

Chapter 791

Lexie really wanted to bite Tom to death. The guy was so hateful!

She had never seen a man more resentful than Tom. She was a beauty, but he disliked her kiss.

She kept cursing in her heart that Tom must be blind. There was something wrong with his beauty appreciation.

Tom could tell that Lexie was furious now. He was quite proud that he had finally gotten revenge.

"Alright, no more words. I'm going home." Tom frowned and said seriously.

Lexie glared at Tom. If her eyes could kill someone, then Tom would have been killed so many times by now.

She said, "You must apologize to me!"

Tom rolled his eyes at her and said, "Why should I apologize?"

"Because you just said that I'm even worse than a pig, and you showed such a disgusting expression. You insulted me, so you have to apologize!" Lexie snorted and said grimly.

Tom almost laughed out loud. Lexie was barking at the moon. He wouldn't apologize, and he could see that Lexie cared about this, so he said deliberately, "I won't apologize. What I just said was the truth. Oh my god, I still feel nauseous when I talk about it."

As he spoke, he made a puke gesture.

Lexie was irritated again. She stomped her foot fiercely and scolded, "Tom, you bastard!"

Tom sneered and stopped teasing her. He didn't want to have anything to do with a bad-tempered girl like Lexie at all. Now that he had vented his anger, he did not continue to tease her but said, "Well, I won't joke with you anymore. It's getting late. I should go home. You're a girl. Stop hanging out. Call your bodyguard to pick you up."

In any case, Lexie was the granddaughter of Joseph. Tom had to respect her rank and assure her safety.

Lexie said, "Don't go home. You just took advantage of me and took away my first kiss. You have to be responsible for me!"

Tom's eyes widened, and he was so annoyed and said, "Hey, can you talk sense? You were the one that kissed me. I even let it go. How can you blame me for that?"

"I don't care. You bullied me anyway. You have to be responsible for me. Otherwise, I'll tell my grandfather to punish you!" Lexie said with her arms folded across her chest, her face full of pride.

She thought Tom was afraid of that, so she was complacent. She did not notice that Tom's face darkened and became impatient.

Tom was indeed impatient with Lexie. This pampered young lady never stopped creating disturbances. Did she really think he was afraid of her?

Tom snorted and said straightforwardly, "Go ahead, tell your grandfather. I don't care."

After that, Tom turned around and left. Lexie was dumbfounded. She didn't expect Tom to dare to leave. She stomped her feet and yelled, "Hey, Tom, if you leave, I'll really tell my grandfather! I'm not joking!"

Tom ignored her and didn't even pause for a moment. He soon walked far away. Lexie realized that Tom was serious this time. She panicked and shouted, "Hey! I'm serious. Come back, come back!"

However, Tom did not turn around. In a short time, Tom had disappeared from her sight.

Just then, a cat was miaowing from behind. The cold night wind blew past. Lexie suddenly got goosebumps all over her body. She was scared.

She kept scolding Tom. When she realized that Tom had really left, she was so scared that she was about to cry. Her feet were shaking. The nightmare of her childhood once again shrouded her heart.

She was afraid of the dark and ghosts. It had been a long time since she had been alone. Even if she slept at home, she slept with the lights on.

Now, she was frightened. She sobbed and said, "Tom, you jerk! How can you leave me here..."

She wanted to leave, but the surrounding was too gloomy and horrible. Her feet were trembling, and she lost strength.

Moreover, the two flashing streetlights darkened at the most horrifying moment. It was pitch-dark around her. She was even more frightened and cried out.

Her cries sounded sorrowful and frightened.

Tom, who had walked a long way, heard her cry and stopped.

This voice didn't sound fake. Did Lexie really cry?

But it didn't make sense. Lexie was a bold girl. She was fearless. How could she be afraid of the dark?

Thinking of this, Tom decided to go back and take a look. What if Lexie was afraid of the dark? He left herself there alone, and he was the one to blame if something really happened to her.

When he returned, he saw from the distance that Lexie squatting under the faint light. She buried her head in her knees, and she was sobbing. She looked helpless and pitiful.

Her cry was filled with fear and weakness.

If he hadn't seen it himself, Tom wouldn't have believed it was the Lexie he knew.

Hearing the footsteps, Lexie was even more afraid. She screamed, "Ghost! Don't come over!! Don't..."

She was scared out of her wits.

Tom was embarrassed to see her like this.

"It's me," Tom said, his voice as gentle as possible to avoid scaring Lexie.

Lexie, who was kicking in panic, was shocked when she heard his voice. Then she looked up abruptly and saw Tom. It was as if she had found the support. She stood up, threw herself into Tom's arms, and hugged him tightly.

Her feet were off the ground. She was like a koala on Tom's body. She kept shouting, "I was wrong. Don't go. Don't leave me alone. Please..."

Chapter 792

She sounded scared and helpless. She was a frightened little girl, crying in the arms of an adult.

To be honest, Tom was quite moved. He had never seen Lexie like this.

Tom could clearly feel that she was not pretending. She was really so scared and uneasy. If he left at this time, Lexie would really be scared out of her wits.

"Alas!"

Tom sighed in his heart. He accepted his fate. Perhaps Lexie was really the creditor of his previous life and he was supposed to pay for it in this life.

Lexie looked so helpless. He had no way but to give up the thought of leaving and ignoring her.

He let Lexie hang on to him, regardless of the rules of etiquette. He gently stroked her hair and said in a soft tone, "Don't be afraid. I'm here. I won't leave."

His voice seemed to have magic power, calming Lexie down. She sobbed, "Are you really not leaving Lexie? Really?"

Lexie...

It seemed that Lexie was Lexie's nickname.

At this time, Tom felt that he had become a father who was coaxing a little girl. He nodded and said, "Well, I won't leave Lexie. Come down first."

As he spoke, Tom was about to put Lexie down, but he didn't expect her to scare her. "No! I'm not coming down! I'm scared!" she screamed.

Lexie, who seemed terrified, hugged Tom tightly, making him have some difficulty breathing.

It was too difficult for him.

The people in Y City would probably treat him as their rival in love.

If Joseph saw him, he would definitely think he did something to Lexie.

But the truth was that he had nothing to do with Lexie.

Fortunately, they were in a dark corner where no one came here at this point. Otherwise, he would be embarrassed.

Tom coughed and patted Lexie on the back. He tried to calm her down and reassured her, "Okay, okay. Uncle won't leave. I won't leave."

After hearing his words, Lexie finally relaxed slowly.

Tom was embarrassed being hugged by Lexie. For a moment, he didn't know what to do. He had never been in such a dilemma. After a while, Lexie was no longer trembling, and her breathing gradually became steady. Just as he was about to speak, he heard Lexie snoring.

Suddenly, he froze, unable to believe that she was asleep.

The corner of Tom's mouth twitched a few more times. He was speechless.

And he didn't dare to wake Lexie up. She was obviously out of her mind now. If he woke her up and she had another attack, it would be another trouble for him!

After thinking about it carefully, he decided to send Lexie to the hotel first...

No.

He gave up the idea immediately.

If her name was registered at the hotel, her family would definitely know. By then, he would not be able to explain himself.

The best way was to bring Lexie home.

Of course, he was not going to take her to his home, for fear that Phoebe and his in-laws found out.

After thinking about it, he called Elliot directly and asked him to send a driver to pick him up and arrange a room for him to stay for the night.

He didn't explain anything on the phone. Elliot felt a little strange, but he didn't ask further.

Elliot was efficient. In a short while, the driver drove the car over. Tom was surprised to see Elliot. When he saw Lexie hanging on him, he smiled meaningfully.

"Chairman, I didn't expect you to love this too."

Elliot showed an evil smile, thinking that Tom had hooked up with a beautiful woman outside, and now he was going to hide her.

Tom kicked him and scolded, "Damn! This is... Forget it, I won't explain. It's not the kind of relationship you think it is. Now I'm sending her to room. Don't follow me."

Elliot nodded, but he clearly did not believe Tom's words. "I understand. Ordinary friends!"

Tom wanted to give Elliot another kick, but he held back. More explanation would only make it worse, so he didn't bother to explain more.

When he got into the car, Tom thought of something again and quickly said to Elliot, "By the way, keep this to yourself. Don't tell anything about it to my wife, otherwise..."

Elliot interrupted, "Chairman, you don't have to explain this to me. I understand. Your secret is safe with me... Oh, there's a driver... He knows it too. Chairman, do you want to kill him?"

The driver in the car was shocked and quickly swore, "Chairman, Boss Wang, I won't say anything. I don't know anything. I didn't see anything. Don't kill me..."

Tom gritted his teeth in anger. Elliot dared to make joke on him!

Seeing that Tom's dark expression, Elliot said quickly, "No more joking. Haha, I know you're a man of decency. Mr. Murphy, don't slander the chairman!"

Knowing that they were joking, the driver breathed a sigh of relief with a silly grin on his face.

Tom didn't want to bother himself arguing with the likes of him. He asked him to get out of the car before he got in the car.

The most important thing now was sending Lexie to rest, and then he need a place to dress his wound, so that he could go home.

Thanks to Elliot who had a lot of real estate in H City that the place he arranged was not far and it didn't take him a long time to get there.

But Lexie still hung on him and held him tightly. Tom couldn't even break free.

There was no choice but to go to the residence and put Lexie down.

Ten minutes later, Tom finally put Lexie on the bed and tucked her in. He heaved a sigh of relief.

Lexie was beautiful when she was sleeping soundly.

Without staying any longer, Tom left after leaving a note for her.

Lexie didn't sleep for long. In the middle of the night, she woke up.

She found herself in a strange place and screamed in panic. Then she slowly remembered what happened tonight. Her face was burning.

At the bedside, she found the note that Tom had left for her. She was in a daze with a complicated expression...

Chapter 793

Tom breathed another sigh of relief after coming out. What happened just now really made him feel awkward and uncomfortable.

As a vigorous young man of hot blood, he was hung up by a beautiful woman tightly. He was supposed to have physiological reaction.

In particular, Lexie was Joseph's granddaughter.

However, he never thought that Lexie, who was so unruly and willful and looked fearless, had such a soft side.

Thinking of how panicked she was just now, Tom shook his head and his hatred toward her disappeared. Speaking of it, Lexie was just a little girl with a childlike heart.

She had a sheltered upbringing. It was normal for her to develop such a character.

Moreover, if Tom guessed correctly, Lexie's fear of darkness must be the shadow of her childhood.

Thinking of this, he didn't hate her anymore.

It was already late at night when Tom came back. The smell of Lexie's perfume lingered in him. Phoebe would definitely smell it immediately.

So he didn't go straight home. Instead, on the way home, he found a hotel, took a shower, changed his clothes, and removed the smell from his body before he went home.

Fortunately, his families were already asleep, and the living room was only left with night lights, which made Tom relieved.

He didn't dare to enter the room directly either. He went to the bathroom and took another shower before going back to his room, just in case.

Phoebe had fallen asleep, and it was especially quiet, which set Tom's mind at ease.

He eased himself into the bed and put his arms around Phoebe.

Such a plain and normal day was what he wanted to live, but he didn't know how long it would last.

At the foreign chief's side.

After he was defeated by Tom, he ran away in a panic. Fortunately, a woman from H Country suddenly appeared and became his shield which stopped Tom. Otherwise, in his current state, it was impossible for him to escape!

He kept running and ran with all his strength. Not until he made sure that Tom did not catch up and there was no sign of him that he breathed a sigh of relief and stopped, gasping for air.

Now he was seriously injured. Thinking back on the battle with the man from H

Country just now, he couldn't help but shudder.

"How could there be such a terrifying strong man in H Country, and he's so young! We didn't get any information! This is a huge mistake of the intelligence agency!" The foreign chief gritted his teeth and said with lingering fear.

If it weren't for god's blessing that a woman from H Country suddenly appeared at the critical moment, he would have been arrested by him.

In the battle just now, he had no ability to fight back the man from H Country. He was no match for the other party!

In particular, he looked extremely young and vigorous, and he must be in his twenties.

He could not imagine what kind of training a young man under the age of thirty had to undergo to reach such a level. It didn't make any sense!

"I must bring the information back to Country M!" There was a glimmer of light in the eyes of the foreign leader. He realized that his country would not be able to win the Kungfu Cup so easily this time.

He wondered if the H Country was really about to rise.

He gritted his teeth, adjusted himself, and began to speed back to his residence.

Half an hour later, he finally returned.

"Chief... Chief, what's going on?!"

The guards at the door found him and immediately saluted with worship and awe, but immediately, they realized that something was wrong with their chief. He was sweating with a painful expression, walked unnaturally with blood on his body. He was obviously badly injured.

They felt it was incredible. In their opinion, the chief was invincible and no one could hurt him.

"Chief, are you hurt?" another guard asked carefully.

The chief frowned slightly. He didn't like his subordinates to see his current state. He immediately said with a straight face, "Mind your own business!"

Despite that he was injured, his authority was still very terrifying. Hearing his words, two guards put on a serious expression and stopped asking.

After he went in, they were extremely shocked, because they were clear that he was seriously injured. They were very curious about the person who hurt him.

The chief quickened his pace and returned to the hall, only to find that many of his subordinates were still in the hall. After he came in, they all fixed their eyes on him in disbelief.

"Chief, are you... Injured?"

"Chief, who is able to hurt you?!"

"The chief must have been surrounded by experts. Otherwise, he won't be injured!"

There was a heated discussion among the many foreign masters in the hall.

The foreign leader coughed and said, "Silence."

Hearing his words, they immediately quieted down, but the shock and curiosity in their eyes could not be concealed.

Jack, who was in the crowd, realized something and his face suddenly changed. He wondered if he went to trouble the guy from H Country.

Thinking of how powerful the man was, he found it was possible that their chief was defeated by him.

But soon he realized that it was unbelievable that their invincible leader was no match for the man.

At this moment, the chief looked at him, which confirmed his suspicion immediately.

For some reason, he couldn't help but feel numb at the thought of the man from H Country.

"Alright, you guys go rest. I'm fine," said the chief. After two steps, something occurred to him and he turned around and said, "By the way, behave yourself these days. Don't make trouble. Make every effort to prepare for the Kungfu Cup. Do you know?"

Seeing that the chief was not joking, and his expression was very serious, they quickly replied.

"Yes, chief!"

After the chief went into his room, they all realized that he was most likely beaten up by the mysterious man from H Country. For a moment, a huge wave rose in their hearts!

Chapter 794

The foreign chief finally dared to relax while grimacing after he entered the villa. Tom's last move had caused him a serious injury. Fortunately, his body was strong enough, or else he would have been weakened and no longer been a great master.

Damn Tom!

Fortunately, he brought his medical team with him to H Country, and he could recuperate before the Kungfu Cup.

This villa was his stronghold in H Country for years. In his room, he pressed a button and the wardrobe was opened then a dark door appeared. He walked a dozen meters and a closed but bright laboratory could be seen.

The laboratory was quite large. Many outstanding scientists and medical experts were there.

They were surprised to see him seriously injured.

"Chief, are you okay? Who hurts you?"

Immediately, an old man with gray hair came over. His eyes were bright and full of wisdom. Others could tell at a glance that he was a very intelligent scientist.

The chief briefly explained what happened tonight. Finally, he gritted his teeth resentfully, "That man from H Country is terrifying! He's even better than Solomon! I think he is the biggest rival to us in the Kungfu Cup!"

But those scientists disagreed, "Impossible! Solomon is our trump card. He is invincible when competing with those who don't reach God Becoming Level. How can a man from H Country be Solomon's match?"

"Solomon has been modified by our team since he was three years old. He has undergone the most scientific and effective training in the world. He has been injected with the most high-tech biological products. Solomon is definitely invincible. Only those who reached God Becoming Level can be Solomon's match!"

"Besides, chief, you've told us that the man from H Country is around thirty years old. How can such a young man have such a powerful power? That's impossible!"

The chief's words provoked uproar from the scientists, who thought that the chief was lying and making excuses for his own failure.

And they couldn't bear to hear the doubts about Solomon, who was the trump card of their team and would shock the entire world in the future.

So they felt it funny that a nobody from H Country said he could defeat Solomon.

Seeing that the scientists were so confident, the chief became less anxious too. He thought that man from H Country should not be Solomon's match. After all, Solomon was so powerful.

"Well, the man from H Country is very powerful. Even if he can't defeat Solomon, we shouldn't underestimate him. H Country has developed rapidly in recent years. I wonder if he is the latest product of his country." The chief expressed his worries.

But those scientists didn't think so.

"That's impossible. H Country has only been built for decades. In terms of biological technology, military technology, or information technology, it's not a match for our Country M.

There's a huge gap between them and us."

"At least we can be sure that H Country's biotechnology is underdeveloped and their men can't be so terrifying."

"That's why I doubt that man from H Country you've met must be over thirty years old. Maybe he took some pills to change his appearance and refresh himself."

"It's true that H Country is less developed than us. So they can't have a 30-year-old 5S-level Ultra-capable man!"

In the end, the scientist with gray hair said firmly.

The chief trusted these scientists. They were the top experts in the world and their words were reliable.

And the chief seriously thought about it. He also thought that the man of H Country must have been only thirty years old, and he should have taken some pills to make himself vigorous.

So he felt much better.

As long as he was not that young, the chief felt he was not that terrifying.

Because he believed ten years later, his own strength would definitely be much stronger than now!

Moreover, Country M's biotechnology would definitely be developed, and he could be modified to be more powerful then.

Then the chief lay down and received professional treatment.

The technology was magical. Even though he was badly injured, his team could help him recover as long as he was still alive.

And since Country M's technology was so developed, he looked down on and despise H Country.

Two days later, Tom went back to the Military Intelligence 3. The Kungfu Cup was coming, and he had to be more alert.

After he returned to the Military Intelligence 3, he immediately told others about the attack on him by the foreign chief.

The members of the Military Intelligence 3 were not surprised because they knew that Tom himself was one of the most powerful masters in the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm.

But General Watson and his men were shocked.

"Tom, are you telling the truth?!"

A superior from the Capital City asked in surprise with his eyes wide open.

Tom nodded and said, "Yes. I don't need to brag."

"According to your description, I guess that foreigner is the chief of the powerful masters from Country M. His name is Johnson. His body has been modified with his country's technology and he is absolutely powerful. Over the years, many of our masters have been killed by him..."

What he meant was how could Tom defeat that foreign chief without getting hurt?

He thought Tom was bragging.

The other people from the Capital City looked at Tom with suspicious eyes too. Obviously they didn't believe him.

Tom didn't bother to explain so he just remained silent. Anyway, he was just reporting what had happened.

Another person asked, "Tom, since you hurt Johnson, why didn't you take him here?"

The question was so sharp that everyone immediately turned their attention to Tom.

Tom didn't explain much and just said simply, "Something happened and he escaped."

Of course, he wouldn't tell them that Lexie had appeared. He was not that stupid.

Chapter 795

Anyway, it was not an honorable thing. There would definitely be misunderstandings if he told others straightforwardly. Moreover, if it was known by Joseph, things would be even worse.

Seeing that he was reluctant to say anymore, the others also didn't push him. After all, Tom was far stronger than them, and it was unwise to be at odds with him.

Amos, in particular, was much more well-behaved now. There was no other way for him to choose because Tom was much more powerful than him. After all, the rule in the world of martial arts depended on people's power.

Then they began to discuss the details of the Kungfu Cup. After all, the opening of the Kungfu Cup was getting closer, with less than half a month left.

During this period of time, more and more foreigners appeared in G State, some to participate in the Kungfu Cup, but some others were here just for watching.

This was a lot of pressure for the Military Intelligence 3.

The Military Intelligence 3 could restrain the martial artists by themselves, but there were too many ordinary foreigners. So they had to rely on the police to maintain order.

Fortunately, Tom's action had suppressed a lot of such disorders. Otherwise, the Military Intelligence 3 would not be able to deal with it.

However, even so, the Military Intelligence 3 was still very busy. Everyone left early and returned late, being extremely nervous.

Of course, Tom was not at leisure, but he was not as busy as the other Military Intelligence 3 agents. He mainly focused on training. Pence told him that the higher-ups would not let him participate in the Kungfu Cup. Only very few people in H Country could be qualified for the competition. No matter how strong Tom was, he would possibly die for it.

But Tom had a feeling that when the time came, he would definitely be allowed to participate.

So in order to prepare in advance, he was now eager to improve his strength as soon as possible.

However, it was already a bottleneck at his stage. It was even more difficult and almost impossible for him to make progress. Thanks to his epiphany a while ago, he was brought closer to the God Becoming Level.

In fact, at this stage, he had to approach the God Becoming Level infinitely. It was almost a process of repetition and accumulation. When he had accumulated enough epiphanies, he would naturally step into the God Becoming Level.

It sounded easy, but the process was really hard. Many people might not even be possible to step into this level for the rest of their life.

Of course, Tom was still very confident in himself. With his fortune and insight, giving time, he would definitely be able to step into the God Becoming Level.

And he had a hunch that the Kungfu Cup would be an opportunity for him!

So, he put aside all the matters at hand and paid attention mainly to cultivation.

While he was practicing, ten days passed in a flash. Johnson, the leader of the westerners, finally recovered with the help of his professional team.

"Crack!"

He clenched his fists and made a noise of joints rubbing, which sounded full of strength. Originally, he was fixed to the bed frame, but he got free very easily. The steel handcuffs were actually broken by him!

His action immediately drew the attention of other scientists in the lab. They quickly looked over and said in surprise, "Leader, It's so good that you're awake! How do you feel now?"

The leader nodded with a flash of light in his eyes. He was so energetic that the group of scientists did not even dare to look him in the eye. They would even feel the sting in their eyes.

The leader twisted his body and revealed a strong smile. He said, "I feel my whole body is full of explosive power now! All the wounds on my body have recovered!"

"Great!" An old scientist beside him said excitedly. "Your physique is amazing, leader. The recovery ability is more than ten times that of ordinary people. And during the time you were injured, we offered you the latest product that had not only helped you recover from the injury but also greatly increased your cell activity. Now your strength is theoretically 20% higher than that before the injury."

Hearing this, Johnson, the leader of the westerners, was also a little surprised. Then he strode straight to a huge force measuring machine in the training room. He took a deep breath and punched with all his strength!

Then a loud bang came.

This huge force measuring machine was actually shaken by his punch, and the whole laboratory even trembled as if it was an earthquake.

Even the foreigners on the ground felt it and were extremely shocked.

Soon, the screen on that machine began to flash rapidly until a number appeared.

"Oh my god! More than ten thousand pounds! Leader, the power of your punch is nearly seven tons! It's too scary, too scary!"

The others were also dumbfounded and stared at the foreign leader as if looking at a monster. They could not imagine it at all. How could a person's fist be so powerful? He could even smash a car to pieces with such a punch. It was unimaginable that if someone was hit by him. How much damage would it cause? A hole may appear through the body!

Leader Johnson was also a little surprised. Originally, his strength was only about 10,000 pounds, but this time, it actually increased by almost a half!

It seemed that he had a blessing in disguise this time.

Country M's biotechnology is indeed the most advanced in the world.

He had enough confidence that he would definitely not be defeated if he met that man from H Country again!

He longed to fight him again and take revenge himself.

"Not bad." He nodded with satisfaction and said, "Your technology is so advanced that you have developed such an effective drug."

Those scientists were also very happy. They were all science geeks with all their lives devoted to science and technology. It was a great pride for them to be able to develop such a powerful serum.

Johnson was very satisfied. Soon, he changed his clothes and came out of the lab.

He asked to his men, "Has anything happened during this period of time?"

"Leader, everything's been quite smooth recently. We all stayed at the base to train and prepare for the Kungfu Cup."

Johnson nodded, "What about H Country? Have you done anything to them?"

"No, no..." They quickly denied for they did not dare to go out during this period of time.

After a pause, another person said, "However, leader, Country Y, and the Red Sun State had found from somewhere that you lost to that guy from H Country and they are secretly laughing at you..."

"What?!" Hearing this, the foreigners' leader Johnson immediately frowned and became unhappy.

"Leader, they also invited you to the banquet tonight. We saw that you hadn't come out for these days so we intended to refuse, but now..."

Johnson said, "No. I'll be there tonight."

Chapter 796

Johnson knew that if he didn't attend tonight's banquet, his international reputation would definitely be ruined. Everyone would think that he was frightened by the man from H Country! When the time came, not only would he lose face, but even Country M would be affected.

So no matter what, he couldn't allow this to happen.

In the evening, he led a group of his men to the venue of the banquet.

Tonight's banquet was organized by some foreign powers other than H Country, including several other countries besides Country M.

When Johnson arrived, he immediately attracted a lot of attention.

"Look, Johnson is here."

"Oh, it's really Johnson. Isn't this guy already beaten by the man from H Country? How dare he come here now?"

"Ha ha ha, he's been hiding for ten days. I thought he had become a coward, but I didn't expect him to show up. I heard that he was taught a good lesson by the man from H Country."

"Interesting. Let's go over and ask how he was defeated by the man from H Country."

"He can't even beat a man from H Country. It seems that Johnson is just so-so. He's not as powerful as the rumors say."

As a 5S-level superpower man, Johnson's hearing was several times better than that of ordinary people. Naturally, he could hear these people at once.

To be honest, he was quite angry. He was a 5S-level superpower man, one of the groups of people who stood at the top of the world. However he was ridiculed by a group of weak men!

Hmph!

He snorted heavily and walked in with a cold face.

Soon, someone walked up to him and said in a teasing tone, "Oh, Johnson, why are you here tonight? I thought you had already returned to Country M?"

Immediately, everyone around them began to laugh at Johnson blatantly.

Johnson said coldly, "Why should I go back to Country M? I come here to win the championship!"

"Champion? Johnson, are you kidding me? We heard that you can't even beat a man from H Country. At your level, are you qualified to be champion?"

The person who said this was a 4S-Level master in Country Y, and he mocked Johnson directly.

The expression on Johnson's face immediately changed. He was sensitive about his reputation. A master of 4S-Level dared to mock him. The man was presumptuous!

"How dare you?" Johnson immediately enhanced his momentum and was about to attack the man.

When Johnson was about to hit the other party with a punch, a voice came out immediately, with ridicule. "Johnson, you were defeated by the man from H Country, so now you are angry and ashamed to bully your junior?"

When he heard this voice, the expression on Johnson's face changed slightly and he stopped immediately.

When Johnson looked over, he immediately saw a slender and handsome middle-aged man in a suit came out with a goblet in his hand, slowly shaking. His skin was especially pale, without any color. He looked like a vampire in a movie.

And he was also a 5S-Level superpower man in Country Y!

When Johnson saw the man, his eyes flashed slightly. He immediately became afraid and did not dare to attack the superpower man in Country Y.

"William Walton, are you also here to fight for the championship?" Johnson said in a low voice.

The man from Country Y named William Walton walked up to Johnson and observed. He said in surprise, "Johnson, your blood and qi are stronger than before. Did you eat the latest product from Country M?"

The others present was both surprised and envious.

Johnson smiled and said proudly, "Yes! Now my strength has increased by 20%. William Walton, you are no match for me!"

A 20 % increase was too overbearing.

William Walton frowned slightly. If Johnson really increased his strength by 20%, he might not be able to beat Johnson.

Before, his strength was slightly better than Johnson's.

In the ranking of international experts, he was one rank higher than Johnson.

Now that Johnson had increased his strength by 20%, did that mean Johnson was going to surpass him?

For a moment, William Walton became depressed.

At this moment, another voice came from the crowd, "So what if you increased your strength by 20%? You were still crushed by a man from H Country. Johnson, you're really embarrassing your Country M. Tsk tsk."

As soon as the voice came out, a figure came out. He didn't look tall, but his aura was very overbearing. It was obvious that he was not an ordinary person.

When the others heard this, they also laughed and thought that Johnson was indeed shameful since he could not even beat a man from H Country.

Over the years, the people of H Country have been weak. Apart from the God of War, there were no other powerful masters.

As for God of War, because he had an appointment with the masters of the God Becoming Level from all over the world, he wouldn't make moves at will. To them, God of War was almost no threat.

So they had enough confidence to despise H Country.

In time, when God of War grew old, H Country would really decline.

It was not impossible for H Country to leave the leading powers directly.

"Junichiro Nakai, you're here too?!"
Johnson stared at the man and said in a deep voice, his tone full of fear.

Junichiro Nakai was a famous master in the Red Sun State. Even internationally, he was famous.

Junichiro Nakai, in particular, was ranked three places above him on the international masters list!

Although he had never fought Junichiro Nakai, he knew that he was not a match for Junichiro Nakai.

Junichiro Nakai smiled. Johnson didn't know what method he used. Clearly, Junichiro Nakai's hand didn't touch the apple next to him, but the apple flew towards him and was held by him.

It looked like a superpower.

However, Johnson knew that this was not a superpower, but Junichiro Nakai's powerful skills of using hidden weapon. With a transparent silk thread, he pierced through the apple a few meters away and pulled it over.

And all these movements were very fast, which ordinary people could not see.

Ordinary people would only think that Junichiro Nakai was a man with superpower.

"This time, the Kungfu Cup champion's prizes are very rich. I, Junichiro Nakai, naturally want to participate." Nakai said with a smile.

Then, from a few other corners, a few more people came out. All of them were at 5S-Level and on the international masters list.

When Johnson saw this scene, he deeply frowned and felt that this time there were so many undiscovered talents to participate in the Kungfu Cup. It was still difficult for him to win the championship among so many strong players!

However, he quickly thought of one person.

Solomon.

Solomon was the number one master at the God Becoming Level in Country M. If Solomon joined, their chances of winning the championship in would still be very high.

Faced with the ridicule of these powerful people, Johnson snorted heavily and sneered, "You don't have to mock me. If you meet that man from H Country, you won't even be able to escape!"

Chapter 797

As Johnson said this, all the audiences followed an interim of silence. Everyone looked at Johnson, strangely, mockingly.

"Hahaha, Johnson, I think you're absolutely frightened by that Chinese. You even begin to brag about them. I didn't expect that as a master of Country M, you, Johnson, have conceded defeat to a Chinese. Haha, you really did something good to your country!"

Immediately, someone began to mock Johnson. Their words were extremely hard to listen to.

"Johnson, you are at least a 5S-level superpower. You were scared by a Chinese? What a joke! You are really a disgrace to our 5s level superpowers! You not only lose face to your country but also lost face to us." Junichiro Nakai said sarcastically. They didn't believe Johnson at all. They thought that Johnson was just making excuses for his failure, or else he was afraid of the Chinese.

However, no matter what the truth was, they all got a message that the Chinese must be very powerful. Otherwise, Johnson would not be defeated and say such words without ambition.

As Johnson's men, they also felt awkward. Obviously, they did not expect that their leader would praise a Chinese so much in public. It was really embarrassing, so they all took a few steps back, lowered their heads, and kept their distance from Johnson.

The reaction of these subordinates was seen by others. Then they looked down on Johnson more.

Johnson also noticed this. He was unhappy but said nothing. Instead, he sneered in his mind. He just bragged about the Chinese deliberately and let them be battered by the Chinese's strength. Then they would finally know what it felt like!

Johnson did not stay in the banquet and left soon.

Anyway, he had already achieved his goal. When these people tried to be in a fight with the young man from H Country, they would know how powerful he is.

Moreover, there was a very important purpose for him to do this -- let them kill each other. Then he and Solomon would be able to reap the benefits, wonderful!

In a few days, the Kungfu Cup was about to officially start. By then, it was time for him to start performing.

In this limited period of time, he had to adjust to the new challenges, not lose a single game, and win the championship without a defeat of the entire arena!

After he left, the remaining 5S-level masters also kept the name Tom in their minds. If they met him in the future, they had to be careful.

For Tom, during this period of time, he was cultivating in a semi-closed way. He tried to enter the state of epiphany again, but it was already difficult.

But he did get something. These days, he adjusted his state to the best.

One day before the Kungfu Cup started, an opening ceremony was held in H Country.

The scene was very grand, and almost all the martial artists who came to participate in the competition came to the ceremony.

All the 5S-level superpowers, including

Johnson, were present. In addition, there were thousands of martial artists, making the entire stadium under low pressure.

Ordinary people could not bear it at all. Not long after, their hearts would not withstand the pressure, and they would bleed from their eyes, ears, nose, and mouth to death.

After all, the pressure brought by so many martial artists was high enough to kill them, not to mention that there were so many experts in the Innate Realm.

So that's why such a Kungfu Cup is not for the general public.

It was the protection for ordinary people.

As the organizer of H Country, General Watson stepped onto the stage to deliver a speech. His speech was perfect. It not only showed H Country's hospitality and national strength but also emphasized the importance of the Kungfu Cup. With the live music, the speech seemed especially exciting and inspiring.

All the people felt a surge of excitement!

This time, there were indeed a lot of people in the Kungfu Cup, more than a thousand. The weakest one was even in the Extrinsic Peak.

It was absolutely a big game.

And this group of people was definitely a strong power wherever they go. If they began to fight, the power they brought was as striking as a nuclear bomb!

Generally speaking, if there was no sufficient national strength and confidence, no one would dare to let the Kungfu Cup hold on his own international territory as the risks brought by it were too high!

If these martial artists were to riot, they could turn a city into purgatory in a very short time.

In addition to the strong national strength, H Country had another reason to hold the Cup. That is, they have the God of War of the God Becoming Level, just one of whom can deter more than a thousand martial artists!

Moreover, H Country had not only one God Becoming Level expert, but also a more powerful person than the god of war--King of Luo Tian!

Although King of Luo Tian was not an official man in H Country, he was Chinese. There was impossible that the King of Luo Tian would stand by and do nothing if an accident happened. This gave H Country the greatest confidence.

Of course, no one dared to make a big fuss in such a situation. It was pure suicide.

They only dared to bully others in private.

After all, they were not stupid pigs, and no one wanted to die.

So many people participated in the Kungfu Cup this time because they could get several prizes in addition to being able to get the glory. That was the main reason. It is said that just the bonus already reached 500 million dollars!

Of course, for the masters in the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm, 500 million dollars was not much.

What attracted them more was that the champion could be guided by three God Becoming Level experts, who were God of War of the H Country, Adam of M Country, and the queen of Eagle Country.

Besides, the champion could also have a chance to go to the secret realm!

This was the craziest prize, the secret realm. It is said that it was a magical place that can help the experts in Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm to break through to the God Becoming Level in a short time!

According to the sources, the three God Becoming Level masters were all the champions of the Kungfu Cup in the past, went to the mystic realm. After coming into the secret realm, they soon broke through to the top of the God Becoming Level.

God Becoming Level experts, they are the most powerful people in the world, more glorious than the president!

Almost everyone who came to the Kungfu Cup wanted to be the champion, and this was an opportunity to shortcut themselves to success.

To be honest, when Tom knew this, his heart beat faster, and became excited.

If he reached the God Becoming Level, he would be even stronger.

And he no longer had to be controlled by the King of Luo Tian.

After General Watson's speech, it was time for free communication.

As the organizer of this event, many people wanted to come and communicate with others.

After a while, a group of people walked over and said in a provocative tone, "I've heard that you H Country have a very powerful master who wants to be the champion. What an arrogant man! I can't find him now. Did he hide and dare not come out?"

The man's words were full of provocation.

Chapter 798

All of a sudden, the people present from H Country frowned slightly. Then Pence stood out and said, "Mr. Nakai, are you talking about Tom? I'm sorry, he had something to do today and didn't come over."

Indeed, Tom was still in seclusion. He did not appear at the opening ceremony today because he didn't need to. In such an occasion, God of War had already arrived in H City to support the event. So Tom didn't need to show up at all.

He also supported Tom to do so because he knew the importance of this Kungfu Cup, which was held in H Country. The authorities must be trying to keep the championship trophy in H Country!

They fought not only for glory, but also for the qualification to go to the secret realm. It was a rare opportunity. If Tom was able to go to the secret realm, it meant that Tom had a chance to break through to the God Becoming Level.

It was God Becoming Level! If Tom could really break through to the God Becoming Level, then H Country would have three masters of this level! Besides, Tom was so young and so loyal to H Country, and the benefits he could bring to H Country were unimaginable!

Although this process was full of difficulties and dangers, which high-income thing in the world was not accompanied by high risk?

Besides, he also believed in Tom very much. He believed that with Tom's strength, he could definitely save himself from danger.

When Junichiro Nakai heard what he said, he immediately laughed, "Hahaha, didn't he come? I think he's afraid of us, so he didn't dare to show up!"

He deliberately said this out loud, and it immediately reached everyone's ears, and almost everyone's eyes were on him.

There were also some experts in the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm who began to walk over with a playful expression on their faces.

One of the purposes of their participation in the opening ceremony this time was to see Tom, the man from H Country who could defeat Johnson.

Because apart from Tom, they were familiar with each other, and only Tom was an unknown opponent.

This time, the Kungfu Cup was too important. Any one of them was bound to win the championship and would never allow the champion to fall into the hands of the H Country!

H Country already had two God Becoming Level masters. If there was another one, then H Country's strength would definitely increase substantially. It was likely to become the world's most powerful country in a short time. They would never allow this to happen!

Pence frowned slightly and said, "Mr. Nakai, you are a master of 5S-level and one of the most likely champions this time. You must have asked about Tom a long time ago. If you knew Tom's strength, why did you say so?"

Pence was very polite. First, he wanted to show the demeanor of H Country. Second, Junichiro Nakai was also a top expert and he didn't dare to offend him.

But his modesty became a sign of weakness in the eyes of Junichiro Nakai and others. Junichiro Nakai laughed and said, "How long has it been since last time a master showed up in your H Country? You can't even enter the top four in the previous Kungfu Cups. Do I need to gather information about your country? I heard that a man from your country actually defeated Johnson. I would like to see what kind of tricks he used."

When he said that, he didn't take H Country seriously at all.

Although he was in H Country, and talked to Pence, the director of the Military Intelligence 3, he was still so arrogant.

At this moment, Pence's face became grave. Not only him, but also the Military Intelligence 3 agents behind him, all of them pulled a long face.

At this time, General Watson came over and said, "Junichiro Nakai, I didn't expect that, as the No.1 master in the Red Sun State, you lowered yourself to talk nonsense like that. You've said so just because you're afraid of Tom. You're afraid of our H Country winning this championship. You're scared."

General Watson hit the nail on the head. Although he was only a civilian official, his IQ was exceptionally high. Coupled with his high status for a long time, his ability was not something that ordinary people could compare to.

When Junichiro Nakai heard this, his expression suddenly changed and a hint of awkwardness flashed on his face.

General Watson was right about him.

He was a little scared this time.

Of course, it was impossible for him to admit such a thing. He snorted heavily and said, "Scared? What a joke! I have killed countless people in your country. Your H Country have no one else but that God of War can be a match for me. How come I'm scared?"

"You!!"

He said this too arrogantly. It was under such an occasion and in front of so many people of H Country, so all of them, including General Watson, were instantly angered.

If they had the ability, they wouldn't hesitate to slap Junichiro Nakai to death!

Pence, Marlin, and the others looked at each other angrily. Even Amos gritted his teeth.

They suddenly regretted not calling Tom over here. If Tom was here, Junichiro Nakai wouldn't dare to be so arrogant!

Although the God of War was here, it was impossible for him to show up in such a situation. Just like children's quarreling, if the parents also took action, it would be too inappropriate.

So they had to suffer this humiliation.

Marlin said fiercely, "Junichiro Nakai, stop being arrogant! Tom is in seclusion and meditation. When Tom comes out, he can defeat you with one hand!"

Junichiro Nakai immediately glared at him. Immediately, Marlin's whole body trembled, and his face turned pale. He was speechless. Junichiro Nakai snorted disdainfully, "A nobody actually dares to be presumptuous in front of me."

Marlin was extremely angry, but he could only bear it, because he was no match for Junichiro Nakai. If he made a move, he would be the defeated one.

Now he really missed Tom very much. It would be great if Tom were here.

Not only did he think so, but almost everyone began to miss Tom.

Only a master like Tom could teach Junichiro Nakai a lesson and defeat him with violence.

Not long after, a few other Major Perfection Realm experts of the Innate Realm also came over to mock H Country. They all wanted to see Tom this time. Not seeing Tom, they were a little disappointed, but they immediately relaxed, and their fear of Tom was much less.

Tom didn't show up on such an important occasion, which meant that Tom was afraid of them. Otherwise, why did he hide?

After all, he was just a coward.

Such a person like him were not worthy to be their opponents.

Chapter 799

In a popular coffee bar, there was a man in ordinary clothes, sitting in a corner with his eyes closed.

He was sitting there, but there was no one in the coffee shop noticed him, as if he was just a statue.

He was Tom.

And he wasn't here just for coffee but for practice.

If someone else saw it, they would be shocked. As was known for all, most people prefer a quiet place at which they would not be disturbed.

Because closed-door practice needed a high level of concentration and mental energy!

Moreover, when people were in closed-door practice, they would be weak. So they had to find an absolutely safe and quiet place to protect themselves from being disturbed.

But Tom chose to practise in such a noisy coffee shop, which was quite uncommon!

This coffee bar was very popular. Two girls came over with two glasses in their hands and asked politely, "Excuse me, can we sit here?"

Tom didn't say anything, but nodded gently with his eyes closed.

He seemed to be indifferent, which made these two girls very curious.

They believed they were beautiful and could be regarded as goddesses in the circle.

If passers-by saw them, they could not move their eyes, and even some bold people would accost them.

But the man in front of them didn't give any glance at them.

These two girls didn't think much about it, and just sat down for coffee and enjoyed their vacation.

Tom entered a mysterious state at this time. Ninety-five percent of his energy was immersed in practice, and only five percent was left in reality. Besides, he was slowly trying to focus more on closed-door practice.

Practicing in a quiet and safe place no longer worked for him, so he chose to train himself downtown to stimulate himself.

This was even more dangerous than training at the edge of the cliff!

Once Tom met a master above the third stage of the Innate Realm, then he would be in danger!

If he met someone in Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, then he would be dead.

Originally, even on the street, it would be difficult to meet the masters of the Innate Realm, because there were few people of the Innate Realm.

But now the situation was different.

Due to the Kungfu Cup, many foreign experts of the Innate Realm came here. If he was really unlucky, it was possible to meet the masters of the Innate Realm.

It was precisely because of this that Tom was able to make the greatest progress in the shortest time.

In fact, it wasn't the first day that Tom had been training in this coffee bar. He had been here for several days, and every day he came early. He ordered a cup of coffee and then just sat in the corner with his eyes closed.

At first, Tom didn't attract anyone's attention. But after a long time, someone noticed him.

"This man is so strange. He comes here early every day and orders a cup of coffee, then he just sits still. He doesn't eat or drink or go to the bathroom. What's his problem?"

"I don't know. There are always the odd ones in this world."

"Is he pretending to be cold in order to attract a beautiful woman's attention?"

"What? How is that possible? In this society, a man without wealth and handsomeness cannot attract any beautiful women. Do you think you are reading silly fiction?"

"That's true..."

Although Tom was meditating, he could still hear the voices of the people around him. He felt it wonderful. It was as if he was in the machine, and the voices of those people sounded a little unreal.

The two beauties also heard these people's discussion. They looked at Tom in surprise. They did not expect that this ordinary-looking man had stayed here for a few days. His mystery aroused their curiosity.

They looked at each other, then one of them asked, "Hey, do you have a tissue?"

Tom shook his head and still didn't open his eyes.

His reaction made the two beauties even more interested in him. They found that Tom, who had an indescribable temperament, was mysterious and attractive. Although he looked ordinary at first glance, he had a chiselled jaw and smooth skin, and there was no blemish on his face. His skin was even better than theirs.

This seemed a little abnormal.

They looked at each other again. According to their intuition, they felt that this man in front of them was not simple, and he must have a story behind.

So another beauty asked, "Why do you keep your eyes closed? Are you sleepy?"

Tom did not answer, because he knew that the two women were accosting him, and now he gradually focused all his attention on the practice.

If he focused 100 % of his energy on the practice, then his five senses would stop working, and he would not be able to hear or sense the outside world.

Gradually, he would completely concentrate on meditation. Then his body would secrete a lot of hormones to forge his body and mind.

Therefore, at his level, ordinary physical exercise, such as boxing and long-distance running, had no effect on him. Only through meditation, a mysterious state, could he continuously secrete hormones and improve his constitution.

Then his strength would be increased.

Of course, it was very risky for him to do this, which was as dangerous as dancing on the edge of the sword.

Facing Tom's indifference, the two beautiful women were a little angry. They had never been ignored by a man like this before.

Was he playing cat and mouse?

They all thought of this idiom. Indeed, they had encountered many people like this before. In order to attract their attention, they deliberately pretended to be difficult to get along with.

These two girls were a little disdainful with this old trick, so they thought that Tom was the same as that kind of men.

So when the person next to them left, they immediately walked over, deliberately kept away from Tom. Any man who pretended to be arrogant would feel regretful when faced with this situation.

They believed that Tom would definitely react the same way and came over to chat with them, even flatter them.

However, Tom's reaction disappointed them...

Chapter 800

Tom did not move and still sat in repose with his eyes closed. He looked as if he had fallen asleep, without any intention of going over to chat them up!

Ten minutes passed.

Half an hour passed.

An hour passed.

He remained the same.

Now, they were a little restless.

Was this guy really not interested in them?

It didn't make sense.

In fact, they were strangers to Tom. And he was really not interested in them. It was ridiculous that men must chase after beautiful women.

However, because of their self-confidence and Tom's unique temperament, they became uneasy and unconsciously attracted to Tom.

And even they themselves didn't notice it.

Although Tom looked ordinary, his temperament was quite special. It was no exaggeration to say that he was like a magnet for most women and always attracted women's attention.

Otherwise, there wouldn't be so many beauties falling for him.

"This guy is a little hateful!"

"Is he really not interested in us?"

The two beauties began to discuss, and slowly, they became anxious.

Even they themselves found their reaction strange. They just felt upset and unwilling to accept that Tom didn't adore them.

Not long after, the friends of these two beautiful women came. Two handsome young people were dressed in expensive clothes. They were obviously from rich families and were pursuing these two beautiful women.

When they saw the two beauties, their eyes lit up immediately. They quickly walked over to greet them and sat down.

"Hi, Angelina, Monroe. I'm sorry to keep you waiting."

The two young men sat down and stared at Angelina and Monroe without concealing their affection.

Originally, Angelina and Monroe also had a good impression of these two young people. After all, they were handsome, rich, and humorous.

But for some reason, after they met Tom, they suddenly felt that the two young people were not very attractive.

Compared to the calm Tom, these two humorous young people looked immature.

Therefore, they did not seem very excited about the arrival of the two young people. Instead, they were quite calm and just nodded as a greeting.

Their eyes were still on Tom. They became more and more curious about Tom. They wondered who he was and why he sat there for so long without moving, like a statue.

The most special thing was Tom's temperament. It was very charming and unique. Unconsciously, their attention was attracted by it.

Finally, the women's abnormal behavior attracted the attention of the two young men, and they also looked at Tom. When they saw an ordinary-looking man, they frowned slightly. One of the young men asked, "Angelina, Monroe, do you know this man?"

"Ah? No." Angelina shook her head and said. There was a blush on her face as she was caught peeping at him, and their reaction made the two young people even more unhappy.

After all, they had been pursuing these two goddesses for a long time. When they were about to succeed, a strange man suddenly appeared and spoiled their plan. He even seemed to have an affair with the women, which made the two young people immediately unhappy.

"Don't you know him? Then why are you looking at him all the time?"

Another young man said.

Now, Angelina and Monroe felt even more embarrassed. At the same time, they also felt incredible. Did they really keep peeking at that guy? But how could it be? They didn't even know that guy, and he was not handsome at all!

"No, don't talk nonsense," Monroe said.

The atmosphere was a little silent. Originally, they were here for a date and should have been happy about it, but now, all four of them were absent-minded.

Just then, Tom, who had been motionless, suddenly opened his eyes and looked towards them.

Angelina and Monroe happened to meet his gaze, which immediately stunned them. Their minds were in a mess and their hearts beat faster inexplicably!

Tom's eyes were so deep, like the stars in the sky, that they completely attracted their attention!

Their hearts beat faster, and their beautiful faces blushed all of a sudden. They were in an extremely shy state.

Tom only opened his eyes for two seconds, then closed them again and continued to rest.

Of course, he wasn't looking at these two women just now. Instead, he sensed the aura of a master in the Innate Realm who passed by outside the coffee shop.

And he was a master of the second stage of the Innate Realm and a foreigner.

However, he did not notice Tom, which still put pressure on Tom. If it were someone else, he would not continue to meditate with his eyes closed. But Tom was different. The more pressure he felt, the more he wanted to rest!

He felt that he was getting closer and closer to the threshold of the God Becoming Level, and his body secreted a lot of hormones, constantly forging and nurturing his body.

Tomorrow was the Kungfu Cup, and he had to improve his strength.

So he quickly regained his composure.

"Wow, he just looked at me! I'm so excited! Besides, his eyes are so deep. I can't stand his gaze when he looks at me. My heart is about to jump out!"

"Nonsense, he was looking at me just now, okay! His eyes seemed to speak. He was so cool. I've never seen such a special man before. I felt like I was about to fall... But didn't I just see him less than two hours ago?"

Angelina and Monroe looked shy. They didn't care about the two young men here at all and began to discuss and express their love for Tom. How could the two young people stand it? Their faces turned livid and they snorted heavily.

One of the young men said, "It seems that you know this guy. Let's go over and greet him."

"Yes, go and say hello!"

Angelina and Monroe were a little excited and they asked anxiously, "Will we disturb him?"

"Ha ha, what's the bother? We'll go right now!"

After saying that, the two young men strode towards Tom and sneered. They had long disliked Tom who hindered their pursuit. They wanted the women to see what they would do to Tom!

After they walked over, one of the young men gave Tom a hard beat on the shoulder and deliberately said in a kind tone, "Hey, dude..."

However, before he could finish his sentence, he flew out and slammed into the table and chair behind him.
