

MARRY ME QUICK

CHAPTER 5

At the entrance of the Su Family's mansion, Su Ziyue came down from the car. She seemed somewhat indifferent.

She did not bother to do her makeup because she was going to meet Su Youcheng. She was dressed simply and did not choose to wear anything with vibrant colors, hoping that this slight change would be able to let him be less angry with her. Other than to receive her share of scolding, she had her own purpose of being here as well.

Su Ziyue took a deep breath before pacing inward with a huge stride.

She saw the family members of the Su Family sitting in a circle once she entered the main hall. Su Youcheng was sitting right in the middle, while Su Yige obediently sat by his side. The both of them were laughing while talking.

“Grandpa, I’m back.”

The smile that Su Youcheng had put on disappeared instantly. He knitted his brows, as if he had caught sight of something that disgusted him. “You b*stard! So you do know the way home after all! I’ve only left the house for a day, but look at the trouble you’ve caused!”

He tossed a stack of pictures right in front of her after he was finished with his words. It was indeed the photos of her naked self, huddled up in her quilt this morning. Even though it was not reported in the news, the photos still existed.

In the social circle of the upper-class society, her reputation had been in the gutter since the early days.

“Grandpa, I can explain these photos.” Su Ziyue subconsciously glanced toward Su Yige for a second.

These photos were real. However, it was Su Yige who had framed her to all these. She was worried that no one would believe her even if she were to speak out the truth.

“Explain? Ever since you were young, when was this one time you’ve admitted your mistake? The photos are already here, so what explanations could you possibly give?” Su Youcheng immediately stood up and pointed his finger right toward Su Ziyue’s face.

Indeed, he was still the same as he was before. He chose to believe Su Yige unconditionally. Su Ziyue looked at Su Youcheng with an ironic gaze. “Why should I admit something that I’ve never done before?” Su Ziyue asked.

Slap!

Su Youcheng slapped her out of his utter disappointment toward her. “You’re still refusing to admit your mistake even at this point of time! Is it really that hard to admit your own mistakes? You’re just the same as your father, refusing to admit even unto death!”

Su Youcheng had nearly used up all his force in slapping her. Su Ziyue staggered a bit after being impacted by the slap. She only managed to steady herself after she held onto the back of the sofa beside her; her ears were buzzing due to the slap.

She was in utter disbelief as she looked at Su Youcheng. A lump seemed to have risen in her throat as she said, “Grandpa, my father is your son. No one believes him, but why do you not believe in him as well?”

“Don’t mention that b*stard. Don’t you realize that you are a little b*stard yourself, the product of that b*stard? The name of the Su Family was dishonored by you and your father!”

If Su Yige had said something like this, Su Youcheng would have leaped onto her before ripping her throat out. However, Su Youcheng was the person who was speaking, the person who possessed the greatest power within the Su Family. He was also one of the respected elders of the family.

Su Yige stood beside Su Youcheng as she gently comforted him. “Grandpa, don’t be too angry. Ziyue has always been like this. She’s still young, which was probably why she made this mistake.”

“Just because she has been acting this way all along, she ought to change. She has been unrepentant because we have forgiven her over and over again!”

Forgiveness? She did not care about that at all!

Su Ziyue’s face was painful, but the pain was nothing in comparison to the one she felt in her heart.

She thought one day she would be able to change Su Youcheng’s attitude toward her if she were to do her best. However, with such a plan that was full of loopholes, Su Yige had managed to gain all trust from Su Youcheng the moment she returned.

This was absolutely not a home for her.

“I’ll never admit to any mistakes that I’ve never made. I will never leave the Su Family as well. I’m 20 years old this year and I’m considered an adult. I’m ready to inherit the share that my father had left for me!”

“You!” Little did Su Youcheng know that she would contradict him in such a way. He was so exasperated to the point his body shuddered for a while. “You’re still thinking of inheriting the share? No one in the whole of Yunzhou City would want to marry you, so if you really want the share, get married first!”

“That is what I deserve!” She could not believe that Su Youcheng would have the intention to blatantly take away the Su Group’s share that her father had left for her.

“Whatever a granddaughter of the Su Family should deserve doesn’t signify what you should get!” Su Youcheng yelled while putting on a sullen look as he glared straight at Su Ziyue. This granddaughter of his had become more and more outrageous.

If he really had to get rid of her from the Su Family, it would only make sense to not let her inherit the share that she deserved!

Su Ziyue felt as if she was drenched with icy cold water all over her head even though it was summer at that time. She did not dare to say anything else. The way that Su Youcheng looked at her was just like he was staring at his nemesis.

If she were to say something else that would trigger him further, he would most probably blast her out of the family in a penniless state.

She did not care whether she was the second eldest young mistress of the Su Family. Only her father, who was imprisoned, cared about it.

“Grandpa, will you keep your words? As long as I get married, you’ll give me my share?”
