Jiang Ning looked at all of them.

“I’m really sorry but Lin Group doesn’t do this sort of thing. We are a corporation, but we won’t earn using such underhanded methods, and we will definitely not leech off our fellow countrymen.”

“Mr Jiang, we just...”

“I’m not done talking,” Jiang Ning put up a hand to stop the other person from cutting in. “What I’m saying is that, as long as you want to expand overseas, I can’t guarantee the other cities because Lin Group doesn’t have a branch there, but nobody in Las Vegas will ever make trouble for you again.”

All the merchants took a deep breath when they heard these words. They knew that Jiang Ning was agreeable.

But he wasn’t going to take their money?

“You don’t have to be part of Lin Group. You just have to tell others that you’re Chinese merchants from China, and that’s enough,” said Jiang Ning calmly.

They just had to tell others that they were Chinese merchants from China?

That was it?

They felt that this sounded a little strange. Everyone could tell instantly that they were Chinese merchants.

But that was also how they had been targeted and allowed an organization like the Chinese Chamber of Commerce to bully them and extort them.

“We understand.”

These men weren't stupid. They figured that something wasn't quite right when they received the apology letters in the morning.

So besides coming to congratulate Lin Group, they wanted to confirm this matter as well.

And now, they were very sure!

“Mr Jiang, here are our name cards and we all have experience in these industries. If Lin Group needs anything, just give us a call and we'll do our best to assist you!”

Everyone placed their name cards before Jiang Ning politely.

The things that Jiang Ning said earlier made them very excited.

They just had to tell others that they were Chinese merchants from China, and nobody in Las Vegas would dare to bully them anymore!

“Sure, we welcome you to work with us. Lin Group has just expanded overseas and would need much help, so we won't be polite with you guys.” Jiang Ning nodded and smiled as he said, “Alright now, you can go talk to the Chinese Chamber of Commerce.”

NH

“Thank you, Mr Jiang.”

They all got up and bowed slightly to show their respect to Jiang Ning, even though they were all older than him.

After that, they left.

Jiang Ning didn't think so much.

Why should Chinese businesses be bullied when they opened overseas?

In the past, he didn't know about this, so he didn't bother about it. But now that he knew, he had to do something about it.

He wasn't just going to do something about it, but he was also going to show the people here that Chinese merchants were not pushovers!

Everywhere that Lin Group went meant that the people around them had to follow Lin Group's rules. If you refused to listen, then Jiang Ning would first try to reason with you and set an example. But if you still refused to comply, then it was too bad.

Lin Yuzhen didn't say a single word. This sort of thing was best left to Jiang Ning.

“What about the Chinese Chamber of Commerce?” She looked at Jiang Ning. “They're going to lose so much of their membership fees at one shot, and they're going to hunt us down for their loss.”

Jiang Ning turned and glanced at Lin Yuzhen. He laughed and said, “Wifey, why do I sense a look of excitement in your eyes?”

In the past, Lin Yuzhen might have felt worried about this matter.

They were new in this place but they had offended such a formidable opponent. This might affect Lin Group’s expansion adversely.

But after following Jiang Ning for so long, Lin Group had gone from a tiny company in tiny Donghai to become a famous corporation in the country. They had become a huge conglomeration that spanned across several industries and now they had come overseas too.

Lin Yuzhen’s mind was slowly broadening as well.

“Of course. I have to mature too,” said Lin Yuzhen. “Don’t you know whose wife I am?”

NH

Jiang Ning liked how Lin Yuzhen had this cheeky expression now.

What he wanted to do was to protect Lin Yuzhen's innocent and kindhearted side while helping her to mature and become more outstanding.

He wanted her to be able to stand next to him without feeling any pressure.

That she would still be able to stand confidently even after knowing who he really was.

"That's right!" Jiang Ning reached out and pinched her little face. "You're my wife! Jiang Ning's wife!"

Lin Yuzhen scoffed and allowed Jiang Ning to pinch her face.

"You can go ahead and pinch me all you want, it doesn't hurt, it doesn't hurt at all."

Jiang Ning immediately let go.

He shrugged when he looked at how smug Lin Yuzhen looked. "Alright now, we've got to get to work. The overseas branch office has just been set up and we've got plenty to do."

"If there's anything you're not sure about, then look for Xiang Gao to discuss with him. If you need to work with anybody," he pointed to the name cards on the desk, "The number of name cards here will only increase in number. If you need anything, just look for the correct person in this pile."

Jiang Ning wasn't going to hold himself back on this part.

He was going to allow his fellow Chinese businessmen to enjoy a good environment overseas, and of course, they didn't need to repay him.

They just needed to focus on their business to make their brands strong and powerful, so that local brands could become as famous overseas like how international brands were famous within China!

After that, Jiang Ning didn't disrupt her work and walked out of the office.

He knew that once Lin Yuzhen really got busy, she wouldn't bother about him anymore, so he might as well leave.

At the same time.

At the headquarters of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce.

Once Li Genhong got the news, he came running over immediately.

His expression was rather nasty.

If he didn't handle this matter properly, then both the Li family and the entire Chinese Chamber of Commerce was going to suffer a terrible loss.

After all, the Li family wasn't the only one involved in this Chinese Chamber of Commerce. There were two other families.

NH

After the Bao family was destroyed, the Li family was supposed to be the ones with the most power and would possibly be able to control even more in the future.

But now, the Chinese businesses signed to the Li family refused to renew their contracts, and some of them even wanted to terminate their current contracts now.

Li Zhengshang was already furious.

If he didn't resolve this issue, then he wasn't sure if he could become the next head of the Li family despite being the eldest son of the family!

In the meeting room.

Li Genhong took a rare smoke. He seemed rather upset.

The air in the meeting room was heavy.

"I get it. So all of you on this side don't want to renew the contract and you don't need the Chinese Chamber of Commerce to support you anymore." He scoffed and turned to the rest on the other side. "And all of you here want to terminate your contracts, and you don't intend to pay the fees for the next half a year."

The fees for the Chinese Chamber of Commerce were collected every season. They were afraid that these businessmen might suddenly withdraw from overseas, so if they collected the fees only once a year, they might not get anything.

“That’s right, we don’t want to renew our contracts, so we came to let you know.”

“Indeed, we don’t need the support of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce anymore. To be honest, we’ve not gotten any support from the Chinese Chamber of Commerce all these years anyway.”

“Li Genhong, you know very well that you’re just pretending to support us. You’re all really just bloodsuckers who are extorting us just because you’re powerful here!”

Since they were going to cut ties soon, these merchants didn’t bother being polite anymore.

They knew all about how the Li family’s assets had been attacked and they had suffered heavy losses, and all this was done by those district bosses.

“You can’t even protect yourself, so who else do you want to protect?”

They all laughed coldly and didn’t want to say anymore as they turned to leave.

Li Genhong didn’t say anything. The cigarette in his hand was almost done.

He put out the cigarette and looked up at them. “You want to terminate the contract?”

“Sure, you can do that. Finish paying all the fees for the year and the termination penalty, then I’ll agree to the termination of the contract.”

NH
