

Chapter 871

"Look! It's Tom!"

"Am I right? It's really Tom who's back. Ha ha ha, that's great. We have hope again!"

"I've told you that Tom is a rare genius. How could something happen to him so easily?"

"Yeah, it's only been a day, and Tom is back. That's great. That's great. Ha ha ha..."

Tom's appearance caused heated discussion among audience. People of the H Country began to cheer up and quickly approached Tom.

Before Tom appeared, everyone was still worried, afraid that something really happened to Tom.

In the day when Tom disappeared, two more H Country martial artists were killed and three were disabled. There were not many H Country martial artists left who could take part in the competition.

Most importantly, the morale amongst people of the H Country was greatly damaged. If Tom hadn't appeared yet, then whoever was going to fight next wouldn't have the guts to get in the ring.

But Tom's appearance changed this situation immediately. As long as Tom was around, they would feel very safe.

Anyway, Tom would be able to handle it no matter what happened.

General Watson, Pence and others also breathed a sigh of relief when they saw Tom.

They quickly stepped forward to welcome him.

To be honest, they had been very worried for the past 24 hours because they couldn't reach Tom and he was missing.

Such thing had never happened before. Moreover, Silas's death was a great blow to Tom, which made Tom suffer a counterattack from Invincible Spiritual Momentum. Also, when Tom left, he looked unwell.

Tom was no longer aggressive and domineering. Instead, he became more introverted, restrained, and more mysterious.

"Tom, did you break through?" Pence asked carefully.

When other people who rushed over heard Pence's words, they all looked at Tom closely and were curious about Tom's answer.

Tom smiled, nodded and said, "Sort of."

When he said yes, everyone began to cheer up.

Marlin laughed and said, "Tom, you are awesome. Breakthrough is as easy for you as drinking water."

They were worried that something really happened to Tom. Once something happened to Tom, they could claim defeat in the Kungfu Cup this time.

Fortunately, Tom came back!

This made them fully relieved.

At this moment, Tom also felt the hope of so many people for him, and he felt warm.

"Tom, that's great. You're finally back."

Pence was the first to walk up to Tom and looked him up and down, afraid that something might happen to Tom.

After sizing him up, Pence found that Tom's momentum had changed a little.

Thorn also praised, "Right! Tom, I remember that you just broke through to the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm not long ago. Now you broke through again. It's really amazing. Tom, compared to you, we are trash."

He made a self-deprecating joke.

When others heard this, they had mixed feelings, but they were not jealous or dissatisfied.

Amos looked at Tom with mixed feelings. How had he dared to challenge such a genius? Amos really thought he was too arrogant.

Soon, another person asked, "Tom, are you a master of the God Becoming Level now?"

Hearing this, everyone immediately became quiet. Everyone suddenly reacted and looked at Tom in horror.

That was right! The level above the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm was the God Becoming Level!

Tom was originally at the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, but now that he had broken through, he was already at the Major Perfection Realm.

Thinking of this possibility, they all gasped at the same time. They all felt it unbelievable and thought Tom was awesome!

In H Country, only God of War and the King of LT Organization reached God Becoming Level!

They were very talented, powerful and experienced! Most importantly, they were already old. Even God of War was in his sixties!

Tom, on the other hand, was not yet thirty years old.

So he was even more talented.

At this time, other foreign martial artists at the Kungfu Cup scene also found Tom's return. Their reaction was exactly the opposite of that of the martial artists from H Country. All of them frowned, and they were suffering from lower morale.

Tom was really putting too much pressure on them. Although they looked down on H Country, they had to admit that Tom was the most powerful person they had ever met in their life. They thought Tom was invincible.

Their fear of Tom was deep in their bones.

Most importantly, on the day Tom disappeared, their superiors had told them that Tom had already been counterattacked by the Invincible Spiritual Momentum, and as a result, Tom would either fall back to a lower level or go mad. In general, Tom was no longer powerful.

But now, they were greatly shocked by Tom's return.

Even Johnson and Black Mamba, who were drinking tea leisurely, were shocked when they saw Tom's appearance and spat out the tea in their mouths.

"That's impossible! Isn't Tom already crazy? Why is he back?!"

"And I feel that this guy's momentum has become even stronger. There is no sign that he is going crazy now!"

"Rommel, what's going on?!"

All of a sudden, more than a dozen masters of the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm all looked at Rommel, full of doubts and dissatisfaction.

Not to mention them, even Rommel himself was frowning now. He also didn't understand why Tom could survive the situation the day before yesterday. This was impossible!

When he saw Tom, his first reaction was that he was hallucinating, but he immediately realized that this was not an illusion. Tom was really back.

At that moment, he was really flustered.

However, he had been through a lot, and soon calmed himself down.

He sneered and said, "Humph, so what if he comes back? He is now like a spent arrow."

When others heard his words, they immediately asked, "He's so powerful and full of energy. How can he be a spent arrow?"

Chapter 872

Faced with so many questions, Rommel was stunned. His mind was racing. He quickly figured out the key to it and he was no longer nervous. He relaxed and said disdainfully, "You stupid guys, just a Tom scared you like this."

Rommel's words immediately enraged them, and they began to curse Rommel.

"Hey! Rommel, what do you mean! How dare you curse us?!"

"Rommel, are you challenging us? Do you really think that just because you rank higher than us in the international masters rankings, you're really better than us?"

"What the hell, Rommel?! You have to apologize to us! You have insulted us!"

They surrounded Rommel and stared at Rommel with hostility, intending to fight.

However, Rommel did not take their hostility to heart at all. He was relaxed, sneered, and said, "Was I wrong about you? All you know is that Tom is powerful and you are afraid of him. Now that you see Tom is back, you are so scared that you are in a panic. Why don't you think about it that since Tom is so powerful, why did he disappear for one day and one night?"

When everyone heard his words, they all showed thoughtful expressions.

Although they were deeply afraid of Tom, they were all people with high IQ and strong psychological qualities. After hearing Rommel's reminder, they immediately began to think about it.

After a while, Junichiro Nakai said in a deep voice, "Rommel, do you mean that Tom is still counterattacked by the Great Momentum? Is he injured now?"

Others looked at Rommel as well, and they thought the same thing.

Rommel shook the glass of red wine. He looked very relaxed and elegant. He showed a meaningful expression with a slight smile. Then he looked at Tom in the crowd, smiling disdainfully, and said, "It is inevitable that he has been injured."

Black Mamba immediately added, "Since he is injured, why does he dare to come back? Isn't he afraid that we'll kill him?"

This was also a logical loophole, but Rommel coped with ease. He said, "If he doesn't come back, the martial artists of the H Country will lose their faith, which will have a greater impact on H Country! Now that Tom is already a representative of H Country, if he is really afraid of fighting, then martial arts spirit of H Country will be greatly damaged. This is not what the H Country authorities want to see."

When everyone heard his explanation, they nodded and agreed with him.

Indeed, for a country, the spirit of martial arts was very important.

The number of martial artists in a country often depended on the intensity of the martial spirit of the country. Until now, Tom had acquired the Invincible Spiritual Momentum of the H Country, so he represented the martial arts spirit of H Country. If he retreated, then the martial spirit of the H Country, or the morale of the H Country, would suffer a lot!

Therefore, the Invincible Spiritual Momentum was actually a double-edged sword, which could make Tom strong quickly, but at the same time, he had to shoulder more responsibility!

Rommel continued, "Silas's death the day before yesterday must be a huge blow to Tom. Something was wrong with Tom at that time. Otherwise, he wouldn't have left alone with Silas's body and disappeared for so long."

Someone immediately noticed that something was wrong and asked, "This is not right. If Tom is really being counterattacked by the Great Momentum, then he is likely to go crazy. But now he is still alive. How can this be explained?"

Rommel replied without thinking, "Of course, it was God of War from H Country who did it. With his God Becoming Level skills, he helped Tom suppress this counterattack. But, humph, H Country's God of War is not the top in the God Becoming Level. He can only prevent Tom from going crazy but absolutely can't help Tom digest the counterattack of the Great Momentum! So now, Tom's strength must have waned. This is our good opportunity!"

When everyone heard his analysis, they all nodded in agreement.

In this way, they were much more relaxed and felt that their future was bright.

They were less afraid of Tom. As long as Tom did not have the absolute power to rule, then in the quarter final, they didn't need to be afraid of him. They could unite first and kill Tom...

But there was another problem. After they killed Tom, they would start fighting each other. Only the last man in the ring was a champion!

Only the champion could get the chance to go to the Secret Realm and break through to the God Becoming Level!

So soon they began to ponder again...

...

On Tom's side, after comforting the H Country compatriots, he returned to his viewing seat.

He was as still as a mountain.

His presence calmed so many H

Country martial artists present at once.

Tom was not idle either. He quickly got to know what had happened in the Kungfu Cup during the last 24 hours he had disappeared.

Two more martial artists died, and they were both experts of the Innate Realm. The loss to H Country was extremely huge.

Tom had successfully digested the Great Momentum with his grandfather's help. Now that he was faced with the death of his H Country compatriots, he was no longer so heartbroken, but after listening to it, he was filled with hatred and anger.

When everyone saw that Tom was silent, they did not say anything to disturb him.

As time passed, today's race would soon be half over.

Tom's presence made the H Country's martial artists more confident, and they were able to outdo themselves. Unfortunately, they were still not strong enough, so they lost and were no match for their competitors.

However, their extraordinary performance saved their lives.

After today's seventh game, Tom's name and photo appeared on the big screen.

And it broadcast that,

"The next competition will be between Tom from H Country and Johnson from Country M!"

This was broadcast in different languages, and everyone got excited.

They all got a message that Tom was finally going to take part in the competition!

At this moment, everyone's eyes were on Tom again.

Tom stood up slowly and walked towards the arena with a calm look. He seemed very relaxed, but all eyes were on him.

Chapter 873

"Boom!"

"Great, Tom is here! Hooray!"

"Tom will knock those foreigners down. Hahaha!"

"Right, Tom is the greatest master. Even if those foreigners fight against him together, they couldn't win."

"Tom can help get revenge for our defeats!"

"This Johnson is so unlucky. He's going to be the first one to be killed by Tom..."

When Tom's name was announced, all the people of H Country were excited. They had high expectations of Tom.

Well, to be exact, they had absolute trust in Tom instead of expectations of him. They believed that Tom could definitely vent their anger.

And they really needed Tom to revenge them. Otherwise, their simmering resentment would devour them.

So when Tom appeared on the ring, he clearly felt the expectation and excitement of his fellow countrymen.

Everyone had pinned their hopes on Tom. If Tom could not revenge them, they would collapse.

The reason was simple. The greater hope, the greater disappointment.

Tom understood that very well, and he knew that he must not disappoint them.

And he was sure that he would not disappoint them.

Soon, he fixed his eyes on Johnson, the chief of foreigners who had been arrogant and hurt his countrymen. He now looked pale in the crowd.

Johnson met Tom's eyes, which made his heart jolt. He became even paler.

He kept muttering, "That's impossible. Why me? Why would it be me?"

His fear of Tom was deep in his bones. He was totally scared when he saw Tom killed Solomon a few days ago.

Now he didn't even have the courage to stand in front of Tom, let alone challenging him.

But many people around him looked at him with schadenfreude or sympathy in their eyes. They thought that he was doomed. Could he win Tom? The answer was absolute no. Not only did Johnson not be able to win him, but he may also lose his life!

Johnson gulped nervously and felt his scalp tingled. He had an urge to escape.

He opened his mouth and was about to say that he would give up.

But he swallowed his words because he knew that the Kungfu Cup didn't allow anyone to give up but they could only surrender in the ring.

And for a martial artist at his level, surrendering was not allowed. And he was the top martial artist of Country M, so if he surrendered, his country would be humiliated.

Thinking of this, he was very upset. He thought that he was so unlucky to meet Tom. If he had known that, he shouldn't have won the last match. If he was in the losers' group, he wouldn't have met Tom!

Next to Johnson were a few masters of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm. Seeing the fear on his face, they teased him, "Johnson, you look so pale. Are you afraid of Tom?"

"Haha, Johnson, you're one of the top masters internationally. But now you look like a coward. You're embarrassing your country."

"Johnson, since you're so scared, you shouldn't have signed up for the Kungfu Cup."

"Don't worry. You can survive if you immediately surrender."

Hearing their mockery, Johnson glared at them fiercely. He felt even more annoyed and upset.

They had never been friends. Although they were discussing how to deal with Tom just now, they were always enemies in terms of standpoints.

Johnson knew it well. He said fiercely,

"Hmph, you don't have to laugh at me. You'll face Tom in the next matches!"

When they heard this, their laugh stopped. Johnson was right. After this match, Tom's ranking would improve. Then one of them would have to face Tom in the next match.

But they didn't show their fear on their faces.

Before the match started, Rommel suddenly said to Johnson, "You don't have to be so afraid of Tom. Tom's strength must have been weakened. If you try your best, you may be able to defeat Tom."

Johnson, who had been very scared, was not that afraid after he heard that.

Right, Tom had been hurt by his own Invincible Spiritual Momentum. Even though something hadn't gone wrong in his martial arts training, at least he wouldn't be on the high level as before. As long as Jonhson got the best out of himself, he may be able to defeat Tom.

Moreover, if he defeated Tom, then he could grab Tom's Invincible Spiritual Momentum and establish his invincible momentum, and his strength would develop rapidly.

This was a crisis, but also an opportunity!

Johnson was now not that scared.

Soon, under great pressure, Jonhson slowly walked toward the ring. He stood opposite Tom and found himself stressed out.

It was the psychological stress. Tom's aura was not that overwhelming not, but deep down in his heart, he was extremely afraid of Tom.

But after all, he was also a master of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm and he had figured out the key, so he quickly calmed down.

And he took the initiative to say to Tom, "Tom, I admire your courage. You were hurt by your Invincible Spiritual Momentum but you still dare to come back here. Do you really think you are invincible among those who haven't reached the God Becoming Level?"

After saying that, Johnson gradually regained his confidence. Tom just looked at him calmly, not as domineering and imposing as he was in the previous days. Johnson realized that Tom's strength may really be weakened.

He was not afraid of Tom now.

Even if he really couldn't beat Tom, he would have a chance to surrender, so he wouldn't be killed.

But if he could win, he would amaze the whole world!

He would benefit from it.

After thinking about this, Tom was not so scary to him.

Tom saw through his thoughts, and he showed a meaningful smile.

Chapter 874

Since the Kungfu Cup was in the late stage, the majority of the previous martial artists under the Innate Realm were eliminated. Now the participants were all the superiors of the Innate Realm, and they were all high-level superiors of the Innate Realm. Even the lowest cultivation level was the third stage.

In today's match, Tom fought against Johnson. Both of them were superiors of the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm, so the match attracted the attention of countless martial artists.

In their eyes, it was definitely a fight between a dragon and a tiger.

After all, the people who reached Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm were already considered supernatural being to most people. There were very few martial artists worldwide who could reach this realm.

They usually didn't even have a chance to look at them once, but now, they could actually see the fight between the two of Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm, which was a grand view!

So, not only did the number of people on the live broadcast platform increase dramatically, but there were also a lot of martial artists on the scene.

The place was packed and there was not even an empty seat.

In addition, there were also many high-level officials from different countries who came to focus on the competition.

It could be said that this was a battle of focus.

If it were someone else, he would be nervous to see so many people watching the battle, but Tom was indifferent and impervious.

His experience, psychological quality, and realm of life were far beyond what a man at his age should hold.

To put it bluntly, even a seventy-year-old man may not be as rich as him when it came to life experiences, and his psychological quality was even impossible to be more stable than him.

Now, apart from his appearance, there were not many traces of young people on him.

For Johnson, his mind was not as calm as Tom's. With such a grand competition and focus of all, his heart was very excited. Although he was nervous, he was more excited.

This was a battle he could be famous for. Because Tom was now very famous, as long as he could kill Tom, he would definitely be more famous and let everyone remember his name!

And he had a strong feeling that if he could really beat Tom, then he could win the Kungfu Cup championship with a high probability!

As long as he could win the championship, then he could become a master of the God Becoming Level and really stand at the peak of the human race!

This was what every martial artist... No, to be exact, it was what every human being wanted to do!

There were billions of people in the world but a few can reach the God Becoming Level.

So at this moment, the blood of his whole body was burning, and he was very excited. He clenched his fists, feeling that he had endless strength and he could definitely defeat Tom!

Of course, Tom could not notice all his changes.

But from the beginning to the end, there was not much change in Tom's expression. He always wore a calm expression. There was no change at all, and no one could tell what was going on in his mind.

Finally, after the bell rang, the competition officially began.

However, they did not strike immediately. Johnson walked up slowly. He was no longer fearful or nervous. Instead, he was more excited and confident. He thought he could definitely defeat Tom.

In his eyes, even Tom had become his stepping stone.

He began to say, "Tom, you will definitely lose this battle!"

Tom smiled faintly, "You didn't choose to surrender? It seems that you have great confidence in yourself."

All the audience on the scene thought that Tom and Johnson would definitely have a fierce battle, but they did not expect that after the bell rang, they did not strike at the first time, instead, they had a leisurely conversation.

Especially for those H Country martial artists, their mood was a little disappointed. In their imagination, it should be after the bell rang, Tom rushed out like an arrow, not giving Johnson the chance to surrender at all, crushing Johnson and killing Johnson directly in an overwhelming momentum.

But the result was much beyond their expectations.

The senior officials of many countries in the audience were also looking forward to this battle.

And this battle, even Joseph and his son came over. Beside them, there were many black bodyguards, and all their strength was extraordinary.

There was also a middle-aged man who looked very ordinary and tanned. Even if he was wearing a suit, it would not change his aura.

But because of him, Joseph and his son seemed to be very safe.

He was none other than the Little Martial God that Tom had met once. He was actually Joseph's bodyguard.

Next to Joseph, there were a number of senior officials from other countries, including a few blond and blue-eyed white people. They looked at Johnson who was in high spirits on the stage, and a westerner said, "Mr. Ross, it seems that you H Country will lose another talent in this battle."

His tone was full of confidence and arrogance, and he had absolute confidence in Johnson.

Joseph frowned and smiled meaningfully, "Really? Mr. Tesorang, you seem very confident in the fighter of your country."

"Of course. Johnson is the genius of our country. He has accomplished many impossible tasks for our country." Tesorang said proudly, "Our country has a series of very successful secret service movies that sell very well in your H Country. They are idols of many people in your H Country. The main character is based on Johnson."

After listening to this, Joseph's eyes flashed with displeasure. Obviously, he also knew about this series of secret service movies. They were really popular in H Country, which could be said to be popular in the world.

However, the protagonist was based on Johnson, which he did not expect.

Originally, he had absolute confidence in Tom, but now, he began to hesitate.

This match was very important. If Tom really lost, H Country would really lose face.

However, at this moment, the Little Martial God who had not spoken, suddenly said, "They are not on the same level. There is no suspense in the result of this battle."

Because he spoke the H Country language, Tesorang and the others didn't know what he said.

After the translation, they all laughed and thought that the Little Martial God was bullshitting. Johnson was a super agent of their country and a super master. How could he not be the opponent of the man from H Country?

However, not long after their words fell, on the stage, the battle began...

Chapter 875

It was Johnson who attacked firstly.

He deliberately approached Tom, then provoked him to test him if he had broken through.

Then he found that Tom did not have the previous strength. At least in terms of pressure, he was far less stressed than before!

So after he found Tom's flaw, he immediately attacked Tom the most fiercely.

Moreover, he found that Tom did not even notice his sudden attack. Tom still stood there foolishly and did not react at all, which was a great opportunity for him!

As long as he defeated Tom, he would win the Kungfu Cup championship this time and be worshiped by all!

The crowd under the ring had been tense all along. They had all focused their attention on Tom. Now that they saw that Tom did not react, they all were anxious.

Diana was the first to call out, "Master seems to be distracted and didn't react!"

Isabella also clenched her fists, her face full of worry.

There were other people concerning about Tom, and afraid that Tom would be beaten up.

However, foreign martial artists were happy and excited to see that. As long as Johnson could kill Tom, then H Country was nothing and would become a laughingstock. This would give their country's strongest man a better chance of winning the title.

At this time, Johnson was about to hit Tom's face with his fist, but Tom still did not react, as if he really froze.

Bang.

Johnson really hit Tom's face. The sound of his fist hitting the flesh echoed in the room.

Hearing this sound, everyone's heart could not help but skip a beat.

Anyone with a little knowledge of human injury would know that the easiest way to knock someone to the ground in a fight is to hit them so hard in the face that they would immediately pass out.

As a master of the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm, Johnson's fist must be very powerful. Even a piece of iron can be punched a hole by his fist! And Tom actually took a punch from Johnson, so he was definitely going to be knocked to the ground!

But for Johnson, he was surprised that he actually hit Tom. But then, almost in an instant, he realized something was wrong. Because his punch only touched Tom's cheek.

He didn't hit Tom, and it felt as if he had punched the cotton. In other words, Tom was not hurt at all!

Sensing this, he immediately felt profoundly scared. "Something is wrong!"

He had no time to think about why he didn't hit Tom with this punch at such a close distance. In his sight, he saw a meaningful smile appear on Tom's originally expressionless face.

And immediately, he heard, "Are you ready to die?"

Hearing this, an unprecedented fear appeared in Johnson's heart. All he thought was to run away from Tom!

Because he felt a kind of prehistoric crisis, and he completely lost the idea of resistance, only the idea of escape.

His movements were already very fast, and within a second of zero, he had already pulled a meter away from Tom.

However, this distance was no different from zero for Tom.

When everyone in the room was still immersed in the fact that Tom had been punched by Johnson and was about to be killed, Tom had already reached out his hand at the speed that even the most powerful camera in the world could not capture. It was as if he had grabbed Johnson's neck in a blink of an eye. He lifted Johnson's tall body up.

Then, a cruel smile appeared on Tom's face and he said, "You issued an order to kill all the martial artists in H Country?"

"No, don't..."

Johnson was extremely frightened. He hadn't even reacted and he was already being choked by Tom. The feeling of powerlessness was something he had never encountered before!

He began to realise that Tom hadn't regressed at all, rather, Tom was even stronger and more invincible, which meant that Tom had absorbed all the Invincible Spiritual Momentum this time!

Now, Tom had definitely surpassed the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm and almost broke through to the God Becoming Level!

The strong at this level was no longer something he could resist.

When he saw Tom's cold eyes, he was really scared.

At the same time he regretted in his mind that he was too confident and he felt that he should have surrendered as soon as he was on the field. Now he had no chance to surrender!

He also hated Rommel, the asshole. If Rommel hadn't encouraged him, he wouldn't have been so arrogant and was going to be killed.

From Tom's eyes, all Johnson saw was killing. He knew that Tom was going to kill him.

But he was not willing. He still had a great and wonderful life to enjoy. He didn't want to die.

So even if he was strangled by Tom, he still shouted, "Tom, don't kill me... Please..."

He was begging. As long as Tom let him go, he was willing to betray his country and become Tom's dog. He just wanted to live.

Tom understood what he meant, but would Tom let him go?

The answer was obviously no.

The corner of Tom's mouth lifted and he gave Johnson a cruel and playful smile. "Surrender now? It's too late."

As soon as the words fell, a click was heard as Tom applied a slight force to his hand, as if he was just doing something very light, and Johnson's neck was snapped by him!

Moreover, this sound was clearly transmitted to the ears of the whole audience.

It calmed down the audience, who had been so noisy and worried about Tom, and the people who were excited for Johnson.

It seemed a little strange.

Especially in the audience, Tesorang, who had been calm and boasting about Johnson's power, was dumbfounded when he saw this scene on the stage.

Chapter 876

As a Major Perfection Innate Realm expert, Johnson's life was extremely strong, so even if he was strangled by Tom, he did not stop breathing on the spot. Instead, he opened his eyes wide and looked at Tom like a ghost. At the same time, his eyes were full of fear, regret, unwillingness, beg for mercy, panic...

His expressions were showed on the big screen. The whole audience here and those watching the live broadcast all over the world saw his expression at this moment and knew his feelings at this moment.

There was deadly silence.

It was not until Tom let go of Johnson and let Johnson fall on the stage with a 'bang' sound that everyone woke up from their shock.

Even if they woke up, they were extremely shocked by Tom. For a while, they couldn't think of any words to describe their current mood.

Tom really shocked them.

Although they all knew that Tom was an absolute powerful master, one of the strongest men in the Kungfu Cup this time. However, Tom was too relaxed just now. Most importantly, Johnson punched Tom first. Now it was only a second later, and Tom killed Johnson?

This rapid change was far beyond their reaction.

"You, you..."

Johnson lay on the ground. He covered his neck tightly. His face was filled with fear and pain. He didn't want to die. He really didn't want to die, but he also found that his life was rapidly passing away. His neck was broken, and now he couldn't breathe.

His consciousness began to blur.

He stared at Tom and said with a hoarse and pleading voice, "Help me, help..."

At this moment, he understood that Tom was the only one in the world who could save him.

Every audience saw him now. And now everyone was staring at him blankly as if their brain had lost its ability to function.

In particular, the higher-ups of Country M, who were in the audience, were all dumbfounded and unable to come back to their senses for a long time. They even suspected that they had hallucinated. They couldn't believe what was happening in front of them.

Because Johnson was their super-agent, and he was excellent. They spent a lot of effort and money on Johnson just to make Johnson a God Becoming Level master and help Country M to become the world's number one power.

They were highly confident about the Kungfu Cup this time.

But now, their super-strong was actually knocked down so easily by a young man from H Country.

To be honest, even if they saw it with their own eyes, they could not accept the fact at all.

It was too inconceivable and cruel for them.

The smile on Tesorang's face froze and turned gloomy and panicked. His words stopped abruptly.

He looked especially funny.

Just then, Joseph and the others caught his expression and felt extremely happy and relieved.

There was nothing in this world that was more comfortable and enjoyable than smacked in the face.

Joseph snorted and said sarcastically, "I'm sorry, Mr. Tesorang, what did you say just now? Is this Johnson a super-strong master of Country M? How could he be killed so easily by our martial artist?"

It felt really good to hit a person when he was down.

The other higher-ups of H Country were all overjoyed. They had long disliked Tesorang, and because of international relations, they did not show their disdain.

Now that Tesorang had finally come to his senses, his face darkened.

Faced with Joseph's ridicule, he subconsciously wanted to retaliate, but he couldn't. He could only snort heavily and said, "He's only lucky."

"Really?" Joseph was used to Tesorang's this kind of look.

Looking back at the stage, Tom did not continue to attack Johnson because he knew that Johnson was doomed.

So he just stood on the stage and looked down at Johnson, watching Johnson die in pain and regret.

At the same time, a part of his depression was released, and he said in his heart, "Silas, Jasper, many of my fellow who died on the stage, did you see? I am avenging you, and you can rest in peace. Johnson is the first, and soon there will be a second one..."

Taking a deep breath, Tom relaxed a lot after watching Johnson lose his focus and stop breathing.

He could also clearly feel that after he killed Johnson and avenged Silas and the others, he refreshed a lot, and he felt much more relieved and cheerful.

He knew that although he had avoided the backlash of the Great Momentum and half reached the God Becoming Level by grandpa's means, he did not make up his deep regret yet.

Only when he killed Johnson, these villains, could he be truly released. And by then, his strength would break through again.

And this breakthrough could lead him to the real God Becoming Level.

At this moment, the whole crowd was still silent. And then, it turned noisy.

There are heated discussions about Tom.

"Tom won! Hahaha, Tom won! With single moves, he killed the mighty Johnson!"

"Tom is so powerful. Killing this Johnson is like pinching a chicken to death. He's so vulnerable. Haha..."

"That's great! I knew Tom would never disappoint us. Tom is invincible. Tom avenge us!"

"Tom is invincible. Long live Tom!"

"From now on, Tom is my idol. Whoever speaks ill of Tom in the future is my enemy!"

"I wait for this day for so long. Masters of H Country can also win. It's refreshing!"

All the H Country martial artists in the audience exploded into a huge sensation at this moment. They all looked at Tom excitedly.

At this moment, they regarded Tom as a god and a hero, and their worship of Tom reached an extreme level.

Many people even burst into tears, unable to suppress the excitement in their hearts, and cried out.

And this excitement influenced many people and made them cry too.

They had been waiting for this day for too long.

Apart from these folk martial artists, Pence, Amos, Marlin, and General Watson also reddened their eyes. They looked at the man standing straight on the stage with excitement.

Chapter 877

Someone took out a camera and took a picture of this scene, which became eternal memory.

Until a long time later, there were still people who remembered what happened today. On a dark day for H Country's martial artists, a man named Tom stood up and won the first victory for H Country, which also brought hope to H Country.

From that moment on, there was something awakening in the hearts of all the martial artists in H Country!

At this moment, everyone remembered a man's name, Tom.

Not only were these people at the Kungfu Cup but everyone who watched the live broadcast on TV.

Not only martial artists in H Country but countless ones in the world who remembered Tom. This man looked like an ordinary person, but he had endless charm and peerless ability.

Tom felt a great power as he listened to the cheers and shouts of his fellow countrymen.

At this moment, it seemed that he was connected with the hearts of millions of his countrymen. He would never be alone, and at the same time, he became a symbol, representing H Country martial artist. From this moment on, he no longer only represented himself, but thousands of H Country martial artists.

"This, this is impossible..."

In the audience, Rommel who was full of confidence thought that Tom must fail and was still optimistic about Johnson, and now his whole body was stiff and his hand, which was holding the goblet, could not help but tremble.

It wasn't that he was timid, but Tom's performance just now was too shocking and terrifying, and had completely surpassed his level!

He could clearly see that Johnson's punch hit Tom in the face, but Tom was not hurt at all, and he killed Johnson easily...

It was like he was torturing an ordinary man, and Johnson was too powerless to fight back!

This meant that Tom's level had not fallen, but he had survived the Invincible Spiritual Momentum!

But how could this be?

If it was measured in a scientific way, the momentum was like a huge amount of data. Only a supercomputer could accommodate such a huge amount of data. How could Tom be able to digest this huge amount of data before he reached the God Becoming Level since his brain was not developed enough?

There must be something wrong.

Not only him but others, such as Junichiro Nakai, Black Mamba were frightened. And just then, Tom's eyes looked towards them.

All of a sudden, their bodies could not help but tremble. Their faces turned pale, and they could not help but fear. And they quickly lowered their heads, not daring to meet Tom's eyes.

At this moment, so many masters at Major Perfection Realm had surrendered to Tom.

The corners of his mouth curved slightly, revealing a disdainful smile. He knew that these people were no longer qualified to fight against him. He was the Kungfu Cup champion this year.

However, he did not have the initial excitement and expectations in his heart, because this time, too many people died, like a cruel war.

It could be said that he step on the bodies of countless people to win the Kungfu Cup champion.

And some of them were his fellow, so there was nothing to be proud of.

However, this did not mean that he would stop. Now, he had to go on and win the Kungfu Cup championship in an invincible manner in order to be worthy of the sacrifices of these compatriots!

The crowd cheered, and he raised his right hand. In an instant, the crowd quieted down under his command.

Tom glanced at everyone and said solemnly, "I won. I won't disappoint you in every competition next."

After that, he bowed to his fellow.

All of a sudden, the room was even quieter. Everyone widened their eyes and stared at Tom on the stage in a daze. He was the man who had clearly reached the peak but still bowed to them and made a promise.

They were moved and the worship brewed and exploded in everyone's chest.

After three seconds of silence, someone quickly reacted and immediately bowed to Tom, shouting,

"Thank you, Tom!"

After this person did this, a storm immediately arose, which made many people following... No, it should be said that everyone began to bow deeply to Tom and shouted with great sincerity on their faces, "Thank you, Tom!!!"

The voice was very neat and loud, and it immediately spread throughout the entire venue, making the entire Kungfu Cup venue echo this voice, drowning those foreign martial artists present, like a tsunami.

Not only the H Country martial artists at the Kungfu Cup but many H Country martial artists who watched the live broadcast also bowed deeply to Tom on the TV, exuding their sincere devotion to this man!

Diana's face was extremely excited. She looked deeply at Tom with lights in her eyes and clasped her hands tightly on her chest. "Wow, he is so amazing. I'm going to fall in love with him!!"

Isabella, who was beside her, also opened her eyes wide and looked deeply at Tom, not willing to blink for fear of missing even a moment of him.

At the same time, deep down in her heart, there were already waves being stirred up, and her love for Tom had stimulated to an extreme!

She swore that she had never fallen for anyone like this.

Never.

If in the past, her feelings for Tom were more like the worship for the strong, but not love.

But now, she was completely conquered by Tom.

His personality, charm, and his sense of responsibility were all deeply attracted to her! She had never met a man who was as good as Tom. Tom was too special and charming. How could she not love such a man?

She was not the only one who felt the same way. In fact, many women present were deeply moved by him at this moment and fell for him. But they also knew very well that a man like Tom would never like them. They could only regard him as an idol and silently worship him for the rest of their lives.

At the same time, somewhere in the audience, there was a beautiful and extraordinary woman, Lexie, and now her eyes fixed on Tom on the stage. She was already lost in her thought.

She muttered, "Why didn't we meet earlier?"

Chapter 878

Lexie also came to watch the Kungfu Cup today, and she didn't come alone, but with Joseph and Barry.

Tom was going to compete with a strong opponent today. She couldn't help caring about him.

To be honest, in the beginning, she was really nervous and afraid that Tom would be killed.

For a time, she didn't dare to open her eyes wide.

But finally, when she saw Tom defeat Johnson in an invincible manner, she was relieved completely.

And immediately, Tom made a bow to everyone. His move was like the cupid's arrow which was shot deep into her heart, making her heart tremble uncontrollably!

At this moment, Tom was so charming and attractive that she swore she would never forget this scene for the rest of her life.

Moreover, she knew that Tom had completely conquered her heart and soul. If she could not be with Tom, then she would die alone...

Tom was really touched by the gratitude and reverence of so many of his countrymen.

Men all have emotions.

Although Tom had almost reached the pinnacle of what mankind were capable of, he was still a man with emotions. How could he be indifferent to the gratitude of so many of his countrymen?

However, he did not say anything else. He was not a pretentious person at all. He just wanted to work hard to live up to everyone's expectation in his own way!

So he nodded without saying any nonsense and strode down the ring.

Only when he left the ring did the staff at the scene react. Someone immediately rushed up to check on Johnson and confirmed that he had stopped breathing before announcing the result. Tom, as the winner, was qualified for the next round.

Tom didn't go back to the auditorium immediately. Instead, he went back to the break room and changed into new clothes.

As soon as he came out, he was surrounded by a lot of people, all of whom were young martial artists from H Country. They looked extremely enthusiastic as if they were fans of some celebrity.

"Tom is out!"

"He is so handsome! I feel like I am in love!"

"Tom, I'm your fan. Can you give me a signature? Just sign it on my chest.."

"Tom, I love you..."

In less than two seconds, Tom was blocked by these people, and their craziness made Tom surprised. He had never encountered such a situation, and he didn't know what to do.

"You..."

As soon as he finished speaking, he was surrounded by these martial artists. Some bold female martial artists even hugged him.

"Ah! I'm so excited that I actually hugged Tom!"

"You bitch, get away from Tom. Don't touch him. He is mine. Stop!"

"Damn it, she actually beat me to the punch. I hate her!"

Then, there were a few young female martial artists who were jealous and wanted to come over and hug Tom.

Tom was completely stunned. He had never been in such a situation before. These female martial artists were too crazy. They were like zombies, and they really scared him.

He had never been so panicked even in the face of a super powerful opponent.

During the time, he was hugged by several female martial artists who went very far and touched him.

It made him blush in an instant, and he was extremely embarrassed.

It was easy for him to break free from these female martial artists with his strength, but he was afraid that he would hurt their feelings. In such an awkward situation, he could only stay there at a loss.

"Hey, get out of the way. Don't hug me... Men and women can't be... Ladies, please pay attention to your dignity..."

However, his words were too weak for these crazy female martial artists, who ignored his warning and continued to touch him happily.

Seeing this, other male martial artists felt extremely envious, but not of Tom. They actually envied those female martial artists, who had the chance to hug Tom and touch his body!

They cursed and wished that they had done it earlier!

Just as Tom was at a loss for what to do, he finally heard a voice.

"Hey! What are you all doing? Get out of here!"

This shrewd voice sounded in everyone's ears, full of anger and authority, which instantly shocked those unscrupulous female martial artists.

Then, a valiant woman strode over, who looked stern and a bit scary.

"What are you doing? Do you still know what is dignity? How dare you hug a man like this in public?! Get out!"

The woman said a lot of sharp words. She immediately embarrassed the female martial artists and they quickly let go of Tom.

Tom breathed a sigh of relief.

He really suffered a lot just now. It was a torture to be hugged by so many female martial artists. What was worse was that they were not easily satisfied and even touched him all over.

They were so fierce that sweat broke out on his forehead.

This woman was Diana. Now she looked so angry that these female martial artists might wrongly believe that she was Tom's wife and became afraid of her.

However, when Diana came over and Tom was about to say "thank you", he saw Diana open her arms and rush into his arms. She hugged Tom tightly and shouted loudly, "Master, I love you! You were so handsome just now! I can't control my feelings for you! Marry me! I want nobody but you for the rest of my life!"

Tom was speechless.

His whole body stiffened, and the corners of his mouth twitched continuously. He was completely shocked by Diana!

She wasn't here to save him. She also wanted to take advantage of him!

And she was even bolder than those female martial artists!

Sure enough, those female martial artists were also stunned when they heard it. What was going on? Wasn't this shrew Tom's wife?

They felt as if they had been deceived.

Tom was so embarrassed now. Diana hung on him like a koala and kept rubbing his face. She went too far!

When Tom came to his senses, his face turned livid and he quickly scolded her, "What are you doing? How dare you! Stay away from me!"

Chapter 879

That was right. Diana wasn't an ignorance girl, but a very hot beauty. It was too indecent for her to hang on him like this.

Especially in front of so many people, she made him feel very embarrassed.

He quickly shook Diana away and glared at her fiercely.

Now he was no ordinary person, but the focus of the crowd. Many people had their eyes on him, and he represented H Country. He couldn't let others misunderstand that he and his apprentice had an affair.

Diana was still unwilling to be shaken away by him. She wanted to hug Tom, but she was immediately glared at by Tom. Diana felt that Tom was not joking and was really angry. She also pursed her lips and did not dare to get too close to Tom anymore.

Others looked at Diana enviously, and at the same time, they were full of hostility to her. She was their rival in love.

Isabella was behind Diana. She was also looking at Tom closely. She was still very envious when she saw Diana hugging Tom just now. She thought that she should have been bolder just now. She should have thrown herself into the arms of Tom just like Diana. However, she had missed the opportunity.

Tom coughed and then said seriously,
"What are you all doing here?"

Immediately, the female martial artists said, "Tom, we're here cheering for you."

"Yes, Tom, you were so handsome just now. You're our idol!"

"Tom, please sign for us. Please."

"Tom..."

Seeing the enthusiasm of these female martial artists, Tom felt a headache. He had never seen such a situation before.
He just became a star.

He had no choice but to say, "I'm not an idol. I'm just an ordinary person. If you want to chase after stars, you should go after those real stars."

"Humph."

His words were immediately disdained by these female martial artists.

"Tom, who are you looking down on? How can we go after those sissy handsome young boys? We like a real man like you!"

"That's right, Tom. You're our idol. How can those boys compare to you?"

"Stop it. Tom, hurry up and sign for us. Just sign it on my chest. Ha ha..."

As they spoke, they began to surround Tom again, trying to touch Tom's body. Tom could not help but feel a headache when he saw this.

Why didn't he find out that there were such crazy fans among martial artists before?

Just as Tom was helpless, Pence and others finally appeared and came to save him.

"Tom, what's the..."

Tom's eyes lit up and he said quickly, "Director Pence, you guys are just in time. I have something to talk to you. Ha ha ha."

After that, he strode straight to Pence, gave them a look, and left with them.

After leaving here, he finally breathed a sigh of relief. It was really embarrassed for him to be surrounded by a large number of female martial artists just now.

Seeing him like this, Pence asked curiously, "Tom, what happened to you just now?"

Tom smiled bitterly and said, "Hey, forget it. It was really scary just now. Fortunately, you guys came."

After saying that, Tom roughly explained what had happened just now. After Pence and others heard it, they immediately laughed.

Thorn joked, "Ha ha, Tom, it seems that you are now a big star among martial artists. So many female martial artists like you."

Marlin also smiled and said, "Yes, this kind of situation is rare. Tom really make others envy, ha ha."

When Tom heard their teasing, he rolled his eyes and said, "Don't laugh at me. I was so worried just now. It's harder to face these crazy female martial artists than it is on the stage."

After saying that, he sighed again, and still looked frightened.

When others saw it, they couldn't help but laugh. Many people tried their best to practice martial arts just for the sake of fame and publicity, while Tom was good at keeping a low profile and even took so many fans as a kind of worry.

It was precisely this kind of person who could concentrate so much on martial arts and reach such a high level that ordinary people could not.

They could tell that Tom was really upset about this and stopped teasing him. They changed the subject. Pence said seriously, "Tom, you did a good job just now. You've greatly improved the morale of H Country. Now you're our hero in H Country! But..."

He immediately changed his tone and said, "In this way, all martial artists will focus on you, especially the strong foreign martial artists of God Becoming Level... So be careful."

Tom nodded. Tom had already expected what Pence said, but he was not afraid at all. Even if he would encounter a number of masters of God Becoming Level, so what?

When he won the Kungfu Cup championship and got the chance to enter the Secret Realm, he would become a master of the God Becoming Level. By then, who should he be afraid of?

Tom was not worried about this at all.

When Pence and others saw this, they agreed him in the heart and admired him even more.

Then Pence said, "Tom, you have another match tomorrow, and the opponent will be a master in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm."

"Yes." Tom nodded. He didn't care about that at all. Whoever it was, he would just crush him.

Now that the Kungfu Cup was in the late stages, it was not far from the quarterfinal.

Then, Tom and Pence chatted for a while, and then went to the auditorium together.

Joseph saw him and immediately smiled. He waved at Tom and said with a smile, "Tom, come here."

Because of Joseph's greeting, everyone in the auditorium turned to look at Tom, including the senior official Tesorang from Country M.

Tom clearly felt that Tesorang was hostile to him. The gloom in his eyes flashed, but he soon returned to the original cold.

"Superior!"

Tom walked up to Joseph under everyone's gaze and saluted to Joseph to show his respect.

Joseph stood up, patted Tom on the shoulder, and said with appreciation and satisfaction, "Tom, you did a good job just now. You defeated your opponent with just several punches. Really impressive."

Tom said modestly, "My success is attributed to our country."

After a few words of small talk, Joseph said to Tesorang with a smile, "Mr. Tesorang, I'm really sorry just now.

Tom hit too hard. He didn't control his strength and killed your country's master."

When Tesorang heard this, his face darkened. He snorted heavily and pretended not to hear Joseph's words.

Seeing Tesorang's long face, Joseph felt so comfortable.

At this time, a bodyguard in a black suit whispered something in Tesorang's ear, which immediately made Tesorang's originally gloomy face light up. He looked at Tom up and down...

Chapter 880

Tom immediately sensed the look in Tesorang's eyes and looked at him. He heard Tesorang talking. "Ha ha, Mr. Ross, the martial artist from H Country is indeed very good."

When Joseph heard Tesorang's words, he was stunned and a little surprised. He had been fighting Tesorang for many years and knew Tesorang's character clearly. This was a very mean person. Logically, Tesorang should have been very angry since his man was killed by Tom. Why was he laughing now?

There must be something wrong with that. Joseph was sure of that.

But Joseph didn't show it either. He just smiled and said, "That's right. Tom is the strongest of our young generation in H Country. Of course, he is very good. But your so-called superman in Country M is not very strong. Mr. Tesorang, Tom killed your man so easily just now. He hasn't apologized to you yet."

Then he said to Tom, "Tom, this is Mr. Tesorang from Country M. He has a deep relationship with our H Country. You hit too hard just now. Please apologize to Mr. Tesorang."

Tom naturally knew what Joseph meant, but he didn't expect that Joseph, who usually looked very elegant and easy-going, would be like this.

At the same time, it also reflected on the side that Tesorang must be very mean to H Country. He must be always against H Country and limit H Country's development. That was why Joseph, who was so easy-going, would become like this.

Tom was very cooperative and said with a smile, "Mr. Tesorang, I'm sorry. I hit too hard just now. Since your country and our country are good friends, I don't think your players should participate in the next competition, lest I can't control myself again."

Tom's words sounded very polite, but in fact, he deliberately made Tesorang disgusted and humiliated.

Sure enough, Tesorang's face, which had a little bit of a smile just now, immediately became gloomy again. He snorted heavily, and the gloom in his eyes flashed past. Soon, he smirked, "Really? You really have blind confidence in yourself. But you don't need to worry about our Country M's business. You'd better take care of yourself for the rest of the competition! The champion is not that easy to win. When it comes to the championship, there's no chance to surrender. It's not good if you lose your life!"

Hearing his "reminder", Tom just smiled indifferently and did not take Tesorang seriously.

At this moment, all of a sudden, Tom felt a palpitate in his heart, and his brain was stimulated so hard that his muscles all tensed up!

At that moment, he felt that there was a master at the God Becoming Level who was emitting hostility towards him. In his mental world, Tom felt as if there was a sharp spear piercing his mind.

If he hadn't been mentally strong enough to almost reach the God Becoming Level, Tom would have been embarrassed.

Tom reacted quickly and immediately frowned. He was ready, like a cheetah ready to hunt!

At this time, Tesorang smiled and said, "Just now, Mr. Adam told me that he is very interested in Tom. He wants to meet Tom sometime."

When he said this, Joseph's expression immediately became serious!

Not only him, but also many of H Country's top management also frowned, as though confronted by a formidable enemy. They all stared at Tesorang, and their faces were no longer as relaxed as before.

When Tom heard this, he frowned slightly. Although he had never seen Adam in Country M, Tom had heard of him.

This was a master at the God

Becoming Level and the strongest in Country M. It was said that his strength was above God of War's!

In addition to the qualification to enter the Secret Realm, this time the Kungfu Cup champion's award also included gaining some guidance from the God of War from H Country, Adam from Country M and the queen of Eagle Country.

And the value of the guidance was great.

But now, Adam from Country M actually went straight to the scene and threatened Tom?

Combined with the hostility he had just felt, Tom was sure that the man was Adam from Country M!

And Adam obviously had hostility towards Tom and wanted to kill him without warning.

He was really despicable and shameless, without the demeanor of the master at the God Becoming Level at all. This even had violated the rules of the God Becoming Level!

It was conceivable that if he hadn't reached the God Becoming Level half, Adam's attack just now was enough to hurt him. If it was more serious, it was not impossible for his brain to suffer irreversible sequelae!

When he thought of this, Tom's face darkened and he snorted heavily.

His eyes swept across the room, looking for the man at the God Becoming Level.

Joseph immediately narrowed his eyes and said meaningfully, "Mr. Tesorang, you'd better make things clear. Why does Mr. Adam want to see Tom? Is he going to defy the Kungfu Cup rules and attack Tom?"

Tesorang just shrugged and said with a smile, "Mr. Ross, why are you so nervous? Mr. Adam just appreciates Tom. He doesn't want to do anything to Tom. Relax."

Joseph snorted and didn't say anything more. He had made a plan and immediately contacted God of War Albert to protect Tom. Otherwise, if something happened to Tom, it would be too late.

In Country M's style, seeing a powerful young man like Tom, it was really possible for Country M to do such shameless things.

He had to guard against them.

At this moment, Tom smiled and said, "Mr. Tesorang, Adam is right here. Since he wants to see me, why not come out directly?"

Hearing Tom's words, everyone was shocked. Adam had already arrived at the scene?

After that, the top management of H Country became even more nervous, especially Joseph, who frowned directly.

Not only the top management of H Country, but also the top management of many other countries were on standby, and the bodyguards responsible for protecting them were even more vigilant. Many of them even put their hands on their waists and were ready. As soon as there was a sign of trouble, they would immediately take out their guns and shoot their target!

When Tom saw their reaction, he immediately realized what it meant for Adam to be here...
