

The Wolf's Bride by Coffee's Tea Novel Online Free - Chapter 991-994

Chapter 991

He wanted to seek justice for the soldiers, but his strength did not allow it.

He felt helpless and disgraced.

He was the Central Warzone Master, but he was being threatened by a family from Kiyoto. What a humiliation!

Splash!

Andrius picked up the teapot on the table, filled the cup, and pushed it in front of Terry. He said calmly, "After you finish this cup of tea, immediately surround the Hardys' residence and capture the one responsible for breaking the law and massacring the soldiers!"

Terry's hand trembled at those words, almost spilling all the tea.

The Wolf King intended to go to war against the ancient martial family behind the Hardys!

"Wolf King..." Terry took a deep breath to calm his emotions and asked, "I can guarantee successfully arresting the Hardys, but what about the revenge from the ancient martial family behind them? How should I handle that?"

That was the tricky part!

Andrius said with a straight face, "I'll have the Lycan Manor accompany the troops, so you don't need to worry about that."

The Lycan Manor!

When Terry heard those words, he could not help but recall the recent incident where Noir requested recommendations for talented individuals from the various factions.

This must be the special force the Wolf King established to target the ancient martial families!

At that thought, Terry was filled with confidence.

"With the Lycan Manor as our backing, I guarantee we will surround the Hardys' residence as soon as possible!" Terry swore to Andrius, then immediately began to mobilize his forces.

Andrius instructed, "Noir, personally lead Gerard and the others to arrest Kane. Reassure the soldiers."

"Yes, sir!"

Noir immediately made the preparations.

In a luxurious private room in Spades Bar, Kiyoto, a young man with slicked back hair and designer clothing was boasting about his heroic achievements. He was none other than Kane Hardy.

-Kane wore a triumphant smile on his face as he bragged, "I made that woman beg for mercy while the Central Warzone Master was watching. Her man wanted to rescue her, but I had him beaten to death.

"The inspectors dared to take me away, but in the end...."

"That same night, my family wiped them all out. We dismembered the limbs of the captain, the deputy captain, and all those good-for-nothing team members who dared to confront me during the day."

Kane was as arrogant as could be as he recounted his 'glorious achievements'.

His entourage in the room also started to praise him.

“Kane, you’re so badass!”

“Kane, you’re my idol from now on. I’m your number one fan!”

“Kane, you’re the man! Even the authorities have nothing on you!”

“Kane, we’ll follow you from now on. You have to take care of us.”

“Kane...”

The people in the room kissed his ass to the high heavens.

“That’s not all.” Kane chuckled and took a sip from his glass before continuing, “In fact, the real show is yet to come.”

With those words, the room instantly fell silent. Everyone pricked up their ears and waited for Kane to blow his own trumpet.

“The next day, the Central Warzone Master, Terry Cooper, personally came to the Hardys’ residence. Can you guess what happened?” Kane had a smug smile as he glanced at the yes-men in the room.

The group shook their heads in unison. “What happened, Kane?”

“Hehe...” Kane cackled and said, “In the end, the Central Warzone Master only met my family for a moment, and then our family’s expert subdued him. After that, he promised not to touch the Hardys anymore and left with his tail between his legs. Hahaha...”

At that point, Kane could not help but burst into laughter, arrogant and unrestrained.

Hiss...

Everyone in the room gasped, shocked by Kane’s words.

Even the Central Warzone Master had to bow down to the Hardys! It was clear how powerful the Hardy family was.

Bam!

The next second, a loud noise rang out as the door was shattered into pieces. One fragment sliced across Kane’s face, instantly drawing blood.

A group of people with menacing auras stormed in.

The leader was none other than Noir, and behind him were Gerard and a group of injured soldiers.

Chapter 992

“Damn it!”

Kane wiped the blood from his face, instantly furious. He threw the wine glass to the side and shouted at the injured soldiers, “I spared your pathetic lives, but you still come to me looking for death. Fine, I’ll grant your wish!”

Upon hearing this, Noir’s expression grew even darker. He narrowed his eyes and pointed to Kane.

“Is that him?”

“Yes, that’s him! He’s the one who humiliated that girl in public and killed her boyfriend!”

“Sir, you must enforce the law and arrest him!”

“Sir...”

The soldiers pointed at Kane with anger and hatred.

“Tsk...” Kane sneered and said disdainfully, “Even the Central Warzone Master didn’t dare to do anything to me. Do you think someone like you can...”

Smack!

He was still speaking, but Noir could not take it any longer.

Noir lunged forward and delivered a resounding smack that sent Kane flying. When Kane got up, his mouth could not close properly, and blood pooled inside along with his knocked-out teeth!

“Fuck! I’ll kill you! I’ll kill you!” Kane spat out a mouthful of blood, but due to his crooked jaw, his speech was muffled “What are you all waiting for? Get him! If you don’t kill him, then I’ll kill you!”

The bodyguards were frightened by the murderous intent in his tone. They all rushed forward to take down Noir without care.

“You all colluded with the evildoer, so you deserve this punishment!” Noir glanced at the numerous bodyguards and spoke expressionlessly.

Then, he charged into the group.

Bam!

Smack!

Thud!

He was now a martial realm expert. To ordinary people, he was even stronger than Superman. Each punch, kick and slap he delivered carried immense power.

Ten seconds later, not a single bodyguard could get up from the ground. They all lay there groaning like dogs.

“Your turn.” Noir smirked and stepped toward Kane.

“Y—you... I’m warning you, don’t...”

Bam!

Noir punched him down, then unleashed a barrage of violent attacks, saying disdainfully, “Warn, my ass!”

After another round of punches and kicks, Kane’s state was the same as the bodyguards. He lay on the ground with a bruised face, calling for his mommy while continuing to threaten Noir, “You son of a bitch.

Chapter 992

Kill me if you dare, or I’ll definitely kill you and rip you apart...”

Noir frowned and said in displeasure, “Even now, you’re still running your mouth. Looks like I’ll need to find a way to shut your mouth!”

Then, he unbuckled his belt, took out his tool, aimed it at Kane, and started to urinate.

Splash...

With the crisp sound of urination, the liquid flowed in an arc into Kane’s mouth.

Coincidentally, Kane had an ulcer in his mouth. It also just so happened that Noir’s body heat was rather high these days.

Kane shrieked and fainted on the spot.

“Damn it.” Seeing this, Noir kicked Kane and said indignantly, “I’ve been saving this piss virginity for more than twenty years. You’ve really gotten lucky today.”

“Pfft!”

The injured soldiers who had been watching could not hold back and burst into laughter.

How satisfying! How gratifying!

Chapter 993

Noir grinned and looked at Gerard and the others. “Are you feeling better now?”

“Thank you, Captain Black!” the soldiers replied in unison, but they fell silent again when they thought of their fallen comrades.

“Take him away!” Noir tucked his tool away and ordered Gerard and the others. Throughout the process, Kane’s companions cowered in the corner, not daring to utter a single word. In the Central Warzone Master’s residence, Noir called Andrius and reported the situation, “Andy, I’ve captured Kane Hardy,”

“Good job.” Andrius praised, then hung up the phone and said to Terry, “Let’s go.”

“Yes, sir!”

Terry immediately coordinated the soldiers. Thousands of heavily armed soldiers formed two long rows and headed straight for the Hardys’ residence. The commotion instantly caught the public’s attention.

“Something big is about to happen!”

“They’re going in the direction of the Jade Estate.”

“Hiss! The Jade Estate is called the second imperial palace of Kiyoto. Even the previous Central Warzone Master had to show respect to the estate master.”

“Where did the current Central Warzone Master get the guys to target the Jade Estate?”

“The Hardys of the Jade Estate have a mysterious background and have done whatever they wanted in Kiyoto for many years. They’re practically emperors too. No one dares to mess with them. It seems a storm is brewing today.”

“Tsk, tsk, tsk, looks like Kiyoto is about to undergo a big change!”

The people who saw this scene were all shocked.

The Hardys were usually an untouchable force. No one even dared to mention their name, let alone provoke them. It was clear how infamous their reputation was. However, there were so many soldiers heading toward them now... Something major was about to happen!

In Jade Estate, the captain of Kane’s bodyguards ran in, panting, “Master, something bad has happened!”

“Silence!”

The head of the Hardys, Jim, was painting. He was so startled by the interruption that his hand shook, messing up the ink on the paper.

Then, he scolded in annoyance, “The Hardy family has stood tall in Kiyoto for years. What could possibly have happened? Even if the palace collapsed, the Hardys would be fine. Speak slowly and clearly.”

As long as the ancient martial family behind the Hardys remained unshaken, their family would never fall.

That was the source of Jim’s confidence.

“Yes, sir.” The bodyguard captain bowed his head and said in a low voice, “The Young Master... The military beat him up in the bar and took him away...”

“What did you say?!”

Jim was instantly furious and immediately tore the still-wet canvas. Then, he threw the paint palette at the bodyguard captain’s face.

“Useless! You bunch of good-for-nothings! So many of you couldn’t even protect Kane. What use are you to me?”

The bodyguard captain was bleeding from the head after being struck, but he did not dare to say a word, afraid that Jim would get even more violent.

However, Jim continued to beat up the bodyguard. He only stopped when his hair was disheveled.

“Gather all the forces of the Hardys immediately and inform the fighters.”

After venting his anger, he snorted coldly, “I want to see which dog dares to oppose the Hardy family!”

Just as he finished speaking, a servant hurriedly rushed in and reported, “Master! Many soldiers have surrounded the Jade Estate outside!”

Chapter 994

“Insolence!”

Jim almost exploded in anger. He slammed his palm on the table, leaving a deep dent with a loud bang.

“I haven’t even gone to the military to demand an explanation, but they’ve come to my doorstep instead...”

Jim’s eyes narrowed into slits, his gaze flashing with danger. “Since they’re seeking death, then I’ll grant their wish!”

With that, accompanied by numerous experts and bodyguards from the Hardys, he stormed out of the Jade Estate.

“Terry Cooper.” Jim saw the person and sneered, but his expression was soon overshadowed by fury. “I already spared your life once, but you dare to show up at my house again... This time will be your death sentence!”

Terry was not afraid at all and shouted to the soldiers behind him, “Charge together and apprehend this madman who disregards the laws of Florence!”

Swoosh!

Rustle...

The soldiers raised their weapons and advanced.

Jim’s expression instantly turned cold, but he showed no signs of fear in his rage.

Swoosh!

Whoosh!

Swish!

Just then, three figures leaped out from the estate, flipped in mid-air gracefully, and landed in front of Jim.

They were all burly and imposing, with sharp gazes that made people not dare to meet their eyes. They were all martial realm experts!

The leader was a tall and bald man. He stared at Terry coldly and said in disdain, “How dare a mere Central Domain Master be so unruly in the Jade Estate! Don’t you know that even the emperor has to show respect when he sees us? Not even the emperor would dare to overstep the boundaries!”

With that, the three charged into the formation of soldiers like venomous snakes.

In just a few seconds, the soldiers in the front were spitting blood and retreating. Ordinary firearms were no threat to martial realm experts. Even custom-made bullets could not pierce through their inner energy!

Terry’s expression was very unpleasant.

At that time, it was this bald man who had subdued him with a single move.

The bald man knocked down the soldiers in front of him, stared at Terry coldly, and said in a contemptuous and arrogant tone, “Remember! I am from the Swallow family. If I see you again, it’s your death sentence! Now, scram!—”

His shout filled with formidable pressure forced the soldiers still standing in the back to retreat.

A smug smile appeared on Jim’s face as he threatened, “Terry Cooper, release my son immediately, then grovel in front of my son in the name of the Central Warzone Master and pay a hundred billion in compensation.

Otherwise, once the Swallow family takes action, the Central Warzone will be ground to dust!”

Jim was full of confidence with the three martial realm experts on his side. It was a good chance to send a warning.

Crushing the Central Warzone was not something that any family was capable of doing.

From today onward, the Hardys' reputation would resound throughout Kiyoto!

Jim fantasized in satisfaction.

"Your brain must be filled with shit."

Just as Jim was getting carried away, a figure arrived and said disdainfully, "It doesn't matter whether you have the Swallow family or the Dog family behind you. If you've committed a crime and taken a life.

you must be arrested!"

It was none other than Andrius.
