Lin Yuzhen snorted. She couldn't hold it in at all.

She gently whacked Jiang Ning's shoulder and purposely glared at him.

She was probably the one who knew best how fake this news was. She even knew that this news was definitely spread by Amelia herself on purpose.

Nothing happened between Jiang Ning and Amelia that night. She was very sure of it and Amelia was even surer of it.

"Alright now, enough of this nonsense." Lin Yuzhen started to sound upset. "I didn't think she would disregard her own reputation though."

"She must really be under a lot of pressure."

Jiang Ning looked at this silly girl in front of him.

Even at a time like this, Lin Yuzhen was still concerned for Amelia and was still thinking about whether Amelia had chosen to do this because she was under a lot of pressure.

Lin Yuzhen took Jiang Ning's hand and played with his fingers as she sighed again. "She's trying to make use of you and she's trying to drag you into the internal fight within the Ceyranka family. What do you intend to do?"

"I don't care about anything else. But since that's our child, we've got to get the child back," said Jiang Ning seriously.

“What child?” Lin Yuzhen looked up. “Don’t tell me you don’t have one now, so you’ll make one?”

Jiang Ning reached out to scratch her little nose gently as he laughed.

“She can dream on! It’s not that easy to enjoy my charm, ok?” said Jiang Ning. “Since my child is within the Ceyranka family, then I’ll have to get the kid back. If the child is gone, then...they’ll have to compensate for it!”

When she saw how serious Jiang Ning looked, Lin Yuzhen immediately understood what was going on.

She had been fooled.

Amelia had been fooled.

In fact, the entire Ceyranka family had probably been fooled!

Jiang Ning had done this on purpose.

From the time he reached Las Vegas and Amelia had made Li Genhong use the Chinese Chamber of Commerce to block Lin Group, Jiang Ning had already predicted that Amelia would eventually do this.

He had been waiting!

He had been waiting for this day all this while!

What sort of man was this guy?

How was he able to foresee the future so far in advance? And he had never been wrong before either. Even though Lin Yuzhen was the closest person to Jiang Ning, she found this unbelievable as well.

Lin Yuzhen couldn't stand it anymore. She took Jiang Ning's head in her hands and inspected both sides of it to see if Jiang Ning was different from others somewhere.

"You left Xiang Gao there and told him to purposely do some fake business just for the sake of this day?"

Before they left, Jiang Ning had instructed Xiang Gao to pretend to do business. He just needed to look the part.

Even a wily old fox like Xiang Gao couldn't understand what Jiang Ning was trying to do at all. Xiang Gao was prepared to fully develop the business but Jiang Ning was telling him to just pretend to do that.

"My wife is so clever," Jiang Ning laughed.

Lin Yuzhen scoffed. She didn't feel like Jiang Ning was really complimenting her.

It had been nearly a month before she realized what was going on, and she only realized it after Amelia had already sent out this news. And Jiang Ning was saying that she was intelligent?

"You don't have to worry about staying in Donghai, you won't be in any danger. I can't bring you along to Las Vegas this time round,” said Jiang Ning seriously.

This time, he was going to stir up a huge storm in Las Vegas.

This wasn't going to be as simple as attacking the Chinese Chamber of Commerce. The Ceyranka family was way more powerful than the Chinese Chamber of Commerce.

And Jiang Ning's target wasn't just the Ceyrankas or Las Vegas, but...even more markets overseas!

Donghai had Extreme Martial Arts Academy, a huge gathering of highly skilled fighters, Ye Shan, Tan Xing and more. He even had Chen Huangtang hiding in the shadows to secretly protect Lin Yuzhen from harm.

This forbidden territory was really safe on all fronts now.

So it was time to break out to getting even more overseas markets for Lin Group!

Meanwhile!

In Las Vegas.

A storm was blowing through the city.

The Ceyrankas acted quickly. So quickly that it shocked everyone and went beyond everyone's imagination.

Just a month ago, they were on pretty good terms with Lin Group and Amelia had even taken the initiative to help Lin Group break into the overseas market. But just a few weeks later, everything had changed.

Ceyranka had blocked off all their sales channels and pushed Lin Group into a corner.

The Ceyranka family had even said that whoever walked too closely to Lin Group would be considered an enemy of the Ceyrankas.

Many Chinese merchants became very nervous. Nobody expected things to turn out like this.

There was even news that Amelia, the one who was close to Lin Group, had been forbidden to leave the house and had to stay home to reflect on her actions.

And all that was because...

She was pregnant with Jiang Ning's child!

This was going against the Ceyranka family's rules.

“This Jiang Ning...is really too bold, isn't he?”

“Men can't control the lower half of their bodies after all, and now he's in trouble!”

“Lin Group has just started breaking into the overseas market and Jiang Ning is in such a hurry to destroy the company? Lin Group doesn't have that much power outside of their own country, you know?!”

Las Vegas was filled with all sorts of opinions.

But all of them were sure that Lin Group was doomed because Jiang Ning had not controlled the lower half of his body well.

Lin Group had worked so hard to break into the overseas market, but now all their projects here were going bankrupt because of one person's mistake!

This was a really hard lesson to learn, and many businessmen were using this story to teach their children about how to behave.

Even though he was under tremendous pressure, Xiang Gao wasn't angry, nervous nor worried. In fact...he was quite amused.

“Mr Jiang is really a genius! He's like a god who knows everything!”

Almost all the projects that Lin Group's overseas branch were holding onto had been stopped.

The entire office went into hibernation mode as all the other merchants just looked on and were too afraid to be dealt with by the Ceyrankas if they went too close to Lin Group.

The Ceyranka family was powerful not just in Las Vegas, but worldwide!

Xiang Gao wasn't worried. For the past month, he didn't go all out to do any business and didn't really clinch any deals properly, since Jiang Ning had already instructed him on this matter before returning to China.

"Three Myriads!" he called out as he discarded a tile. He noticed that the next player was about to draw a tile and said, "Wait, let me reconsider this."

"Mr Xiang, what's done is done. It's one thing to regret a move in chess, but you're regretting throwing out a mahjong tile too?" said the next player unhappily.

Work had stopped, but Xiang Gao didn't let everyone just laze around.

He still made sure everyone came to work on time and did everything that was necessary. The rest of the time was their free time.

They could play cards, play some mahjong, or even work out in the office gym.

In short, he wanted others to think that there was nothing wrong with Lin Group and everything was operating normally, even if others might also think that Lin Group was barely holding on.

“Wang, I saw your sales figures from the last report, and it’s a little short,” said Xiang Gao with a smile.

“Mr Xiang, go ahead and take back that Three Myriads and discard any tile you fancy...”

Xiang Gao laughed loudly and happily took the Three Myriads back. He threw another tile out and it turned out to just be another Three Myriads. “I’ll throw this one instead. This tile looks a little older and I don’t like old things.”

He narrowed his eyes.

“Everyone, remain focused, alright? You can relax for now, but we’ll soon have to work overtime.”

“Got it!”

Everyone knew that Lin Group was going to make a major move. They were just lying low for the time being.

Jiang Ning had returned to China not because he wasn’t ever coming back to the US, but because he was playing hard to get...
