

Super Rich Dad Chapter 631-633

Chapter 631

However, when faced with Xue Yuning's amnesia, Jiang Hao had no place to start.

The idea of these things immersed Jiang Hao's entire being, without noticing that Lin Yan, who was sitting across from him, was already somewhat dissatisfied.

'I'm just asking a question. Why are you rushing at me?'

After saying this, Lin Yan threw her knife and fork onto the table, then looked at Jiang Hao with squinted eyes and said, 'Since you are so skilled in medicine, can you come to my house if you have the chance?'

It was only when Jiang Hao heard these words that he came back to his senses. Then he looked at Lin Yan and said, 'What, is someone in your family sick too?'

Lin Yan let out a bitter smile and sighed, 'These days. Who doesn't have a sick person at home?'

After saying this, Lin Yan looked out of the window, 'Ordinary people's families may still have some difficulties, as medicine and other things cost a lot of money, while our families are afraid of encountering diseases that can't be cured even after spending money.'

Jiang Hao snorted and laughed lightly and said, 'What kind of disease can't be cured now, cancer can be cured as long as it's in the early stage, what are you afraid of?'

Lin Yan faintly shook her head, then looked at Jiang Hao with her eyes brightly, 'If my sister hadn't met you, I'm afraid she would have only died.'

When Jiang Hao saw Lin Yan talking about this matter, he couldn't help but ask, 'By the way, how is your sister doing lately? Is she feeling better?'

Lin Yan shook her head, her bathrobe lightly opened to reveal her two smooth and shiny long legs, and then lay down on the sofa.

'Her body is much better now, and she's not always cold like before.'

Jiang Hao's heart was slightly comforted after hearing this, and then it suddenly occurred to him that being born with the Yin Vein was sometimes a good thing.

Shangdian had recorded a lot of introductions about the odd veins, and there was a very important sentence in it.

That is, all odd veins must have a certain degree of superiority!

Thinking of this, Jiang Hao looked towards Lin Yan and spoke, 'How about I tell your fortune?'

Lin Yan looked at Jiang Hao curiously and nodded slightly and said, 'What, are you planning to act as a charlatan? Healing people and telling fortunes at the same time.'

Jiang Hao smiled mysteriously, 'Take good care of your sister, if my calculations are correct, she will have a great future!'

Lin Yan couldn't help but roll her eyes when she heard this, 'Come on you, you make it sound like I won't take good care of my sister if she doesn't have any future.'

As soon as the words left her mouth, Lin Yan's mobile phone also suddenly rang.

Jiang Hao moved his ears curiously and heard a male voice coming from among Lin Yan's phone.

'Lin Yan, where have you been. The company has so many things piling up how can you leave and run around?'

Lin Yan heard this and glanced at Jiang Hao nervously, then spoke in a deep voice, 'Uncle. I'm a bit inconvenienced right now, why don't I come back this afternoon?'

Jiang Hao looked at Lin Yan curiously, he hadn't heard of Lin Yan having an uncle before.

'Little Yan, I'm not talking about you. You're such an attitude as the first in line heir to the company, it makes us elders worry.'

Lin Yan bit her lip before speaking somewhat reluctantly, 'Alright, I know, I'll be back to the company in an hour.'

As soon as the words were finished Lin Yan hung up the phone. Then she took a deep breath and called the room department and said, 'Send my clothes up for dry cleaning immediately.'

Jiang Hao looked at Lin Yan's ugly expression and spoke with some embarrassment, 'I'm sorry, I'm sorry I dragged you out to drink last night and delayed you from doing your business.'

Hearing this, Lin Yan shook her head slightly and said, 'It's none of your business, they're just seizing every opportunity to hit me.'

After saying this, Lin Yan picked up her black tea and took a sip, then spoke with hidden anger, 'I don't know what's bothering you, but what's bothering me is my eldest uncle.'

'How can you say that. Isn't your eldest uncle a family member with you, what is there to be bothered about?'

Jiang Hao regretted his words as soon as he said them. Thinking about all these things he was carrying, wasn't it frankly the conflict between the clan and the family.

As expected. Lin Yan looked at Jiang Hao with a surprised expression after hearing this and laughed bitterly, 'You simply don't understand what's going on here.'

After a pause, Lin Yan continued, 'Back then, my father and my grandfather relied on their hands to build the current Lin family. Then because of a car accident my father passed away.'

Lin Yan then looked at Jiang Hao: 'I don't need to tell you what happened after that, right? Heh, it's ridiculous that my eldest uncle didn't help at all back then, but now he's even coveting the shares my father left me.'

Jiang Hao shook his head somewhat helplessly after hearing this, 'Who doesn't have a little thing in their family, forget it, you can just pretend that I don't understand.'

After saying this, Jiang Hao glanced at Lin Yan with some heartache, how different did Lin Yan look from himself at this time?

The same people who were close to him were chasing after him, frantically suppressing him just to satisfy the other party's interests.

Only Shen Tianyang was after the Shangdian he carried, while Lin Yan's eldest uncle was after the company shares her father had left behind.

As Lin Yan thought about these things, the corners of her eyes unconsciously moistened, and then she got up and walked towards the door, 'Why haven't my clothes been delivered yet!'

She wanted to make Jiang Hao unable to see her sad expression by getting up, but she didn't expect that all this would be caught in Jiang Hao's eyes.

Along with Jiang Hao's deep sigh, he understood why the normally calm Lin Yan had been so crazy last night.

It turned out that as a woman, the pressure she was burdened with was not much less than her own.

After a short while, the door of the room suddenly opened and Jiang Hao's dry-cleaned clothes were brought up together with Lin Yan's clothes.

After the two of them had changed their clothes, Lin Yan looked at the time left and said to Jiang Hao, 'How about it, do you want me to take you back to the hospital?'

Jiang Hao looked at the corners of Lin Yan's eyes, so he smiled and nodded and said, 'I'm just begging for it, you know I won a lot of money last night but I still have to marry my daughter-in-law.'

Hearing this Lin Yan unconsciously gave Jiang Hao another white glance, laughed and scolded him before taking him downstairs and getting into the car.

After Lin Yan drove Jiang Hao to the entrance of the hospital, Lin Yan looked at Jiang Hao's back and exclaimed, 'There's something I keep forgetting to say, you were good at kung fu last night!'

Jiang Hao turned around to look at Lin Yan and was about to smile and say that was from the results of the gym.

But suddenly he was sensitive to one thing, this was the hospital entrance!

As expected, before Jiang Hao could explain, an aunt who had come to see the doctor spat at Jiang Hao and scolded him in a low voice: 'You're so shameless!'

Jiang Hao looked at Lin Yan's dashing back with a sad face and shouted, 'B*tch! You're going to screw me over before you leave!'

Chapter 632

Time, 10:40 am.

Place, inside Dean Jiao's office.

Characters, Dean Jiao and Jiang Hao.

At this moment, one of the two is sitting on the boss chair enjoying a massage. But with an angry face.

The other one was standing in a disciplined manner, but with an aura of righteousness on his face, as if he had just come down from the mountain to defend himself against the devil!

'The hospital entrance is a big courtroom of fragrant cars and beautiful women, ahem. The last one is ignored, in any case, you are really too indecent!'

President Jiao finished these words with hidden anger and looked at Jiang Hao in a deep voice, 'Do you still have the reputation of our hospital in your eyes!'

Jiang Hao couldn't afford to carry this hat. So he hurriedly opened his mouth and said, 'Wait, wait, wait, wait, wait, wait, wait.

After saying this, he hurriedly continued, 'Last night I was a bit uncomfortable, so I let her take me out for a drink.'

Before he could finish his sentence, Dean Jiao's voice rose in a straight line, 'You're an old man who let a woman take you out for a drink? Or Miss Lin's family?!'

Jiang Hao frowned and looked at Dean Jiao: 'If I say she even deliberately poured me alcohol, will you hit me over the head with a folder?'

Dean Jiao stared at Jiang Hao for a long time before slowly withdrawing his gaze: 'Well, anyway, in future, even if there's something between you, it's best not to do this in front of the hospital!'

Jiang Hao watched his face slowly change back to its normal appearance, so he knew that he had gotten away with it this time.

The result was that Jiang Hao had just breathed a sigh of relief. But Dean Jiao looked at Jiang Hao with a wicked smile and said, 'Actually, I personally support you, come on young man, take her as soon as possible!'

Jiang Hao couldn't help but roll his eyes at his words, 'Isn't this thing over, is it still over?'

Then Jiang Hao coughed lightly and asked, 'Is there anything else, if not I have to go back to the office to check something.'

Dean Jiao nodded slightly and then took out a card from his body and put it on the table, 'This is the consultation fee from the Xue family, it's a total of 100,000 yuan.'

Jiang Hao skimmed his mouth before speaking, 'Just a little money, the titled Xue family is really shabby.'

Dean Jiao coughed lightly and thought to himself, 'This kid doesn't look like a problem, but he has such a big appetite!'

But he didn't say it out loud. Instead, he said, 'If you can cure Miss Xue's amnesia, then maybe you can get more.'

Jiang Hao smiled bitterly at his words, 'It's not a treatable condition, the human brain is the most complicated place, it's not like you don't know that.'

How could Dean Jiao not know that, it was just that the only person most likely to cure it right now was the hot-selling Great Doctor Shen of the Northern Province in front of him!

'I say Shen Yan, although we have only known each other for a few days, but I have never lied to you, right? I've never done anything wrong to you, right?'

Jiang Hao hesitated for a moment and lifted his head, 'You don't say. There was really a time, the incident with Dr. Xu before. Cough cough cough.'

Hearing this, Dean Jiao blushed, 'Well, no one thought of that time, right, but apart from this incident, there is no more, right?'

Jiang Hao gave a bitter laugh, 'Alright. If you have something to say, just say it directly, what kind of emotional card is this.'

President Jiao looked at the look on Jiang Hao's face, so he didn't beat around the bush anymore and spoke directly, 'Whether our hospital can become the number one hospital in the North depends on you this time. You must do your best!'

Jiang Hao nodded slightly before saying a word to President Jiao and leaving, why would he not want Xue Yuning to recover her memory?

Back in his office, Jiang Hao thought about what Xue Yuning had shown him and had mixed feelings in his heart for a while.

Not to mention the possibility of recovering Xue Yuning's memory, how much aggravation and suffering had Xue Yuning suffered because of himself?

The first thing that I would like to do is to ask myself, Jiang Hao thinks that he and Xue Yuning have never really let her live a good life for a few days.

On the contrary, because of the Shen family's affair, Xue Yuning was seriously injured by Shen Tianyang, so much so that she is now in a coma.

Last night at the bar. A thought flashed through Jiang Hao's heart.

Would Yu Ning want to recover her memory if she could really recover her memory. And should he really let her recover her memory?

The vengeful prince would be like providing a clear target for his enemies if he took Cinderella with him.

Shen Tianyang he definitely didn't mind doing what he had done back then again. But would he be able to bear it himself again?

Thinking of this Jiang Hao couldn't help but let out a deep sigh, and then fidgeted with his pen to himself.

Just as Jiang Hao was pondering. Dr. Ren suddenly approached the door, cautiously walked to the door and knocked on it, saying, 'Ahem, Dr. Shen, is it convenient?'

Jiang Hao was interrupted in his thoughts by Dr. Ren and stopped thinking about Xue Yuning for a while.

Lifting his head to look at the door, he saw Dr. Ren smiling sarcastically as he walked in.

'Yo, what kind of northwest wind is this, blowing our big doctor Ren over here?'

After saying this, Jiang Hao slumped back in his chair, squinted at Dr. Ren and spoke, 'What, come over here to order my little brother something?'

After hearing this, Dr. Ren hurriedly said, 'I don't dare, how dare I, I just want to apologize to you today, I was wrong about what happened last time.'

Jiang Hao was slightly stunned, this wallflower was doing a great job, his status was released as soon as he said it was, and he mentioned it as soon as he said it was.

If he didn't have the ability to see things through, he would probably have been kicked out by Dean Jiao long ago, but this kid was still unconscious.

Thinking of this Jiang Hao shook his head and laughed bitterly, 'Okay, okay, if you don't have anything to do, go play by yourself, I still have things to deal with on my side.'

He needed to look through the Shang Dian to see if there was a remedy or secret method to help people recover their memories.

Doctor Ren stood at the side and hesitated for a moment after hearing this, then continued to speak, 'It's like this, your matter, ah, I've heard Dean Jiao talk about it.'

Jiang Hao faintly stared, then raised his head to look at Dr. Ren and said, 'Dean Jiao told you? What did he say to you.'

'You've been worried about Miss Xue recently, haven't you? I have a secret recipe that might be useful!'

Jiang Hao glanced at Dr. Ren somewhat suspiciously, 'You have a secret recipe there to help Xue Yuning recover her memory?'

As he said this, Jiang Hao sounded rather incredulous!

Although he hadn't had the time to check Shangdian yet, he knew that such a method might be rare, and that it wouldn't be possible to just say that there was one.

But Dr. Ren looked at him with a look of disbelief, but it was as if he had suffered some humiliation.

He fished out a medical book from his body and said, 'If you don't believe me, read it yourself, I've spent a lot of effort to get it!'

Chapter 633

Looking at Dr. Ren's mysterious look, Jiang Hao helplessly rolled his eyes and then took the medical book in his hand.

After just a cursory glance at the title of the book, 'Golden Needle Transition', Jiang Hao then opened it and flipped through it.

'Doctor Ren this book can be ah. Where did you find it?'

Just after flipping through two pages, Jiang Hao noticed that this book was not simple, if the acupuncture he was used to was used to cure people.

The needles in this book were used to achieve some different effects, and the content in it looked amazing.

Looking at Jiang Hao's astonished look, Dr. Ren spoke with slight complacency, 'I'm not going to lie. This book is something I have spent a lot of effort to get, and there are records about this aspect of memory.'

As he said this. He then turned the book over two pages, then pointed to the top and spoke, 'There is a little bit about memory recorded here, saying that using golden needles can stimulate the patient to recall their past.'

Jiang Hao looked carefully at it after it was indeed written that way, but something had been erased here for some reason.

Looking at the stain, Jiang Hao spoke slightly strangely, 'Why does it look as if it has been wiped off on purpose, and nothing can be seen here?'

Dr. Ren looked and spoke with some embarrassment, 'I don't know about that, it's just that I heard from the dean that you've been worrying about this recently, so I came over in a hurry after I got this book.'

After saying this, Dr. Ren looked at Jiang Hao and spoke, 'This, Dr. Shen, ah. It was my fault in the past, so let's consider it a token of my appreciation today, shall we?'

Jiang Hao smiled and shook his head before saying, 'Fine, Dr. Ren, you should go and work on your own, I'll study this book.'

After hearing Jiang Hao's reply, Dr. Ren made sure that Jiang Hao was no longer angry about the last incident, so he hurriedly left the office.

Only after Dr. Ren had left did Jiang Hao concentrate on the book in front of him.

The reason why Jiang Hao had to drive Dr. Ren away before reading this book was because the needle techniques recorded on it were a bit shocking.

The acupuncture techniques recorded on it were even more dangerous than the ones he had used before, as they were life and death points, and the slightest mistake was a matter of life and death!

No wonder such a medical book was given to him. No wonder such a medical book was handed over to him. I think Dr. Ren didn't dare to use it even after reading it, so he used this book as a door knocker.

Jiang Hao laughed coldly at this thought and then closed his eyes and looked up the title of the book 'The Golden Needle' in an attempt to find the answer from Shangdian.

However, after searching for a long time, there was still no news about this medical book, and Jiang Hao looked at the secret method about memory on it and was very excited.

If he followed what was written down above, he could apply the needles from the Heavenly Spirit and use the Heavenly Spirit as the centre to stimulate the patient's head acupuncture points.

Maybe it would work wonders, and then Yu Ning's memory would be restored. Wouldn't it

Thinking of this, Jiang Hao gritted his teeth. Then he picked up the phone and called Dean Jiao: 'Dean, is it convenient to accompany me to the Xue family?'

Dean Jiao was currently in his office looking at the financial list of his second section, and rubbed his brow with some headache after receiving Jiang Hao's call.

'What, do you want to go there now. I advise you to rest for two days before you go over, after all, you seemed to have drunk a lot last night.'

After hearing these words, Jiang Hao hurriedly spoke back, 'It's alright, I feel energetic now. And I've found a way in my hand to try it out!'

Hearing this, Dean Jiang spoke slightly helplessly, 'Alright, wait for me a little, I'll come down after I sign your financial order.'

Hearing this, Jiang Hao hung up the phone and then stood at the door in a disciplined manner waiting for Dean Jiao to arrive.

After a few moments, Dean Jiao, who had changed into a suit and leather shoes, arrived.

Looking at Jiang Hao who was standing at the door, he said, 'You're the only one who is still so energetic, alas, I'm exhausted.'

Jiang Hao smiled at Dean Jiao. Seeing that the road was still the same as last time, it was still nurse Xiao Li who made the trip to send Jiang Hao and the others over.

After waiting to rush to the entrance of the Xue family. Xue Chongli was already waiting at the main gate early.

When he saw Jiang Hao arrive, he hurriedly came up and said, 'Has Dr. Shen found a way to restore Yu Ning's memory?'

Jiang Hao shook his head soberly before saying, 'I'm not necessarily sure I can recover this today. I can only say to give it a try and see if this method is feasible.'

After hearing this Xue Chongli frowned slightly. It wasn't like his family's young lady was being used as a test case for others.

However, such cases were already very rare, and it was impossible to find someone to try it out for a while.

Thinking of this, Xue Chongli could only nod helplessly and said, 'Then old Jiao, Dr. Shen, please come inside.'

President Jiao nodded with a smile and then followed behind Jiang Hao, whispering somewhat helplessly, 'Is this solution that you don't have any solution for working or not?'

Jiang Hao glanced sideways at Dean Jiao, 'To be honest, I don't have any confidence in my heart right now, in case it doesn't work, I'm worried that it might cause some serious consequences.'

As the head of the hospital, Dean Jiao's style of work had always been that he would rather get no credit than a fault!

Not to mention that this was in the Xue family, if something slightly went wrong, he and Jiang Hao both wouldn't be able to go out today.

Thinking of this, Dean Jiao slapped his face and whispered, 'You're f*cking crazy! You can even do such a thing!'

Jiang Hao nodded slightly after hearing this and said in a deep voice, 'It's because there's this chance that I'm going to give it a try, if it doesn't work this time, I don't know how many years I'll have to wait next time.'

As the two of them were talking, Xue Chongli, who was walking in front of them, suddenly stopped and then quietly looked at the courtyard in a daze.

Jiang Hao and Dean Jiao both whispered not knowing what they were saying and didn't notice, so they both bumped into Xue Chongli's back at the same time.

Jiang Hao looked at Xue Chongli who stood motionless in place and spoke with some dissatisfaction, 'What's wrong, suddenly standing motionless in place.'

As soon as the words left his mouth, he followed Xue Chongli's eyes and looked over.

He only saw that his old grandmother, who had previously been quite disgusted with Xue Yu Ning, was now looking at Xue Yu Ning with a smile on her face.

The two didn't know what they were whispering about, and every now and then a burst of laughter came from them.

'This, am I hallucinating, or did I not open it the right way when I came in?'

This scene in front of him made Jiang Hao even a little suspicious, whether this was the Xue family or not.

Yesterday this old grandmother had sent someone to try to exterminate this girl, how come today the two of them were sitting together laughing and joking?

Dean Jiao also frowned, looking at the bizarre picture in front of him shivering and not daring to speak, his heart crying out that your circle is really messy!
