearranged and spat out a mouthful of blood.

The Seventh Elder was too powerful!

“Die!”

The next moment, the Seventh Elder leaped into the air like an eagle in the sky and aimed a palm strike directly at Andrius’ head, ready to strike him down.

Whoosh...

In the blink of an eye, a silver-feathered arrow suddenly cut through the air.

Thud!

It hit the Seventh Elder, diverting his trajectory and causing the palm strike to miss its mark.

Andrius immediately took the opportunity to retreat.

Swoosh!

At the same time, figures moved rapidly from a distance and blocked the path between Andrius and the Seventh Elder.

It was Luna, who was leading the seven Dragon Generals again.

“Seventh Elder! It was them who stood in our way earlier!”

The four experts recognized them and immediately reported to the Seventh Elder

The Seventh Elder was furious He stared at Luna in the middle and snorted coldly “I am the Seventh Eider of the Swallows I don’t know who you are, but can you show respect to the Swallows and refrain from interfering in the matters between us and Andrius Moonshad “Respect?” Luna’s expression under the mask remained unchanged as she shouted “The Dragon Manor doesn’t owe anyone respect!

“Go!”

Then, she waved her hand.

Four of the Dragon Generals went after the four experts, and the remaining three surrounded the Seventh Elder in a triangular formation, making their intentions clear.

“You!”

The Seventh Elder was so furious that he felt like exploding. He immediately used all his strength to try to break through the encirclement of the three Dragon Generals, but it was useless.

“This is my chance!”

Andrius narrowed his eyes and nodded at Luna, then immediately rushed into the courtyard.

Then, he spotted the fake emperor, who was hiding behind the artificial mountain and trying to peek at the battle. He walked forward boldly.

“Y–you... Andrius Moonshade, you...”

The fake emperor was still searching for Andrius' figure on the battlefield when a figure suddenly blocked his light. When he looked up to see Andrius approaching him with large strides, he was instantly terrified, and his lips could not help but tremble.

Chapter 858

His tongue was tied into a knot.

Andrius was incredibly audacious and dared to chase down the Swallows with the intent of killing him. He was insane and arrogant!

“Andrius Moonshade!”

The fake emperor was frightened. He continued to retreat and tried to use threats. “This is the Swallows' territory. The Swallows won't spare you if you dare to act recklessly here!”

Andrius snickered and did not stop moving forward.

“Y–you... The strength of the Swallows is beyond your imagination!”

The fake emperor continued to retreat but suddenly bumped into a wall. There was nowhere left to run.

“Killing you will be easier than squashing an ant!”

Andrius saw the fear in the fake emperor's eyes and thought of the Lycantroops officers who had died at his hands, as well as the torment he had endured. He could not help but sneer, You've committed countless atrocities and should have known that this day would come.

“No matter what happens in the future, regardless of whether the Swallows will intervene, right now, you deserve death for your evil acts!”

Then, Andrius stopped wasting his breath and swiftly moved forward, grabbing the fake emperor by the throat.

Crack!

All beings were equal in the face of death.

The fake emperor desperately struggled to say something, but Andrius did not give him the chance to do so.

He decisively snapped the fake emperor's neck and detached his head, intending to use it to pay tribute to the fallen heroes.

Thus, the fake emperor, who had once been glorious and influential, met his tragic end. In the end, he was nothing more than a clump of dirt.

Outside the courtyard, the Seventh Elder saw Andrius charging in and was instantly furious. It was as if some taboo had been triggered at that moment.

Swoosh!

Rumble!

Crack, crack, crack!

After repelling the Dragon Generals with a few moves, the Seventh Elder swooped into the courtyard

What he saw was the headless body of the fake emperor lying silently on the ground. His head had been detached by Andrius and placed nearby. His eyes were still wide open, clearly not finding peace in death.

"Damn it!"

The Seventh Elder was infuriated and charged toward Andrius.

Swoosh!

Swoosh!

Swoosh!

Figures appeared one after another, blocking Andrius' path.

It was the seven Dragon Generals.

"Argh..."

The Seventh Elder attacked wildly but could not break through the seven Dragon Generals' blockade to harm Andrius. Everything he did was in vain.

"Damn it! Damn it!"

When he saw that there was no way to kill Andrius, he glared at Andrius with resentment and said fiercely, "Andrius Moonshade, you killed someone on the Swallows' territory today. I won't forget this.

"They can protect you now, but they can't protect you forever. Someday, I'll personally take your head and make you pay for today's humiliation."

With that, he turned and left angrily.

Today's events were far from trivial. The survivor of the Kleins had charged into the Swallows' territory and killed the fake emperor, sending a clear signal of the Klein family's return.

In addition to that, a mysterious organization called the Dragon Manor had emerged. Its seven powerful members were all martial realm experts. It was clear that they had not trained overnight.

The Seventh Elder had to quickly relay this information back to the Swallows and make preparations.

After he left, the four experts glared at Andrius and followed him. Their figures soon disappeared from sight.

"My friends from the Dragon Manor..."

This was the second time they appeared and helped him. Andrius nodded toward them in gratitude. "Thank you for your help. I will always remember this. If you ever need me in the future, please don't hesitate to ask. I won't refuse."

Luna looked deeply at Andrius and confirmed that the Seventh Elder and the others would not return before saying, "Wolf King, like I said, you can just boldly do what you want to do

With that, she left with the Dragon Generals

Andrius suddenly found her eyes and figure very familiar, as if he had seen that person somewhere before However, no matter how hard he tried to recall, he could not remember when he had met such a person

With the fake emperor's death, this operation had come to a perfect end.

Andrius quickly gathered the Lycantroops and returned to the capital where he found Registus.

"Registus, do you know the Dragon Manor in Florence?"

"The people who are part of it are all martial realm experts. They've helped me twice now, but they wore masks and refused to reveal their true identities!"

Chapter 860

"Anyone known in the ancient martial world cannot harm those outside of it.

"Of course, people from outside the ancient martial world are also not allowed to harm them.

"Those in the ancient martial world have always considered themselves superior, so they established this set of rules. Even if outsiders don't know about it, they must abide by it.

"Otherwise, anyone who dares to break this rule, whether they're from the ancient martial world or not, will be jointly eliminated by all the ancient martial forces!"

Andrius' eyes widened slightly.

So, that was how it was.

It was no wonder the fake emperor and the Seventh Elder kept saying that he would be hunted down.

“In fact...” Registus continued, “This rule was established because the four major families coveted the Klein family’s treasure.

“They used this rule as an excuse to unite and attack the Klein family, ultimately leading to its annihilation.”

Hearing this, Andrius could not contain his anger any longer. His fists clenched tightly, his knuckles turning white from the force, and the veins on his arms bulged. The fire in his chest burned fiercely.

The four major families had stooped so low. Andrius would settle the accounts with them sooner or later.

“Andrius...”

Registus saw his expression and sighed softly.

After the four major families wiped out the Kleins, the Swallows immediately brought forward a puppet, pushing him, the legitimate prince, aside for 20 whole years!

The humiliation he had endured was no less than Andrius.

Thus, he truly empathized with Andrius’ current mood.

That night, the two talked about many things.

They talked about the ancient martial world, the four major families, the future of Florence, and their plans for the future.

Somewhere two to three hundred kilometers north of Kiyoto, there was a mountain called Swallow Mountain.

The scenery here was beautiful and the air was fresh, but few people came here

Even if someone approached, they would be intercepted by a cottage halfway up the mountain and told to turn back as soon as possible. That was because this was the headquarters of the Swallows.

That night, the lights in the residence were brightly lit.

All the core members were seated in a grand hall, looking solemn and sitting upright, not showing the slightest impatience.

The Seventh Elder was also present.

After he brought back the news, the current head of the Swallows, Norvin Swallow, decided to come out tonight.

That led to the current scene.

Swoosh...

Suddenly, a figure sat in the main seat.

The figure was vague at first but gradually became clearer. He had sharp eyes, arched eyebrows, a face with a reddish glow, and a powerful presence that made it impossible to look him directly in the eyes.

It was none other than Norvin Swallow.

“Norvin!”

All the Swallow family members stood up and greeted him.

Norvin nodded slightly, indicating for them to sit down.

Everyone took their seats.

“Gentlemen...” Norvin’s gaze swept across them, and he slowly said, “I’m sure you’ve all heard of what happened today.

“The fake emperor was just a pawn, so his death doesn’t matter.

“However, Andrius Moonshade, a remnant of the Kleins, has openly violated the rules of the ancient martial world. This is an opportunity, a once-in-a-century opportunity!”

Norvin had always wanted to control Andrius and make him search for the Klein family's treasure. However, due to the rules he had created himself, he could not lay a hand on Andrius.

Now, Andrius had broken this rule on his own, giving the Swallows an opportunity to act ust him.

as..." He looked at the Seventh Elder and smiled. "Seventh Elder, I know you're angry cause of this, so I'll leave this matter to you.

"Capture Andrius Moonshade and bring him to the Swallows for questioning!"
