Chapter 709

The crowd turned their heads to see a tall man striding out from the back. Seeing this man, all the people in the room immediately stood up and greeted with smiles, "Elder White, what brings you here?"

This man was none other than the head of the White Family that was among the top ten families in Eastcliff—Declan White! The White Family was ranked on the upper-middle level among the top ten families. As for Declan, he had a powerful control and influence over the White Family. Richard White, the old master of the White Family, was in very poor health, so he hadn't involved himself in the family's affairs for many years. Thus, it could be said that Declan, among the family heads of the ten families, was one of the family heads wielding the most power. Now that he showed up in person, the crowd was naturally shocked.

Declan walked up to the crowd and waved his hand. "Gentlemen, do sit down!"

Only then did the crowd sit down. Then, Gordon cautiously said, "E-Elder White, do you also support us in going up against Stanley?"

Just now, Declan had made his attitude clear with one sentence. And this, too, caused the mood of the crowd to bubble with excitement. After all, Stanley was very strong and not someone that they could deal with by themselves. However, it would be different if there was Declan backing them up. After all, the White Family was one of the top ten families, so its strength was far beyond Stanley's!

Declan nodded calmly. "Today, I was the one who asked Owen to invite you all over, mainly because Stanley Carlson has gone too far now. He's in the medical industry, and we've never interfered with his industry. But he and that Matthew Larson are both investing in real estate now. Moreover, he's backing Matthew and refusing to let us get involved in the villa project. This is too much. There must be social rules in society. Once someone crosses the line, naturally, we have to teach them a lesson!"

The crowd looked at each other, their moods instantly uplifted. Declan was trying to use this incident to teach Stanley a lesson. To put it bluntly, he was trying to steal the villa project. As for this villa project, they had been coveting it for a long time, but their collective strength was not enough for them to grab it from Stanley's hands.

Now with Declan backing them, they would really dare to fight against Stanley! As for Billy, it was not that they were not afraid of him, but they just thought that Billy might not make a move when it came to this kind of thing. After all, when Stanley was in the medical industry, the ten families and other people did not get involved in it, which meant they had given enough respect to Billy. Now, Stanley had suddenly gotten involved in the real estate industry, which had broken the unspoken rule. Even if they really wanted to settle accounts with Stanley, Billy would not be able to say anything!

Gordon was full of excitement. "Elder White, we are relieved to hear this from you. However, I wonder what exactly your plan is?"

Declan smiled gently and looked at President White, who grinned. "Actually, this matter is very simple. The villa project is now in the hands of that Matthew Larson. If Matthew dies, then what will happen to the shares in his hands?"

The crowd was all stunned. Liam, on the other hand, was elated in his heart; he had dreamed every day of killing Matthew. Now that these people had started to discuss the matter of killing that man, it was exactly what he wanted!

Gordon replied, "If Matthew dies, the shares will definitely be transferred to his wife. If anyone marries his wife later, then this problem will be easily resolved! Old Mr. White, I understand what you mean now! You are planning to have Sam marry Sasha Cunningham!"

Liam's heart leaped into his throat. If that was really the case, then he couldn't take advantage of anything then.

Nevertheless, President White sneered, "How is Sasha worth anything? She's just used goods; how is she worthy of marrying my son? What I mean is that if Matthew dies, when the time comes, we will jointly provide funding and let Mr. Hayes step in to take them. Mr. Hayes is part of their family, so if he does this, no one will suspect anything. We just need to operate behind the scenes. In fact, we don't have to show our faces at all, and we can share the money among ourselves when the time comes."

Chapter 710

The crowd looked at each other in disbelief, as they did not expect President White to suggest this method. How could they simply give away such a good thing to Liam?

Liam, on the other hand, was surprised. This is a windfall out of nowhere, right?

President White saw through the thoughts of the crowd and explained, "Matthew and Stanley have a good relationship. If we directly grab the villa project, Stanley will definitely counterattack aggressively, which will cause us to suffer a big loss too. This is unnecessary. The best way is to have Liam go and take the shares. By then, this would be Matthew's own family matters, and as an outsider, it would not be appropriate for Stanley to intervene!"

Realization suddenly dawned on the crowd. Then, Gordon laughed. "President White, you've thought everything out well."

President White smiled and looked at Liam. "Mr. Hayes, you have heard our plan, right? Don't worry, if you work for us, we won't let you lose out on anything. For this villa project, we can conservatively estimate that we will make 7 to 8 billion out of it in total. We'll give you 10% of the shares, and by then, you'll have at least more than 500 million in cash in your hands. What do you think?"

Shocked, Liam thought that this was indeed an astronomical amount. However, Demi was a bit reluctant. "President White, this project originally belongs to the Cunningham Family anyway. You're only giving us 10% of the shares, so this—"

President White sneered, "Miss Cunningham, if we can kill Matthew, we will also have a way to destroy the Cunningham Family! If all of you die, when the time comes, the heir will go to Eric's lineage. I believe that Eric and the others will be very willing to cooperate with me! If you are not willing to cooperate, I don't care."

Demi's expression changed greatly, and she suddenly realized that this time, they had no way back. Unless they cooperated with these people, otherwise, they would lose their lives. Thus, Liam took a deep breath and nodded. "President White, as you're so earnest, then we will definitely support you in this matter! President White, if there is anything you want us to do, just give us an order.”

Demi also nodded. “President White, we’ll help you. Let us help you.”

Hearing this, President White laughed. “That’s right! Miss Cunningham, you are not the same as Matthew and Sasha. You know how to differentiate good and bad, and you can behave well. Therefore, I can promise you that when this is over, we will help you take down Cunningham Pharmaceuticals. By that time, we only need Wellness Herbary from it, and the rest of Cunningham Pharmaceuticals will be yours.”

At this, Demi was overjoyed; she had always wanted her family’s fortune. If this was really possible, then she would be rich!

“President White, I-I really don’t know what to say! Don’t worry, we will definitely do our best to help you!” Demi’s voice was trembling.

President White smiled smugly, “Of course, there is also one little thing that we need your help with.”

Liam immediately said, “President White, just give us an order!”

Then, President White took out a small packet from his pocket. “Here is a packet of powder which I got from the Hughes Family in Eastshire. You guys take this packet of powder and put it inside Matthew’s food. This powder is colorless, tasteless, and non-toxic, and even if Matthew is highly skilled in medicine, it is impossible for him to detect it. Anyway, this powder will make him suddenly become unconscious for a period of time. After he eats it, you only need to get him to drive. By then, I can guarantee that he will definitely die in a car accident! Moreover, this kind of powder will be excreted out of the body very quickly, so no one will find out.”

Liam and Demi looked at each other, and both of them were a little afraid. They did want the family’s assets, but they never wanted to kill anyone, much less had the guts to do so.

Seeing that, President White sneered. “As the saying goes, no road to success will be easy. If you guys can’t even do this, it means you are too soft-hearted and not qualified to take over Cunningham Pharmaceuticals!”
