

Chapter 431

“Huh, huh...” Qin Ming’s breathing became rapid. He said that he was completely out of control, and his body was so hot that he thought about throwing down the young woman on the opposite side of the road, and then pressed her down. Under the body.

This is illogical, and Qin Ming is not interested in that woman at all.

The result speaks for itself.

There are female worms in the other party’s body. Female Gu worms from the Lin family of the Tuzhai ethnic group in western Hunan are said to be good for women. They can also control the male worms in men by emitting special odors, and then affect the endocrine through the male worm , So that men are extremely fascinated by women, fall away, lose control, and give everything willingly.

This can be described as a very vicious act.

Qin Ming couldn’t help but rushed towards the woman while taking off his pants. How could it be that this was an airport with many passengers?

Mu Xiaoqiao, who had just gotten into the car, asked strangely: “Qin Ming? What’s wrong with you? What do you want to do when you suddenly take off your pants? Will the car and the car be bad? At least, at least what’s the matter before you get to the hotel... Qin Ming, where are you going?”

Suddenly, an old woman walked by the woman staring at Qin Ming, took the woman’s hand, and said, “Enough lady, don’t have a problem.”

The young woman said: “But this man must be a guilty man. The smell of the baby in his body is too strong, and his wife is not a woman from our village at all. He must be a woman who played with our village and started chaos. Finally abandoned, and then married someone else, I want to avenge the wounded sisters in Tuzhai.”

The old woman said: “Enough, look at the other driver. He looks fierce and smells too bloody. It is not a simple one. We still have business affairs. We have to quickly find the person who has taken you. This person is middle-aged. Uncle, it should not be the person we are looking for.”

The young woman said angrily: “It’s the middle-aged uncle, who has a mature and stable temperament, so that he can deceive our innocent girl in the village and play with feelings. He is a scumbag, damn it, and I want him to be broken into pieces.”

The old woman forced the young woman: “Miss, calm down, and don’t put the resentment of the person occupying your body on other people. This violates my family’s taboo.”

“Qin Ming!” Mu Xiaoqiao noticed that Qin Ming was wrong, and immediately rushed out and hugged Qin Ming’s waist.

Qin Ming’s movements also stopped suddenly. He recovered his calmness, swallowed his saliva, and took a breath of fresh air. After a while, he was in a trance and lost his mind, as if he was possessed by a demon.

This road returns cars back and forth, he walks over so unscrupulously? Are you afraid of being hit by a car?

Qin Ming was afraid for a while: “It must be a mysterious woman in the village who can flexibly use Gu worms in her body. Have I been spotted? It’s really hard to guard against.”

But Qin Ming looked across the road again, the young woman was gone.

Mu Xiaoqiao still hugged his waist, fell to the ground, raised his head and asked, "What are you doing, Qin Ming?"

"I, I'm okay." Qin Ming let out a sullen breath and said, "I'm sorry, it's a little out of control."

Qin Ming gratefully looked at Mu Xiaoqiao who hugged him. No matter what, Mu Xiaoqiao cared about him and stopped him. Qin Ming was grateful for this kind of heart.

But why did Lao Tzu take off his pants? The red pants are leaking out.

But Mu Xiaoqiao was still holding him, her face was facing the position of the red pants. This shameful gesture and shameful gesture made the two of them extremely embarrassed.

The shameful gestures of the two also attracted the attention of many passersby.

An old man who traveled with a group said: "Tsk tsk, it's really bad now. I take off my pants outside the airport, and the women look pretty good. Why are they so lustful?"

The grandmother next to her also said, "It's vulgar, young people nowadays, oh, they still wear red and sulky."

"Maybe to take a video? People nowadays will do something weird in order to gain eyeballs."

"You must pay attention to the social impact when you shoot everything. The public environment must have rules and everyone will be messy, so what about chaos?"

The person next to you said something to me, pointing to Qin Ming all over.

Qin Ming quickly put on his pants, pulled Mu Xiaoqiao into the car, and drove away.

Mu Xiaoqiao asked anxiously: "What happened to you just now? It seemed that someone dropped his head and rushed out desperately. Didn't you know how many cars there were on the road?"

Qin Ming said: "I was poisoned by someone, and when faced with some people's tricks, I couldn't help it. Someone just treated me badly."

Mu Xiaoqiao was silent for a while, and she complained: "Why don't you tell me about such a big thing? Are you still treating me as your wife?"

"I never thought you were my wife."

Qin Ming was silent for a while. At this moment, he couldn't say such hurtful words.

Now, whenever he feels Mu Xiaoqiao's gentleness and patience towards him, he just wants to chop off Zhang Quanzhen's dog's head to drink and eat.

At the same time, I deeply regret why I was suddenly superstitious at the beginning. It is a fate that Nie Haitang can turn into auspiciousness when he believes that "Chongxi" and "Transaction" can make Nie Haitang join the Mu family.

Of course, he admits that Zhang Quan is really capable, but he has also seen the depth of Zhang Quanzhen's routines. In short, the old miscellaneous Taoist has the dual effect of skills and routines, making the relationship between him and the Mu family deeper and faster. It's hard to tell each other.

Mu Xiaoqiao also stretched out her hand to help Qin Ming tie up the buttons on the waistband of her jeans. She didn't feel wrong at all, but she was a little bit shy.

Mu Xiaoqiao took out the wooden box with the special fragrance and said, "This can save your life, right?"

Qin Ming took the wooden box, and suddenly felt sick. The scent of the wooden box might have some influence on the Gu worms in his body.

After Qin Ming took out the martial arts book "Integrity of Righteous Qi", he hurriedly closed the box.

Mu Xiaoqiao said: "I've read this book. It seems to be about breathing exercises and some martial arts moves. They said they were used to guard me against wolves. I guess they lied to me at the time, and they kept it for you. These martial arts I found a lot of books in the library. But the things Zhang Zhenren gave should be exceptional."

To be honest, Qin Ming gets a headache when he sees this kind of thing, so it would be better to show him a corporate q1 marketing report.

But this thing can save his life, he has to study it carefully.

Now that I have this life-saving thing, do I have to go to the Lin family of the Tuzhai family?

"Go, I still have to go." Qin Ming's determination is still relatively firm. Since they are all here, there must be an end. Not to mention the practice of spitting and incomprehensible moves, it will take at least a month. It may not take so long for people who directly find Mu's family.

Even if it was because the Lin family kidnapped Zhang Xianmin, and even dressed as Zhang Xianmin, they lost a lot of money from the Dayong City Century Tourism Group, which had to be recovered.

At the other end of the airport, an ordinary Santana sedan greeted the young woman and old lady who had influenced Qin Ming.

They were greeted by a young guy and asked; “Miss, are you back? Viagra was caught”

The old woman nervously said, “What did Xiaowei do? Who did he provoke this time?”

The young man said: “We provoked Mr. Zhang from Dayong Century Tourism Group. Both Viagra and Ping were arrested, and the other party did not call the police. Moreover, the big boss behind Zhang Xianmin is here, and he called for trouble with the Lin family.”

The old woman’s expression changed, and she scolded: “You are really fooling around. Now that the Lin family is in danger, you are still doing so many things... Hey... Yurou, what are you going to do?”

Lin Yurou sighed. You have changed your name from the young lady to Yurou. Isn’t that the meaning of pleading? Who doesn’t know that Lin Mingwei is your grandson?

Lin Yurou said: “Let’s rescue people first. If you can’t leave evidence, then it will be fair.”

Chapter 432

In the hotel of the group, Qin Ming brought Mu Xiaoqiao back and reunited her with Mu Sichun sisters first.

Qin Ming came to the independent black house and asked, “Bi Yuan, did you confess why you kidnapped Zhang Xianmin? What else did you ask?”

Bi Yuan laughed: “Hahaha, just a few words of scare. The tools are not used yet. In fact, there is nothing special. They explained that the Lin family had some big changes and needed a lot of money. They originally knew Zhang Xianmin. , They wanted to make Mr. Zhang lose money on the group, but Zhang Xianmin refused, and they kidnapped Mr. Zhang.”

“That Lin Chaofeng looks a bit similar to Mr. Zhang, and has almost the same body shape. He was a good friend before, and he was the main loser of the group’s finances. For more than a week, he lost more than 50 million of the group.”

Qin Ming nodded and asked, “Did you say something happened to the Lin family?”

Bi Yuan responded: “They don’t know, they all say that the people of the family above are making noise. Whoever can get the money can write the name in the ancestral ancestral hall. In the ancestral ancestral hall of the Lin family, only the sons of the family can write names. Go in.”

The words of the two Lin family members actually confirmed that Lin Yurou’s purpose of going to have a blind date with the old Qin family in Haishi was for money.

How can the Lin family say that they are also a wealthy family, is it so exaggerated that they are short of money?

Can’t a friend borrow it? Can’t the bank borrow it yet?

Qin Ming didn’t know these specific circumstances, and he didn’t want to care about it. He asked, “Let them talk about how to meet the head of the Lin family?”

Bi Yuan said: “I asked, they said that their status in the Lin family is too low, they don’t know. However, the person in charge of the Lin family is called Lin Yuanwang. I checked this person. He is the chairman of Lin’s Shenghui Tourism Group. The company is in Dayong City. I have sent someone to inquire, but no one can be seen. Any business is handled by the deputy director, and the deputy director is not a member of the Lin family.”

“Lin Yuanwang...” Qin Ming muttered, and then asked: “Keep people staring at Lin’s Shenghui Tourism Group. Once they find out, control Lin Yuanwang first.”

Bi Yuan received the order and went to deal with it immediately.

Qin Ming has gained gains and goals here, and the next plan is also well carried out.

Qin Ming came to the room of the two sisters Mu Xiaoqiao and was about to knock on the door when suddenly a fire alarm in the hotel screamed: “Ling Ling Ling~!”

Sudden fire alarms, and thick smoke of burning hay that did not know where, quickly filled the entire hotel.

The hotel’s security guards acted immediately and ran to evacuate the passengers, and the hotel immediately became a mess.

But Qin Ming frowned. The hotel was on fire and the smell was not right. It couldn’t be the smell of burning hay, right? Isn’t it the sour smell of burning plastic?

This is someone deliberately set fire to create chaos!

Bang Bang Bang, Qin Ming slapped the door vigorously and shouted, “Mu Xiaoqiao and Mu Sichun, are you there? Stay inside and don’t come out.”

“Here, it tastes great, it’s the guilty man.” Then Qin Ming heard a woman’s feminine voice.

At the end of the corridor, a woman in a yellow shirt and long skirt walked out slowly. She looked at Qin Ming hostilely, and said: “I didn’t expect to see you here again, you a guilty man, I think you have let down our Lin family. Which girl? Unexpectedly, you would dare to come to Xiangxi.”

Qin Ming's expression changed and he recognized that the woman in yellow shirt in front of him was Lin Yurou who had wormed him that day?

The reason why the other party didn't recognize Qin Ming was because he put on makeup very witty from the beginning, disguised as a middle-aged uncle, and was not discovered.

Qin Ming saw that Lin Yurou was surrounded by two men with dark panels, who seemed to be professional thugs.

Qin Ming looked at the opponent's thugs, and he was stunned: "It's not good, Aaron went to prepare the team and equipment, and Bi Yuan arranged for someone to follow Lin Yuanwang's company. It happened that there was no one by my side."

Lin Yurou pointed to Qin Ming and said, "Go and beat him up to me."

The two thugs grinned and squeezed their fists, and said: "Sure enough, a very strong taste, choppy, did you come to our Xiangxi Lin clan to bully which girl, and always give up? Then leave two legs."

Lin Yurou's two thugs rushed towards Qin Ming quickly, Qin Ming backed two steps nervously, holding his breath, and met the brave on a narrow road to win. He was born in a street fight, and he hadn't been afraid of fighting bravely.

When the two thugs were about to rush to Qin Ming.

With a creak, the door of the hotel room suddenly opened.

Two thugs with fierce eyes, only Qin Ming in their eyes, how could they have thought that the door next to them was suddenly opened?

Bang!

Both of them slammed into the door straight and fainted to the ground.

After a while, Mu Xiaoqiao poked her head out and said, "Is the fire alarm? I, I hit someone? Qin Ming, are you okay? Sister, hurry up, leave those clothes alone, what about the fire alarm."

Mu Sichun said in the house, "No, my brother-in-law bought it to me. Don't throw one away."

Uh...In this situation, Qin Ming looked at the two women and the two thugs who had fainted on the ground. He laughed and made God help me.

He dashed forward and immediately caught the woman in the yellow shirt.

The girl Lin Yurou was not strong enough, did not struggle twice, but was slapped twice by Qin Ming and had to be honest.

Qin Ming grabbed Lin Yurou and said triumphantly: "I didn't expect it? I'm so lucky, it's unreasonable, it's you, everything is you."

Lin Yurou bit her lip and her cheeks were flushed. She was really depressed. This was too surprising. These two are the better bodyguards of her Lin family. They are very strong in physical fitness and fighting, but this turned out to be good, and all of them had their heads knocked. The door fainted to the ground.

Lin Yurou cursed stiffly: "You bitch, a bitch, our Tuzhai Lin clan will not let you go."

Qin Ming raised his hand viciously, and said angrily: "You won't let me go? I still won't let you go. You..."

Suddenly, a vicious voice came from behind: "Boy, let the people go. This little sister and your wife are sisters, right?"

Qin Ming looked back in surprise. It was an old lady with a hunchback in a floral dress, but her eyes were sharp and embarrassing, and she was accompanied by a few ruthless professional thugs.

Wasn't the old woman next to the two Lin clan members who helped Lin Chaofeng defy the group's funds? Was rescued unexpectedly?

It turns out that these people are also members of the Lin clan, and they suddenly attacked people to rob them.

And because Mu Sichun had just come out of the room, he was caught by the old woman's thug.

Mu Xiaoqiao was stuck in the middle because he was worried that Qin Ming followed a few steps.

Seeing this situation, Mu Xiaoqiao ran towards Qin Ming for the first time. She looked at Mu Sichun worriedly, but she didn't know what to do. She just reprimanded: "Is it you? I saw it on the plane. Who are you guys? Let go of my sister."

The old woman threatened: "You let the people go first, and we let them go."

Qin Ming said, "You are the one who set the fire? Let my sister go first, and I will let the woman go."

A thug on the side roared: "Let our lady go, you have no bargaining terms."

It was too late, then soon, a large number of security personnel rushed upstairs, and Aaron and Bi Yuan also rushed to hear the news.

“Five, six, seven... eleven...it’s happened, there are too many people on the other side, first retreat.” The old woman slightly turned her ear, heard a lot of footsteps, and immediately chose to retreat, leading everyone to rush to the side. Sichun’s room.

Frozen, heard the sound of glass breaking, and then these people jumped directly from the stairs.

When Bi Yuan and the others arrived, they found that they had already set up a rope by the window, one by one, climbing down the stairs like a sky monkey.

There was a spare escape car next to the hotel, which ran away in a hurry.

Bi Yuan picked up the walkie-talkie and shouted, “The license plate number is Hunan a?, chase me right away!”

After these Lin family members escaped, the hotel quickly restored order, but the current situation is not optimistic. Qin Ming arrested Lin Yurou, and they arrested Mu Sichun.

This is still trying to find the Lin family to get the worm out, but the contradiction gets worse and worse?

Chapter 433

“Master, we have already contacted Lin’s Shenghui Tourism Group, but those people did not respond to us, and Lin Yuanwang did not come forward. It seems that he doesn’t know too much about the Lin family. Unless we have to deal with the entire company. Dozens of people use strong ones.”

“The robbers’ escaped cars have also been found, but the people have already run away. I have scheduled the local assassination team to temporarily participate in the search.”

“The police have not been notified yet, and additional staff have been sent over.”

Qin Ming felt anxious after listening to Along’s report. He treated Mu Sichun just like his sister. Now that Mu Sichun was involved in his affairs for no reason, he was uneasy.

Qin Ming asked, “How long has it been?”

Aaron said: “It’s been half an hour, and the other party didn’t have any contact. That Lin Yurou was also staring at us, and we also controlled her mobile phone.”

After finishing talking, Aaron blamed himself: “I blame it for this. If I can organize my team and equipment quickly, I won’t be taken advantage of by those people, and Miss Lin won’t be caught.”

Qin Ming shook his head and said, “Blame me, I didn’t bring more people. I thought that this trip could be discussed with the Lin family on the stage, but it turned out to be a fight with the Lin family. It was really unexpected. This is someone’s site. Fighting insects. That’s all, let’s start with Lin Yurou.”

When Qin Ming came to the small black room of the hotel, Lin Yurou was tightly tied up. The figure was tied up with five flowers, but there was a kind of restrained beauty, but her belongings were all laid out.

Qin Ming picked up Lin Yurou’s ID card and muttered: “Lin Yurou, age nineteen, from Shaoyang. Do you know that your Lin family kidnapped my subordinate Zhang Xianmin, and you still ran out of 50 million in Century Tourism Group?”

Qin Ming said: “We didn’t call the police, thinking that you are also a famous family in Xiangxi, so you can solve it in private. You are better, come to snatch someone. Do you know that I haven’t called the police yet, just thinking about snatching people away? Evidence, are you going to deny it?”

Lin Yurou's plan was exposed, biting her lip is not easy to refute, there is no way, this matter involved Lin Mingwei, the grandson of her grandmother who was responsible for protecting her since childhood.

Once the matter went back to Dazhai, Lin Mingwei kidnapped an innocent businessman and defrauded 50 million yuan, which was enough to kill him.

It is a pity that she found Qin Ming by smelling the scent of bugs on Qin Ming's body, and planned to teach Qin Ming, who was a guilty man, but instead fell into Qin Ming's hands.

Lin Yurou looked at Qin Ming, changed the subject, and said fiercely: "You are a scumbag who is always abandoning, because you have our Lin family's unique Gu worm, but your wife does not."

This Qin Ming was really wronged, even more wronged than Yang Naiwu.

He was calculated by the woman in front of him, Lin Yurou, are you embarrassed to say that this victim is me?

But he thought for a while, if he didn't expose this lie, he might be able to continue to conceal his identity through other methods.

Qin Ming said: "I found a talented Taoist priest. He told me that you have the skills of the Lin family of the Tuzhai clan in western Hunan. You can do this kind of conscientious and servile slavery. I am sorry. Scolding me? Compromise shouldn't be mutual respect? It's the woman who uses bugs to threaten the man's life?"

Lin Yurou argued: "Fart, the women of the Lin clan generally will never use this kind of insulting trick. We Lin clan raise insects for the purpose of curing diseases and saving people and strengthening the body. Your love is compelling. We, Lin. The women of the clan are not unsympathetic and unjust. If you do not abandon her, the male worms in your body will be familiar with the scent of a female worm, and will not be affected by the smell of other female worms. The evidence is like a mountain, you are a Scumbag."

Qin Ming disdainfully said: “Ho ho, you are forced to hold someone else’s life in your hands? You are really deceiving yourself. If you don’t have the ability to leave your own man, you will use this kind of shameful trick. It will be strange if the man doesn’t leave.”

However, Qin Ming was really surprised, this Gu worm is so mysterious? Can you distinguish the scent of the mother worm, and become unaffected by other mother worms after being familiar with a smell?

Qin Ming said: “You are good at bragging. How can there be such a mysterious thing under the sky? Then you try to bring out the male worm in my body?”

Lin Yurou was immediately embarrassed and furious: “Ho ho, I won’t, you will suffer for the rest of your life, and it will be easy for me to kill you.”

Qin Minghao smiled: “Okay. Then we have to see who will not let go first? I heard that you have the ability to let the gu worms in my body directly die through the smell, which will also cause my death. Then I can understand. Tell you, once I die, you will die too. My men strip your clothes naked, then cut them all the time, wait until the blood flow is almost the same, pour honey, and then throw them into the forest to find bullet ants’ nests. Put it in, let you try the taste of hundreds of bullets gnawing.”

Lin Yurou heard such a terrible way of death, she almost cried with her legs close together, looking at Qin Ming like a monster. This man is terrible.

Qin Ming approached Lin Yurou and said, “Why don’t we make a deal? You get the bugs out and ask your people to return fifty million back, and we will laugh out our grudges. How about? Let’s forget about today’s affairs. , I let you go, and you let go of my sister. After all, you are all innocent.”

Lin Yurou was startled, how did she feel that Qin Ming’s conditions had eased suddenly? The money is indeed wrong, and I have to pay it back.

But he didn’t even hold grudges, which is already a step back.

Lin Yurou thought to herself: "Although this guy is a guilty man, but now the Lin family is worried about internal and external troubles, and really can't make enemies anymore."

Lin Yurou said, "How can I be sure of what you said?"

Qin Ming directly loosened Lin Yurou's tie, and said, "Otherwise, what do you want? Small things turn into big things, big things turn into giants, big things turn into enemies of life and death? Stop as soon as possible, I am not a bad person. "

Lin Yurou was stunned again, she was really amused by Qin Ming's expression, and she didn't make a rough statement early, and there was no need to raise things to a higher level.

Qin Ming's quiet words made Lin Yurou feel a little more fond of him.

Lin Yurou bit her lip and said, "Okay, I'll believe you once. Let's exchange hostages first, and then I will help you get out the Gu worms in your body. Of course, you're in this hotel. You have a lot of people. Don't be afraid of us suddenly. Run away?"

Qin Ming calculated that this seemed not bad, and he asked Lin Yurou to get back her mobile phone.

Lin Yurou dialed the number of the old woman and said, "Sister Bai Ying, come back to the hotel and bring the girl back. Trust me, it's okay. In addition, I have to raise 50 million quickly. This is a lie to others, so I have to return it anyway. . What? You have already taken the waterway back to Dazhai? Something happened in the clan?"

"Then, what about that girl? Oh, oh, put it at Bo Lin Shui. Okay, I'll take care of this."

Lin Yurou hung up the phone and said, "You send someone to the small restaurant on No.8, Lane 6, Phoenix Ancient Town, don't worry, I won't leave."

Qin Ming listened and immediately asked Along to send someone to pick up Mu Sichun.

Sure enough, when I went to the small restaurant, I saw Mu Sichun open his stomach and ate a lot, and asked Qin Ming to help pay the bill, but it made people dumbfounded.

As if all this is a farce.

Lin Yurou said: "People have already been let go, should you let me go too?"

Qin Ming shook his head and said, "What about the fifty million? You are also gone, where can I find fifty million? This is not a small number."

Lin Yurou looked straight at Qin Ming, and said thoughtfully: "You can pay you back the money, but you have to go with me to see my dad. My dad has money."

Qin Ming said, "Your father is not in Dayong City? He can't live in the mountains, right?"

Lin Yurou explained: "Usually, I take care of business in Dayong City, but there is something to do in Tuzhai. The waterway will be there in half a day. Don't worry about it for too long. We are not primitive people."

"And..." Lin Yu paused and said: "The Gu worms in your body must be easily lured out. I also need to use some herbal materials. I need to go back to Dazhai to get them. You must at least let me go, I'll get them. Only things come out to save you."

This debt collection went to the mountains? Qin Ming frowned, do you want to go?

Chapter 434

Qin Ming went to take Mu Sichun back, but this girl was really big enough to eat, drink and have fun on other people's sites, and she didn't look like she was tied up at all.

Qin Ming asked, "Isn't it embarrassing for you?"

Mu Sichun proudly put his hands on his hips and said, "Of course not. When I reported your brother-in-law your name, they were scared. Hehehe, he treated me as a guest. The local food here is delicious. ."

Qin Ming touched Mu Sichun's head speechlessly, and said, "It's okay."

Mu Sichun was touched by Qin Ming's head, a cute snicker, looking at Qin Ming shyly.

Mu Xiaoqiao on the side looked at this scene. The two were not brothers and sisters. What do they mean by being so close?

She felt inexplicably uncomfortable, and quickly stepped forward to pull Mu Sichun away, and said, "Xiaochun, let me see where it hurts."

Instead, Mu Sichun said uncomfortably, "No, sister, I'm fine."

Qin Ming left and went back to the little black room and said, "Lin Yurou, your people have all gone, leaving you behind is really unexpected. I thought you were very important."

Lin Yurou confidently said: "Baiying's wife is gone, and it is not our Lin family who withdrew from Dayong City. You hotel should have just fired a few "traitor employees"? They are members of our Lin family, and help us sneak into the hotel. , Fake arson robbed people. So I'm still under the protection of a large number of people."

Qin Ming frowned. It was true that Bi Yuan fired a manager and four employees from the hotel just now. They neglected their duties and allowed the Lin family to sneak in. It turned out that they were not negligent. Nima was a foreign enemy from Litong.

Qin Ming said with emotion: "The Lin family is worthy of being a big wealthy in Xiangxi. Even my own hotel has been infiltrated by you. I heard that those old employees who have been working for seven or eight years are still there."

Lin Yurou said: "Under normal circumstances, of course, they work hard to support their families, but it is related to the prosperity of the family. Every member of our Lin family will be willing to make sacrifices, and I am no exception."

Lin Yurou paused and said, "If you want to bring out the Gu worms easily, I also need to use some herbal materials. I need to go back to Dazhai to get them. At least you have to let me go. I will get something out to save it. You. Now something happened to our Lin family, it may take a lot of time for you to wait for me to come back."

Wait? Qin Ming didn't want to wait for a moment. It was already afternoon, and he still wanted to resolve the matter within these two days.

But to go, this debt collection has gone into the mountains? Qin Ming frowned, do you want to go?

Qin Ming was guilty of muttering, and asked, "Why do you invite me to your village?"

Lin Yurou said: "I think you should be very rich. Our Lin family is in trouble recently. I think my dad may discuss some business with you. I invited you with this purpose. If the business is successful, I will also Can I help you get rid of the bugs in the first place, and if you take back those 50 million people and leave, isn't it smooth?"

This is the truth, but Qin Ming is not at ease because it goes too smoothly.

Qin Ming asked, "Not for money? Isn't your Lin family engaged in tourism? Is there anything worth our money? Is it possible to sell bugs to me?"

Lin Yurou said: "This is about our Lin family's secrets, I can't tell. But if you want to negotiate a business, my dad may let you know some."

Qin Ming was aroused by curiosity. After all, he physically felt the power of those insects: "You are also a wealthy family at any rate. You are short of money to such a degree? How big a funding gap do you probably have?"

Lin Yurou tentatively said, "One hundred billion can solve this trouble."

Qin Ming was quite surprised, one hundred billion? This is really not what an ordinary wealthy family can take out, and it is impossible for an ordinary bank to borrow so much.

It is no wonder that Lin Yurou had to marry a world-class giant, and the old Qin family in the sea market did not hesitate to use that kind of tricks as a daughter-in-law.

However, your difficulties are not an excuse for individuals to add trouble.

Naturally, Qin Ming didn't intend to give them 100 billion yuan. If the loan was okay, the interest would be a sum of money in the future.

Qin Ming questioned: "Do you mean that my life is not worth 100 billion?"

Lin Yurou shook her head and said: "Your wife's sister has been released. I hope you can let go of your prejudice against our Lin family. The reason why I am hostile to you is because you have sentiment in your body, and your wife is an ordinary person. I think You are a heartless man, I just want to teach you a lesson."

"If you can help our Lin family, I will let go of the prejudices in my heart. In the future, you and our Lin family will also be close business partners."

Qin Ming now has two doubts. What has happened to the Lin family as a local wealthy family, forcing Lin Yurou to go on a blind date and marry him to swindle money; secondly, can he really get rid of the insects when he goes to Tuzhai?

Once you go to Tuzhai, it will become the fish on the cutting board of others, which has certain risks.

This made Qin Ming even more annoyed. Zhang Quanzhen's stinky old Taoist was just calculating his tricks, and he was determined not to be fooled by him.

In fact, Lin Yurou has been observing Qin Ming. She sees that Qin Ming has a lot of bodyguards around him and his wife is still so beautiful, and she is probably also a wealthy businessman.

She tentatively said 100 billion, but in fact, it didn't need so much to save the Lin family, only 50 billion was enough.

As a result, Qin Ming didn't blink, as if he felt that 100 billion was not an exaggerated astronomical figure, but a price tag for what he could afford.

This made Lin Yurou very excited. The Lin family had already borrowed money everywhere. Although they had borrowed a lot of money to tide over the difficulties, there was still a big gap in funding.

Moreover, for some reason, the Lin family's affairs couldn't be explained, and everyone knew it.

Qin Ming thought about it, the Lin family is not a heinous wealthy, the risk factor is not too high, since the other party is asking for someone, it would be good for him to get acquainted with him, and it would be nice to have one more friend.

Especially being able to deworm his body is the key.

Qin Ming said: "I can go and see this. Our group can take out 100 billion, but it is impossible to give it in vain. If the interest is paid, it can be discussed."

Lin Yurou was overjoyed and said, "Really? What do you call Mr.?"

Qin Minghao smiled: "My surname is Fu, called Xinhao."

Lin Yurou directly slapped her lips and rolled her eyes. Are you trying to retaliate? Are you such a stingy man?

Now that the two sides have settled, Qin Ming is ready to set off.

Qin Ming deliberately acted secretly this time, and did not notify Mu Xiaoqiao and the two sisters, so as to save them from coming quietly.

Because he had to take a small boat, Qin Ming found only three ships, including two high-level cadres, Aaron and Bi Yuan. He must have brought nine people with him. The small boat went down the river and he could reach the Tuzhai village of the Lin clan at night. .

What happened to the Lin family can be solved after going there.

The boat set off slowly, and the group of people dressed like jungle adventures also attracted the attention of many tourists along the way.

Lin Yurou said, "Aren't you bringing your wife? Are you worried that you will see the girl you abandoned in Dazhai for fear of causing conflicts?"

Qin Ming said: "Your Lin family's women feed people everywhere. Every year there are many victims like me."

Lin Yurou said: "Not at all. We have to do it as a last resort. We won't do this. Moreover, once we do this, the natural gods will curse and punish our women who have sex with them. So there won't be too many people who have sex with us. of."

"Ho ho..." The people around Qin Ming laughed, feeling that Lin Yurou's words are mysterious, it is basically a legend between the countryside and the countryside, but ordinary people are okay, they are all people killed in the gun forest rain bullets, and they are not appropriate at all. One thing.

Bi Yuan laughed and said: "You curse no matter how good you are, can you beat Gatling with blue fire?"

"Hahaha..." The surrounding little brother laughed again.

Lin Yurou felt a little wronged, feeling that the mysterious legend of her hometown was underestimated, she hummed: "The mystery of nature can never be understood clearly."

"Eh? Who is that? Miss Mu? Why did she follow?" Suddenly, Aaron pointed to a woman who was running fast by the river bank.

Everyone looked up, and it turned out that Mu Xiaoqiao was running along the bank of the river and chasing the three small boats. The speed was very fast, not at all like a pampered eldest lady, with high athletic quality.

Lin Yurou looked at and laughed: "Look, your wife thought you were going to meet your lover. There was a fire in the backyard, right?"

Qin Ming frowned, what is this stupid woman doing with him? Don't know if it is dangerous to enter Dazhai this time?

Qin Ming hurriedly yelled: "Hurry up, draw up quickly."

But no matter how fast you row, it is useless. There is an arch bridge in the ancient town in front of him. When Mu Xiaoqiao ran to the arch bridge, he leaped against Qin Ming's boat.

"I wipe it!" Everyone looked horrified. Is this going to die together?

Chapter 435

"I'll rub, Mu Xiaoqiao are you crazy?" Qin Ming looked at Mu Xiaoqiao who jumped down from the arch bridge. It was too late to react, so he could only reach out and pick it up.

Others turned over and went into the water one after another, saving a bad one, and the whole ship sank.

call!

Qin Ming steadily stepped with his feet apart, but he was very chic and hugged Mu Xiaoqiao in a princess hug.

The draught of the hull immediately deepened, sinking severely, and Qin Ming's bottom plate was not stable enough, and he almost fell on the floating hull.

However, Bi Yuan, Along and other younger brothers immediately gathered around the boat, steadily stabilizing the boat together, did not turn the boat on its side, nor did it fulfill Qin Ming's perfect princess hug.

"Papa Papa" on the bank of the river attracted applause from many tourists.

"Cowhide, it's amazing."

"Wow, that girl really dared to jump."

"The few who got into the water are unlucky, hahaha."

Mu Xiaoqiao was also excited to hook Qin Ming's shoulders, calming her excitement, she didn't know if Qin Ming would catch her, but when Qin Ming really caught her, she was still very happy in her heart, at least she is not dispensable in Qin Ming's heart.

However, Qin Ming then looked indifferent: "What are you doing with you? Don't you know this is dangerous? Do you think you are going to play?"

Mu Xiaoqiao was full of joy, and suddenly saw Qin Ming's "Sima face", and suddenly felt cold again.

She felt very wronged in her heart: "Don't worry about you, will I follow you at risk? You can't understand this. Are you a straight man of steel?"

Mu Xiaoqiao bit her lip. She had been wronged all the time, and she simply replied: "Huh, then you throw me into the water and I swim back by myself."

"You woman is really..." Qin Ming looked at the subordinates under the water, feeling distressed that they were getting wet for no reason in order to protect Qin Ming. He scolded, "Mu Xiaoqiao, you are unreasonable, and you have added chaos."

"Me!" Mu Xiaoqiao was annoyed and wanted to refute, but she didn't know what to say for a while. After all, Qin Ming didn't call her, she did follow by force.

Along the river, the ancient town is far away, and the number of tourists is reduced. Along the way, you will occasionally see some rural Miao villages, high mountains and valleys on both sides, the light is dim, and the more the water flows, the more rapid.

The apes on both sides of the strait crowded, and even the birds swooped low, and they were instantly introduced into the green hills and green forests. Along the way, large schools of fish were occasionally swarmed by the river, which is a natural scene in Xiangxi.

Qin Ming said with a smile: "Your Xiangxi scenery is just right. The road in my hometown Baishui Town is full of barren hills and weeds, and there is not a single stream in the river."

Lin Yurou was quite proud, and said, "Of course, there is another place called Ghost Valley, where clouds and fog are covered throughout the year, and snow peaks accumulate on the tops of the mountains. Those mountains have hidden magnetic fields and are very complicated and chaotic. You can't use electronic devices. , Even if you encounter a poisonous snake and beast, even if you escape, you will get some strange diseases."

Mu Xiaoqiao, a girl in a big city, has heard Lin Yurou say about the ordinary places in such horror novels, but she is also a little scared, subconsciously clapping her hands and feet, and beware of mosquito bites, which will cause some strange disease.

Qin Ming took an insect repellent spray and said, "I'm here right away. What kind of skirts do I wear. I don't know how to wear silk stockings?"

Mu Xiaoqiao took it angrily, and didn't say thank you, but the moment he lowered his head, a happy smile rose from the corner of his mouth.

Lin Yurou added: "We Lin clan raise some Gu worms. As long as there are such worms in the body, ordinary poisonous insects will not dare to get close to the human body when they smell the smell, so they will not be bitten by the insects and get any fatal diseases. But we still need to guard against some venomous snakes and beasts."

When Qin Ming heard her say this, he became more curious about the insects raised by the Lin clan, how amazing it was.

The sky was getting darker, and the three boats shuttled through the gloomy valley, the birds, beasts and insects on both sides of the forest became clearer, and the phone could no longer make calls except for the time.

However, Aaron has prepared a super satellite phone, which is a private satellite of the Universe Century Group, and can still contact the outside world. Qin Ming has no worries.

Only as we entered a low canyon, the monkeys on both sides increased.

"Chiji..." They screamed anxiously, annoying.

They also pulled the cane on the mountain wall, dangling on the water, and tried to snatch the luggage of Qin Ming and his party.

Aaron was quick and fast. He threw a few stones and hit a few monkeys. The pain caused them to scream, but Aaron's behavior did not stop these monkeys, but made them more irritable, and attracted more by shouting. Of the same kind.

"Oops, the monkeys are angry." Lin Yurou saw that the situation was wrong, and she carried a glass lamp to illuminate both sides of the strait, and said: "There are a lot of them. Generally, if you give some food, they will not attack the ships along the way. Just hit them with stones. , Obviously angered them."

As soon as the words fell, more and more wild monkeys rushed out from both sides of the strait. They rushed in groups, pulling branches, biting everyone, and snatching goods.

The group was in a hurry to cover each other, and Qin Ming also tightly guarded Mu Xiaoqiao behind him.

These monkeys are still very smart, and they know how to throw stones at Qin Ming and the others on the mountain wall, and make louder and louder howls, making everyone upset by the noise.

Fortunately, these people like Qin Ming are well-trained fighters. Although they were not equipped with hot weapons, they were able to beat the monkeys down with their bare hands. When everyone was happy, the boat did hit the rocks.

With a "bang", the three small boats overturned one after another, and all of them fell into the water.

By the time everyone went ashore again, they were already in trouble.

"Guck..." In the three forests at night, there were waves of beasts crying.

Mu Xiaoqiao was so timid, she hugged Qin Ming's arm nervously, and looked around in a panic.

Qin Ming sighed, you said you are such a timid woman, why do you have to come along? Are you suffering now?

However, at this time, he wouldn't ridicule Mu Xiaoqiao, and kept protecting her.

Qin Ming's sudden heart-warming behavior. Although Mu Xiaoqiao was wet, she felt a warmth. She also subconsciously leaned against Qin Ming's back. Although she was quarreling with Qin Ming, she still thought of Qin Ming in her heart. .

Qin Ming felt the soft flesh on his back, rubbing against his back. This was Qin Ming's favorite hug gesture, and he couldn't help but get up.

"There's no shortage of people, right?" Qin Ming asked.

"No." Along counted the number of people and asked, "Miss Lin, how far are you from Dazhai?"

Lin Yurou said: "It will take about an hour to walk, but it is very close to the legendary Ghost Valley. Snakes, insects, rats and ants are still a small thing. It is easy to get injured if there are beasts in some nights."

Qin Ming sighed depressed, this was really an out-of-the-art branch, and he was afraid that there would be many dreams in the night.

Everyone looked at him, here he had the final say, whether he hurried or found a place to rest is all listening to Qin Ming.

Qin Ming naturally wanted to hurry, but he didn't know that Mu Xiaoqiao's identity would not be able to bear it. When he looked at Mu Xiaoqiao, he suddenly raised his brows.

Mu Xiaoqiao noticed Qin Ming's surprised expression, and said, "What's the matter?"

Qin Ming saw a colorful green-spotted snake lying on the trunk behind Mu Xiaoqiao, opening the blood door and trying to bite her neck. Qin Ming became anxious, his body reacted instinctively, and immediately reached out to block it.

"Ah!" Qin Ming was somber with pain, his arm was bitten by this colorful green-spotted snake.

Qin Ming's arm quickly felt an itching sensation.

Alongyan was quick to grab the snake with his bare hands, pinched the snake's head, and shouted: "Quick, prepare the serum."
