

Chapter 1051

Just as everyone thought that Adam would get angry and hit Tom, Adam looked up and laughed, he laughed out loud as if he had heard a big joke.

"How dare a nobody who just reaches the Innate Realm judge me?"

Adam stared at Tom as he spoke. At this moment, the momentum on his body improved again and he became even taller. He was standing there and did not move, but the impression he gave everyone was that his body was taller and taller, becoming a giant a hundred feet tall. Tom was just an insignificant ant in front of him and could be trampled to death at any time.

Of course, Adam could not be transformed. He gave people this feeling because his shift in momentum caused mental hallucinations for everyone present.

Then, Adam looked at the air again, his eyes like lightning. It was as if Albert was really there. Adam snorted heavily, as if all his patience had been exhausted, "Albert, I've been giving you face again and again. I didn't want to step on this little ant. Since you didn't come out, then don't blame me for not giving you face!"

After he finished speaking, he began to attack Tom and said, "Are you ready to die?"

At first glance, his speed was not particularly fast, as if everyone could see his movements clearly. But in fact, what they saw was only Adam's shadow. His speed was extremely fast. Under the reflection of the sunlight, it was only the shadow.

In a blink of an eye, Adam had already reached Tom in about a millisecond, which was much faster than the speed of sound.

Then Adam clapped his hand, his palm like a high mountain with endless heat and fire and like a volcano, heavily smashing at Tom.

Tom was also shocked. He was not surprised by Adam's move, but Adam was intending to kill him, and it could also cause such a strong mental disturbance to him. In an instant, he realized that Adam was stronger than Asura that he had met before!

That was the strength of the person who reached the First Rank of God Becoming Level.

At this moment, Tom really felt as if he was facing a volcano. For the first time, he thought that he was no match for the guy.

Of course, this thought only flashed by his mind. Although he only reached the Half-step God Becoming Level, his real strength was already much more than that of the Half-step God Becoming Level, and he was comparable to people who reach the God Becoming level.

Crossover challenge seemed to be easy, but it was rare for anyone in the world to really do this, especially in the Innate Realm. It was even rarer to challenge the God Becoming Level!

But Tom did it.

Facing Adam's attack, Tom did not panic at all. Instead, all he had was joy and excitement.

Although he usually looked so gentle and elegant, he was actually a fanatical militant in his bones. The stronger he met, the stronger he was. The stronger his opponent was, the more excited he was!

Now that Adam was the most powerful opponent he had ever met since his debut, how could he not be excited?

"Good!"

Tom shouted violently. He actually didn't step back, but he squared away. His loose pants, with a snap, were actually stretched and cracked by his bulging legs.

His legs, as if they were made of steel, were full of explosions. That muscle definition looked much more beautiful than that of any bodybuilding expert in the world!

He planned to tolerate Adam's slap and see how strong Adam was.

Adam found out what he was thinking and was furious. He thought that Adam was looking for death and dared to confront him.

It was only a moment for all the onlookers. Adam slapped Tom's head heavily and he was hit by Tom's punch from the bottom to the top.

There was a loud bang.

It seemed that the space had been distorted by the collision of their fists and palms. A violent wave of air was created and vibrated around at the speed of sound.

This sound wave was too strong. It not only produced a violent explosion, but also produced a violent airflow, blowing Adam and Tom's clothes, as if they were standing in the middle of a who reaches the God Becoming Level are land immortals. Their powers are far beyond what mortals can understand! Even thermal weapons, except nuclear bombs, can't produce such terrifying power!"

"People who reach the God Becoming Level are really demigod..."

"Fortunately, we are far away from them or we will definitely be affected!"

"Originally, I thought that it has already been a great thing to reach the Innate Realm as an ordinary person and then you can stand in the world and dominate. Now it seems that the Innate Realm counts nothing. In front of the experts of the God Becoming Level, people who reach the Innate tornado!

Adam took a step back and Tom took two steps back.

Under their feet, the ground was crushed and made an earthquake-like sound, which showed how powerful they were!

They were on an island in the middle of the lake, and the others were standing on the shore, far away from them. The people could clearly feel the damage and were deeply shocked!

"Is this, is this... Is this the fight between the experts of the God Becoming Level? The collision of their forces is too scary!"

"No wonder that it is said that people

Realm are like ants!"

"Wait a minute. Why does Tom look fine? Look at him. He even has a smile on his face. What kind of monster is he? Is he really an expert of the God Becoming Level?!"

Everyone around them focused their eyes on Tom. They returned to normal after being shocked by the horrible collision just now and saw that Tom was unharmed and had a smile on his face. Tom looked happy while they were terrified.

It was known that Adam was an expert of the God Becoming Level, and he could be counted as one of the very best who reach the God Becoming Level. But Tom was actually unharmed after colliding with Adam face to face.

It was unbelievable!

The people of H Country, who were originally very nervous and depressed, immediately heaved a sigh of relief when they saw that Tom was fine and they shouted, "Tom is invincible! Tom is invincible!"

They were so excited. They didn't expect Tom to be able to fight Adam without being hurt. From this point of view, Tom's strength was beyond their imagination and he had the ability to fight Adam.

Chapter 1052

For those from Country M, they felt another way.

In their opinion, they were invincible existence, but were actually defeated by Tom and could not hurt him at all, which was really a blow to them.

Although their fight just began and the outcome was not yet determined, it was a shame that Adam could not win Tom in one move since he was so powerful.

The corner of Adam's mouth twitched. Although he just exerted 80 percent of his strength and his mental attack on him, he thought that he could easily defeat Tom with this move.

However, the reality made him frown greatly. Tom actually survived his attack. Moreover, through the collision just now, he felt that Tom was not as weak as he thought. His palm seemed to be slapped on a huge rock, indestructible.

He wouldn't show his feelings. Instead, he smiled and said with a meaningful look, "It's interesting. I wondered why you are so bold to come to my country to make a scene. It turns out that Albert enlightened you."

When everyone heard this, they suddenly realized. Yes, it must be Albert who enlightened Tom. He gave his own strength to Tom so that Tom's strength would increase greatly in a short time and could resist Adam's slap without getting hurt!

Tom shook his head and said disdainfully, "Adam, as a God Becoming Level expert, is it appropriate for you to play tricks like that? You valued your reputation too much and think of yourself as the strongest person in Western countries. You can't stand someone better than you, more talented than you, so you do everything you can to suppress those who might surpass you. It's precisely because of your action that for so many years you are the only God Becoming Level expert, and the other geniuses, who begin to crop up, have been dealt with by you."

Hearing this, the audience was in an uproar.

Especially for many powerful people in Western countries, when they heard it, they suddenly realized it.

Over the years, there had been too few strong people in Western countries, especially experts at God Becoming Level. They had always wondered why. Could it be that God abandoned them?

Now that hearing Tom's words, they suddenly were enlightened. They were not stupid and immediately realized that Tom was not talking nonsense.

For many masters in Country M, it shocked them even more!

Because, over the years, every time a brilliant genius appeared in, it would be inexplicably suppressed and even disappear.

They once wondered if they had been killed by the powerful people of other countries, but many of them had never left the country, so how could they die out of the blue?

Now that Tom's words made them come around.

And, over the years, they had indeed heard a lot of bad things about Adam, mainly about him being stingy. Many geniuses wanted to get in touch with Adam and ask for his advice, but they were often rejected by Adam harshly.

Now it seemed that Tom's words were reasonable!

For a moment, they looked at Adam in a different way, no longer with the admiration and reverence they had just had, but with suspicion, even disgust, and hatred.

If Tom was right, Adam, as the so-called guardian of Country M and the Great Satan of Western countries, suppressed and even killed the genius from their own country, then Adam was not worthy to be their guardian, nor was he qualified to be their belief!

Adam felt their emotions and their gazes change. He became even angrier.

But at the same time, he felt guilty because Tom was right.

He was a stingy person in his bones, especially since he became the most powerful man in the West. He was afraid that his position would be threatened, so he had been rejecting these young geniuses all these years.

If he found some truly talented young men, he would even take action to kill them.

However, he had been doing these things very secretly. For so many years, no one had found out. How could Tom know now?!!

His guilty conscience did not escape Tom's eyes, which made Tom a little shocked. It was just a tongue-in-cheek remark, and he didn't think in that way, but now looking at Adam's reaction, he might be right.

For a moment, he chuckled, and the more he thought about it, the funnier he felt. "Hahaha, Adam, you're guilty. I'm right. You're really a petty person. You're afraid that your position will be threatened, so you secretly dealt with all the young people who may threaten you! I believe Hannibal has done this kind of dirty work for you so many times!"

"Tom, you want to die!!!"

For the first time, Adam was so angry that his face turned pale with anger. It was unforgivable that he, as a powerful God Becoming Level expert, was actually mocked by Tom, this weak man in his eyes.

He no longer held back and attacked Tom again.

This time, his attack was even more fierce and terrifying. At the moment he made his move, the aura suddenly changed, as if God started to get angry.

This change made everyone around them look pale. Some timid people even knelt down.

As the person involved, Tom was the one who got affected the most.

At this moment, he did feel the horrible aura and pressure from Adam. This was the real strength of a God Becoming Level expert!

The reason why the God Becoming Level masters were so much more powerful than those of Innate Realm was that besides the physical strength, they were more intimidating at the spiritual level.

When it came to the God Becoming Level, there was even the ability to communicate with God, so an expert of the God Becoming Level could sense the power of God. Over time, the will and momentum from God were brewing, which was extremely scary.

In an instant, Tom was affected.

Fortunately, this was not the first time he had fought with a God Becoming Level expert. He had fought the Queen in Eagle Country before.

Later, he fought with Asura, which made him much calmer when he faced Adam now.

Most importantly, he was not just at Half-step God Becoming Level, but with the H Country's good fortune in him!

So, he started to fight back.

Chapter 1053

His counterattack was so sudden and unexpected.

In an instant, everyone heard a faint buzz. And this sound was not heard from their ears but appeared in their minds.

Indeed, Tom did not make such a sound himself. It was a sudden change in his momentum. A huge mental wave appeared from him and spread around.

And it affected everyone.

Even Adam was affected by Tom's mental fluctuations and he paused slightly.

He seemed to see a huge oriental dragon emerging from Tom's body, rising from his head and soaring into the sky!

At the moment, Tom seemed to have turned into a dragon.

Of course, it was just an illusion. No matter how powerful Tom was, he couldn't really turn into a dragon.

However, the shock to Adam was not much lighter than Tom's real transformation into a dragon.

Because Tom's aura showed that he had great luck, which was from H Country!

He was in shock, but more coveted. If he could win Tom, he would definitely be able to condense this dragon-shaped aura from H Country!

With his realm, if he could digest the aura from H Country, it would definitely bring great benefit to his realm.

He decided that no matter what happened today, he would kill Tom and strip him of this aura from H Country. Even if Albert really appeared here, he couldn't stop him!

In fact, not only him, but many of the people present also felt the dragon-shaped aura from Tom.

"Oh my god. Did I see it wrong just now? A dragon actually appeared on this person from H Country? Damn it! Is he the son of luck?"

"I also feel it. It is a great aura. No wonder this person from H Country can cultivate so fast. It turns out that his body contains great aura! If I could have this aura..."

"If I can have such an aura, I will definitely be able to swiftly increase my cultivation. By then, I will definitely be able to promote to the God Becoming Level and become one of the super Strongs in the world!"

Even some martial artists from H Country began to discuss it.

"That is the H Country's aura that Tom has gathered. It has already successfully transformed to a shape! It is amazing!"

"This is Tom's greatest reliance, right? That's why his cultivation speed is so fast and he dares to challenge Adam."

"I'm really envious. If I could have this kind of aura, I wouldn't be so bad!"

"It seems that Tom is really the son of luck in our H Country..."

Tom had already started to fight against Adam while they were talking.

With the dragon-shaped aura of H Country, he was able to be a match for Adam.

Their speed was extremely fast, and the power they exerted was also very shocking. It was beyond the expectations of everyone present, and many people were greatly shocked.

Bang!

They had already fought crazily for more than a hundred times in a short time.

Adam hadn't gained the upper hand up to now, which greatly shocked him.

He was a master of God Becoming Level, and he had reached the peak of the level. Even a real master of God Becoming Level couldn't fight with him for a long time, let alone not fall behind.

But Tom was really far beyond his expectations.

Tom's attack was very heavy, his strength was incomparably abundant, and his moves were extremely exquisite. Some moves of him could even threaten him!

This had never happened before.

He didn't believe it at all, and he widened his eyes angrily.

Damn it! Why was this damn person from H Country so powerful? He had already used 90 % of his strength, but he couldn't defeat Tom, not even get the upper hand.

But Tom was in the opposite mood. His heart was filled with joy now!

He hadn't been so delighted for a long time. Adam's strength was indeed much stronger than Asura's, and he was the strongest opponent he had ever met.

But his own strength was much higher than when he was in Nüwa Sect. Otherwise, he really wasn't match for Adam.

He was the kind of person who would become more and more courageous as he fought. The stronger Adam was, the more he could inspire his will to fight.

He was sure that his strength would definitely rise to a higher level after this battle with Adam.

Everyone present were all dumbfounded to see that Tom really had the strength to fight with Adam and was match for him.

The shock of this scene was unprecedented for them!

Their battle was earth-shattering. The noise they made was like a continuous nuclear bomb explosion, destroying the island and shaking it constantly.

All kinds of stones were flying around. And everything on the island, whether it was a rock or a tree, would break down and be blown up to shatter around as soon as they touched them.

Some people who didn't react so fast were hit by a few stones that were ejected at a high speed. They were seriously injured and even died.

Tom became more and more excited, and his body temperature kept rising. His originally fair face slowly turned red. And even the white mist began to appear above his head and then evaporated in an instant.

Adam, on the other hand, had quite different reactions. His body temperature was getting lower and lower!

At the same time, his eyes gradually changed from black and white to gold.

His speed was also increasing, far exceeding the speed of sound.

With a bang, he kicked Tom hard. That force was really comparable to a hydrogen bomb. With the huge energy produced by nuclear fusion, he could kick it to pieces like tofu even if a high building was in front of him.

However, Tom did not dodge. There was no expression on his face, and he did not even think about it. With the consciousness of combating, he raised his leg to kick Adam and hit his leg hard.

"Bang!"

An unprecedented loud noise erupted from them, creating a huge sound wave that rolled away in all directions.

The noise was so loud that it directly swept across the lake and caused a two-meter-high wave.

Chapter 1054

The force of this collision was enormous.

It seemed that even space could not bear the power of the two of them, which caused a huge distortion!

In particular, the huge force they created could actually lift the waves on the lake, which was two meters high. This kind of thing was unheard of, which made everyone stunned.

Now they had been shocked too many times, causing them to be a little numb to this scene.

They had never doubted Adam's power, but Tom was just a master of the Innate Realm. How could he have such a strong power without reaching the God Becoming Level? This was completely unscientific!

However, they finally realized that Tom was not the kind of brat they had thought he was before. He wasn't courting with the death by challenging Adam, but he really had the terrifying strength to do so!

Not only the ordinary audience, this time, even Emmett and Alistair were surprised for the first time!

Alistair frowned and his eyes widened. It was hard to hide his surprise. He couldn't help but say, "This Tom is so powerful! How is this possible?! Is he really the chosen one?!"

Emmett, who had always maintained a cold and aloof expression, was now shocked. "We underestimated his strength. It's reasonable for him to be on the List of Immortals. In fact, with his real strength, he can be ranked in the top five!!"

Alistair said with a bitter smile, "The top five? Higher! Emmett, you've seen his performance now. Do you think you have absolute confidence in defeating him?"

Emmett stopped talking and fell into silence. At the same time, there was also dissatisfaction in his eyes. But in the end, he sighed and looked a little bleak. He said, "I'm not sure I can win. However, if I use weapons, he's not my match."

Alistair said, "That's not necessarily true. What if Tom is also a good weapon user?"

Hearing this, Emmett fell into silence again, but then he clenched his fists and made a clicking sound. His eyes were fixed on Tom on the island, who was fighting Adam, said in a hoarse voice. "I now recognize this his strength. It's a good thing that such a powerful person can appear in the secular world, which makes the next battle more interesting."

Alistair also looked at Tom, and his eyes were still strangely red. He smiled and said, "Maybe we won't have to wait for the next battle, we might meet him in advance."

"You mean in the Secret Realm?" Emmett said, and then he laughed. "If he dares to come to the Secret Realm, he will die."

After a pause, he added, "There's another news. I wonder if you've heard of it."

"Oh? What is it?" Alistair asked.

Emmett said in a somewhat intriguing tone, "I heard that the head of the East Sect seems to have an illegitimate daughter who disappeared for more than 20 years and was lost in the secular world. The head of the East Sect has been searching her for a long time. Now, it seems that he has found her."

When Alistair heard this, he was immediately interested. At the same time, the red in his eyes became more intense. He said, "Is there such a thing? That's interesting... Emmett, do you know who this illegitimate daughter is?"

Emmett glanced at him indifferently and said, "Alistair, you don't have to pretend. You must know this news too. In fact, he only knows that his illegitimate daughter is not dead and has already issued a reward. Whoever can find his illegitimate daughter will ask him for a favor."

Alistair also smiled and said, "Nothing can be hidden from you, Emmett. It seems that you came to the secular world this time to find this illegitimate daughter of the head of the East Sect, right?"

"Alistair, aren't you the same?" Emmett snorted.

At this moment, after Tom and Adam's fists collided, this huge force sent Tom's body flying out. And there was a stream of blood that almost gushed out from his throat, but he swallowed it back. His face was a little flushed by the injuries.

Adam was the same. He flew out and fell heavily on the ground.

He barely stood firm.

At the same time, his face became paler.

He was injured, too.

"Tom!" He glared at Tom and said with deep hatred for Tom.

But there was also a little fear and regret in his voice.

Tom's strength was far beyond his expectations. Before that, he had never thought that Tom's strength would be so terrifying!!!

If he knew that Tom was so terrifying, then he would take him seriously and prepare well. Even if he needed to use the dirty trick, he would not hesitate, as long as he could kill Tom.

But now, he didn't have any concealed weapons on him. It really made him angry that he had to fight with Tom with his bare hands.

He was more regretful. If he had known that Tom, a little beast, could have grown to this extent, he should have killed him in the Kungfu Cup. At that time, he killed Tom as easily as stepping on an ant.

Unfortunately, it was too late to regret now. Tom had grown up into an expert and became his threat.

He was very sure that Tom was only in Half-step God Becoming Level and had not reached the God Becoming Level yet. But his strength was already so terrifying!

If Tom reached the God Becoming Level, then he would definitely not be his match by then!

He could tell from Tom's eyes that Tom was here to kill him. If he couldn't kill Tom today, he would be killed by him sooner or later!

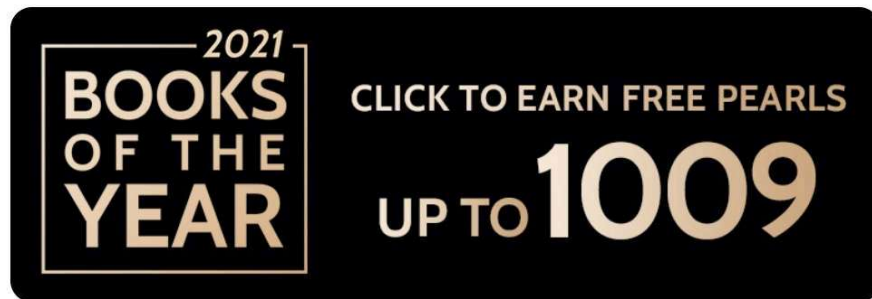

"Hahaha!"

Tom burst out laughing, very bold and excited. "It's been a long time! I haven't had such a good time! Adam, you really didn't disappoint me. Your strength is much better than Asura's. I'm very satisfied with this battle, hahaha!"

"Fight again!"

With Tom's roar, he pounced on Adam again. When he met his enemy, he was satisfied and happy from the bottom of his heart, and he was a jianghu chivalrous man! His generousness and unrestraint were in stark contrast to Adam's viciousness and heaviness.

Chapter 1055

This was the first time Tom had launch an attack on Adam.

His movements were wide open, like an axe, making its way to Adam. It was so overbearing and shocking.

At this moment, Tom once again was in a combat form. All he was thinking was to do everything he could to kill Adam. As for how difficult it was, this was not his concern.

Adam felt his state, and his face changed again. Fear overtook him. At this time, Tom really posed a threat to him.

"Damn it!"

He cursed, feeling out of sorts. But such a situation did not allow him to complain. Anyway, he was the Strong in God Becoming Level, the strongest in Country M, he could not retreat, and he could allow himself to be defeated by Tom!

With a buzzing sound, he shook with sharp eyes. His originally red eyes turned golden again, and even the whites in his pupils turned golden. It looked like the Invincible fighter had come down to earth.

He cursed and fought with Tom.

Their fists and feet collided, stirring a huge movement, and that kind of situation where even space was torn apart reappeared.

Bang bang...

They kept fighting and swam quickly on the island. It was earth-shattering.

The island was not small, but it seemed to be unable to withstand the damage caused by Tom and Adam, making an unbearable sound.

Moreover, amidst their battle, the wave drove against the shore.

It could be said that this was an extremely shocking scene.

This was beyond the comprehension of an expert in Innate Realm. Everyone present gaped in amazement and excitement.

This level of fighting, for them, was a refreshment of the three outlooks, and a new experience. If it weren't for Tom challenging Adam, they would never have a chance to be an audience of such a fighting in their lifetime.

The island, which could no longer withstand the ravages of Adam and Tom, was sinking at an altitude. In less than ten minutes, half of the island had sunk into the lake, causing a rise in lake level. As a result, the water in the lake rose by several centimeters and reached the shore by the lake!

"Well, this... This is really a fight between immortals!"

"It's only been less than ten minutes, and half of the island has been destroyed. If they continue, the island will be destroyed!"

"God Becoming Level... Is this the power of the Strong in the God Becoming Level? It's scary, it's unbelievable!"

"Originally, I thought that in the 21st century, with the development of thermal weapons, the power of science and technology was formidable, especially with the appearance of nuclear bombs. How could human beings fight against thermal weapons? This world is dominated by science and technology... Now it seems that I was wrong! It turns out that humans can really show off their cultivation to a god-like state..."

"Adam is indeed the strongest in Country M. But Tom is as sharp as a razor... The point is, he's only 30!"

"H Country is about to take off. As long as Tom can escape from Adam in this battle, then he will definitely break through to the God Becoming Level, and H Country will definitely take off..."

A buzz of excitement ran through the crowd. They all agreed that H Country was about to take off.

Originally, they thought that Tom's challenge to Adam was a moth to the fire, a completely desperate act, but now it seemed that it was not the case at all!

This time, Tom and Adam were evenly matched. And people dropped the idea that Tom had Albert to be his back, for there was no need for him to ask Albert for support.

At the same time, they also believed more in what Tom said. Adam could really be a stingy person. Over the years, the genius of western countries was killed by him.

The thought of this changed their impression of Adam, whom they were no longer worshipping him. A horrible idea occurred.

Such a stingy person was not qualified to be their guardian angel. They even hoped that Tom would defeat Adam.

Tom had his five senses sealed, focusing himself on Adam. He didn't care what the others thought at all.

He was getting faster and faster, and his moves were getting exquisite. His physical strength was endless like nuclear power, inexhaustible.

Moreover, under such a high intensity of confrontation, he was getting more and more excited. The battle with Adam was helpful for him to figure out something that was bothering him before.

On the contrary, Adam, was getting depressed. He was frustrated at the thought that Tom was a person who would never be defeated by any troubles. He had gone all out but found it was hard to win Tom. This was absolutely incredible to him!

He also felt that many people around him saw him with different eyes. If he really lost to Tom, his reputation would be ruined.

He utterly detested that H Country cultivated such a man!

As he was getting agitated, he caught one of Tom's flaws, and he clearly felt that his movements was slowing down. It seemed that he was beginning to flag.

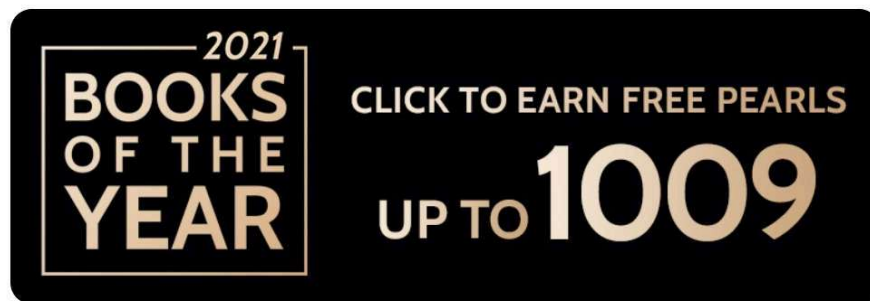

Suddenly, his eyes lit up. In an instant, he became excited, and a smile appeared on his face. He launched a fatal attack on Tom.

He was confident that his punch would hit Tom.

As long as he could hit Tom, he would be hit hard.

However, almost as he punched, Tom's words sounded in his ear, "Adam, you were fooled."

Chapter 1056

His words made Adam flustered. A strange feeling occurred to him in an instant.

It was such a wry and mocking tone in which Tom was speaking. He didn't seem to be panicky at all.

However, there was no time left for Adam to reconsider it over. He had smashed his fist towards Tom and couldn't take it back.

What he was afraid of most happened.

His punch missed.

The weakness that Tom showed just now was not a weakness at all. It was just his trap.

"Damn!"

He cursed to himself and felt a sense of crisis that he had never felt before. He looked up into Tom's wry eyes. Tom was aiming a heavy kick at him.

The kick came from an extremely tricky angle. Adam realized that it had been a carefully designed perfect trap ever since Tom showed that weakness to him!

It was too fast. Adam might be able to dodge it or attack back in a normal circumstance.

But he couldn't do it now.

He had lost his balance due to the punch which had cost almost all of his strength. He needed to spare extra energy and time to maintain his center of gravity.

In fact, the time he needed was only a few milliseconds, shorter than a blink of an eye. An ordinary person would not even be able to see his move clearly, let alone to make a reaction to it. And for an expert of the Innate Realm, he might be able to catch it, but his body couldn't react so quickly.

However, for Tom, that time was totally enough. It was at this moment that Adam's defeat was settled.

Tom kicked him, using the strength that was huge enough to kick down a building!

This was also a kick that he had planned for a long time and spent all his strength on. Adam's punch just now had called his defeat.

There was a loud bang!

This kick hit Adam accurately.

The sound was even louder than an exploding deep water bomb. The sound of a broken bone was mixed in it when he actually kicked on Adam's body.

Adam used all his strength to protect himself by lifting his arms but failed to stand the power still. It went through his arms and got into his body.

Moreover, his arms were also broken by the kick.

chance to kill him.

A strong sense of crisis made Adam tremble. Hearing a rumbling noise from the ground, he could tell that Tom was running towards him at terrifying high speed. A lot of dust was stirred up by his move.

In the eyes of everyone on the shore, instead of a human, Tom was more like a huge bulldozer pushing towards Adam. no longer a human. Anything that stood in his way would be smashed to pieces.

What a horrible scene.

"Adam lost..."

Emmett sighed in shock. His pupils constricted as he stared at Tom Piercing pain spread all over his body, twisting his expression for the first time. He couldn't help but let out a scream.

At the same time, his body flew out.

It seemed to the others that he was kicked out like a ball by Tom.

Before they could make any reactions, Tom bent his legs and knees without any hesitation and shoot himself out towards Adam, who was flying backward in the air.

He should take advantage of his weakness to kill him.

Now that Adam had received a severe injury, Tom would definitely take the nervously. There was even some fear in his eyes!

Others might not be able to see how powerful Tom was just now, but he could. Tom was terrifying! He seemed to be as powerful as who reached the First Rank Summit top of the God Becoming Level!

But Emmett knew that Tom was only in the Half-step God Becoming Level, which strictly speaking, still belonged to the Innate Realm. It was so shocking that he had owned such strength.

Even Emmett himself could never be so calm in a fight with Adam, let alone defeat him.

Alistair, who was watching beside, also stared at Tom with his pupils constricting in shock. He let out a long sigh. "There really is a genius in the earthly world. The strength this Tom had shown is enough to make him a peerless genius! His victory today would definitely allow him to enter the List of Immortals. The only question is whether he will rank two or three."

Emmett did not say anything, whose eyes were fixed on Tom. He changed his expression a few times, and then he let out a breath of relief.

Alistair turned to him, "Even you are shocked by this Tom and didn't do anything?"

Emmett replied, "I'll leave him to the psychopath the Invictus Shawn. I have to go back and concentrate on my practice. The Secret Realm may open soon."

He turned around and left after saying that.

Alistair, after gazing at Tom, followed Emmett and left. He chose not to intervene either.

Their departure had no effect on the crowd but was such a relief for Tom.

In fact, after he had discovered that Emmett and Alistair were also around, he had been paying a part of his attention to the two of them so that he could fight back in time at their sneak attack.

That was why he couldn't do justice to himself when facing Adam.

Now that Emmett and Alistair had finally left, he could just let go and beat Adam to death.

The next moment he had already caught up with Adam and grabbed his head as Adam was about to fall.

Adam couldn't use his strength in the air. He kept twisting his body in order to dodge Tom's attack, but unfortunately, it didn't work out.

Tom grabbed his foot easily, and then swung him around, banging him down on the ground.

Adam's body was completely immersed in the mud.

Everyone was stunned by this scene.

Adam's entrails couldn't defend the smash. He spat out a mouthful of blood.

His injuries were getting worse!

However, as the Strong of the God Becoming Level, his body was stronger than the ordinary people. He struggled out of the dust immediately and intended to escape.

He didn't want to continue anymore. The only thought he had was to run away with all his strength.

However, the first thing he saw after he had finally struggled out of the ground was Tom's face. He said to him, "Adam, you lost."

Chapter 1057

When Tom finished speaking, his fist had already hit Adam's back with a loud bang.

Adam shouted, "No!!!"

Then, he flew out with Tom's strength.

He vomited blood in the air and looked feeble.

Tom's punch was so powerful that it even hurt his viscera!

Most importantly, Tom's punch directly announced his failure. He was completely defeated.

Everyone could feel how powerful Tom's punch was. When they heard the sound of hitting the body, they felt scared, and their whole bodies shuddered violently.

It was not a fist come from a human but a superman. It was as powerful as a super cannonball. Even a skyscraper could be violently shattered by Tom.

No matter how strong Adam was, he couldn't withstand Tom's strength.

The whole room was silent, and everyone was stunned as they had seen the astonishing scene.

Adam failed. After hitting by Tom, he flew into the air and fell heavily to the ground.

This time, Tom did not take advantage of the situation. He took a deep breath.

Then, the mist appeared above his head as if his blood was boiling. At the same time, he sweated a lot, and his clothes quickly got wet.

He looked weak.

He has won. He had defeated Adam. However, as it was Adam, he paid price to defeat him. He was very tired and looked a little weak. He was injured and his right hand was bleeding, but it was not serious. He would recover to the peak in a short time.

His pupils slowly returned to normal as he adjusted his breath. It looked more energetic and returned to a natural state from the glazed state.

He had won.

He took a deep breath and exhaled it as if all the turbid air in his body was out.

He slowly built up his strength and began to smile brightly.

He raised his hands and said loudly, "My fellowmen, I had delivered a stunning victory. I had won."

After a few seconds of silence, the H Country compatriots shouted with great happiness, "Tom is invincible! Tom is invincible!"

But the expression on other people's faces was so comical as they were slack-jawed and couldn't close their mouths for a long time.

Now, they finally realized that Tom had won by a landslide. Adam was no match for him.

They were really shocked by this result!

Adam was the strongest man in Country M and the whole western world. He had already stepped into the God Becoming Level at a young age and was a powerful man well known by the world. But he had lost to Tom today, a rising star.

To be honest, this fact really overturned their traditional thoughts. It was unbelievable.

"No, this is not true... Adam is our guardian god. How could he lose the contest? How could he... This is not true, this is not true..."

A strong man in Country M was in deep shock, looked confused, and was out of control. He could not believe what had happened was true, or he could not accept Adam's failure.

In a short time, others reacted just like him.

"No, no, no, this must be an illusion. Adam is invincible. He is the strongest in our country. Our country is the world's most powerful country. How can we lose to a young man? That's not true! That's not true!"

"Hahaha, that's not true. That's must not be true. They lied to us."

Some people were even crazy. They cried and laughed, unable to accept the truth of their failure.

Even the politicians in Country M couldn't believe it. Their expressions were also extremely comical.

Adam's disciples and his supporters were all thunderstruck.

Many people couldn't accept the fact and began to cry.

Many people of Country M who were watching the broadcast were utterly wretched. Adam's failure was no doubt the collapse of their faith!

It would be fine if Adam was defeated by the God of War of H Country, but the point was that he was defeated by Tom, just a rising star of H Country.

This made them thoroughly discredited.

Tom took a few deep breaths. After recovering part of his strength quickly, he walked towards Adam.

Adam was now in a very weak state. His expression was weird and he was out of control, full of fear, regret, and disappointment. He could not believe the result.

He looked more difficult to accept the outcome than anyone else.

It was like a king who could control everything in the world was defeated by an unknown man and everyone had known his failure. This was the greatest humiliation for him!

He could see Tom coming to him. He could see Tom looked at him teasingly and sneeringly, which was even more unacceptable to him.

"You're not Tom. Who the hell are you?!"

"You must be some well-known expert. You must disguise yourself. Otherwise, how can you have such strong power! Who the hell are you? Tell me, who the hell are you?!"

Tom walked up to him and looked down at him. He said, "Adam, your time is over."

When Adam heard his words, he was furious and screamed, "Come on, someone help me get this damn traitor out of this place!"

He was like an apocalyptic king who had lost his power and his mind. He could only do something ridiculous and unreasonable.

Tom looked at him grimly and ironically without any pity. He said, "Adam, you don't have to pretend to be mad. You're not mad. You can't lie to me."

When Adam heard this, his expression changed several times and then returned to normal. He stared at Tom and said, "Tom, you won. I admit your competence."

After that, he stood up and prepared to leave.

But before he had gone far, Tom stopped him. He said, "You want to leave? I'm afraid it's not a simple task."

Adam changed his expression suddenly when he heard this. He shouted, "Tom, what do you want to do?!"

Tom smiled and said, "Nothing but kill you."

Then Tom started to strike him at once.

Suddenly, he came to Adam. Seeing Tom's powerful move, Adam could feel the death coming again.

Chapter 1058

After the adjustment just now, Adam also recovered a little. Although Tom's punch had severely injured him, he was a master of God Becoming Level. His body was quite strong.

In fact, he pretended to be out of control to confuse Tom. That way, he could restore his energy. Also, he could look for an opportunity to launch a sneak attack on Tom when Tom let his guard off and defeat Tom!

Now he knew what Tom was capable of, especially the control of the moves and the extraordinary fighting instinct, so Tom could challenge someone beyond his level and succeed.

He hated Tom very much. Today was the most humiliating day of his life. If he wanted to turn over, he had to kill Tom.

His plan was a good one, but unfortunately, Tom saw through it.

Tom fought him again. This time, Adam was unable to fight back.

In less than thirty seconds, Tom hit Adam again and knocked him down heavily. He stepped on Adam's chest with great force that Adam's body sank into the ground. Blood gushed out of Adam's mouth.

Adam was more seriously injured, and he felt Tom's killing intent. He was even more afraid.

"No, no, don't kill me!"

He screamed and begged for mercy. He was no longer imposing. Now, he looked extremely embarrassed and miserable, completely a loser.

Tom looked down at Adam and kept increasing his force. "Adam, do you have any last wishes?"

He was like a god of death, judging Adam.

He was the one to decide Adam's life.

No one would be shocked by this because they had been shocked too many times and became numb.

"Don't kill me, please..."

Now Adam had completely lost the ability to resist. He didn't know how many bones were broken, and his internal organs were displaced. Even if Tom let him go, he would have to recuperate for a long time.

But would Tom let him go?

The answer, of course, was no.

"If that's the case, then go to hell."

Tom smiled and stepped hard on Adam's neck. He heard a crack. It was the sound of Adam's neck being broken. Adam's pupils contracted, and he resisted fiercely, but it was useless. Tom had broken his neck.

But Adam's life force was tenacious. He did not die immediately but stared at Tom with fear, regret, despair, and unwillingness...

In the end, he lost all his energy. His eyes began to lose focus, and his breath stopped.

Adam was dead.

The death was so sudden and so straightforward.

No one in the crowd made a sound. All of them were silent and looked at Tom in awe and fear.

At this moment, Tom was like a god, and his reputation would resound all over the world. He stepped on Adam's body and ascended!

From now on, no one dared to ignore him or provoke him.

Not only the crowd but also many people who were watching the live streaming remembered Tom deeply.

In a courtyard in Y City, an excited and gratified voice sounded, "Good job! Tom won as expected and even killed Adam. That's great! We should celebrate it!"

It was Joseph. He had been nervous for a long time, and now he was finally relieved and thrilled.

He took a long sword from the guard and began to dance. Although he was not an expert, he was elegant and full of charm.

There were many people in the courtyard beside him, and they were overjoyed.

Lexie also laughed. She looked up and said proudly, "He's the man I like. Of course, he's great. He's the best in the world!"

The others were surprised to hear her words, but soon they were relieved. How many women in the world could resist Tom's charm? He was such an outstanding man.

Albert drank, and a smile appeared on his face. He was satisfied with Tom.

People cheered in many places in H Country. Some were in a meeting, some were on the plane, some were working, some were cultivating, and some were eating. When they took out their phones to watch the live streaming, they all jumped up and cheered for Tom!

Tom defeated Adam, which was much more astonishing than Tom's win in the Kungfu Cup!

After all, Adam was not a nobody but the strongest man in Country M.

After Adam's death, Country M's power would definitely plummet. It would not be long before it would fall out of the world's number one position.

And by then, H Country would rise and replace it!

It was no exaggeration to say that Tom was the hero of the nation!

In Military Intelligence 3, everyone was in a frenzy and kept shouting "Tom."

They were much happier than the new year.

In the Scotts, there were two women in the house watching the live streaming. After a short period of happiness, one of them said to the other, "Phoebe, are you really not going to tell Tom about this?"

The woman who spoke was Amelia, and she was talking to Phoebe.

Phoebe saw on the phone that Tom had defeated Adam and enjoyed the cheers and admiration of the whole world. She had a happy and brilliant smile on her face and was genuinely proud of him.

However, when she heard Amelia's words, the smile on her face froze. Then she sighed and said, "Not now. Tom is on the rise of the world and enjoying the admiration and cheers of the world. This is his moment. I shouldn't upset him."

Amelia said, "But you've been dreaming more and more recently, and you remember the past. You don't belong here... Are you not going to tell Tom your identity?"

Phoebe was silent for a while and said, "Maybe later. It's useless to tell him now."

Chapter 1059

Tom did not know what was going on with Phoebe. After Adam had been killed by him, he finally took a long breath and felt much more relieved.

To be honest, when he made up his mind to challenge Adam, he felt under stress though he didn't tell anyone.

After all, Adam was the most powerful Strong in Country M, the devil of the whole western world, who could even defeat God of War Albert. Thanks to Adam, Country M developed so fast and became dominating when dealing with international affairs.

It could be said that Adam was a great threat to H Country, but now, he had killed him.

Moreover, Adam was an almost invincible master at the God Becoming Level, whose cultivation was at its peak. Tom, on the other hand, was just in the Innate Realm. He was under strong pressure to challenge Adam.

Besides, this was a road of no return. If he lost, not only his reputation would be ruined, but also he would be killed!

Fortunately, he had defeated Adam. So at this moment, a sincere smile appeared on his face. He took a deep breath and felt that his whole body relaxed a lot and the whole world became bright again.

He spread his arms to welcome his new life.

The battle with Adam was inspiring. He could now feel the wonders of the mysterious God Becoming Level.

This battle was much more enlightening than his battle with Asura. As long as he digested the enlightenment, he would definitely break through to the God Becoming Level!

And once he broke through to the God Becoming Level, how strong would he be? He couldn't even imagine that.

Now there was still the dead silence. Everyone present held his breath and did not dare to make a sound. They looked straight at Tom on the island.

Actually, it was not an island anymore, but a stone about three square meters.

Because the island was blown up by him and Adam and sank into the lake, which caused the water of the lake to rise by one meter!

The fight was extremely terrifying, and everyone was shocked and scared. They were now looking at Tom as if he was a god instead of a mortal.

Someone suddenly knelt down and kowtowed to Tom, worshiping him, "Invincible Tom! Invincible Tom..."

And others followed suit.

They did that not because they were currying favor with Tom, but because they sincerely admired and worshipped him. They regarded Tom as their god.

Many of H Country's people knelt down and kowtowed to Tom who was in the middle of the lake, shouting, "Long live Tom! Invincible Tom..."

People from other countries were shocked. It was a huge blow to those heartbroken people of Country M.

They always thought that Adam was invincible. But Tom killed him, which meant Tom destroyed their faith cruelly and made them mentally collapsed.

Many of them couldn't help but start crying.

Country M's top politicians turned pale. They were at a loss, unable to face the reality that Adam had been killed.

It was conceivable that Country M would slowly decline, no longer the most powerful country in the world.

Adam's death meant a lot. Adam had absorbed Country M's national fortune to break through to the God Becoming Level, so his later cultivation speed was so fast.

But now Country M's national fortune dissipated into an invisible shape and poured into Tom's body after he died.

It was mysterious and difficult to explain it with today's theory.

With his eyes closed, Tom immediately felt that his spirit became more energetic and that the national fortune inside him was even stronger and more condensed!

Quite a part of Country M's national fortune had been integrated into his body.

This was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for him.

The strength he had expended was recovering exponentially.

After a long time, he opened his eyes and smiled brightly and satisfactorily. He looked at the people kneeling, raised his hand gently and said, "Get up."

His voice was toneless but full of inviolable power. And others listen to his order obediently.

They quickly stood up.

Then Tom said, "Adam is dead, and I have absorbed half of Country M's national fortune. From now on, Country M will decline. I killed Adam is not to show off my strength, but to warn others that we, people of H Country, are no worse than any other race in the world. We must strengthen our bodies and respect ourselves. Therefore, no one will dare to bully us anymore."

Hearing Tom's words, they felt they were filled with energy. They were enlightened, and their eyes became firm.

Tom had done what he needed to do. So there was no need for him to stay in Country M anymore.

His legs were bent, and then he launched upwards like a rocket, rising from the ground and disappearing into the sky.

He was that powerful.

After he left, many politicians of Country M collapsed.

The news that Tom had killed Adam spread all over the world at a fast speed. Many people heard about it.

Most martial artists didn't know who Adam was, but they all remembered Tom's name and knew that he was a super genius from H Country.

Three days later, Tom left and returned to H Country.

In the past three days, he had completely adjusted himself and returned to his peak.

And after the fight with Adam, he had a deeper understanding of the God Becoming Level, and his strength had improved a lot. It was no exaggeration to say that if he had another chance, he would defeat Adam more easily.

But strangely, even though he was already so strong, he still didn't break through to the God Becoming Level.

He decided to ask Albert after he went back.

Chapter 1060

The moment Tom boarded the plane, he was a little emotional. He had been out of H Country for three months.

To be honest, he missed Phoebe very much.

It was just that he had hidden this feeling.

Of course, he also missed Amelia very much. Anyway, Amelia was his confidant.

He didn't know how the power of these two confidants was after three months. Did Phoebe break through to the second stage of the Innate Realm? And did Amelia break through to the ## Innate Realm?

At the thought of the reunion with the two of them when he got back, Tom smiled happily.

He was too famous this time. The fights were broadcast live all over the world twice. He had defeated Adam, and it was a big shock to the whole world. Now he enjoyed a high reputation. But he was a low-key person. In order not to cause unnecessary trouble, he disguised himself and changed his appearance slightly to make himself look different from before when he returned to H Country.

Because it was too far to return to H Country from Country M, Tom should transfer to another plane in another country.

It was a common thing, and he didn't take it seriously, but when he went out to eat something, he met an acquaintance.

Although the woman was wearing sunglasses, Tom still recognized her at once. Wasn't this beautiful woman Clarissa, the female star who was especially famous in H Country, and was popular all over Asia?!

When he saw her, Tom thought of a lot of things.

He had a love affair with Clarissa, and Clarissa liked him. Even Phoebe knew about it and urged him to become Clarissa's man. But he didn't have any feelings for Clarissa at that time and left it unsettled.

After that, Clarissa contacted him several times and asked him out, but he never agreed. Over time, Clarissa didn't contact him anymore.

Clarissa obviously knew what he was thinking, so she didn't pester him anymore, and they gradually became strangers.

He didn't expect that he would meet Clarissa again after so long in a foreign country.

To be honest, Tom had a good impression of Clarissa, not only because she was beautiful, but also because she was a very nice and pleasant woman.

And as they became unfamiliar later, she did not choose to pester him.

Tom stared at her and finally caught the attention of a woman next to Clarissa. Her expression was full of disgust. She pushed Clarissa and said, "It's disgusting. There's a guy over there who's been peeking at you. He must be a pervert."

When Clarissa heard this, she smiled slightly and was not angry. It seemed that she was used to this kind of thing.

As a big star, her fans were all over the world. It was normal for her to be stared at the airport, but she was wearing big sunglasses and wrapped herself tightly. Logically, it was difficult to recognize her if he was not someone close to her.

Although they were a little far apart, Tom still heard their conversation clearly because he had sharp ears.

Tom smiled. Of course, he was not angry. Originally, he wanted to go over and say hello to Clarissa. After all, they were once friends. If they couldn't be lovers, they didn't need to ignore each other.

However, when he heard the words of the woman beside Clarissa, he held back. Since Clarissa had already lived her own life, and it was likely that she had forgotten him, there was no need for him to disturb her life.

So he took his eyes back, shrugging and preparing to go to eat something.

However, just as he turned around, Clarissa looked at him and saw his back. She was stunned for a moment. Then she showed an excited and surprised expression, and chased after Tom.

This figure was too familiar to her. It was the figure she had missed for a long time these days!

"Hey, Clarissa, where are you going?"

Clarissa's action startled the woman next to her.

There were a few other people with Clarissa. It was her team. When they saw what she did, they were also shocked and surprised.

They had worked with Clarissa for a long time. In their impressions, Clarissa was a very quiet person. She had always been gentle and elegant, and would not do such a thing.

Clarissa was very excited now. The only thing in her world now was the walking figure in front of her.

Because this figure was too familiar. It was Tom's!

She hadn't seen Tom for a long time, and she knew that Tom didn't have that feeling for her. Tom even deliberately avoided her after he knew what she was thinking, which caused them to break up the relationship.

She also knew that Tom had a wife. She made a decision in her heart that she would never pester Tom again and try to forget Tom.

But it was really hard for her to do it.

Even though she had told herself countless times in her heart, it was still difficult for her to really forget Tom. Especially now that she saw Tom's figure, that kind of feeling swept over her and drowned her like a tidal wave!

She had a feeling that the man was Tom.

Although she knew that the probability was very small, and maybe he was just someone who looked like Tom.

In fact, she had encountered something similar before. During the time she lost contact with Tom, she had mistaken someone several times. When she saw a figure similar to Tom's, she thought that person was Tom. In the end, when she chased after him and found that he was someone else, she was disappointed for a long time.

She also knew that she could not continue like this, but every time she met a figure similar to Tom's, she still couldn't control herself.

Seeing that Tom was about to disappear around the corner, she quickened her pace and tried to catch up with him.

"Tom, is that you?"

She shouted.

Her tone was trembling. She looked closely at Tom's back, feeling especially nervous and expectant.

At this moment, the figure in front of her really stopped.
