Chapter 166 - 163 Cancellation Of Engagement Ceremony

Nora Smith got out of the taxi, a pretty face as cold as ice, stepped on the red carpet and went straight to the stage in the center of the banquet hall.

My feet are like being filled with lead, and every step is so heavy.

"Nora, why are you alone? Where's Asher? Isn't he with you?" Howard said, hurriedly stood up, walked to the front of Nora Smith, asked with concern.

Nora Smith paused and replied with a blank face, "He won't come."

"What?" Howard was surprised.

What does Nora Smith mean by this?

Why won't Asher Hawn come?

What happened to him?

Howard wanted to ask Nora Smith again what was going on, but Nora Smith passed him directly and walked forward with determined eyes.

All the people present, all felt Nora Smith's wrong, not from whispering, whispering:

"What happened?"

"Why is the bride alone? And Asher?"

"Tut tut, it's not Asher who broke his marriage temporarily, is it?"

11 11

In everyone's surprised eyes, Nora Smith stepped onto the steps and stepped onto the stage step by step.

The master of ceremonies was on the stage making preparations when he saw Nora Smith coming up and hurrying to meet him. "Nora, the engagement ceremony hasn't started yet. You can have a rest first."

Nora Smith ignored him completely and took the microphone directly from his hand.

Her eyes set, she cleared her throat, took a deep breath, and said firmly, "Tonight's engagement ceremony is cancelled."

When Nora Smith said this, it was like throwing a boulder in the calm lake and stirring up huge waves.

It was so sudden ...

There was no warning in advance.

All the guests present looked at Nora Smith on the stage in shock, looking at each other and talking in succession.

"Why did Nora Smith suddenly cancel the engagement ceremony? Is it such a joke?"

"Eighty percent was dumped?"

"Yes, the rich and powerful still have to make do with each other. How can Asher really want to be engaged to a country bumpkin like her?"

Nora Smith turned a deaf ear to the comments made by his subordinates.

Brittany Sherry couldn't hide the excitement on her face. She glanced at Lany beside her. "Nora Smith, is she crazy?"

Lany flattered. "Who knows? Maybe Asher discovered her true face and dumped her."

Brittany Sherry agreed happily. "Yes, it must be. Asher, he finally saw the true face of this shameless fox. Great!"

"Brittany, I told you, Huo and she are just playing. How can they really be engaged to her? Now you don't have to worry. Mrs. the Hawn family's position will definitely be yours." Lany kept kissing his ass.

Brittany Sherry nodded with satisfaction.

The reporters, with excitement, surrounded the past one after another.

The Hawn Goup's president was suddenly called off on the eve of the engagement ceremony, which is explosive news!

"Nora, why did you cancel the engagement ceremony?"

"Nora, you suddenly announced the cancellation of tonight's engagement ceremony, Asher. Does he know? Is this your decision or Asher's decision?"

"Nora, did you cancel the engagement because you had a problem with Asher?"

One question after another, constantly bombarding Nora Smith.

Nora Smith raised his lips faintly. "Sorry, I won't give an interview. Tonight's engagement ceremony has been cancelled. You can go now."

When Asher Hawn arrived at the entrance of the banquet hall of Emgrand Hotel, he saw this scene.

Nora Smith, the woman he loved deeply, wore a red dress he had chosen for her, which made her extraordinarily tall and charming.

So bright and moving, so let him move.

But when she opened her mouth, she was so ruthless. "Tonight's engagement ceremony has been cancelled."

The engagement ceremony was cancelled...

With a light remark, she cancelled their engagement ceremony without authorization.

Why?!

Asher Hawn didn't understand.

In order to give Nora Smith a grand engagement ceremony, he made people do everything in just eight days.

Everything, according to Nora Smith's preference, chooses the best.

He looked forward to tonight's engagement ceremony, and he looked forward to receiving everyone's blessings with Nora Smith.

He also prepared a gift made by himself for Nora Smith to surprise her in front of everyone and make her the happiest woman in the world.

In order to come to the engagement dinner, he left Mia, raced all the way, and even ran two red lights, just to see Nora Smith earlier.

But, why?

Nora Smith did not hesitate to cancel their engagement ceremony in front of everyone.

Why is she so rude and cancel the engagement ceremony?

I didn't even tell him in advance.

"Asher, Asher is here!"

Someone saw Asher Hawn standing at the entrance of the banquet hall, his face as cold as ice, and shouted in surprise.

Immediately, the reporters rushed around and pointed the microphone at Asher Hawn.

"Asher, did you know of Nora's sudden cancellation of the engagement ceremony?"

"Asher, would you please..."

Before the reporter finished speaking, Asher Hawn's eyes were crimson, his handsome face was as cold as a thousand miles of ice, and his cold mouth said, "Roll!"

Asher Hawn's aura is so powerful that the reporters shook their bodies and silenced one after another.

With a cold breath and a horribly gloomy face, Asher Hawn walked step by step towards Nora Smith.

A chill hit, Nora Smith twisted the eyebrows, and looked at Asher Hawn's cold eyes without fear.

Is he willing to come back from Mia?

He is so angry because she proposed to cancel the engagement before him?

Now, everyone knows that it was her Nora Smith who dumped Asher Hawn, and his face is dead, so that's why he is so angry?

Hehe.

Shouldn't Asher Hawn be happy?

She offered to break off the engagement, so that he could be justified with Mia.

What's more, by her point of view, Asher Hawn will not bear the stigma of fickleness.

What's he got to be angry about?

Looking at the frosty man, approaching her step by step, Nora Smith's lips slightly raised a satirical radian.

Before she could speak, a powerful force came from her wrist.

"You..." Before Nora Smith could react, Asher Hawn buckled her wrist and pulled her directly to the lounge behind the stage and pressed her against the wall.

"Asher Hawn, let me go!" Nora Smith was imprisoned by Asher Hawn, she struggled.

Asher Hawn did not move at all. He clasped Nora Smith's wrist with both hands and looked at her condescending. His sexy thin lips tightly pressed into a line, and his deep eyes churned with anger that Nora Smith couldn't understand.

After a long time, he rolled the Adam's apple, suppressed his anger, and asked in a dull voice, "Nora Smith, why?"

Chapter 167 - 164 Howard's Heart Attack

His hands were clasped tightly by Asher Hawn, and Nora Smith struggled hard, but he couldn't break free.

"Nora Smith, why on earth did you cancel the engagement ceremony?"
Seeing Nora Smith silent, Asher Hawn repeated.

Asher Hawn is like this, which makes Nora Smith feel moved for a moment.

She closed her beautiful eyes and saw Asher Hawn and Mia hugging each other again in the afternoon.

Heart, a sting.

Take a few deep breaths, and when you open your eyes again, Nora Smith's eyes are already MoMo. "Why? Shouldn't you be very clear?"

Asher Hawn was dazed. What did he know?

He doesn't know anything!

"Because... Mia?" Asher Hawn frowned. "Didn't I say I would explain to you about Mia?"

Explain?

Nora Smith smiled coldly.

The facts are already in front of us. What is there to explain?

Just then, Howard walked into the lounge with crutches and the help of Li Butler.

"Asher, Nora, what the hell are you doing?" Howard, angry and anxious, asked with a calm face and a somewhat anxious tone at the sight of Asher Hawn and Nora Smith.

Good. Why cancel the engagement ceremony?

And in front of all the guests, so suddenly?

Let everyone see jokes, I don't know what it is!

"Grandpa." Seeing Howard come in, Asher Hawn quickly let go of Nora Smith and went to hold Howard.

"Did you do something to upset Nora?" Howard's face was extremely ugly, and he knocked on his crutches in a serious and cold tone.

Before Asher Hawn could answer, Madge Hawn came up, cleared his throat and said, "Hey, Dad, what do you blame Asher for?"

After a pause, she gave Nora Smith a sharp stare. "Now it's obvious that Nora Smith is responsible for canceling the engagement ceremony!

Rural people are rural people, and they don't know any rules! Today is such an important day, you have to embarrass yourself. Why do you bring trouble to the Hawn family? "

Ashley Hawn also smeared Nora Smith with embellishment. "That's right, cousin, how could he do something to make Nora Smith unhappy? Today's good engagement ceremony, Nora Smith actually made such a big joke, which made our the Hawn family lose our faces!"

Listening to Madge Hawn and Ashley Hawn chattering each other, Howard suddenly felt his chest stuffy.

He covered his chest and looked at Nora Smith. "Nora, what's going on?"

"Howard, thank you for your concern all the time, but I'm sorry today, but I have to cancel my engagement with Asher Hawn." Nora Smith pursed his lips in a firm and determined tone.

"Nora, is it Asher he..." Howard opened his mouth and wanted to say something more. His chest cramped and his body shook.

Burst-

There was a loud noise and Howard fell to the ground.

"Grandpa, grandpa! What's the matter with you?" Asher Hawn stepped forward and tried to hold Howard, but he was one step late after all.

I saw Howard pale, sweating on his face and his eyes closed.

"Grandpa, what's wrong with you?" Asher Hawn was surprised, and hurriedly crouched down and shouted.

However, Howard did not respond at all.

"Call an ambulance!" Looking at Howard in a coma, Asher Hawn's heart throbbed and almost roared.

Many people gathered around and the lounge was a mess.

Clark immediately called 120, with a somewhat anxious tone. "Hello, Emgrand Hotel, an old man fainted, please come immediately!"

Nora Smith's heart was also tight, and she looked down at Howard lying on the ground.

His symptoms look like a heart attack.

Nora Smith was about to walk over to see Howard, but Madge Hawn and Ashley Hawn stopped him. "Nora Smith, haven't you done Grandpa enough? What else do you want!"

"Get out of the way!" Nora Smith spoke in a cold tone.

Howard is in a critical condition now. She must give him first aid before the doctor arrives.

Otherwise, the consequences are unimaginable.

Ashley Hawn snorted coldly, and didn't mean to get out of the way at all.

"Nora Smith, who do you think you are? Now that you and your cousin have broken off their engagement, you are nothing! You have no right to see Grandpa!"

"Get out of the way!" Nora Smith didn't have time to pester Ashley Hawn any longer, so he pushed Ashley Hawn to the ground directly.

"Hey!" Ashley Hawn screamed and fell to the ground, staring bitterly at Nora Smith. "Nora Smith, you hit me?"

Nora Smith didn't want to pay any attention to Ashley Hawn, but Ashley Hawn hugged her leg.

Madge Hawn and Ashley Hawn pulled and pulled, and like two shrews, they entangled Nora Smith.

Nora Smith was in a hurry, and with some strength, he finally got rid of Madge Hawn and Ashley Hawn, opened the crowd and walked to Howard.

She crouched down and stretched out her hand to feel Howard's pulse, but Asher Hawn's big hand pressed her down.

"What are you doing, Nora Smith?" Asher Hawn's knife-shaped eyebrows are locked and his eyes are cold.

Shu showed Asher Hawn a blank look, pushed him away, and directly gave Howard a cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

Asher Hawn was stunned by her skillful movements.

It suddenly occurred to me that, of course, Sarah fell into the water, and Nora Smith helped her do cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

When they were stranded on a desert island, he was attacked by a big fish, and his wound became inflamed and he had a high fever, which Nora Smith helped him cure.

So, Nora Smith is a doctor?

Nora Smith was absorbed in giving Howard cardiopulmonary resuscitation, completely ignoring the fingers of people around him.

There was some guilt in her heart at the moment. If she hadn't cancelled the engagement ceremony and stimulated Howard, maybe Howard wouldn't have fainted.

Ten minutes later, the ambulance arrived.

The doctor hurried into the lounge.

"Doctor, see how my grandfather is?" Asher Hawn, who has always been at the top of Mount Tai and does not bend over, has a somewhat nervous and anxious tone at the moment.

"The patient has a sudden heart attack and needs to be rescued immediately!"

The doctor gave Howard a simple examination, his face condensed, and he sank his voice, while putting on the emergency equipment he brought to Howard.

Asher Hawn followed the doctor in the direction of the ambulance at the door and paused as he passed Nora Smith.

"If something happens to Grandpa, I won't forgive you." Asher Hawn glanced at Nora Smith with his cold eyes and passed her.

Just like the coldness of the cold winter days in March 9, Nora Smith's heart couldn't help but tremble.

She didn't expect that things would develop like this.

However, isn't Asher Hawn himself the initiator of this matter?

If it weren't for Mia, why would she cancel the engagement ceremony?

Chapter 168 - 165 How's My Grandpa

This engagement ceremony, which should have been the most lively and grand engagement ceremony in the world, ended before it started.

Nora Smith's heart, as if hit by a hammer, suffered badly.

"Nora Smith, you bitch, are you satisfied that Grandpa's life and death are uncertain?" Ashley Hawn stepped on high heels and pointed at Nora Smith's nose.

"Nora Smith, if anything happens to the old man, we the Hawn family will not let you go!" Madge Hawn did not forget to throw stones at the well, raised his hand and slapped Nora Smith in the face.

Nora Smith's eyes cooled a little, grabbed Madge Hawn's hand and pushed her back. "I'm sorry that Howard had a heart attack, but dare you say that you are not responsible for Howard's illness? Who just said those words in front of him to stimulate him?"

"Still dare to argue strongly!" Ashley Hawn quickly held Madge Hawn.

"Menstruation, are you all right?"

The reporters gathered around again, and one question after another hit Nora Smith:

"Nora, what do you think of Howard's illness?"

"Nora, what are your plans in the future?"

"Nora, can you tell me why you and Asher broke off their engagement?"

Nora Smith frowned and pushed away the reporter impatiently. "Sorry, I don't accept interviews!"

Ashley Hawn's eyes flashed. Isn't this a good opportunity to discredit Nora Smith?

She waved like reporters. "You can come and interview menstruation and me."

Journalists were so eager that they surrounded them one after another.

Ashley Hawn cleared his throat and said, "As you can see, my grandfather had a heart attack today, which was completely stimulated by Nora Smith!

On behalf of the Hawn family, I am here to announce that we, the Hawn family, have nothing to do with Nora Smith, a snake-hearted woman! "

The reporters nodded.

At that time, Nora Smith was criticized by thousands of people. She didn't want to listen to it anymore. She smiled coldly. "Ashley Hawn, you are an adopted daughter who has nothing to do with the Hawn family. What qualifications do you have to be the spokesperson of the Hawn family?"

Nora Smith publicly debunked her adoption status, Ashley Hawn's face was green and white, and she turned her eyes to say something, but Nora Smith ignored her directly.

After that sentence, Nora Smith left directly.

Nana and Julian Spencer greeted him. "Nora Smith, are you all right?"

"Don't follow me, let me be alone." Nora Smith looked up at them and said.

She knew that Nana and Julian Spencer cared about her.

But at this moment, she just wants to be alone.

Nana and Julian Spencer looked at each other and wanted to say something else. Nora Smith sank his face. "Don't worry, I'm fine. I just want to be quiet."

"But, Nora Smith..."

What else did Julian Spencer want to say? Yu Nora stopped him. "Forget it, let Nora Smith calm down alone."

Too many things have happened tonight, and no one can stand it.

But Nana believes in Nora Smith, and she can handle everything.

In Julian Spencer's nervous and worried eyes, Nora Smith walked out of the hotel door.

Walking alone in the street, the neon lights on the roadside are changing colors and shining on Nora Smith.

Nora Smith's thoughts were a little confused.

She doesn't know if she did something wrong tonight. If she hadn't announced the cancellation of the engagement ceremony in public, maybe Howard wouldn't have had a heart attack and is now lying in hospital for emergency treatment.

However, even if she doesn't announce the cancellation of the engagement, Asher Hawn will still make the same decision.

Because his Mia is back.

Isn't the result the same?

Asher Hawn's MoMo's words sounded in his ears. "If something happens to Grandpa, I won't forgive you." Nora Smith's heart hurt badly.

Asher Hawn hates her, right?

He thinks she did this to Howard.

Unconsciously, the rain fell.

The heavy rain hit Nora Smith and wet her clothes.

The cool night breeze blew gently, and Nora Smith couldn't help shivering.

Suddenly, an umbrella hit Nora Smith's head, covering the wind and rain.

Nora Smith raised her eyes in surprise. A tall and straight figure stood in front of her. It was Julian Spencer.

"Nora Smith, I don't trust you."

Julian Spencer already knows from Nana why Nora Smith canceled the engagement ceremony with Asher Hawn.

There was some joy in his heart. Mia, whom Asher Hawn had always loved, was back. Nora Smith's proud character made it impossible for her and Asher Hawn to be together again.

In other words, he has another chance to pursue Nora Smith.

However, at this moment, Julian Spencer saw Nora Smith soaked and embarrassed, and he felt very uncomfortable and distressed.

If he could, he didn't want Nora Smith to get hurt a little.

Hospital.

"Dr. Ni, how is my grandfather?" Asher Hawn's handsome face is full of worry and tension.

Dr. Ni is the best cardiologist in A City. He gave Howard a detailed examination and said with a heavy face, "Howard had heart disease, but he has been taking medicine to control it. I was greatly stimulated tonight, which led to a sudden heart disease and needed immediate surgery."

Asher Hawn frowned and nodded, condescending to see Dr. Ni, with a cold tone. "Make sure my grandfather is fine!"

The powerful aura came to me, and Dr. Ni trembled and said, "I will try my best!"

The doctor pushed Howard into the operating room, and Asher Hawn stood outside the operating room and lit a cigarette.

Fingertip fireworks were clearly extinguished, and Asher Hawn's face was horribly gloomy.

Nora Smith's rude public announcement of the cancellation of the engagement ceremony and Howard's fainting from a heart attack alternately flashed through Asher Hawn's mind.

He has been looking forward to so many days, which should have been his happiest moment. Why is it like this now?

"President, Howard will be fine." Clark looked at his president's adult as black as the handsome face of the media, and opened his mouth to comfort him.

Asher Hawn turned a deaf ear, and his deep and cold eyes stared at the door of the operating room tightly.

Madge Hawn came with Ashley Hawn. "Asher, how is your grandfather?"

Asher Hawn spoke faintly. "In first aid."

"Cousin, you can rest assured that Grandpa is lucky and will be fine." Ashley Hawn took Asher Hawn by the arm and spoke softly to comfort him.

Asher Hawn glanced coldly at him and pulled out his arm.

Ashley Hawn's eyes were dark, and he did not forget to discredit Nora Smith in front of Asher Hawn. "Cousin, grandpa did this because of Nora Smith!"

"Shut up!" Asher Hawn eyes color a cold, impatient opening.

Ashley Hawn trembled all over. He was about to say something when he was wronged. He was pulled by Madge Hawn. "Qianqian, Asher is in a bad mood now. Please let him be quiet."

Ashley Hawn silenced.

I don't know how long it took, and the door of the operating room finally opened.

Asher Hawn took a long leg and walked quickly.. "Dr. Ni, how is my grandfather?"

Chapter 169 - 166 The Situation Is Not Optimistic

"The operation was very successful." Dr. Ni pushed the gold rimmed glasses, hesitated for a moment, and then said.

Asher Hawn smell speech slightly relieved, but listen to Ni doctor carefully said, "But..."

"But what?" Asher Hawn's heart a tight, asked.

"However, the situation in Howard is still not optimistic." Dr. Ni considered his mouth. "I am not sure if I can wake up."

Asher Hawn's face sank and his voice was hoarse. "No way! Grandpa must be fine!"

Soon, the nurse pushed the mobile hospital bed out.

"Grandpa." Asher Hawn stood in front of the hospital bed and looked down at Howard, who was unconscious in the hospital bed. His heart ached.

Ashley Hawn stepped forward. "Cousin, don't worry too much. Grandpa is lucky and will be fine."

Asher Hawn nodded faintly.

The next day, the weather was overcast.

Nora Smith opened his eyes in a daze.

What enters the eye is a white glass lamp.

Where is she?

Rubbed his temples, and the memory of yesterday gradually gathered back.

Yesterday was supposed to be her engagement to Asher Hawn, but-

Asher Hawn was behind her back with Mia.

She canceled the engagement ceremony, and Howard fainted.

Yesterday's scenes kept coming to Nora Smith's mind.

Nora Smith's heart, a burst of pain.

She was about to get up when the door of the room opened and Julian Spencer stepped in.

"Nora Smith, are you awake?" Julian Spencer went to the bed and asked with concern.

"You?" Nora Smith looked around. "Is this your home?"

"Hmm." Julian Spencer spoke softly. "I made breakfast. What do you want?"

Nora Smith shook his head. "I have no appetite."

Looking at Nora Smith with a haggard face, Julian Spencer's eyes are full of distress. "How can I not eat? I'll bring you a glass of milk. You drink some first."

"Julian Spencer." Nora Smith stopped him. "Howard, how is he now?"

"I heard that I had an operation and I haven't woken up yet." Julian Spencer began with a sigh.

Nora Smith's face tightened. "I want to see Howard."

"Then you have breakfast first, and I will send you there." Julian Spencer patted Nora Smith on the shoulder and paused. "You and Asher Hawn..."

If Nora Smith wants to visit Howard in the hospital, he will meet Asher Hawn.

Julian Spencer was afraid of Nora Smith's injury.

"Julian Spencer, I don't want to mention it now." Nora Smith took a deep breath and said with a light look.

At the mention of Asher Hawn, her heart hurts so much.

Nora Smith doesn't want to think about the things that make her sad now. She just wants to make sure Howard is safe.

She barely ate a few mouthfuls of breakfast and couldn't wait to urge Julian Spencer to take her to the hospital.

Sitting in the car, Nora Smith habitually turned on his mobile phone to brush news.

The news about the cancellation of her engagement ceremony with Asher Hawn spread all over the Internet.

"President The Hawn Goup and Nora Smith cancel their engagement, and Howard has a heart attack and is dying!"

"The Hawn Goup President Asher Hawn is dating a mysterious woman, and Nora Smith is dumped, but he has no choice but to cancel the engagement!"

There are photos of Asher Hawn and Mia on the Internet!

Nora Smith's heart jerked.

These paparazzi are so pervasive that even Mia has been photographed.

Looking at the photo, Asher Hawn holds Mia and Mia snuggles in his arms. The two people look close, and the dense pain in Nora Smith's heart spreads.

After a few deep breaths, Nora Smith calmed down a little.

Public opinion has fermented badly, and all kinds of ridicule and abuse against Nora Smith on the Internet are as ugly as they can be.

"Nora Smith is a scheming bitch. He was dumped by Huo Nanshen and pretended to cancel the wedding, which made Howard seriously ill and uncertain. It's shameless!"

"A bumpkin is a bumpkin. How to match the Huo male god, it serves you right to be dumped!"

"Does anyone know who Huo Nan's new love is?"

Seeing that Nora Smith's face was ugly, Julian Spencer looked sideways at her. "Nora Smith, are you all right?"

"I'm fine." Nora Smith recovered and locked the screen of his mobile phone.

Growing up, Nora Smith has never been so badly hacked.

Although Nora Smith repeatedly warned herself not to think about this, when she faced thousands of people's accusations, her heart still couldn't be completely without waves.

"Nora Smith, here we are." Julian Spencer's words brought back Nora Smith's thoughts.

Nora Smith opened the car door and got out of the car. "Julian Spencer, you wait for me here."

"I will accompany you forward." Julian Spencer spoke uneasily.

Nora Smith said faintly, "No, just wait for me here."

Now that she is at the tip of the wind, she doesn't want to be photographed with Julian Spencer at this juncture.

After all, Julian Spencer is so popular that many paparazzi try their best to photograph his news.

See Nora Smith insisted, Julian Spencer's eyes dimmed. "Then be careful, call me if you have something."

"Hmm." Nora Smith nodded faintly.

As soon as she entered the hospital gate, two little nurses pointed at her as if she had discovered a new world:

"Look, isn't this who?"

"Yes, yes, Nora Smith! The one who was dumped by Asher. What is she doing in the hospital?"

"You're not here to see Howard, are you?"

"Gee, she still has the face to come? I think 80% is unwilling to want to pester Asher..."

"It's so shameless!"

Two little nurses echo each other, staring at Nora Smith with disdain.

Nora Smith walked straight past them and reached the inpatient department.

"Which ward is Mr. Huo Lao in?" Nora Smith came to the reception desk and asked.

The nurse at the reception desk looked up at Nora Smith and pointed forward with her hand. "VIP ward on the eighth floor."

"Thank you."

Nora Smith sat in the elevator and went straight to the eighth floor. He looked inside and saw that the innermost ward was heavily guarded and there were two bodyguards standing at the door.

Howard should be in that ward.

Nora Smith walked forward, and every step forward made his heart heavy.

Asher Hawn should be in the ward at the moment, right?

Does he still think that she did Howard harm?

Nora Smith rubbed his eyebrows to calm himself down.

Now is not the time to think about this. The top priority is Howard's illness.

Nora Smith was thinking, when a sharp, abrupt woman's voice came from behind her. "Nora Smith, what are you doing here?!"

Nora Smith looked back and saw Ashley Hawn and Madge Hawn coming towards her angrily.

It's them again...

Nora Smith twisted his eyebrows, ignoring the two unknown women, and walked on, only to be caught by Ashley Hawn's arm.

"Nora Smith, isn't it enough that you left Grandpa unconscious in a hospital bed? Do you have the face to come now?" Ashley Hawn stared at Nora Smith maliciously and scolded him.

Chapter 170 - 167 See Also Mia

Nora Smith pulled out his arm and gave Ashley Hawn a cold look. "Ashley Hawn, put away your bitch! I didn't come here to quarrel with you today, I just want to see Howard."

"Aunt, look at Nora Smith, she scolds me!" Ashley Hawn looked aggrieved and took Madge Hawn's hand.

Madge Hawn puckered his eyebrows and raised his voice. "Nora Smith, I tell you, we the Hawn family have nothing to do with you. Don't think about pestering Asher again! You are not welcome here, you should go quickly!"

"Please get out of the way, both of you!" Nora Smith just wanted to see Howard as soon as possible, and didn't want to talk to them any more. She pushed Madge Hawn away and walked straight forward.

Seeing that Nora Smith was about to walk to the door of the ward, Madge Hawn rushed over and snapped at the bodyguard, "What are you doing? Don't drive her away? She is not allowed to come back in the future!"

The two bodyguards looked at each other, hesitated, and then said to Nora Smith, "Nora, please go back."

Nora Smith gave them a cold look. "Please get out of the way."

"Nora Smith, you shameless, don't get out quickly! Do you want to harm grandpa again?!" Ashley Hawn roared angrily when he saw Nora Smith standing motionless.

Yesterday, Nora Smith said in front of reporters that she was adopted, and it was blown out today.

The image of the rich lady she has been running in the school has been greatly affected, and many people have secretly talked about her as a fake daughter, and even several of her fanatical suitors have been cold to her.

Nora Smith gave Ashley Hawn a sarcastic look and was about to speak when the ward door opened and Asher Hawn's familiar figure appeared in front of Nora Smith.

"What are you doing?" Asher Hawn frowned, and his voice opened cold.

Seeing Asher Hawn, Ashley Hawn complained first, pointing to Nora Smith, and said angrily, "Cousin, Nora Smith, a vicious woman, suffered a heart attack yesterday and her life and death are uncertain. Now she comes to stimulate Grandpa again. She is simply a snake and scorpion!"

Asher Hawn's thin and cool eyes swept Nora Smith's face.

He stayed in front of Howard's hospital bed and didn't sleep a wink all night.

Hearing a faint sound of quarrel outside, Asher Hawn opened the door to see what had happened. Unexpectedly, it was Nora Smith's handsome figure that caught her eye.

Eyes flash a touch of complex look, Asher Hawn's heart, some stuffy.

Asher Hawn's face cooled at the thought that Grandpa had become what he was now because of Nora Smith, lying in a hospital bed uncertain about his life and death.

"It's you." Asher Hawn's tone is light and he can't hear any waves.

Nora Smith nodded and looked at Asher Hawn's cool eyes.

After a night's absence, he was haggard, and his handsome face was full of fatigue, which made people feel distressed.

I thought I could face Asher Hawn calmly, but at this moment, her heart beat badly.

"Asher Hawn, let me see Howard." Nora Smith took a deep breath and tried to make his voice sound calm.

Asher Hawn frowned and was about to open his mouth when he saw the figure of a man hurrying towards Nora Smith.

It's Julian Spencer.

"Nora Smith, are you all right?" Julian Spencer waited at the hospital gate for a long time without seeing Nora Smith come down. She was worried about her and came to find her.

Nora Smith stared blankly for a moment, looked back at Julian Spencer and smiled. "Nothing."

"Oh, Nora Smith, I really underestimate you." Madge Hawn's lips raised a sarcastic smile. "This side has just been dumped by Asher, and that side has hooked up with Julian Spencer?"

"Mrs. Huo, please don't talk nonsense!" Julian Spencer's face sank.

Madge Hawn sneered. "You defend this little bitch Nora Smith, and you dare to say that you two are nothing?"

Nora Smith has a big head. She just wants to see Howard. She wants to see his illness and see if she can help. Why is it so difficult?

She looked at Asher Hawn again and said, "Asher Hawn, let me go in and see Howard."

At the moment of seeing Julian Spencer, Asher Hawn's pale face became colder in an instant.

Although Nora Smith has repeatedly explained to him before, she and Julian Spencer are just ordinary friends, and they are nothing.

But now, Julian Spencer cares about her appearance and doesn't look like an ordinary friend at all.

And Nora Smith, who broke off his engagement with him last night, turned around and was with Julian Spencer, which was really ironic.

Is it true that she broke off her engagement with Julian Spencer for his sake?

In just a few seconds, Asher Hawn's heart has turned a thousand times.

"Nora Smith, go home. I don't think Grandpa wants to see you." Asher Hawn's eyes are as cold as ice.

After saying this, he turned directly back to the ward.

With a bang, the ward door closed.

Nora Smith shook all over with the shock.

Why ...

She just wanted to see Howard, and Asher Hawn hated her so much that she wouldn't even agree to this little request?

Heart, a little bit to sink.

Pain, gradually spread to the whole body.

"Nora Smith, let's go." See Nora Smith stupefied standing in place, looking at the ward gate, Julian Spencer went to Nora Smith's side, softly said.

Nora Smith recovered and nodded gloomily.

"Listen up, you two. Nora Smith is not allowed to come back in the future!" Madge Hawn looked proud and did not forget to tell the bodyguard.

"Yes, madam!" Two bodyguards said respectfully.

Walking out of the hospital gate, Nora Smith received a phone call from Charlie.

"Nora, it's me." Charlie's voice rang on the other end of the phone.

Hearing Grandpa's kind voice, Nora Smith's nose was sour and he said, "Grandpa."

"I have seen all the reports on the Internet. What are you doing with Asher?" Charlie's voice was somewhat puzzled.

After rescuing Nora Smith and Asher Hawn from the island, Charlie traveled around the world.

Originally happy, I suddenly saw the news about Nora Smith and Asher Hawn canceling the engagement ceremony and Howard having a heart attack.

"Grandpa, I..." Nora Smith took a deep breath, not wanting to worry her grandfather. "Nothing, I'll take care of these things myself."

"Can you really handle it?" Charlie raised his lips.

"Well, Grandpa, you play yours, don't worry about me." Nora Smith pretended to be calm.

Charlie knew his baby granddaughter's personality. He nodded. "OK, remember to call me as soon as you have something."

Hanging up the phone, Nora Smith opened the car door and was about to get on the bus when he suddenly saw a woman in the distance walking towards the hospital with a thermos flask.

That woman... looks familiar.

When the woman approached, Nora Smith narrowed her beautiful eyes and finally saw clearly.

It turned out to be.... Mia???

Chapter 171 - 168 What She Wants Is A Soul Mate

Nora Smith's heart, can't help but cough stare blankly for a moment.

Yesterday, when I saw Asher Hawn holding Mia tightly in Mingyangshan farmhouse, I was caught off guard and jumped out of Nora Smith's mind.

Mia is here at the moment only because of Asher Hawn.

Asher Hawn wouldn't let her in to see Howard because he had an appointment with Mia?

"Nora Smith, you know her?" Julian Spencer asked curiously as he saw Nora Smith looking cold and staring at the girl.

Nora Smith's mouth raised a radian, and her eyes narrowed slightly. "She is Mia."

"Is she Mia?" Julian Spencer looked curiously along Nora Smith's eyes, only to see Tang Ruoying's back disappear at the hospital gate.

Nora Smith looked back at the light, pressed down all kinds of emotions in his heart, and said faintly, "Let's go."

Tang Ruoying, carrying a thermos cup, inquired all the way to the eighth floor of the inpatient department.

"Excuse me, does Mr. Huo Lao live in this ward?" Tang Ruoying saw that there were bodyguards in the innermost ward, so she went over and asked.

The bodyguard in black waved his hand impatiently. "This lady, please leave."

Ever since Howard fell ill, there have been ungrateful reporters in disguise who want to come over and shoot some exclusive news.

When the bodyguard saw Tang Ruoying, he also regarded her as a reporter in disguise.

Tang Ruoying sipped his lips and smiled. "Two bodyguard brothers, I am a friend of Asher. I have something very important to see him. My name is Mia. Can you help me tell him?"

Mia?

Asher Hawn's bodyguard naturally knows that there has always been a Bai Yueguang in his president's heart, which is called Mia.

And today's gossip entertainment news, also said that the president's adult has found Mia, yesterday is with Mia.

There are even photos.

Although the woman in the photo is blurred, the bodyguard took a closer look at Tang Ruoying, which is really similar.

The bodyguard did not dare to neglect. "Please wait a moment."

"Asher, there is a girl at the door who calls herself Mia. She says she has something important for you." The bodyguard pushed through the door and respectfully told Asher Hawn.

"Mia?" Unexpectedly, Asher Hawn stood up and stepped to the door.

"Asher." Looking at the tall and handsome man in front of him, Tang Ruoying bent her lips and showed a sweet smile.

Asher Hawn looked down at her. "Did you come to the hospital for examination? I'll find someone to accompany you."

Yesterday, he accidentally bumped into Mia. Although it was no big deal to take her to the hospital for examination, Mia suddenly said that his chest hurt when he came home. At that time, he was in a hurry to the Emgrand Hotel, and he didn't have time to take care of Mia.

"No." Tang Ruoying shook his head. "I'm fine."

After a pause, she said softly, "Asher, I was worried that you left in such a hurry yesterday. I didn't know until I read the news today that it turned out that last night was your engagement ceremony."

When talking about the words "engagement ceremony", Tang Ruoying's eyes darkened. "Sorry, it's all my fault."

Asher Hawn was a little surprised. "Why do you say that?"

"I didn't know that Nora yesterday was your fiancee." Tang Ruoying bit her lip and looked weak and remorse. "Is it because of me that Nora misunderstood that she would cancel the engagement ceremony? And your grandfather will faint and be seriously ill?"

"It has nothing to do with you." Asher Hawn's face was cold and his thin lips were slightly lifted.

Tang Ruoying lowered his eyes. "If necessary, I can explain to Nora, Asher. I am willing to do anything for you."

Asher, I would do anything for you ...

This sentence, in the little black room, Mia said the same to him.

Asher Hawn's eyebrows beat. "Thank you, Mia."

Tang Ruoying handed Asher Hawn the thermos flask in his hand. "Asher, I know that you must be worried about Mr. Huo's illness, but you should take good care of yourself. This is the chicken soup I specially gave you. Try it."

Facing Mia's concern, Asher Hawn warmed his heart and reached for the thermos.

Tang Ruoying had a shallow smile in her lips, and suddenly remembered something. She took out 500 yuan from her pocket. "Asher, this is my salary for singing last night. I'll give it back to you first. The rest of the money, I will pay it back slowly..."

Asher Hawn pushed away the money handed to him by Tang Ruoying and opened his mouth in a heavy voice. "No need. Mia, you and I are friends of life and death, so you don't have to be so outsiders."

Life and death ...

Is this Asher Hawn's description of their relationship?

Tang Ruoying's eyes flashed a dark awn.

What she wants is not the friendship between life and death, what she wants is the soul mate, what she wants is the heart of Asher Hawn, the most dazzling man in the world!

However, don't worry, take your time step by step.

Now, it is a good start.

"Asher, take it." Tang Ruoying stuffed the money into Asher Hawn's hand. "I have to go to the bar to sing, don't bother you, you must take good care."

Say that finish, Mia turned and left.

Looking at the 500 yuan with Tang Ruoying's remaining temperature in his hand, Asher Hawn frowned and called Clark. "Help me transfer Tang Ruoying's grandmother to the best hospital and find the best doctor for treatment."

"Yes, Asher." Clark said yes on the other end of the phone.

Hang up the phone and Asher Hawn went back to the ward.

In the hospital bed, Howard is still unconscious.

Asher Hawn gently tucked Howard in and looked down at Howard, who was covered in tubes and pale, with a cramp in his heart.

He took Howard's hand as if he wanted to pass on all his strength to him.

"Grandpa, you will be fine."

"Asher." Dr. Ni didn't know when he came in and stood behind Asher Hawn.

Asher Hawn raised his eyes and asked in a cold voice, "When will my grandfather wake up?"

Dr. Ni's face, look a fiercely, "Asher, I was about to tell you about Howard's illness."

"Dr. Ni, tell me the truth, what is my grandfather's condition?" Asher Hawn's handsome face condensed and couldn't wait to ask.

"To tell the truth, I am not sure about Howard's illness." Dr. Ni spoke carefully. "However, in this world, there is one person who should be able to cure Howard."

"Who is it?" Asher Hawn asked with a hook.

As long as he can cure Grandpa, no matter who he is, he will definitely find him.

Dr. Ni cleared his throat and said, "Today, I searched all the information about Howard's condition and finally let me contact my tutor abroad. He said that Howard's condition can only be cured by Master Qi."

"Master Qi, the magic doctor?" Asher Hawn stunned, he had never heard of this man.

Chapter 172 - 169 Nora Smith Moves Away

"Who is he?" Asher Hawn eyes color a coagulation, asked.

Dr. Ni glanced at Howard's ECG monitor and then said, "Master Qi used to be a famous master of Chinese medicine both at home and abroad. His medical skills were very good and he cured many terminally ill patients. But twenty years ago, something happened and he suddenly disappeared."

"Disappeared?" Asher Hawn looked fiercely, and his tone was somewhat urgent. "Where can I find him now?"

Dr. Ni looked regretful and shook his head. "I don't know. Or should I say so, no one knows."

Asher Hawn's heart, which had seen a glimmer of hope, sank again.

His thin lips were tightly pressed into a line. After a moment's silence, he asked, "What happened twenty years ago?"

Dr. Ni sighed lightly. "I don't know what the specific things are. I just heard from my tutor that what happened twenty years ago hit him hard.

Since that incident, Master Qi has disappeared, during which many people went to look for him, but failed.

Now that so many years have passed, no one knows where he went, or even whether he is still alive or not. "

After listening to Dr. Ni's words, Asher Hawn's face was cold and his knife-shaped eyebrows were locked.

Looking down at Howard, who was unconscious in the hospital bed, Asher Hawn's finger joints tightened.

Even if Master Qi is at the ends of the earth, he must find him as soon as possible!

Grandpa can't afford to wait. He can't watch Grandpa unconscious.

This feeling of powerlessness is really too uncomfortable.

Asher Hawn was about to call Clark and ask him to send someone to find Master Qi when the ward door opened.

Butler Li came in and asked with concern, "Young master, how is Howard?"

Asher Hawn eyes dimmed dark, tone light answer, "Still the same, still unconscious."

See Asher Hawn look haggard, Li housekeeper some distressed, walked over and opened his mouth to comfort, "Young master, you don't have to worry too much. Howard is a lucky man and will wake up."

"Hmm." Asher Hawn gave a faint answer.

Li Butler said again, "Young master, you have been with Howard for a day and a night, and even the iron body can't stand it. Go back and have a rest, I take care of Howard here."

Asher Hawn shook his head. "I want to be with Grandpa."

Li Butler patted him on the shoulder. "Young master, I understand your current mood, but what if you are tired and sick? I think your grandfather certainly doesn't want you to care for your body now. Listen to Lean's words, hurry back to have a rest, and I will call you immediately if something happens."

Asher Hawn thought for a moment. "Then trouble Lean."

Li Guanjia has been with Howard for decades, and his feelings with Howard are very good. He has been by his side with all his heart for decades, so Lean is very relieved to have Howard here to take care of Asher Hawn.

Asher Hawn told the bodyguard at the door a few words before turning and leaving downstairs.

Sitting in Julian Spencer's car, Nora Smith looked out of the window and was in a mess.

She took a deep breath and looked back at the light. She looked down and saw the ring on her hand.

It was given to her when Asher Hawn proposed to her.

Past events, suddenly overwhelming attack.

Asher Hawn blocked the knife for her, he abandoned his life and death to save her, and he romantically proposed to her...

Since he doesn't love her, why do he do so many things for her?

Is it really just because she looks like Mia?

Rubbing his eyebrows, Nora Smith drove away the swirling thoughts in his heart.

At the moment, the most important thing is Howard's illness.

Since Asher Hawn won't let her see Howard, she can only think of other ways.

Silently taking off the ring, Nora Smith looked sideways at Julian Spencer, sipped his lips and said, "Julian Spencer, can you do me a favor?"

"Of course." Julian Spencer didn't even ask Nora Smith what he wanted him to do, so he agreed.

Nora Smith spoke in a low voice. "Help me find a house and just buy it. I want to move in as soon as possible."

Now that she has broken off her engagement with Asher Hawn, she has no reason to live in Water Moon Island.

Julian Spencer smiled. "Don't bother. I have an apartment in Chengdong Garden. If you don't dislike it, you can move there at any time."

"Thank you, then." Nora Smith's beautiful eyes narrowed slightly and leaned back against the seat.

Julian Spencer hesitated for a moment, then began. "I thought you were going to leave A City and relax."

Nora Smith, whom he knows, will only leave smartly after being betrayed by her fiance.

But now, Nora Smith will stay in A City.

Is she still obsessed with Asher Hawn?

Nora Smith breathed for a moment and said, "After all, Howard is still lying in the hospital. I am also responsible for him being like this. I can't just walk away as if nothing had happened."

Julian Spencer eyes light slightly invisible flash a dim, light nodded, "You can rest assured that Howard will be fine."

Is Nora Smith determined to stay only because of Howard?

They were silent all the way, and Julian Spencer drove Nora Smith to Water Moon Island.

"Nora Smith, is this it?" Julian Spencer stopped the car and asked sideways.

Nora Smith recovered. "Yes, Julian Spencer, wait for me."

Nora Smith opened the door and the house was quiet.

At this time, Asher Hawn should still be in the hospital.

Walking to the room where she lived on the second floor, Nora Smith was a little distracted.

Although she didn't come back to live here only last night, she had a feeling of being separated from each other.

She has lived here for more than a month, leaving many unforgettable memories.

Now, she is leaving.

Nora Smith thought he would leave calmly and smartly, but now, his heart is bored.

The bits and pieces of getting along with Asher Hawn here come out of her mind uncontrollably.

Scenes, so clear, as if just yesterday.

Asher Hawn was the first man to make Nora Smith feel excited.

For him, Nora Smith really paid his heart, and really wanted to hold his hand and grow old with him and spend his whole life together.

Unfortunately, she was so stupid that she really paid by mistake.

Asher Hawn already has Mia, and now, is probably making out with Mia.

Why does she have to touch the scene here?

Taking back her thoughts, Nora Smith quickly packed her things and put them in her suitcase.

Nora Smith trotted downstairs with his suitcase in his hand, and when he was about to go out in the living room, suddenly there came the sound of the key opening the door.

Nora Smith paused subconsciously.

Her heart, jerked.

It's not Asher Hawn coming back, is it?

Chapter 173 - 170 Everything Is For Julian Spencer?

Nora Smith stared at the same place, and suddenly he didn't know how to face it.

When the door opened, it was Wilma who appeared in Nora Smith's sight.

"Nora?" Wilma got a fright when he didn't expect anyone at home at this time.

Nora Smith was slightly lost and breathed a sigh of relief. "Wilma, it's you."

How could she forget that Wilma would come to clean every afternoon?

"Nora, are you?" Looking at the suitcase in Nora Smith's hand, Wilma asked in amazement.

Nora Smith said faintly, "I'm leaving. Please tell Asher Hawn."

Wilma also heard a little about Nora Smith and Asher Hawn.

However, she always felt that her young master was not the kind of person who changed his mind.

At ordinary times, Wilma also sees Asher Hawn's tenderness towards Nora Smith.

After all these years of hourly work in Asher Hawn's house, she had never seen Asher Hawn care so much about anyone.

Nora Smith was the first.

However, I didn't expect Nora Smith to move away so soon.

Wilma was dazed and opened his mouth to retain. "Nora, won't you wait for Asher to come back? What's the matter? Why should you two have a good talk and move away?"

Nora Smith shook his head and was about to say something when Julian Spencer appeared at the gate.

"Nora Smith, are you ready?" Julian Spencer asked, stepping towards Nora Smith and looking at it.

"Hmm." Nora Smith nodded faintly.

Julian Spencer took the suitcase from Nora Smith's hand, and his eyes flashed softly. "Everything is packed, right? Nothing left behind?"

"No." Nora Smith's voice didn't recognize any emotion.

Julian Spencer raised his lips and smiled tenderly. "Let's go then."

Wilma looked at the scene in amazement.

What is the relationship between Nora and this man?

In Wilma's surprised eyes, Nora Smith paused. She suddenly remembered something. She took the key from her pocket and handed it to Wilma. "By the way, here is the key here. Please give it back to Asher Hawn for me."

"Nora, why don't you give it to Asher yourself?" Wilma is still trying to keep Nora Smith.

"No need." Nora Smith replied, turning to follow Julian Spencer and going downstairs.

"Nora Smith, get in the car." Julian Spencer put Nora Smith's suitcase in the trunk, and then opened the door for Nora Smith very gentlemanly.

"Thank you." Nora Smith looked back again, sipped his lip, and sat in the co-pilot position.

Mood, inexplicable heavy.

"Nora Smith, don't think so much, go back and have a good rest." Julian Spencer stretched out his hand and fastened Nora Smith's seat belt.

"Julian Spencer, I'm fine. You leave me alone." Nora Smith leaned wearily in his seat and closed his eyes.

Julian Spencer stopped saying anything, turned around and opened the door of the community.

Asher Hawn drove back from the hospital. When he was approaching the gate of the community, he suddenly saw a familiar car coming out of the gate of the community.

Isn't that Julian Spencer's car?

What's he doing in Water Moon Island?

Asher Hawn's eyebrows, chug jump twice.

Subconscious side head looked out of the window, vaguely see a pretty face.

It's Nora Smith!

The two cars passed each other and Asher Hawn slammed on the brakes.

The car behind him kept honking its horn. Asher Hawn looked back to see clearly, but Julian Spencer's car was gone.

Nora Smith, she's with Julian Spencer?!

Asher Hawn came home with a cold face. Wilma was cleaning in the living room.

Seeing Asher Hawn coming back, Wilma hurriedly greeted him. "Asher, are you back?"

"Hmm." Asher Hawn gave a faint answer.

Wilma hesitated. "Have you seen Nora? She just left."

Nora Smith did come back!

Asher Hawn's face sank and her thin lips slightly lifted. "Where has she gone?"

Wilma shook his head and took out the key Nora Smith had left and handed it to Asher Hawn. "Nora didn't say. She took all her things with her, and this key. Nora asked me to give it back to you."

Nora Smith moved everything away!

That is to say, she won't come back...

Asher Hawn's face was as cold as ice.

After a long time, he asked in a cold tone, "Did she come back alone?"

Feeling the cold breath of Asher Hawn, Wilma said carefully, "I came back with a man, which seems to be the one who is very popular on TV recently. What's his name? The surname is Shen..."

Wilma's voice did not fall, and suddenly there was a loud bang.

Wilma, who was startled, looked up and saw Asher Hawn hit the glass door of the cabinet with a heavy punch.

The glass was broken all over the floor.

"Asher, are you all right?" Wilma asked hastily.

The pain in his hand spread all over his body, and Asher Hawn frowned slightly. "Nothing."

When the words fell, he took a long leg and walked up the stairs.

Arriving at Nora Smith's room on the second floor, Asher Hawn pushed through the door and entered.

The room was tidy, but all Nora Smith's things were gone.

Asher Hawn, livid and handsome, sat alone on the big bed in the middle of the room.

The big hand with distinct bones gently stroked the pillow placed on the bedside.

That's where Nora Smith slept.

It seems that there is still her unique breath on it.

Did Nora Smith just leave?

Did you leave with Julian Spencer?

Nora Smith broke off his marriage and moved away from Water Moon Island, all for Julian Spencer?

Xu villa.

Brittany Sherry is lying in bed, brushing his mobile phone.

Seeing the overwhelming black material about Nora Smith on the Internet, Brittany Sherry's lips couldn't help raising.

Nora Smith, this shameless bitch, can finally have such an end!

In a good mood, Brittany Sherry asked Lany to go shopping.

They sat in the car, and Lany kept saying what Brittany Sherry liked to hear.

"Brittany, Nora Smith has a long history. She almost killed Howard. Asher must hate her."

Brittany Sherry snorted coldly. "She deserved it."

Suddenly remembered something, Brittany Sherry twisted his eyebrows.

"There is a report on the Internet that Asher Hawn dumped Nora Smith because he found Mia. Please help me find out if it is true."

Lany was busy and promised, "OK, Brittany. Don't worry, what if it's really Mia? We can get rid of Nora Smith, let alone Mia?"

Brittany Sherry nodded with satisfaction, suddenly pointed to the car in front of him, and asked Lany sideways, "Is that Nora Smith?"

Following Brittany Sherry's point, Lany looked forward.

It was Julian Spencer's car that caught your eye.

The man driving is tall and handsome. It is Julian Spencer.

And sitting in the co-pilot seat, it is Nora Smith.

The fire of jealousy rose in my heart, and Lany's face cooled down.

"Nora Smith, a shameless man, has just been dumped by Asher and seduced Julian Spencer again!" Lany said bitterly, "Let's go and see it."

Chapter 174 - 171 Do You Want To Disclose Your Identity

"Good." Brittany Sherry agreed.

She nodded and told the driver coldly, "You follow the car in front."

"Yes, Miss." The driver spoke respectfully and followed Julian Spencer's car far away.

Brittany Sherry and Lany followed Julian Spencer's car all the way to Chengdong Garden.

They saw Julian Spencer take his luggage out of the trunk and take Nora Smith to his apartment in the East Garden.

Looking at Shen Junyan and Nora Smith walking into the door of the apartment side by side, Lany could not conceal his anger and jealousy in his eyes, and angrily opened his mouth and scolded, "Nora Smith, a shameless man, dared to live in Julian Spencer's house!"

Brittany Sherry's eyes flashed a touch of naked, side head looked at Lany, "Julian Spencer golden house hidden charming, and this woman turned out to be Nora Smith. Do you think if we tell this news to the media, will it be very exciting?"

"But will this affect Julian Spencer?" Lany spoke with some worry.

"What are you afraid of?" Brittany Sherry glared at Lany. "Do you want to look at Nora Smith? She pestered Julian Spencer?"

"Of course not." Qin Lan said indignantly.

Brittany Sherry hooked his lips and smiled. "That's it. Nora Smith, a shameless bitch, just got dumped by Asher Hawn, and immediately hooked up with Julian Spencer. The media will definitely add fuel to the story and maybe dig out that he was having an affair with other men."

When the time comes, everyone will blame Nora Smith.

She became a rat crossing the street. Do you think Julian Spencer will want her again?

Just drive her away from Julian Spencer, and your chance will come. "

Brittany Sherry's words moved Lany.

She nodded thoughtfully. "Brittany, you're right."

Nora Smith followed Julian Spencer into his apartment.

"Nora Smith, do you think it's all right here?" Julian Spencer asked softly as he helped Nora Smith lift his luggage to the bedroom.

"Well, yes, thank you." Nora Smith looked around the apartment. It was a one-bedroom apartment. Although the area was relatively small, the sparrow was small, well-furnished and chic, which was also in line with her aesthetic standards.

"See if there is anything missing, just tell me, and I'll have it sent at once."

Julian Spencer said intimately.

"There is nothing missing. I am a little tired and want to have a rest." Nora Smith smiled faintly.

Seeing Nora Smith's obscure marching order, Julian Spencer's eyes darkened.

"Then I won't bother you, you have a good rest, and remember to call me immediately if you have anything."

"Thank you." In the face of Julian Spencer's concern, Nora Smith's face has no waves.

Julian Spencer turned and left. When he walked to the door of the room, he suddenly paused and turned around. "Nora Smith, what are your plans next? Do you want to come back to Star Entertainment and announce your identity?"

Now there are all kinds of attacks on Nora Smith on the Internet, and there are all kinds of ugly things to say.

If Nora Smith announces his identity, the rumor will naturally break without attacking.

Nora Smith frowned slightly and shook his head. "No need."

"Why, don't you care about the gossip on the Internet at all?" Julian Spencer asked with some incomprehension.

Nora Smith raised his lips and smiled with a clear face. "You said it was gossip. Why should I care?"

After a pause, Nora Smith added, "What's more, all my thoughts now are about how to cure Howard. As for the rest, I don't want to pay attention at all."

Julian Spencer nodded thoughtfully and said in a heavy voice, "Well, then you have a good rest."

He gave Nora Smith a deep look and then turned away.

After Julian Spencer left, Nora Smith took out his laptop from his suitcase and turned it on quickly.

She skillfully typed down a few lines of code and successfully invaded the hospital security system.

A few minutes later, Nora Smith found all the information about Howard's illness.

According to the data recorded above, Howard's operation was actually very successful.

But for some reason, he never woke up.

Nora Smith rubbed his eyebrows and stared at the computer screen, lost in thought.

Since Western medicine has no effect, you can try Chinese medicine.

However, her medical skills are not perfect, and Nora Smith is not sure.

If you can invite Uncle Qi out of the mountain, he can certainly cure Howard.

However, Nora Smith doesn't know where Uncle Qi, who taught her Chinese medicine, is.

For a moment, Nora Smith's mind was a little confused.

Anyway, she still needs to see Howard with her own eyes to confirm whether his illness is really applicable to Chinese medicine.

Since Asher Hawn won't let her see Howard, maybe she can ask Clark for help.

After a sleepless night, Nora Smith came to The Hawn Goup early the next morning.

Looking at the towering The Hawn Goup building in front of him, Nora Smith shook his mind.

Walking into the door of The Hawn Goup, employees kept pointing and whispering at her.

The tone is disdainful and mocking.

"Isn't this Nora Smith? She has the face to come to work."

"If it weren't for her, how could our chairman be lying in the hospital?"

"Nora Smith she really don't know good or bad, like the president adult so tall handsome and excellent man where to find? She actually broke off in public."

"Then you don't know. Do you think the president really likes this bumpkin? In fact, the president dumped her. She just pretended to be lofty."

"No wonder, I think she is probably unwilling, and this will pester the president again."

Such harsh words kept coming into Nora Smith's ears.

Nora Smith turned a deaf ear, his face pale, ignored these ugly words directly, and went straight to Clark's office.

"Nora." Clark was slightly surprised when he saw Nora Smith.

Nora Smith greeted him with a faint smile on his lips. "Lindt helps."

Clark is arranging people all over the world to find Master Qi, and the reply they get is that they can't find it and have no clue.

He is very worried.

"Nora, are you here to see the president? He should be in the office by now."

Clark put away his sad face and said politely.

Clark was really surprised by the sudden change of engagement ceremony in Haoting Hotel before.

He didn't understand why Nora Smith suddenly canceled the engagement ceremony.

Clark also saw the blow suffered by his own president.

Maybe there is some misunderstanding.

"I have come to see you." Nora Smith took a few steps forward and said faintly.

"Looking for me?" Clark's tone took a touch of surprise.

Nora Smith nodded.. "Lint, I want to ask you a favor for me."

Chapter 175 - 172 Disapproving Your Resignation

"Nora, you needn't be so polite, as long as I can help, don't hesitate to ask." Clark smiled and said politely.

"Well, can you find a way for me to meet Howard in the hospital?" Nora Smith's faint opening, the tone is slightly invisible with a point of expectation.

"This..." Clark smelled some embarrassment, hesitated and said, "In fact, Mr. Huo Lao has been lying in a coma on the hospital bed. Even if you go to see him, it doesn't make much sense."

Seeing that Nora Smith's eyes could not hide his disappointment, Clark said quickly, "It is better to wait for us to find Master Qi to heal Mr. Huo Lao, and when he wakes up, I will find a way to arrange for you to see him."

"Master Qi?" Nora Smith spoke with some doubts.

Clark nodded. "According to Dr. Ni from the cardiology department, Master Qi is a master of Chinese medicine with excellent medical skills. Only he can cure Howard. Unfortunately, Master Qi has been missing for 20 years. The president sent a lot of people to look for it, and there is no news yet."

"That's it." Nora Smith was thoughtful.

If she didn't guess wrong, Master Qi in Clark's mouth should be Uncle Qi who taught her medical skills as a child.

It seems that her conjecture is indeed correct. Dr. Ni is an authoritative expert in cardiology. Since even Dr. Ni recommends Uncle Qi, if Uncle Qi is invited, Howard can be cured.

When I arrived here, Nora Smith's heart was relieved. "Then please, I'll go first."

Say that finish, Nora Smith turned and left.

"Nora." Clark's voice suddenly sounded behind Nora Smith.

Nora Smith stepped back and asked, "What's the matter?"

"There are some things I don't know if I should say." Clark stopped talking.

Nora Smith smiled. "Lint, just say what you have."

"Nora, don't blame me for meddling. The president was very sad when you canceled the engagement ceremony that day. Is there something you can't tell?" Clark's voice, with some concern.

Unspeakable?

Nora Smith hesitated for a moment.

See Nora Smith silent, Clark said again, "If you have something hard to say, have a good talk with the president. You two love each other, what can't be solved? Why do you want to get to this point?"

Do you love each other?

Nora Smith's lip angle, raised a touch of slightly bitter radian, "Lin Te Zhu, you don't know, your president's Mia is back?"

"So, just for Mia? I always think the president..."

Before Clark finished speaking, Nora Smith interrupted him. "Okay, I don't want to continue discussing this matter. Thank you for your concern."

Nora Smith said with a faint look, and then turned to leave.

Returning to her seat in the secretarial department, ignoring all kinds of eyes from others, Nora Smith quickly typed a resignation letter.

With his resignation letter in his hand, Nora Smith came to the president's office.

At the thought of seeing Asher Hawn soon, her heart was inexplicably nervous.

Taking a few deep breaths, Nora Smith reached out and knocked on the door.

"Come in!" Asher Hawn's low, cold voice came from inside.

Nora Smith pushed open the door and stepped in.

Asher Hawn is sitting on his seat, staring at the computer screen with a condensed face.

He was wearing a black shirt, his knife-shaped eyebrows locked, and there was a faint melancholy between his brows, which made him look very cold.

Hearing the sound, Asher Hawn raised his eyes. After seeing clearly that the bearer was Nora Smith, he narrowed his indifferent eyes slightly, and the deep eyes became complicated.

Four eyes are opposite, each other's eyes are intertwined, and neither of them opens his mouth.

The president's office is very quiet at this moment.

Looking at the familiar handsome face in front of us, the angular facial features and lines, like God's uncanny carving, are handsome and unparalleled, and at this moment they are alienated from MoMo.

Nora Smith was eager to ask him why he had disappeared with Mia all day on the day of their engagement, completely ignoring her feelings.

Why are you so MoMo rude to her that you don't even let her meet Howard?

But Nora Smith held back.

Take a deep breath and press down the emotions in my heart. Nora Smith's lips are raised shallowly and he walks to Asher Hawn step by step.

She put her resignation letter on Asher Hawn's desk and spoke indifferently.

"This is my resignation letter, please approve it."

Resignation letter?

Asher Hawn's face was as cold as ice.

She moved away from Water Moon Island, but she has to resign now?!

Nora Smith, is she really in such a hurry to get rid of him?

For Julian Spencer?

Thin lips tightly pressed into a line, and big hands with distinct bones picked up the resignation letter on the table. Asher Hawn didn't look at it, but tore it to pieces and threw it heavily into the trash can.

Nora Smith stunned at Asher Hawn's movements. After a few seconds, he recovered and asked faintly, "Asher Hawn, what do you mean?"

Asher Hawn suddenly stood up, condescending to look at the woman in front of her, with a bloodthirsty sneer at her lips. "I don't agree with your resignation."

A strong sense of oppression came to me, and Nora Smith twisted his eyebrows. "Why?"

She didn't understand what Asher Hawn meant by this move. Why didn't he agree to her resignation?

Since he hates her so much, shouldn't he want her to disappear from his sight?

Nora Smith was silent for a moment, looked up at Asher Hawn's deep eyes, and said in a cold voice, "If it is because of the 'Ice and Fire' project, you don't agree with my resignation, you don't have to. Because this project is now on the right track and can be handed over to others at any time."

Asher Hawn's long legs stepped forward and approached Nora Smith. His cold voice hit Nora Smith. "Nora Smith, you can't wait to draw a line with me? Just for Julian Spencer?!"

His dark eyes were as unfathomable as a vast sea, churning a surging and cold wave, as if to drown Nora Smith in it.

In the face of Asher Hawn's terrible eyes, Nora Smith couldn't help stepping back.

Draw a line with him?

For Julian Spencer?

Isn't Asher Hawn crazy?

It's baffling!

Nora Smith's lips raised a sneer and mocked his mouth. "It's unreasonable!"

After saying this, Nora Smith turned to leave, and suddenly a great force hit his waist, with a cold chill.

Before she could react, the whole person was crushed against the wall by Asher Hawn.

"Asher Hawn, what are you doing? Let go of me..." Nora Smith's voice did not fall, and all the men in front of him blocked it back.

Asher Hawn bowed his head and kissed her lip hard.

Chapter 176 - 173 Mia Is A Prosperous White Lotus

Nora Smith struggled, but his hands were clasped tightly.

Asher Hawn's strength is so great that she can't wait to crush her slender wrist.

His big tongue, forced to pry open her shell teeth, probed in...

Originally, Asher Hawn just wanted to punish the cruel woman in front of her, but her wonderful taste was so familiar.

As always, it was so hard for him to help himself.

The sweet scene of being with Nora Smith in the past suddenly jumped out of Asher Hawn's mind by surprise.

At an altitude of 100,000 feet, she hugged him tightly and said to him firmly:

"Asher Hawn, I'll tell you the answer now."

"Asher Hawn, my answer is--I promise you."

"I am willing to spend the rest of my life with you."

"Life or death."

Don't she remember all the words she said to him that day?

My mind kept flashing these pictures in the past, and Asher Hawn's kiss gradually became gentle before I knew it.

In a trance, he felt as if they were still in love, and he felt that she had never left.

Each other's breathing is intertwined, and the temperature in the president's office is gradually rising...

For a long time, Asher Hawn ended this lingering kiss and said in a dull voice, "Nora Smith..."

Before he could say it, an abrupt woman's voice came across the sky and interrupted him. "Asher, what are you doing..."

Asher Hawn looked back and appeared in front of him, Tang Ruoying.

He raised his eyebrows in surprise. "Mia? Why you?"

Mia?

Nora Smith's heart jerked.

She pushed Asher Hawn away, her chest heaving violently. "Asher Hawn, you've had enough!"

What does he take her for?

He already has Mia, and he still treats her like this to humiliate her?

Tang Ruoying's eyes light, with a touch of injury, unbelievably looked at the scene in front of him, Asher Hawn actually kissed Nora Smith?

Nora Smith is still entangled with Asher Hawn?

The alarm bell rang out in my heart, and Tang Ruoying hid his emotions well, biting the weak opening of his lip. "Asher, I'm sorry, I forgot to knock at the door just now. Am I disturbing you?"

Asher Hawn let go of Nora Smith, slowly tidying up the shirt that had just been messed up in the kiss, and said faintly, "No. Why are you here?"

"Asher, I came to thank you." Tang Ruoying looked at Nora Smith, whose face was somewhat crimson from the corner of his eyes. He pressed down his jealousy and said to Asher Hawn with a smile.

"Hmm?" Asher Hawn hooked her thin lips.

Tang Ruoying stepped forward and took Asher Hawn's arm intimately.
"Thank you for transferring Grandma to the best hospital and letting the best doctor treat her. Grandma, she is much better now. She also asked me to ask you when she is free. When she is ill, she must come and thank you personally."

Asher Hawn curved his lips and said faintly, "Lift a finger."

Nora Smith took a few deep breaths, calmed his mind from the dazzling scene before him, and turned away with a sneer at his lips.

"Nora Smith..." Asher Hawn pushed Tang Ruoying away and wanted to catch up.

Tang Ruoying grabbed Asher Hawn again, lowered her eyes, and looked pitiful in front of Asher Hawn. "Asher, Nora, is she angry? Sorry, I didn't know she was there. Why don't I apologize to her and explain it to her?"

Asher Hawn frowned, and before he could speak, Tang Ruoying chased him out.

Nora Smith was sitting on the first floor of the elevator road and was about to walk out of the gate when a cold woman's voice came behind him. "Nora Smith!"

This voice...

Nora Smith took a step and turned back.

It was Tang Ruoying who was still in the president's office just now.

"What is it?" An expressionless opening.

Tang Ruoying stepped on high heels, walked to Nora Smith step by step, and looked her up and down.

Sure enough, it is beautiful, beautiful and refined, and elegant in temperament. No wonder it can confuse Asher Hawn.

But so what?

As long as she is around, no one can take Asher Hawn!

Concealing the jealousy in the eyes, Tang Ruoying's lips raised a smile of WINNER. "Nora Smith, you should know what is the relationship between Asher Hawn and me?"

Nora Smith smiled coldly. "What do you have to do with him? Do you have anything to do with me?"

Nora Smith's indifference surprised Tang Ruoying.

Shouldn't Nora Smith envy and hate her?

Why is it so clear and light, loving and ignoring?

It's like letting her punch cotton. It's not enjoyable at all.

Eyes light turned, Tang Ruoying said again, "Nora Smith, don't think I don't know that you just went to Asher Hawn to seduce him. I warn you, you should stay away from Asher in the future! Asher, the person he likes is me!

You should know that Asher has been looking for me for so many years.

Because all these years, the only woman he loved was me.

Otherwise, Asher wouldn't be with me on the day of your engagement, and he wouldn't love me, love my dog and ask the best doctor to treat my grandmother.

I'm the one on the tip of his heart. He told me himself that he would marry me. "

"Really?" Nora Smith's lips without waves and rings.

Although Nora Smith didn't care on the surface, his heart was already in great pain.

Asher Hawn indulged Mia's cocky superiority in front of her, didn't he?

Is he going to trample her under his feet?

"Of course!"

Out of the corner of my eye, I saw the tall and straight figure coming towards them. Tang Ruoying slightly invisible raised her lips and leaned against Nora Smith.

She said, almost right next to Nora Smith, in a voice that only the two of them could hear. "Tell you one more thing, Asher. He said you seduced him shamelessly and pestered him. He said you made him sick!"

Nora Smith's face cold cold, Asher Hawn said so, she doesn't know, but at the moment Tang Ruoying is really make her feel sick.

"You stay away from me!" Looking at Tang Ruoying, who kept leaning against her, Nora Smith stretched out his hand to push her away.

"Ah!" Before Nora Smith touched her, Tang Ruoying let out an exaggerated scream, and the whole person fell straight to the ground and shouted in pain, "Nora, why did you push me?"

This is what Asher Hawn saw when he went downstairs in the elevator.

"Mia, are you all right?" Asher Hawn stepped forward and reached out to hold Tang Ruoying.

Tang Ruoying snuggled into Asher Hawn's arms, her eyes were red, and she cried with tears. "Asher, I'm sorry, no matter how I apologize to Nora, she won't forgive me. It's my fault, it's useless...."

Chapter 177 - 174 So Strange

Nora Smith wrapped his arms with both hands, looked at Tang Ruoying's performance with cold eyes, and the corners of his mouth couldn't help but raise a satirical radian.

To be honest, Nora Smith was surprised.

Mia, which Asher Hawn has always loved deeply, turned out to be a prosperous white lotus?

He has a really bad eye.

Before, Asher Hawn said that she was like Mia. Dare to ask her where she is like this prosperous white lotus?!

Tang Ruoying is still sparing no effort to sell miserably in front of Asher Hawn, wiping away tears. "Asher, I fell so badly!"

Asher Hawn's knife-shaped eyebrows frowned and his condensed eyes looked at Nora Smith. "Nora Smith, why did you push Mia?"

She pushed Mia?

When did she push Mia?

Asher Hawn decided indiscriminately that she pushed Mia?

Hehe.

Looking at the familiar handsome face in front of him, Nora Smith only felt that this man had become so strange at this moment.

Nora Smith stepped forward and his cold eyes fell on Tang Ruoying's face.

"Miss Tang, you know clearly whether I pushed you or not."

Tang Ruoying pretended to be afraid and shrank into Asher Hawn's arms, then sniffled and looked wronged. "Nora, I'm sorry, it's all my fault. I didn't know your office in Asher just now. I didn't mean to disturb you."

"Mia, it's none of your business." Asher Hawn said faintly, "Your leg is hurt. I'll take you to the hospital."

Nora Smith sneered and left without looking back.

The dazzling scene just now flashed in my mind, and Nora Smith's heart stung a little.

That's the kind of woman Asher Hawn likes?

Before, she thought she was a body double in Mia. Now, when I think about it, it is simply too fall in price to compare herself with the prosperous white lotus like Mia.

However, she soon vaguely felt that something was wrong.

According to Asher Hawn, when Mia was kidnapped with him, Mia was so strong and kind that he even sacrificed himself to save him.

Such a little girl, the quality should be noble, how can she be like this, face to face, back to back, and look like a disgusting Bai Lianhua?

Nora Smith believes that a person's character is born, and even if it is influenced by the acquired environment, it is impossible to change so much.

In the middle, there must be something wrong.

However, there is no hurry in advance. She has to hurry to find Uncle Qi.

After all, Howard's illness can't be delayed any longer.

Nora Smith thought for a moment and dialed Charlie's phone.

Since Uncle Qi was found by Grandpa to treat her, maybe Grandpa knew Uncle Qi's whereabouts.

When Charlie received Nora Smith's words, he was surfing on the beach.

"Nora, why do you have time to call grandpa today?" Suddenly I received a phone call from my baby granddaughter, and Charlie's brisk voice came from the other end of the phone.

"Grandpa, there is one thing I want to ask you for help." Said Nora

Smith, clearing his throat.

"What is it?" Charlie asked, stepping on the sand.

"Do you remember, when I was a child, I had a high fever and was in a coma for a long time? I stayed in the hospital for a month, but it didn't work. Later, you invited a Chinese medicine doctor, Uncle Qi, who got rid of the disease and saved me.

Later, he stayed with us for a few months and taught me a lot about Chinese medicine. "Nora Smith asked.

"I remember." Charlie spoke thoughtfully.

"Uncle Qi, where is he now?" Nora Smith couldn't wait to ask.

"I don't know."

Charlie's answer disappointed Nora Smith. "Grandpa, think again."

"What's the matter? I'm in such a hurry to find him." Charlie frowned.

Nora Smith explained, "Howard's illness can only be cured by Uncle Qi now, so I want to find Uncle Qi as soon as possible."

"It turned out to be for Asher Hawn boy again." Charlie touched his beard.

He also heard about Howard's heart attack, but Charlie thought Asher

Hawn could handle it.

"Grandpa, is there any way to find Uncle Qi? Do you know where his home is?" Nora Smith's tone took on a bit of eagerness.

Howard's illness needs early treatment, so she must find Uncle Qi as soon as possible.

"He should be in the Northeast now." Charlie thought about it and said,
"When he left, he said that he would settle in the northeast mountains, but I'm not sure. You try to have someone look for it."

"OK, Grandpa, I see." Nora Smith nodded and hung up.

After listening to Charlie, Nora Smith suddenly had a clue.

She vaguely remembers that during her illness, Uncle Qi once told her a lot of anecdotes about Changbai Mountain, and he seemed to yearn for life there.

Nora Smith had a hunch that Uncle Qi would be in Changbai Mountain.

She decided to go to Changbai Mountain in person.

Nora Smith returned to the East Garden, and Nana was waiting for her.

"Nora Smith, are you all right?" Nana saw Nora Smith and got off the car. "I heard Shenjun say that you moved to his side."

Nora Smith smiled faintly. "Yes. What can I do for you?"

Nana joked, "Why, I can't call you if I have nothing to do?"

Nora Smith opened the door. "Come in."

"Well, I have two case for the main dress of next season. Which one is better?" Nana turned on his laptop and wanted to click on the information to show Nora Smith.

Nora Smith interrupted her. "Don't worry about it. I'm going to Changbai Mountain now. Wait until I come back."

"Changbai Mountain?" Nana looked up in amazement. "What are you doing there?"

Nora Smith sipped his lips. "Go to my master. Only he can save Howard now."

Nora Smith gave Nana a brief account of Uncle Qi.

Nana said with emotion, "Nora Smith, in fact, you personally ran Changbai Mountain to find Master Qi, is it for Asher Hawn?"

For Asher Hawn?

Nora Smith dazed. "Of course not. I am also responsible for Howard's present situation. I just hope he can recover and make himself feel better. What does it have to do with Asher Hawn?"

"Well... then I'll go with you." Nana didn't trust Nora Smith to go deep into the mountains alone.

Nora Smith shook his head. "No, you can go back to France. Leo Studio can't live without you."

"The studio thing, let the following people look at it." Nana insisted, "It's dangerous for you to go to that place alone."

"All right, then." Nora Smith thought about it and didn't refuse. "You can book two air tickets now. It's getting better and better."

"Good." Nana promised, turned on his mobile phone and was about to book a plane ticket, when several pushes jumped out.

"Nora Smith, look...." Nana glanced up at Nora Smith and spoke with some concern. Chapter 178 - 175 Suspected Cohabitation

"What's the matter?" Nora Smith was puzzled.

"You see, the Internet is hacking you again. This time it is framing you and Julian Spencer." Nana handed Nora Smith his cell phone, with a somewhat angry tone. "These paparazzi are really immoral, and they can write everything."

Nora Smith looked down and glanced at Nana's mobile phone screen.

What caught my eye was a picture of Julian Spencer carrying her suitcase in one hand and holding her out of the car in the other.

It was filmed when Julian Spencer brought her here that day.

From the photo point of view, the posture of two people is very ambiguous.

"Shen Yingdi's new love was exposed as Nora Smith, the former fiancee of The Hawn Goup President. The two spent the night together and were suspected of living together."

Cohabitation???

These paparazzi are really imaginative. They dare to write anything for traffic.

"Nora Smith, why don't I find someone to withdraw these fabricated news? It's too much!" Nana opened his mouth to fight injustice for Nora Smith.

At the moment, Nora Smith was bent on going to Changbai Mountain as soon as possible, but said faintly, "Don't worry about so much, let's go quickly, let Julian Spencer handle these things."

Nana nodded and headed for the airport with Nora Smith.

At the entrance of The Hawn Goup Building.

Watching Nora Smith disappear into sight with a somewhat alienated figure of MoMo, Asher Hawn's long and narrow eyes narrowed slightly, and her thin lips tightly pressed into a line.

"Asher, didn't you say you were going to take me to the hospital?"

Tang Ruoying's words brought back Asher Hawn's thoughts.

He looked at Tang Ruoying sideways. "Let's go."

Then, step towards the parking lot.

Tang Ruoying limped behind Asher Hawn and shouted, "Asher, don't walk so fast, wait for me."

Asher Hawn footsteps, see Tang Ruoying a face of pain, stretched out his hand to hold her, "okay?"

"Nothing, just the knee hurts." Tang Ruoying leaned against Asher Hawn,

She licked her lips, her chest soft, if there is no rubbing against Asher Hawn's strong arm, and her movements are full of charm.

Asher Hawn didn't respond.

Tang Ruoying was disappointed, biting her lip and opening pitifully, "Asher, Nora, does she hate me very much? I have begged her forgiveness very humbly, but she not only refused to forgive me, but also pushed me hard..."

When it comes to Nora Smith, Asher Hawn's eyes become somewhat complicated.

He loosened his tie impatiently and glanced at Tang Ruoying. "Mia, get on the bus."

Tang Ruoying got on the bus, but saw that Asher Hawn didn't mean to get on the bus.

"Asher, won't you come up?" Tang Ruoying asked suspiciously.

Asher Hawn ticked his lips and explained, "I'll ask the driver to take you there. I have an important meeting in my company."

Say that finish, he took out his mobile phone, made a phone call, and asked the driver to come over.

When Tang Ruoying heard this, he tightened his fingers, but raised a clever smile on his face. "Then Asher, you are busy first."

"Hmm." Asher Hawn gave a faint answer and turned to leave.

Looking at his tall back with some indifference, Tang Ruoying tightly bit her lip, and her eyes were dim.

Why is Asher Hawn so MoMo to her?

Just now, when she pushed through the door in the president's office, she clearly saw how fanatical Asher Hawn was looking at Nora Smith's eyes!

Nora Smith... she is a hooking fox!

She won't give Nora Smith another chance to seduce Asher Hawn!

Tang Ruoying went to the hospital for a simple dressing and asked the driver to send her back to The Hawn Goup.

The Hawn Goup employees recognized Tang Ruoying as the first lover of the president, who has been widely spread on the Internet recently, so Tang Ruoying easily entered the The Hawn Goup building.

Office of the president.

Asher Hawn sat in his seat, his back leaning back slightly, his cold eyes staring at the screen of his mobile phone, and his face was tight.

On the screen of the mobile phone, there is a photo of Nora Smith and Julian Spencer together.

Two people ambiguous posture, dazzling.

Here are the various comments:

"I didn't expect the object of Shen Da's film emperor's golden house to be Nora Smith, the former fiancee who Huo Nanshen just dumped. Shen Da's film emperor is too blind. Do you like to wear whores?"

"You don't know this. Maybe Nora Smith and Shen Da's film emperor have long been dark, and it is not certain who wears whose whore."

"I actually think it makes sense. Nora Smith is a woman with several feet and easy virtue. Luckily, I still powder her before, bah bah!!"

"Shouting for my male god, I have been wearing a green hat for so long!"

Asher Hawn's big hand with distinct bones held the water cup on the table, and his eyes moved to the dazzling photo again, and he threw the water cup out.

With a clang, the water cup fell to the ground and the glass broke all over the floor.

When Tang Ruoying pushed the door and entered, he saw such a scene.

With a loud noise, Tang Ruoying turned pale with fear and was almost hit by a water cup.

A few seconds later, Tang Ruoying recovered and walked to Asher

Hawn. "Asher, what's wrong with you?"

Asher Hawn realized his gaffe and glanced at Tang Ruoying lightly.

"Mia, why are you here? Didn't I have someone take you to the hospital?"

"Oh, I have been to the hospital. The doctor said that my knee was only skinned, and it was nothing serious." Tang Ruoying's lips raised a charming smile. "I'm afraid you will worry about Asher. I came here to tell you."

Asher Hawn spoke absently. "It's good to be fine."

"By the way, Asher, why did you lose your temper just now? Is something wrong?" Tang Ruoying asked curiously.

"Nothing." Asher Hawn put away his cell phone and put it in his suit pocket.

But Tang Ruoying still saw it.

"Asher, are you so angry because of Nora Smith?" Tang Ruoying's mood at the moment is somewhat complicated.

Happily, there are so many black materials about Nora Smith on the Internet, especially those about her and Julian Spencer, which are unbearable to a normal man, let alone a man who is so high above Asher

Hawn and can't hold a grain of sand in his eyes.

What worries her is that Asher Hawn can be so angry with Nora Smith, which shows that he still cares about her in his heart.

Thought of here, Tang Ruoying's eyes flashed a touch of jealousy. She looked at Asher Hawn carefully and said, "Nora Smith is too much. She just broke up with you for a few days, so she lived with Shen Da's film emperor in public."

Asher Hawn's face suddenly sank.

Tang Ruoying continued to add fuel and vinegar, "I read on the Internet that Nora Smith was unclear with Julian Spencer before, and had an affair with several other men at the same time.. Asher, if these rumors are true, then I am really not worth it for you." Chapter 179 -

176 Too Coincidence

"That's enough." Asher Hawn's cold voice interrupted Tang Ruoying. "Don't mention her."

"Oh, Asher, if you don't like it, I won't mention it." Tang Ruoying Shan Shan's silence.

She looked down at the glass slag on the ground and said intimately, "Asher, let me clean it up for you."

"No, just let the cleaning clean up later." Asher Hawn said with a faint look.

"Let me do it, Asher. It won't be good if you step on it by accident. I'll feel bad." Tang Ruoying insisted.

As she spoke, she crouched down and began to clean up the glass slag on the ground.

Asher Hawn frowned and leaned back.

He was a little upset when he thought of the online public opinion.

Asher Hawn took out his mobile phone again, subconsciously clicked on the address book, and with a slender fingertip, he accurately found Nora Smith's number.

Looking at the word "Nora Smith" above, Asher Hawn's handsome face became more and more cold.

His guidance hung on the word "Nora Smith", hesitated for a moment, and then let go.

Repeated several times, with mixed feelings, Asher Hawn finally pressed it.

However, on the other end of the phone, there was a prompt tone to turn off the phone.

"Shit!" Asher Hawn gave a dark scolding, and the smell of condensation made the temperature in the office suddenly drop to zero.

Even Tang Ruoying, who is cleaning, feels the chill.

"Asher, are you all right?" Tang Ruoying raised his eyes.

Asher Hawn recovered and spoke coldly. "Nothing."

"Well, I'm packed." Tang Ruoying stood up and threw all the glass fragments into the trash can.

She was about to say something more when her cell phone rang.

"Excuse me, Asher, I'll take this." Tang Ruoying said to Asher Hawn with some apologies.

Asher Hawn nodded faintly.

Tang Ruoying picked up the phone. "Boss, can I take time off tonight?"

"No!" The barkeeper's stern voice came through the radio waves.

Tang Ruoying sipped her lips and said carefully, "But I was injured today, and I tied gauze on my knees, so I couldn't sing on stage."

"Then deduct double salary!" The bar owner said unkindly.

Tang Ruoying pleaded pitifully. "Boss, please be accommodating. I am really hurt. I am still in a hurry to use money. Don't deduct my money, OK?"

"Angel, do you think I'm a philanthropist? If everyone else asks for leave like you, will I still have to open this bar?" The angry voice of the bar owner came, "If you can't accept it, get out of here!"

"I see, boss. I'll be there on time in the evening." Tang Ruoying's eyes are red.

Hang up the phone, Tang Ruoying eyes tears to Asher Hawn, "Asher, I should go. I have to go to work in the bar at night."

Asher Hawn frowned. "Aren't you hurt?"

"It doesn't matter, I can wear a long skirt so that the guests can't see that I hurt my knee." Tang Ruoying sipped her lips, and her voice trembled with some tears, but she pretended to be strong and said.

"Don't go, Mia, quit your job." Asher Hawn sank.

"How can that work? This job is very important to me. I have to work hard to make money and pay you back." Tang Ruoying shook his head, looking strong and independent.

Asher Hawn sighed. "Mia, didn't I say? I don't need you to pay me back."

"But I don't like to owe you." Tang Ruoying bowed his head. "Asher, I'm afraid you will look down on me."

"How come?" Asher Hawn thought for a moment and said, "Mia, why don't you come and work in The Hawn Goup?"

"May I?" Tang Ruoying suddenly lifted her eyes, and her eyes shone with joy.

Asher Hawn smiled in an affirmative tone. "Of course."

The airport.

Nana and Nora Smith boarded the fastest plane to Changbai Mountain.

Nora Smith was about to turn off his cell phone when he got a call from Julian Spencer.

"Julian Spencer?" Nora Smith picked his eyebrows.

Julian Spencer's magnetic voice came from the other end of the phone, "Nora Smith, I was just going to Chengdong Garden, but you weren't there."

"Well, I'm at the airport now, with Nana." Nora Smith said.

Julian Spencer was surprised. "The airport? Where are you going?"

"I have some important things to do." Nora Smith thought about it and said,
"By the way, there are a lot of gossip about you and me on the Internet. You can find a way to withdraw it."

"I will." Julian Spencer muffled, "Nora Smith, really don't consider my suggestion? Disclosing your true identity may be the best solution at present."

Nora Smith rubbed his eyebrows. "Let's talk about it when I get back."

The plane took off and flew into the sky.

Eyes light looked out of the window, Nora Smith's thoughts drifted away.

Actually, she doesn't like flying because she is afraid of heights.

The last time she flew, she was with Asher Hawn.

Those past events and disappointing scenes jumped out of Nora Smith's mind.

When the plane crashed, Asher Hawn parachuted with her.

It was also at that time that Nora Smith really understood his feelings for Asher Hawn.

Now that I think about it, it seems like a lifetime ago.

It's also ironic.

She gave all her heart to Asher Hawn, but he loved another woman wholeheartedly.

"Nora Smith, what are you thinking?" Nana's voice interrupted Nora Smith's thoughts.

Nora Smith recovered, looked sideways at Nana, and said faintly, "Didn't think about anything."

"You're thinking about Asher Hawn, aren't you?" Nana pointed out sharply, "In fact, you can't let go at all."

Nora Smith's mind was said, dazed stare blankly, "why do you say so?"

"Intuition." Nana took a sip of juice and said with a smile.

It is not so much intuition as a conclusion based on her understanding of Nora Smith.

She and Nora Smith have known each other for so many years, and the tacit understanding between them is not available to others.

Nora Smith was silent for a moment before he spoke softly. "I don't know."

Her heart is a little confused.

Although she is very determined to cancel the engagement ceremony with Asher Hawn, but many times, she still can't help thinking of him.

"Don't fool yourself." Nana patted Nora Smith on the shoulder. "I can see that you still have feelings for Asher Hawn, and so does he."

So is he?

How is that possible?

Nora Smith opened his mouth a little stuffy. "Nana, don't be joking. You don't know that Asher Hawn likes Mia, do you?"

"I know that's what you care about, so you didn't hesitate to cancel your engagement with Asher Hawn."

Nana put down the juice, side head looked at Nora Smith, very serious said, "Because your personality pursues perfection, especially in dealing with feelings, there is no room for a flaw.

But have you ever thought that all this is too coincidental? "

Chapter 180 - 177 That Mia May Be A Fake

"Coincidence?" Nora Smith twisted his eyebrows.

"Yes." Nana nodded, pursed his lips and asked, "Let me ask you, when did Mia appear?"

"The day Asher Hawn and I got engaged." Nora Smith replied thoughtfully.

"What about before that? Didn't Mia exist?" Nana raised his lips and said, "I see the entertainment gossip, that Mia is the resident singer of Charming Color Bar, and his stage name is Angel."

"Yes, before Levi Lambert's birthday, I once saw her in Charming Se." Nora Smith nodded. She understood what Nana meant.

"That's very strange. I heard from you that Asher Hawn had been looking for Mia before, and his men had been looking for him for years, but they haven't heard from him. You had Anthony check Mia a while ago, but you didn't find anything.

That Mia is just a resident singer in a bar. Can't even find Anthony? No one else can find it. Anthony is one of the best hackers in the world. You know his strength. "

Nora Smith's eyes narrowed and agreed. "Nana, you're right. There are some things I really neglected before."

"Nora Smith, you are a fan of the authorities. The engagement ceremony was cancelled on impulse to give that Mia an opportunity." Nana snorted coldly.

"I even suspect that Mia may be a fake."

"Fake?" Nora Smith frowned.

Somehow, she remembered the scene in The Hawn Goup in the morning.

Mia played the prosperous Bai Lianhua incisively and vividly, unlike the kind and lovely girl in Asher Hawn's mouth at all.

There is really a problem here.

Nora Smith rubbed his temples. "But Asher Hawn shouldn't mistake one for another."

Since Asher Hawn is so sure that Tang Ruoying is Mia, there should be no mistake.

Is there something wrong in the middle?

Nana didn't think so. "Why not? Didn't you say before that Asher Hawn once recognized you as Mia? Then he can't mistake others for others?

Moreover, this Mia did not appear early or late, but appeared on the day of your engagement. It's too coincidental that your engagement ceremony was ruined when you appeared! "

It's really a coincidence.

Nora Smith thought about it and said, "Let's check it out when I come back, Nana. Let's not talk about it. My greatest wish now is to find Uncle Qi as soon as possible and heal Howard."

"Nora Smith, you must check it out. It's hard to meet someone you like. Don't give up so easily." Nana said leisurely.

After a long journey, Nora Smith and Nana finally came to Changbai Mountain.

This is a continuous mountain forest with ice and snow, covered with snow everywhere.

"Nora Smith, are you sure your Uncle Qi is here?" Nana shivered with cold.

"If my intuition is not wrong..." Nora Smith rubbed his hands and hot air with his mouth. "I remember he once said that the place he wants to live most in the future is Changbai Mountain."

"Well, intuition..." Nana was helpless.

Nora Smith looked at Nana, who was freezing. "Why don't we ask someone first?"

"Hmm." Nana nodded and looked around.

At the foot of the mountain, there is a small village with several small farmhouses scattered.

Nora Smith and Nana rang to one of the houses. "Is there anyone in there?"

The door was opened by a gray-haired middle-aged woman who looked at them curiously. "Who are you looking for?"

"Is there a place called Yubi Peak near here?" Nora Smith asked.

She still remembers that Uncle Qi once said that if he really settled in

Changbai Mountain one day, he would choose to live in Yubi Peak because there were his favorite people there.

The middle-aged woman nodded and pointed to the distance. "It's on the mountain over there."

There is really such a place as Yubi Peak!

Nora Smith was pleased. "Is it far from here? When can we get there if we go there now?"

The middle-aged woman looked at them suspiciously. "This ice and snow, why do you go to Yubi Peak?"

"We are going to find someone." Nora Smith laughed.

"Looking for someone? Are you going to find a doctor?" Middle-aged women suddenly realize.

Doctor Qi!

Nora Smith's heart beat wildly, surnamed Qi, and he is a doctor. It must be Uncle Qi!

"Right, right," Nora Smith nodded again and again. "Auntie, can you tell me how to find this Qi Shenyi?"

"Two girls, come in and talk about it." The middle-aged woman looked at the two people who were freezing and welcomed them into the house.

"Auntie, can you tell us about Qi Shenyi?" Nana looked at Nora Smith's impatience, smiled and asked.

The middle-aged woman brought them two cups of hot water. "Speaking of Qi Shenyi, he is very strange and has to live in Yubi Peak. However, people are very good. When the weather is good, they often go down the mountain. Whoever gets sick in the village will help cure it. His medical skills are very good."

Nora Smith and Nana looked at each other. "He must be right."

The middle-aged woman asked with some doubts, "How do you know Qi Shenyi? He has a strange temper and never lets people talk about him."

"My grandfather and he are friends." Nora Smith said truthfully.

"So it is." The middle-aged woman nodded. "It snows in the mountains these days, and he will not go down the mountain. Why don't you live in the village for a few days first, and when the weather clears up, you will go to him again."

"I want to go at once." Now that he had heard from Uncle Qi, Nora

Smith couldn't wait for a moment.

Even if she can wait, Howard's illness can't wait.

If you find Uncle Qi one day earlier, Howard will be in Allen Su one day earlier.

"It is very dangerous to go into the mountains on snowy days." The middle-aged woman kept persuading Nora Smith and Nana, "What's more, you two little girls from the south, who are strangers, can't."

"Well, Nana, you stay." Nora Smith thought for a moment and said,
"Wait for me here."

"You want to go into the mountains alone? How can that work?" Nana quickly grabbed Nora Smith. "Why don't we see the situation? Maybe the snow will stop tomorrow?"

"Howard, he can't afford to wait." Nora Smith said firmly, "Nana, you know my temper."

"But..."

Nana wanted to say something else, but Nora Smith interrupted her.

"Just stay here as I said. In case something happens to me and I don't come back, you have to find someone to save me."

Seeing Nora Smith's resolute attitude, Nana knew it was useless to say anything more. He could only ask the middle-aged women carefully about the precautions for entering the mountains and repeatedly told Nora Smith to be careful.

"I will.." Nora Smith put on a thick down jacket, a red scarf and cotton gloves, and smiled. "Wait for my good news!" Chapter 181 - 178

Encountering An Avalanche

"Nora, be careful. If it goes well, you should reach Yubi Peak before dark." Sister Liu, a middle-aged woman, enthusiastically packed some dry food for Nora Smith.

"Thank you." Shu's emotion is warm because of the simplicity and enthusiasm of the people in the mountain villages.

"Nora Smith, be careful!" Nana is still worried.

Nora Smith gave her a reassuring smile. "Don't worry, I can come with Uncle Qi tomorrow without any accident."

With all the equipment, Nora Smith walked deep into the mountains with his backpack on his back.

At first, there were only drifts of snow in the sky. Nora Smith was bent on reaching Yubi Peak as soon as possible, finding Uncle Qi and walking forward quickly.

When we reached the middle of the mountain, a strong wind suddenly blew and the sky was dark.

It looks like it's going to snow heavily.

Nora Smith went on at full speed. She had to arrive before dark and find Uncle Qi as soon as possible.

In a short time, snow and goose feathers floated in the sky.

It was snowing heavily, and Nora Smith's eyes were white. If it hadn't been for his compass, he would have lost his way.

What bad weather is this Nima!

Nora Smith secretly scolded in his heart, and he couldn't help speeding up his pace.

The wind grew stronger and stronger, and snowflakes were flying in the air, so that Nora Smith could hardly keep his eyes open.

Not far away, the thick snow on the mountain peak seems to fall at any time.

This won't work.

Nora Smith regretted that he didn't listen to the local villagers, and lacked judgment on this harsh environment. Trade rushed up the mountain, and haste made waste.

Seeing that it was getting dark and the snowstorm was raging, she was now unable to move.

Nora Smith stopped and thought about it. She should go back first, and find a way to get a helicopter up the mountain tomorrow, which is more feasible.

After all, I don't know when the snowstorm will stop.

Nora Smith made up his mind and was about to go back when a roar came from a distance.

It's a bit like thunder, but it's not.

Nora Smith followed the sound and saw that on the opposite top of the mountain, thick snow was pouring and rolling in her direction!

Oh, no, it's going to be an avalanche!!

Nora Smith was surprised, too late to think about anything, and quickly looked at the surrounding terrain.

Fortunately, there is a cave next to her.

Maybe we can go in and hide.

But if the snow closes the hole and submerges it, wouldn't it be dangerous for her?

No, she must leave a distress signal.

Thinking at full speed in my mind, when Nora Smith saw the big tree beside him, he had an epiphany, quickly took off his scarf around his neck, and tied it to the treetop at the speed of the wind and electricity.

Then, she quickly hid in the cave.

A few seconds later, the heavy snow surging from the mountain sealed the hole.

Nora Smith rubbed his temples in some terror. In front of nature, human power is too small.

She took her cell phone out of her pocket and looked at it. Not surprisingly, there was no signal.

Nora Smith turned on his flashlight again and shone around.

This cave is quite big inside, and it is very warm inside, which is much better than that in the snowstorm just now.

Nora Smith took off her backpack, which contained enough food to survive for several days.

Taking a few deep breaths, Nora Smith calmed himself down.

Nana should soon know that there was an avalanche here, and she will definitely find a way to save her.

Nora Smith is glad at the moment and insists on leaving Nana in the small mountain village.

The only thing she is worried about now is whether Howard's illness can wait so long.

Nora Smith, having eaten a little and feeling much more comfortable, found a clean place in the cave and sat down.

Inexplicably, she thought of Asher Hawn again.

On the desert island, she and Asher Hawn are also in the cave. They are close to each other. He said to her, "Nora Smith, no matter what happens, I will protect you."

At that time, it was really beautiful.

Now, she is the only one, alone, facing this sudden disaster.

Asher Hawn, he must be with Mia at the moment.

Heart raised a touch of bitterness, Nora Smith suddenly found that he was crazy thinking about Asher Hawn at this moment.

Maybe Nana is right. She can't let go at all, and she shouldn't give up easily.

If Mia is really a good girl worthy of love, then she accepts her fate, she quits, and she fulfills them.

But if this Mia is fake, or Mia is not worthy of Asher Hawn's love at all, why did she give up?

The night is getting darker.

The Hawn Goup building, president's office.

Asher Hawn worked at his desk late into the night.

I don't know why, at the moment, his mood is very irritable, and he has never felt uneasy.

Asher Hawn called Li Butler. "Lean, Grandpa, how is he?"

Li Butler's respectful voice came from the other end of the phone.

"Young master, Howard is fine. Dr. Ni just came to check the room and said that everything is normal."

"Hmm." Asher Hawn light should a, "hard you."

Grandpa's fine.

So where does this uneasy feeling come from?

After talking with Li Butler on the phone, this feeling has not disappeared, but has become more and more intense.

Asher Hawn loosened his tie and leaned back on the sofa to close his eyes.

As soon as he closed his eyes, Nora Smith's pretty figure jumped out of his mind off guard.

Julian Spencer's handsome face tightened at the thought of Nora Smith moving from Water Moon Island to Asher Hawn's house.

Asher Hawn frowned lightly and took out his mobile phone. The gossip about Nora Smith and Julian Spencer was much less.

I can see that it was Star Entertainment who found someone to withdraw the news.

Asher Hawn cold eyes narrowed slightly. If it wasn't guilty, why would she find someone to withdraw?

You know, at the beginning, Nora Smith was wrongly pushed Sarah into the water, and she was blackened like that. She looked like she didn't care.

Is Nora Smith really with Julian Spencer?

Disturbed, Asher Hawn stood up, ready to go back, and when he passed the secretarial office, he couldn't help walking past.

The huge office is dark, and only in the corner, there is a dim light still on.

Asher Hawn's heart leapt.

Where the dim light is... is Nora Smith's seat!

During the day, Nora Smith handed him his resignation letter and left.

Asher Hawn couldn't help but "pass" the secretarial department several times in the past two days. Nora Smith's seat was always empty.

Is she back now?

The lip angle couldn't help but evoke slightly, and Asher Hawn stepped towards the light.

On the seat, there is a girl in red with her head down.

Asher Hawn looked down and could only see her head.

Is that Nora Smith?

Is she willing to come back?

There was an inexplicable throb in my heart. Asher Hawn's voice was deep and beautiful like cello playing. "Nora Smith...." Chapter 182

- 179 Nora Smith Is In Danger

The girl in the seat looked up and spoke softly, "Asher?"

It turned out to be Mia, not Nora Smith.

Asher Hawn's deep eyes couldn't hide his disappointment. "Mia, why are you? What are you doing so late?"

Tang Ruoying stood up and curved his eyebrows. "Asher, I just entered The Hawn Goup and don't know anything. Of course, I have to study hard. I don't want to be gossiped or humiliated."

"It's late, go back to rest early." Asher Hawn looked at Tang Ruoying, look light said.

Tang Ruoying lowered his eyes. "What about you? Why don't you go back? Just now you mistook me for Nora. Are you still thinking about her?"

"No, it's just that this is Nora Smith's seat, and I thought it was her." Asher Hawn handsome face said without waves.

"So it is." Tang Ruoying picked up the water cup and took a sip. "I read on the Internet that Nora Smith and Julian Spencer lived together, Asher, don't think about her anymore."

Asher Hawn's knife-shaped eyebrows frowned. "Mia, I'll send you back."

See Asher Hawn avoided talking about this topic, Tang Ruoying was very sensible and closed his mouth.

What she has to do now is to spare no effort to discredit Nora Smith in front of Asher Hawn and make him hate Nora Smith.

One day, Asher Hawn will fall in love with her.

After all, she is the person Asher Hawn has been looking for.

She has this confidence, and what she wants in Tang Ruoying has never been obtained!

Asher Hawn drove, speechless all the way.

Tang Ruoying secretly glanced at him, only to see Asher Hawn holding the steering wheel with both hands, his facial lines tight, his knife-shaped eyebrows slightly puckered, his thin lips tight, his handsome face with a slight alienation, and he didn't know what he was thinking.

Tang Ruoying's heart sank.

Why does Asher Hawn always keep his distance in front of her?

Clearly, she should be the one on the tip of his heart!

"Asher, just ahead." Tang Ruoying pointed to the place where she rented.

This is a very old community, and the surrounding environment is also very dilapidated.

"Mia, I'll have someone find you another house tomorrow." Asher Hawn stopped the car and frowned.

Tang Ruoying smell speech, the heart suddenly a happy.

It seems that Asher Hawn still has her in his heart, at least he cares about her very much.

Hiding the emotions in my heart, Tang Ruoying said cleverly, "No, Asher, I live here very well."

Asher Hawn said nothing, just opened the door and got off.

The light of the street lamp shines on him, as if he was plated with a layer of gold all over his body, which is noble and elegant, and makes people feel excited.

Looking at the outstanding man in front of the world, Tang Ruoying's eyes are slightly invisible with some obsession.

"Asher, go up and sit down." Tang Ruoying sipped her lips and sent an invitation.

"No, it's late. Go to bed early." Asher Hawn said with a blank face.

Rejected by Asher Hawn, Tang Ruoying beat his fingers on his side and secretly pulled them tightly, but his face still wore a bright smile. "Well, Asher, you should go back to rest early. Thank you for taking me home, good night."

Watching Tang Ruoying go up the stairs, Asher Hawn returned to the car and turned around to leave.

He did not return to Shuiyue New Town, but went to Chengdong Garden.

The photo taken by entertainment gossip magazine is in Chengdong Garden.

Asher Hawn knows that Julian Spencer once bought an apartment here, on the 18th floor.

He parked his car downstairs and looked up at the 18th floor window.

Julian Spencer's apartment, with lights on.

Nora Smith should be in there at the moment, right?

Asher Hawn sat in the car, upset lit a cigarette, handsome face in the smoke, it is particularly condensed.

Ten minutes later, he severely pressed out the cigarette butt, opened the car door, got off with long legs, got on the elevator and went straight to the 18th floor.

It was Julian Spencer who rang the doorbell and opened the door.

At the moment he saw Julian Spencer, Asher Hawn's face sank.

So, Nora Smith really lived with Julian Spencer?

"Asher Hawn, what are you doing here?" Julian Spencer frowned at the uninvited guest in front of him.

Asher Hawn said with a livid face. "Is the online report true? You live with Nora Smith?"

"It has nothing to do with you." Julian Spencer snorted coldly.

Asher Hawn grabbed Julian Spencer's chest of clothes. "Where's Shu Lover? Let her come to me!"

He asked her to tell him the answer herself!

The atmosphere became tense.

Julian Spencer looked at Asher Hawn with angry eyes and said coldly,
"Asher Hawn, what qualifications do you have to see her? You already have Mia, why are you pestering Nora Smith? Don't forget that your engagement with Nora Smith has been cancelled, even if what you said online is true, so what? Can you control it?"

The answer to him was a direct punch from Asher Hawn.

Julian Spencer shook, and Asher Hawn pushed him away and walked through the door.

"Nora Smith, come out!" Asher Hawn looked around calmly, but he didn't see Nora Smith.

Julian Spencer wiped the blood on his lips and looked at Asher Hawn with cold eyes. "President Huo Da is trespassing on private houses. Do you want me to call the police?"

Asher Hawn Jun's face was as cold as ice, and he asked again, "Where is Nora Smith?!"

"She's not here." Julian Spencer gave the marching order impolitely.

"Asher Hawn, please get out!"

Without finding Nora Smith, Asher Hawn left in anger.

On second thought, does Nora Smith's absence mean that they are not living together?

Early the next morning.

Nana was worried about Nora Smith and got up before dawn.

"Miss Yu, so early." Sister Liu yawned and walked towards the kitchen.

"I'll make breakfast. You can sleep a little longer. It's still early."

"I won't sleep." Nana shook his head, opened the gate, and the heavy snow flew in.

"It snowed heavily last night." Nana looked in the direction of the mountain forest, and some worried openings, "I don't know if she found Master Qi in Nora Smith."

If all goes well, Nora Smith should be back today, but now it's snowing so hard ... Nana is very worried.

Sister Liu was about to open her mouth when suddenly several men came running in a hurry, looking nervous. "No, there is an avalanche in the mountains!!"

"What?!" Nana's head hummed and subconsciously asked,
"Avalanche??"

"Yes! Sister Liu, no one in your family has entered the mountains?" One of the men asked, and they were going door-to-door with notices.

"My friend went into the mountains yesterday afternoon!" Nana's voice, nervous with a bit of vibrato, "she is going to the direction of Yubi Peak."

"This is bad." Several men looked at each other. The avalanche happened in that area.

Everyone knows that when encountering avalanches in the mountains, there are many dangers.

Nana's heart hangs tightly.

Nora Smith is in danger! Chapter 183 - 180 I Will Save Nora Smith

"Call the police! Call the police quickly!" Nana was in a hurry and took a few deep breaths, trying to calm himself down.

She quivered her fingers and called the police.

A few men shook their heads and sighed with regret. "It's useless to call the police. This has encountered an avalanche, and 80% of people are gone..."

Nana roared. "No, don't talk nonsense! Nora Smith will be fine!"

At the place, everyone was startled by Nana's appearance.

Sister Liu stepped forward, patted Nana on the shoulder and comforted her.

"Miss Yu, calm down. Maybe there will be miracles."

Nana nodded and contacted the search and rescue team. "Come quickly, my friend is trapped in the mountains and encountered an avalanche!"

The search and rescue team quickly rushed over, but the wind and snow were too heavy.

The captain looked at the raging wind and snow, and his face was cold and opened his mouth for Na. "Sorry, Miss Yu, the bad weather now is really not conducive to the search and rescue work."

"But, my friend, she is in danger, and I must find her as soon as possible!"
Nana said anxiously.

"Miss Yu, I understand your mood, but I must ensure the safety of the players." The captain sank. "The snowstorm hasn't stopped yet, and there will be a second avalanche at any time."

Nana knew everything, but how could she just watch Nora Smith run into danger and ignore it?

Even... I don't know whether Nora Smith is alive or dead at the moment.

Nana was in a hurry, thought about it, and called Asher Hawn.

Although Nora Smith had said she didn't want Asher Hawn to know about it, she didn't want Asher Hawn to feel that he owed her anything.

However, at this critical time of life and death, Nana can't take care of so much.

The Hawn Goup building, president's office.

Asher Hawn was concentrating on his work when Tang Ruoying knocked on the door, "Asher."

"Come in." Asher Hawn spoke in a cold voice.

Tang Ruoying pushed the door and entered.

"What can I do for you, Mia?" Asher Hawn looked up and asked lightly.

Tang Ruoying walked up to Asher Hawn with a document in her arms and said in a soft voice, "Asher, there are some places I can't understand here. Can you teach me?"

Asher Hawn glanced at the document in Tang Ruoying's hand. "Mia, this document is too professional. You can read some simple information first when you first come."

Tang Ruoying bit his lip. "I want to learn more as soon as possible."

"Well, I'll ask Clark to arrange a senior old employee to take you with you. You can ask her if you don't understand anything in the future."

Asher Hawn thought about it and said, his voice as indifferent as ever.

"Oh." Tang Ruoying was disappointed. She wanted to take the opportunity to get close to Asher Hawn, but he sent her away in a few words.

Seeing Asher Hawn's busy appearance, Tang Ruoying said softly,
"That's nothing. I'll go back first, and I won't disturb you in Asher."

"Hmm." Asher Hawn faintly uttered a monosyllabic character.

Tang Ruoying turned and left. Just walked to the gate, he suddenly heard Asher Hawn's magnetic voice sounding, "Mia."

Heart a happy, Tang Ruoying stopped.

She looked back and looked at Asher Hawn's handsome face, which made people and gods angry.

Tang Ruoying's eyes can't hide his love. "Asher, is there anything else?"

Asher Hawn stood up and said, "I've got someone to help you rent a new house. When you get off work, I'll have someone to send you there. See if you are satisfied."

Joy, quietly spread every cell of Tang Ruoying.

The fact is in front of us. Asher Hawn is not without feelings for her.

At least, he cares about her, and he thinks about her in his heart.

Thought of here, Tang Ruoying took Asher Hawn's arm, and his tone was somewhat shy. "Asher, you are so kind to me..."

Her voice did not fall, and Asher Hawn's mobile phone rang.

Asher Hawn indifferently pulled back his arm, took out his mobile phone and looked at it.

It was a strange number. Asher Hawn thought it was an advertisement harassing phone call and didn't answer it.

But the other party continued to call his mobile phone, which meant that he would not give up if he didn't answer it.

After ringing several times, Asher Hawn frowned, and his slender fingers finally pressed the answer button.

The voice on the phone is familiar and somewhat alarmed. "Is it Asher Hawn?"

"I am." Asher Hawn sank.

Nana on the other end of the phone came with a crying voice. "I'm Nana, something happened to Nora Smith!"

"What?!" Asher Hawn's heart jumped. "What's wrong with Nora Smith?"

"Nora Smith, she... encountered an avalanche!" Cried Nana.

At the thought that Nora Smith's life and death are unknown now, and the rescue team can't go in to search and rescue, Nana's mood is a little collapsed.

Avalanche???

After hearing this word, Asher Hawn's ink eyes churned with tension and worry, and a series of questions blurted out, "Avalanche? What's going on? Where are you? Where is Nora Smith?"

Where the hell is Nora Smith?

Good, how can you encounter an avalanche?

Nana took a few deep breaths, only to calm down a little, said, "Well,

Nora Smith went to Changbai Mountain with me in order to find Master

Qi to treat Howard. She went into the mountains alone to find Master

Qi, but..."

"But what?" Asher Hawn couldn't wait to ask.

"However, the environment over there is very bad. A snowstorm started soon after Nora Smith entered the mountains. This morning, I heard people say that there was an avalanche in the mountains. I can't contact Nora Smith, and the avalanche happened in the place where Nora Smith had to go to find the master.

Something must have happened to her, otherwise, she wouldn't have been heard from. "

Asher Hawn held the finger of the mobile phone and tightened it little by little.

In order to find Master Qi for Grandpa, Nora Smith ran to Changbai

Mountain, went into the mountains alone, and encountered an avalanche!

Why is she so stupid?

At the thought that Nora Smith went to the hospital to visit Grandpa before, but was ruthlessly driven away by him, Asher Hawn's heart seemed to be torn by a pair of big hands desperately, and he felt terrible.

"I'll bring someone right away." Asher Hawn thought for a few seconds and said coldly, "Nana, listen to me. I will contact the local search and rescue team immediately. You go into the mountains with the search and rescue team to find Nora Smith first, and I will meet you when I arrive."

"I have already found the search and rescue team, but now the snowstorm has not stopped, the environment is too bad, and the search and rescue team can't go in to search and rescue." Nana said helplessly.

"Let them find a way in!" Asher Hawn Jun's face sank, and his tone could not be resisted.

Nana nodded. "I'll try to convince them again."

After a pause, Nana raised his voice a little. "Asher Hawn, you have to save Nora Smith, you must save her!"

"I will!" Asher Hawn said without hesitation. Chapter 184 - 181
Asher, I'll Go With You

Hang up the phone, Asher Hawn handsome face lines tight, full of worry and tension.

He even couldn't believe that Nora Smith had encountered such a dangerous thing as an avalanche.

How is that possible? Shouldn't she be with Julian Spencer?

Why did she suddenly run to Changbai Mountain? Even if Master Qi was really there, why didn't she tell him that he just sent someone there?

"Mia, go back first. I have something to leave for a few days." Asher Hawn took back his thoughts, glanced at Mia, who was still standing beside him, and spoke coldly.

Asher Hawn's nervous appearance... is it for Nora Smith again?!

The smile on Tang Ruoying's face suddenly stiffened.

She heard Asher Hawn and Nana on the phone very clearly.

Originally, Tang Ruoying couldn't help feeling good when she heard that Nora Smith was in danger.

Listen to the meaning on the phone just now, Nora Smith went to Changbai Mountain alone to find someone to treat Howard, and encountered an avalanche.

Avalanche, just kidding, it's very dangerous.

Maybe now Nora Smith has been buried in snow and turned into a cold corpse.

But at the sight of Asher Hawn's nervous Nora Smith, Tang Ruoying's mood will never get better.

Nora Smith, this bitch, must be looking for what Qi Master to cure Howard, take credit in front of Asher Hawn, and want to rob Asher Hawn again!

Fortunately, heaven has eyes, so that Nora Smith encounters avalanches!

Thinking of this, Tang Ruoying grabbed Asher Hawn and pretended to be worried and asked, "Asher, what's wrong with you?"

"Nora Smith is in danger. I'm going to save her." Asher Hawn said firmly.

"I'll go with you!" Tang Ruoying followed Asher Hawn.

Although Tang Ruoying thinks Nora Smith has been buried in snow at the moment, what if Asher Hawn really rescued Nora Smith?

How could she give Nora Smith this chance?

Asher Hawn stepped and frowned. "Mia, it's dangerous there. Stay."

"But I'm worried about you." Tang Ruoying adamantly played the emotional card, "Asher, have you forgotten? When we were kidnapped together, we agreed to live and die together. Now that you go to such a dangerous place alone, how can you rest assured?"

At the mention of the events of that year, an inexplicable emotion surged in Asher Hawn's heart.

He took a deep look at Tang Ruoying. "Then you can go with me, but it's really dangerous there. You must be careful."

Tang Ruoying took Asher Hawn's arm with a smile. "With Asher, you protect me, I am not afraid of anything!"

"Then go quickly!" Asher Hawn walked eagerly towards the airport.

As he walked, he informed Clark and took all the Hawn family's bodyguards to Changbai Mountain to find Nora Smith.

"Asher, wait for me!" Tang Ruoyin flashed a dark awn in his eyes and quickly chased him up.

She had never seen Asher Hawn so nervous. He had always been high, calm and elegant.

But when it comes to Nora Smith, Asher Hawn loses his heart.

Tang Ruoying beat his hands on both sides of his body and shook his fist secretly.

Unless Nora Smith is buried in the snow now and can't come back, she won't make each other feel better!

No one will take Asher Hawn!

In a hurry, Asher Hawn arrived at the small village under Changbai Mountain as quickly as possible.

"Asher, there you are at last!" As soon as Nana saw Asher Hawn, he flew to meet him.

Asher Hawn spoke in a cold voice, with some unprecedented tension and urgency. "How is the situation now? Have you found Nora Smith?"

Nana shook his head gloomily. "No. We've looked through it, but we can't find Nora Smith."

Before Asher Hawn came, the search and rescue team tried to coordinate a helicopter. Nana and several search and rescue team members had searched in the mountains by helicopter, but found nothing.

Thirty-six hours have passed since Nora Smith disappeared, and Nana's heart has been tense.

She really can't imagine what happened to Nora Smith.

"Look for it again!" Asher Hawn Jun's face is livid, his voice is cold, and his tone is completely unresisting.

He doesn't believe anything will happen to Nora Smith!

Before that, they encountered so many thrilling situations, warehouse explosion, plane crash... Nora Smith was fine.

This time, Nora Smith will be lucky!

"Asher, don't worry too much." Tang Ruoying gently pulled Asher Hawn's arm and spoke softly. "Nora, she will be fine."

Asher Hawn sideways looked at Tang Ruoying with a tired face. "Mia, are you tired? You have a rest first and wait for me here."

"Where are you going, Asher?" Tang Ruoying saw that Asher Hawn had the intention of throwing her down, and asked quickly.

Asher Hawn's face was tight and his tone was firm. "I'll find Nora Smith."

"I'll go with you!" Tang Ruoying looked at Asher Hawn with pleading eyes.

What she is most afraid of now is that Asher Hawn finds Nora Smith.

Nora Smith had better be a cold corpse. If Nora Smith were still alive, Asher Hawn would be so nervous about her now, and it would be difficult to guarantee that the two of them would not rekindle their old feelings.

Tang Ruoying finally let Nora Smith and Asher Hawn cancel their engagement. How can they lose so much?

Therefore, she must always follow Asher Hawn's side, on the one hand, she cares about him, on the other hand, she can improvise if there is any situation, in short, she must never let Nora Smith take Asher Hawn's heart away again!

Thought of here, Tang Ruoying bent her lips and said in a real tone, "Asher, I know you are worried about Nora, and I am also worried about her. Looking at you like this, how can I rest assured that I will stay and rest alone? You let me go together, many people have great strength, maybe I can help."

Nana noticed Tang Ruoying behind Asher Hawn.

See Tang Ruoying a face of sincerity, seems to really care about Nora Smith, Nana sneered in his heart.

If she hadn't heard Nora Smith say all kinds of Tang Ruoying before, she would have been deceived by Tang Ruoying's appearance of Bai Lianhua.

It seems that this Tang Ruoying is difficult to deal with, and it is no wonder that Asher Hawn will be blinded by her and stay with Tang Ruoying on the day of the engagement ceremony regardless of Nora Smith's feelings.

Nora Smith is so good that he can't see it. It's ridiculous not to choose this prosperous white lotus.

However, now is not the time to think about this. The urgent task is to find Nora Smith quickly.

As long as Nora Smith is found, Nora Smith will naturally cure this prosperous white lotus.

"Go quickly!" Asher Hawn had some unsettled urging.

He can't wait for a moment. He can't wait to find Nora Smith.

"Asher, let's go.." Clark had everything ready and said respectfully, "We can start at any time."

Chapter 185 - 182 Will You Protect Me Again

Asher Hawn took a long leg and boarded the helicopter.

The plane hovered at low altitude, and Asher Hawn looked down with a telescope, and what he saw was a white boundless.

There was snow everywhere, and the white snow covered everything, so he couldn't see anything clearly.

"Fly slowly." Asher Hawn told him coldly that he couldn't miss any clues!

The helicopter went round and round, and what Asher Hawn saw was snow.

"Asher, we've looked for it several times, but we don't seem to find anything." Tang Ruoying sat beside Asher Hawn, pretending to hold a telescope to find the trace of Nora Smith.

Tang Ruoying was overjoyed in his heart. Everything on the mountain was covered by heavy snow, and he couldn't even see a small animal, let alone Nora Smith.

Nora Smith, it must have been buried by heavy snow!

"Keep looking!" Asher Hawn's cold voice sounded.

How can you find nothing!

Nora Smith must be there, she must be waiting for him to save her somewhere!

Seeing the passing of time, but still nothing, Asher Hawn frowned.

This won't work. I can't find anything. It's just a waste of time.

Maybe it was too high in the air to see clearly, so I couldn't see the trace of Nora Smith.

If you can go in the mountains and search carpet, you may find some clues.

"Clark, bring me the parachute." Asher Hawn suddenly said with a blank face.

Clark was dazed. "President..."

Tang Ruoying's heart jumped suddenly, quickly interrupted Clark, sipped her lips and asked, "Asher, what do you want a parachute for?"

"I'll go down and look for Nora Smith." Asher Hawn's eyes narrowed and his tone was firm.

"No, it's too dangerous!" Tang Ruoying flashed worry in her eyes and reached out and grabbed Asher Hawn's hand tightly. "Asher, don't go."

"I must go." Asher Hawn said indifferently.

"Mia, I know you are worried about me, but no one can change what I decide." Asher Hawn looked extremely dignified and pushed away Tang Ruoying.

Seeing that Tang Ruoying's eyes faded, Asher Hawn added, "Don't worry, Mia, I promise you, I will be fine."

"Asher, are you really going to skydive down to find Nora Smith?"

Seeing Asher Hawn unlock the parachute neatly, Nana was moved in his heart and asked.

"Yes." Asher Hawn replied without hesitation.

"I'll go with you." Nana stepped forward and said to Clark, "Lindt, please bring me a parachute."

"This..." Clark looked at Asher Hawn hesitantly.

Asher Hawn frowned. "Miss Yu, this is very dangerous."

"I'm not afraid of danger, as long as I can find Nora Smith." Nana looked firm. "Asher, I'm as worried about Nora Smith as you are. You should understand my feelings."

Asher Hawn had a moment's dazed stare blankly.

Who's Nana?

She is the head of the famous leo studio.

Why does she care so much about Nora Smith?

There is no doubt that Nana and Nora Smith have a strong relationship, but Nana can go deep into danger for Nora Smith, and this friendship is by no means unusual.

Nora Smith... what else does he not know?

Now is not the time to think about this. Asher Hawn thought for a few seconds and nodded. "Then be careful."

He looked at Clark again and ordered, "Bring a parachute to Miss Yu again."

"Yes, President." Clark said yes.

Tang Ruoying looked down through the window. "Asher, do you really want to parachute?"

"Yes." Asher Hawn looked slightly heavy.

At the moment, the wind is getting smaller, and the snowstorm has a tendency to stop.

Clark handed Nana his parachute and said to Asher Hawn, "President, the wind and snow will stop soon.

Then we can land directly. Moreover, as soon as the wind and snow stop, the search and rescue team and the people we brought can directly enter the mountain forest for carpet search. "

"I'll go down first, and you will come as soon as the wind and snow stop!" Asher Hawn couldn't wait for a moment.

He must go down at once, Nora Smith can't afford to wait!

If he went down to look for Nora Smith a moment earlier, Nora Smith would have a better chance of survival.

When the words fell, Asher Hawn turned around, jumped directly from the engine room, and opened the umbrella in one go.

Nana jumped after Asher Hawn.

"Asher, you must be careful!" Tang Ruoying clasped his hands and shouted.

She looked at the back of Asher Hawn's firm jump, and her heart sank little by little.

Does Nora Smith have such an important position in Asher Hawn's mind?

For her sake, Asher Hawn can take risks and go into the mountains covered by snowstorms alone to find Nora Smith.

She wants to follow the past, but she can jump from such a high place.

Tang Ruoying really doesn't have the courage...

Cave.

Nora Smith sat on a big stone, hungry and thirsty.

Looking down at her cell phone, she has been trapped here for 36 hours.

Nora Smith tried to call Nana, but as expected, there was no signal.

The necklace that Grandpa gave her for help also fell into the sea during the crash.

Otherwise, she can ask grandpa for help with a necklace.

But now, she can do nothing but wait in the dark cave.

Nora Smith was worried that Nana would find the distress signal she left behind.

It would be bad if the red scarf was blown away by the wind or covered with heavy snow.

If no one finds the distress signal she left...

Nora Smith rubbed his eyebrows, took out a bag of cookies from his backpack and ate some pieces.

There is not much food left, and it won't last for a few days.

If no one comes to save her... I'm afraid she will confess here.

Nora Smith decided that she couldn't sit back and eat her cookies and refill her energy. She walked to the cave entrance.

Heavy snow sealed the hole.

Nora Smith pushed hard, it didn't work!

In such a low temperature, the heavy snow has already condensed into ice, and she can't push it by herself.

Nora Smith gave a wry smile.

If you want to wait for such thick snow to melt, you will have to wait until next spring.

At that time, I'm afraid she can't support it any longer.

Thinking of this, Nora Smith's heart was so heavy that she could only return to the cave and look around again, hoping to find other exits.

Unfortunately, contrary to expectations, Nora Smith searched the cave and found no other exit.

Now, she can only wait...

I hope Nana can find the distress signal she left as soon as possible.

She will never give up until the last minute.

In my mind, inexplicably, Asher Hawn's handsome face appeared again.

"Nora Smith, don't worry, I'll protect you."

"Nora Smith, you'll be fine with me."

The words he had once said to her lingered in Nora Smith's ears again for a long time.

She closed her eyes.

A stuffy and uncomfortable panic in my heart.

Asher Hawn, I'm in danger now, you know?

Where are you?

Will you protect me again? Chapter 186 - 183 Nora Smith, I'm Coming

Asher Hawn jumped from the helicopter without hesitation and landed slowly.

This is his second skydiving.

On the previous occasion, I danced with Nora Smith.

Although the situation was critical at that time, he and Nora Smith almost narrowly escaped death, but at that time, Asher Hawn was leisurely and even happy.

Because at that time, Nora Smith was always by his side.

Nora Smith told him that she promised his pursuit and that she was willing to accept him.

From now on, they will live and die together.

This time, Asher Hawn's heart is only worried, nervous and panic ... All kinds of negative emotions are intertwined in every cell of his body.

He was afraid.

He was afraid that something would happen to Nora Smith.

He was afraid that he would never see Nora Smith again.

Asher Hawn narrowed his eyes, bowed his head, and his deep eyes looked closely at the boundless white below.

Nora Smith, where the hell are you?

Nora Smith, I'm coming!

Nora Smith, you must stick to it!!

A few minutes later, Asher Hawn landed slowly in the mountains.

He folded up his parachute and put it aside.

Nana followed closely and landed.

She didn't stand firm, slipped and fell heavily to the ground.

Asher Hawn hurried past, held Nana, look light and asked, "Miss Yu, are you all right?"

Nana stood up, patted the snow on his body, shook his head and said, "I'm fine. Let's hurry to find Nora Smith."

"Hmm." Asher Hawn answered and looked around and observed the terrain.

Their current location is the only way from a small mountain village to Yubi Peak.

According to the time when Nora Smith entered the mountains that day, she should have walked through here.

Unfortunately, the heavy snow covered everything and left no trace.

"We search from here in the direction of Yubi Peak, and Nora Smith should be in this area." Asher Hawn thought for a moment and then sank.

"Good." Nana nodded. She agreed with Asher Hawn's analysis.

"Now the wind and snow have basically stopped. I believe that it won't be long before Clark and the search and rescue team will come." Asher Hawn added, in a cold and firm tone. "As long as we don't let go of every place, we will definitely find Nora Smith."

Asher Hawn's words refreshed Nana.

He is right, many people have great strength. When the wind and snow stop, everyone will come in to search and rescue. As long as they search every place, they will definitely find Nora Smith!

"Nora Smith! Nora Smith! Where are you?" Asher Hawn and Nana shouted as they walked on, "Nora Smith, you must promise me!"

At this moment, Asher Hawn wished Nora Smith could hear his voice and answer him.

Unfortunately, when he walked all the way, only his own reply answered him.

Because of the avalanche, the road was covered with thick snow to Nana's thighs, and every step was extremely difficult.

She clenched her teeth and followed Asher Hawn.

Asher Hawn looked back, see in Na that difficult appearance, frowned and said, "Miss Yu, you step on my footprints, so you will walk more easily."

Nana nodded, stepping on Asher Hawn's footprints step by step, and it was a lot easier.

Looking at Asher Hawn like this, he is still very concerned and nervous about Nora Smith.

I really don't know why, the two of them want to be like this.

"Miss Yu, are you all right?" Asher Hawn saw Yu Na stupidly and stopped.

"I'm fine, let's go." Nana recovered, fearing that he was dragging his feet, and quickened his pace.

They went on all the way, and walked on for a long time until it was getting dark, and there was no sign of Nora Smith.

"Asher, do you think Nora Smith... is going to be all right?" Nana's voice brought some tears.

She was really scared.

If they couldn't see clearly from the helicopter before, now they have carefully searched for the road that Nora Smith has traveled, but they still find nothing.

Unless Nora Smith is not going this way, it will be buried by heavy snow.

Otherwise, it's impossible not to find it.

Nana was afraid to think further.

"No! Nora Smith will be all right!" Asher Hawn was livid and firm in tone.

His face is as cold as ever.

There is a sense of powerlessness that has never been seen before, and it has spread all over Asher Hawn.

He has tried his best, but there is still no news from Nora Smith.

But in any case, even if it is difficult, he will not give up!

Because Asher Hawn firmly believes that Nora Smith is still alive!

She must still be somewhere, waiting for him to save her.

"Let's go back. Maybe Nora Smith is not going this way." Asher Hawn frowned.

"However, this is the only way to Yubi Peak." Nana said with some collapse, "Nora Smith will definitely go this way when he goes to find the master."

"Maybe she got lost and went in another direction." Asher Hawn's eyebrows chugged a few times.

"It won't. Nora Smith is a very organized person. She carries a compass and won't get lost, let alone go to other roads." Nana shook his head.

They have searched all over the road now, but there is no sign of Nora

Smith. Then Nora Smith...

Even though Asher Hawn knew what Nana said was true, he just didn't want to believe that Nora Smith would be buried in heavy snow.

"Let's look for it again!" Asher Hawn said coldly that he would find

Nora Smith anyway today!

Nana nodded and followed Asher Hawn.

Just as they were returning, they met Clark with a large number of people.

Asher Hawn walked quickly over. "Well, have you heard from Nora Smith?"

Clark replied with a gloomy look, "No."

"Even if I turn the whole mountain over, I will find Nora Smith!" Asher Hawn's deep eyes sparkled with incomparable firmness.

"Asher, it's getting dark. Why don't we go back and have a rest first and come to Nora tomorrow?" Tang Ruoying came along with Clark, and she spoke trembling.

What a broken place? The conditions are so bad that she is almost turned into a popsicle.

If it weren't for Asher Hawn, Tang Ruoying wouldn't want to stay for a moment.

"Mia, why are you here?" Asher Hawn was slightly surprised to see

Tang Ruoying.

Tang Ruoying walked up to Asher Hawn, shivering beside Asher Hawn, and spoke with some shyness. "Asher, people are worried about you and Nora."

Nana didn't want to see Tang Ruoying's pretentious appearance and urged, "Asher, there are so many people now, let's go to Nora Smith quickly!"

Tang Ruoying glared at Nana, "Miss Yu, I understand your mood now.

Of course we are going to find Nora, but have you ever heard that haste makes waste?

Now that everyone is so tired, it's better to have a rest and eat first, so that they can have better energy to find Nora, Asher. Don't you think so?

Chapter 187 - 184 That's Nora Smith's Scarf

Tang Ruoying's words, even Nana inexplicably feel very reasonable.

But Asher Hawn's face sank. "Let's keep looking."

He can't wait because Nora Smith can't.

One more minute wasted, one more minute in danger for Nora Smith!

So, tired as he was, Asher Hawn didn't want to stop for a moment at the thought that Nora Smith's life and death were still unknown.

"This way. We divided into four groups and went to search and rescue in four different directions." Asher Hawn said thoughtfully.

The area of this mountain forest is not small, so he must ensure that every inch is not missed.

"Asher, I'm with you." Tang Ruoying took Asher Hawn and clung to him like candy.

She hoped that she would never find Nora Smith.

Even if Nora Smith hadn't been crushed to death by heavy snow, he would have starved to death for so long.

Asher Hawn nodded faintly. "Mia, it's dangerous here. You should follow me carefully."

Tang Ruoying warmed her heart, raised her lips and showed a smile that she thought was the most charming. "Asher, you are so kind to me."

Four teams are searching for Nora Smith in different directions, and Asher Hawn and Nana are searching again on the road where Nora Smith is most likely to be.

With the addition of Clark and others, they searched more carefully.

It's getting dark.

There is still no news from Nora Smith.

"Asher, I'm afraid." Tang Ruoying looked up and looked around. It was dark.

She couldn't help shivering and leaned against Asher Hawn's arms. "Will there be any beasts?"

Asher Hawn's heart suddenly fluttered.

The Beast ...

He had never thought before whether Nora Smith would meet the beast.

If you meet a beast...

Asher Hawn's ugly face suddenly darkened.

A black suit, almost integrated with the night.

"You can rest assured that there are no beasts here." A local villager, who came to search and rescue with Clark, quickly said, "There are only some small animals, which will not pose a threat to people."

Asher Hawn breathed a slight sigh of relief.

"But now it's so dark, and the efficiency of search and rescue is not high. Why don't we go back to the village first and come back early tomorrow morning?" The villager tentatively asked.

"This big brother is right." Tang Ruoying was busy with his approval. "It's dark, you can't see anything. How to find someone? It's better to have a good rest tonight, recharge your batteries, and have better energy to search and rescue tomorrow."

"Continue to search and rescue, don't stop!" Asher Hawn's face sank and his tone could not be resisted.

At this moment, there is only one belief in his heart. He wants to find Nora Smith and find her as soon as possible!

Asher Hawn spoke, and the rest silenced.

If Tang Ruoying doesn't want to, he can only follow Asher Hawn, one foot deep and one foot shallow.

One night, nothing.

The East gradually revealed the white of fish belly, and the long-lost sun finally poked out its head.

"It's fine!" Clark gave a cry of excitement.

"Great, when the sun comes out, the ice and snow will melt, and our chances of finding Nora Smith are much greater." Nana also showed a smile.

Asher Hawn's face was still condensed.

Although the weather has cleared up, the temperature is still very low.

The snow and ice will melt for several days. Nora Smith doesn't have much food with her. She can't support it for so long.

After continuous search and rescue, everyone was exhausted, but Asher Hawn persisted.

"Asher, I, I can't... I'm so tired..." Tang Ruoying tugged at Asher Hawn's arm and pitifully opened his mouth.

Asher Hawn looked sideways at her. "Mia, hold on a little longer. Or you go back first."

"No, I want to be with you." Tang Ruoying shook his head and refused.

At this moment, the other three groups of people also searched and returned.

"How is it?" Asher Hawn eyes flashed, eager to open his mouth.

The leaders of the three groups shook their heads. "Sorry, Asher, I didn't find anything."

Asher Hawn's knife-shaped eyebrows frowned tightly. "Why don't you keep looking if you can't find it?"

The captain of the search and rescue team spoke carefully. "Asher, we have searched the whole mountain, but... you'd better prepare for the worst, Nora. She may have..."

Before the captain's words were finished, Asher Hawn interrupted him coldly. "Impossible!"

Nora Smith can't have an accident!

Nora Smith must still be alive!!

Asher Hawn's eyes were red and bloodshot, and she lost her mind. "I repeat, Nora Smith, she's fine! She must still be alive, waiting for us to save him somewhere! No one is allowed to give up!!"

"President, we won't give up." Clark stepped forward and said.

He has never seen his own president collapse like this.

If anything really happened to Nora... Clark was afraid to think further.

It's afternoon again.

The afternoon sun is particularly dazzling.

The wind blew through the leaves, and the snow fell down.

"Nora Smith, Nora Smith! Where are you?" Asher Hawn shouted again and again, but despaired again and again.

Nora Smith, where the hell are you?

Can you promise him!

Wait a minute ...

What is the red fluttering in the tree in the distance?

Asher Hawn stepped, narrowed his eyes slightly, blocked the sun with his hands, and looked out.

"What's the matter with you, Asher?" See Asher Hawn suddenly stopped, and Tang Ruoying, who has been following him, asked curiously.

Asher Hawn's heart jumped fast.

His slender fingers pointed to the looming red on the distant treetops.

"Look, what is that?"

Looking in the direction indicated by Asher Hawn, Nana saw what seemed to be a red thing tied to the big tree, which looked familiar.

"That's like Nora Smith's!" Nana's voice was very excited and he ran away towards the big tree.

If she didn't admit her mistake, it seemed to be the scarf worn by Nora

Smith on the day he disappeared!

Nora Smith!

Asher Hawn looked fiercely, took his long legs and galloped all the way.

When he reached the bottom of the tree, he saw clearly that it was a red scarf, which was tied high in the top of the tree.

"It's Nora Smith's! This is Nora Smith's scarf!" Nana remembers very well that when Nora Smith entered the mountains that day, it was this red scarf around his neck!

She said excitedly, "It must be the distress signal left by Nora Smith!"

"Yes, Nora Smith left it!" The hope of joy rose in my heart, and Asher

Hawn sank. "Since Nora Smith left us a distress signal, she must be around here. Let's look everywhere!"

"But it doesn't look like anyone here." Tang Ruoying bit his lip and poured cold water on Asher Hawn. "You can see the end at a glance.

Where are there people? Unless.... it is under heavy snow." Chapter

188 - 185 Finding Nora Smith

"No, Nora Smith must be not far from us!" Asher Hawn's tone was affirmative.

He had a hunch that he would see Nora Smith soon and save her!

Looking up again at the red scarf fluttering in the wind, Asher Hawn felt a little annoyed.

Nora Smith has left such an obvious distress signal. Why didn't he find out earlier?

What happened to Nora Smith at that time must have been very critical. She left a distress signal, hoping that he would come to save her.

However, it took him so long to find him. It had been forty-eight hours since Nora Smith disappeared.

He can't wait any longer!

"How did we find Nora Smith's distress signal?" Nana is also infinitely annoyed.

"This scarf must have been covered with heavy snow before, so we can't see it." Clark analyzed, "This morning, the sun came out, the snow began to melt slowly, and there was a strong wind just now, so this scarf was exposed."

"You have a point." Asher Hawn nodded approvingly.

But-where on earth is Nora Smith?

Asher Hawn's knife-shaped eyebrows were locked, and his deep eyes looked at the villagers who came together to help search and rescue. "Think about it, is there any place to hide around here?"

"Ah, I remember!" One of the villagers said excitedly, "Just beside this road, there is a cave. When I went into the mountains to collect herbs last summer, I went in to see it."

Cave!

That's great!

Nora Smith must have hid in a cave!

Asher Hawn asked eagerly, "Where is the cave?"

"It should be around here." The villager scratched his head. "Where is it... I don't remember."

Shit!

Asher Hawn secretly scolded, do you want to drop the chain at the critical moment?

However, now it's finally coming to fruition.

There is a good chance that Nora Smith left a distress signal just before the avalanche and then hid in the cave.

The villagers carefully recalled their heads for a few seconds, and then pointed to the right. "The general direction should be there."

Before the villagers' voice fell, Asher Hawn couldn't wait to run in the direction he pointed out.

"Nora Smith, Nora Smith! Are you here?! Nora Smith! Answer me quickly!!" Asher Hawn shouted loudly.

After a pause, he turned to Clark and told him, "Come here quickly and dig up the snow here!"

In the cave.

Nora Smith is leaning on the cave wall, closing his eyes and saving his strength.

Vaguely, she seemed to hear a magnetic voice.

Very ethereal, very nihilistic.

It doesn't sound real.

However, it is so familiar.

It's like... Asher Hawn's voice!

Nora Smith woke up with a start. She walked quickly to the hole and listened carefully.

"Nora Smith, Nora Smith! Where are you!"

It's really Asher Hawn!

Asher Hawn is coming to save her!

Endless joy spread in Nora Smith's mind.

Her voice trembled. "Asher Hawn, is that you?"

Trapped in the cave for two whole days, her voice was a little hoarse.

"Asher Hawn, I'm here!" Nora Smith tried hard to raise his voice, but he was a little overwhelmed.

What to do?

She must inform Asher Hawn as soon as possible that she is here.

Nora Smith took a deep breath to calm himself down.

Looking down at the mobile phone in his hand, Nora Smith turned on the mobile phone, turned the volume to the maximum, and played music.

I hope Asher Hawn can hear me.

Asher Hawn, who was looking around for the cave, suddenly heard music coming through the snow.

Although the voice was very low, he heard it.

Big big world, that's Nora Smith's favorite song!

"Nora Smith, it's Nora Smith!!" Asher Hawn's deep eyes churned with infinite joy, and turned back and shouted, "Come here, all of you, Nora Smith is here!"

"Dig up the snow!" Asher Hawn coldly commanded all humanity.

He seemed to have endless energy all over his body, and his hands kept digging for snow.

Big hands were red with cold, but Asher Hawn was oblivious.

All he knows is that at this moment, Nora Smith is on the other side of the snow.

She was stuck in the cave by snow.

Between him and her, very close, very close... only one step away.

Everyone else came up and, together with Asher Hawn, dug up the snow little by little with both hands.

The singing from the mobile phone is getting clearer and clearer.

"Nora Smith, I'm coming! You hold on, you must hold on!" Asher Hawn said in a heavy mouth in the direction of singing.

Inside the cave, Nora Smith clearly heard Asher Hawn's voice.

My heart jerked and slowed down by half a beat.

Nora Smith's heartstrings, which had been tense for two days, relaxed slightly.

She was saved.

Asher Hawn is coming to save her!

"Hurry up, you dig faster!" Asher Hawn can't wait to see Nora Smith.

"President, this won't work, the efficiency is too low." Clark felt only that his hands were frozen stiff, and the snowdrift at the entrance of the cave remained unchanged.

After a pause, he asked Asher Hawn for instructions. "How about this?

I'll take people to the village to get some tools first."

"Don't go quickly!" Asher Hawn glanced at him with cold eyes.

Concern is chaotic. He didn't think of getting tools first, but used the most primitive way to save Nora Smith.

Clark quickly returned to the village with several villagers, while Asher

Hawn kept digging the snow with both hands.

"Asher, take a break and wait for Lint to help them bring their tools."

Tang Ruoying spoke aside.

In Tang Ruoying's eyes, there flashed a touch of yin.

Nora Smith is not dead!

She won't die in an avalanche!

Looking at Asher Hawn's appearance of doing everything for Nora

Smith, Tang Ruoying beat his hands on both sides of his body and clenched his fists tightly.

She won't let Nora Smith take Asher Hawn away!

"Mia, you go and rest first." Asher Hawn's tone was somewhat impatient.

At this moment, the only thing in his heart is to save Nora Smith as soon as possible!

Soon, Clark and the villagers came back with shovels and other tools.

"President, use this!"

With tools, the speed is much faster.

About an hour later, the snowdrift was finally cleared out of a hole.

Strong eyes shone in through the hole, which made Nora Smith dazzling.

She squinted and it took her a while to get used to the outside light.

When you open your eyes again, you are greeted by Asher Hawn's tall and straight figure, which is so familiar.

It's Asher Hawn, it's really Asher Hawn!

Even though he was in the cave just now, Nora Smith knew Asher Hawn was outside and he was trying to save her.

But at this moment, when I really saw Asher Hawn's long and straight figure standing in front of me, Nora Smith rubbed his eyes in disbelief.

His eyes were red and there was a mist in front of him.. Nora Smith sipped his dry lips and his voice trembled. "Asher Hawn, is it really you?" Chapter 189 - 186 Miss Tang, I Can Cure This Disease

Nora Smith looked at the tall and familiar figure in front of him, as if he had lived away.

"Nora Smith, it's me!" Asher Hawn hooked his lips, and his magnetic voice hit the floor.

He raised his eyebrows, deep eyes, and stared at the woman in front of him.

I haven't seen you for a few days, but Nora Smith has lost a lot of weight.

Her white face was now very pale because she had not seen the sun for several days in the cave.

Beautiful eyes slightly red, Ying Ying tears in the eyes flash, but strong not to let it fall.

In the wind, Nora Smith's thin body seemed to be blown away at any moment.

Long legs a step, Asher Hawn stood in front of Nora Smith, did not hesitate to stretch out slender arms, will her tightly embrace into the arms.

Once again and Asher Hawn tightly embrace, his embrace is still so warm, broad, still so let Shu emotion to inexplicable peace of mind.

Heart, banging fast up, like a fawn bump.

There are thousands of words in my heart, but I don't know how to speak.

How did Asher Hawn suddenly appear here?

Why would he come to save her?

He is willing to come and save her. Is it because Howard fell ill... He has forgiven her?

My heart turned a thousand times, and Nora Smith opened his mouth. "I'm not dreaming, am I?"

"Of course not." Asher Hawn hugged Nora Smith tightly and whispered in her ear, "Nora Smith, I finally found you. Do you know how worried I am about you?"

Feeling the scorching temperature from the man in front of him, Nora Smith's pale face flushed.

His temperature, so familiar, so real.

It's really Asher Hawn!

He saved her.

When she was almost desperate, he appeared before her like a god's house and saved her.

"Asher Hawn, how did you know I was here?" Nora Smith sipped his lips and looked up at him. "I thought I'd never see you again..."

"No." Asher Hawn raised her eyebrows, and her deep eyes fell on her face.

Eyes and lights are intertwined, and thousands of words are uttered without saying anything.

Asher Hawn's hands took her face, bowed her head slightly, turned her lips towards Nora Smith's, and kissed it slowly.

Looking at the familiar handsome face, I kept enlarging it in front of her, and then enlarging it... Nora Smith's face suddenly burned.

"Asher!" Just when Asher Hawn was about to kiss Nora Smith, Tang Ruoying's voice, which ruined the scenery, came.

Asher?

It's Tang Ruoying's voice!

Why is Tang Ruoying here?

Nora Smith's heart tightened little by little.

She gently pushed away Asher Hawn, looking back, only to see Tang Ruoying expressionless towards her.

Tang Ruoying looked at the dazzling scene in front of her, and her whole body was burning with jealousy.

I thought Nora Smith was buried in an avalanche long ago, but I didn't expect Asher Hawn to find Nora Smith!

So he can find it!

Besides, Nora Smith is not dead yet!

Not only did he not die, but he couldn't wait to seduce Asher Hawn as soon as he saw him!

It took a lot of effort for Tang Ruoying to suppress her jealousy and walk quickly to Asher Hawn's side.

She pulled Asher Hawn's sleeve and forcibly stood between Asher Hawn and Nora Smith. "Asher, I wish Nora were fine. Now you don't have to worry. As long as Nora finds Master Qi, Mr. Huo will be saved."

Tang Ruoying's words imply that Asher Hawn was forced to save Nora

Smith because he wanted to find the master.

Asher Hawn recovered and nodded faintly. "Mia, you have worked hard all the way."

"Asher, as long as I can help you, what is my hard work? I am willing to give everything for you." Tang Ruoying's amorous eyes fell on Asher

Hawn. "I know you are the same. You once said that you are willing to do anything for me."

Asher Hawn frowned. "Mia, don't talk about it."

He looked at Nora Smith again, with concern in his tone. "Nora Smith, you must be very tired after being trapped for so long. Why don't we go back and rest first..."

Asher Hawn's words haven't finished yet, and suddenly Tang Ruoying fell down on him, and his voice was as weak as a thread. "Asher, I feel so uncomfortable..."

"What's the matter with you, Mia Mia?" Asher Hawn heart a surprised, subconsciously hold Tang Ruoying.

I saw Tang Ruoying cold, pale, eyebrows closed, fainted.

"Mia!" Asher Hawn hugged Tang Ruoying, and her eyes flashed with tension and worry.

"Asher, Miss Tang probably fainted because she was too tired and not used to the low temperature." Clark began.

"Where is the nearest hospital here?" Asher Hawn asked coldly.

A villager stepped forward. "There is no hospital in the village, and the nearest one is in the county seat. Now that the snow is closed, I am afraid that the ambulance will not pass."

Looking at Tang Ruoying in a coma, somehow, Asher Hawn suddenly remembered the scene when he and Mia were locked up in a small black room.

He couldn't save Mia in those days, but now he must not let Mia have an accident again.

Asher Hawn mused, "Clark, get in touch with the helicopter and fly Mia to the hospital as soon as possible."

"Yes, President." Clark replied respectfully.

Looking at Asher Hawn holding Tang Ruoying's nervous appearance, at this moment, Nora Smith's mood seemed to fall from heaven to hell.

Asher Hawn's greatest concern is always Mia.

She had just had a narrow escape and almost died in this avalanche.

And what he is holding now is Tang Ruoying.

"Nora Smith." Nana walked up to Nora Smith and patted her on the shoulder.

Nora Smith recovered and smiled acerbally. "I'm fine."

Nana toward the direction of Tang Ruoying Nu Nuzui, lowered his voice in Nora Smith's ear and asked, "Is she really dizzy?"

Nora Smith's lips raised a touch of irony, walked to Asher Hawn in a few steps, looked down at Tang Ruoying in his arms, and said faintly, "Asher Hawn, get out of the way and let me see her."

Asher Hawn looked up at Nora Smith and promised, "Well, look at Mia."

He almost forgot that Nora Smith is a doctor.

Nora Smith squatted down and reached out to catch Tang Ruoying's pulse.

Her pulse is calm and soothing, and there is nothing wrong with it.

It was faked.

"How is it?" Asher Hawn could not help but ask when he saw that Nora

Smith had not made any noise for a long time.

Nora Smith smiled coldly and ignored Asher Hawn. He just shouted

Clark, who was rushing to the mountain village. "Lint, don't bother. I can cure Miss Tang's disease."

Clark took a step and looked at Asher Hawn with his eyes for instructions.

Asher Hawn asked. "What's wrong with Mia?"

"She's okay." Nora Smith spoke with a faint look.

The next second, Nora Smith eyes color a cold, directly waved his right hand, a punch to Tang Ruoying's chest heavy hit up. Chapter 190 -

187 The Complicated Quadrilateral Love

The punch came so suddenly that everyone didn't react, including Asher Hawn.

Nora Smith only used three parts, so Rao, Tang Ruoying still trembled with pain and couldn't help shouting, "Ah!"

"Doesn't this wake up?" Nora Smith clapped his hands and stood up.

Tang Ruoying's face was green and white, and she stared at Nora Smith.

"Nora Smith, why did you hit me!"

Nora Smith condescending to look at Tang Ruoying, sarcastic opening said, "Tang Ruoying, you are not dizzy? How do you know I hit you?"

Anyone with a little common sense knows that it is impossible for a person who is unconscious to feel pain.

And Tang Ruoying got a punch, and there was such a big movement, which only showed that she didn't really faint just now.

See Asher Hawn looked at her eyes light with a few minutes of examination, Tang Ruoying busy wronged Baba's mouth, "Asher, did I just faint? I suddenly lost consciousness, what don't know. Then woke up by Nora to hit, good pain ah!

Nora, why would she do this to me?

I have been searching with you for so long to save her, and it is freezing and starving, and I, I am dying. Nora was finally saved. Is this how she treated me? "

Asher Hawn was speechless for a moment, and Tang Ruoying was always with him, looking for Nora Smith with him.

He also did not think that Nora Smith's so-called treatment is to give Tang Ruoying such a punch.

Seeing Tang Ruoying's appearance of Bai Lianhua, Nora Smith couldn't help retorting, "Miss Tang, you are wrong to say so. When did I hit you?

I'm just helping you with your illness. Don't you think you are in high spirits now? You followed Asher Hawn to save me, and now I have saved you once, even. "

Say that finish, Nora Smith ignored Tang Ruoying and took Nana's hand. "Nana, let's find uncle."

Nana was surprised. "Don't you go back and have a rest first?"

After all, Nora Smith has just been saved and trapped in the cave for two whole days. Now she looks haggard.

Nora Smith shook his head. "I want to find Uncle Qi as soon as possible."

Anyway, Nora Smith wants to find Uncle Qi as soon as possible and ask him to treat Howard as soon as possible.

"Nora Smith, I'll go with you." Asher Hawn suddenly sank his voice.

Before Nora Smith could speak, Tang Ruoying grabbed Asher Hawn.

She covered her chest. "Asher, don't go, I'm in pain. I was beaten by

Nora Smith."

Asher Hawn frowned. "Mia, I'll let Clark send you back first. When I find Master Qi, I will find you."

See Asher Hawn insisted on going to find the master with Nora Smith,

Tang Ruoying's eyes flashed a touch of yin.

She pulled Asher Hawn dead, tears welling up, delicate and touching.

"Asher, you once said that you would protect me all your life, you said that you would love me forever, and now you can leave me alone..."

All these words fell into Nora Smith's ears, and they were so harsh.

Asher Hawn once said to her,

"Nora Smith, don't be afraid, I will protect you with me."

"Nora Smith, I love you and I will make you the happiest woman in the world."

But in this case, he also told Mia.

Taking a deep breath, Nora Smith drove away all the uncomfortable emotions in his heart and looked sideways at Nana. "Nana, let's go!"

Nora Smith took Nana and turned away.

Eyes light closely staring at the back of Nora Smith's indifferent departure, Asher Hawn said to Tang Ruoying with some absent-minded openings, "Mia, you are obedient, and go back with Lint first."

"Asher!" Tang Ruoying clenched his fists tightly.

Nora Smith, it's Nora Smith again!

Why?

Why does Asher Hawn care so much about Nora Smith!

In Tang Ruoying's jealous eyes, Asher Hawn caught up with Nora Smith and said in a heavy voice, "Nora Smith, I will go with you to find the master."

Nora Smith footsteps a meal, look back at him faintly, "No need. Uncle Qi, he doesn't like to see strangers. You'd better go with your Mia."

"Nora Smith, me and Mia..." Asher Hawn was about to explain when an eager male voice came from a distance.

"Nora Smith!"

This voice...

Nora Smith followed the voice and saw Julian Spencer coming towards her in a hurry.

"Julian Spencer, why are you here?" Nora Smith said in surprise.

Julian Spencer came up quickly. "I didn't know something had happened to you until I saw the news. Why are you so stupid? Why didn't you tell me?"

Before Nora Smith suddenly left with Nana, Julian Spencer didn't know where Nora Smith had gone.

Later, when I saw the news, I realized that something had happened to Nora Smith, and Julian Spencer rushed over at the first time.

Unexpectedly, he was still a step late and let Asher Hawn save Nora Smith first.

Nora Smith thought about it and laughed. "I didn't want you to worry, so I didn't tell you."

After a pause, Nora Smith added, "Julian Spencer, I'm fine. Now let's go find Master Qi. You go home first."

Julian Spencer's eyes fell tightly on Nora Smith's face. "Nora Smith, I'll go with you."

After a moment's thought, Nora Smith nodded. "Let's go!"

Asher Hawn's handsome face suddenly sank.

Just now, Nora Smith refused Master Qi to go with him on the grounds that he didn't like to meet strangers.

But now, she asked Julian Spencer to go with her?

The implication is that he is a stranger, but Julian Spencer is not??

Nora Smith, Nana and Julian Spencer walked together in the direction of Yubi Peak.

"Nora Smith, why are you so foolish to come here alone, and why don't you tell me and let me accompany you?" Julian Spencer had a lingering fear at the thought that Nora Smith almost died in an avalanche.

Before Nora Smith could speak, Nana twisted his eyebrows and said,
"Shen Da, Nora Smith has just escaped from danger. Can you make her quiet?"

"I'm sorry, Nora Smith." Julian Spencer was dazed and quieted down.

Nana still thought about what happened just now. "Nora Smith, you should actually let Asher Hawn go with you."

"Why?" Nora Smith sipped his lips.

Nana sighed lightly. "Can't you see that he cares about you very much?

Also, Tang Ruoying knows his thoughts well. Aren't you pushing Asher

Hawn into her arms?"

Nora Smith knew this truth in his heart, but as long as he thought of what Tang Ruoying said and the way Asher Hawn was nervous about Tang Ruoying just now, Nora Smith's heart was blocked and panicked.

"You, don't turn Asher Hawn away for a moment." Nana said that some people hate iron and fail to produce steel.

Julian Spencer was not calm. "Nana, what did you say? Asher Hawn's favorite person is Mia, so don't take part in it."

Nana knows that Julian Spencer likes Nora Smith, but Nora Smith likes

Asher Hawn, and now he adds a Tang Ruoying...

For this complicated quadrangular love relationship, Nana can only shake his head helplessly. Chapter 191 - 188 Have You Met My Parents?

The three men went all the way. At the moment, the ice and snow had not completely melted, and they stumbled all the way. Nora Smith walked particularly hard.

"If I had known this, I should have let Asher Hawn send us by helicopter."
Nana still has some worries.

Instead of letting Tang Ruoying pester Asher Hawn, it is better for him to send them to find the master.

After all, the purpose of finding the master is to save Howard.

Asher Hawn, it's his duty to send them here.

Nora Smith's face stiffened and he twisted his eyebrows and looked around. "It should be around here."

"Are you sure?" Nana said doubtfully, "There is snow everywhere, and it is deserted. It doesn't look like people."

"According to what Liu Jie said before, you can't go wrong here." Nora Smith paused.

Julian Spencer, who had been silent, suddenly sank his voice and pointed to the front. "Nora Smith, is this it?"

As Julian Spencer pointed out, behind the dense forest not far away, there is a log cabin looming.

Through the woods, there is a hole at the other end of the woods.

"It should be here!" Nora Smith's tone was somewhat excited.

She stepped forward and knocked on the door. "Is anyone here?"

No response.

"Could there be a mistake, not here?" Nana asked worriedly.

Nora Smith's face was heavy, and he continued to knock on the door without giving up. He raised his voice a few minutes. "Is anyone there? Uncle Qi, are you in there?"

After a long time, the wooden door creaked open, and a gray-haired middle-aged man appeared in Nora Smith's sight.

Sword-shaped eyebrows star eyes, a full face of beard, vaguely and memory of Uncle Qi's appearance is very similar, but a lot of old.

It's him!

It's really Uncle Qi!

Howard is saved!

Nora Smith said excitedly, "Uncle Qi, do you still know me?"

"Are you snow?" Qi Yuchu was shocked to narrow his eyes, keeping a close eye on Nora Smith standing at the gate, and muttering to himself with excitement, "A Xue, A Xue..."

Snow??

Who's that?

Nora Smith stunned, "Uncle Qi, don't you know me? I'm Nora Smith."

"Nora Smith?" Qi Yuchu returned to absolute being, and his eyes flashed with disappointment. He said faintly, "It turned out to be you."

"Well, Uncle Qi, do you still remember me? When I was a child, I was seriously ill. You saved me, and later you taught me medical skills." Nora Smith eagerly opened her mouth, for fear that Qi Yuchu had forgotten her.

Qi Yuchu nodded, looked up and down at Nora Smith, and his tone brought some emotion. "You have grown so big, come in and talk about it."

See Qi Yuchu also know themselves, Nora Smith heart a loose, turned to Na and Julian Spencer said, "You wait for me outside."

She knows Uncle Qi's temper and doesn't like to meet strangers.

Nora Smith walked into the cabin, and Qi Yuchu slammed the door shut.

"Sit down." Qi Yuchu pointed to the wooden stool in the room. "How did you know I was here?"

Nora Smith sat down according to his words and said bluntly, "Uncle Qi, in fact, I came to you this time because I wanted to ask you for help."

"Please ask me to cure the disease?" Qi Yuchu guessed Nora Smith's purpose, but refused. "Go back, I won't leave here."

Nora Smith pleaded eagerly, "Uncle Qi, I know my request is abrupt, but Howard's life is dying, and only you can save him. Can you help me?"

"Howard? Are you talking about Howard in The Hawn Goup?" Qi Yuchu's eyebrows puckered lightly.

"Well, Howard and my grandfather are friends of life and death. Uncle Qi, you should look at my grandfather's face and save Howard, will you?" Nora Smith took Qi Yuchu's arm and begged him with words.

After all, she is also responsible for Howard's illness. If Uncle Qi refuses to promise her... she will feel guilty all her life.

Feeling the temperature on Nora Smith's hand, Qi Yuchu's thoughts drifted away.

"Yuchu, you save him, please save him..."

In those days, A Xue took his arm in the same way and begged him to save her sweetheart.

Looking at the face in front of him, which is very similar to Ah Xue, Qi Yuchu sighed lightly, thought for a moment, and finally nodded his head.

"Uncle Qi, did you agree?" Nora Smith's heart was filled with joy.

"Hmm." Qi Yuchu light should a.

"Thank you, Uncle Qi." A big stone in Nora Smith's heart finally fell.

Her lips raised a smile. "Can we get to A City as soon as possible?"

Uncle Qi has been found now. If we get to A City earlier, Howard will be in Allen Su earlier.

"I'll tidy up." Qi Yuchu stood up and took a wooden box in the room and carried it on his back.

Nora Smith knows that it is Qi Yuchu's medicine box.

"Nora Smith, do you remember the old things?" Qi Yuchu suddenly opened his mouth.

What happened before... was it before that serious illness?

Nora Smith eyes dimmed. "Uncle Qi, I don't remember many things when I was a child. Grandpa said it was the sequela left by that illness, is that right?"

"Hmm." Qi Yuchu nodded perfunctorily, "Let's go!"

"Uncle Qi, have you met my parents? What do they look like?" Nora Smith hesitated and asked.

She once asked Grandpa this question, but every time Grandpa either changed the subject or got angry.

So Nora Smith didn't dare to ask again, for fear of causing grandpa to be sad.

Maybe Uncle Qi knows something?

"No. When I went to your house, it was just you and your grandfather." Qi Yuchu's eyes flashed.

His answer disappointed Nora Smith somewhat.

Intuition told Nora Smith that Uncle Qi was hiding something from her.

What on earth is it?

Nora Smith knows Qi Yuchu's temper. If he doesn't want to say it, it's useless for her to ask again.

Forget it, the urgent task now is to hurry back to A City and let Uncle Qi save Howard.

Nora Smith and Qi Yuchu walked out of the wooden house side by side, and Nana and Julian Spencer greeted them.

"This is Uncle Qi." Shu said with a smile, "Uncle Qi, they are my friends, Nana and Julian Spencer."

"Master Qi, I've heard a lot about it." Nana and Julian Spencer admire Qi Yuchu's medical skills.

But Qi Yuchu just gave them a faint look, a pair of love reason ignore the appearance.

Nana and Julian Spencer also heard Nora Smith say that Qi Yuchu's temper was eccentric. They looked at each other and followed Nora Smith silently.

Back to the village, just arrived at the intersection, a tall figure suddenly appeared in front of Nora Smith and stopped her.

Nora Smith frowned. "Asher Hawn, what are you doing?"

"I'm waiting for you." Asher Hawn spoke in a heavy tone.

"Don't worry, I have found Uncle Qi, and he promised to come back to A City with me to save your grandfather.." Nora Smith said with a faint look.

Chapter 192 - 189 Nightmares

Asher Hawn's deep eyes flashed with surprise and fell on the middle-aged man behind Nora Smith.

If he didn't guess wrong, this seemingly unremarkable man should be Master Qi.

Asher Hawn stepped forward with some respect in his tone. "Master Qi, thank you."

Qi Yuchu snorted coldly, "If you want to thank, thank Nora Smith."

Asher Hawn, who has always been high above, was shriveled, and some embarrassed hooked his lips.

The temper of the magic doctor seems to be somewhat strange.

Otherwise, Qi Yuchu's superb medical skills would not hide in this ice and snow for no reason.

When he thought about it, Asher Hawn was relieved. He was worried about Howard's illness. "Nora Smith, it's not too late. Let's start as soon as possible."

Nora Smith nodded gently. "Let's go!"

She also wants to get back to A City as soon as possible and cure Howard as soon as possible.

Asher Hawn took out his mobile phone and was about to call Clark. Suddenly Tang Ruoying came panting and ran straight to Asher Hawn's side. He grabbed his arm and spoke softly, "Asher."

She has long hair and cotton slippers on her feet, and she looks a little embarrassed.

"Mia? What's the matter with you?" Asher Hawn was dazed, her thin lips slightly lifted.

Tang Ruoying glanced at Nora Smith warily, and the little hand holding Asher Hawn's arm tightened a few minutes. "I can't see you when I wake up.

I am looking for you everywhere. It turns out that you are here."

Asher Hawn came out while Tang Ruoying was asleep. Now she looks uneasy and pats her shoulder with her big hand. "Mia and Nora Smith have found Master Qi. Now we have to rush back to A City immediately. You haven't recovered yet. Rest here for a few days first. I will let Clark pick you up in a few days."

"No, Asher, I don't want to stay alone. I'll go back with you." Tang Ruoying's head shook like a rattle.

How can she let Asher Hawn and Nora Smith go together? She won't give Nora Smith any chance to get close to Asher Hawn!

"But your body..." Asher Hawn hesitated.

Tang Ruoying looked at him with tearful eyes and opened his mouth pitifully. "My body is fine, I don't want to stay alone, I will be afraid..."

See Tang Ruoying in front of Asher Hawn that a pair of pretending weak Bai

Lianhua appearance, Nora Smith's face cold cold, impatient urge, "Asher Hawn, you still go?!"

"Go." Asher Hawn looked fiercely.

A group of people flew in the direction of A City in Asher Hawn's private jet.

"Asher Hawn, is your plane all right?" Nana sat in the seat next to Nora Smith and looked around uncomfortably. "Won't be tampered with again to have an accident?"

Nora Smith's narrow escape from falling into the sea before was so thrilling that Nana was scared.

Now sitting on Asher Hawn's private jet, even Nana is going to be afraid of heights.

Asher Hawn sat in the seat in front of Nora Smith and Nana. He looked back, and his deep eyes fell on Nora Smith's face.

Four eyes relative, Nora Smith don't open eyes light.

Asher Hawn handsome face heavy, some gloomy opening, "How, Miss Yu think I am the same mistake will make twice?"

Clark was busy and added, "Miss Yu, you can rest assured that I have been carefully checked. The plane is safe and there will be no problem."

"That would be the best." Nana shrugged.

"Asher, will it really be all right?" Tang Ruoying naturally sat beside Asher Hawn, close to him all the way, sticking to him like a piece of candy.

"Well, nothing." Asher Hawn spoke with a faint look.

Tang Ruoying glanced at the man around him with a curved eyebrow eye and leaned his head against his shoulder. "Asher, do you know that I fell off the cliff that time? Since then, I am most afraid of standing in a high place and flying."

Asher Hawn's heart chugged twice.

Fear of heights, fear of flying... Nora Smith is also afraid of heights.

Mia and Nora Smith are really similar in many places.

Without feeling the strangeness of the men around me, Tang Ruoying continued, "But now that I have you by my side, I am not afraid of anything."

"Hmm." Asher Hawn responded faintly, with some absent-minded openings.

"There are still two hours to get to A City. You should have a good rest first."

The body shivered, and Tang Ruoying suddenly went to Asher Hawn's arms. "Asher, I feel so cold..."

Tang Ruoying clung to him tightly, which made Asher Hawn feel a little uncomfortable.

He gently pushed away Tang Ruoying, took off his suit coat and put it on her. The tone was faint. "It's warmer like this."

Feeling Asher Hawn's alienation from her, Tang Ruoying's face changed slightly. Out of the corner of her eye, she looked at the expressionless Nora Smith in the back seat and raised a clever and satisfied smile. "Asher, you are so kind to me."

This scene fell into Nora Smith's eyes and felt particularly dazzling.

Nora Smith simply closed his eyes, out of sight and out of mind.

In my mind, I can't help but see the scene of the plane crash that day and Asher Hawn came back from France.

In fact, it's only been half a month. Now that I think about it, it seems like a lifetime ago.

At that time, Asher Hawn said those words to her with earnest words, did they have some sincerity?

Xiu's eyebrows frowned tightly, and Nora Smith took a few deep breaths to drive away these inexplicable emotions in his mind.

I don't know, did Asher Hawn find out who was behind the crash?

Is it Jaxson Lambert or not?

If so, why hasn't she heard anything about Jaxson Lambert?

If not, who would it be?

Thinking silently, Nora Smith's eyelids became heavier and heavier, and finally he couldn't support himself and fell asleep.

She slept very uneasily.

In her sleep, she seemed to be locked up in a dark room.

Many people threatened her and beat her.

She wants to struggle, but she can't struggle at all.

The picture suddenly turned, and she stumbled and ran in the mountains.

There are many fierce people chasing her behind.

Seeing that those people were about to catch up with her, Nora Smith ran forward desperately.

But--

In front, there is a cliff...

She looked down, and it was dark and unfathomable.

There is an ambush before and a pursuer after. She has no way out!

Just when Nora Smith was at a loss, a tall woman, stepping on high heels, came towards her with a sneer.

It's Tang Ruoying!

She walked to Nora Smith step by step, her delicate face twisted, and her red lips spoke like a poisonous snake spitting a letter. "Asher is mine, and no one can take it away! Nora Smith, including you!"

Words fall, Tang Ruoying stretched out his hand and pushed Nora Smith down the cliff!

"Ah! Don't!!" The feeling of falling in fear spread all over the body, and Nora Smith exclaimed and woke up suddenly.

Chapter 193 - 190 Magical Acupuncture

Suddenly open your eyes, eyes are the lights on the top of the cabin, and the plane is still flying smoothly.

Nora Smith breathed a long sigh of relief. It turned out to be a nightmare...

"How are you, Nora Smith?" Several concerned voices came at the same time.

Nora Smith clutched his chest, shook his head with fear and said, "Nothing, just a nightmare."

The dream just now, so real.

It's as if it really happened.

Why did she have such a strange dream?

Is it because Tang Ruoying has made you sick these days?

Julian Spencer looked sideways at Nora Smith, who was pale and sweaty.

He distressed to open his mouth, "Nora Smith, your face is very ugly, is it really okay?"

Nora Smith raised a far-fetched smile. "Nothing."

"Let me have a look." Qi Yuchu stood up and walked to Nora Smith.

He bent slightly and put his right index finger on Nora Smith's pulse.

Two minutes later, Qi Yuchu smiled and said, "Nothing, maybe because you are too tired and nervous these days. Just have a rest."

"Hmm." Nora Smith recovered. "Thank you, Uncle Qi."

She was really tired these days. She was trapped in a cave by an avalanche.

After two days of fear, she was rescued and immediately found Qi Yuchu and rushed back to A City.

No matter how good her physical quality is, she can't stand it.

"Give me a glass of lemonade." Asher Hawn suddenly opened his mouth and said to the stewardess in a heavy voice.

"Just a moment, please, Asher." The stewardess said respectfully with a smile on her face.

Soon, she brought lemonade and handed it to Asher Hawn. "Asher, here's your lemonade."

Asher Hawn took the cup, turned and handed it to Nora Smith. "Your favorite lemonade will feel better if you drink a little."

Nora Smith stunned took the cup subconsciously.

Fingertips touched the temperature of Asher Hawn's palm, and Nora

Smith's heart beat half a beat slower.

That familiar feeling... made Nora Smith shake his mind for a moment.

Does Asher Hawn remember that she likes lemonade?

"Asher, I want to drink lemonade, too." Tang Ruoying pulled her hand tightly, and the jealousy in her eyes flashed by, shaking Asher Hawn's arm.

Asher Hawn said to the stewardess with a blank face. "Get another glass of lemonade."

"Thank you, Asher." Tang Ruoying approached Asher Hawn's ear, and where he couldn't see it, he raised a provocative smile at Nora Smith.

Nora Smith got angry and put the lemonade aside.

What she thinks, Tang Ruoying is not like the gentle, kind and understanding little girl in Asher Hawn's mouth.

It seems that she really has to check this Tang Ruoying.

After a long journey of several hours, the plane finally landed slowly at the airport in A City.

"Uncle Qi, let's go to the hospital to see Howard now." As soon as he got off the plane, Nora Smith couldn't wait to get to the hospital.

Qi Yuchu nodded. "Let's go."

Clark had already arranged a car and a group of people rushed to the hospital.

In the ward, Dr. Ni, who received the news, is waiting for them.

Madge Hawn and Ashley Hawn, too, were in the ward, beside Howard.

"Dr. Ni, how is my grandfather?" As soon as Asher Hawn entered the ward, he asked eagerly.

"I'm still the same." Dr. Ni's eyes fell on Qi Yuchu behind Asher Hawn.

"He has been unconscious, but all indicators are normal. Master Qi, come and see him."

Qi Yuchu stepped forward and spoke coldly. "You all go out and wait for me outside."

Asher Hawn's knife-shaped eyebrows frowned.

Although everyone said that Qi Yuchu's medical skills were superb and could be brought back to life, it was only hearsay after all.

He hasn't seen it with his own eyes.

If only he and grandpa are left in the ward, in case something happens...

Just then, Madge Hawn suddenly said coldly, "Let's all go out? How can that be done?"

Madge Hawn looked up and down at Qi Yuchu. "Are you the master Qi?"

Qi Yuchu was expressionless and ignored her.

"Asher, is this man really Master Qi? Can he cure your grandfather?"

Madge Hawn raised his voice a few minutes, and his tone was sharp. "I heard that Nora Smith found it? Don't forget that Nora Smith did this to your grandfather. Can she be so kind to find someone to heal your grandfather?"

"Mrs. Huo, don't talk too much. You can question me, but you must not question Uncle Qi!" Nora Smith didn't expect Madge Hawn to come out like this, so he couldn't help but give tit for tat.

After all kinds of hardships, she finally invited Uncle Qi, but she didn't want Madge Hawn to be messed up.

"Mom, don't say a few words." Asher Hawn saw Qi Yuchu's face was ugly, and he opened his mouth coldly. "We all go out."

Anyway, Master Qi is Grandpa's only hope now.

He is willing to believe Nora Smith and that Qi Yuchu can cure Grandpa.

Madge Hawn's face changed, and Ashley Hawn said, "Cousin, menstruation is right. Grandpa is a proud body. How can such a person be treated?"

"Shut up! Grandpa's business, when is your turn to talk?" Asher Hawn

Jun's face was tight and he let his bodyguard pull Madge Hawn and Ashley Hawn out.

"Master Qi, my grandfather will ask you." Asher Hawn took a deep look at Qi Yuchu and said in a heavy voice.

Then, together with everyone, he turned and walked out of the ward.

Qi Yuchu suddenly opened his mouth, "Nora Smith stays."

Nora Smith took a step. "OK, Uncle Qi."

"No! Nora Smith, you can't go in there." Madge Hawn stopped Nora Smith. "You pest, don't you think you've done us enough harm?!"

Asher Hawn pulled Madge Hawn away with a cold face. "Mom, can you be quiet?"

"Asher, have you forgotten how your grandfather fell ill? Do you want Nora Smith to hurt him again now?" Madge Hawn gave Nora Smith a hard look and tried to stop her again, but Asher Hawn pulled her away.

Nora Smith ignored Madge Hawn, went into the ward and closed the door.

"Well, Uncle Qi, can Howard be cured?" Nora Smith kept a close eye on Qi Yuchu with expectant eyes.

Qi Yuchu pondered for a moment and said, "Yes."

Nora Smith's heart soothed.

She believes in Qi Yuchu's medical skills. Since Uncle Qi said it could be cured, it must be cured.

Qi Yuchu opened the medicine box, which contained a row of silver needles, large and small.

"Uncle Qi, are you going to use acupuncture?" Nora Smith asked.

Before, she thought that acupuncture could be used to treat Howard, but first, she was not sure, and second, she had no chance.

Now, Uncle Qi personally gives acupuncture to Howard, which can definitely cure the disease.

"Yes.." Qi Yuchu nodded, selected several thinnest silver needles, disinfected them with alcohol, and then pricked them forward towards the acupoints in Howard's chest. Chapter 194 - 191 Can Be Handed Over To Nora Smith

Qi Yuchu's technique is superb, his movements are crisp and neat, and a series of movements are like flowing water, which dazzles Nora Smith.

"Nora Smith, do you see clearly?" Qi Yuchu deliberately slowed down his action and looked up at Nora Smith.

"Hmm." Nora Smith nodded and secretly wrote down Qi Yuchu's technique in his heart.

After about half an hour, Qi Yuchu pulled out the silver needles on Howard's chest one by one and took them back into the medicine cabinet.

"Uncle Qi, are you ready?" Nora Smith is still immersed in Qi Yuchu's superb acupuncture technique just now.

"Yes." Qi Yuchu nodded gently and turned to open the door of the ward.

Asher Hawn, who had been waiting outside the door, saw that the ward door was finally opened, and his long legs took a step. He couldn't wait to walk to the hospital bed and asked with concern, "How is my grandfather?"

"The situation in Howard can be cured by acupuncture." Qi Yuchu said slowly, "I have given him acupuncture once just now."

"Then why didn't he respond at all? Are you a quack trying to extort money on purpose?" Madge Hawn asked, looking down at Howard, who was still unconscious in his hospital bed.

Her voice just fell, and Nora Smith's lips raised a sarcastic radian. "Why didn't you respond? Can't you see that Howard's face has improved a lot?"

Asher Hawn looked down, and sure enough, Howard's face was not as pale as before, but faintly ruddy.

It seems that Grandpa's condition has really improved.

Asher Hawn handsome face has been tight lines loose loose, just about to open his mouth to thank, suddenly saw Howard's fingers moved.

"Grandpa, grandpa!" Asher Hawn was happy and took Howard's hand.

Qi Yuchu spoke faintly. "He hasn't woken up so quickly. Howard's condition requires acupuncture at least three times to wake up, and I just gave him an acupuncture."

"Then please ask Master Qi to help my grandfather acupuncture as soon as possible." Asher Hawn spoke eagerly.

He had been waiting for Howard to wake up for a long time, and now there was hope at last.

Qi Yuchu brow a pick, "This matter is not urgent. Every acupuncture needs to be separated by three days. Otherwise, the patient's life will be in danger."

"So..." Asher Hawn smell speech, slightly disappointed.

In other words, Grandpa will have to wake up for at least ten days.

However, the situation is much better now than before.

At least, Grandpa is getting better slowly, and he will wake up after three acupuncture times.

Thought of here, Asher Hawn's tone took a bit of rare ease. "Master Qi, please stay here for a few more days and wait for Grandpa to wake up..."

Before Asher Hawn dialect was finished, it was interrupted by Qi Yuchu.

"I will leave right away."

"What?" Asher Hawn stunned, "Then my grandfather, he..."

"There are a few acupuncture times left, just give it to Nora Smith." Qi Yuchu's eyes fell on Nora Smith.

"Nora Smith??? Can she do it?" Madge Hawn jumped out again and tried his best to oppose it.

Nora Smith smiled coldly. "I can't, can't you?"

Madge Hawn's face changed.

Nora Smith continued, "Didn't you just question Uncle Qi's medical skills? Facts have proved that Uncle Qi's medical skills are good enough to cure Howard."

"Just because he can, doesn't mean you can!" Ashley Hawn stepped forward and gave Nora Smith a white look. "Do you know medicine? I think you want to take credit in front of your cousin on purpose?"

Qi Yuchu frowned. "Nora Smith, I'll go first."

The Hawn family is a mess. He doesn't want to stay here and suffer indignities.

Qi Yuchu turned and walked out of the ward quickly.

"Uncle Qi, I'll send you." Nora Smith hurried forward.

Qi Yuchu took a meaningful look at Nora Smith. "Nora Smith, don't send it, take care of yourself."

Say that finish, he went away without looking back.

Nora Smith knew Qi Yuchu's personality, uncompromising, she looked at Qi Yuchu's back, can't help but sigh lightly.

If it weren't for Howard's illness, she wouldn't have let Uncle Qi come to the Hawn family, which was inexplicably questioned by Madge Hawn.

Nora Smith was in stupidity when suddenly Asher Hawn's dull voice came behind him. "Nora Smith, Master Qi, is he really gone?"

Nora Smith looked back, his face without waves, "Yes, Uncle Qi is gone.

But you can rest assured that I will cure Howard."

After all, Howard's illness is caused by her, and she will do her best.

"After three days, I will come and give acupuncture to Howard on time." Nora Smith glanced at Tang Ruoying, who followed Asher Hawn closely, and said coldly, "Now I am tired, I will go back first."

"I'll send you." Asher Hawn blurted out without thinking.

"You don't have to send it." Nora Smith twisted his eyebrows, said lightly, and turned to walk in the direction of the elevator.

Asher Hawn wanted to catch up, but was pulled by Tang Ruoying.

"Asher, I also want to go back. Can you send me?"

Nora Smith walked to the hospital door, and a black Bentley stopped in front of her impartially.

It's Julian Spencer's car.

When the door opened, Julian Spencer got out of the car very gentlemanly, nodded slightly and made an invitation. "Nora Smith, get in the car, I'll take you back."

After days of running around, Nora Smith is exhausted to the extreme at the moment.

"Thank you." She smiled and sat in the co-pilot seat.

"And Nana?" Nora Smith asked, turning his head.

Julian Spencer reached out and helped Nora Smith fasten his seat belt.

"She went back to the hotel first."

"Hmm." Nora Smith gave a faint answer.

As soon as Julian Spencer stepped on the accelerator, the car drove in the direction of Chengdong Garden.

When Asher Hawn walked to the hospital door, what he saw was the scene of Shu Qing sitting in Julian Spencer's car with a smile on his face.

His face suddenly became cold.

Tang Ruoying chased him. "Asher, what are you looking at?"

"Nothing." Asher Hawn took back the light of his eyes, and his thin lips tightly pressed into a line, which made him feel extremely unhappy at the moment.

"Isn't that shenjun and Nora Smith?" Tang Ruoying saw Asher Hawn's face ugly, embellished and said, "It seems that the gossip news on the Internet is true. Is Nora Smith living with Julian Spencer?"

"Mia, aren't you tired and going home?" Asher Hawn interrupted Tang Ruoying impatiently.

"Hmm." Tang Ruoying looked at Asher Hawn with emotion. "Asher, will you send me?"

"I have something to do. I'll let the driver send you." Asher Hawn cold track.

Tang Ruoying's heart, Luo stared blankly, "Asher, what can I do for you? I accompany you..."

"No, Mia, you go back first." Asher Hawn threw himself into it and asked the driver to send Tang Ruoying back.

And he drove with a condensed face and drove all the way to the east garden of the city.... Chapter 195 - 192 Julian Spencer Confesses Again

Julian Spencer drove Nora Smith to Chengdong Garden.

Nora Smith was very tired, leaning on his seat all the way, closed his eyes, and before he knew it, he gradually fell asleep.

After stopping the car, Julian Spencer turned his head and quietly watched Nora Smith sleeping.

The dim light shone on Nora Smith's face, which made her skin extraordinarily white, and her long eyelashes cast a fan-shaped shadow on her cheeks.

Although with a bit of exhaustion and tiredness, it is still so beautiful and moving, which affects his heartstrings.

After staring at Nora Smith for a few minutes, Julian Spencer's heart beat a few minutes faster. He couldn't help bending down, approaching her, approaching again...

Just as Julian Spencer's lips were about to fall on Nora Smith's cheek, Nora Smith suddenly woke up.

What enters the eye is Julian Spencer's handsome face, which keeps approaching her...

"What are you doing, Julian Spencer?" Nora Smith was startled, twisted his eyebrows, and leaned back with a wary face.

Julian Spencer recovered, sat upright, coughed awkwardly, and said, "Nora Smith, here we are."

Nora Smith looked out of the window and nodded faintly. "Well, thank you for seeing me off."

Opening the car door, Nora Smith got off and was about to walk home when Julian Spencer's low voice came from behind him, "Nora Smith..."

Nora Smith stepped back and asked, "Anything else?"

Julian Spencer stepped up to Nora Smith, nodded slightly and looked at her condescending. Her eyes gradually deepened. "Nora Smith, can you give me a chance to be my girlfriend?"

Girlfriend???

In the face of Julian Spencer's confession again, Nora Smith was somewhat surprised.

Didn't she make it clear to him before?

She thought Julian Spencer had let go of her feelings.

But--

Obviously, Julian Spencer didn't.

After thinking about it, Nora Smith said thoughtfully, "Julian Spencer, didn't we have a deal before? If I find true love, you will bless me. You and I are friends."

"Yes, I said so before. But Asher Hawn doesn't deserve it. You are with him and hurt so deeply that he can't give you happiness at all."

Julian Spencer was suddenly excited. He stepped forward and put his hands on Nora Smith's shoulders.

His eyes are extremely deep and stubborn. "Nora Smith, you give me a chance to take care of you and protect you. I will definitely do a thousand times better than Asher Hawn. You believe me!"

"Julian Spencer, don't do this." Nora Smith Xiu eyebrow light puckering, no wave no billow mouth said.

"Nora Smith, before, you said you found true love, and I thought Asher

Hawn would really love you and give you happiness. But this is not the case." Julian Spencer persistently said, "Obviously, the person Asher

Hawn really loves is Mia. He promised to be engaged to you before because he thought Mia was gone.

But now that he has found Mia, we can all see how he treats Mia. Nora Smith, stop deceiving yourself. Asher Hawn is not for you at all. "

Hearing Julian Spencer's words, Nora Smith's face cooled a little bit.

Seeing Nora Smith's face turned ugly, Julian Spencer's heart stung slightly. "I know I shouldn't say this today, but..."

"If you know you shouldn't say it, don't say it. I am very tired." Nora

Smith looked up at Julian Spencer's eyes and said coldly, "You should understand that it is impossible between us."

"Is it because you still love Asher Hawn?" Julian Spencer's eyes were dim.

Nora Smith shook his head. "It has nothing to do with him."

With that, Nora Smith ignored Julian Spencer, who was secretly distressed, and turned and walked forward.

In the elevator, Nora Smith arrived at the door, took out the key from his bag and opened the door.

She pushed through the door and was about to close it when a tall and straight shadow flashed from the dim landing.

He stretched out his hand, pressed down the door that was about to close, and stepped in.

Nora Smith was surprised and shouted, "Who is it?"

The man snorted coldly.

The voice ...

Through the dim moonlight outside the window, she saw the man in front of her clearly.

The man exudes the breath of condensation, and his black hand-made suit is almost integrated with the night.

The three-dimensional and profound facial features are like the perfect masterpiece of God's uncanny workmanship, which is noble and elegant.

Those unfathomable eyes narrowed slightly, and the deep eyes, with chill, were falling tightly on her face.

Asher Hawn?!

Why is he here?

Nora Smith was stunned and asked coldly, "Asher Hawn, why are you?"

"Why, don't you want to see me?" Asher Hawn hooked his lips, with a faint anger in his tone.

He stretched out his big hand and slammed the door.

"If you are here for Howard, then you don't have to worry. I will go to the hospital on time to give Howard acupuncture in three days." Shu's face looked at Asher Hawn with no expression, and a light opening gave the marching order. "I am very tired to rest, please go back."

She couldn't think of any reason why Asher Hawn should suddenly appear here.

Shouldn't he send Mia back?

Asher Hawn Jun's face sank, and his hands suddenly buckled Nora

Smith's wrist and pressed her against the door panel.

"You let go of me..." A pain came from his wrist, and Nora Smith struggled.

Her voice did not fall, but all the men in front of her were sealed in their mouths.

Asher Hawn kisses are overwhelming, strong, overbearing, rude and turbulent, without mercy.

In the deep eyes, desire and anger are intertwined and rolling.

From the long-lost beautiful feeling of women in front of us, it is so familiar that Asher Hawn can't stop.

He misses her!

Miss her crazily!

Ever since Nora Smith broke off his engagement and moved away from the New Town Garden, her smile has been haunting his mind all the time.

Since she moved away, he hasn't been able to sleep peacefully for a night.

When he saw the news about her and Julian Spencer on the Internet, he was angry, he was afraid, he was afraid that he really lost her forever.

After knowing that she was in distress in Changbai Mountain, he went to find her desperately like crazy.

Now, he forgot Grandpa and Mia, and sped all the way to Chengdong

Garden, just to see her.

But what did he see?

What he saw was that Julian Spencer grabbed her by the shoulder, and they stood on the side of the road, making love to each other.

The two of them are so close together and act so intimately.

And Nora Smith treats him like this.

Does Nora Smith really like Julian Spencer?

Are all the rumors on the Internet true?!

My heart was burning with anger. Asher Hawn overbearing deepened the kiss. His big tongue forced her lips and teeth open, and without hesitation, she probed in aggressively.... Chapter 196 - 193 Are

You Sure She Is Mia

This sudden kiss surprised Nora Smith.

She was stiff, and her head suddenly went blank.

It took a few seconds for her to react.

What is Asher Hawn doing?!

They have called off their engagement. There is no relationship between her and Asher Hawn. Why should he invade her like this?

Heart a horizontal, Nora Smith's shell teeth mercilessly toward Asher Hawn's lip bite down.

Accompanied by the smell of salty blood type, a terrible pain came from the lip, and Asher Hawn let go of Nora Smith subconsciously.

Nora Smith gasped with shame and anger, his chest heaving violently. "Asher Hawn, you've had enough!"

Asher Hawn's face was livid, and the chill all over him made people shudder.

The air seems to have solidified at this moment.

The knife-shaped eyebrows are tight, Asher Hawn's handsome face is tight, his eyes are slightly narrowed, and his eyes are staring at Nora Smith with unknown light.

Does she hate his touch so much?

Clearly before, when they were together, she liked him kissing her like this.

I don't know how long it took him to open his mouth with a cold face. "Nora Smith, are you really with Julian Spencer?"

Nora Smith twisted his eyebrows.

"You ruthlessly broke off the engagement, but also because of Julian Spencer?" Seeing Nora Smith's silence, Asher Hawn's face grew a little colder.

Because of Julian Spencer?

Oh, Asher Hawn, is this the first complaint of the wicked?

It's obviously because of Mia!

Nora Smith jerked up his eyes and looked at his cold eyes. "Asher Hawn, please don't slander Julian Spencer and me. Don't you understand why I canceled my engagement?"

"I didn't get it!" Asher Hawn's eyes are bottomless and faintly rolling with anger. "Tell me why."

Today, he wants to hear Nora Smith tell him the answer himself.

Nora Smith sneered. "Since you pretend to be confused, OK, then I will make it clear to you."

Taking a deep breath, Nora Smith stared into Asher Hawn's eyes and continued, "I told you a long time ago that I have a cleanliness of feelings.

My future husband must love me with all his heart, and he must only love me in his heart.

And you, obviously, have always loved Mia in your heart. "

"So, you called off the engagement because of Mia?" Asher Hawn raised his eyebrows and suddenly felt much better.

Not because of Julian Spencer, but because of Mia... does it mean that Nora Smith still cares about him?

She called off her engagement only because she was jealous.

"Yes." Nora Smith nodded.

Asher Hawn's eyes were deep and deep, and he spoke in a low and heavy voice. "If I say that Mia and I are not as you imagined, and I have nothing with her, will you come back to me?"

"Do you think I'll believe it?" Nora Smith's lip angle evoked a sarcastic radian.

Asher Hawn looked at her deeply. "Why don't you believe it?"

"On such an important day as our engagement, you suddenly disappeared and couldn't be contacted, regardless of my feelings.

I thought something had happened to you, looking for you like crazy, but what about you?

You're with Mia.

Obviously, Mia is much more important than me in your mind.

Or it should be said that from beginning to end, the person you love is Mia at all.

In this case, this engagement, which should not have existed in the first place, has no reason to continue. "

Asher Hawn squinted. "I didn't ignore your feelings. Didn't I send you a text message that day telling you that I would pick you up later?"

SMS?

Nora Smith stunned.

When did he text her?

"I haven't seen any text messages." Nora Smith's sarcastic opening.

Asher Hawn frowned. His cell phone died that day. It was Mia who sent a text message.

Why didn't Nora Smith get it?

Is there something wrong in the middle?

Seeing Asher Hawn silent, Nora Smith asked coldly, "Asher Hawn, dare you say that you have not loved Mia for so many years? In your mind, the person you are thinking about is not Mia?"

"Nora Smith, I don't deny that I have a special feeling for Mia, but it's not what you think." Asher Hawn said carefully that he didn't know how to explain it to Nora Smith.

For Mia, indeed, it has a heavy weight in his mind.

He once thought that Mia, whom he had been looking for, was his love.

But later he met Nora Smith, he gradually attracted to her, the balance of his feelings also leaned to Nora Smith's side.

When he met Tang Ruoying, he found that he didn't have that kind of heart-warming feeling for Tang Ruoying, and the person in his heart who wanted to be together all his life was still Nora Smith.

However, Mia saved his life, and he was not the kind of person who didn't repay his kindness.

Therefore, when Mia made various demands on him, he would not hesitate to agree.

Nora Smith bit his lip and was silent.

Heart, but slightly moved.

How credible is Asher Hawn's words?

"I have explained to you about Mia. Now should you explain to me what your relationship with Julian Spencer is?" Asher Hawn's heart was still blocked at the thought of what he had just seen downstairs.

Nora Smith answered irrelevant questions. "Asher Hawn, can you be sure that Tang Ruoying is Mia?"

"Of course." Asher Hawn answered without thinking.

"Why so sure?" Nora Smith pressed.

Asher Hawn's eyes took a bit of inquiry. "Nora Smith, what are you suspecting?"

Nora Smith pursed his lips and was about to speak when Asher Hawn's cell phone rang.

Asher Hawn took his cell phone out of his pocket and looked down. It was Tang Ruoying.

Looking at the flashing words "Mia" on the screen, Nora Smith's face sank.

Asher Hawn's slender fingers pressed the answer button. "Mia?"

On the other end of the phone, Tang Ruoying's panic voice came, "Asher, help me! Help me quickly!"

"What's the matter with you, Mia?" Asher Hawn's tone, can't help but bring some concern.

"You don't come over, ah ... Asher, help!!!" On the phone, Tang Ruoying's voice brought into tears, as if something terrible had happened.

"Mia Mia? What the hell happened?" Asher Hawn pressed nervously.

However, the phone was hung up.

Asher Hawn called, but no one answered.

"Nora Smith, Mia may be in danger. I'll go and see." Asher Hawn gave Nora Smith a grim look.

Before Nora Smith could speak, he went straight to the door and strode out.

Looking at the back of Asher Hawn's hurried departure, Nora Smith's heart sank bit by bit.

Just said that his feelings for Tang Ruoying are not what she imagined.

But as soon as he received a call from Tang Ruoying, he rushed over like crazy.

Is this called no feelings?

The facts are in front of us. In Asher Hawn's mind, Tang Ruoying is much more important than her....

Chapter 197 - 194 Tang Ruoying's Seduction

Asher Hawn drove all the way to the place where Tang Ruoying rented.

"Mia, Mia!" He knocked on the door and shouted in a low voice, with a tone of anxiety.

Tang Ruoying's crying voice came out from the inside. "Let go of me, you hooligan, let go of me!"

Then came a man's voice, "Bitch, I see you are your blessing, still run? See where you run!"

Asher Hawn's face sank and he kicked in the gate.

I saw the house in a mess everywhere.

Tang Ruoying rushed out of the room with long hair and disheveled clothes.

Behind him, followed by a man with yellow hair.

"Asher, help me." At the moment of seeing Asher Hawn, Tang Ruoying quickly threw himself into his arms and said in panic.

"Bitch, I spent so much money on you and went to the bar to hold your field every day. Now you say you won't do it if you don't do it?" Yellow hair swears in his mouth, and his flirting eyes stay on Tang Ruoying.

Tang Ruoying cried and said, "I told you, I have quit my job and don't work in a bar. I won't go back to singing."

"Don't sing, stay with me for one night, serve me well, and everything is easy to say." Huang Mao said, stretching out his hand and pulling Tang Ruoying hard.

Tang Ruoying hid behind Asher Hawn, shivering all over. "Don't come over, Asher, I'm so scared."

Asher Hawn glanced coldly at Huang Mao, and his arm blocked his hand to pull Tang Ruoying and pushed him to the ground.

"How dare you mind your own business?" Huang Mao fell to the ground and swore to get up.

Asher Hawn stepped directly on his chest. "Get out!"

His powerful and cold aura came to me, and Huang Mao looked at Asher Hawn carefully.

The more he looked at it, the more familiar he felt. He said in horror, "You, are you Asher?!"

"Now you know who Asher is? Asher won't let you bully me!" Tang Ruoying took Asher Hawn's arm and gave Huang Mao a hard look.

"Asher, I didn't know Angela was your woman. I don't know Mount Tai.
Your adult doesn't remember villains. Don't be familiar with me." Huang
Mao got up from the ground and grovelled to apologize to Asher Hawn.

Asher Hawn frowned, cold track, "still don't roll?!"

"Yes, yes, get out of here." Huang Mao bowed his head and ran out quickly.

"Mia, it's okay, don't be afraid." Asher Hawn side head looked at Tang Ruoying, thin lips slightly lift, comfort her way.

Tang Ruoying tightly grasped Asher Hawn's arm, leaned against his chest, and cried in a low voice. "Asher, thanks to you today, otherwise, I am afraid I have..."

"Who was that just now?" Asher Hawn asked in a low voice.

Tang Ruoying sobbed and said, "It was a customer of mine in the bar who has been pestering me. I didn't expect to come to my house directly today and want to molest me... Asher, if it weren't for you, I think I have been defiled by him now."

Asher Hawn patted Tang Ruoying on the shoulder, and his voice was gentle. "Mia, don't cry, it's okay."

Tang Ruoying wiped her tears. "Asher, I am really scared. Will you stay with me tonight?"

Looking at Tang Ruoying, who cried into tears in front of her, the words of refusal were blocked in her throat, and Asher Hawn nodded gently.

"Asher, you are so kind to me!" See Asher Hawn promised to stay, Tang Ruoying stretched out his hands, circled Asher Hawn's neck, and said in his ear.

Asher Hawn quietly pushed away Tang Ruoying. "Mia, you are tired, go to bed early."

"I'm gonna take a shower first." Tang Ruoying had a smile in the corner of her eye and gave Asher Hawn a deep look.

Say that finish, she turned and walked in the direction of the bathroom.

Asher Hawn sat on the sofa, and Nora Smith's voice and smile couldn't help appearing in his mind.

Just now, he left in such a hurry that Nora Smith may have misunderstood again.

Heart, sinking.

Asher Hawn took out his mobile phone and was about to call Nora Smith when suddenly Tang Ruoying screamed in horror in the bathroom, "Ah!!!"

"What's the matter with you, Mia?" Asher Hawn, with a sudden jump of heart, stood up and asked.

"Asher, come here quickly! I'm so scared!!" Tang Ruoying's flustered voice came out, as if something terrible had happened.

Walking to the bathroom door, Asher Hawn paused.

"Mia, are you all right?" Asher Hawn knocked at the door and asked in a low voice.

"There are cockroaches!" Tang Ruoying glanced at the cockroaches on the ground and deliberately exaggerated and shouted, "Asher, come in quickly, I am most afraid of cockroaches."

It turned out to be a cockroach.

Asher Hawn breathed a sigh of relief, look light mouth, "Mia, you don't be afraid, just trample it to death. Or wait for you to take a bath, I'll go in and have a look."

See Asher Hawn just standing outside the door, don't go in, Tang Ruoying's eyes dark.

Tonight, she wants him!

For Asher Hawn, she is sure to win!

Tang Ruoying washed in a hurry, put on a sexy pajamas and sprayed her favorite perfume.

Looking at the sexy and bright self in the mirror, Tang Ruoying bent her lips, opened the bathroom door, and walked out gracefully.

"Mia, are you all right?" See Tang Ruoying come out, Asher Hawn asked with concern.

"Asher, just now the cockroach is so big! I'm really scared..." Tang Ruoying's chest fluctuated, deliberately slipped, and the whole person fell into Asher Hawn's arms.

"Mia, are you all right?" Subconsciously held Tang Ruoying, Asher Hawn dazed.

I saw Tang Ruoying wearing a milky white translucent silk pajamas, and her graceful figure loomed under the pajamas, which was indescribably sexy.

Tang Ruoying's soft body deliberately rubbed against Asher Hawn's strong arm, lifted his eyes and looked at him affectionately. "Asher, I'm fine."

The pungent perfume smell came, and Asher Hawn's knife-shaped eyebrows frowned slightly. He stretched out his hand to straighten Tang Ruoying's body. "Mia, it's late, you should go to rest."

"Will you show me to my room?" Tang Ruoying rubbed his temples and looked soft and weak. "I feel a little dizzy."

She was attached to Asher Hawn's body, and Asher Hawn had no choice but to help her walk to the room.

Just entered the room, Tang Ruoying suddenly pulled Asher Hawn to bed.

Asher Hawn didn't expect it, and both of them fell on the big bed.

"Asher..." Tang Ruoying stretched out his hands and hugged Asher Hawn's shoulders. Her eyes were shy.. She looked at the handsome face in front of her and said faintly, "Do you remember that you once said that you would marry me? You said that I saved you, and you have to commit yourself."

Chapter 198 - 195 Alone Man And Widowed Woman In One Room

Tang Ruoying's soft boneless hands, like aquatic plants, tightly wrapped around Asher Hawn's neck, and her eyes looked at him with affection and infatuation.

She can imagine how strong and powerful his body is under his black suit, which makes people obsessed and intoxicated.

Tang Ruoying licked her lips, which were somewhat hot and dry. She only felt that her heart beat faster, and her heart almost jumped out of her chest.

Tonight, she will have an unforgettable night with Asher Hawn.

She will be his woman, the only woman he loves, and the mistress of the Hawn family!

Thinking like this, Tang Ruoying couldn't restrain the throb in his heart, and the whole person stuck on him, hoping to be integrated with him.

Asher Hawn was hugged tightly by Tang Ruoying, and her soft body was so close to him that he could even hear her slight shortness of breath.

I don't know why, Asher Hawn felt this feeling, so strange, even some let him reject.

Clearly, before they were locked up in a small black room, those people let the dog scare him. When Mia held him, he felt so warm, so kind and so moved.

Instead of Tang Ruoying's feeling now.

Why?

"Are you sure Tang Ruoying is Mia?" Nora Smith's words suddenly came to Asher Hawn's ears.

Is the woman in front of you really Mia?

Such thoughts flashed through Asher Hawn's mind.

"Asher, do you remember when we were locked up together in the little black room? At that time, you were afraid of big dogs and asked me to hold you every time, just like now."

Tang Ruoying said, as if inadvertently pulled the pajamas, revealing the scenery on his chest and the red plum blossom birthmark on his shoulder.

Eyes light fell on Tang Ruoying's shoulder, Asher Hawn returned to absolute being, how can he doubt Mia?

Tang Ruoying is Mia.

He's pretty sure.

But--

His feelings about Mia are completely different from those of eight years ago.

After all, eight years have passed and they have all grown up.

It is normal that that feeling has changed.

"Mia, don't do this." Asher Hawn was hugged by Tang Ruoying, so he stretched out his hand and pushed away Tang Ruoying, stood up, and arranged his clothes gracefully.

"Asher, you don't like me?" Tang Ruoying didn't expect Asher Hawn to suddenly push her away, and her face changed slightly. "Have you forgotten that you said you like me and you said you want to marry me?"

Asher Hawn frowned at the movement of his hand and said, "Mia, those are childhood jokes."

"A joke? But I mean it." Tang Ruoying stood up, stood in front of Asher Hawn, looked at her seriously, and her tone was a little excited.

Why is Asher Hawn so indifferent to her?

It was so obvious that she had implied that he, as a strong and mature man, was indifferent to her?

Tang Ruoying, with tears in her beautiful eyes, grabbed Asher Hawn's arm with her little hand and murmured, "Asher, I really like you.

When I fell off a cliff and was seriously injured, it was because I thought of you that I could survive.

All these years, I miss you all the time. You said you would marry me.

You won't break your promise now, will you? "

At the mention of that year, Asher Hawn's heart was caught off guard by a burst of guilt.

Yes, he said these words.

And Mia, because he saved him, fell off the cliff.

It is he who owes Mia.

"Mia, can we talk about these things later?" Asher Hawn patted Tang Ruoying's little hand gently, and some perfunctory openings, "Now you go to bed first and have a good sleep. Don't think so much."

"Is it because of Nora Smith?" Tang Ruoying bit her lip, and her eyes were full of unwillingness.

Tonight at such a good opportunity, she tried her best, and Asher Hawn didn't feel anything about her!

Hearing the word Nora Smith, Asher Hawn's eyes softened and remained silent.

Sure enough, it's because of Nora Smith!

Tang Ruoying eyes micro invisible flash of jealousy, "Asher, you don't forget, Nora Smith and you have canceled the engagement, she is with Julian Spencer now. Nora Smith she is not worth you..."

Before Tang Ruoying finished speaking, he was interrupted by Asher

Hawn's heavy voice. "Mia, it's getting late, you should go to bed."

See Asher Hawn's tone has taken a bit of impatience, Tang Ruoying knows that if she sticks to it again at the moment, it will only backfire and make Asher Hawn hate her.

Take a deep breath, nails tightly pinch into the palm of your hand, Tang Ruoying squeezed out a clever smile, "Well, Asher, then I'll go to bed first. What about you?"

"I'll sit here with you." Asher Hawn took a long leg and sat down on the sofa beside him.

Tang Ruoying lay down silently and turned off the lights.

In the dim moonlight, Asher Hawn's tall body sat on the sofa, his handsome face was cold, and his locked knife-shaped eyebrows were somewhat sad.

Looking at Asher Hawn, who is close at hand but indifferent to her,

Tang Ruoying shook her fist tightly.

Nora Smith!

The reason why Asher Hawn is so MoMo to her is because of Nora Smith!

She won't let Nora Smith go!

Asher Hawn, sooner or later, it belongs to her Tang Ruoying!!

After a sleepless night, Asher Hawn drove to The Hawn Goup with Tang Ruoying early the next morning.

When Tang Ruoying and Asher Hawn walked into The Hawn Goup
Building, Nora Smith happened to come to work.

Out of the corner of my eye, I saw the tall figure of Nora Smith behind me. Tang Ruoying stretched out his hand and took Asher Hawn's arm. He said weakly, "Asher, I suddenly feel a little dizzy. Let me lean on it."

Asher Hawn faint well a, Tang Ruoying side head, head on Asher Hawn's shoulder, action is particularly intimate.

Looking at this dazzling scene in front of him, Nora Smith's heart sank little by little.

Last night, Asher Hawn received a phone call from Tang Ruoying and rushed out like crazy.

This morning, the two of them came to work together again.

So... Asher Hawn was with Tang Ruoying all night last night?

What did the two of them do?

Nora Smith curved his lips sarcastically.

Oh.

What else can I do if I am alone and have few women in the same room?

What's more, that person is Mia, whom Asher Hawn has been thinking about.

Luckily, she still felt that what Asher Hawn said to her last night was somewhat true.

What an irony!

From beginning to end, Asher Hawn loved only Mia.

Then why did Asher Hawn say that to her last night?

What do you take her for?

Cold-faced, Nora Smith walked silently behind them and walked into the Secretariat office.

I saw Tang Ruoying sitting in her seat.

Nora Smith went straight past, looked at Tang Ruoying condescending, and said coldly, "Tang Ruoying, this is my seat, please get out of the way!" Chapter 199 - 196 "Love & Love" Resurrected

"Nora Smith? Didn't you quit your job?" Tang Ruoying heard the voice, looked up and saw Nora Smith standing in front of her. She deliberately widened her eyes and her face was full of surprise.

"I quit my job, but Asher Hawn didn't approve it." Nora Smith gave Asher Hawn a cold look, his lips raised a sarcastic radian. "Then I can't help it."

"Asher, is that right?" Tang Ruoying's wronged eyes fell on Asher Hawn.

Asher Hawn nodded faintly. "Mia, this seat is indeed Nora Smith's. I'll arrange a new seat for you."

When she heard this, Tang Ruoying stood up and said with a considerate face, "Asher, I thought Nora Smith had resigned before she would sit in her seat."

After a pause, she bit her lip and lowered her eyes. "Asher, you can rest assured that I won't embarrass you. I'll move away."

Tang Ruoying said, packed up his things and sat in an empty seat next to him. "Asher, can I sit here?"

"Hmm." Asher Hawn faintly sent out a monosyllabic character, let people help Tang Ruoying tidy up his seat, and then went back to the president's office.

Nora Smith went straight back to her seat.

Turning on the computer, she began to concentrate on her work.

Before, because I went to Changbai Mountain to find Master Qi, I was trapped in a cave by heavy snow, which delayed my time for several days.

Now I have accumulated a lot of work, so I need to take the time to deal with it.

Quickly looking through several recent sales information about Ice and Fire, Nora Smith's eyes gradually condensed.

Because she soon discovered something was wrong.

Supposedly, after a series of publicity before, coupled with the reversal of plagiarism of Love & Love, a wave of advertisements were greatly played for The Hawn Goup, and the sales of Ice and Fire should be in full swing.

However, instead of rising recently, sales have dropped by 20%.

What's going on here?

According to the principle, this should not happen at all.

Nora Smith quickly browsed the information at hand, and immediately called a meeting of relevant personnel to inquire about the situation.

In the conference hall, Nora Smith opened the information and projected it on the big screen. Then he asked Manager Wang of the marketing department responsible for the sales of "ice and fire", "Manager Wang, what do you think about the recent sales of" ice and fire "?"

Manager Wang was shivered by Nora Smith's sharp eyes. He hesitated and said, "Nora, the recent sales of 'Ice and Fire' have declined compared with last month."

"Why?" Nora Smith asked in a cold voice, "This month's sales have dropped by 20% compared with last month. Why?"

"It's like this. Recently, there have been many low-end products imitating" ice and fire "in the market, which are very popular among ordinary people.

And our "ice and fire" is aimed at high-consumption people. As you know, their requirements are very high. Now there are so many imitations, which is equivalent to lowering the grade of our products in disguise. "Manager Wang wiped the cold sweat on his forehead and explained.

"Which company launched it?" Nora Smith asked.

Manager Wang truthfully replied, "According to our investigation, it should be 'Love & Love' jewelry group company to launch these imitations."

"Love & love?" Nora Smith smell speech, slightly surprised.

Before "Love & Love" plagiarized that thing, the reputation has already plummeted in the industry, and now it is still plagiarized?

Nora Smith looked colder. "Since it is an imitation, why not pursue responsibility? Don't ask 'Love & Love' to publicly apologize, remove all products and compensate us for the loss of The Hawn Goup?''

"Nora, it's like this. These imitations of 'Love & Love' are clever imitations. They avoid the unique elements of 'Ice and Fire' and cannot constitute plagiarism. But it makes people feel very similar at first glance." Manager Wang sighed lightly and said helplessly.

"Yes, I see. Keep an eye on this matter." Nora Smith squinted. "Go back to work first."

Unexpectedly, she only went to Changbai Mountain for a few days, and so many things happened as soon as she came to work.

In just a few days, "Love & Love" resurfaced, and the secret tricks were constantly used, which had a great impact on The Hawn Goup's jewelry business.

Now that this is the case, it is her duty to report to Asher Hawn and discuss the countermeasures.

Nora Smith returned to his office seat, ready to sort out what he had just learned, and then report to Asher Hawn.

Nora Smith was going to make a cup of coffee in the pantry first because he didn't sleep well last night.

She walked to the pantry with the information about "ice and fire" in one hand and the water cup in the other.

Nora Smith was bending over to receive water when a sound of high heels came in from outside.

"Nora Smith!" Tang Ruoying's voice came from behind Nora Smith.

Nora Smith looked up and saw Tang Ruoying coming to her in an aggressive way. She couldn't help but twist her eyebrows and asked,

"What's the matter?"

Tang Ruoying slammed the door of the pantry and stepped on high heels to Nora Smith step by step. The tone was somewhat provocative. "Nora Smith, since you have chosen to dissolve your engagement with Asher and choose to resign, why come back?"

"Does this have anything to do with you?" Nora Smith looked at Tang Ruoying like an idiot, and asked without waves.

Nora Smith's eyes made Tang Ruoying feel very uncomfortable.

Tang Ruoying raised her lips, took a few steps forward, approached

Nora Smith, and deliberately said in an ambiguous tone, "Tell you one thing, Asher spent the night with me last night. We spent the night together."

As he spoke, Tang Ruoying deliberately pulled the neckline, revealing the hickey on his neck.

In fact, these hickeys were left by the yellow hair yesterday, but at the moment, in Nora Smith's view, they were so dazzling.

"Asher, he said I was the only woman he loved most. He would marry me." Tang Ruoying smiled defiantly. "Nora Smith, if you know each other, resign quickly and never appear in front of Asher again. Asher only loves me, you don't want to seduce him, don't want to take him away!"

"Why should you be so afraid of being robbed of Asher Hawn, since he only loves you?" Nora Smith Qing Fengyun smiled lightly and patted the information in his hand. "I'm going to report to Asher Hawn now. Please make way for Miss Tang!"

"You!" Tang Ruoying was choked by Nora Smith and couldn't lift it in one breath. She stared at her angrily.

Nora Smith ignored Tang Ruoying, bypassed her directly and walked out of the pantry.

Looking at Nora Smith's elegant and indifferent back, Tang Ruoying's eyes flashed a touch of jealousy without concealing it.

Nora Smith, I won't let you go!

You'll be looking good soon!! Chapter 200 - 197 Remains To Be Seen

Nora Smith ignored Tang Ruoying and walked step by step towards the president's office with a calm part.

Heart, but at the moment a little stabbing pain.

Tang Ruoying provoked her again and again. What did she want to do?

Isn't Tang Ruoying already with Asher Hawn? Why are you so afraid of losing Asher Hawn? Afraid of Asher Hawn being taken away?

If Tang Ruoying is really Mia, she should be confident that she can firmly grasp Asher Hawn's heart.

Instead of what it is now.

What is Tang Ruoying afraid of?

Nora Smith thought about it and sent a message to Anthony: "Anthony, check someone for me."

Anthony quickly replied, "Check who? Just don't be Mia from more than n years ago."

Mia ...

Nora Smith wryly hooked his lips, and really wanted to check Mia.

However, now we have to check from Tang Ruoying.

As for whether Tang Ruoying is Mia... it remains to be seen.

Nora Smith ticked her lips and sent another message to Anthony in an understatement: "Check Tang Ruoying, whose stage name is Angela, used to be the resident singer of Charming Bar. I want all her information."

After the message was sent, Nora Smith added: "Especially around the 18th of last month, is there anything special about Tang Ruoying?"

The 18th of last month was the engagement day of Nora Smith and Asher Hawn.

Tang Ruoying appeared in front of Asher Hawn on that day, ruining her engagement ceremony with Asher Hawn.

As Nana said, too coincidental.

Too coincidental things, there are often unknown intentions behind them, Nora Smith's intuition, and so is Tang Ruoying's appearance.

Someone did it deliberately.

"Sister Ada, I will help you check as soon as possible." Anthony replied quickly.

"OK, I'll wait for your good news." Nora Smith replied.

She put away her mobile phone and came to the door of the president's office.

The thought of seeing Asher Hawn soon smothered Nora Smith's breath.

She took a few deep breaths, calmed her mind, and then reached out and knocked on the door.

"Come in." Asher Hawn's clear voice came.

Nora Smith pushed through the door.

"Nora Smith?" Asher Hawn looked up and saw the pretty figure in his sight. The original condensed eyes were slightly invisible and soft.

He stood up, his deep eyes falling on Nora Smith's face, and his thin lips slightly lifted. "Nora Smith, you want me?"

"Yes." Nora Smith nodded faintly, walked to Asher Hawn's desk and handed him the information in his hand. "There are some things I need to report to you about the 'Ice and Fire' project."

Asher Hawn's eyes fell on the information in Nora Smith's hands.

Nora Smith continued, "According to what I just learned, 'Love & Love' jewelry has recently launched many imitations, which has caused a big impact on the sales of 'Ice and Fire'. Our sales have dropped by 20% this month."

"I know about it. I have asked Clark to look into it." Asher Hawn narrowed her long and narrow eyes slightly.

Nora Smith nodded. "OK, then I'll go back to work first."

The woman in front of her looked indifferent, and Asher Hawn's face sank. She stretched out her big hand and took Nora Smith's waist.

Nora Smith was about to turn and leave when a great force hit her waist. She stood unsteadily and fell into Asher Hawn's arms.

Asher Hawn took advantage of the situation and pressed her on the sofa.

He bullied himself and went up, his hands propped up on both sides of Nora Smith's body, and his tall and straight body pressed her to death.

"You came to me only on business?" Asher Hawn cold eyes light, keeping a close eye on the woman under her body, the tone of condensation asked.

Nora Smith struggled for a moment but failed. He raised his lips and asked, "Otherwise?"

Just for business...

Asher Hawn's thin lips were tightly pressed into a line, and his handsome face was tight, which made it obvious that he was extremely unhappy at the moment.

The atmosphere of the president's office is slightly solidified at this moment.

After a moment's silence, Asher Hawn asked again in a low voice. "Don't you have anything else to say to me, Nora Smith?"

"No." Nora Smith said faintly.

"Won't you ask me where I went last night?" Looking at Nora Smith's indifference, Asher Hawn's face was a little ugly.

He went to Tang Ruoying last night. Shouldn't she be jealous and question him?

Why is it so light in the wind and light in the clouds?

She really doesn't care at all?

"Hehe, your Mia has already told me." Nora Smith smiled coldly.

"Mia? What did she say to you?" Asher Hawn was dazed.

Nora Smith snorted coldly and stopped looking at him.

Asher Hawn, what does he mean?

Haven't he humiliated her enough?

Just then, there was a knock on the door, followed by Clark's untimely voice, "President."

Nora Smith took the opportunity to push Asher Hawn away. "Someone is coming, let me go quickly."

Asher Hawn's eyebrows frowned, let go of Nora Smith, tidied up some messy clothes, and sank his mouth. "Come in."

Clark pushed through the door and saw that Nora Smith was there, and his president's face was very ugly.

Well, it seems that he came at a bad time...

"What is it?" Asher Hawn loosened his tie impatiently, sat back in his seat, and glanced coldly at Clark.

Clark looked a fiercely, busy walked up to him, respectfully opened his mouth, "President, I found some news about 'Love & Love'."

"Say." Asher Hawn spoke with a faint look.

Clark opened the information in his hand, handed it to Asher Hawn, and explained, "Since the last plagiarism, 'Love & Love' has been hit hard in all aspects, whether from the reputation or the operation of the company, and the capital chain has broken and was once in jeopardy."

Nora Smith heard this and began in doubt. "Since the situation of 'Love & Love' is so bad, how can it cause such a big impact on us now?"

"Because someone bought 'Love & Love'." Clark looked at Nora Smith and replied.

"Buy 'Love & Love'?" Asher Hawn asked, with a somewhat surprised tone.

Nora Smith is also very confused.

Who will buy a company that is full of black materials and almost goes bankrupt?

"Yes." Clark nodded affirmatively.

Asher Hawn handsome face condensed and asked, "Which company bought Love & Love'?"

Clark pointed to the information on the table. "It is an Australian company, its full name is Baxter Pty Ltd, or BPL for short."

Australia??

Nora Smith's heart fluttered for a moment, and he sniffed an unusual smell keenly.

If she remembers correctly, she was almost hit by a chandelier, and the maintenance worker named Ivan Ward who tampered with the chandelier had an accident in Australia.

Now, Baxter Pty Ltd, which acquired Love & Love, is also in Australia.

Could things be so coincidental?
