

Super Rich Dad Chapter 691-693

Chapter 689

Lin Yan of course understands in her heart that the Xichunju project has now been halted and the date for its reopening is far away.

Although the project has been stopped, the daily labour maintenance costs have not been reduced in the slightest.

Without this injection of funds. The Lin Group would have been killed by this project!

Plus, at the end of the year when the bank liquidates the company's liabilities, if it exceeds a certain percentage, the bank side will restrict Lin's funds.

By then, the bank would have no funds and the board of directors' uncles and uncles would be a bunch of old fogeys. If the company's debt exceeds a certain percentage, the bank will restrict its funds.

The only way for Lin's to collapse was to take a deep breath when she thought of this. Then she looked at the other party and nodded and said, 'I know how to do it, but can I know who the person is that will help me?'

Old Black looked at Lin Yan with some doubt after hearing this, could it be that the other party had not told Lin Yan about this matter?

After a moment of silence, Old Black said, 'You know the person who helped you, since he is not willing to tell you, then I am not qualified to open this mouth, you should just pretend that I have not said anything.'

Lin Yan looked at Old Black's mysterious look and could not help but feel a pang of doubt in her heart, who was it that had helped her in secret?

Although there was still a trace of doubt in her heart, she listened to Old Black's words. The other party should be his friend and would not have any malice towards him.

So Lin Yan signed her name on the contract, then handed it to Old Black and said, 'Thank your lady for me, and also thank the person who helped me behind my back for me.'

Old Black got up and shook Lin Yan's hand and then said with a complicated expression, 'I originally wanted to say thank you for you, but seeing that you don't even know who he is, I think it's better not to say thank you.'

After saying this Old Black left without any explanation, not caring at all about the puzzled look on Lin Yan's face.

After he walked out of Lin's group, Old Black took out the phone and called Sally and said, 'Miss, the order has been done, shall I come back now?'

'No. You go directly to the bank now, then transfer one billion from our account to Lin's Group first, and then you slowly transfer the three billion over the next half month.'

After hearing this Old Black gave a bitter laugh man, then took a deep breath and said, 'Miss, there's something I don't know if I should say.'

Sally was taking care of things with her Bluetooth headset, and after hearing Old Black's words she simply replied back that she would speak if she had something to say.

After Old Black told Sally about Lin Yan's reaction to hearing that someone was helping her, Sally couldn't help but stop what she was doing and then ponder.

Only after a few moments did she say, 'Interesting. I'll add another task for you, help me get to know Shen Yan during this time. Keep a good eye on him.'

Old Black nodded after giving a bitter laugh and said, 'Don't worry Miss, I will do a good job.'

After saying this Old Black hung up the phone and then drove straight to the bank to prepare to start the first capital injection for Lin's.

On the other hand, Sally sat at her desk looking at her computer and fell into silence.

'Shen Yan. Who the hell are you that you don't take three billion dollars into account to help a little girl who doesn't even know you?'

Muttering these words, Sally looked at the picture of Shen Yan that she had secretly taken in her hand, and her eyes became a bit confused.

'Could it be that love at first sight really exists in this world.'

After slightly shaking her head. Sally couldn't help but give a secret laugh to herself, and then put away Jiang Hao's photo and continued to fall into her work.

Old Black moved very quickly, and in just two hours, the company's financial manager, Uncle Jin, came to Lin Yan's office with financial statements in an excited state.

After a brief conversation, Lin Yan told him that there would be another two billion in funds coming in one after another, and Uncle Jin was so excited that tears were about to flow out of his eyes.

At this critical moment, there was no need for anyone to say much about what the three billion dollars represented.

With this injection of funds into all departments, the entire Lin's was like a shot in the arm. It would be able to hold on for a while longer.

And just as everyone in the company was rejoicing over this matter, the arrival of Shen Qing Shu from the Shen family once again brought them back to reality.

They hadn't forgotten. There was still a cloud of gloom like Shen Qing Shu on the sky of the Lin Group at this time.

Leading people to Lin Yan's office, Shen Qingshu pushed the door in without ceremony. At the same time, he said, 'Yo, it looks like you guys still have plenty of energy now.'

Lin Yan was standing in front of the window looking out. When she heard the sound of the door being pushed behind her, she turned her head, only to see that it was Shen Qingshu who had brought someone to her office!

'Why are you here? Get out, you're not welcome in Lin's group!'

Looking at the angry look on Lin Yan's face, Shen Qing Shu smiled and shook his head before sitting on the sofa with his buttocks, then looking at Lin Yan with a pleasant expression.

'You should think about the possible consequences that your words may lead to, making me angry will cost you a lot.'

Looking at Shen Qing Shu's face as she said these words with a pleasant expression, Lin Yan was very embarrassed yet she did not dare to open her mouth to anger Shen Qing Shu anymore.

She admitted that there was a considerable gap between the Lin family and the Shen family, a gap that would allow Shen Qingshu to crush the Lin Group so much that it could not even breathe.

After a slight silence, Lin Yan looked at Shen Qing Shu and spoke, 'What do you want to do this time!'

After saying this, she walked to her desk and sat down, her face as cold as frost.

Shen Qing Shu looked at Lin Yan's expression and unconsciously swooned a little, 'You're so charming even when you're angry, it's a pity, why don't you want to marry me.'

When the person following Shen Qingshu heard this, a look of surprise flashed across his face before he slowly exited the office.

At this moment, only Shen Qing Shu and Lin Yan were left facing each other in all directions in the entire office, Lin Yan's gaze was cold, while Shen Qing Shu's gaze was so fiery.

'Lin Yan, I will give you one more chance, as long as you are willing to marry me, all the matters at hand will not be a problem the next day.'

After saying these words, Shen Qing Shu got up and walked to Lin Yan's desk, his hands propped up on the desk a pair of eyes viciously stared at Lin Yan.

'Don't think I don't know, the truth is you haven't slept with anyone at all, not to mention being pregnant!'

Lin Yan had a calm look on her face, but her eyes flashed with a hint of panic, although it was only for a moment, it was still caught by Shen Qing Shu.

He knew he had bet correctly that Lin Yan was still a virgin, and that all this pregnancy stuff was just an excuse to excuse himself!

Noticing this, Shen Qingshu suddenly felt a sense of relief in his heart, as long as Lin Yan was still a virgin, then he wouldn't mind.

'I won't marry you, no matter what you say I won't!'

Chapter 690

Shen Qing Shu looked at Lin Yan in surprise for a faint moment, and then the veins on his forehead burst out!

'Why! What exactly is it about me, Shen Qingshu, that I don't deserve you! How can you be so proud of yourself in front of me!'

Looking at Shen Qing Shu who looked a little crazy in front of her, a trace of mockery flashed in Lin Yan's eyes, the heir of the titled Shen family was just a capricious child.

'Do you think you can get what you want by being so pampered and scuffling like a little child? If that were the case. I'm afraid the world would all become for people like you.'

At first, Lin Yan still had a sense of fear within her heart towards Shen Qing Shu, but when she watched Shen Qing Shu yelling at herself like a little child.

For some reason, the fear in her heart gradually changed to a feeling of contempt and even ridicule.

'You can't destroy the Lin Clan, and you can't break the Lin Family. And I, Lin Yan, wouldn't marry you even if I were to marry a dog!'

Shen Qing Shu looked at Lin Yan's flat expression and reached out to slap her!

But when he looked at her beautiful face, he was worried that he would break it. So his hand stopped at the side of Lin Yan's face.

'Lin Yan, you are very good, it seems that no matter what I say you will not agree to this matter right?'

After saying this, Shen Qing Shu collected the anger in his heart, then looked at Lin Yan and nodded and spoke, 'Then let's talk about business matters.'

Despite the strong resentment in his heart, Shen Qing Shu suppressed it and looked at Lin Yan and said, 'Right now the Xichunju project has become a burden and a liability for you, should you consider passing it on to me?'

Looking at the smug look on Shen Qingshu's face, Lin Yan spoke with some disgust in her eyes, 'Right, I was just about to talk to you about this matter too. Give me all the shares of the Xichunju project in your hands, I'll buy it!'

'You'll buy it? Jokes, you can't even shell out a mere few million now, you buy it, what will you buy it with?'

As soon as the words left her mouth, Lin Yan flung out the statement that the finance manager, Uncle Jin, had just brought up, then looked at Shen Qing Shu and said, 'Do you want to take a good look at it?'

'Twenty minutes ago our company just got a one billion dollar sponsorship, within half a month we will have about six billion dollars injected, you say I don't have any money?'

When she said this Lin Yan played a careful trick, deliberately exaggerating the original capital injection of only three billion by double.

Only then would Shen Qingshu not suspect her bottom line. It was also easier to deceive Shen Qingshu!

As expected, Shen Qingshu, who heard this, picked up the financial table on the table and looked at it, after just two cursory glances.

After two cursory glances, Shen Qingshu's expression was extremely ugly and he said, 'Impossible! This is impossible! Who would help your Lin family, who would dare to make an enemy of our Shen family!'

The mocking look in Lin Yan's eyes intensified, 'You've almost had enough, if you continue like this you'll really make me look down on you, Shen Qing Shu.'

After saying this Lin Yan sighed lightly, 'You know, I had a good impression of you when we first met, a modest gentleman. Gentle and courteous.'

This was indeed what Lin Yan had in mind at first, and even if it wasn't for Jiang Hao's appearance. She might have married Shen Qing Shu as well.

'But the next thing you did was to let me see through your face, just a child who cries when he can't get candy, what qualifications do you have to stand in front of me?'

Hearing these words, Shen Qing Shu was completely speechless. His face was pale as he looked at Lin Yan!

It took a long time before he looked at Lin Yan with a resentful expression and said, 'Someone helped you once, I don't believe anyone can help you a second time, you will pay the price for your arrogance!'

As soon as the words left his mouth, Shen Qing Shu slammed the door and left.

Lin Yan, who was sitting in her office, looked at his back. An incomparable pleasure welled up in her heart!

Just as she was pleased with herself, a phone on her desk suddenly rang, Lin Yan picked up the phone and spoke, 'Hello, hello, this is Lin Yan.'

'Cough cough, niece, how has your Xichunju project project been rectified in the past two days?'

Lin Yan's eyes lit up when she heard this, 'It's in excellent condition, and we can start work at any time. It's up to you to inform us.'

Within a short period of time, the work on the Xichunju project had not only restarted. Moreover, the storm from that previous incident was also covered up straight away.

With the injection of funds, Lin Yan also began to have the strength to carry on with the project on her own.

And after the Lin family's previous partners saw Lin Yan's ability because of this incident. All of them were saying that Lin Yan was a real woman!

Only the Shen family watched coldly as Lin Yan rose to power without any action, and did not say anything about the Xichunju project.

Master Lin was sitting in his wheelchair looking at the back garden. Behind him, Lin Yan was quietly making tea.

'You have done well this time, very well, quite like your father's style back then.'

Saying this, Elder Lin shook his head with a little sigh, 'You've grown up after all, you really did live up to my expectations.'

Lin Yan looked down at the teacup in her hand and fell into silence for a while, only the genius knew how difficult it was for her this time.

But this time, passing the test also aggravated the doubts in Lin Yan's heart, who was secretly helping her?

At this moment, Jiang Hao, who was at the hospital, walked to the rooftop and took out a cigarette from his pocket when he was about to light it.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

'What, seeing that things are settled, so come up to the rooftop to blow off some steam and relax?'

Jiang Hao was a little surprised to hear this and turned to look at the visitor, but saw Sally standing behind himself in a white dress, white and red as if she were a world away!

'You, what brings you here?'

Sally lit a cigarette for Jiang Hao and then leaned over the railing of the rooftop and looked down and spoke, 'I delivered medicine to your hospital today, so I came to see you, don't forget, we're still partners now.'

Jiang Hao laughed bitterly twice at these words, 'The prescription has been given to you, what else does it have to do with me?'

Sally looked back at Jiang Hao with a playful smile, 'No, although the prescription has been given to me, but if anything goes wrong at a later stage you are responsible, don't think you can get away with this.'

She paused after saying this, then turned her head to look downstairs and said, 'Are you still satisfied with what I've done?'

Jiang Hao smiled lightly and shook his head, then took a deep puff of his cigarette before leaning against the railing and saying, 'Not bad, thanks to your help this time, thanks.'

Sally shrugged and said, 'You're not the one who should be saying thank you to me, but someone else, right? Besides, there's no reason for you to thank me.'

At this point, Sally looked at Jiang Hao with a somewhat complicated look in her eyes and said, 'This is a whole three billion dollars, and you're really just going to spill it like that?'
