Chapter 1081

The experts erupted with long-suppressed anger and roared at Andrius.

Swoosh!

The next moment, Andrius suddenly opened his eyes, and a cold light flashed across the sky. The sharpness of that moment was like a judge passing judgment, making people shudder.

"Andrius Moonshade!"

Wade shouted coldly, "Today's Ancient Martial Assembly is a rare event in the martial world. Why do you engage in slaughter and put the Medicine Sect in an unjust situation?"

Facing Wade's righteous reprimand, Andrius simply lowered his eyelids indifferently and ignored him.

"Arrogance!"

"Andrius, there is always retribution for madness!"

"Andrius, if you don't give an explanation today and pay the price, don't even think of leaving!"

"Andrius..."

Andrius' indifferent appearance immediately angered everyone, and they began to curse him.

Norvin said sinisterly, "Wade, it's hard for your superficial questioning to dispel our suspicions..."

11

Wade's expression darkened as he looked at Norvin, and he said sarcastically, "If you have something to say, then say it. No need to go around in circles like a woman."

This time, it was Norvin's expression that darkened. However, he had many years of experience and was not easy to deal with. He immediately put on a fake smile and said, "It's quite simple.

"You can personally take action and kill Andrius, naturally dispelling suspicion and avenging the experts of each family. We'll all believe you then.

"Or, you can personally take action and get killed by Andrus, also dispelling suspicion. But rest assured, even if you die, all of us present will avenge you."

Norvin was truly ruthless.

With his words, either Wade or Andrius must fall today. Regardless of who it was, it was definitely a profitable deal for the Swallow family.

What a clever and brilliant scheme!

"Norvin Swallow!" Wade naturally did not want to fight Andrius to the death and immediately shouted, "The Swallows have suffered no damage either. Can I say that your family is also colluding with Andrius?"

Wade had lost his rationality under his anger. The flaws in his words were obvious.

"Hahaha..." Norvin immediately burst into laughter. "Everyone knows that the Swallows and Andrius are at odds. Even if I said that the Swallows are colluding with Andrius, would Ms. Orior believe it? Would the martial experts from all over Florence believe it?"

Wade knew he had a point and had nothing to say.

"Wade, quickly clear your name and dispel suspicion, or don't blame us for being ruthless!"

"Wade, either you or Andrius must fall today. Otherwise, the suspicion on the Medicine Sect cannot be cleared."

"Wade..."

The crowd clamored, their goals unanimous.

Wade's face was ashen as he looked at Maisie. "What do you think, Ms. Orior?"

Maisie said coldly, "You should ask my grandfather instead."

Nile had long been killed by Andrius. Telling Wade to ask him was an answer in itself.

"Fine, fine!"

Wade had no choice but to hold the Coiling Dragon Spear and walk to Andrius, stopping several meters away

Chapter 1082

He took a deep breath and said coldly, "Andrius, are you really not going to give me an explanation for the heinous actions you've committed today?"

Andrius' gaze lingered on his face for a moment, and he suddenly smiled. It was a meaningful and arrogant smile.

Then, he glanced at everyone else and said indifferently, "Heroes from all over the land have gathered here today, and many of them were once my friends.

"However, if you want to take my life, feel free to come. Don't hesitate. Just like I won't hesitate to use the Argentum Qilin Spear to kill all of you!"

At those words, a chilling and almost tangible killing intent spread in all directions from Andrius. It was unrestrained and seemed to reach the sky.

Everyone was stunned by Andrius' killing intent, and their expressions changed.

"Good, good!" Wade could not contain his anger and shouted, "I never expected the Medicine Sect to have helped such an ungrateful whelp. I must have been blind. I was really blind."

With a roar, Wade wielded the Coiling Dragon Spear and charged at Andrius.

The spear danced up and down, elusive like the endless ice and snow of Mount Valdez. It had an indistinguishable trajectory that was chilling to the bone.

Andrius' expression did not change due to his words.

Instead, he swiftly grabbed his spear and leaped into battle!

With a thrust, snowflakes floated furiously, dancing wildly with the snow on Mount Valdez, making it hard to distinguish between the snowflakes and the spearhead.

However, the chilling intent from the depths of his heart made it clear.

Andrius was serious.

The two were both spear master and former friends.

At this moment, amidst the desolate snow, a life-and-death battle unfolded. Many onlookers were shocked by Andrius' strength.

He was now using the sixth form of the Burden of Nine Skies. It was much stronger than what he used to kill several powerful opponents earlier.

As for Wade, he was already using the seventh form.

Both sides fought desperately.

However, Andrius was a Martial God, and his proficiency in the Burden of Nine Skies was much deeper than Wade's.

In the end, Andrius seized an opening and deflected Wade's spear.

Then, a cold and sharp spearhead headed straight for Wade's heart.

Seeing this scene, the corners of everyone's eyes twitched because of Andrius' strength and ruthlessness.

Chapter 1082

"No!" Kate screamed and rushed forward at the critical moment, shielding Wade without regard for her own life. "Andrius, you would never have reached where you are now if not for my grandfather!"

"You can still turn back! Why do you have to commit this unjust act?"

Faced with Kate's sudden appearance, Andrius remained calm without a hint of change. He raised the spear again.

The moment Kate was about to meet her end in this bleak snowfall, Wade pushed her to the side and grabbed the tip of Andrius' spear with both hands.

The force from the Argentum Qilin Spear was terrifying.

The next moment, it pierced Wade's heart, the tip of the spear poking out from his back.

"Pfft..."

Spurt.....

Wade's wound and mouth gushed blood without stopping.

"A-Andrius... Y-you..." Wade looked at Andrius in disbelief and collapsed backward before he could finish his words.

A Martial Emperor was still made of flesh and blood. No one could survive being pierced through the heart by a sharp weapon.

The Medicine Sect Master, Wade Klein, was dead!

"Grandpa-

"Sect Master-

When the experts of the Medicine Sect saw this scene, their eyes reddened as they let out thunderous roars.

Norvin grinned, a triumphant smile flashing in his eyes, and shouted, "Everyone! The Medicine Sect Master saved Andrius, but now he killed his savior..."

"It's clear that he has fallen into madness. He doesn't even recognize his kin. We should act to eliminate this evil in the martial world!"

Chapter 1083

His words were highly persuasive.

"That's right!"

"Putting aside the debt of saving his life, Andrius and Wade are still from the same bloodline. They both carry the blood of the Kleins, yet he commits such heinous acts. He deserves punishment!"

"Kill Andrius!"

"Andrius must die!"

"Kill!"

The experts shouted and rushed forward.

Shing!

A sword glinted. It was the First Elder of Sentinel Tower. Although his swordplay was not as powerful as Nile's, it was still superb and peerless.

Swoosh!

Whoosh!

Swish!

The next moment, everyone surged forward, displaying their various techniques.

Andrius used the eighth form of the Burden of Nine Skies to deal with them from all directions.

Snowflakes fluttered, and blood spattered.

The Argentum Qilin Spear in Andrius' hand had turned completely red due to the long accumulation of inner energy, like an iron rod being heated.

Every moment, someone was injured.

Under the highly intense battle, Andrius' mental, physical, and inner energy reserves were greatly depleted. He gradually became weaker as he grew fatigued.

He had killed too many people.

in the long run, he would eventually be exhausted and killed!

Clang!

Andrius swung his spear, knocking away many weapons, and leaped out of the encirclement, beginning to retreat.

"Trying to run?"

"Andrius, you can't escape!"

"You killed the Beholden Clan Master, the Carrell Stronghold Master, and the Medicine Sect Master, but you're trying to run away? Everyone, after him!"

Chapter 1083

“Kill Andrius Moonshade!”

The experts would not let Andrius escape and immediately chased after him.

Andrius ran while the experts pursued.

After a while, he was forced into a valley. The pure white snow and glistening frost were beautiful yet so dangerous.

The experts knew Andrius' prowess and did not dare to approach him easily. After all, many experts who had greedily attacked had been killed by Andrius.

Now, Andrius was completely surrounded with no way to escape. At most, he could only fight like a trapped beast, but it was difficult to break free from this snowy land.

They only needed to trap him for a few days and easily defeat him when he became exhausted. All they had to do was make sure that Andrius did not escape the encirclement.

“These people...” Andrius glanced at the distant figures, a cold glint flashing in his eyes. They're indeed persistent. They're trying to trap me to death here...”

As he muttered to himself, he took out a satellite phone he had prepared beforehand. It was his last lifeline.

He immediately called Anna.

“Wolf King...” Anna was overjoyed with Andrius' call and asked, “Is there anything you need me to do? Please tell me!”

Andrius said in a low voice, “I need you to dispatch a fighter jet to cross Mount Valdez and arrive on the east side. I'm trapped deep in a snowy mountain on the eastern side.”

“No problem!” Anna readily agreed and said, “Wait a moment, Wolf King. I'll arrange it immediately. It shouldn't take long.”

Seeing her so cooperative, Andrius instinctively asked, “Don't you want to know what I did and why I'm surrounded in the mountains?”

“I trust you!”

“For the sake of Florence, you've endured humiliation and were even slandered by the fake emperor. However, it was revealed that the fake emperor was just stirring up trouble. You've always been the victim.”

“It's clear that you're not a bad person. The things you do might not be understood by others or may seem absurd, but you must have your own reasons.”

Anna expressed her understanding of Andrius.

Andrius did not expect someone to understand him so well in a foreign land. For a moment, his heart felt warm, and the snow seemed to melt.

After hanging up the phone, he continued to sit cross legged to recover. He needed to be prepared for the possibility of skilled experts breaking in at any time.

Anna soon arrived at the throne room and found her father

“Father!” Anna said directly, “The Wolf King is trapped on a snowy mountain in Mount Valdez and wants us to dispatch a fighter jet to provide support. You need to issue the order quickly!”

Chapter 1083

Unexpectedly, her father refused.

Chapter 1084

“No!” Laurent shook his head with an extremely serious expression.

Anna's face was filled with astonishment. “Why, Father? He's the Wolf King of Florence and has protected Bardan for many years. Now, he's only requesting the deployment of a single fighter jet...”

“It seems you don't know the whole story.” Laurent sighed and said in a low voice, “Today is the day of the Ancient Martial Assembly in Florence. It's the day an Alliance Chief will be elected.”

“However, Andrius stopped many martial forces on their way up the mountain and killed many powerful experts. This has incited public anger. He's being besieged because of this.”

“Firstly, that place is within Florence's borders. If we send a fighter jet to cross the national border, it will be a dangerous act!”

“Secondly, do you know how powerful the ancient martial forces of Florence are? The former fake emperor was just a puppet of the Swallows. If we help Andrius now, it’s the same as offending all the martial forces in Florence. If that happens...”

At that point, Laurent’s expression became solemn. “Bardan is small and will definitely be turned upside down by these powerful forces. There will be no peace ever again!

“Even you and I, the king and princess of Bardan, are nothing to the martial forces. Do you understand?”

Laurent’s words were the truth. Any martial realm expert could easily assassinate him and Anna. This undoubtedly was a headache and had no solution.

“I don’t care!” Anna said stubbornly, “Since the Wolf King chose to do this, there must be a reason. He saved Mother Are you just going to watch him die?”

Laurent choked, not knowing what to say.

It was true that Andrius had saved Catherine.

However, at this moment, choosing to stand with him was not a wise move. He had to consider not just Andrius saving his wife’s life, but also the safety of the entire country.

When Anna saw him still hesitating, her expression turned resolute She suddenly pulled out a large sword from a guard by the side and held the sharp blade against her neck.

“Father! If you don’t dispatch a fighter jet to help Andrius today, I’ll die in front of you!” Anna’s voice was firm. Moreover, the blade in her hand gradually exerted force, leaving a faint trace of blood on her fair neck. She was serious!

“Anna, my daughter! Don’t be impulsive!” Catherine was frightened and hurriedly told Anna to stop Then, she said pleadingly to Laurent, “My love, think of this from another perspective...”

“Andrius is the Wolf King of Florence. Even if we send a fighter jet to their borders to help him, neither he nor the emperor will mind. Although he has always done things in a strange manner, his actions are always for the sake of the people of Florence. When has he ever acted out of selfishness or personal gain?

Chapter 1084

“This time, it seems like he’s been pushed to the brink and has no choice but to request support from Bardan, but in reality, isn’t this an opportunity for us?”

“An opportunity?” Laurent frowned, clearly not understanding what Catherine was saying.

“Yes, an opportunity!” Catherine continued, “Haven’t you always wanted to gain the grace of the Wolf King? If we help him when he’s in dire straits, don’t you think that

She trailed off, but Laurent already understood.

If they helped Andrius during his time of need now, it would undoubtedly offend all the ancient martial forces of Florence However, once Andrius recovered and ultimately won

The relationship between Bardan and the Wolf King would become stronger than ever!

In the future, Bardan would be able to stand proudly.

“Very well!”

After weighing the pros and cons for a moment, Laurent agreed and immediately ordered, “Dispatch the most advanced fighter jet to go to the Wolf King’s rescue! Remember, absolutely do not target the missiles at the ancient martial forces of Florence until the last moment At most, attack the ground. Do not cause any casualties.”

“Yes!”

On the nameless snowy mountain, Andrius was still sitting cross-legged.

After some discussion, the experts decided to play it safe and break in forcefully to prevent Andrius from escaping.

“Andrius Moonshade, you’re at a dead end now!”

Chapter 1085

Norvin's lips curled into a sneer as he said coldly, "I advise you not to resist and engage in meaningless struggle."

"Andrius, quickly surrender!"

"Andrius, your time of death has come. Come down and meet your end!"

"Andrius, Mount Valdez will be your burial site!"

"Andrius..."

The experts shouted and clamored one after another.

However, despite their loud voices, no one dared to approach. Andrius' strength was evident. No one wanted to risk being buried by him in the end.

"Hah..." Andrius glanced at the people with contempt and said in an icy tone, "The likes of dare to think of killing me? I advise you to quickly get lost and save your pathetic lives.

"Otherwise, if you make me angry, you'll all be buried in Mount Valdez and end up as ice sculptures, becoming the most beautiful scenery on this mountain!"

The group was not intimidated by his killing intent. Instead, they grew furious

"Arrogance!"

"Since Andrius is so stubborn, let's all attack together and chop him into pieces!"

"Kill, kill, kill!"

The enraged crowd was just about to charge forward.

Swoosh-

At that moment, a sharp sonic boom came from a distance.

you

Everyone instinctively looked up. Then, they saw a fighter jet flying over, carrying multiple air-to-ground missiles.

Swoosh-

Swoosh-

The next second, two missiles drew arcs in the air and finally whizzed toward the people on the mountain.

Upon seeing this scene, everyone was reminded of Andrius' identity as the Wolf King Fear suddenly enveloped them.

"Andrius, you have no honor!"

LL

"Andrius, you have too many schemes!"

"Andrius, you've gone too far!"

"Andrius..."

Although that was what they said, their bodies were honest as they immediately scattered and fled down the mountain at an incredible speed

They were all afraid of being blown to bits by missiles if they were a step too slow While they were experts in the martial world, they were still human. They would be reduced to red scraps of meat if they were blasted by a missile

Running was the only option!

They used inner energy and various techniques to hide and avoid death. Everyone used their full strength, not daring to joke around

Whir

The next moment, the missile exploded on the mountain and immediately caused a chain reaction

An avalanche!

Avalanches on a snowy mountain were incredibly terrifying Once it started, the entire mountain was affected, and large swaths of snow started rolling down

"Holy shit!"

"Oh my God

“Run, run!!

B

“Lunatic’ Andrius is a lunatic!”
