

Chapter 961

It was like a powerful tornado, forming from Her Majesty and sweeping around.

This kind of momentum was too strong!

To everyone in the room, it was a mental storm.

No, it wasn't just a storm. It was a destructive momentum that made their minds go blank in an instant. They fell to their knees and kept kowtowing.

Only then did they recall that Her Majesty was more than a queen, but also the top Strong in Eagle Country, the only Strong at the God Becoming Level in Eagle Country, and the guardian god of Eagle Country.

How dare they deny Her Majesty's decision? They were looking for death!

Although Her Majesty has been very approachable over the past few years, a few decades ago, Her Majesty ascended to the throne through the cruel fight.

In an instant, they all felt fear and regret from the bottom of their hearts. They dared to deny the decision of Her Majesty. They were so stupid and had underestimated the ruthless and decisive will of her.

Not to mention them, even Tom was shocked by Her Majesty's momentum.

This is the power of the Strong at the God Becoming Level!

Even Tom was affected by that momentum and stunned for 0.01 seconds.

Although 0.01 seconds was very short, it was enough for the Strong at the God Becoming Level to defeat the enemy. That is to say, if Her Majesty really wanted to attack Tom, then Tom might have been defeated by her just now.

And the only result of that was death.

For a moment, Tom was much more vigilant against Her Majesty.

But soon, he relaxed again, because Her Majesty would not do anything to him. If she really wanted to harm him, then she would have done it just now.

As he thought, Her Majesty gave him a meaningful smile. Tom smiled back, not feeling embarrassed.

In his mind, he had a clearer understanding of Her Majesty's power.

After all, God Becoming Level master is much stronger than the near-to-God Becoming Level one.

However, he also felt that Her Majesty's strength was about the same level as that of God of War Albert and Adam of the Country M, but it was still inferior to King of LT Organization's.

When he faced King of LT Organization at that time, it was as if he was facing the will of heaven. That was too scary.

Tom felt that King of LT Organization didn't have to make any move but a thought in his mind could kill him.

He couldn't help but think of his grandfather, who was also a strong God Becoming Level master!

As far as he knew, every God Becoming Level master has the powerful momentum to shake the world and the great ability to conquer a region or even a country.

But as a God Becoming Level master, grandpa was only the head of a family in H City, and was killed by a traitor?

It was impossible at all.

Grandpa must have some secrets he didn't know!

He planned to ask his grandfather that when he returned home.

Her Majesty's words sounded again. "I have made up my mind. From now on, Alice is the heir to the throne and will be the next queen. You must assist her well."

"Yes, Her Majesty!"

"Yes, Her Majesty!"

How dare they show any resistance now? Her Majesty will kill them if they show any resistance.

However, in their hearts, they would definitely not want to assist Alice.

Her Majesty could nominate Alice as the next queen. On the paper, of course, they did not dare to harm Alice, but in practice, they would not be so kind!

The nobles in the royal family, in particular, had made up their minds to take advantage of Alice.

William was qualified to be the heir of the throne and they didn't question that. But now Alice replaced William as the heir. And she was not of their clan and had no supporters, they definitely not accepted her as the heir.

This engagement ceremony ended, and Alice became the final winner. So many things happened and she became the heir. She was really lucky.

Some of the truly intelligent dignitaries guessed that Her Majesty's purpose in doing this was not only that she thinks highly of Alice but also she wants to bind Tom and the H Country together.

Therefore, the dignitaries were more interested in Tom.

When they went back, they collect Tom's information and found out that Tom was a top executive in H Country and the champion of the Kungfu Cup a few weeks ago. He was extraordinary and reached the near-to-God Becoming Level!

Moreover, the most astonishing was the Tom was so young...

After knowing this, they understand why Her Majesty had nominated Alice as the heir.

But even so, they would not give in.

And for the Alexander Clan family, it was a big surprise. If Alice became the queen in the future, the Alexander Clan family would have the opportunity to replace the original clan and become a royal family!

This was an absolute big deal that upheld the family honor.

Tonight's engagement party was over. In the end, Her Majesty gave Tom a look. Tom got the message and quietly followed her in.

Her Majesty exuded a sacred, majestic, and inviolable aura.

No one would have imagined that she was already in her eighties.

She looked like she was only about forty years old, and she was really energetic.

But Tom behind her felt that something was wrong with her.

Her Majesty's aura was not continuous, strong and weak from time to time. Although this change was very subtle, Tom could still feel it clearly.

Tom had a guess. Was Her Majesty injured?

Finally, Her Majesty walked to the deepest part of the castle.

It was actually a very ordinary elegant house, which looked no different from the residence of ordinary people.

Was this where Her Majesty lives?

Tom was somewhat surprised.

Her Majesty saw his confusion and smiled. "You guessed right. This is indeed my home. I have lived here since I was an infant. Every time I fight outside, I can only restore peace here."

Tom nodded and said, "It's good. There's a special magnetic field. When people come in, the field influenced them and made them in peace and

Chapter 962

She was a little surprised that Tom could tell at a glance that she was injured, but she quickly regained her composure. Appreciation flickered across her eyes, and she did not deny it. Instead, she nodded and said, "Yes, I am indeed injured by the Bishop of Saint Abbey."

Hearing this, Tom was shocked. Her Majesty fought with the Bishop of Saint Abbey and was injured. So the Bishop must be powerful!

"What level is the Bishop?" Tom asked in a low voice.

Speaking of which, he had a lot of friction with the Saint Abbey. He killed relief."

"Be seated."

Her Majesty spoke the H Country language and spoke it fluently, except that she had a slight accent.

Tom sat down and looked at Her Majesty. "Your Majesty, you're injured. Who did that to you?"

Gario at home and many of the members of the Saint Abbey in Eagle Country, including two masters of the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm.

Under the light, Her Majesty's ruddy face turned pale, and she coughed a few times.

Even if Tom sat three meters away, he could still clearly smell the breath of blood from Her Majesty's cough.

It seemed that Her Majesty was seriously injured!

Even Her Majesty couldn't beat the Bishop of Saint Abbey?

After all, as the highest leader of Eagle Country, Her Majesty was also a master of God Becoming Level. She was a top master even among many powerful people in the country!

The Saint Abbey, also known as the Sun & Moon God Sect, was just a second-rate sect among many sects. Its Bishop had such strength. How powerful would those large four sects be?

Tom frowned and felt discouraged.

Her highness said, "He's at the First Rank of God Becoming Level."

"First Rank of God Becoming Level?"

Tom was even more confused. It was the first time he had heard this concept!

Could it be that God Becoming Level

still had different ranks?

Like Innate Realm?

Her Majesty was also surprised to see him like this. She said, "Don't you know that there are ranks after the God Becoming Level?"

Tom shook his head. "I don't know."

Her Majesty smiled and said, "I didn't expect that man in your country not to tell you this. Does he think you cannot break through to the God Becoming Level in a short time?"

Tom was noncommittal.

"Her Majesty, could you please explain it to me?" Tom bowed.

After getting along with her just now, Tom had a good impression of Her Majesty. She was a kind old lady, not the same type as Adam from Country M.

Her Majesty smiled again, narrowed her eyes at Tom for a while, and then said, "There are different ranks of the God Becoming Level. The martial artists who have just broken through to the God Becoming Level will be the first rank, then the second rank, and the third rank of the God Becoming Level. The third rank is the peak of the God Becoming Level, and there's no more."

There was no more...

Tom felt disappointed.

So mortals had limits...

Martial artists cultivated to hone themselves and improve their limits. It was a concept of men conquering nature.

However, human beings had their limits after all.

Her Majesty also felt Tom's disappointment. She smiled, "When I know that humans have limits for the first time, I had the same reaction as you. I'm very disappointed, sad, and skeptical."

Tom continued to remain silent.

The queen continued, "The God Becoming Level is a realm where humans have broken through god's shackles. Only one out of hundreds of millions of people can do this. And anyone who breaks through to the Third Rank of God Becoming Level will be god-like. That person can do everything except being able to break the physical limit and becoming a real god. It's the end, but it's enough."

Indeed, what Her Majesty said made sense. The God Becoming Level was the realm that countless martial artists dreamed of. By the time they broke through to the God Becoming Level, they were no longer mortals but half-immortals! It was a huge improvement in all aspects, and the strength was only one of them.

When they came to the God Becoming

Level, the most intuitive thing was that life expectancy had increased, as well as intelligence, thinking, and so on...

If Tom could break through to the God Becoming Level, he would be able to live two hundred years or even longer.

"It is difficult to cultivate. Since ancient times, countless martial artists have been practicing day and night and improving themselves. The dream of one day being able to compete with the heavenly lord is only a delusion." Tom shook his head, and then he smiled. "I don't believe there is an end. People create the roads. The predecessors thought they had been to the end, but the descendants may be able to break through it."

Her Majesty looked at him for a long time before she laughed and clapped her hands. "You are the true chosen one of H Country that had Great Momentum. You are right. The experience of the predecessors is not necessarily correct. The predecessors thought that Third Rank of God Becoming Level was the end, and the descendants are still able to break through it."

Hearing Her Majesty's praise, Tom was not proud but smiled calmly.

Then, they talked about martial arts.

Because Tom was the Kungfu Cup champion, he had the right to ask Her Majesty about his confusion, and her Majesty would not hide anything but tell Tom what she knew.

As a God Becoming Level master and the king of a country that had lived for more than 80 years, Her Majesty was rich in her thoughts and vision. Tom benefited a lot from their conversation!

He suddenly understood many of the problems he had not figured out or realized before after the conversation.

In addition to the gains in martial arts, the more important thing to Tom was the understanding of life, philosophy, economics, sociology, mathematics, physics, astronomy, quantum mechanics, and other fields.

In fact, Tom was not limited to martial arts or fighting at his current stage. His research involved many fields, and Her Majesty was one of the representatives!

Her knowledge was so rich. She could also succeed if she did the academic and scientific work.

Tom also understood why God of War Albert decided to be a university professor.

Because at this stage, what these masters dabbled, cared for, and pursued were not things that ordinary martial artists could understand.

Although Tom had not reached that stage yet, he began to understand that and learn more.

Now, he felt himself getting closer to the God Becoming Level than ever!

With just one chance, he could successfully break through to the God Becoming Level.

And this chance might be coming soon.

Chapter 963

Tom did not leave Eagle Country immediately, but stayed for a few days. He wanted to take the opportunity to talk to Her Highness about the God Becoming Level.

And the queen did not hide anything from him. She showed great kindness to him, told him anything she knew, which benefited Tom greatly.

In addition, Tom stayed here to tutor Alice. After all, strictly speaking, he changed Alice's life trajectory. He was responsible for Alice.

First, it was because of his character, and second, it was also because of his fate.

As for the most important third point, this was his deal with the queen.

However, Tom also learned more about the Saint Abbey and found that the Saint Abbey was actually a very evil organization. The top leader of the Saint Abbey was called Asura, and he was extremely evil.

He was also at the peak of the God Becoming Level, and even Her Highness, the queen, was no match for him.

Finally, Her Highness reminded Tom that the Saint Abbey had noticed him. Next, the Saint Abbey would definitely take action against him.

In particular, once Asura attacked him personally, there was still a gap between Tom's current strength and Asura's. He was definitely no match for Asura!

Tom also knew this, so he was very careful.

He even secluded himself and indulged in cultivation.

He was trying to break through the God Becoming Level!

He knew it was difficult, but he had to try anyway.

Because he felt that there was indeed a powerful force staring at him.

Like a poisonous snake in the dark, they stared at him intently. As long as he was not careful, they would come out and give him a fatal blow!

He was very unhappy with the feeling of maggots clinging to his bones.

In the blink of an eye, half a month passed, and Tom was still in Eagle Country. To be exact, he was in the queen's elegant house, secluded himself and tried to break through the God Becoming Level.

With the help of the queen, Alice slowly secured her position as the crown princess. At this time, with the queen's support, no matter how much those people disliked Alice, they did not dare to act rashly.

It was not easy for Tom to break through the God Becoming Level.

Under the guidance of the queen, he relaxed his body, spirit and soul and entered a even more profound realm.

However, he still couldn't reach the real threshold of the God Becoming Level.

That feeling was very uncomfortable. He was clearly standing in front of the threshold, but no matter what, he still couldn't find exactly where the threshold was, which made him wonder if there was no such threshold at all.

Half a month later, Tom still couldn't step into the God Becoming Level, just to consolidate his current state.

couldn't control myself..."

The queen waved her hand and said with a smile, "It's okay. This elegant house is too old. It really should be eliminated."

There was some emotion in her words, and Tom immediately recognized that she was comparing the elegant house to herself.

This made Tom even more embarrassed.

He wanted to help the queen repair the elegant house, but she refused, and he did not insist.

"Alas, I still haven't broken through to the God Becoming Level." Tom sighed and said.

When he opened his eyes, a golden light flashed in his eyes, and he exuded an extremely powerful aura just as a tornado swept through the whole house.

Moreover, this was not an illusory mental force, but a real gust of wind blew out of him and blew the cabin away.

This made him very embarrassed.

This was the queen's cabin, and he broke it apart.

Coincidentally, her highness was right next to him, and there was some helplessness on her face.

Tom scratched his head and said awkwardly, "Your highness, I'm sorry, I

Her highness smiled and said, "This is normal. Breaking through the God Becoming Level requires an opportunity. It's not bad to be able to consolidate your status in just a month of seclusion time. Your current strength is infinitely close to that of the God Becoming Level."

Tom nodded. He did feel that his strength had indeed improved some. His whole body was filled with explosive power, the strongest he had ever had!

He was at least several times stronger than when he was at the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm.

At this moment, the queen made an unexpected move, she did not say anything and directly launched an attack on Tom!

And it was still very sudden, without any warning. The attack was not a test, but a real killing move.

This made Tom's blood freeze instantly. An unprecedented sense of crisis swept through his heart!

What was going on? Was the queen going to kill him?

But soon, the thought was extinguished by him.

His reaction was not bad. He knew that the queen was training him.

All of a sudden, he felt even more grateful to the queen.

In a blink of an eye, the queen was already in front of him. He blocked all thoughts and dealt with the queen's attack.

The queen was a master of the God Becoming Level. Even if she was already in her eighties, her strength was extremely terrifying!

In that moment, Tom felt a huge pressure, like a mountain, pressing on his head, making his spirit, muscles, and bones felt nearly unbearable!

Fortunately, he was not at a low level, just with slight snort, and this pressure was melted away by him. After dodging the killing move of the queen in the beginning, he began to launch a counterattack against the queen.

Their battle could be described as extremely intense.

If it weren't in the deep part of the castle and the woods extended a few kilometers around, it would have caused a huge shock.

Every God Becoming Level expert had an extremely terrifying energy brewing in his or her body. Once he or she unleashed it, the damage would be extremely great.

In the woods, because of the fight between Tom and the queen, large areas of trees were blown up and collapsed.

At first, Tom was able to fight the queen, but over time, he found that the queen was getting more and more powerful!

Even vaguely, he felt that he seemed to be fighting against all over the forest. Every punch and kick of his hand would have a counter action on him. That feeling was very uncomfortable, as if the air around him had turned into water, greatly increasing his resistance!

He was only shocked. He had never seen such a situation before.

In the end, he lost without a doubt.

But the queen did not kill him either. She stopped and asked him with a smile, "Do you have any thoughts?"

Chapter 964

Tom thought for a moment and said, "I feel that the whole forest is against me, and the air is getting heavier and heavier. Every fist and kick I made was against great resistance. If it weren't for this huge resistance, I wouldn't have lost."

This was the truth.

Although Her Majesty was already at God Becoming Level and Tom was only at Half-step God Becoming Level, he was not inferior but even stronger in terms of physical strength.

At the beginning of the fight, Tom even thought he was going to win.

But over time, the resistance from the forest became stronger and stronger. Every punch he made cost him several times more physical and mental energy than before.

At first, Tom was able to hold on, but after a long time, he couldn't stand it at all.

Her Majesty smiled and said, "That's right. This forest has condensed my Spiritual Senses. As an outsider, you will naturally feel its hostility."

Tom asked humbly, "Is this a divine power of God Becoming Level?"

Her Majesty shook her head and said, "It's not a divine power, but a 'Spiritual Sense'. Every master at the God Becoming Level has his own Spiritual Sense, the sense that connects you with the surrounding environment, heaven, and earth."

It was difficult for ordinary people to understand her profound words. But Tom was suddenly enlightened!

Spiritual Sense.

He began to meditate because just now, he vaguely felt something he had never experienced before!

As long as he caught it, he could successfully break through to the God Becoming Level!

Her Majesty saw that he could understand her meaning so quickly, and her eyes showed surprise and admiration again.

She was sure that she didn't choose the wrong person. Tom was a strong and reliable ally.

In fact, she now felt that as she grew older, her strength declined more and more fast. In Eagle Country, except for her, there were no other masters at God Becoming Level. There was no qualified successor.

A hundred years later, Eagle Country would probably decline if there was no master at God Becoming Level master.

This would be inevitable!

In particular, all Clans were restless. If one day, they started to attack the whole nation, Eagle Country would definitely be greatly damaged.

So in this case, she decided to win Tom over!

In fact, she had known Tom for a long time and knew that he was amazing. His future achievements would definitely go beyond that!

Most importantly, Tom was trustworthy.

Instead of committing Eagle Country to Alice, she actually wanted Tom to take over this job.

And Tom obviously knew this too. They understood each other without discussing it.

Her Majesty did not disturb Tom but left quietly.

She was good enough for Tom. As for how powerful Tom could become, it depended on his own cultivation.

Tom meditated for three whole days.

He did not eat or drink, nor did he move. He looked like a statue without breathing.

Even a wild beast came closer to him and did not find him alive. It sniffed at him and left in disappointment, thinking of him as a rock.

In the past three days, whether it was windy, rainy, or sunny, he did not move, and even his heartbeat and breathing stopped.

He seemed to be dead, but his body did not rot or stink. So he was still alive.

Finally, on the fourth day, the sky was suddenly overcast and it was going to rain heavily.

With a loud roar, a bolt of lightning struck directly at Tom!!!

It targeted Tom!

Just as the lightning was about to strike Tom, he suddenly opened his eyes.

He raised his head and glared at the thunderbolt!

And then, a shocking thing happened. The lightning suddenly changed direction and struck a hundred-year-old tree next to him. With a loud bang, the tree was riven in half, and the trunk was burning, which was very frightening.

Tom took a long breath.

Then he stood up, stretching.

He was clearly in a mess, but his eyes were shining with exquisite light!

He could no longer be described as elated but refreshed and reborn.

His current spirit was extremely high and his eyes, in particular, were incomparably deep, as if the whole world was his eyes.

Then he left and found a place to wash up and change clothing. Then, he began to eat.

Now he was so starving that he could even eat a cow.

In fact, he did eat a lot of beef.

After having a meal, he felt his strength, spirit, and soul were stronger than ever before.

Though he hadn't reached the God Becoming Level yet, his fighting capacity was no different from that of a master at God Becoming Level.

It was no exaggeration to say that if he fought with Her Majesty now, his chances of winning were 90%!

Even in the face of Bishop of the Saint Abbey, the top master at God Becoming Level, he still had the chance of winning.

This was not blind confidence, but a rational judgment.

However, at this moment, as soon as he charged his phone, he saw a lot of missed calls and text messages!

He wiped one and found that it was actually from the Falcon Team.

"Chief Instructor, we are in trouble. The Saint Abbey's men are here!"

"Chief Instructor, they are too strong. Many companions sacrificed."

"Chief Instructor, support us."

"Chief Instructor, don't come. This is a trap for you!"

Reading this information, Tom's pupils immediately shrank.

The Saint Abbey set a trap for the Falcon Team.

According to the content of this message, they were already...

At this moment, Tom was not calm, and his eyes were burning with anger!

Without any hesitation, he called back directly. He prayed that they were alive.

However, no one answered his call.

Just as he was to hang up, someone finally answered. But it was not Stormi.

Chapter 965

"Tsk-tsk, Tom, you finally called. Great."

A sinister voice came from the phone. It sounded like a ruler scratching the blackboard. It made a high-pitched and harsh sound, which made people rather uncomfortable.

Needless to say, it must be the top management of the Saint Abbey. Tom only heard this voice and knew the strength of the other party.

It was in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm!

Hearing this, Tom felt bad. It was not that he was afraid of the other party, but that the entire Falcon Team had been in the control of the Saint Abbey. In this way, the Falcon Team was in danger and probably had suffered misfortune!

These messages were all sent yesterday, and he was still in seclusion yesterday and missed the best chance to rescue them, which made him regret it!

But he didn't panic. Instead, he quickly calmed himself down and said, "You'd better let the Falcon Team go, or I'll kill you."

"Kill us? So arrogant!!"

The other party was obviously angered by Tom's words, and then he smiled grimly. "I didn't want to do anything to nobodies like you, but if you say so, I'd like to see how you can kill us."

Then, Tom heard Stormi scream on the phone.

Hearing this, Tom was furious, and at the same time, he could not stop the killing intent in his heart.

"Enough!" Tom shouted in a deep voice and said coldly, "Your target is me. Don't make things difficult for them. Tell me the address. I'll go over now."

The other party seemed to be on speaker. As soon as he finished speaking, Stormi shouted, "Chief Instructor, you can't come over! This is a trap. They are... Ah!!!"

But before he could finish his sentence, there was another scream.

His voice was very shrill, obviously he was suffering a great pain.

Tom held his cell phone, and the murderous thoughts in his heart was like a torrent of running water, which could not be stopped.

But he did not lose his composure and continued in a deep voice, "Tell me the address."

"Hahahaha..." The other party said, "Tom, it seems that you are really a righteous person. You secular people are so righteous! Well, we are in Green Island. I give you half an hour to get here, or you can just come to collect their bodies!"

"Okay."

Tom hung up the phone and, in a fit of anger, crushed it.

Saint Abbey, Saint Abbey, the Saint Abbey!

Anger erupted in his eyes, and he had already made up his mind to kill the Saint Abbey.

Originally, he didn't want to get entangled with the Saint Abbey, but now that the Saint Abbey dared to threaten him with the Falcon Team, he didn't mind destroying this so-called Saint Abbey!

Without any hesitation, he quickly changed his clothes and strode away.

At this moment, the Queen walked out and felt Tom's murderous intent. She frowned slightly and said, "The Saint Abbey has called you?"

Tom was not surprised by the Queen's sensitivity. He nodded and said what had happened to her in a deep voice.

The Queen said directly, "Do you need me to accompany you?"

Tom appreciated the Queen's kindness, but he shook his head and refused, "No need. I can go by myself."

The Queen didn't insist, she nodded and said, "Well, Asura fought with me and was injured. At this time, he probably won't take action. The entire Saint Abbey, except him, is no match for you. However, you still have to be careful and don't fall into their trap. Their skills are very evil. In your state, you might lose out on carelessness."

"I understand." Tom nodded, then left the Queen and ran straight to Green Island.

Green Island was not close to here. It was at least 300 kilometers away. With the traffic condition in Eagle Country, even a sports car could not reach there fast.

While the helicopter would take too long to start, so it was better for him to walk there by himself.

After navigating the location on his phone, he ran straight to Green Island and arrived in half an hour.

At the same time, in Green Island, there were hundreds of Saint Abbey experts ambushing here.

Green Island, in fact, was not the real Green Island, but a small island in a lake within Eagle Country.

It was one of the Saint Abbey's bases in Eagle Country, a best place for killing people .

In a room in the middle of Green Island, there were more than a dozen H Country agents. They were members of the Falcon Team. They were all seriously injured, scarred, and even dying.

None of their flesh was untouched, and they suffered severe torture.

Especially Stormi, who was the captain, was now covered in bruises and dying. If he hadn't been in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm and had a strong body, this injury would have been enough to kill him.

But even so, his face was ashen, his breathing was hard, and the vitality on his body was disappearing.

Standing in front of Stormi was a tall man. His hair was blood-red, and his pupils were grayish. His whole body revealed a great evil aura!

He was Gario's father, Tucker.

After he hung up the phone, a ferocious and mocking expression appeared on his face and he said, "Your Chief Instructor will be here soon. Let's see if he can save you, haha."

"Bah!"

Stormi spat and cursed, "Kill us if you have the guts!!"

The other members of the Falcon Team were also extremely angry and shouted at Tucker fearlessly.

Tucker raised Stormi's neck with one hand and stared at him coldly. "You nobodies in the secular world dare to oppose our Saint Abbey! When Tom comes, I will skin him alive in front of you, avenge my Saint Abbey, and my son!"

After saying this, he became extremely ferocious, and he was no different from the devil who crawled out of hell. Even if Stormi and the others could not help but shiver.

They had seen all kinds of people, but they still felt genuinely scared when faced with demons like Tucker.

In their opinion, Tucker was no longer a human, but a humanoid monster.

Stormi gritted his teeth. He knew the Falcon Team would definitely not be able to escape. It was already the situation. They must not get Tom involved.

So he decided to bite his tongue and kill himself!

However, Tucker had already discovered his motive and stuffed a piece of iron into his mouth to stop him.

He did the same to other members of Falcon Team.

He smiled grimly, "You want to bite your tongue and commit suicide? No way. You can't die until Tom comes."

Chapter 966

Not only were they badly injured, but they were also tied up and stuffed with iron bars in their mouth. They were unable to struggle, nor to commit suicide.

They were extremely anxious and regretful. If they had known, they shouldn't have been there yesterday!

Speaking of which, they were caught by the Saint Abbey people yesterday because of their carelessness. They were discovered by them where they were hiding, and then got caught.

At the last moment, Stormi and the others realized that their target was probably Tom, so Stormi was the first to call and text Tom to remind him.

Unfortunately, at that time, Tom was in the close-door training and did not read their message.

If they knew this, they should have killed themselves!

The Saint Abbey was their deadly enemy, so they all knew that if they fell into the hands of the men of Saint Abbey, there must be no possibility of survival. Even if Tom came to rescue them, he would die here as well!

They knew Tucker very well that he was a super devil. His martial arts were unfathomable and he had killed many people.

Moreover, on this Green Island, Tucker was not the only expert. There were more than 40 experts in the Innate Realm.

And there were two masters at the same level as Tucker, Alaric and Sky!

These three were the three great masters in the Saint Abbey. Their martial arts had reached their peak.

They were invincible among those who didn't reach the God Becoming Level. Even if the Little Martial God from the Capital City came over, he might not be a match for any of them.

Now, the three of them had gathered here. No matter how powerful Tom was, he hadn't reached the God Becoming Level. How could he defeat them?

So when he came, only death would wait for him!

in Tom had unlimited potential, and they really didn't want to see him die here because his death would be a huge loss to H Country!!!

In time, with his talent, he would reach the God Becoming Level. In H Country, only God of War, an old man, was a God Becoming Level expert. If Tom could break through to the God Becoming Level and work with God of War, then the strength of H Country would be greatly improved.

But now, they were going to watch Tom be killed by these people of the Saint Abbey. It was a huge pain for them!

As time passed, their hearts were filled with anguish and they shed tears.

They wanted to kill themselves! But they couldn't. Now they could not move, only waiting for the time to come.

Half an hour passed quickly.

Sky frowned and said, "Tom hasn't arrived yet. It seems that he knows that we have set up many traps here. He won't come. Just kill them."

Alaric seconded, "Sky is right. People are always selfish and heartless. This Tom is no exception. Wait no more! Kill them."

Tucker's eyes were burning, and at the same time, two sharp blades appeared in his hands.

His expression was very ferocious. Ever since he knew that his son had been killed by Tom, his hatred for Tom had reached an extreme!

If Tom didn't come today, he would be furious and want to kill someone to vent his anger.

"People in the secular world are indeed shameless!" Tucker said coldly. He was extremely angry. A black aura emanated from his body. Even under the broad daylight, he was so creepy.

He now no longer like a person, but a demon who crawled out from hell.

For agents of the Falcon Team, death was a relief.

But at this moment, they all heard that a figure suddenly appeared in a building opposite them. Because he was hundreds of meters away, he looked very small, like a small ant.

And this figure ran so fast that they couldn't see his movement clearly.

Immediately, the little figure arrived at the building, then jumped directly to this place.

This figure blocked the sunlight, and the shadow covered most of Green Island.

It had to be said that this scene was extremely shocking to the Falcon Team!

They could see that the figure who suddenly appeared was Tom, who had come to rescue them!!!

Not only them, but also the other Saint Abbey members on Green Island were shocked by Tom's showing up.

To them, he was like a god of war descending from the sky, falling towards their direction.

Tucker immediately looked up. He saw Tom and happened to meet his gaze.

A wave of anger burst out from his body and three words popped out of his mouth, "TOM HOWARD!!!"

Not only did he, but Sky and Alaric also saw Tom.

They were all masters of Major Perfection Realm, and almost broke through to Half-step God Becoming Level. Such strength, not to mention in the secular world, even among the Clans, ranked at the top!

When they saw Tom, they narrowed their eyes and had a new judgment about his strength.

Green Island was an island in the lake, and ordinary people needed to take the boat to come here.

But a top expert didn't need that.

He ran all the way to the tallest building that was near Green Island and then jumped to the island.

His speed had reached its peak, and he turned into a shell, jumped up high, and then landed on Green Island.

This scene was not only shocking to the people on Green Island, but also to all the ordinary people who saw it, and they regarded him as an immortal!

Some of the old people in Eagle Country knelt down, worshiping him, "God, god, god!"

At this moment, Tom, in their eyes, was god because only a god could do such a great action!

From the building on the other side to Green Island, it was more than 1,200 meters, but he jumped to the island. No wonder people would worship him!

Chapter 967

With a bang, Tom swooped down and landed heavily with his legs were deep into the ground because of the great impact.

Even those martial artists who didn't reach the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm would be injured by the impact!

And ordinary people would be crushed to death.

But nothing happened to Tom. Even his expression did not change, nor did he frown.

He just pulled his legs, and then he swept around, seeing all Falcon Team members were covered in bruises and tied up in all sorts of ways. Stormi got most seriously injured and he was almost dying.

In an instant, Tom erupted into fury!

The fury was rising from his belly to his head.

And he exploded with rage.

Their mouths were stuffed with iron bars, and they could not speak. After seeing Tom, they struggled desperately and made a whimper.

And because of that, their mouths began to bleed. They were in pitifully great pain.

Tom saw feelings and despair in their eyes. They were trying to stop Tom from staying here. It was a trap!

An elaborate trap!

But would Tom leave? The answer was obviously no.

His mind was already filled with endless murderous intent. Today, all the people on this island must die! Only in this way could he vent his anger!

"How dare you to torture my men. You can't afford the consequences."

Tom swept around all the members of Saint Abbey and then his eyes were fixed on Tucker, Sky, and Alaric.

In fact, Tom had already noticed these three masters from the other side, but he did not take them seriously. To him, they were just ants.

He thought only Asura, the Bishop of the Saint Abbey, was his match.

But it seemed that Asura was not here.

Very well, so that he could do whatever he wanted.

When Tucker saw him, he emanated great momentum, and then said, "Tom! Finally you're here, hahaha!!"

He laughed loudly and happily, but there was no smile in his eyes, only endless anger and murderous intent.

The other two masters, Sky and Alaric, had cold faces and stared at Tom intensely. They were ready to attack Tom As long as he dared to make any rash moves.

Their mission was to bring Tom back alive!

Of course, they would kill Tom if they couldn't keep him alive. They would bring Tom's head to Asura.

Tom could tell what they were thinking immediately. He showed a disdainful smile.

It was wishful thinking that those aunts wanted to kill him.

Even before he came to Eagle Country, they were not his match, not to mention that after being instructed by Her Majesty, he had been even more powerful after a period of seclusion.

Soon, Green Island began to become restless. From all directions, a lot of great masters walked out, They were all masters of the Innate Realm, the weakest one among which were at the second stage of Innate Realm!

That was terrifying.

Even a powerful country might not have so many great masters of Innate Realm, but now, they were here for Tom.

The Saint Abbey really took him seriously.

The agents of the Falcon Team were anxious and worried.

One of the agents endured great pain to crunch the iron bar and shouted loudly, "Chief Instructor, run! These scum intend to kill you! This is a trap, a trap!"

Another agent also crunched the iron block. He shouted out loudly with blood in his mouth, "Chief Instructor, you must be fine! We can't afford to lose you!"

And other agents also managed to roar at Tom, asking him to run!

In fact, Tom's mental state was much calmer than ordinary people's. In other words, he was not easily touched.

Even though he was touched, he was still calm.

But now...

He felt warm!

He was moved by the Falcon Team.

Moreover, after being moved, he had stronger killing intentions.

With a serious expression, He saluted them and said in a deep voice, "Falcon Team, I promise you that I will save you! And I will kill these beasts to avenge you, and avenge our countrymen who have been dead!"

He was extremely serious and solemn. He was swearing. If he couldn't fulfill his promise, then he would be punished by god!

And it was amazing that at this moment, thunder boomed and crashed. The rumble seemed to be echoing Tom's words!

The bizarre phenomenon made the men of Saint Abbey shocked for they felt the power of heaven.

Tucker, Sky and Alaric become gloomy. The murderous intent in their eyes towards Tom became stronger.

Now not only Tucker, but also Sky and Alaric had a great intention of killing Tom. They were determined to kill Tom!

And after hearing Tom's words, the Falcon Team members' eyes were filled with tears.

"How arrogant you are!!!"

Tucker cried out with a ferocious look. He took a step forward, and the others surrounding Tom also took a step forward. The strong momentum brought Tom great pressure, like a real mountain!

"Tom, how dare you to be opponent of Saint Abbey! You must die today! I will avenge my son!!"

Chapter 968

Tucker almost grounded it out between clenched teeth. And at the same time, he began to mobilize all his momentum, strengthening them step by step.

He was a master of the Major Perfection Innate Realm, and because of his unique skills, he was a very powerful one at this level. Tom could tell that after a glance that even Fausto was not necessarily Tucker's match.

It could be said that this was the most powerful Major Perfection Innate Realm master that Tom had encountered since his debut.

He was so close to the God Becoming Level.

In addition to him, Sky and Alaric on both sides were also unfathomable. Together, they brought Tom some pressure.

Tom could feel that this was because their skills complemented each other. If they worked together, they could bring out a strength greater than they did separately.

But so what?

Tom had changed a lot.

When Tom heard Tucker's words, he was a little confused. "When did I kill your son?"

When Tucker heard this, the black aura around his body became more intense and his expression became more ferocious. With his ugly face, he was no different from a real devil.

"Tom! Do you remember that college student named Gario at the University of H Country?!" Tucker said fiercely.

Tom heard this, he immediately remembered that this was the first person he had met at the Saint Abbey. Moreover, in H Country, the name of the Saint Abbey was Sun & Moon God Sect.

"It's him." Tom said with a sudden realization. "I remember that this guy is scum. He played the bully with his inapt skills in the University of H Country, so I killed him. So he's your son? He's quite like you."

Hearing Tom's sarcastic words, the hatred in Tucker's eyes became even more intense. "I'll kill you!"

After saying that, he was about to attack. Almost instantly, there were two sharp swords in his hand, and there were teeth on both sides of the blade. As long as he made a slight cut, he would cut a man's flesh. It was an extremely evil and fierce weapon.

However, just as he was about to move, he was stopped by Sky. Sky said in a low voice, "Don't rush out. Let your men try first."

Alaric added, "Sky is right. Drain his physical strength first."

When Tucker heard it, he immediately reacted and nodded with gritted teeth.

"Okay."

Then he waved his hand and ordered his men to surround Tom first.

On Green Island, there were many masters of the Innate Realm. Wherever they went, they were a huge force. If they were to fight a country, it would cause a fatal blow to the country.

Even if that country used a nuclear weapon, it might not work.

Because every master of the Innate Realm was too flexible.

But now, on this little Green Island, they were going to besiege Tom.

Following Tucker's order, they did not hesitate at all and began to act directly. Each of them was a master. Although their own cultivation was far from Tom's, so many Innate Realm masters would still cause big trouble for Tom.

In particular, they had the skill of combined attack.

They were not as unarmed as Tom, but each of them had a weapon in their hands, some with short blades, some with long sabers, some with swords, and some with maces.

Almost instantly, they rushed up to Tom and launched an attack.

It was like a flood, drowning Tom.

Tom did feel some pressure in this situation.

But that was all.

Now, he was no longer in Innate Realm, but Half-step God Becoming Level, only one last step away.

There was a huge sound.

Tom did not sit back and wait this time. He immediately launched a counterattack after their attacks.

Almost in an instant, the first master of Innate Realm, holding a thick mace in his hand, hit Tom's head hard. Once he hit Tom, Tom would be smashed.

Especially on the mace, there were many thorns. Even if Tom did not dare to take it directly.

Of course, it wasn't that Tom would die if he took it, but it wasn't necessary.

He took a light, easy step forward, and at the same time patted that man's head heavily. Suddenly, that man's ferocious expression turned into painful look, and at the same time, his eyes began to lose focus.

In fact, by this time, he was already dead.

In less than half a second, Tom ended his life.

He didn't know why he died so quickly after he died.

Tom did not care what such a small person thought. When he passed over, his fist had already landed on another believer.

This believer was a swordsman, and he was at the fourth stage of Innate Realm. He was a master of swords. When a group of flies flying in front of him, he could only use the sword to cut off their tentacles without killing them.

In particular, once he had the sword, the strength he brought out could be compared to the Major Perfection Innate Realm!

However, such a master of the sword couldn't pull out his sword when he faced Tom. Tom took his sword with one hand, and then pulled out it easily. Seemingly casually, he swung up and that man's head was cut off.

Moreover, Tom threw the sword casually behind him. With two poof sounds, the sword directly pierced through two masters of the Innate Realm.

From the beginning to the end, it was only four seconds. Tom had already killed four believers.

And he did it so easily.

When Sky and Alaric saw this, their face turned ashen.

They knew that Tom was very strong, but they did not expect that Tom's strength was so terrible.

At the same time, an idea came up to their mind. Could it be that Tom was already a God Becoming Level master?

If so, then they were not his match.

Tucker guessed what they were thinking and said, "He can't be the God Becoming Level. I've investigated him. Two months ago, at their Kungfu Cup, he was just at the Major Perfection Innate Realm. The Bishop said that he should be at Half-step God Becoming Level now. As long as we go together, we can kill him!"

Chapter 969

When Sky and Alaric heard Tucker's words, they nodded approval.

In their opinion, it was impossible for Tom to reach the God Becoming Level.

It was completely unrealistic.

As long as Tom didn't break through to the God Becoming Level, Tom would not be an opponent about their equal.

Originally, they came here today to kill Tom.

Otherwise, they could not report their mission to the Bishop.

The three men looked at each other, then at Tom, who was fighting in the crowd.

Then a unanimous decision was made, which was to continue to consume Tom's physical strength, and when his strength and momentum weakened, they would go up together to eliminate him!

As for Tom, after he killed a master of Innate Realm in a second, he was surrounded by more masters of Innate Realm, who, unlike the first four, fought as one.

They had an ingenious strategy to unite and unleash more power than their combined strength!

Tom immediately felt the danger.

But that was all.

"Your strategy is brilliant, but do you want to trap me by this? It's ridiculous."

Tom sneered, and then began to attack by pure strength!

He turned into a huge bullet and rushed towards them!

It had to be said that these believers were skillful in their uniting strategy, and indeed exerted more power than their combined strength.

If it was a master of Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm, then he would definitely not be a matching opponent.

Even if it was Tom in the competition for the Cup, he would not be able to cope with such a scheme.

But now, those strategies didn't work.

Tom didn't use showy skills. He just cracked them through violence!

Bang bang bang...

He kept punching, and every punch he made was like a bullet of the sniper rifle. It was powerful, breaking their scheme by pure strength.

With a punch, the believer in front of him was hit in the chest and flew out.

Moreover, there was already a bloody hollow in his chest!

Then this powerful force tore his body apart.

He fell to the ground and lay still. He was dead.

And Tom continued to attack with a darkened face.

Every kick and punch would take a life away.

Anyone who stood in his way, no matter what weapon he used and what realm he was in, could not bear one move of him, which blew him up.

In less than half a minute, he had already killed a dozen more believers.

His body was no longer as white as before. Even his face was stained with a lot of blood, yet not his own, but the blood of these believers, his defeated opponents died of his punch, splashed on him.

He was like a god of war, a Death, reaping life!

The point was that there was a faint smile on his face, as if he was doing a easy thing, not going through a big battle, with no pleasure or madness after killing!

However, because of this behavior, everyone looked at him with fear in their eyes.

This kind of Tom looked truly frightening, like a Death who came to reap lives, for whom it was just a simple thing like drinking and eating!

Even if they were practicing evil skills in the Saint Abbey, they had never seen such a god of death.

When the rest of the believers faced Tom, their mentality finally changed. A big change!

They began to fear.

And with this fear, their momentum immediately dropped, and the uniting strategy could not be unfolded, causing a huge mistake.

They were not Tom's opponents about his equal at first, and now due to the panic, even more so.

"The devil, he's the devil, the real devil..."

Finally, after witnessing Tom's bloody killing, a master of Innate Realm from the Saint Abbey broke down in one stroke. His lips were trembling, and he had lost the courage to fight Tom. After a strange cry, he turned around and ran away.

And his run brought an avalanche effect directly, making those who were also afraid disperse one after another, like a disorderly mob.

This scene shocked many agents of the Falcon Team.

They knew that Tom was very powerful, but they never thought that he was so powerful!

You know, there were dozens of masters in the Innate Realm here, and also many experts in the third and fourth phases.

What a great force would they be once combined!

Even the army of a top power was no better than that, but now, they had no ability to fight back at all under Tom's attack.

They were dumbfounded, indeed.

Not only them, but also Tucker, Sky and Alaric, whose pupils constricted and minds went blank.

Their estimation of Tom's strength was totally wrong!

"This..."

"Tucker, what's going on?! Didn't you say he wasn't at the God Becoming Level?!"

"Tucker! Where did you get the information? If he's a God Becoming Level, then we all have to die!"

Sky and Alaric, who were very dissatisfied with Tucker, scolded him.

Even Tucker was a little confused. Did he really make a mistake in his investigation?

However, just as he also panicked, suddenly, he noticed that there's a faint pale in Tom's face, and his surging momentum also showed a short pause.

This was obviously the situation of losing strength!

Knowing this, he was stunned for a moment, then shouted with ecstasy, "Look! He's definitely not a God Becoming Level! He's starting to lose his strength. This is our best chance! Let's go together! Cut off Tom's head and give it to the Bishop!"

Sky and Alaric also found out about Tom's condition, and their fear immediately gone. Taking a glance at each other, they pounced on Tom without thinking.

When the Falcon Team saw this, they were astonished, thinking that Tom was going to die.

Only the corners of Tom's mouth turned up slightly, and a conspiratorial laughter appeared in his eyes.

Chapter 970

It was a pity that Tucker, Sky, and Alaric did not see Tom's smile. Otherwise, they would definitely be able to tell that this was his conspiracy.

Tom was indeed not an expert in the God Becoming Level. He was still stuck in the Half-step God Becoming Level.

He was not as physically strong as the God Becoming Level masters.

However, it was definitely enough for him to execute these cowards from the Saint Abbey.

Their status was too high, and the Falcon Team, a group of burdens, was also there. If he took the initiative, it would be easy to hurt the group.

He couldn't beat the three all at once.

However, if Tom deliberately showed weakness and move the battlefield to the edge of the Green Island, away from the Falcon Team, then he could win them all.

Tom was superb, and he was never a brainless rascal.

"Don't retreat! He has no strength. Let's kill him!" Tucker gave a shrill roar and ordered the remaining believers not to evacuate.

The believers also found that Tom's momentum was indeed much weaker.

They all felt a little surprised. When they saw the three warlords who were going to take part in, their fear and despair were swept away. Now they were full of excitement and murderous intent.

Instead of retreating, they began to counterattack against Tom.

At the same time, they were shouting.

"Move forward!"

"Reverend Tucker is right. This mortal has no energy left. Now is our chance to take revenge."

"He is the Strong of Half-step God Becoming Level. I want to eat his brain so that I can definitely make great progress in my divine power."

"I want his left hand."

"I want his right foot."

"Ha-ha, kill him, kill..."

At this moment, the remaining believers began to counterattack Tom as they were full of beans.

It had to be said that the power exploded from them now was quite strong, and it was actually a threat to Tom.

Tom decided to act out to the end. His face showed nervousness and panic. At the same time, his face became even paler. He ran in another direction as if he was about to escape.

The believers saw his reaction and were even more certain that Tom would not be able to continue to fight. Instead, he was about to flee.

"He is running away."

"We can't let him escape! Chase him. We will catch him and surround him."

"This damn guy, he just killed so many believers. We must kill him!"

"Yes, eat his flesh, eat his bones, and drink his blood."

They were all exceptionally ferocious, like demons coming from hell. Not to mention children, even the martial artists would be scared to cry when they saw them.

The fastest was Alaric. He was the most experienced one among all the believers here. In the blink of an eye, he had caught up with Tom like a big bird.

"Want to run? No way!"

Alaric sneered and his tone was gloomy. In his opinion, Tom was already a dead man.

And also a delicious prey. As long as he killed Tom, he could eat him alive. Tom was in the status of the Half-step God Becoming Level. If he ate him, it would definitely bring him great benefits.

Tom kept running without looking back.

And as he ran, his momentum was getting weaker. Meanwhile, it looked like he was very panicked and exhausted as if he was already a spent bullet.

The more he looked like this, the more excited the believers from the Sect of Divinity would be. They all smiled grimly and made a creaking sound. In their eyes, Tom had become their cuisine.

The Saint Abbey was also known as the Clan of the evil, which was not only because of their wicked skills but also their ideas, purpose, thoughts.

Even in the world of the Clans, they were like public enemies.

The Nüwa Sect, who had found Tom, was bullied by them.

It was only over the years that they had been under great pressure in the Clan that they began to appear in the secular world.

And over the past years, they had also massacred many secular people.

Unfortunately, now that they met Tom, they were destined to pay a terrible price for their actions.

Finally, Tom ran to the edge of the Green Island.

It was more than ten kilometers away from the Falcon Team agents.

Here, Tom would have no scruples and could do his best.

Soon, other Saint Abbey members came here and formed a circle around Tom.

They all had frightening grim smiles.

"Tom, you can't run anymore, can you?"

Alaric sneered and stared straight at Tom. His eyes were full of greed and violence as if Tom had already become food to him.

Tucker laughed even more recklessly. "Ha-ha, Tom, you're finally in my hands. Weren't you arrogant just now? One against a hundred, it's very glorious. Unluckily, you're so naive that you use up your strength in advance. Now, you're dead."

Sky stared straight at him and kept swallowing.

"You can't give him a chance to regain his strength. Let's do it together."

Sky made a gesture and ordered everyone to go up together and kill Tom while he was weak.

It had to be said that these believers had strong hearts. They had almost been killed by Tom just now, but now they were full of ambition.

They moved in unison, like locusts, and immediately attacked forward.

However, Tom smiled at the same time.

Moreover, his weak momentum suddenly changed and immediately became surging, which was even stronger than before.

His change stunned everyone. "What is going on?"

"Didn't the masters say that Tom was out of strength?"

While they were still in a daze, Tom had already started to assail.

At the same time, he said, "You idiots, do you really think I'm out of strength? I just brought you here to beat you all."

Hearing this voice, all of them were shocked.

In particular, the three warlords, Alaric, Sky, and Tucker, realized something was wrong, but it was too late to regret it.

Tom started to fight, and he was even more violent and powerful than before.
