Part 2 Chapter 21

Helios POV

I mindlinked my dad and he said it was okay for us to go into town as Felix calls it. Like it is so big but it isn't.

We make our way down to the little restaurant and Nora are a bit surprised by all the men that greet her and some even hug her and ask her if she is okay. We eat while the girls discuss everything that has happened and Nora jumped when I told them about her former alpha's decision.

After our dinner, the girls decided to go shopping so we walked on the square where the market are being hold. A lot of our people in the village are craftsmen and they have been doing different things for so many years now so it's a sight to behold.

Nora stops at the beginning and just stare at it and then she smiles. Kara takes her hand and pulls her along. I and Felix are walking behind them when Linus' father shows up and bows. I wave for him to stop.

"Prince Helios, how are you doing? I saw Miss Nora walking with her twin?" he asks with a confused face.

"I am fine, Nora wanted a bag so we are out shopping for one. No, the girl with Nora is her cousin, Kara. But they do look alike" I laugh and he seems relieved.

"A bag you said? Like a handbag or backpack?" he asks and I shrug.

"I have no idea actually. Kara gave her a cellphone in present and now she wants a bag" I say and smile.

"Then she should visit Julius' stall." He said and pointed towards it and I nodded.

"Yep, I will make sure she does. I am the one paying anyway" I say and laugh.

"You are going to be ruined" Felix laughs and I shake my head

"You are paying for Kara" I said and patted his shoulder.

We started walking again to catch up with the girls that already was by Julius' stall and looking at bags. Julius seemed happy, he was one of the lycans that Nora healed after the forest incident.

“Have you seen anything that you like, Nora?” I ask and put my arms around her waist and she nods.

“Yes, a blue handbag and the strap is long enough to have it across my upper body. And there is a bigger pocket in the middle and a smaller one on the outside. And it’s purple and white. But I want a bigger one as well and perhaps a backpack” Nora say and I sigh and put my chin on her shoulder.

“Perfect choice Miss Nora. I have bigger handbags over here as well as backpacks” Julius say and comes out to meet us.

“You.. fell familiar, have we met before?” Nora ask Julius and he looks taken aback.

I feel sad but explain that Nora have lost her memories. Julius gives a small smile but he still helps her finding a bag and a backpack. She chooses a bigger handbag where she kan keep all of her stuff inside.

I never understood why girls need so much stuff for to carry around. Nora also said that she would like a backpack that is comfortable enough to carry when she shifts. Julius seemed to hink but nodded and showed her another style of backpack.

She seemed to chose one that she liked. But when I was gonna pay, Julius only took payment for the backpack and the little bag. The bigger handbag was a gift from Julius and Nora was so happy for the gift and hugged him. I tried so hard to hold back my growl but it slipped out and Nora turned around and raised an eyebrow at me.

*You sounded like an angry puppy right now* she teases with a smile on her face.

I huff and turn around and walk back to Felix that are looking at shoes with Kara. Linus father have made them and he is talking with Kara about a pair of boots right now. Nora comes up to me and she leans on me.

“Sorry”she hispers and I kiss her on top of her head.

“Miss Nora. I have your flats for you here. I finished them for a week ago but you were occupied then”

Linus father says and take out a pair of brown flats with braids of leather on the sides.

“They are beautiful” Nora say and takes them from him. “Thank you”

“They are so pretty, how much do they cost?” Kara wonders and Linus fater chuckles

“Actaully it is Miss Nora’s design and I promised to give them to her” Linus father said and Nora blush.

She comes over to me to show them and I take one of them to look at. Da mn, the design are elegant.

“Hey, Nora, what do you feel about becoming a designer?” I ask and she looks at me but then she smiles.

“I can try” she say and Linus father claps his hands and smiles big.

“Then I can make them and I thin Julius would be happy as well if you would design a bag or something for him” Linus father said and I nod.

“We need to buy pencils and an artblock so Nora can draw and make up her designs” Kara says an smiles.

“Then you should head over to Matthew’s. He have everything for that stuff” Linus father said.

We thank him an go to find Matthew but first I wander over to Julius and present our idea about Nora designing a bag and he seemes thrilled over it.

At Matthew’s I did pay even though Nora was given a few things. Everyone in our kingdom loves her and they want to show her that.

Nora seems happy about the art supplies as she puts them inside her back pack.

As we walk towards the castle again I notice a shadow among the houses and Nora seems uncertain about walking ahead of

1. But I just nod at her to keep going but she does let out a scream as Ares surprises her by grabbing her and hugs her hard while spinning around.

The scream turns into laughter and she kisses him when he stops and then she slaps him hard and I stare at her confused. Ares looks shocked as well but he puts her down.

“What in the world do you mean by this? You go away for the entire day and the you come back stinking of perfume and you even have lipstick marks on your shirt. Go to hell, Ares!”

Part 2 Chapter 22

Ares POV

Finally home again, not that it bothered me by going away but I need so see Nora. Dad mindlinked me and said that Felix and Kara are here already and I wondered why and then he explained that he had summoned all the king's for a grand meeting in three days time.

Great or not. There will be all sorts of troubles along the way but Mariah will help with creating a false mark on Nora and making her scent faint for other males. That is something that has to be done otherwise I and Helios will probably kill some kings and start wars here and there.

I drive into the castle and its beginning to darken outside. Uncle Dave comes out and help Anna out of the car while Ben and the truck driver are talking inside the truck. Still laughing as they get out of it.

I wonder when Ben will notice? Oh, well. I ask where Nora are and apparently she is in the village and I hurriedly runs down there. I see them coming bak, Nora and Kara are walking first and Helios and Felix are walking behind them.

I am surprised by how Kara looks but I know that there are some differences between them. I sneak around one of the cabins and I see that Nora is trying to shake off her instinct and Helios nods at me. Letting me know that he have seen me and when Nora finally passes me I step out of my hiding spot, grabs her and spins her around.

She screams and then she laughs and I kiss her but I didn't expect for her to slap me on my face. Then she screams at me and storms off towards the castle, Kara comes after her and tells me that I am an idiot and I scratch my head.

"Here, Ares, there is a lipstick mark" Felix say and points at it. I pull on the collar and sniff. Oh the girls in the store that almost raped me. Da mn.

"Yeah, life is though sometimes. But you can explain to her after you have taken a shower, you do smell of perfume" Helios say and holds his nose.

I sniff on my shirt but I can't smell the perfume, why not?

We walk back to the castle but as we hear a scream we sprint the last 100 meters and in through the doors.

"Hell no. Take it back, right now!" Ben are yelling at the truck driver. I watch the kid shiver while he sits on the floor. His cap is off and he have a nice face. Reminds me off a girl almost. Tomboy.

"It is not my fault that my wolf recognizes you as my mate!" he says and glares at Ben.

“I am not gay” Ben scream at him.

“Neither am I ” the boy says.

They both stare at each other until Nora make some sound and approach them carefully.

“What is your name?” She asks the driver

“Sam” he answers and Nora smiles

“Nickname for Samantha I take it?” she says and I tilt my head. He is a guy, he smells like a guy.

“Yes, it is. How can you tell that I am a girl?” Sam says with curiosity in his.. her voice.

“I don’t know, just a feeling” Nóra shrugs and turn around and wave.

Melinda comes forward and reach out a hand for Sam to take and when she does take the hand something happens. A white glow surrounds both of them and when it fades all we can do is watch.

Sam is changing, her hair was short and she looked like a boy but now her face are becoming softer with freckles on her cheeks and her hair is growing out. Her body changes and she grows a butt and boobs as well. Da mn, she is hot.

Then I smell it, the parfume everyone was talking about, it came from Samantha. She is a hybrid. Very rare and almost extinct.

“Oh sh it” Helios said and I have to agree.

A hybrid can be very dangerous right now especially with the grand meeting coming our way.

“What are you?” Melinda asked and Sam looked away.

“I am a hybrid, my mom was a witch and werewolf but my dad he was.. he raped my mom, you know.. he was a vampire” Sam say and look down on to the floor.

“I thought all the vampires was dead?” Nora ask and look at Sam.

“Yes, they are. All with pureblood anyway, there are a few hybrids left and we can live a very long, long life” Sam explain and she seems like she wants to vanish from the earth right about now.

Dad walks in from the kitchen and he stops as he can see everyone staring at Sam. Sam squealed and ran out of the castle before anyone could even stop her.

“Who was that?” dad asked and I sighed.

“Okay dad, have a open mind please.” Helios said and he nodded.

“The truck driver are Ben’s mate and he is also a she, named Samantha, Sam for short. And she is a ... hybrid” I say and look at dad's face and he looks confused, sad, angry, furious, back to confused again and then he sighs. "Fine, a hybrid, what can be worse than that anyway?" dad shrugs and goes outside as well. Ben looks stunned but when he realized that both dad and Samantha are alone out there he growls and runs outside.

"I guess it was her that was stalking after Ben then" Anna says as she leans on the door frame and I nod. Must have been.

"Nora, you are awake! Will you help me in the.. kitchen? Wait what has happened to your eyes?" Anna suddenly asks and looks at Kara.

"I am over here, Anna. That is my cousin, Kara, we do look alike right?" Nora says and gives Anna a big hug but follows her to the kitchen.

I shake my head and am about to go to my room when Kara comes after me and stops me by running up the stairs before me.

She is standing on two steps higher than me making us look into each other's eyes.

"You, if you ever hurt Nora in anyway like you have done before or in the future I will cut off your dick and make a dildo out of it and put it on display in my castle for everyone to see. Understood?” She growled in my face. I unconsciously backed down and hold on to my di ck, staring at her. Scary!

Part 2 Chapter 23

Anna's POV

I love the new kitchen, everything is perfect. I am so happy and Dave asked his brother to change quarters and he agreed on that. So now we have one of the guest chambers, it's quite big. A master bedroom along with a smaller bedroom for baby Hannes and a bathroom.

And I get to decorate that as well, oh I like this so much. But something feels odd, it's getting warmer by the day but am the only one noticing it. Am I sick? I will have to go to the doctor later.

Now I must focus and call for the rest of the girls to come over, tomorrow is the grand meeting and we already have four other kings in the castle right now. Their pheromones are all over the place and it's getting frustrating..

The king from the sapphire kingdom is so.. so.. damn frustrating. I thought Ares was a playboy but this one is even worse.

Thank the goddess, for Mariah, she gave Nora a potion to hide her strong scent and a spell on her neck that shows a fake mark.

The blue king had to give up as Ares almost attacked him when he touched Nora's neck in a way to flirt with her and sniff her at the same time.

Right now I am planning dinner for tonight as well as for tomorrow, but I think I will order some catering for tomorrow. Have a party for the night instead of sitting stiffly with all the lycans around. I have enough problems with standing up if two kings pass by me.

And the rest of the kings are coming tonight. Hmm, everything will have to be perfect. This should be the female beta's job but since we don't have one I step up and do it. Not that it bothers me but they could have at least asked me. "Hey, you, werewolf girl, what the hell are you just standing around for?" A man's voice comes out like needles.

I turn around to tell him off but instead he is forcing me down on my knees. I had forgotten about this, because Dave and everyone else have been so nice and made me forget that lycans are cruel especially towards werewolves.

I kneel on the floor and then that idiotic lycan laughs at me while he is forcing me to bend down my head. This is so humiliating, I hate them. A roar comes from the opposite side of the hall and I recognize it, it's the king, our king.

"I have had enough of you, you are to show respect to anyone in my kingdom, is that clear? You are here as a guest and I can just as fast turn you into my enemy" the king bellows and I feel the pressure from his aura but it doesn't hurt me.

"Here, Anna" I look up and see Helios reaching down a hand for me to take and I do. I wobble as my legs feel like jelly but Helios steadies me.

"I apologize, king but she has so blatantly been rude towards me" the blue king says and I look up at Helios but he just shakes his head.

"And how has my mate been rude to you, kind Isac?" Dave's voice comes drifting and I feel his hands on my hips and I turn around so I can step into his arms.

"Thank you Helios" I say and he smiles and nods "Oho, she is your mate then. Let me just ask you then, why haven't you marked her yet then?" King Isac asks and I blush. There that feeling is again. I feel dizzy.

"Hmm I don't think she will be unmarked much longer now" Ares says as I look up “What are you talking about?” I ask and feel confused. I try to talk with Dave but his eyes are completely black by now.

“Your scent, Anna, it’s changing. Becoming stronger. Are you close to your heat by any chance?” Helios says and I sniff the air but I don’t feel anything.

“I don’t know. I have been feeling hot since this morning and sometimes I get dizzy but it’s just a common cold, you know. have never been able to have a normal heat” I say confused and right on cue Melinda shows up in the room.

“Oh, good, I was right on time. Anna you need to drink this and Dave you need to swallow this with or without water, your choice”

Melinda says but she has a hard time approaching them.

“I can help with that” Nora says and I see her coming into the room with Daniel by her side.

“Good then I trust you on this one” Melinda says and hands something over to Nora.

Nora takes a deep breath and walks towards us, she opens up the small bottle and helps me drink it. It tastes like grass and I shake my head at the sensation that comes afterwards.

Nora then pokes Dave's cheek so he opens his mouth and puts a small round thing in his mouth. But he doesn't swallow it so I smile and stand on my toes and kiss him on his throat and his reflex is to swallow. But he does groan and look disgusted by the taste of it.

Then we wait for a minute or two then I feel this pulse from within me and Dave growls and picks me up and storms off.

"Melinda, can you take care of Baby Hannes for me?" I say and she nods and disappears in a blue smoke and then reappears with baby Hannes in her arms. I nod and can now concentrate on me and Dave this time.

He kicks in his door even though it was open and drops me down on our bed and I squeal as a girl in her teens but I don't care as I watch my man as he locks the door and then strips off of his clothes, one piece at the time.

I growl low and surprise myself as well. But as I am to take off my clothes Dave grabs my hand and pushes them above my head and shakes his head.

"You are mine. I will take off those da mn clothes and I will lick every part of your body until you are screaming my name and only that, understand?" He says in a dangerous, s**y low

“Yes” I pant under him and he smiles.

Part 2 Chapter 24

Nora's POV

These last days have been utterly chaotic, so many lycans have dropped by and Anna and I have been trying to find room for them so they don't start fights with each other. Ben has been a great help as well and he said that I have a natural talent for this sort of thing and I can feel it.

I know how to tackle some things like when the kings get into fights or how and where I should place them into their rooms. But there is one of the kings that I have been avoiding at all costs, the blue king, Isac.

He has tried to hit on me since he stepped foot in this castle. I am so f**king annoyed at him, thank the goddess that Mariah helped with magic so she faded my scent and created a fake mark on my neck but still that stupid king Isac is still following me around.

Promising me to take me away from here and mark me properly and give me children and I can be one of his many girlfriends. I mean, ugh.. Who in the whole world would even want that and there is this other thing as well.

He likes to push people onto their knees, he humiliates Anna like she was a piece of trash, the other day but yesterday the king had enough and told him that he was a guest and nothing more.

Then Anna's heat came rushing and now I am trying to make people stay away from their side of the castle while Melinda cares for baby Hannes. I would rather do that than to listen to king Isac, explaining to king Felix how he should put Kara in her place and have another girlfriend on the side.

I can see that king Felix is nearing his boundaries of rage. So I clap on his shoulder and ask him to come with me to greet the new guests. He happily follows me to the outside.

"Thank you, Nora, if I had to listen to one more word from that.. that.. I would have killed him" Felix says and sighs.

I chuckle at him but at the same time I understand how he feels. We watch as a black limousine comes up to the castle and something inside me tells me that this one king is different. Felix tenses and leans against me.

“This is the king from the black kingdom, he is also a relative to you but you can probably feel that as well, am I right?” he says and I nod as I watch the car stop.

The door opens and a woman gets out first, giggling and when she turns I tilt my head. She smells differently, she is not a werewolf but a witch and Felix growls. She turns her head and she stares at us like a deer in headlights.

“What’s wrong sweetie? ” A man’s voice comes from the car and the woman moves slowly to the side and out of the car comes a man.

*Yummy. I can lick him down for you* Aurelie says in my mind and I feel myself blush.

“Hello, my name is Nora.” I say and smile towards them

The man turns to look at me and I gasp. I feel a new sensation inside of me and this time I scream in my mind.

*Helios! Ares! Help!*

I know him, I don’t know from where but I feel that I know him and this isn’t a good person to know. I take a step back and he reaches out a hand towards me but I can’t, I grab Felix arm and he glances at me.

“Stop, you are scaring her, withdraw your aura, right now!” Felix says and the other man smiles wickedly. “Why? I have all the rights to show my full aura to a little girl that doesn’t know her place” the black king says.

“Yes, you have the right but not to our mate” Helios growls and I see him and Ares blocking his view of me.

Felix holds me up while I shake like a freaking leaf. What the hell happened?

*I am so sorry Nora, I think I challenged his lycan and his lycan answered my challenge.

*So it’s his lycan that is in control?* I ask her and she whines.

*Yes*

Oh da mn, his lycan doesn’t like me the least.

“Hehe, you two are nothing to me but that little girl I will take her as my own and put her so da mn low in her place that she won’t dare to even glance upwards.” the black king growls

“Love, please, come back to me” I hear a woman’s voice and I bet it’s the witch from the same car.

Helios and Ares are growling for full when the king suddenly groans.

“Oh d ammit, I am so sorry, my lycan took over the control again. He is a monster sometimes. I am so sorry for scaring your mate, can I apologize to her face?" the black king says and Ares glances back at me and I nod. Ares and Helios move away from his sight but they are close by. And I can feel that the black king's aura has calmed down.

"I am sorry for my lycan but your wolf did a very wrong move, why did she challenge him?" he asks and I blurt out the answer as

I am embarrassed

"She found you yummy looking and wanted to have sex with you.." I gasp and both Helios and Ares are looking at me in surprise.

I felt my cheeks burn and it went uncomfortably quiet until the witch started laughing like crazy.

"That's the last female lycan for you guys. Da mn, girl, I like you. Straight to the point. Perhaps we can be friends?" The witch is laughing so tears run down her pretty face.

"My name is Lara and I would love for us to be friends" she says and smiles at me.

I nod at her and run away quickly. I can feel both Helios and Ares are running after me but I just want to be left alone. I push harder and harder but I hear my mates shift as they run after me and I know they will catch me any minute now but before that happens..

I hear a crack and fall over. I try to find the thing that cracked when another is heard and I scream.

*I am so sorry Nora, I never wanted this to happen.

lycans. Hang on now because now we are shifting and without the moon it will hurt like hell. I wanted to wait until tonight but he pushed me over my limits.

I will call for your mates so they can be here but be prepared it will hurt even more, I am so sorry*

Aurelie whines and I scream in agony.

Help!

Part 2 Chapter 25

Nora's POV

This shift is excruciating, I feel like my whole body is burning up and there is nothing I can do to stop it.

Aurelie was right. It is easier when I have Helios and Ares by my side.

They calm me down but it still hurts like hell.

I break my back and my spine moves and changes shape, my arms break and get longer. I stand on all four because it's easier this way. I feel something coming out from my lower back and I think it's my tail.

My fingers crack and bend and I try not to look but I can't help it and I see how my hands get smaller and my fingers shrink and my nails get longer and turn into claws. I hear Helios talk to me softly and at first I can't seem to hear what he is saying but then it is like he is screaming in my ears. I think I got my wolf's hearing and Ares is stroking me on my back. His warm hand sends lightning through my skin and I almost want to purr even though I am not a cat. I try to reach Aurelie but I can't, it seems that she herself is in agony. I hear Ares and Helios talk amongst themselves but I can't hear if something is wrong. My shift slows down and I fall flat onto the ground, letting the darkness wash over me.

Helios POV

Aurelie wants to have sex with the black king? Didn't we do you good when her heat came? Anyway that doesn't matter right now as Nora take flight and runs away. "Ohh damn, you guys better chase after her. That was certainly not my intention" the black king says and I look at him. "What wasn't your intention" I ask and glare at him.

“My lycan has sped up her shifting, he sensed that she hasn’t shifted yet so he started it for her” the black king looks angry at his lycan while he says that.

Ares sets off and I was about to ask Felix something but then I heard Nora scream and Felix nodded and I set off after her as well

I caught up with Ares in the little forest on the side of the castle. I shifted into my lycan and so did Ares as we tried to hunt Nora down, she felt far away but yet strangely near and would have laughed when Ares ran straight into a tree if I wasn’t so focused on finding Nora.

*Helios, I will guide you to Nora, she will need both you and Ares by her side because this will hurt* Aurelies voice flitted through my mind.

I speed up and at last I can see Nora on the ground and I slow down, waiting on Ares. When he catch up we walk slowly against her, Ares shifts back but I stay put in my lycan form and approach her.

She looks like she is in a hell lot of pain, but this doesn’t look like a normal shift. Is it because there is no moon up?

*Daniel? Can you reach Melinda. Nora have a problém. The black king started her shift and she are having troubles with her first shift in daylight. We need a moon, or something like a placebo for a moon* I mindlink Daniel quickly just as I can see the tail grow out from Nora's lower back I look at Ares and he seems terrified over Nora's appearance. Her hands turns to paws and her head shifts into a wolfs but there is no fur at all she looks like a naked wolf. And thin, like sickly thin. You can count all her ribs without problem.

*Helios? I heard from Daniel about Nora's shift and I can't help with that but I will send over a lycan that can help but please try to be nice to him.* I hear Melinda's voice in my head and a thud.

I look at Nora, she fainted from all her bones breaking and shifting. She is exhausted. I tell Ares what Melinda said and he nods and point at something smong the trees.

I look up an notice a lycan standing there, it's completely white. I stand up and look at him. He looks at me with curiosity in his eyes. I reach out my arm and he does the same, we touch each others fingers and I know instantly who he is.

The king from the sun kingdom, the only kingdom that is completely dark as the sun will never shine there. But his eyes are glowing with the sun's raw power. He walks slowly towards Nora and then looks up at the trees and he raises his arms and it feels like the forest becomes darker and darker.

*Done. I can hold it for about an hour. I have drawn all the suns energy into my body. Your friend Melinda thought that would help our future queen from her problem* He say into my mind and I sigh and look down at Nora.

Ares shake his head. Then we hear it another one coming from the shadows amongst the trees.

Another lycan comes forth but he seems to have gray almost silver fur and he seems tired. I meet him on the same terms that I met the sun king.

*I am Athos, the king of moon kingdom. We naturally harvest the moons energy and I was sent here by your ga mma, Daniel to help our future queen* He say and I nod and show him Nora and he blink.

He crouch down beside her and hold out his hands above her and a cold yet gentle light comes from his hands and Nora seems to wake up with a howl instead of a scream.

She turns her head and she looks haunted. But I can see it now, her fur is sprouting and she seems to get bigger. The moon king rises but still holds his hand above her body.

Nora's fur a black but her paws, ears, muzzle and tail are silver white. She is beautiful but she is still growing. Her legs are becoming longer and more elegant, her back is stretching and curving and her head also becomes longer.

"Oh my goddess, Helios, do you see that?" Ares says and I see Nora but I don't understand what it is that I am seeing.

"It is a miracle! Aurelie is the first werewolf, do you get it, Helios? the first werewolf, the first wolf shifter!"

Ares exhales his words in awe and then it clicks

Oh shit, the first wolf shifter, she is stronger than any of us. Like an alpha of lycans. She is the first werewolf.

She can doom us all.

Part 2 Chapter 26

Nora's POV

After I fainted I was in the moon goddess land again and I could see Artemis again. She seemed happy and I also saw Aurelie again but this time she looked different, she was even more beautiful than I remembered.

Wait? What? I remember?

“Yes, dear Nora. In my land you can remember but the second you wake up in your world again your memories will fade. A witch’s magic can’t touch my land, you know. So now when you do have your memories what do you think of your mates?” The moon goddess asks and Artemis laughs

“I don’t know what to think actually, I want to remember. I don’t want to sit back and see how my other self is living a life that I want to be in charge of. It feels like the new me without memories is some intruder in my mind and body” I say and I feel my tears falling freely.

“I know dear child and I shall give you one gift since I know you will be a great queen one day and with Aurelie’s powers you will be stronger than everyone else. So let’s see if you can handle this gift of mine” The moon goddess says and kisses my forehead.

I look at Artemis one more second and I whisper that I miss her and then I feel myself getting pulled away from there.

It doesn't hurt anymore but it feels strange and something is itching all over my skin. But as I try to itch I notice that my body won't move the way I want it to. I open my eyes and try to look around, I am still in the forest, sigh.

I try to stand up but I fall down again and I do that three more times until I hear someone chuckle and I turn my head and see that it is Ares. I try asking what his problems are but not a word comes out of my mouth.

"Nora, you have just shifted so your balance is a little off but let me tell you as you seem confused.

You are in Aurelie's form, you are standing on four paws not two legs" Ares explained and I looked down.

I do have paws and they are silver white, I turn my head to look at the rest of me and I notice that my fur is black but my back paws are also white.

*Ares, please, I want to know how I look like* I mindlink him and he chuckles.

"First you need to stand up, come I will help you"

Ares says and I feel one of his hands under my chest and the other one under my stomach.

After finding my balance I try to take one step and after a few tests I get the hang out of my four paws without tripping over myself.

“Is this her first time shifting?” Someone asks and I jump at the voice, turning around way too quickly. I see two more lycans, one silver gray and the other, white? Who are they?

*Nora, look at me* Helios voice comes into my mind and I turn my head and stare Helios right in his eyes.

*This is how you look* He says and I can see the image of myself inside my mind and I smile. Da mn, I am beautiful.

*Actually this is my true form so it is more like I am da mn beautiful, don't you agree, Nora?* Aurelie pouts and I giggle at her.

*Do you want to take control and run around then?* I ask her and she jumps up and races for control. Het her have it but! do want to peek out to see what she is doing.

“Oh sh it, Nora, your eyes!” Ares gasps and I wonder what he means by that.

*One of your eyes are glowing purple but the other is a glowing gold color* Helios says in my mind and I am surprised over the color.

*Like when I and Artemis were truly connected and I had a golden ring in my eyes?* I answer him back and I can see him look surprised.

*Do you remember? Is Mia's curse broken* He asks and I shake my head.

Wait, I do remember everything, even the stuff that happened in my coma. Why?

*She did tell you that she would give you a gift, Nora* Aurelie reminds me and I nod for myself. Thank you, moon goddess.

Then I feel Aurelie howl and run away from my mates. They seemed stunned for a minute but then I could feel them coming after. But the other two lycans there didn't come with us. I wonder who they are.

I enjoy watching through Aurelie's eyes as she runs through the forest. She is quite fast, even faster than Helios and Ares. But I am wondering one thing.. Where are we?

I don't recognize anything here?! There is a beautiful waterfall here and flowers and rocks and stuff but I don't get it. Have we run for that long that we have come to the borders?

*No stupid, I am testing a thing* Aurelie answers with a huff.

We lay on the ground waiting for something, no we are waiting for Helios and Ares and here they come. The bushes rustle and I can see them but they stop and seem confused. Aurelie sits up but it's like they can't see us at all.

*Is this your master plan, Aurelie?* I ask her and she whines.

*No, I thought they would shift and come here. Can they see us** She wonders the same thing that I wonder.

She gets up and walks towards them, that's when I notice it.

*Wait, Aurelie. That purple flower there, it's wolfsbane, but that flower are extinct and all the books say it only grows in the forbidden land, the moon goddess land* I explain to her and she sniffs the flower.

She walks past it and both Helios and Ares get confused as if they suddenly could see us.

*Nora, Aurelie, where were you? You just disappeared and then showed up from thin air* Helios huffs

We turn our heads and we can still see the waterfall so I project that image to both Helios and Ares but they tilt their heads and show us what they are seeing.

The ground is completely black as if there has been a fire and killed everything living here. It's like what Helios had seen in his vision before. But why is it like this here?

*Aurelie, go back, I mean put your legs over the wolfsbane, I want to try something* I say to her and she backs up and both guys gasp

*Hey, half of you disappeared, what are you doing? Ares asks and I think back.

*The flower, can you touch it Aurelie? Rip it up in that case say and she sniffs it and we could hear Helios say that we disappeared again but when Aurelie ripped it up with her mouth and when she dropped it on the ground it caught fire.

And suddenly a wind came and ruffled our fur. And by instinct I knew that the guys could see the waterfall now so Aurelie turned and rushed towards the water and jumped inside. The shift back didn't feel as much and I could hear the guys asking where we were and I swam up to the surface.

"Hi guys, I met the moon goddess a while back and she gave me this gift. As long as I am in Aurelie's true form or in this tiny piece of land I have all of my memories intact. Since it is the moon goddess land you are currently standing at and no magic can touch here” I say and wink when I notice that both guys are naked.

“Be prepared then, Nora. Because We will get you now” Helios and Ares say at the same time and dive in.

Part 2 Chapter 27

Helios POV

We loved being on that tiny piece of land but we couldn't stay there for very long, just as Nora had said, no magic can touch the land and since the curse was formed from magic. Well lets just say that we began to age way too quickly, if we had stayed longer we would have turned to old men and probably died. Even if Ares thinks that would have been silly since lycans can live to almost 300 years without dying so.. But I didn't want to take any chances and Nora didn't either so we got out of there and Nora's second shift went smoother.. But she did say it hurt. Well the first time I shifted it hurt also but for a werewolf it's even worse. Breaking their bones all over again, ugh. I shiver with just the thought of breaking all the bones over and over again.

We run back to our castle but Nora seems sad over the fact that she will have to shift back into her human form and lose all of her memories. Stupid Mia, putting a curse on her like that.

Right now Nora is laying down and has her head down on the grass while Ares went to search for dad. I stay with her and tell her about the plans for the meeting and also that her relatives are here.

*Can you get Kara?* she asks me suddenly and I nod at her.

I get up and mindlink both Felix and Kara while I shift back.

"They are coming" I say and she huffs and I sit back with her. Touching her smooth fur and I can feel some tingles when I touch her.

"Oh my goddess, Nora?" my dad's voice comes through the air and I look up to see him and Ares..

Felix and Kara come behind them and Nora gets up and takes one step out into the light. Dad looks surprised at the sight of her and then he looks confused and almost scared. "You are beautiful, Nora," Kara says with awe in her voice.

"She is a wolf shifter" Felix says and narrows his eyes on her.

*Helios, is there something wrong with being a wolf shifter?* she asks in my mind and I shake my head slowly.

"I will show you later." I say and smile sadly.

"Nora, is it true that you can remember everything in this form?" dad asks and Kara gasps.

Dad turns around and looks surprised that Felix and Kara were there, perhaps he didn't hear them before.

Nora nods and turns to look at me and then goes back into the forest. She howls sadly and we can hear her shift back and I look at Kara.

Kara follows Nora in the forest with some clothes. And in a minute both come out and this time Nora has a pink dress on her.

"Uhm, what happened?" Nora asks and I can't help myself to feel disappointed. She forgot everything.

“You shifted,” Ares said and Nora seemed surprised by it.

“Oh, okay, cool I guess.” She says with some uncertainty in her voice.

“Can we go in now, I need to take a shower, I feel dirty” Nora whispers the last part and I try my best not to laugh and I notice that Ares holds his hand over his mouth.

“Yeah, let’s leave these idiots for themselves and come on” Kara says and takes Nora’s arm and pulls her along.

“So, a wolf shifter huh? Well you need to explain this to her more closely so she understands it, Helios and Ares. From now on both of you will have to be careful around Nora and her friends.” Dad says and we nod.

I get up and start walking towards the castle, Felix joins me and he tells me that there is only one king missing now and then we can begin the meeting tomorrow. I hope everything goes smoothly...

*The next day at the meeting*

Helios POV

We are sitting in the dining room, all eight kings and their mates. Right now we raised the question about witches and there has been some disagreements and fights but we have established on point.

The witches will live. Well, duh, I won't go and kill off friends and family just because they know how to take care of nature.

Sheesh.

But the problem with Maya has spread over the other kingdoms as well and now we are discussing how we are going to deal with her instead.

Dad nods at me and I stand up and walk to the door that leads to the kitchen where Daniel and Melinda are waiting.

"You can come in now, Daniel be prepared, some of them aren't fond of this" I warn him and he nods. I open the door and let Melinda walk before me and Daniel after me. I guide her up to where dad is sitting and she sits besides him. Daniel is standing behind her.

"What is this?" Who is that woman?" blue king Isaac asks and points at Melinda.

"This is Melinda, she is mated to our ga mma, and she is also a witch from the coven in our kingdom. And she also happens to be Maya's sister" I say as I sit down.

At first it was quiet and then it raged on. Blue king Isaac wanted to kill Melinda and Daniel roared and then some of the other kings went on about killing all the witches. Well it was a lot they threw out of their mouths.

Dad put his head down on his hands and sighed.
“Enough!” We brought Melinda here so she could tell you about her sister and put up counter measures. Not for you guys to kill her, she hasn’t done anything to harm any one of us. So shut it” My dad slams down his fist on the table so it gives a little crack.

I make a face at the crack, Anna is going to be so damn angry about that one. Sheesh. Dad seems to think the same thing as he lifts his fist and looks at the crack and then at me. I shrug but stop when I see the black king’s chosen mate, Lara.

She walks with confidence up to where dad is sitting with Melinda and she puts her hand over the crack and then her hand glows green and she smiles.

“Fixed” she says and takes away her hand and I look at the crack but there isn’t any there. She made the wood repair itself.

“Oh you are a forest witch” Melinda says and Lara nods.

“Yes and you are?” Lara asks.

“Wind witch” Melinda answers and I tilt my head. Trying to keep up in their conversation.

“All nature witches connect with an element at an early age. I connected with the forest and have it easy as I can manipulate everything that belongs to a forest. Like trees, flowers, the ground and so on.” Lara explains “Yes, exactly and since I connected to the wind I have it easier to manipulate the wind element, I can make a tornado or blow away the clouds and I also are rather good at healing and potions for that matter” Melinda chuckles and I blush.

“What are the other elements?” My dad asks and both Lara and Melinda look at each other.

“Water, fire and ... energy” Melinda says and Lara nods.

“Water and fire are relatively harmless but energy is more dangerous. It allows a witch to steal another person’s energy and they can also use dark and forbidden magic if they choose” Lara explains.

Everyone gets quiet and just as I was about to ask a thing

Daniel roars as he pulls Melinda down on the floor and takes a knife in his chest.

Part 2 Chapter 28

Nora's POV

All eight kings in one room, there is a powerful aura here. So let's see if I have got it right now.

The red king, Felix, can spot any lie at a miles distance and you can never lie to him. It's impossible actually, I have tried.

The black king, Blake, is good at combat, I mean ridiculous good. They are fast learners and they can see their challengers move before they have done it themselves. Need to see that for myself.

The blue king, Isac, is good at swimming? I thought that was a joke at first but now they are good swimmers as they can hold their breath for a very long time.

The green king, James, is particularly good at healing, they live a long healthy life.

The purpur king, Alex, is good at finding gemstones and they can see really well in darkness.

The sun king, Mikel, has eyes like the burning sun and he can also harvest the sun's energy.

The moon king, Athos, is always in his lycan form if there aren't any lunar eclipses around the corner.

The silver king, well there isn't anyone right now. Since their kingdom is on forbidden land..

But there is Helios and Ares' dad, king Cerus, that hold all the kingdoms together.

But of course this kingdom is most famous for the stupid curse...

But now we are sitting in the dining room and Chaos broke out after the blue king threw a dagger at Melinda but hit Daniel in his chest. I try to remain calm as I sit in my chair next to Ares.

Melinda and Lara healed Daniel in a matter of minutes but I am losing patience as the discussion is more like a yelling war.

I stand up and walk out of the room, trying to rein in my anger. I hear that someone is following me and I turn around just to see the person I don't want to see. The blue king Isac.

"What do you want?" I ask and he smiles while walking towards me but I hold my ground.

"I want you.. dead" he says and takes a hold of my neck and lifts me up in the air.

"We don't need to break the curse and we certainly don't need a wolf shifter" he yells.

My mind goes blank and I try to remember what I should do but he squeezes my neck harder and my vision blurs. Then I feel her, Aurelie, she is fighting to come forward and I let her.

She shifts so the blue king is forced to release us and then we attack, but he shifts into his lycan. Oh da mn, he wanted this, he is so da mn large. Even bigger than the king. But Aurelie doesn't back down; she jumps and takes a grip with her jaws around his shoulder and flips him over with us.

She still has-a-grip on his shoulder and starts to shake her head. The blue king drags around like a ragdoll over the floor. I hear the door open again and this time I can smell both Helios and Ares.

I release the blue king and turn to look at them but they don't see me as they are looking at the blue king. I looked down as well and just realized I fell into his stupid scheme.

I shift back and so does Isac, Ares thinks fast and puts his shirt on me but he gasps when he does. I turn around and look at him and Helios. But Ares and Helios are both growling at Isac.

"Haha wow that was great. I have never seen a wolf shifter before. You are beautiful, Nora. So what do you say, do you want to be my queen?" Isac says and I am confused right now.

"What?" Who in their right mind would want to be your queen, after you tried to strangle me and tell me that you don't want to lift the curse? "Jerk!" I growl at him and then storm away from there, up to my room.

I change my clothes quickly and take Ares' shirt with me down again. He waits for me in the hall and I give him the shirt but he looks worried and he touches my neck but I flinch at his touch.

"Sorry, I bet it hurts" he says and I nod my head.

"Aurelie healed the inside of my throat but the outside will take an hour or so to heal" I explain and Ares nods but doesn't touch me after that.

We walk back to the dining room and I sit down at my place with Ares next to me and Helios on the other side. I stare at the table, refusing to raise my head to hide my tears.

Dividing into pages Dow

"Excuse me, Miss Nora, can you please look up a second." a Voice comes above me and when I do look up, I see the green king, James standing there smiling.

He reaches out his hand towards me but I flinch and he stops.

"I won't touch you if you don't want to but if you could just touch me instead, just a hand would do" he says while giving me a gentle smile. I feel the truth in his words, he won't touch

I give him my hand and I feel warmth spread from his hand into my hand and then up my arm and to my neck. I look into King James' eyes and they are glowing purple with a green ring around them.

He releases my hand and I touch my neck but it doesn't hurt anymore but the real trouble is more than my bruises healing and I think King James has noticed it too.

"Hmm, perhaps I should have warned you that I can heal any kind of wounds, even witch's magic. Your mark was made of magic and my gift took it away so I guess it's free competition right now about your hand or neck in this matter" King James said with a wink.

Everyone looks at me and both Helios and Ares stand up in a defensive position beside me and I sigh. No, I don't want a fight between everyone because of me.

"No, this means since the wolf shifter isn't bound to the crown prince anymore, we can kill her and they won't die because of it.

Because I refuse to bend my head to a damn werewolf shifter" Isaac screams and shifts and attacks .. again..

But this time instead of one lycan all of the kings shifted and all threw themselves at me, yikes. Ares pulled me up and pushed me out of the way but I tripped and banged my head into a wall and I felt someone's claws entering my back before I fainted.

What in the world happened?

Part 2 Chapter 29

Helios POV

Da mn. Now we have done it. Everything is full of chaos. When the green king healed Nora's neck he took away Mariah's magic and her mark disappeared so now everyone wants to kill Nora since they think she will destroy the world or something like that.

Ares pushed Nora to the side when three of the kings jumped over the table to get a hold of her and Nora accidentally hit her head on the wall and fainted but the blue king came from nowhere and shifted mid air. He landed on Nora and scratched her pretty bad on her back, the blood gushed out from the wounds.

I shifted on instinct but Melinda was faster, she used magic and there was a strong wind in the room that lifted everyone except for her, Lara and Nora. All lycans were kept apart high in the ceiling.

“Lara, can you check on Nora?” Melinda said and I watched how Lara ran to Nora and started to heal her.

When her wounds had closed Lara gasped as she saw the old scar on Nora’s back.

“This old scar here didn’t heal, how did she get it?”

Lara asks and looks at Melinda but Melinda shrugs

“Silver knife” Ares says as he hasn’t had time to shift yet so he can still speak normally.

“Oh my goddess, well in that case. You guys should think of a way to apologize to Miss Nora right this instant or when she wakes up.” Lara says and I agree but I don’t understand what she is pointing out.

“What does the silver knife have to do with it?”

Melinda asks

and Lara tilts her head.

“She is a wolf shifter, Melinda,” Lara smiles.

“Oh dear goddess” Melinda says and accidentally releases us from her hold and all of us come crashing down onto the floor and table.

“You can only kill a wolf shifter with a silver knife in their heart but since Nora has already encountered a silver knife before she is immune to silver.” Lara says and I nod and shift back.

“She has been wounded by a silver knife twice actually. Earlier this year, after the mateball she was in a tournament and faced an alpha that stabbed her with a silver knife” I explain and Lara gasps.

“She must be really strong then. But you guys should really treasure her, she is immortal” Lara says and smiles just as we hear that Nora is about to awake.

Nora’s POV

Again I am looking at Artemis but this time she hugged me and I hugged her back.

“miss you” I say and she licks my face.

“Ugh don’t do that” I say and she laughs.

“You don’t have much luck right now, Nora” the moon goddess says as she comes over to us.

“No it doesn’t seem so but I was wondering over one thing. We found a piece of land with a waterfall..” I begin to say and she holds up her hand.

“Yes I noticed that, that little piece belongs to this realm actually that is also why your mates couldn’t stay in there for so long” she explains but I have to know.

“That is the silver kingdom, but who is the king there?” I ask and she giggles.

“No king there but there is a queen but first of all she must regain her memories and take her place by her king’s side” the moon goddess says and I nod.

“How do I break the curse on my memories?” I ask and she smiles at me. And then she begins to fade and I know it is because I am about to wake up.

“You already have the answer on that, but make sure Helios upholds his promise” she says and I watch her and Artemis being swallowed by darkness.

Melinda POV

I help Nora regain consciousness and help her sit up as she blinks away her tears. She seems unfocused and I feel her forehead but she shakes her head and mumble something about a book.

“I think Nora should get some rest in her room and eat something” I say to our king and he nods.

Ares comes over and lifts Nora up in his arms and he smiles at me and nods..

“I will update you if something else happens” Helios tells his brother before he walks out.

“So how about that, everyone calm down and sit down and we can talk properly this time?” I clap my hands and they look at me like I am a horse and not a human, I shake my head and I take a seat beside Daniel.

Daniel takes my hand and kisses it and I smile at him. I am so happy to be with him, I truly love this stubborn lycan.

I watch as everyone sits down again and Lara takes her place beside the black king once again. I study him, he feels familiar in some way but I can't put my finger on it.

“So what plans do we have about this Maya woman?” The green king asks and I nod.

“I will go out and search for her and kill her.” I declare and everyone gets quiet.

“What, are you sure, She is your sister?” Helios says but I nod

“The coven has discussed it and we can't allow her to keep going like this, not after what she did to..

Mia” I explain and look down.

“Who is Mia?” the black king asked.

“She was Maya's daughter but it was I who raised her and Maya got drunk on her own daughter's magic so in an attempt to take it back she killed Mia” I say but I can feel the words getting stuck in my throat, choking me slowly.

“Well then we will leave your sister to you and your coven but now another question, what about Miss Nora?” the purple king asks

“What about her?” Helios says.

“Well she is unmarked and even though you say that she is your mate and lycan but she isn’t she is a wolf shifter. She has the strength to kill all of us.” The green king says and I roll my eyes at him.

“I want to show her my kingdom,” the red king says.

“One of her parents came from my kingdom and I want her to learn more about what she is coming from” he says and Helios nods.

“She would like that” Helios answers and Kara, the girl that looks so much like Nora, smiles happily.

“Well in that case she should come visit my kingdom as well, since the other parent comes from my kingdom” the black king says but..

“Then she should visit all the kingdoms and she can begin with mine” the blue king says

Helios stand up growling.

“So you can what? Rape her and mark her as your own?” I say and stare at him but he just smiles.

“Yes, of course. I want her and I will do anything to make her mine!”

Part 2 Chapter 30

Ben's POV

I got myself a second chance mate, well actually I am her first mate but it still feels like I have been granted a second chance mate. But this time she is a hybrid. A hybrid between witch, wolf and vampire.

For the grand meeting, I took some time off and the king understood my reasons so I went with Samantha to her home. She lives in a small house on the borders to the human town, the house aren't very big on the outside but it's way bigger on the inside.

Must be magic.

She lives an ordinary life, no hobbies but I did notice that she likes to take photos of things. She said she likes it because time stands still in the photo even after 100 years. I have never thought about it like that. But I suppose she is right. A photo is a frozen moment, always still never going forward. Beautiful. Ugly. Sad. Happy. Ever after.

I followed her to her work and even though we didn't talk much I like being near her. Today she has a long drive and I can't come so I am wandering around the mall where Ares and Anna were with me before.

I walk into a clothing store, looking at baby clothes for baby Hannes but I am completely lost in this jungle of clothes. I look around and see a young girl working in the store so I go up to her.

"Hello, miss, I need your help" I say and smile and she turns to look at me. She smiles as well and I see a glimpse of the mark on her neck.

"Hello, of course I can help you. What are you looking for?" She answers happily and I nod.

"Well I am looking for baby clothes for a baby boy, he is a month old but grows quickly" I say and she smiles a knowing smile.

"Oh, is he a four or a two?" she asks and answer that he is two. She nods and seems to think but then she guides me through the store.

It is known that lycans grow faster than werewolves so I bet she knows what I need. She takes up a basket and wonders how much clothes he already has but I shrug. So she picks out bodys in a blue color, like five of different sizes and then one piece, socks, pants, pajamas, scarfs and some other tiny but cute stuff.

“Great, do you have any bags for things like diapers and other stuff?” I ask and she giggles and nods her head.

“Yes, we have different sizes as well and colors, come here I will show you” she says and guides me to the shelf with all the bags and I look probably lost because she takes down two- bags.

One is really small and the other is big.

“The small one is really good if you keep it on the stroller or just need it at home and the big one you will need if you are going to let someone else have the baby and you need to pack a lot of stuff in it.” she says and I feel so lost. I am not ready for a baby yet.

I look up towards the bags and smile when I see one that is really cute. It’s a light blue moon with stars on it.

“Oh that one is really cute but not everyone likes that pattern so we actually have that one on sale right now. And if you are interested it comes in a set” She smiles and I feel that I am getting played but what the heck, why not? When I left the store like an hour later I had five bags with me full of stuff for baby Hannes. To think it would be so hard to shop for a baby and the king even sent me to shop for a baby stroller.

Now I need to find a store where I can find one of those things. I look around to find a map over this place or someone to guide me there. It’s a myth you know that guys won’t stop and ask for directions.. It happens like one time in a hundred years or so..

“So you have a kid then?” Samantha says and I turn around to see her standing there leaning onto the wall and I smile as I see her.

“Nope, not mine, but I was sent to buy stuff so .. Here I am..” I say and she seems a bit happier by my answer.

“What do you need more then?” She asks and I sigh as I look at all the bags.

“A baby stroller but that can’t be so hard to find right?” I say and she laughs.

“Are you crazy?” That is another jungle, believe me” She says and laughs as she takes the lead and helps me to go into the right store.

Samantha was right. There are over a hundred different strollers here and I don't understand everything.

I walk over to a guy that works in the store.

"Hello. I want to buy a stroller but I am so new at this so I don't know what to get." I say and he smiles and I notice that he is a werewolf and he smells like the girl in the clothing store.

"Hi." Let me guess you are the one that bought a lot of baby clothes and my girlfriend held you captive in the store for more than two hours?" he says and I stare at him.

"Oh I thought it was only one hour or perhaps that was what I wished" I say and laughs and he laughs with me.

"Okay, you need a stroller for a baby boy that is "lycan" isn't that right? He asks while whispering the word "lycan"

"Yes, exactly." We need a stroller that can handle anything, like a castle, stairs, gravel and forest without a problem " I say and he seems amused.

"Of course the boy are going to grow faster than what we are used to, so you need a stroller where you can shift the seats after age.” he said while thinking.

He begins to walk and wave a woman over and he explains what we are looking for and she nods but when she looks at me..

She looks at me like she wants to eat me up.

After 20 minutes we found the perfect stroller, but I could have taken the first we saw but that one wasn't any good apparently.

Whatever I am so tired after this shopping trip.

Samantha is still having fun after that woman in the stroller shop, she tried so hard to show me that she wanted me that she even tried to loose some of her button in the blouse she was wearing.

But she got caught with her nails in one of them and when she ripped her nail and all the other buttons so her breasts just popped out of her blouse.

And the guy that had helped me sighed and told her that no one wanted to look at those tiny grapes that she was so proud of.

We were having a good time when Helios rang my phone and I answered but his voice was in total panic when I answered.

“Ben, come home right now, Nora she is.. dead”
