

Chapter 827

Tom had already heard of Little Martial God, knowing that he was the first master of Y City. He used to be the strongest master of the H Country and was just inferior to the God Becoming Level.

But a few years ago, the Little Martial God began to seclude himself, and people's discussion on him slowly cooled down.

So Tom didn't meet him and rarely heard from him, but Tom had always wanted to fight with the Little Martial God. Tom didn't expect him to come today personally. It was so lucky for him to see the Little Martial God today.

"Little Martial God, are you here to stop me?" Tom said with a smile. Even if he faced the Little Martial God, he felt no pressure. Although he was young now, he had enough strength, and he was confident that even if he fought with the Little Martial God, he would not show any weakness.

This was the confidence that his strength gave him.

Others were excited to see the Little Martial God and thought that he must have come to save them. After all, the Little Martial God was also from Y City.

The Little Martial God nodded and said, "Can you show me some respect and let them go?"

The Little Martial God was very sincere and very modest. He was not as arrogant as his reputation seemed, and he looked like an old farmer, which was far from his reputation.

In fact, Tom was also quite surprised. He knew that the Little Martial God was very strong, but the image of him was really beyond his expectations.

"What if I say no?" Tom said with some amusement.

The Little Martial God sighed and said, "Then there's nothing I can do with you."

After saying that, he turned around and wanted to leave without any intention of fighting Tom.

His action immediately surprised everyone present. No one expected that the Little Martial God would turn around and leave. Was that a sign of cowardice? This was too unbelievable. The Little Martial God was a super strong man who had been famous for many years. He almost stepped into the God Becoming Level back then!

Although Tom was powerful, he was just a young man. Was the Little Martial God so afraid of Tom?

Not to mention them, even Tom himself was a little surprised. He thought that the Little Martial God had come all the way here to fight with him. But he didn't expect the Little Martial God to be a coward.

"Wait." Tom stopped the Little Martial God and said, "Give me a reason."

The Little Martial God stopped, turned around, looked at Tom and said, "They are all ignorant young men. You don't need to take them seriously."

Tom said indifferently, "But they want to threaten me with my family."

The Little Martial God sighed again and said, "I won't agree with them."

His words were a little inexplicable, but Tom could tell that the Little Martial God was paying attention to him. Even if he didn't show up today, the Little Martial God wouldn't let Lucian and others do anything to his family. Tom believed that.

Because the Little Martial God didn't need to lie to him.

After thinking for a while, Tom said, "Okay, I'll show you some respect today. But next time, I'll kill them directly. No one can stop me."

The Little Martial God nodded, smiled innocently and said, "Thank you."

Lucian and others breathed a sigh of relief when they saw this scene. At the same time, they felt a lingering fear. If it weren't for the Little Martial God, the lunatic Tom might have done something terrible to them!

Now they had no hatred for Tom at all, because they all realized that they were not on the same level with Tom at all. Although they had a powerful backer, they were still far worse than super strong Tom.

They finally figured out why Lexie, such a proud woman, would like Tom.

Tom didn't care what these people thought, just as the lion didn't care what the rabbit thought at all. He only had the Little Martial God in his eyes, and his eyes flashed with a sense of excitement. He said, "Wanna have a fight?"

The Little Martial God shook his head and said, "I am no match for you."

When the crowd heard this, they were surprised again. What? Did they hear it correctly? The Little Martial God actually admitted that he was no match for Tom? Was Tom really that strong?

Grand Master Wu, in particular, was a master of the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm and the only person present who had seen the Little Martial God fight. He was the one who knew the Little Martial God's horrible power the most. If he fought with the Little Martial God, he wouldn't be able to take three moves at all!

But even the Little Martial God thought he was no match for Tom? Moreover, Tom was still so young. In a few more years, who could be a match for Tom?

Tom said, "How do you know you're no match for me if we don't fight?"

The Little Martial God did not answer his question, but changed the topic and said, "This time in the Kungfu Cup, you are the only one who can fight for the championship for H Country. I have nothing special to help you. I only can tell you my ultimate martial arts and hope you can take the champion back for H Country."

Hearing this, Tom was once again surprised. The Little Martial God actually would teach him his ultimate martial arts? This was too magical!

However, he soon saw sincerity in the eyes of the Little Martial God. He was not joking.

Tom thought for a while, nodded and said, "I won't disappoint you."

"That's good." A pleased and honest smile appeared on the Little Martial God's face, and then he struck out at Tom without warning.

His move made everyone feel very confused. Didn't the Little Martial God just say that he was no match for Tom? Why did he take the initiative to attack now? Was he making a sneak attack?

Only Grand Master Wu understood what the Little Martial God meant. His eyes flashed wildly. Finally, he sighed, "No wonder I'm not as good as the Little Martial God. His mind and tolerance is really amazing!"

How could Grand Master Wu not understand that the Little Martial God was going to show his ultimate skills for Tom? For a master like Tom, he could copy the skills of the Little Martial God by just watching it once and experiencing the way the Little Martial God used his power.

Tom understood too. His eyes instantly became sharp and he began to fight with the Little Martial God.

This time, they did not make much noise in the fight, which was far less destructive than the fight with Grand Master Wu just now. They seemed to be just playing.

However, only they knew the danger between them. At the same time, the Little Martial God also used this method to show the essence of his martial arts for Tom to learn.

Their movements even became slower and slower, and eventually became as slow as old men who practiced Tai Chi in the park.

It lasted for half an hour before they stopped. Finally, Tom let go of him first and bowed to the Little Martial God, saying sincerely, "Thank you!"

Chapter 828

A smile appeared on Little Martial God's face. He waved his hand and looked at Tom, with eyes full of appreciation for him. "It's a blessing for H Country that it can cultivate such an overmatch like you. Now that the times have changed, we are old and the world belongs to you youngsters."

Tom felt the breath of the times from Little Martial God, the crystallization of his era.

Little Martial God was 60 years old this year. Even a Major Perfection Realm expert was no match for the physiological mechanism of the human body. His metabolism obviously slowed down, his body began to age, and his strength began to decline.

Maybe it was God Becoming Level that could really push the peak to over 100 years old!

Tom also smiled brightly and said, "I will guard this era."

Little Martial God nodded, without saying more, he put on his raincoat again and disappeared into the rain.

After he left, Tom did not linger anymore, nor did he say anything cruel. Because it was unnecessary for these people to offend him again if they weren't fools.

Finally, when it was time for Tom to leave, people here finally breathed a sigh of relief. Their tense body finally slumped down, gasping for air.

There was no other way. The pressure Tom had put on them just now was too great, completely exceeding the limit they could bear!

Since then, they all had completely given up the idea of go against Tom. Next time they met him, they had to retreat.

They never wanted to experience such fear and despair today again!

And the most disappointed and uncomfortable one among all those present was Lucian.

He seemed to be drained of all his strength, slumping weakly on the ground and leaned against the wall with energy lost for a while. He knew that for the rest of his life, he would no longer have to fight against Tom, and he dispelled the idea of pursuing Lexie.

Finally, he let out a long sigh, "Why is there such a person in the world?"

Tom's existence really gave him an unprecedented kind of powerlessness and despair, like a mountain tightly blocking in the front unable to be surpassed for a lifetime, and even the space to look up to was gradually disappearing.

After leaving here, Tom did not stay any longer. He immediately left Y City and returned to H City.

When he returned to H City, it was already night.

He first went back to the Military Intelligence 3 to deliver a report, gaining a rough update of the situation in the Kungfu Cup the past two days, then went back to rest.

The situation was similar to what he had imagined. The candidates of H Country were very miserable, whose overall level was not comparable to those abroad.

In several groups, not many H Country martial artists could advance.

Moreover, many H Country martial artists were killed on the ring. Even if some were not killed, they were seriously injured.

Because of this situation, some H Country martial artists were discouraged and dropped out midway.

As a result, there were fewer martial artists who could compete on behalf of H Country.

Fortunately, the Kungfu Cup hadn't been launched to the public. Otherwise, such a fierce competition and serious situation would definitely cause a certain degree of social unrest.

Tom knew that the overall level of H Country martial artists in this Kungfu Cup was not as good as that of foreigners, but he never expected that the gap would be so large. And just this time, it was held in H Country. In this way, H Country's reputation would be even worse.

Websites that only martial artists could log in were filled with news and posts mocking H Country martial artists.

"H Country martial artists were defeated, the humiliation of the organizer!"

"Cassa's prediction is accurate. This time, Kungfu Cup should not choose H Country, because H Country is not qualified!"

"In this Kungfu Cup, H Country has announced its early withdrawal. The champion will be among large countries such as the Red Sun State, Country Y, and Country R!"

"Tom, organizer of this Kungfu Cup, disappeared yesterday. According to speculation, he was already afraid and dare not participate in!"

Such news and posts were endless, especially some posts that were extremely over-written belittled H Country to nothing! Even Tom became a coward.

Seeing these posts and news, even Tom could not help getting annoyed.

At the same time, he also felt great pressure. The situation of this Kungfu Cup was really serious for H Country! It was conceivable that how explosive it would be if he didn't win the Kungfu Cup championship. In this way, the pressure on his shoulders even aggravated.

He didn't stay at the Military Intelligence 3 this night, but went home.

Today, he had to have a good rest and return to the Kungfu Cup in an invincible manner tomorrow!

Phoebe felt his pressure without saying much, just hugging him silently and gave him the greatest support.

Amelia also knew that he was going to participate in the Kungfu Cup. As his confidante, Amelia didn't say anything negative. Knowing that he was home, she didn't call to embarrass him but just sent him a long message.

In the message, she expressed her love and yearning for him, and finally encouraged him not to have pressure. She would always stand by him and cheer for him.

To be honest, when Tom saw this message, he was very moved and immediately full of strength.

He couldn't help but sigh how lucky he was to have two confidants, Phoebe and Amelia.

Tom did not meditate this night but chose to sleep, hugging Phoebe and fell asleep until dawn.

He slept very relaxed this time. Opening his eyes, he was full of endless energy!

After breakfast, Tom went straight to the Kungfu Cup stadium.

Just as he was about to arrive at the stadium, someone stopped him from behind as soon as he got out of the car.

"Tom."

Hearing this voice, Tom was stunned for a moment, then he turned around and saw a few young people, two of whom were very familiar, Isabella and Diana.

The rest were quite pretty young people.

After seeing him, they all showed curious expressions.

Tom was quite dazed when seeing them. Speaking of it, he had not seen

Isabella for a long time.

"Here you are." Tom smiled and walked towards them.

When Isabella saw him coming over, her heart inexplicably beat faster. Diana, on the other hand, had stars in her eyes and went over and shouted in admiration, "Hello, it's so great. I finally met you! Are you here to sign up for Kungfu Cup too?"

Chapter 829

Hearing this, Tom was stunned.

Diana and Isabella also came to sign up for the Kungfu Cup?

Without waiting for Tom to answer, Diana immediately said excitedly, "That's great. If you participate in the Kungfu Cup, you will definitely win the championship! By then, you will be a famous master in the world!"

When other young men heard Diana's words, they immediately showed surprise. At the same time, they were even more curious about Tom. They stared at Tom and wanted to figure out whether Tom was a master.

However, no matter how they looked at Tom up and down, they still could not find a hint of master in him. Because Tom looked too ordinary, just like a passer-by. He had no such thing as a master's demeanor. They couldn't believe such a person could be a master.

Tom was surprised. He said to Diana, "Are you here to join the Kungfu Cup?"

If Diana and Isabella really came to sign up for the Kungfu Cup, then Tom would definitely stop them because he knew very well the cruelty of the Kungfu Cup. With their strength, they would get hurt.

Diana's answer confirmed his guess, "Yes, master, how do you know? We're here to join the Kungfu Cup! I heard that the Kungfu Cup this time has gathered a lot of internationally renowned experts, and the world's martial artists are paying attention to the Kungfu Cup. If we can make some achievements in the Kungfu Cup, we will be internationally famous!"

As she spoke, she was very excited and her eyes were filled with stars.

Tom knew Diana's character, so it wasn't too strange for her to come here. But why did Isabella, such a lady, think of joining the Kungfu Cup?

So he asked Isabella directly, "Are you here to sign up for the Kungfu Cup too?"

Isabella sensed Tom's doubts, and subconsciously straightened her chest, highlighting the curve of her breasts, which was particularly attractive. She said to Tom, "Humph, is it strange for me to sign up for the Kungfu Cup? Don't look down on me."

Tom was a little speechless. He didn't know who gave them the confidence to join the Kungfu Cup. He shook his head and said, "Do you know what Kungfu Cup is?"

Diana said, "Of course I know. It's just a competition between martial artists!"

Isabella also nodded in agreement. Seeing their reaction, Tom knew that they did not understand the nature of the Kungfu Cup.

"I guess so. You don't know the cruelty of the Kungfu Cup. It's not just a competition. Once you get on the stage, you can't control your own life and death." Tom said.

But as soon as he finished speaking, he was immediately despised by one of the young men, who snorted, "Gee, it seems that you know a lot about it."

Another young man also said, "Humph, Kungfu Cup is a feast for the world's martial artists. When the time comes, the big shots of all countries will be there to watch the competition. Can such an international competition kill people?"

Tom didn't take these young people's words seriously. He just said to Diana and Isabella, "Go back and don't think about joining the Kungfu Cup. The Kungfu Cup is not the kind of game you think. It will really kill people."

When Isabella heard Tom's words, her face immediately turned pale. She became nervous and asked quickly, "Is it really that cruel? Will people die during the competition?"

Tom nodded, indicating that he was not lying.

Diana asked again, "Master, will you also join in the Kungfu Cup?"

Tom thought to himself, "I'm one of the organizers of this Kungfu Cup. What do you think?"

However, there was no need for him to say that. He just nodded and warned them not to participate.

But Diana still said, "I still want to try. I think I should be able to get a good place if I go up!"

Tom was speechless for a moment, wondering who gave Diana confidence.

At this time, two more young people came over from the roadside car. When they saw Isabella and Diana, they immediately smiled.

"Isabella, Diana, you're here so early."

Seeing these two young people, Tom was a little surprised, because these two young people were actually masters of the Innate Realm. One was in the first stage, and the other was in the second stage. They were full of vital energy and blood, and their strength was stronger than masters of the same level.

And most importantly, Tom observed that they were not very old, only about thirty years old. They were his peers.

To be honest, it was amazing to reach the Innate Realm at this age.

Tom rarely saw masters in the Innate Realm under the age of 30.

Of course, they were no better than him.

Other young men's eyes lit up when they saw the two people coming over, showing admiration and reverence.

"It's Jasper and Musa. They are so powerful. It seems that their cultivation has improved again!"

"That's amazing. They're only thirty years old, and they're already masters of the Innate Realm. Especially Musa, who is thirty-two years old this year, has reached the second stage of the Innate Realm. It's really scary! With Musa joining the Kungfu Cup this time, H Country will definitely get a good result!"

"Of course. Musa already has no equal in H City."

When Tom heard these discussions, he was a little surprised that the young man named Musa had no equal in H City. Why didn't he know? No one told him.

However, this was not that surprising. After all, Tom had already jumped out of that circle. Moreover, when he entered the second stage of the Innate Realm, he was indeed called the No.1 master of H City.

As time passed, his reputation as the No.1 master in H City had been taken away by others.

Thinking of this, Tom smiled and felt something interesting.

Isabella caught his smile. A daze flashed through her eyes. Obviously, she also remembered what had happened at that time.

At that time, Tom's strength and fame had been far less than they were now. At that time, Tom still needed to curry favor with Outhe Fosters, and her grandfather took this opportunity to ask her to marry Tom.

It was a pity that at that time, she was as blind as a bat and didn't marry Tom.

She never thought that she had missed so much. Now Tom had already long been stronger than before countless times!

He became unattainable even for the Outhe Fosters.

Not to mention anything else, Tom's Howard Group was completely incomparable for the Howard Group.

Tom's consciousness was so sharp that he immediately sensed Isabella's emotions. He just smiled and didn't say anything.

Soon, the two young men walked up to them and noticed Tom. "Who is this?"

Chapter 830

Diana immediately said proudly, "Let me introduce him to you. He is Tom, my master! You always say that you can't find an opponent in your peers. Musa, you claimed that you are the best one in H City. Now my master is here. He can defeat you with a hand!"

Diana sounded provocative. After she finished speaking, the two men changed their expressions. They were dissatisfied and angry.

Isabella moved her mouth and wanted to say something, but she didn't speak. She knew how strong Tom was. Jasper and Musa couldn't beat him. Even though they fought together with him, they couldn't beat him.

But she hadn't seen Tom fight for a long time and now she wanted to see it.

Tom was so handsome when he fought...

Jasper raised his eyebrows and immediately looked at Tom. He said, "I didn't expect such a master. I'm very interested!"

He was hostile to Tom.

He rubbed his hands and wanted to fight with Tom.

Jasper was provocative, but Tom didn't respond to him and felt helpless. It was like a fight between an adult and a primary school student.

Actually, the gap between him and Jasper was bigger than that between an ordinary adult and a primary school student!

So he was not interested in Jasper. He was about to sign up for the Kungfu Cup, which was important.

He waved his hand and said to Diana and Isabella, "Since you have friends here, I won't disturb you."

After that, he was about to leave.

"Wait a minute!" As soon as he left, he was immediately stopped.

It was Jasper.

"You are Diana's master and sound powerful. Diana is always bragging about you. You are a master of Innate Realm and are about to participate in the Kungfu Cup right away. Why don't you fight with us?" Jasper moved to Tom quickly. He was so fast that several young people present screamed in admiration.

In particular, two girls admired him a lot.

Jasper was young and handsome. What's more, he was a master of Innate Realm. So he was very popular among his peers.

Jasper also enjoyed the feeling of being worshipped. He had a sense of fulfillment.

In his opinion, Tom looked strong, but his vital energy and blood and breath were not good. He was at the level of Extrinsic Peak at most and could never beat him.

Tom glared at Diana and blamed her for causing trouble with the look.

Of course, he didn't take Jasper seriously. After all, he was the top master of God Becoming Level. If the news that he fought with Jasper was spread, he would be disgraceful. He would be accused of bullying Jasper, who was much weaker than him.

"No. We're not at the same level." Tom said.

When Jasper heard it, he didn't want to fight with him so much. He thought that Tom was quite self-aware and surrendered in an ingenious way.

As long as Tom didn't provoke him, he would not fight with him.

However, when he heard Diana's words, he immediately frowned and wanted to fight with him again.

"My master is right. You are not at the same level. He can beat you with one finger!" Diana said, "Jasper, do you think that my master is afraid of you. He doesn't take you seriously."

After she finished speaking, Tom immediately knew that it was going to be bad.

Jasper had returned to normal. But now he looked much worse.

He was even angrier and more hostile to Tom. He was so angry that he laughed, "Oh, really? Your master seems to be crazy. He can defeat me with one finger! Even the masters of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm will not be so pretentious! You are my friend so I wanted not to fight with him. But now I have to fight with him."

Everyone else was hostile and looked at Tom with displeasure. They thought it was too pretentious of Tom to be said that he could defeat Jasper with just one finger. Jasper was also a master of the Innate Realm. Although he was a little weaker than Musa, he was also very famous in H City!

But they had never heard of Tom.

Tom glared at Diana again. Now he was a little angry. She was too headstrong and didn't respect him!

But soon, he found that Diana was crafty and resentful. It seemed that she was blaming him for disappearing for so long. He had been her master but didn't teach her martial arts.

Tom was quite helpless.

In the beginning, he didn't want to be her master. It was only by mistake that he became her master.

In order to avoid Diana, Tom did not answer her phone all the time. Now it seemed that she was resentful.

Tom looked at Diana and smiled bitterly. He wouldn't blame her.

He said to Jasper, "Don't fight with me. You can't defeat me."

He made it clear and emitted a little breath, which was enough to scare Jasper.

When Jasper felt his breath, he was nervous and looked at him with sharp eyes!

He felt that Tom's aura was terrifying.

He was not at Extrinsic Peak but Innate Realm!

He was stronger than him and was almost as strong as Musa.

Jasper immediately said, "Are you also a master of Innate Realm?"

He sounded shocked and scared.

Innate Realm was like a threshold for ordinary martial artists. Most of the martial artists who had not opportunity and talents wouldn't reach Innate Realm in their whole lives.

Tom was also a master of Innate Realm and he was almost in their ages. Jasper was surprised.

Anyone who reached Innate Realm at his age was a talent!

As for Musa, he was one of the top talents!

Not only him, but Musa also frowned. Musa's eyes suddenly became sharp.

It was the appropriate time and Tom stopped. He didn't emit all his breath. Otherwise, they would be scared into fainting.

Chapter 831

Originally, Tom thought that if he gave forth the breath, these two young guys would shrink back from difficulties. Just like naughty primary school students, they were very arrogant in front of their peers, but when they met the elders, they would immediately keep a low profile.

But he still underestimated the courage of these two young guys.

Jasper was a little fearful, but Musa's eyes lit up. He stared at Tom tightly and said, "Interesting! You are posing as a pig and eating the tiger! It's been a long time since I met such an interesting young man like you."

Musa now took two steps forward and stood in front of Tom. He looked at Tom with a teasing and provocative face. He twisted his neck and rubbed his hands as if he was ready to fight.

His behavior made Tom frown even more.

The others were even more excited when they saw that Musa was going to fight personally.

Even Diana's eyes widened, and her face was full of expectation and pride. She thought that her plan had succeeded and it aroused Musa's hostility to Tom. In this way, she could see the fight between Musa and Tom!

"My master doesn't pretend to be a pig. He just doesn't take you seriously." Diana was afraid that they would not fight and added another sentence.

Sure enough, her provocation worked on Musa. He smiled and said, "Is that so? Then I'm very interested!"

After saying this, he did not care whether Tom agreed or not, but directly attacked Tom.

His speed was at the top of everyone present, and it gave forth a turbulent breath, which made everyone hold their breath at that moment.

But for Tom, his speed was no different from that of a snail.

Tom sighed. He was really helpless. He was the master of the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm, even Little Martial God admitted that he was not his opponent. Now, to his surprise, when he returned to H City, a young guy challenged him.

But Tom also knew that if he didn't show him some skills, the young guy wouldn't give up.

Anyway, let these young guys know the cruelty of the Kungfu Cup.

After figuring this out, Tom had no worries. He just stood there, waiting for Musa to hit him.

He didn't move at all. To the others, it seemed that he couldn't react or was scared stiff.

But what happened next was far beyond their imagination!

Musa's fist was so violently that even a big stone could be blown up. But when it came to Tom, Tom caught it easily.

There was no terrifying movement of their imagination, and there was not much collision. It was as if a mud cow had entered the sea without a sound.

"The speed is not bad, but the strength is a little weak." Tom said coolly.

At that moment, Musa's eyes widened and he was stunned. He couldn't react for a moment. How could Tom catch his punch so easily? His punch took 80 % of his strength!

Even a granite was about to explode with one punch from him!

Tom's breath didn't look any different from him. How could he catch it so easily? It was completely unscientific and unreal!

Even at that moment, he had a ridiculous idea that Tom who was in front of him was a ghost, or that he was hallucinating!

Otherwise, this was completely impossible.

Not only him, but also the others present were now stunned. They were all stunned as if they had short-circuited.

Diana shouted excitedly, "Wow, my master is invincible!"

Isabella's eyes also lit up and she stared at Tom closely. Tom was so charming that he completely conquered her heart.

Musa came to his senses first. He couldn't accept it at all. He immediately attacked Tom and kicked Tom's leg. This time, he was faster and used 100 % of his strength. He even heard sound explosion!

If this kick hit him, he would not believe that Tom could still be safe and sound. Even a steel pipe would be broken by him!

However, Tom's next move was beyond his comprehension.

Tom didn't dodge at all. He just stood there and watched Musa kick him.

With a bang, it was as if it had been kicked in an instant!

But then, a scream came, not from Tom, but from Musa.

"Ah!!!"

Musa had a painful expression on his face, and he couldn't stand up. He fell to the ground, covered his right leg, and kept gasping and screaming.

Tom did not make things difficult for him and let him go. Instead, he looked at Diana with an unfriendly look. "Diana, you don't take me seriously, do you? Do you really think I don't dare to punish you?"

Tom was dignified when he was angry. Diana immediately became agitated and showed a frightened expression.

It was as if her grandfather got angry.

No, Tom was more powerful than her grandfather now. She immediately panicked and said aggrievedly, "You don't teach me all the time. Am I a disciple for nothing?"

After that, her eyes turned red as if she was about to cry.

Seeing her like this, Tom couldn't help but have a headache. He was most afraid to see woman cry.

In fact, it was indeed his fault. He had already promised to take Diana as his disciple, but he had never taught Diana any moves.

The main thing was that he didn't have the idea of taking in disciples now, and Diana was too mischievous, and her natural endowments were very ordinary, so she wasn't suitable to practice martial arts.

"Well." Tom coughed twice and said, "You're almost done. You can't participate in the Kungfu Cup. Stop thinking about it."

No one dared to ignore Tom's words anymore. Everyone could see that Tom was not an ordinary person at all, but an absolute master!

Even a master like Musa was like a child in front of him. They could not imagine how strong Tom was.

At this moment, Musa looked up and said with great shock and unwillingness, "How could you be so strong? Who are you? Why don't I know you? What stage has your cultivation reached?"

The others also stared at him, eager for his answer.

Tom did not hide it and said directly, "The Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm."

Hearing this, Musa's body trembled and he showed a subversive expression!

Chapter 832

The Major Perfection Realm!

Musa could not imagine what it was like at the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm. He was only at the second stage of Innate Realm and there was no match for him in H City, defeating many famous masters and winning first place in H City.

Most importantly, he was very young, only in his early thirties. It was remarkable to reach this level.

But he didn't dare to think about reaching the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm, because it was too far away for him.

In his plan, he wanted to reach the third stage of Innate Realm before 35, so that he could be respected by everyone!

As for the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm, if he could reach it by the age of 45, he would be the one in a million. He could be an outstanding existence in H Country!

And this would only happen in perfect condition because when he started to cultivate, he understood how difficult it was to reach the next level.

But Tom was already at the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm?

The point was, Tom looked even younger than him.

At that moment, he was really shocked and began to doubt himself.

All of a sudden, all of his pride was gone, and he became extremely dejected. He gave a miserable laugh and said self-deprecatingly, "The Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm... There is always someone who is better than me. I always thought I was a genius. It turns out that in front of a real genius, I'm just an ordinary person."

Suddenly, something occurred to him. He looked up at Tom and asked, "Can you tell me how old you are?"

Tom said truthfully, "29 years old."

Hearing this, Musa's body shook violently. He then lowered his head and cried.

Tom was embarrassed by him. He actually made this proud genius burst into tears.

However, in this situation, he didn't know what to say, so he could only sigh and say, "Come on. In fact, you are already very talented. After all, people are different."

When he said this, Musa cried even harder, which made Tom embarrassed.

The others were now looking at Tom in awe and admiration. Now they completely believed that he was capable of winning the championship!

Such a powerful man was actually a god. They could never catch up with him in their whole life.

The happiest one was Diana. She was smiling brightly, and her expression was clearly saying, "Tom is awesome, and he is my master."

Isabella also looked at him affectionately, without concealing her love for him.

The young people who had underestimated him were so excited that they nervously took out their pens and asked Tom to sign for them. He was their idol.

There were two young and beautiful girls, blushing and asking Tom to sign on their chests.

Tom's expression immediately turned awkward. The young people were too open. He was too old to bear it.

He quickly refused, then said hello to Diana and Isabella and left immediately.

When he returned to the Kungfu Cup, he breathed a sigh of relief. The enthusiasm of those young people made him a little overwhelmed.

And Isabella's deep and affectionate eyes made him even goosebumps. There were so many women loving him. One more woman would really make him more like a stud.

As soon as he entered the Kungfu Cup, he immediately felt a different aura.

The aura was from H Country, and there was a tragic atmosphere.

Sensing that, Tom immediately frowned and became serious.

Looking at the stage, he immediately saw that there were not many H Country martial artists who could still fight, and there were many disabled people.

He knew that today, the situation of the H Country martial artists would be even worse.

On the other hand, those foreigners were very vigorous and valiant.

They even agreed on an alliance to fight them!

"That's not fair! These foreigners will only target us, and be merciful to the martial artists of other countries. They want to kill us!"

"These foreigners are so hateful!"

"Alas, they are stronger than us. Our country has developed its national strength in the past few years, and our technology and economy have caught up with theirs, so they all treat us as enemies!"

"Over the past few days, many of our martial artists have been killed by them."

"But what can we do? If we are weak, we will be beaten..."

"Is the martial arts in H Country really declining? In huge H Country, there are numerous outstanding people, but not even a genius. I can't bear being bullied by them!"

Tom walked in and heard a lot of these marks. He felt their grief and anger.

This had become an ideological resonance, clearly forming a spiritual storm that affected all the H Country martial artists present.

General Watson, Pence, and the others, who were the organizers, remained silent. They looked terrible and felt humiliated.

If it wasn't for the restrictions, they all wanted to fight with these foreigners themselves and hit them hard!

Unfortunately, they couldn't.

Moreover, there were too many powerful foreigners this time. There were more than ten masters at Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm.

Apart from Tom, none of them were at the Major Perfection Realm. Even if they really joined the fight, they were just humiliating themselves.

Could they be more helpless and desperate?

Now they could only put their hopes on Tom. However, no matter how powerful Tom was, he was alone. Could he really compete with so many Major Perfection Realm experts from many countries?

They were not sure.

"Ah! Why hasn't Tom returned yet? We need his help."

"I noticed that Tom hasn't been there for the past two days. He hasn't run away, has he?"

"No way. How could Tom run away? He's our only hope now!"

"It's hard to tell. Although Tom's strength is very strong, in the last competition, the top eight candidates would fight together. No matter how powerful Tom is, he can't resist the other seven Major Perfection Realm experts fighting against him together."

Chapter 833

Talking about this, everyone sighed and felt worried. They thought that H Country would not be able to get a good place in the Kungfu Cup.

Not only would the H Country get a good ranking, but would also become a laughingstock to other countries.

In the previous Kungfu Cups, it was a convention that the host country would not get too bad results. However, H Country had lost too many experts a few years ago, resulting in the current situation of lacking talents. There were no masters who were qualified for this event.

In this way, It would be a huge embarrassment if there were no place for the H Country in the last eight!

Originally, they all began to have great expectations of Tom because of his outstanding performance a few days ago, hoping that Tom could help H Country achieve good results, and even win the championship of this Kungfu Cup!

But Tom had just disappeared during the past two days, and no one knew where he had gone. In addition to the defeats of the H Country martial artists, they had very pessimistic morale by that time, thinking that H Country was hopeless in this Kungfu Cup.

Some even started to complain about

Tom and whined in a low voice.

"Isn't Tom very powerful? As the strongest man in our H Country, where did he go? The group match at the level of the innate realm will be held right now. Since Tom hasn't appeared yet, did he really intend to retreat and not to fight for H Country?"

This voice came out from someone. Although it was very low, the people present were all martial artists, and many of them still heard it.

All of a sudden, everyone's voice stopped, and their expressions all changed instantly.

Some were angry, some were pessimistic, some sighed, some were desperate, and some complained.

"Alas! Tom is still too young after all. He hasn't experienced our times, so he doesn't have the national sentiment as deep as we did."

"But he's the strongest of our young generation in H Country. As far as I know, he's still one of the organizers of the Kungfu Cup. If he doesn't even participate, who on earth could our H Country count on?"

"Aspirations differ from person to person. It's possible that he just wants to protect himself. After all, the quarterfinals are going to be held together. If Tom attends alone, then he will definitely be attacked by the other seven opponents. By then, even if Tom is powerful, he would still not be as strong as those God Becoming Level players. It is inevitable that he would fall."

Hearing such words, everyone quieted down again and felt worried for the situation.

They wished Tom to attend the competition, but they knew that if Tom did it in this case, it would be no different from suicide.

So they could only sigh deeply. It was hard to blame him more. After all, during this period of time, Tom had defeated Junichiro Nakai and Black Mamba successively. It was absolutely enough for the national prestige of the H Country.

Unfortunately, There was no other powerful young man like Tom in H Country.

However, just as everyone was in a depressed mood, a voice rang out from the crowd.

"I'll go to the competition."

The voice was not very loud, but it clearly reached everyone's ears. everyone was stunned for a moment, and then quickly looked towards the direction of the voice. It was Tom, who was walking over slowly with a calm face.

Tom had just said those words in a very flat tone as if he was saying something insignificant, but there was strong willpower and confidence in his tone, making them feel a sense of security inexplicably.

After a pause, someone immediately shouted, "It's Tom! Tom is back!"

"That's great!"

"Is it true? It's Tom. Tom is finally back!"

"Now our H Country is hopeful to win! As long as Tom is willing to attend the competition, he will definitely be able to destroy the morale of these foreigners! Hahaha..."

Tom's appearance immediately aroused the excitement of all the martial artists present. Then they all surrounded him and looked at him with incomparable fanaticism and admiration.

Although Tom was very young and even younger than most of them, the steady and powerful aura that Tom revealed made them unconsciously ignore Tom's age and take him as a very trustworthy strong man!

Tom felt that he had been trusted and expected by them. At this moment, he also had an unprecedented sense of responsibility in his heart.

At this time, martial artists from other countries also found Tom and looked over.

Immediately, they all inexplicably felt flustered the moment they saw Tom, as if they had seen a great demon king.

Especially those masters of the innate realm were more in awe of Tom and began to talk about him.

"Damn it, why has this man from H Country come back? Isn't it that he had quit the Kungfu Cup?"

"This man is the most powerful person in H Country. If he comes back, the H Country might get a good place this time."

"Why is he back, this damn guy from H Country? Isn't everyone saying that he has quit the Kungfu Cup because of cowardliness?"

"Don't have to be too alarmed, everyone. Although he is back, he may not dare to participate in the quarterfinals. As we know, the competition will require all the top eight contestants to enter the arena together. By then, will this guy be able to fight over seven five S-level superpowers? This is obviously impossible. If he dares to attend, that competition will become his dead end."

"That's true... That's true indeed, but every time I see him, I would feel a little scared."

Because of Tom's arrival, those foreigners who had been arrogant could not help but restrain themselves a lot and did not dare to behave like earlier.

And this change was also observed by many senior officials in H Country.

At that moment, General Watson sighed deeply and said, "It seems that Tom turns out to be more influential than me. His appearance immediately brought martial artists of out H Country courage and momentum. Those foreigners also restrained themselves when they saw him..."

On the surface, he was praising Tom, but it was self-deprecation indeed. As the general in charge of the Kungfu Cup, he could not even deter these foreign martial artists, not to bring courage to his own countrymen.

The other H Country executives were also silent. They also felt bitter about this. It was not jealousy of Tom, but a feeling that the gap between themselves and Tom was too huge!

Chapter 834

Pence smiled and said, "It's a good thing that a master like Tom is in our country. He's a hero of our H Country. H Country needs such a master to save us."

He used the word "save." It seemed to be too exaggerated. No matter how powerful Tom was, he was only a martial artist in the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm. He had not yet reached the God Becoming Level. H Country was so big that it would be ridiculous to expect to be saved by a master in the Major Perfection Realm.

But after careful analysis, it was not an exaggeration.

First of all, Tom was still very young. Combined with Tom's amazing martial arts talent, in time, he would definitely be able to break through to the God Becoming Level.

By then, he would be another God of War in H Country. Why couldn't he save H Country?

The coming Kungfu Cup was an important competition for global martial artists, attracting the martial artists all over the world.

And this time, the Kungfu Cup would be held in H Country. If H Country didn't get a good ranking, or even didn't get into the final eight, then the martial artists in H Country would be greatly devastated!

It would greatly dampen the enthusiasm of H Country's martial artists. At that time, it would be a vicious circle. Fewer and fewer people were willing to practice martial arts. Slowly, after the senior martial artists on the upper level were old, there would be no fresh blood and the martial arts of H Country would really decline.

But if Tom could win the championship, everything would be different.

So everyone could imagine how important Tom was to H Country this time. In a sense, it was not too much to say that "he could save the country."

"Yes, fortunately, we have Tom."

General Watson nodded in agreement, and others also began to agree.

Tom was surrounded by many martial artists in H Country. He looked at the admiration and expectation on everyone's faces, stopped and glanced at everyone. Then he said solemnly, "Everyone, it's been hard. You did a good job."

They were not pretentious people, and they had their own experiences. They were not young children who could be easily moved. But at this moment, when they heard Tom's words, they couldn't help but want to cry, as if they had done something that was approved by their elders.

The despair and grievance in their hearts disappeared a lot at this moment, and gradually became a sense of pride and mission.

"Tom, you're welcome. This is what we should do!"

"Alas! We don't have the face to say that it's hard. We so many martial artists are bullied by these foreign devils! I just hate myself for being useless. I've embarrassed H Country!"

"Yes, what right do we have to say it's hard? We're useless!"

When Tom heard these words, he didn't feel good either. However, in this case, he couldn't say anything to blame them. After all, not everyone could have an extraordinary talent like him.

And these martial artists have done a good job.

He said again, "Next, leave it to me. I'll help H Country get the champion back."

After a pause, he added, "This is my promise."

After he said this, the scene became quiet again, and everyone stared at Tom.

Then, a loud voice erupted, "Okay!"

The crowd looked and saw an elderly martial artist coming out.

The old man had a lot of wrinkles on his face and was limping. He looked to be 90 years old.

He walked up to Tom, looked at Tom fervently, and said, "You're the pride of the country. That's a solemn promise! Tom, H Country needs a hero like you, and we long for a hero like you! Tom, please don't disappoint us! The glory of H Country is counting on you!"

After saying that, the old man actually bowed to Tom, incomparably sacred and respectful, with his love for H Country, with his unlimited expectations for Tom, and with his strong, innate, deep national feelings.

Tom was stunned. He had never expected that this old man would bow to him. He immediately got up in a hurry, quickly went to him, held the old man, and said, "Oh, senior, you can't do this!"

Although Tom was now at the peak of the martial arts of H Country, he still respected the old and loved the young in his heart, especially the seniors who had contributed to H Country.

But just as he supported the old man, these martial artists from all directions bowed to him together and said loudly, "Tom, the glory of H Country is counting on you!"

Tom stood there, his expression suddenly stiffening. His mouth opened and he wanted to say something, but he couldn't say anything.

At this moment, he felt an unprecedented sense of mission and a national responsibility!

So many martial artists placed great expectations on him. He had never experienced or even heard of such a thing before.

The more powerful a person was, the more responsible he should be. Now he understood the true meaning of this sentence.

After a while, he clenched his fists and said seriously, "Okay! I will definitely get the Kungfu Cup champion back. If I don't succeed, I will fight to win or die!"

He said this in an unprecedented serious tone as if even the heavens were frightened by him, or rather, the heavens were all witnesses to him. A thunderbolt unexpectedly sounded in the sky, reaching the entire audience, and supporting his words more solemnly, more powerful, and weighty!

It made everyone present deeply shocked and they remembered Tom forever.

Everyone could imagine that after the Kungfu Cup, even if Tom didn't win the championship, he would be remembered by the world!

Just then, Diana, Isabella, and the others who walked in from outside saw this scene, and they were also deeply shocked. They stood still and couldn't speak!

Isabella, in particular, could not move her eyes, staring straight at Tom. At this moment, she couldn't see anyone else in her world, but only Tom.

As for Diana, she became even crazier. She clenched her fists and was extremely excited!

Jasper and Musa, on the other hand, muttered, "The pride of the country... So he's Tom, the number one master under the God Becoming Level, our H Country hope. I even challenged him just now. I really have an exaggerated opinion of my abilities..."

When Pence saw this, his eyes widened, and he was extremely excited. He waved his fists and said, "Great! Tom is brewing into a big trend accidentally. This is what a lot of masters in the Major Perfection Realm earnestly long for but can't do!"

Chapter 835

"Invincible Spiritual Momentum? What is Invincible Spiritual Momentum?"

Many people were curious about Pence's words. Obviously, they had never heard anything about "Invincible Spiritual Momentum" before.

Pence clenched his fists and said excitedly, "Invincible Spiritual Momentum is something a martial artist dreams of. Generally speaking, only the person who reaches the God Becoming Level can have it! And Tom, who only reached the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, has already been cultivating the Invincible Spiritual Momentum! Once he reached Invincible Spiritual Momentum, then his strength will be upgraded to another level, especially since this kind of Invincible Spiritual Momentum is even rarer. Our H Country is expected to win the championship in the Kungfu Cup! And once Tom owns Momentum, then he can definitely reach the God Becoming Level. By then, we will have two top masters of God Becoming Level in H Country and then our country can stand proudly in the world!"

Although no one could understand what the Invincible Spiritual Momentum that Pence was talking about was, when they heard Pence's explanation, they got excited. This meant that Tom would become more and more powerful. This was undoubtedly a good thing for H

Country!

At the same time, the expression of other top powers at the scene of Kungfu Cup changed. They all felt that Tom, as the center of gravity and like a black hole, attracted the momentum around them and was extremely fierce!

They immediately understood that Tom was cultivating his own Invincible Spiritual Momentum. Once Tom got it, then he would be a master of the God Becoming Level. His strength would be upgraded to a new level. It's totally possible for him to defeat them and win the Kungfu Cup!

If that was the case, they would be in trouble and H Country would rise.

Anyhow, they don't allow it to happen.

They looked at each other, and in an instant, they all understood each other's meaning. They reached a consensus in their thoughts, which was to stop Tom from cultivating Invincible Spiritual Momentum!

At that moment, the person closest to Tom shouted. A powerful wave erupted from his mouth, like the Lion's Roar, and swept towards Tom.

The shout was too loud, like a thunderbolt exploding at the scene. The people around him were all frightened. Some of the people who were weak were frightened and trembled. They fell to the ground, panicked, and looked ugly.

There were even martial artists who were so scared that they froze and couldn't come back to their senses for a long time.

Tom was cultivating Invincible Spiritual Momentum and entering an unprecedented mystical realm. He could clearly feel that he had become a black hole, absorbing the momentum from all directions, not just the momentum of people, but the momentum between heaven and earth, making his mental strength grow stronger and stronger. His mind was like a signal receiver, receiving signals from all directions.

He had never been in this state before!

He could clearly feel that his mental strength was constantly increasing, and it soon was two times his mental strength before!

He could not help but get excited when he felt this. As for a high-level martial artist, the cultivation of mental strength was often the most difficult thing!

Many high-level martial artists even did not increase much mental strength in a lifetime. Even with Tom's talent, his mental strength was only a little stronger than the people who were at the same level but didn't have the absolute advantage like his kungfu.

But now, his mental strength had doubled in just two minutes!

He felt that he was full of energy, and his facial features and senses were stronger and clearer than ever. He even had an idea that even if he didn't sleep for a month, he wouldn't be tired! Because his mental strength was too strong!

The benefits of his mental strength were obvious. He could control his body more deeply, secrete the hormones he needed, and speed up his physical cultivation.

And most importantly, as he was mentally strong, it wouldn't be difficult for him to reach the God Becoming Level.

In addition, he felt a sense of confidence in himself that he had never felt before. He believed in his heart that he was the strongest! Not only was he the strongest of the God Becoming Level, but over time, he was absolutely confident that he would become the world's strongest master easily!

This kind of confidence had never appeared before.

He soon realized that this was the Invincible Spiritual Momentum he was cultivating.

"This feeling of power is really good..."

Tom couldn't help sighing.

But at this moment, he heard a loud roar, like a huge sound wave, erupting towards him, causing his Invincible Spiritual Momentum to pause at this time!

He immediately realized that this was the enemy's malice. If he was interrupted, then the Invincible Spiritual Momentum would be blocked. At that time, not only could the Invincible Spiritual Momentum not be cultivated, but it would cause severe consequences!

A chill and murderous intent immediately surfaced in his heart.

In an instant, he made the fastest reaction. He directly cut off his five senses and enter a completely empty state. That was to say, he was now a disabled person, unable to hear anything, unable to smell anything, unable to speak, and unable to see anything.

Only in this way could he resist the Lion's Roar's harm.

In just two seconds, Tom dodged his doom. Immediately, he reopened his facial features and began to cultivate Invincible Spiritual Momentum again without stopping.

At the same time, he looked to Pence and General Watson. They immediately understood what Tom meant. Pence did not hesitate and ran straight to protect Tom!

After him, Amos, Marlin and the others also ran over in an instant.

Tom was their only hope. At this time, they would never allow anything to happen to Tom!

"Damn it!"

Seeing that his Lion's Roar did not interrupt Tom's "Invincible Spiritual Momentum", the foreign expert was sullen.

Just as he was about to continue to attack, Pence had already arrived. He interrupted him and stared at him coldly. "What do you want?!"

Seeing Pence, the other party's eyes flashed with regret and embarrassment. It was a pity that he didn't interrupt Tom just now.

Facing Pence's question, he did not answer. He snorted coldly and leave.

The rest was left to someone else.

Almost at the same time, a few steel balls appeared from one direction and shot at Tom's direction at an extremely fast speed!

The speed was so fast that it exceeded the speed of sound. When the steel ball arrived in front of Tom, the surrounding people heard the sound of the explosion.

It was conceivable that once Tom was really hit, even if he was not injured, then the Invincible Spiritual Momentum would be interrupted and backfired!
