

1617

Ambrose scratched his head upon hearing that and did not know whether to laugh or cry.

‘Eira’s mother’s character is truly icy-cold.’

Swoosh!

The surrounding royal guards’ expressions changed slightly upon seeing this scene and discussed among themselves in hushed tones.

‘T-this woman is too arrogant! The Prince is already so polite and even invited them to stay at the palace. This will be an extreme honor for anyone, yet she rejected without barely giving it a thought while still maintaining her cold and indifferent attitude. How unappreciative!’

However, the royal guards did not dare say anything as well since Ambrose said nothing.

“Mother!”

Eira panicked a little and hugged Aurora’s arm before gently swaying it. “Why don’t we stay a little longer? I just met up with Brother Ambrose and haven’t caught up properly yet.”

“You’re just a kid, what’s there to catch up about?” Aurora frowned hard—giving no room for discussion.

Eira was disappointed upon hearing that as she understood her mother’s temper. There was usually no questioning of her words.

However, Eira was smart as she changed her thoughts and thought of something before she quickly said, “Mother, do you know that Ambrose has released Wudang, Shaolin, and the other sects?”

‘What? He has let them go?’

Aurora looked at Ambrose once more. ‘This kid might still be young, but he has righteousness.

Although Aurora had no whatsoever reaction at that moment, her impression of Ambrose changed a little in her heart.

“Mother, Brother Ambrose is a nice person. Why don’t we stay awhile?” Eira pleaded once again at that moment with her watery large eyes flashing with hope—looking pitiful.

“Fine.” Aurora flatly nodded.

Ambrose had released the sects, so he did help her finish off what she wanted to do. It would be inappropriate if she were to immediately walk off.

Eira suddenly burst into happiness seeing her mother agree. “Awesome! I know Mother loves me best!”

At the same time, Ambrose smiled and stretched his arm out to invite them. “Auntie, please.”

Ambrose then led the way.

Eira hugged Aurora’s arm happily while following behind.

“Father Emperor!”

Ambrose smiled and reported to Lord Kenny upon entering the main hall, “Father Emperor, it’s all a misunderstanding as it’s only Eira’s mother coming to the palace to look for her.”

Lord Kenny nodded and turned to look at Aurora only to be instantly stunned.

‘Gorgeous! She’s too gorgeous!’

Although Aurora was wearing ordinary clothes, it could not hide her kingdom-toppling gorgeous face. Especially her coldness and arrogance that distanced her a thousand miles from others was charming.

Lord Kenny’s eyes made Aurora extremely uncomfortable, but she did not show it on her face. She only nodded at Lord Kenny to greet him.

Wow!

The eunuch and palace maids were suddenly and instantly in an uproar.

Such an arrogant woman! How dare she not kneel when seeing the Emperor?

Lord Kenny’s expressions changed as well. His status was high above the others with endless powers and authority as the Emperor. How dare this woman be so bold.

The atmosphere in the main hall instantly became extremely suffocating with the surrounding eunuchs and palace maids who did not dare let out a single breath.

Lord Kenny finally smiled slightly right at this moment as he sized Aurora up and said, "Isn't this the previous Emei Sect Master? I've heard many rumors about how Sect Master Hansen is the World Universe's most gorgeous woman. It seems the rumors were true after seeing her in person."

Lord Kenny then lifted his hand. "Come, come, sit!"

Previously, Lord Kenny was responsible for the political affairs between the New World Royals and the other mainlands when he was still a lord. Lord Kenny was familiar with the other mainlands' sects, so he would naturally know Aurora Hansen.

In truth, Lord Kenny wanted to rage and show off his authority. However, he held back upon recalling Eira and Ambrose were friends.

More importantly, Lord Kenny had just ascended the throne not long ago and this was the time to gather people on his side. Aurora was a Heaven Ascension level cultivator. It would help him to properly secure the throne if he could get her to his side.

A eunuch immediately pulled a chair over upon his words.

Aurora nodded and slowly sat down.

Lord Kenny smiled right at this moment and asked, "Master Hansen! I heard that Master Hansen has left the Emei Sect with your whereabouts unknown for the past few years. Dare I ask, where are you currently staying?"

Aurora thought for a while before replying, "We've been roaming all over and gaining knowledge."

"Master Hansen, you were already well known among the world of cultivators many years ago. Your cultivation level must have increased tremendously from the past few years of wandering around. It's my honor to have you here at the palace today." Lord Kenny smiled.

He then immediately waved at the eunuch beside and instructed, "Quick, get the kitchen to prepare a banquet. I want to properly host Master Hansen and her daughter. In addition, order the officials to come into the palace as well. There can be no mistakes."

Lord Kenny naturally wanted to host them properly as Aurora was a strong cultivator and her daughter was a match for Ambrose as well.

Aurora was showing a calm face and smiled lightly. However, she was secretly shocked at heart.

This was the highest honor to a guest for the New World Royals to feast with the accompaniment of officials.

Eira beside her was extremely excited at the same time.

She had not expected the Emperor would pay such attention to her mother and herself. It seemed like seeking Ambrose out was her most correct decision made for the past few years.

In the Full Energy Hall a few minutes later!

The officials have all arrived as the banquet soon started.

Delicious dishes were constantly served as a group of palace dancers danced in the middle of the hall. It was an extravagant affair.

Aurora sat in the main guest seat—enjoying the dance while drinking wine.

Lord Kenny was in a good mood and full of smiles on the throne.

The surrounding officials were toasting to Aurora.

“To the legendary gorgeous Master Hansen!”

“Yes, we’ve long heard about Master Hansen from the World Universe. The well-known ice mountain goddess. You’re indeed extremely stunning upon seeing you in person today.”

“To Master Hansen!”

These officials knew the Emperor’s purpose for hosting this banquet was to get Aurora to his side. They would naturally try hard to flatter her.

Aurora smiled upon facing the crowd’s enthusiasm. However, she did not drink much and only took very small sips for every toast to her while still maintaining a cold and elegant aura.

“Master Hansen!” Lord Kenny smiled at her right at this moment. “I have a suggestion. I am prepared to appoint you as the Country Secretary based on your exquisite beauty and powers.”

He then looked at Ambrose and Eira by the side as he smiled and continued, “I also see that Ambrose and Eira like each other very much.

It’s fated for them to have been through many things together. I’ve decided to crown Eira as the Crown Princess. We can then hold the wedding once they’re adults. I wonder what are your thoughts, Master Hansen?”

Lord Kenny then hopefully looked at Aurora.

These two decisions were his utmost sincerity. He was sure Aurora would not reject him.

Wow!

The entire main hall was in an uproar at that moment as every official was looking at Aurora with envy and shock.

The Emperor was very generous.

Not only did he appointed Aurora as the Country Secretary, but also wanted her daughter to be the Crown Princess as well. Although Ambrose was not his biological son, everyone knew he treated him as one and the throne would be passed onto him in the future.

Eira would become the future Empress if that was the case.

The Country Secretary and Mother of the future empress. Aurora's status in the future would be unspeakably amazing.

Swoosh!

Eira's face blushed at the same time and was indescribably embarrassed but felt extremely sweet in her heart.

At that moment, Eira just reached the age where she was starting to be aware of romance. She had liked Ambrose for a long time but did not know how to express it. Therefore, Eira was elated at that moment when the Emperor had mentioned clearly the matter of wanting to crown her as the Crown Princess and suddenly did not know how to respond.

Ambrose was stunned there as well with his mind blanked.

His father was going to betroth him and Eira? This happiness came too suddenly!

Ambrose soon came to his senses and was extremely excited. He long had feelings for Eira in his heart, but they were still not adults after all. In addition, He did not know how to confess properly.

Ambrose looked at Aurora as well in excitement while waiting for her response.

Aurora was Eira's mother after all. Such huge matters like marriage would need her permission.

“No,” said Aurora coldly with her extremely determined exquisite face that gave the impression of no space for discussion.

“I don’t agree to both the Country Secretary position and their marriage.”

“Gasp!”

The entire Full Energy Hall was in utter silence upon hearing that as everyone’s eyes were on Aurora in bafflement.

‘D-did she refused? Did she reject the Emperor, just like that?’

Not only the officials but even Ambrose and Eira were also in a daze as they looked at Aurora in confusion.

‘Why? Why did she refuse this double happiness?’

Eira felt aggrieved at that moment as tears kept swirling in her eyes. She looked quite pitiful.

“Auntie!”

Ambrose could no longer take it at that moment and questioned Aurora, “Why not? Eira and I liked each other very much. I promise I’ll treat her well in the future.”

“No means no!” Aurora did not hesitate and determinedly said.

Eira and Ambrose’s biological father was Darryl. How could they marry? It would be incest.

The atmosphere in the main hall instantly turned extremely heavy.

Lord Kenny’s expressions went dark like he could blow up at any time.

‘How could Aurora reject his sincere offer so straightforwardly? She did not respect the Royals! It’s despicable!’

“Aurora Hansen!”

Someone walked out among the officials with a stern face right at this moment. He was none other than Florian Darby.

Florian walked a few steps forward and glared at Aurora before reprimanding, “How bold of you! The Emperor rewarded you, yet you are being so unappreciative. Do you know of your sins?”

Florian then continued in anger, “Although you were from the renowned Emei Sect, you’re just a lowly cultivator. Does it mean that the Prince isn’t a match for your daughter in your heart?”

1620

Florian looked at Aurora and angrily continued, “You are also the previous generation Emei Sect Master, so how can you be so unappreciative as to disagree when the Emperor wants to appoint you as the Country Secretary.”

Florian would not have dared to speak to Aurora that way were he still living in the World Universe 10 years ago! However, he was an important official in the New World at that moment and boldly spoke with authority.

Florian was still secretly paying attention to Lord Kenny’s expressions while he said that.

Florian was good at reading people’s faces. He knew that Lord Kenny would not be able to say those words himself, so Florian stood on his behalf.

Swoosh!

At that instant, everyone’s eyes were on Aurora and waiting for her answer.

Lord Kenny’s face darkened as well.

The current situation had clearly shown that it would not be passed just like that without Aurora giving a proper reason!

However, Aurora did not panic!

Aurora looked at Lord Kenny while faced by the crowd’s gazes and said, “I appreciate Your Majesty’s gesture. However, I’ve long used to roaming around and have no interest in the Country Secretary position. As for Ambrose and Eira, I feel both of them are way too young for marriage discussions.”

Aurora was proud and always never wanted to admit Eira being Darryl’s daughter.

“Woo!”

Lord Kenny relaxed a little upon hearing that and chuckled. “I see, so Master Hansen is considering both children’s ages. That’s fine, but what I mean is to agree on their marriage first...”

Aurora interrupted before he could finish.

"I think we should discuss this matter in the future," said Aurora flatly with her calm and unpanicked expressions.

Swoosh!

Lord Kenny's face instantly turned blue from being livid.

'Bloody Aurora, I'm letting your daughter marry my son, yet you keep on rejecting? You are behaving so unappreciative that you don't even respect me as the Emperor!'

Lord Kenny got angrier the more he thought about that. It was embarrassing to be rejected multiple times by Aurora in front of the officials.

"Father Emperor!"

Ambrose quickly took a step forward upon sensing the current situation and said, "I also think it's too early to talk about marriage. I'm still young and my priority now is to help out Father Emperor with his work. How can I be in a relationship?"

Ambrose's expressions were serious when he said that, yet he was extremely helpless at heart.

He could not understand the reason Aurora rejected their marriage. However, she was still Eira's mother and it would be hard to deal with this once his father got angry if he did not put in a word for her.

"Hmm!"

Lord Kenny slowly nodded upon hearing his words and seemed relieved, "Ambrose, you are right. You're still young, so now is the time to work hard for the Royals. It's rare for someone at your age to understand this!"

Lord Kenny then looked at Aurora and smiled. "Alright then, we won't talk about this for now. Master Hansen, let's continue with drinking and enjoying the dance."

In truth, Lord Kenny would have not had held back his anger if Ambrose did not step forward in time.

"Woo!"

The surrounding officials also secretly let out a sigh of relief at that moment.

Thank goodness the Emperor did not get angry. Otherwise, the officials would suffer as well.

At the same time, many eyes looked at Ambrose in a different light. Perhaps only the Prince could persuade the Emperor in the entire New World continent.

Aurora nodded slightly as she lifted her glass and took another sip of wine.

1621

After a few rounds of drinks and food, the dinner was about to end. Aurora and Eira left the palace.

Ambrose walked them to the palace entrance before he stopped and waved farewell to Eira. "Eira, look for me in the palace when you have time in the future!"

"Alright, Brother Ambrose!" Eira replied, smiling. Although their engagement was not successful, her emotions were not affected.

It was almost midnight, but the main street at Royal City was still busy as usual. Many people were walking the streets, and there were many different stalls on the street. Some stalls made clay art, some sold snacks, and some sold hawthorn candy.

Aurora was amazed when she saw that.

It was impressive that Royal City in New World was still so busy even though it was late at night.

Eira was really excited. She wanted to stop at every stall, look around and touch everything she saw. She looked adorable.

Suddenly Eira remembered something and asked, "Mother! Why were you against my engagement with Brother Ambrose?"

As her daughter, Eira knew Aurora well. Although Aurora was cold, she had her own principles. There must be a reason why she was against the engagement.

"You can't marry him," Aurora replied without hesitation.

"Why?" Eira was full of doubt.

"Because..." Aurora blushed and was about to explain. Suddenly, there was a commotion coming from the alley in front of them, followed by the cries of a child.

The child's cry was heart-clenching and dreadfully sorrowful.

The kind-hearted Eira was touched immediately when she heard the cry. She pulled Aurora's arm. "Mother, let's go take a look."

Aurora nodded and walked towards the alley.

Aurora and her daughter were furious when they walked into the alley and saw what was happening.

In the alley, they saw a man wearing a silk robe ordering a few of his servants to beat up a family of three. The family of three wore torn clothing and were obviously beggars for a living.

The man was Anthony Land, and his father was the Deputy Commander of the royal army. He was a bully because of his family background and was a notoriously useless brat.

When Anthony had been strolling at Royal City, he walked into this family begging for food. They accidentally touched Anthony with their begging bowl and enraged him. He instantly ordered his servants to beat them up.

Anthony was still angry and did not stop yelling, "Sh*t, filthy cheap dogs. Your begging bowl stained my shirt! You'll repay me with your lives. Beat them; beat them to death!"

As he said that, the servants punched even harder.

The family rolled on the ground in pain and could not stop crying and begging sadly, "Mister, we're wrong. My family has not eaten for a few days now. We're sorry that we dirtied your shirt. Sorry, sorry..."

Eira's face was red in anger. "Mom! These bad people are doing horrible things!"

Aurora smiled but asked her, "Then, what do you think we should do?"

"Of course, I'll punish evil and uphold the good to bring justice to mankind!" Eira clenched her fist proudly. "Mother, you've always taught me to seek justice. I'll teach these people a lesson! I'll go fight him."

"Yes." Aurora nodded. She had been telling her daughter that, as a cultivator, she must always seek justice and help others. However, Aurora was stunned when Eira said she wanted to punish evil and uphold the good to bring justice to mankind earlier. Her heart trembled when she heard Eira's words.

That was Elysium Gate's motto. Darryl was the Elysium Gate Sect Master, and for many years, Aurora tried to forget him. However, he always appeared in her mind.

"Eira, stop saying the words 'punish evil and uphold the good to bring justice to mankind,'" Aurora said calmly. She then waved at Eira. "Go fight them."

"Yes, Mother! I'll fight the bad people." Eira smiled and nodded. She then walked towards Anthony and the rest and shouted. "Stop it!"

At that instant, Anthony and the rest all looked at her and stopped hitting the family of three.

Anthony gathered his thoughts and smiled as he looked at Eira. "Oh, such a beautiful girl. You are gorgeous. Do you want to spend time with me? I'll buy you drinks!"

As he said that, Anthony waved his hand. The servants behind him understood what he meant instantly, and all of them grinned as they surrounded Eira.

Eira was not worried at all when the servants surrounded her. She raised her hands slowly and shouted, "Icy Dragon Punch!"

Although the servants were cultivators, they were still at a very low level. She was not threatened by them at all.

Bang!

At that instant, a strong aura exploded from Eira's body. A long, white ice dragon circled the air and then charged towards the servants.

They did not have time to react before they were swept into the air immediately!

Although Eira was still an amateur, her Icy Dragon Punch was still a high-level martial arts technique and should not be underestimated.

Bang!

After a loud bang, the servants shouted in pain as all of them were bounced away, vomiting blood profusely, and lost the ability to battle!

Anthony's expression changed instantly when he saw his servants get beaten up. He was stunned as his legs shook, and he almost peed his pants.

He never expected that the gentle-looking girl in front of him had such horribly scary power in her cultivation level.

"How dare you challenge me. Just you wait, I'll teach you a lesson," Anthony was in shock as he said fiercely. Then, he gathered his servants and ran away.

“You’re horrible people. How can you bully others!” Eira shouted when she saw Anthony and his servants running away.

At that moment, Aurora walked over and smiled as she complimented, “Good job Eira. Your Icy Dragon Punch improved again!”

Bang!

As they spoke, the family of three that were beaten up earlier suddenly kneeled to them.

The father of the family was a middle-aged man. He was so grateful. “Thank you, thank you, goddesses. Our family would have been beaten to death if it weren’t for you. Thank you, thank you, goddesses.”

Eira smiled and helped the family of three to stand up. She said to Aurora, “Mother, let’s give them the snack we have with us.”

The family of three was so hungry that they could hardly speak. It was pitiful.

Aurora nodded as she took out the snacks she carried with her and handed them to the family.

The family took the snacks and immediately split them among themselves and gobbled them. At the same time, the man briefly shared what they had been through.

The family of three was originally from the World Universe. The man’s name was Denny.

‘They’re from the same continent as us. No wonder his accent sounded so familiar.’

Aurora could not help but feel touched knowing that. She felt sad for them too.

Sigh!

There were so many poor people in the world.

“Let’s go, Eira,” Aurora said as she turned to walk to leave Royal City.

Eira quickly followed behind.

“Goddess, please wait...” Denny shouted after they took two steps.

1623

Aurora and Eira paused their footsteps and turned to look at them.

At the same time, Aurora raised her brows and asked, "Anything else?"

Bang!

Once she spoke, Denny dropped and kneeled, looking terribly sad. "Goddesses, I am begging you, please save my little daughter. We are actually a family of four.

I have another little daughter at the broken temple outside Royal City. My little daughter is dying, please, dear goddesses. I am begging you; please save my little daughter..."

At that moment, Denny's wife and son kneeled on the ground too.

'Little daughter?'

When they heard that, both Aurora and Eira were surprised.

'Isn't Denny from a family of three? Why does he have a daughter and didn't bring her with them.'

At that moment, Denny sobbed, "Two days ago, we met a group of stray dogs near the woods, and my little daughter was bitten by one of the dogs. Her wound was infected, and she could not even walk. Hence, we did not bring her along when we came out to beg for food."

As he said that, Denny's tears were flowing. "My dear goddesses, you are high-level cultivators; you must have a way to cure my daughter's injury. Please be generous and help us. I will bow to you..."

As he said that, Denny started to bow, and a loud bang was heard.

Sigh!

When she knew that, Eira took a deep breath, and his eyes were all wet.

'This family is so pitiful,' As she thought of that, Eira pulled Aurora's arms. "Mother, let's help the family and go take a look."

"Alright." Aurora did not hesitate and nodded.

Although she was the ice mountain goddess, Aurora was really kind. She had a good heart and did not wish to see people suffering.

During the days when Aurora had just become Emei Sect's Sect Master, the people living at the bottom of the Emei Mountain's roads were blocked due to a part of the mountain collapsing.

Aurora had used the Icy Dragon Punch to break the mountain to save them! That story was still told in the World Universe. As such, Aurora felt pity for Denny's situation.

"Thank you, thank you, goddesses." Denny was delighted. He wiped away his tears and stood immediately as he continued to thank them!

His wife and son also kept bowing.

Aurora waved her hands, asking them not to thank her, and said calmly, "Lead the way then."

"Yes, yes!" Denny nodded and gathered his wife and child. They started walking out of Royal City.

At the moment, he turned, and there was an evil glint in his eyes.

Aurora and Eira followed behind them slowly.

Soon, they arrived at an abandoned hill, and there was a broken temple in the middle of the hill. There were lights shining weakly from the inside.

Aurora and Eira did not think further as they picked up their steps to move forward.

Soon, after they entered the broken temple, they saw an entire garden full of wild grass, and it looked so empty.

"Where is your daughter?" Aurora asked, concerned as she looked at Denny.

"She is in there," Denny replied immediately.

As he spoke, Denny pointed towards the room inside. He looked upset and did not go in at first.

"Mother, let's go inside to take a look." Eira walked in quickly without thinking further.

Aurora nodded and followed behind her.

Just at that moment, Denny, who was behind them, raised his hand, and two rays of shining light charged behind Aurora and Eira secretly without a sound.

Denny acted so fast, and at such a close distance, Aurora and Eira did not even have time to react. Their backs felt numb, and they could not move a single inch!

"You are asking for death!" Aurora turned and looked at Denny. She was furious. She did not expect Denny to do that. She also did not expect Denny to be a cultivator that hid his actual power. She let her guard down earlier and did not notice that!

Aurora could clearly feel that Denny was a Martial Saint cultivator!

It was impossible for him as a Martial Saint cultivator to live as beggars with his family!

Eira's body trembled as she scolded Denny, "My mother and I helped you out of kindness. Why do you want to attack us?!"

As she said that, Eira looked inside the broken temple, and there was no little girl inside at all.

At that moment, Eira completely understood that her mother and she were tricked.

Denny smiled coldly with his wicked face. "Everyone is guilty. Just behave since you are in my hands now."

"Icy Blood Needle!" Aurora's body trembled, she could feel her entire body was starting to feel numb, and a chill attacked her. Aurora bit her lips and asked Denny, "You're from the Tucker Cult, aren't you?"

Tucker Cult was a cultivating family in the World Universe and had a thousand-year-old history. They specialized in using secret weapons, and their most famous weapon was the Icy Blood Needle. If you get pricked by it, your whole body will go numb, and you will have no strength at all.

Aurora had been Emei Sect's Sect Master for many years, and she knew all the main Sects of the World Universe. She could easily guess even if she could not see the Icy Blood Needle on her body.

Denny was stunned, and he could not help but take a cold breath as he nodded, impressed. "That's right; I am from the Tucker Cult. My real name is Denny Tucker."

Then, he smiled. "Please don't stare at me like that, Sect Master Hansen. I am merely following orders to trick you!"

After he said that, Denny raised his head and whistled towards the air!

At that moment, the sound of footsteps was heard, followed by a dozen shadows walking in quickly. They were extremely excited to see Aurora and Eira.

"Ha-ha, you caught them!"

"You're great."

“This is worth pretending to be a beggar.”

As they talked, a middle-aged man slowly walked over and ridiculed Aurora, “Sect Master Hansen, it’s been many years since we last met. You’re still as attractive as before.”

When he said that, the middle-aged man was checking on Aurora without blinking his eyes.

This was the Tucker Cult Cult Master, Watson Tucker.

Watson’s stare made Aurora feel uncomfortable. Her face showed no emotions as she said coldly, “Watson Tucker! I have no dealings with your cult. Why do you want to trick and harm me?”

The situation was obvious. Denny pretended to be a beggar and lure her into the trap under Watson’s orders.

However, she had no beef with the Tucker Cult, so why would they bother capturing her?

At that moment, Aurora was perplexed.

“Why?”

Watson smiled gently and looked at her with disgust in his eyes. “Aurora, how dare you speak? Earlier, when you were still Emei Sect Sect Master, you were pregnant with Darryl’s child, and you married Mister Red Leaf to protect your reputation.”

“Later at the Emei Sect’s Millennium Event, your lie was revealed, and you took your child and left Mister Red Leaf. Your such selfish act was not only wrong against Mister Red Leaf; it was also against society’s morals! I am capturing you to bring justice to society, isn’t that something right?”

His words were so heavy that no one dared to retaliate!

Society’s morals?

Aurora could not help but laughed when she heard those words. She said coldly, “You don’t have to talk so much rubbish. No matter what, those were my personal matters; you have no right to interfere.”

As she said that, Aurora’s eyes looked cold. “Watson, your cult is just a low-grade family of cultivators. You know what the consequences are if you mess with me. Let us go immediately, and I shall forgive you. Otherwise, I will make you regret it. I will destroy your entire cult leaving nothing behind.

1625

Gulp!

Feeling Aurora's cold stare, Watson's heart raced. He could not help but swallow a big gulp of saliva as he felt nervous.

Aurora was right; the Tucker Cult was nothing in the World Universe community. He was asking for trouble to upset people like Aurora.

However, as he thought of the support he had, Watson became arrogant again.

At that moment, Aurora already felt annoyed as she rushed him. "Bring the antidote now!"

"Ha-ha."

Just as she spoke, the sound of laughter was heard coming from outside of the broken temple. Next, a few slim figures dressed in long white dresses walked in slowly, looking graceful. They were Emei Sect's disciples!

Leading them was someone dressed in a long black dress, looking cold with an attractive smile but devious.

It was Megan Castello!

A smartly dressed figure followed closely behind Megan; it was Kent Hough. Kent was wearing a suit and looked smart. However, he looked like he was trying to impress Megan.

Ever since Megan became Emei Sect's Sect Master and her position in society kept progressing, Kent was more and more attracted to her. He would always try to be by Megan's side and tried desperately to impress her.

"Megan, it's you."

Aurora's body shivered when she saw Megan. She understood instantly. "You arranged all of this?"

She knew that Watson would not have the guts. It was Emei Sect supporting them.

Eira was surprised and furious as she glared at Megan. "Megan, why would you do this?"

Megan smiled coldly but did not speak.

Ever since she became the Alliance Master, Megan had sent Wudang Sect and Shaolin Sect to the World Universe to eliminate Darryl's power and influence. She only kept the Tucker Sect by her side.

She did that to stay and continue to look for news at Royal City Prison. Darryl's family and friends were all imprisoned there, and given he was a person that valued his relationships, he would definitely return to save them. Megan wanted to capture him desperately; she even dreamed about it.

However, Megan did not manage to see Darryl, but she heard that Aurora and her daughter were in Royal City. It was as if her prey had walked into her den. How could she miss this opportunity? Megan still hated Aurora deeply, even now. A few years ago, Aurora was Megan's most respected Sect Master. However, Aurora had a child with Darryl!

She only had feelings of hatred for Aurora. Although she had forced Aurora to forfeit her position as Emei Sect's Sect Master, Megan still held on to her hatred. That is why when she heard Aurora had been captured successfully, she was ecstatic.

At that moment, the atmosphere at the broken temple was extremely depressing and stressful.

"Megan, I'm asking you, why do you want to set me up?" Aurora squeezed her brows and questioned coldly.

"Ridiculous!"

As she spoke, Watson walked over and scolded Aurora, "How dare you call Alliance Master Castello by her name?"

When he said that, Watson observed Megan's facial reaction carefully, just like a low-class servant.

Earlier, Megan had used the Dark Day Pill to conquer all the major sects in the World Universe. After the major sects were conquered, the smaller sects had surrendered to Megan as well. Everyone knew that she was the Alliance Master, and they would definitely benefit from following her.

The Tucker Cult was one of the cults that surrendered to Megan. Over the past 100 years, the Tucker Cult had limited disciples and had never landed in a good position. As the Cult Master, Watson had long wanted to bring up the cult's standing.

However, the Tucker Cult's ability was just too weak, so all other sects looked down on them.

After they had surrendered to Megan, Watson believed that Tucker Cult would be powerful again not long after! As such, Watson was trying his best to impress Megan.

'What?'

At that moment, Aurora's body shivered. She was in shock.

'Alliance Master Castello? Megan had become Alliance Master?'

Eira was stunned too.

Megan slowly walked forward and looked at Aurora closely as she teased her, "Aurora! Never expected that, right? The disciple that you did not appreciate now holds such a high position. That's right; I am now the Alliance Master for the World Universe."

As she said that, Megan felt proud. "When you were the Sect Master, Emei was only at the same level as Wudang and Shaolin Sect. But now, in my hands, its reputation is better than before. So, it was a good thing I forced you out of the sect. Don't you think so?"

Sigh.

When she heard that, Aurora sighed in relief; there was no emotion on her face as she said calmly, "I'm not a member of the Emei Sect anymore."

It has nothing to do with me irrespective of whether Emei Sect turned better or worse. Let us go now. We are on separate paths and don't interfere with each other!"

Although Aurora was shocked that Megan became the Alliance Master, it was only temporary.

After venturing around for the past few years, Aurora started to take everything calmly. She would not furrow her brows even if the sky were to fall.

Megan smiled coldly. "Let you go? Do you think that is possible?"

Megan glared at Eira and grinned. "This bastard is Darryl's and your child. Do you think I'll let you all go so easily? I will use Eira to lure Darryl to appear. I will capture Darryl and torture the two of you till you wish you could die."

As she said that, Megan grinned and could not control the vengeance in her heart!

'Darryl and I were the perfect couple, but he did not want me and had a child with this Aurora! The most disgusting thing is I respected Aurora so much, and she stole my man!'

She would never be able to accept that!

Aurora said clearly word by word, "Megan, I am telling you clearly now. Eira was just an accident. Darryl and I were not in a relationship. You are making a huge mistake if you want to use us against Darryl."

Aurora was right. She hated Darryl deeply over the incident before. Naturally, she would not be bothered by Darryl's life and death, and she did not wish to have any connection with that man.

Of course, Megan did not believe her at all. She laughed and ridiculed Aurora, "You already have a child, and you say you have no relationship with him? Who are you trying to lie to?"

As she spoke, the surrounding Tucker disciples and Emei Sect disciples could not help but laugh.

"They have a child but have no relationship? How interesting!"

"How unexpected. The famous Ice Lady Goddess could say something like that. She had a child with Darryl and then did not acknowledge the relationship."

"That's right. We were all deceived by her looks. She is, in fact, a loose woman."

Watson and the others started to criticize Aurora and were getting excited.

All of them could see how much Megan hated Aurora. In order to impress Megan, they intentionally criticized and humiliated Aurora, and their words got worse.

They were not worried about Aurora seeking vengeance as they had Megan's support.

The only person that kept his silence was Kent. His eyes kept looking closely at Aurora.

Kent was deeply attracted to Aurora the instant that he saw her. He could not even move his feet.

He never expected Aurora to still be so sexy after not seeing her for a few years, especially her calm composure. She still remained calm despite being captured. She was really a goddess from heaven and too attractive.

Aurora was furious, and her body was trembling when she heard everyone's humiliating comments. She stared at Megan closely and yelled, "Megan, release us now, or you will regret it!"

Aurora's words were still cold, and her eyes were filled with a murderous aura!

'I used to care for Megan so much and had even thought of passing the Sect Master position to her. However, she now leads a group of people to humiliate me. This is really a bullying sect.'

Megan scolded her and walked over instantly, "Shut up!"

Unexpectedly, she slapped Aurora across the face!

Slap!

Megan used all of her energy in the slap. Aurora fell a few steps backward, and a deep palm mark appeared on her incredibly beautiful face.

Megan smiled coldly. She was the Alliance Master, and her position was supreme. Aurora was asking for trouble when she spoke to Megan like that.

Seeing that, Watson and the rest could not help but take cold breaths. He admired Megan even more.

She dared even to slap the Ice Lady Goddess. It was no wonder she was the Alliance Master.

Aurora stared at Megan closely but did not speak a word.

'Traitor! What a traitor! No matter what, I was still her master. Not only did she set a trap for me, but now she's hitting me. She is a traitor.'

'How dare you stare at me!' Megan had a slight smile full of vengeance.

"When you were the Emei Sect Sect Master, you did not maintain your purity and had a relationship with Darryl. You even have a child with him. Don't you deserve to be slapped? I'm teaching you a lesson on behalf of the Emei Sect ancestors!"

As she spoke, Megan raised her hand again!

At that moment, Kent walked over quickly and smiled at Megan. "Megan, that's enough. No matter what, she was still your master. How can you hit her? Calm down!"

Kent glared at Aurora, feeling pity for her.

It would be horrible if the Ice Lady Goddess's face were destroyed because of that.

Megan's voice was cold but firm. "Step down now! I have told you earlier to call me Alliance Master. You are not allowed to call me Megan."

In the past, Megan's relationship with Kent was never so committed, but it was still emotional.

However, since Megan became the Emei Sect Sect Master and cultivated the Immortal Pure Scripture, her attitude changed completely. She became cruel and unfeeling.

Megan never wanted to look at Kent.

She would have asked to cancel their engagement if it was not because of her reputation.

"Yes, Alliance Master Castello!" Kent smiled and nodded as he quickly moved to stand to the side.

Megan had always been strong; it was even worse now. As such, Kent dared not misbehave in front of her.

Megan glared at Aurora and said, "You are a b*tch! You said you didn't have a relationship with Darryl. Didn't you rush here the moment you heard that his friends were captured at the prison? Emei Sect is humiliated to have a disciple like you!"

Eira, who was standing to the side, could not help it anymore. She shouted, "You are the real b*tch! You're Jealous! You knew my mother was together with Darryl, and you are jealous. You are only finding excuses. You are a terrible woman."

As she said that, Eira's face was red with anger.

'Megan is too much. Even if Mother was wrong, she was still her master. Now she's gone off the rails and not only captured Mother and me, but has she hit her too! How terrible!'

Slap!

Megan's face changed as she stepped forward, raised her elegant hand, and slapped Eira's face.

"You are a bastard. What gives you the right to speak to me? You want to die?" Megan said coldly; her face looked cruel without any expression.

At that moment, Megan felt murderous. One should know that she was the Alliance Master, so how could she be scolded by a little girl in front of all her followers? How could she uphold her reputation?

At that moment, the atmosphere was suffocating!

Kent, Watson, and the others dared not even take a breath.

A few seconds later, Megan laughed and said, "Lock up this despicable mother and daughter and keep your eyes on them!"

At that moment, she appeared to be generous as she forgave Aurora and Eira, but she was furious in her heart!

Honestly, Megan wanted to kill Aurora and Eira immediately. However, Aurora was still her previous Sect Master. People would gossip about her if she really killed them. That might leave her with a bad reputation!

Megan gave it a thought and decided to lock both of them up while waiting for news about Darryl. It would not be too late to decide what to do then.

As she thought of that, Megan looked up at the night sky with a smile.

'Darryl, your woman, and daughter are in my hands now. You shall be devastated.'

Kent walked over and squeezed a smile as he said cautiously, "Megan...Alliance Master Castello! Let me guard the mother and daughter since I am free."

"Alright," Megan replied calmly and waved her hand in agreement.

"Don't worry, Alliance Master Castello; I will guard them carefully. There will not be any problems." Kent nodded, feeling extremely happy.

Next, Kent tied up Aurora and her daughter and brought them away.

As they walked out of the broken temple, Kent checked out Aurora and was extremely excited. He could not stop swallowing his saliva.

'The infamous Ice Lady Goddess has landed in my hands. God is really kind to me!'

Honestly, ever since Megan became Emei Sect master, Kent felt that his relationship with her was becoming more and more distant.

Although Kent remained by Megan's side all this time, staying with her, taking care of her unconditionally, in Kent's heart, he felt extremely neglected. He had never held Megan's hand before, not to mention being close to her. His fiancé was beside him, but he could only look at her and not touch her. Who would be able to handle that?

When Kent saw Aurora, who was now being tied up, his heart became unsettled. Aurora was very different as compared to Megan. Not only that, Aurora's daughter Eira was really beautiful although she was still young.

Kent took a deep breath, feeling the nice scent in the air. 'It's my lucky night tonight. Ha-ha!'

Meanwhile, at Sacred Wonder Mountain in North Moana Continent.

The mountain was sacred. There were two sacred mountains at North Moana Continent. One of them was Mount Buzhou, where strong warriors like Divine Farmer and Zhurong lived privately; the other one would be Sacred Wonder Mountain!

In the middle of Sacred Wonder Mountain was an ancient-looking building that was the main altar of the infamous Holy Saint Sect.

It was almost evening when Darryl, Yvette, and the Empress just had their dinner at a quiet garden house in the back.

Earlier at sea, after navigating for two days and two nights, Darryl and the other two followed Diana Olsen back to the Holy Saint Sect main altar. A normal Holy Saint Sect disciple would not receive such a treatment. However, after considering Darryl had brought his wife and mother-in-law along, Diana specially arranged for a house for him.

On the journey back to the Holy Saint Sect, Darryl wanted to find an opportunity to escape.

However, when he thought about how his master and Senior Sister were treating him and his injuries well, he decided to stay at the Holy Saint Sect until his internal energy was recovered before planning his next step.

Besides, he was traveling along with Yvette and the Empress. There would be nowhere to go even if he escaped along the journey.

Sigh!

'The meal was so filling.'

Darryl sat lazily on the chair, rubbing his round belly, looking satisfied.
