Wasn't Yan Tang afraid that he would go back and tell Heishan all about this?

Wasn't he afraid that Heishan would go according to the Fang family rules and punish him?

Fang Qiu turned around, but Yan Tang was nowhere to be seen by now. "What...what are they trying to do?"

There was a great change in Donghai.

The reputation of Extreme Martial Arts Academy was on the rise.

After Jiang Ning announced that he was allowing everyone to see the Extreme Fist Technique Manual, everyone in the martial arts circle flooded into Donghai.

Jiang Ning was already prepared for this to happen.

He wasn't worried that someone might understand the manual.

On the contrary, he did hope that a few people might be able to understand it. This was very meaningful to him.

"Now that the number of highly skilled fighters in the academy has shot up, Donghai is as safe as a steel fortress." Tan Xing knew what Jiang Ning was up to. "You've used the manual to gather them together, but I'm not sure what the effect is yet.”

He paused for a moment to pour Jiang Ning a cup of tea.

“Are you...are you really going to go up against the reclusive clans?”

The opening of the Extreme Martial Arts Academy was in preparation of this.

“What must come will come, it is not wrong to prepare for a rainy day,” replied Jiang Ning.

What must come will come. That was definitely true.

Also, whatever was coming was coming very soon.

Jiang Ning drank the tea, put the cup down, and suddenly sneezed.

“Achoo!”

Tan Xing was stunned.

A powerful man like Jiang Ning would sneeze too?

“Who’s speaking ill of me behind my back?” Jiang Ning himself was equally surprised.

He shook his head and got up. “I’ll leave the academy to you, try your best to gather everyone. I’ll go pick Yuzhen up from work.”

Meanwhile.

In Las Vegas.

Within the Ceyranka home.

In just a short period of time, the Ceyranka family had bought over all the assets of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce at a low price and they had struck it rich this time.

This was all thanks to Amelia!

They were having a family meeting, and it was clear that as the princess of the Ceyranka family, Amelia was seated among the top five positions in the family.

“It’s been quite tumultuous around here recently because of that Lin Group. I’m sure everyone knows about this, right?”

A man sat across from Amelia. He had deep blue eyes that were deep set and charming.

But his chin was very sharp and he looked a little mean as a result. He looked at Amelia with a smile on his face, but he didn’t hide the disdain in his eyes at all.

“Amelia, you’ve done a great job. I’m proud that the Ceyrankas have someone like you.”

But even though she had been praised, Amelia didn’t feel happy about it at all and frowned instead.

NH

She knew that Dawson would never praise her.

If he praised her, something was up his sleeve.

“Dawson, should I be thanking you?” replied Amelia calmly.

She couldn't talking anymore because she suddenly felt like retching. Amelia immediately covered her mouth.

Everyone around the table turned to look at Amelia when she sounded like she was about to vomit.

“Amelia, are you alright?” asked the middle aged man sitting beside Amelia in a low voice.

“I'm fine,” smiled Amelia as she regained her composure. “Thank you Father, for your concern.”

She turned to look at Dawson and he looked back at her.

The biggest threat to her in the entire family was definitely Dawson Ceyranka!

Control of the Ceyranka family in the future was definitely going to land on either one of these two members of the family.

“Of course Amelia is fine,” laughed Dawson as he stood up with a smile. He looked at Amelia and her father and bowed slightly. “I still have yet to congratulate Amelia on becoming a mother soon.”

The minute Dawson finished saying this, everyone fell silent.

Even Amelia's father, Kidd Ceyranka, had a change in his expression as he turned to look at his daughter.

"Amelia, why didn't you share this good news with everyone?" said Dawson with a smile. "We're all one family, so we'd definitely be happy for you."

Amelia didn't say anything.

Everyone else was looking at Amelia.

There were twenty people at this meeting and their attention was all on Amelia now.

"Amelia, what's going on?" Kidd asked.

"Father, I'm not..." Amelia was about to explain things when she retched again.

She quickly covered her mouth and tried her best to suppress the feeling of wanting to vomit. But Everyone had seen that violent reaction she had earlier.

Having children before marriage wasn't anything new in this country, but this was strictly forbidden in the Ceyranka family!

On top of that, Amelia had control over 30% of the Ceyrankas' assets!

NH

If she was with child, whose child was this?

Would these resources be affected and go to someone else in the future?

“Amelia, are you still trying to hide it?” Dawson shook his head. “Everyone can tell that you’re pregnant, so there’s no point in trying to hide.”

“I even know that the man who knocked you up is Jiang Ning, someone from Lin Group.”

Dawson turned and looked at everyone else, then bowed slightly. “Everyone, I’m sure all of you have heard about this Lin group lately. The Chinese Chamber of Commerce’s sudden disappearance has something to do with this Lin Group.”

He sighed. “Amelia, won’t you introduce him to us?”

Dawson was very pushy and he seemed to just be waiting for Amelia to admit to it.

He had photos, and these were photos that could serve as evidence. And now Amelia was clearly behaving like she was pregnant. Perhaps Amelia herself never thought this would happen either.

“I don’t know what you’re talking about.” Amelia patted her chest and said calmly, “I’m just not feeling well and I’m feeling nauseas.

She got up, looked at everyone, then bowed. “Everyone, I’m not feeling well and I’m unable to participate in this family meeting, so I'll take my leave first."

NH

Then she turned to leave.

But Dawson was faster than her and used a hand to block her way.

"Wait up," Dawson smiled. "You haven't told us if this child belongs to the man from Lin Group yet."

As he spoke, he took out some photos from his pocket.

Those were photos from that night when Amelia asked Jiang Ning out for dinner, got herself drunk and Jiang Ning carried her out of the restaurant.

Amelia's expression instantly changed.

"Dawson, you've gone too far," her expression darkened.

"The one who's gone too far seems to be you!" Dawson's expression turned nasty. "You have no regard for the Ceyranka family rules!"

"You've walked so closely to a competitor and now you're even pregnant with his child. Are you trying to give all of our resources to Lin Group?"

"Amelia, this is betraying the family! Do you understand?!"

Everyone's expressions were nasty, especially

NH

Amelia's father, Kidd.

In this family, Kidd's position was extremely high and his family could very well become the heir to this family.

But Kidd only had one daughter, Amelia.

No matter how outstanding Amelia was, she was still a woman after all.

She said she would never get married, but was this practical?

"Dawson, you're spouting nonsense." Amelia glared at him. "Move aside."

Dawson didn't budge and just waved the photos in his hand a little gleefully.

"If I'm spouting nonsense, then can you explain briefly what's going on in these photos?"
