

Chapter 1081

That was interesting.

To be honest, Tom often heard people say who was a genius, but in fact, apart from himself, he never thought who could really be called a genius. Someone like Xander, in his opinion, was not a genius at all.

Only Emmett and Alistair, whom he had met in the Country M before, could be considered geniuses, but they were not as good as he was.

But for the first time, he thought the young man in front of him was talented, and the man's talent for martial arts was probably not below him.

Tom then began to look up and down at the young man, who was wearing ancient clothes. He looked like a knight-errant from ancient times, which was really rare.

The young man seemed to have just done something unimportant, and his expression did not change much. Then he put down the little girl and left proudly. From beginning to end, he did not say a word.

No one dared to stop him and they quickly got out of the way. In a short while, he disappeared.

After he left, the crowd erupted.

"Wow! That man must be a knight-errant! He was hit by a car but didn't get hurt. That's amazing!"

"Yes, yes, and he's very handsome. He's so cold and aloof. He must be a top fighter like in the movie."

"Didn't you see that he was wearing ancient clothes? Could he have traveled to the modern era? Many novels and movies are written about this kind of story."

"Ha ha, in my opinion, he must be an Internet celebrity, just trying to attract attention! There's no knight-errant or martial artist. We are all just ordinary people."

"Trying to attract attention? No way. He was run over by the car just now. How can he attract people's attention in this way?"

"Technology is so advanced these days, and there are so many different ways to attract attention. It's not a big deal."

Many people began to talk about it. Some people thought that the young man just now must be a martial arts expert, like the one in the TV show. There were also some people who thought the stories of martial arts experts were made up by scriptwriters and writers.

Tom was not interested in such a topic. He looked away from the young man, shook his head, and went to Joseph's courtyard.

Half an hour later, he finally arrived at Joseph's place.

"Ha ha ha, Tom, hello. Come in."

Joseph was especially enthusiastic and held Tom's hand for a while.

His enthusiasm made Tom smile. Tom respected Joseph, the old man. If it hadn't been for Joseph's dedication over the years, H Country wouldn't have been so peaceful.

Tom was only a martial artist. He was only good at fighting, but didn't know how to govern the country. Only a man like Joseph could truly benefit the people and create a peaceful and prosperous country.

After the small talk, Joseph couldn't wait to ask Tom about his experience during this period of time. Naturally, Tom did not hide it and said it in detail.

But he didn't tell Joseph anything about Alice. There was no need to tell Joseph about such a scandal.

However, after listening to this, Joseph said with a smile, "Tom, I heard that you are very close to Alice in Eagle Country now. It's all thanks to you that she can become the crown princess."

Tom didn't expect Joseph to care about such gossip. He smiled awkwardly and said, "It's okay. We're just friends."

"Friends? I don't think so. I heard that Alice is deeply in love with you."

Tom touched his nose and was even more at a loss for words.

Joseph stopped teasing Tom and asked Tom about his experience in Country M, which was what he wanted to know the most.

Tom immediately said flatly, but the stories he told were inspiring. After Joseph heard it, he was excited and laughed heartily. "Good, good! Tom, you are indeed a hero of our H Country. You've won honor for our country! We must drink to celebrate."

Next, Joseph and Tom were drinking together. He was in a good mood. After several bowls of wine, his face turned red. After seeing him drinking like this, Tom was a little shocked. He said quickly, "Mr. Ross, you'd better drink slowly."

"It's not a big deal. Back when I was young, I could drink a lot, but now I'm old, old..." Joseph shook his head and a hint of gloom flashed across his face, but he quickly regained his composure and became excited. He said, "Tom, don't call me Mr. Ross. Just call me grandpa."

"Ugh..." Tom was stunned. Calling Joseph grandpa was a little too close. Joseph was the most powerful person in H Country.

Seeing that Tom was in a dilemma, Joseph glared and said, "Why, don't you want to?"

"No, no, that's not what I meant..." Tom quickly waved his hand, and then he called, "Grandpa Joseph."

After hearing this, Joseph was even happier and drank two more bowls of wine.

"Tom, you are young. You have no idea what a dark, humiliating time I lived through!" Joseph loosened his tongue and began to recall the dark, bitter and eventful years. He told Tom his stories.

At that time, H Country was only a newly established country. H Country, who had just experienced war, was too weak and was bullied by many powerful countries at that time. At that time, the ancestors had a hard time.

Tom had studied history and naturally knew that dark history. However, he knew it from textbooks. He had never experienced it personally, so he could not empathize with it.

Now, Joseph, the one who had experienced it personally, told him the story, making Tom's eyes moist.

Joseph also cried when as he said. He stared at Tom and said, "Tom, I am very happy and relieved that H Country has a genius like you! You killed Adam in Country M, which makes me really happy!"

After saying this, he closed his eyes and fell down.

Tom was startled by Joseph. Tom quickly checked his breath and was relieved to find that he was only asleep.

Chapter 1082

At this moment, he sensed something and looked back. A familiar figure walked in.

"Brother Joseph has contributed too much for H Country. It's time for him to take a rest."

It was Albert.

He walked in elegantly in black traditional suit.

Tom stood up and greeted him. "Nice to meet you, Mr. Campbell."

Albert nodded and turned his eyes from Joseph to Tom with appreciation. He smiled and said, "Tom, you did a good job. I knew you can make it."

It would be so exciting when ordinary people were praised by Albert, but Tom just smiled and said, "Thank you, senior."

They walked out of the room together to the backyard. Tom asked directly, "Mr. Campbell, why can't I break through to the God Becoming Level?"

His question was somewhat groundless. How could the God Becoming Level be reached that easily?

And moreover, there were only a few masters of God Becoming Level around the world.

However, Albert was clear about his confusion. He said calmly, "It is said that the rules of nature have restrictions on human beings. No matter how talented one is, he can't reach God Becoming Level until he came to his 35th birthday."

Tom was still confused. He couldn't understand what the rules of nature were.

Could it be that nature are conscious?

He said, "Mr. Campbell, I don't understand. What are the rules of nature? Why should they restrict humans from breaking through to the God Becoming Level before the age of 35? What's the meaning of it?"

Albert shook his head and said, "I don't know. In fact, I don't understand what the rules of nature are either."

He paused for a while and added, "Humans have been divided into two schools to explore the nature of the world and the truth of the universe since I don't know when. At first, someone explained them by science, including mathematics, physics, and so on. It was also the mainstream view at present. In this school, there are four forces in the universe: electromagnetic force, strong force, weak force, and gravity, and matters are composed of atoms..."

"The other school is the cultivators. At the beginning, they tried to explore the essence of the world by studying their own bodies, and constantly broke through the realm and strengthened the spiritual level. In fact, the school of science dominates this Secular World, while in the Clan World, cultivators are predominators. They explore the nature of the universe through a higher dimensional level by constantly strengthening themselves..."

Albert said eloquently. What he said shocked Tom!

It was the first time he had heard of it.

In fact, although he was a cultivator himself, he also believed that this world, as scientists said, was made up of atoms, with only four basic forces...

Now, however, Albert told him that the world might not be like this, because, according to the scientific school, cultivator would not exist.

It was even more impossible for a strong master of God Becoming Level to exist.

His careful analysis told him that it was true.

It took some time for him to understand all this, and then he told Albert the question that perplexed him the most, "Since there are two schools, which is the right one?"

Albert shook his head and said, "I have no idea."

Tom was puzzled, and Albert continued, "The scientific school can't explain the existence of gravity, while the cultivator school can't explain the existence of the soul. Or both schools might be right. Like the wave-particle duality of the light, the two schools are two different ways to explain the rule of nature."

But Tom became even more confused. What was it? It was too different from his previous knowledge.

But then, Albert's words surprised him even more.

What's worth mentioning is that the scientific school believes that if the human beings on earth want to survive for good, science and technology must be improved greatly. Interstellar civilization should be developed, and people should travel out of the solar system, and even the Milky Way galaxy. The cultivators, on the other hand, believe that humans have to transcend the shackles of their bodies to reach a higher level similar to the cultivation of immortals to make mankind last forever. These were two completely different paths, but the purpose was the same."

Tom understood, and he asked Albert, "Mr. Campbell, what kind of school are you?"

"Me?" Albert smiled and said, "Both are good as long as we human beings can travel out of the solar system and last for good. But I think, for now, the scientific school is stronger. After all, the age of navigation will be possible so long as we realize controllable nuclear fusion. However, it is extremely difficult for humans to break through the shackles of their bodies through cultivation. There has never been such a person in the entire human history!"

Tom was sad about this.

Indeed, what Albert said was reasonable, but also heavy and realistic.

Now the Earth is a little overburdened, for there are too many people living on Earth, which leads to large resource consumptions. We can imagine that if we couldn't immigrate from the Earth, we would be likely to extinct!

No, we are going to be extinct. It's just a matter of time!

Tom had never thought about this before, but now, when Albert said it, he realized how serious their situation was.

Then, he thought of something and said, "Mr. Campbell, is this why the Clan World want to invade the Secular World on a large scale? The resources on Earth will eventually be depleted. If science and technology can't break through to the age of navigation and get out of the solar system, and if the cultivators can't get their primordial spirits out of their bodies, the human race will sooner or later be exterminated! Therefore, they intend to kill many people so that the resources can be redistributed."

Hearing this, Albert's eyes lit up. He looked at Tom with admiration again and said, "Tom, you're so smart. That's right, they do have such an idea, for they think that eliminating many people who have no contribution to society is a plan to maintain the long-term development of mankind. Besides, they also think that war can make great progress for both schools!"

Chapter 1083

Next, Tom and Albert talked about a lot of things, including how they should guard and fight against the enemy when the Clan World invaded the Secular World on a large scale.

Albert expressed a lot of opinions and suggestions. In general, Tom could tell from Albert's words that he was not very optimistic about the battle.

Because there were too many strong masters in the Clan World, and their overall strength was much stronger than theirs.

In the Secular World, the most powerful thing was technology and nuclear weapons.

However, nuclear weapons were not a big threat to the Clan World because they didn't stay in one place for a long time. If nuclear weapons were really used, it could affect the Secular world more.

So next, the best way was to use cold arms.

In this way, a lot of people would die, but this was inevitable.

Tom had never been a compassionate person. But when he thought of the scene that many lives were plunged into an abyss of misery, he would feel very sad.

Now he had no way to deal with this situation, let alone to stop it. He could only use his own strength to protect the people around him as much as possible. That was why he asked Malcolm, Elliot, and Rufus to focus on developing high-tech weapons.

He would make the people around him be armed to the finger, and to survive the war!

"By the way, Mr. Campbell, when I came out of the airport just now, I saw a young man..." Tom suddenly thought of the young man just now and asked Albert if he would know.

However, when Albert heard him, he had a strange expression on his face and said, "The young man you are talking about should be my junior."

"Junior?" Tom was a little surprised. He had never heard of Albert having a junior.

And most importantly, the young man looked about the same age as him, but Albert was already over sixty years old. Was that young man actually his junior?

Albert nodded and said, "That's right. It should be him. Speaking of which, he hasn't shown in public for a long time. This time, his purpose must be the Secret Realm."

Tom smiled and said, "Really? That's good. I'll have a partner then."

Albert said, "My junior is a loner, but he is very talented, appreciated a lot by my master. Over the years, he should cultivate himself to a better level. Tom, take care of him, please."

"No problem. Since he is your junior, I will take good care of him." Tom said with a smile.

At first glance, these words sounded arrogant, but in fact, they were not at all. After all, Tom was some big shot, a super-strong master, not inferior to the God Becoming Level masters at all. Even the ordinary God Becoming Level masters were no match for him!

Albert thought of this. He looked at Tom and signed, "Tom, in this era, you are the most talented martial artist. I remember the first time I saw you, you were just at Innate Realm. Not long met too many opportunities. Otherwise, if he practiced in the normal way, he would never achieve what he had today!

However, Albert shook his head and disagreed with him, saying, "It is you, not the opportunities. There are so many talents in H Country, and many people's opportunities are not less than yours, but they are not as fast as you, mainly because they are not as pure as you. Take my junior for example. He has no fewer opportunities than you, but he can't reach your level."

Speaking of this, suddenly, a little surprise flashed through Albert's eyes, then he smiled and said, "Talk of the devil, and he will appear. My junior is after that, you had already grown to this level. Even Adam couldn't beat you. If I hadn't seen it with my own eyes, I wouldn't have believed it."

Tom smiled and was lost in his memories. Indeed, he had improved too fast over the past few years, just like riding a rocket, leaving his peers far behind!

"Opportunities would take the credits. When I was in Extrinsic Peak, I swallowed a top-grade Purification Pill. In the fourth stage of Innate Realm, I swallowed a Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit. Then in the Major Perfection Realm, I condensed the National Fortune of H Country. Too many coincidences made me this far!" Tom sighed and said. Indeed, he had here."

Tom's ears moved. He was not surprised at all, because he had already known that the young man he saw at the airport today appeared nearby and rushed towards them.

"Mr. Campbell, your junior is remarkable. His aura is extremely strong." Tom praised.

Albert shook his head and said, "You tower over him."

When he finished speaking, a young man appeared in the courtyard.

There was a long and wide heavy sword on the young man's back. The body of the sword was black as if any light would be absorbed and it looked very heavy!

Tom knew at a glance that this sword must be very heavy and extremely tough, able to destroy everything in the world.

Moreover, this young man's aura was very strong, and there was strong confidence between his brows, which looked like two swords, full of vigor.

If one looked at him for a long time, he would be hurt by his gazing. This was a very pure young man.

He was the most powerful young man Tom had ever seen. It was no exaggeration to say that if it had been six months ago, he would be no match for this young man.

"Senior, long time no see."

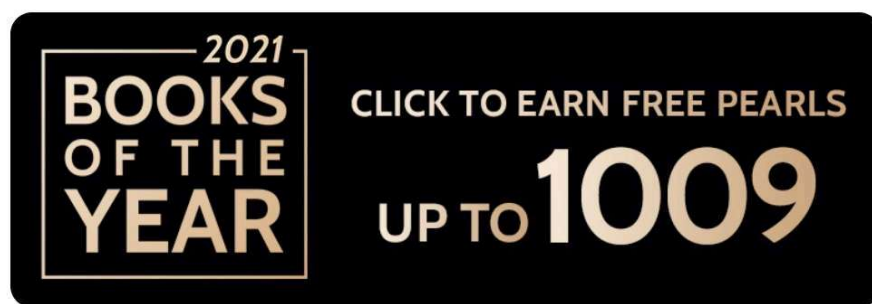

After the young man appeared, he greeted Albert in a respectful manner.

Albert nodded and said, "Your cultivation has improved a lot. Great. I guess this time you're here to enter the Secret Realm."

The young man said coolly, "Well, I have met a bottleneck. It's time for me to go to the Secret Realm again. This time, I will definitely break through to the God Becoming Level. At that time, I will personally go to kill Adam."

When he said this, his tone was very calm. But his expression revealed a strong murderous aura, which made the room turn cold a little and people shudder.

"What do you mean? Don't you support me to kill Adam? Or do you think I'm no match for Adam?!"

When he said this, he was very unconvinced and stared at Albert closely.

It was obvious that he was obsessed with martial, and Albert's doubts about him made him feel very uncomfortable.

"That's not what I meant." Albert shook his head and said, "But Adam is dead."

"What?"

When Albert's junior disciple heard this, his emotion changed greatly and

Chapter 1084

When Tom heard this, his expression was a little strange. Did Albert's junior disciple have a grudge against Adam?

But Adam had been killed by him, which might disappoint him a lot.

Moreover, the fact that he killed Adam was broadcast live all over the world. All the martial artists saw it. Didn't Albert's junior disciple know about it?

Albert also smiled bitterly and said, "I'm afraid you don't have to go."

When Albert's junior disciple heard this, he was a little stunned and asked, his eyes widened. This was the rudest moment after he appeared. He lost his composure and blurted out, "Did you killed Adam?! But aren't you going to defend the H Country? Since when can you go to Country M? Or did Adam come to H Country? What a pity! Adam was so vicious that he killed countless heroes in the H Country. My lifelong wish was to kill him. I didn't expect that before I could achieve my divine power, Adam would have been killed by you."

When he said this, he sighed heavily, looking especially disappointed.

He was filled with regret.

It was as if a meaningful thing in life had suddenly been lost for him.

When Tom saw him like this, he suddenly felt a sense of guilt, as if he had done something wrong and killed the meaning of his life.

Albert's expression became even weirder. He finally coughed and said, "I didn't kill Adam either."

"What?!" This time, Albert's junior disciple was shocked again. He stared at Albert tightly and said, "Adam was not killed by you? Who killed him? Was it the Queen of Eagle Country? No, that Queen is old and weak. Her strength has regressed a lot. She no longer has the strength of First Rank of God Becoming Level. It can't be her! Who else can it be? Is it that old monster Raoul? Senior disciple, who is it?"

Albert coughed again and said, "This man is in front of you."

When Albert's junior brother heard this, he looked around and glanced at Tom, but he did not take Tom seriously. Obviously, he did not think that Tom was the super Strong who killed Adam. After all, he thought that Tom was too young, a lot younger than him.

And Tom's aura was not strong. It was just the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. Such a realm was not good enough compared to him.

"No." Albert's junior shook his head and said doubtfully, "Senior, are you kidding me? Adam must be alive and well!"

This time, even Tom couldn't stand it. Originally, he had a good impression of Albert's fellow disciple and thought that he was a recluse, but he didn't expect to be so dull and cute.

He coughed twice and said, "Dude, haven't you been online for the past few days? Haven't you know anything about the outside world? The death of Adam is already known to the world."

In fact, when Tom said this, he was a little embarrassed and proud to show off.

However, Albert's fellow disciple was so adorable that he couldn't help it.

Finally, when Albert's junior disciple heard Tom's words, he began to notice Tom. He looked at Tom carefully and found that Tom was actually very ordinary. He shook his head and said, "I never surf the Internet."

Then he ignored Tom and said to Albert, "Senior brother, tell me the truth. Is Adam still here?"

Seeing Tom roll his eyes, Albert stopped playing tricks and pointed directly at Tom. "The person who killed Adam was him, Tom, the most talented person in the H Country."

"What?!"

This time, Albert's junior brother had an even stronger reaction, and his voice increased by several decibels, which was a little harsh for Tom when he heard it.

How many times did Albert's junior disciple say the word 'what'. So frequent that Tom didn't want to complain again.

Tom didn't bother hiding it from him. It was not a secret. He nodded and said, "Yes, I killed Adam."

Originally, Tom thought that he had already admitted that Albert's junior disciple must have believed it, but he said directly, "That's impossible!"

He shook his head and said confidently, "Don't kid me. Adam is the God Becoming Level's top superpower. As the strongest person in Country M, even in the western world, he is also one of the top experts. How could he be killed by this kid? I have an impression of this kid. I saw him at the airport just now. When the little girl was in danger at that time, and he didn't take action immediately. How could he have the ability to beat Adam?"

He was full of doubts. No, it was not doubt, but he didn't believe it at all and believed that Albert was joking with him.

Tom didn't know what to say.

He was speechless. This was clearly known all over the world. The video of him killing Adam was spread all over. And there were people who didn't believe that he killed Adam. That's ridiculous.

However, he didn't bother to explain it. It was meaningless.

Anyway, Adam had been beaten to death by him. It was impossible for him to come back to life and be beaten to death by Albert's junior disciple.

Albert rubbed his temples and said, "Junior, you haven't been in the secular world for a long time. You've been staying on the mountain. Of course you don't know what happened outside. Adam was indeed killed by Tom."

However, Albert's junior disciple still looked unconvinced. He was certain that Albert was joking with him.

After a pause, he said directly, "I came down to see you this time to learn from you. I'm going to the Secret Realm soon. I'm going to win first place in the Secret Realm competition this time. Please help me improve my skill again!"

As he spoke, he cupped his fists at Albert very solemnly.

Albert just nodded. Then he thought of something and said to his junior disciple, "You can learn from Tom. He is better than me now. You are the same age. Learning from each other should help you more."

"Him?" Albert's junior disciple looked at Tom again, shook his head and said disdainfully, "Forget it."

Tom was speechless. Well, he was despised again.

Chapter 1085

Tom had been used to such things for a long time, and he wouldn't bother arguing with Albert's junior.

And from their conversation, Tom also knew that Albert's junior brother's name was Legend, 35 years old this year, which was exactly the critical point of breaking through to the God Becoming Level, and that was why he went out of the mountain to the Secret Realm.

After chatting with Albert for a while, Tom knew what he wanted to know. Then, he did not stay here any longer.

It was only a few days before the Secret Realm was opened. During this time, he planned to go back to LT Organization. Speaking of which, since he joined LT Organization and saved his mother, he had not returned there.

It was embarrassing to say that now he was still a King of Southern State of LT Organization.

For the LT Organization, Tom had always kept a respectful distance. Though he had rescued his mother, Luna, the LT Organization to him had remained a mysterious and terrifying existence.

This feeling came mainly from Raoul, the leader of the LT Organization.

He had seen Raoul once... No, to be exact, he didn't see Raoul's face that time, just heard his voice.

At that time, he was a small figure in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm and could not perceive how horrible Raoul was.

But even if he recalled now, he felt that Raoul was terrific and unfathomable, who was definitely beyond Adam and Albert!

That day on King's Landing Mountain when he killed Reid, the former King of Southern State, Albert also had a fight with Raoul, which ended in Albert's failure. Moreover, Raoul was weaker than usual at that time, which meant that he was much stronger than Albert!

Although he didn't fight against Albert today, he could feel that Albert was not much stronger than Adam. In other words, Albert was no match for him.

To be honest, he found it to be quite strange.

After all, Albert was the God of War and the strongest man in H Country. When he was in the Innate Realm, he rather admired Albert, regarding him as a life-long idol.

And now, he finally caught up with Albert...

As for Albert, he watched Tom leaving and signed, "There comes a point where the young succeed the old. A new era has arrived."

Legend heard his senior brother's sigh and said, "Senior, you are young, and also the strongest in H Country. You don't need to be sad, right?"

Albert glanced at him silently.

Not long after, Tom left Y City and came straight to the LT Organization.

After returning to the forest, Tom felt emotional. The last time he came over, he was not in the same mood as now.

The same thing was he met many tourists in the forest who came to take risks and hunt, but they did not dare to go deep into the forest, nor could they find the existence of the LT Organization.

It was said that the Clan World was a school of cultivation. They did not value the development of science and technology at all, but put their own physical cultivation first. But in fact, the LT Organization used high-tech to conceal itself, which could not be detected by the ordinary people.

Tom walked into the depths of the forest. From memory, he found the entrance to the LT Organization.

He was stopped soon after his entrance.

"Stop! Who are you? How dare you break into the LT Sect?!"

The three guards were dressed in armor and looked grave, as if facing a formidable enemy. Their bodies were all tensed up.

There was also hostility and vigilance in their eyes. Once Tom made a rush move, they would stab him to death at spot!

As Tom was about to speak, the other two guards said fiercely, "No need to waste time! He must be an enemy from the East Sect. Just stab him to death!"

Once he finished speaking, the two guards directly attacked Tom.

They moved quite fast. The spears in their hands turned into a stream of light and stabbed fiercely at the Tom. If pierced, even a piece of iron would leave two holes!

Faced with this situation, Tom frowned slightly. He felt something was wrong.

Although he had not come back to the LT Organization for a long time, he was the King of Southern State after all. That day at the LT Organization, he caused quite a stir. In principle, the men of the LT Sect should be familiar with him.

But the three guards didn't know him at all.

This could be a trivial thing. It was possible that they were new here and didn't know him.

However.

The three guards were not in the right mood. They looked like they were facing a formidable enemy, with their eyes bloodshot and spirits tense. They were not afraid of killing the wrong person, but of letting the right go.

This meant that something must have happened to the LT Organization, so the three guards reacted like this.

The three were just ordinary first-stage masters of the Innate Realm. In Tom's eyes, they were no different from ants. Facing the spears of the two guards, he casually grabbed their spears, snatched them over, inserted them in the ground behind him, and said in a deep voice: "I'm Tom, King of Southern State."

The two guards were shocked as their weapons were taken away. The spears in their hands seemed to have suddenly come back to life and get out of the control.

Now they were even more shocked after hearing Tom's words. King of Southern State?

Wasn't it said that King of Southern State was dead? How did he suddenly appear?

The other guard did not dare to act rashly, for they could see that Tom was a super master. However, they did not let him in immediately, but rather stared at him closely as treating an enemy. One of the guards said in a deep voice. "How can you prove that you are King of Southern State?"

Tom was stunned. He really had no way to prove this. He didn't have any token on him.

"I'm really King of Southern State. You'll know once you let me in." Tom said.

Chapter 1086

However, the three guards obviously didn't believe him.

"He can't produce any evidence. He's definitely not King of Southern State. He is just a bastard from the East Sect! Brothers, we must hold the position. We can't let him in and kill our masters!"

One of the guards said with gritted teeth.

Another guard also said, "Let's seal the passage and inform our masters that an external enemy is coming!"

Their reaction was extremely vehemently, and they looked as if they took death calmly and as if they had the same enemy and hatred. Even though they knew they were no match for Tom, they did not flinch. Instead, they were excited and wanted to die with Tom.

Moreover, one of the guards had already begun to report the news and shouted three times at a conch-like communication tool, "The enemy attacks! The bastard from the East Sect is coming again!!"

After saying this, they attacked Tom together. The moves they used were extremely fierce, which seemed that they wanted to die with him.

However, although these three guards were all in the first stage of the Innate out to reunite with him from time to time.

During this period of time, his mother, Luna, was in the LT Organization!

If something happened to his mother, then he couldn't accept it!

Now he was faced with the attack of the three guards, and he snorted and attacked directly, subduing them with few moves.

And soon, he felt a few powerful auras rushing from inside. Obviously, it was the Strongs of the LT Organization who came.

Tom did not act rashly but quietly waited for the Strongs of the LT Organization to come over in order to Realm, people in the third stage of the Innate Realm had to be careful when the three guards' powers broke out.

Hearing this, Tom finally understood that the reason why they were so sensitive was that the LT Organization had experienced a big war. It was the East Sect who attacked them, and there might be a lot of casualties, so they were so nervous this time!

After knowing this, Tom was in a bad mood. He wanted to know what happened to his mother and Sunny now.

Ever since he reconciled with the LT Organization, his mother, Luna, came back to the LT Organization again. To her, this was her home. She just went verify their identity.

Sure enough, not long after, eight Strongs suddenly appeared in front of Tom. They were all masters at the high stage of the Innate Realm, and two of them were masters of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, and they were all acquaintances.

When the three guards saw the appearance of these eight Strongs, they immediately said excitedly, "Master Fausto, this is the guy who wants to break into the LT Sect. We suspect that he is the enemy from the East Sect!"

"Yes, Mater Fausto. This man must be a bastard from the East Sect. Please defeat him as soon as possible!"

It had to be said that the three guards were very competent, but their intelligence was a little low.

The person who standing in front of Tom was Fausto. He was also the person that Tom was the most familiar with in the LT Organization. When he first met Fausto, he was just a nobody and almost died in Fausto's hands.

But now, Fausto was inferior to Tom.

Now Fausto was like an ant in front of Tom. He could kill Fausto with one move.

Moreover, he also found that Fausto was obviously much older. Although he still had the young face, he had a lot of white hair on his head, and his eyes were not as nimble as before. Even his breath was much weaker and it was obvious that he was injured.

Not only Fausto, but also the other Strongs, had become much older and much weaker.

This situation further confirmed Tom's guess that the LT Organization had really encountered a big change!

When they saw Tom, they were stunned for a moment, and then their expressions became a little complicated.

Obviously, they remembered Tom. Their originally tense nerves relaxed a lot but their moods became more complicated. Especially for Fausto, he knew what happened to Tom during this period of time, and he knew that Tom had surpassed him a long time ago.

The atmosphere was a little awkward. They saw Tom, but they didn't say anything.

In the end, Tom broke the silence first. He let go of the three guards and said to Fausto, "When did this happen? Were there heavy casualties in the sect?"

Fausto looked up at Tom and did not answer his question. Instead, he said, "Why are you back?"

The other seven Strongs also looked at him with indifference and even hatred.

Tom frowned slightly and said, "I'm King of Southern State. What do you think why I came back?"

However, his words made Fausto feel disdainful, "Hehe, King of Southern State? How dare you say that? You are really thick-skinned!"

The others looked at him with similar eyes, obviously not acknowledging his identity as King of Southern State.

The three guards finally realized that the man in front of them was not a bastard from the East Sect, but the real King of Southern State.

However, when they knew Tom's identity, they did not show respect. Instead, they were also very cold, and even looked at him with hostility and hatred as if Tom was their enemy!

Tom was very confused about this, so he asked, "Fausto, what do you mean? I was chosen as King of Southern State by the Saint King. Are you questioning the majesty of the Saint King?"

However, it was as if Fausto had heard a big joke and he burst out laughing. Not only he, but the others also laughed, but not with joy but with ridicule and disdain.

"Hahaha, did you say that you were chosen by the Saint King? Do you remember how the king treated you before? And how did you, Tom, treat the king?!" Fausto said this, and his eyes were a little red, staring at Tom, which made Tom feel a little frightened.

Fausto really hated him but not pretended to. This hatred was stronger than that generated at the time Tom saved his mother, Luna, from the LT Organization.

However, he was really puzzled. He had not seen Fausto for a long time. There was no new grudge between him and Fausto. Why did Fausto hate him so much?

Tom couldn't understand it.

And what was even weirder was that not only Fausto, but also the others hated him.

Something must have gone wrong.

Chapter 1087

To be honest, Tom seldom came back, and he was very uncomfortable with this kind of treatment. But he could also find that the LT Organization had been invaded by the East Sect, and now Fausto and the others were injured, so he didn't bother to tangle with them..

So he said in a deep voice, "Fausto, I don't know the sect was invaded by the East Sect, so you don't have to blame it on me! I'm back and I'm going to see the Saint King. Anyway, I'm King of Southern State of the sect. You have no right to stop me from returning to the sect."

Tom's words were very polite. No matter what, he was King of Southern State and was on the same level as Fausto, only one level below the Saint King.

However, Fausto acted more excited when he heard his words. As if he had heard the funniest joke in the world, he laughed so hard he had tears in his eyes, "Hahaha, King of Southern State? Tom, you hypocrite, you scumbag, how dare you to call yourself King of Southern State? If it weren't for you, would our LT Sect have become what it is today?"

Tom felt unhappy when he heard this. It seemed like he was the person that did harm to LT Sect!

So he became angry and stared at Fausto fiercely. His powerful aura was around Fausto and he said coldly, "Fausto! What do you mean by that? Explain it to me! I admit that I, King of Southern State, didn't shoulder my responsibility. I haven't been back for a long time, and I didn't come back when the sect needed me. But how dare you frame me!!"

His words were so commanding that Fausto was breathless with fear. His face turned pale and he took few steps back to take a deep breath. He changed his view of Tom.

In his opinion, Tom was no longer the Strong of the Major Perfection Realm in Innate Realm at the same level as him but had turned into a super devil.

The aura emanating from Tom at this moment was not much worse than that of his highness the Saint King!

Could Tom have advanced to the God Becoming Level?!

Not only Fausto, but also other the Strongs, felt the power and majesty that Tom has at this moment. They were really shocked and felt the sky was falling down just now.

Tom stopped and did not oppress them anymore. He quickly withdrew his power and said, "Fausto, I haven't been back to the sect for a while. I don't know what happened to the sect, but now that I'm back, I won't watch from the sidelines."

Fausto and the others had room to breathe after Tom withdrew his power.

Fausto did not fear Tom because. Instead, his hatred for Tom deepened and he cursed directly, "Get out! We LT Sect don't need a hypocrite like you. Get as far as you can!"

Besides Fausto, the others also asked Tom to get out!

Tom frowned even tighter. He always felt that this matter was not as simple as he had seen it on the surface.

Otherwise, even if he didn't come back to fight with them at the LT Sect's most dangerous time, it was understandable that Fausto and the others had complaints, but they shouldn't have hated him so much according to normal logic.

He was not reckless at all, so he took a deep breath, calmed down, and asked, "Fausto, is there a misunderstanding?"

"Misunderstanding?" Fausto sneered and said disdainfully, "Tom, you don't have to pretend anymore. This is not a misunderstanding at all. You are a traitor to the LT Sect! You betrayed the sect! I admit that you are strong now. Besides the Saint King, none of us is your opponent! But you don't have to be arrogant. You damn will not end up well!!"

After saying this, he turned around and wanted to leave.

The other Strongs also glared at Tom with extreme hatred and disdain, and then left together.

Tom was stunned when he heard his words. What was going on? Why did he become a traitor?

He had done nothing during this period of time!

His first reaction was that Fausto had wronged him on purpose. But Fausto was not like acting at all. The hatred and disdain that Fausto and the others had for him were not acting.

There would be a big misunderstanding.

Although Tom had no sense of belonging to the LT Sect. But he is still the King of Southern State and was grateful to his highness the Saint King. He would not be wronged for nothing. So he took two steps forward and said, "Fausto, how did I betray the sect? I haven't..."

However, before he could finish speaking, Fausto and the others had disappeared into the light.

Tom was the only one left in the forest.

Tom frown deeply. He would like to follow Fausto's steps to get into the LT Sect, but he could not find a way at all. No matter how much he explored, he could find nothing, as if the entire LT Organization had never existed here.

Tom knew that LT Organization used high-tech means to hide themselves.

He could not get in without the right way.

Unless he destroyed this place in a violent way.

But he would really become the betrayer of the LT Sect if he did so.

To be honest, he had never thought of this situation before he came here. He used to think that even if they did not warmly welcome him back to the LT Sect, at least they would be happy. After all, his strength had risen greatly, which was a good thing for the LT Sect.

But what actually happened was not what he had expected.

Moreover, the weirdest thing was that he had not received any news of such a big event!

Neither Sunny nor his mother told him about it. There must be something wrong.

All of a sudden, he thought of something and became nervous. He quickly called his mother.

Tom had been very nervous before his mother answers the phone. He prayed in his heart, "Please answer the phone. Please..."

Chapter 1088

Finally, with Tom's nervous prayer, the phone was connected. Soon, his mother Luna's voice echoed, "Hello. Is this Tom?"

Hearing her mother's voice, Tom, who was worried about her for a long time, was finally relaxed. He thought to himself, "Thank god! My mother's fine, that's great!"

Tom said, "Mom, it's great to know you're safe! Are you in the LT Sect now?"

She said to the phone, "Tom, I'm not in there. Did you go there?"

"Not in there?"

Hearing this answer, he was both surprised and thought it reasonable.

According to Fausto's reaction just now, it was a good thing that his mother wasn't in the LT Sect's place. If she was there and he was considered a traitor, then his mother would definitely be hamed in connection by him.

But what he couldn't figure out now was, how did he become a traitor to the LT Sect?

Although he didn't return to the LT Sect for a long time and had no sense of belonging to it, he had never betrayed the LT Sect. He would never be a traitor.

"Mom, I'm at the entrance of the sect now. I saw Fausto just now, but they treat me as a traitor..."

He told his mother what happened just now on the phone.

But his mother did not answer immediately, but fell into silence.

Feeling her silence, he immediately realized that she knew about this, but for some reason. It seemed strange that she didn't tell him!

However, he did not immediately ask questions, but waited for her answer.

After a while, she voiced, "This is the case. Days ago, the LT Sect suddenly suffered from the suppression from the East Sect, the Blood Thirst Sect.

They invaded the LT Sect with a large army, which killed a lot of people."

Then, Luna said some of the details. After he heard it, he took a deep breath. He never thought that the LT Sect had experienced such a tragedy!

"Mom, why did the East Sect invade the LT Sect? Isn't it one of the Four Sects?" Tom asked.

However, she sighed and expressed her doubts. She said, "I don't know the exact situation. I'm afraid only the Saint King knows."

Tom asked again, "Then why do Fausto and the others think I'm a traitor?"

After hearing this question, her mother fell into silence again.

This time, Tom had a strong feeling that something serious happened.

He waited for a long time, but didn't hear his mother's answer. He thought he was disconnected, so he asked, "Mom, are you still listening?"

This time, she sighed on the phone and said, "I'm listening. Tom, do you know why they think you're a traitor? It was because at the day the East Sect invaded our sect, they claimed that you betrayed the LT Sect and told them the entrance..."

Later, his mother told him more details, which reinforced that he was a traitor and united with the East Sect to destroy the LT Sect!

person on the phone was Tom!

From that moment on, everyone in the LT Sect thought that Tom had betrayed them!

"That's impossible!"

After Tom heard her explanation, his first reaction was to shout out and immediately retort, "I haven't even contacted anyone in the East Sect! How can I collude with them? Besides, I have no motive to betray the LT Sect at all! Mom, you must believe me!"

She sighed and said, "Tom, you are my son. I have watched you grow up. If I don't believe you, then who else can I trust? Unfortunately, this current situation is detrimental to you. The

This method was clumsy, looking like a trap. At first, the people of LT Sect did not believe it. After all, they were not stupid. And Tom had no motive to betray them!

Besides, Tom was from H Country, a mortal. How could he conspire with the Blood Thirst Sect?

However, later, more and more details were exposed. The most important thing was that Tom had not appeared during this period of time, when the sect needed him the most. Instead, he hid.

What was more, one day, a guy of the East Sect was having a video conversation with Tom. The people from LT Sect saw and heard him. The people of the East Sect has made up their mind to smear you!"

Tom felt a little relieved when he heard his mother believe him, but he felt extremely disgusted and angry at the East Sect's approach!

He had never met anyone from the East Sect, nor had he provoked them. How could they slander him like this? This made him angry.

Suddenly, he thought of something else and continued to ask, "Mom, what about the Saint King? He is a super expert in the God Becoming Level. He must be able to resist the attack of the East Sect, right?"

Mother sighed again and said, "He is too old. This time, the East Sect attacked our sect and sent out many experts. The Saint King is outnumbered..."

With great shock, Tom asked quickly, "Has he, gone?!"

If even the Saint King died, then the LT Sect was really doomed!

It could be said that the entire LT Sect, in the world, is so threatening because of the existence of the Saint King. If he died, then this sect would cease to exist sooner or later.

His mother said, "No, he's not dead. He has entered the third stage of the God Becoming Level and is at the peak of the world. Unless the overlord of the Blood Thirst Sect and the Supreme Elder killed him personally, the others can't kill the Saint King."

"That's good..." Tom breathed a sigh of relief. As long as the Saint King was not dead, then the LT Sect had a chance to rebuild its glory.

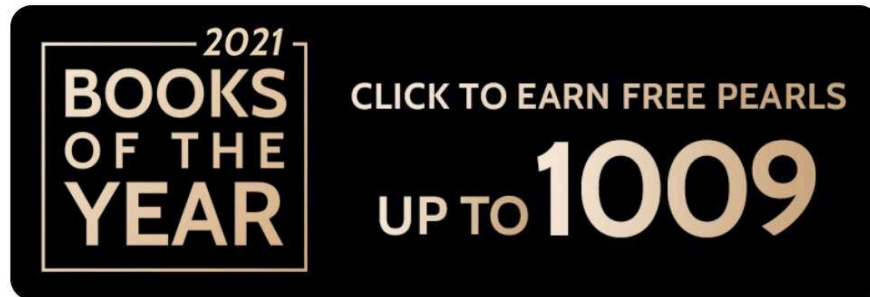

But she immediately added, "Although he is not dead, he's seriously injured and is now recovering. That is to say, the LT Sect now is just like a tiger without claws and teeth, alas..."

Luna, was born in the LT Sect as a Saintess. She had a deep affection for the LT Sect. Now that she saw it falling to this today, she was very sad and disappointed.

Sensing her emotions, Tom felt upset.

He didn't have much of a sense of belonging to the LT Sect, but he was very grateful and fond of the Saint King.

If it hadn't been for his generosity, he'd be long dead.

Chapter 1089

Now that LT Sect was in trouble, Tom couldn't just stand by.

Then he chatted with his mother for a while. Knowing that Sunny was also fine, he was relieved completely.

Anyway, he cared most his mother and Sunny in the LT Sect. Everything seemed to be good as they were both fine.

After hanging up the phone, Tom took a deep breath and strode back to the LT Sect. He said loudly, "Fausto! Let me in. I want to see the Saint King."

His voice was so loud, which was full of power and penetration. His voice was clearly heard by many people in the LT Sect.

Soon, Fausto appeared again.

Moreover, along with him, many of the Strongs appeared together.

They looked at Tom with an expression of unkindness and hostility, as if they treated him as a renegade.

If it were someone else, he would have been scared out of their wits in this situation.

After Tom called his mother Luna, he knew the whole story. He wasn't irritated with Fausto's misunderstanding and hostility. He could understand their feeling.

He wanted to clear the air this time.

"Tom! Are you provoking us? Do you really think you can do whatever you want to humiliate us?!" Fausto said with anger and hostility in his eyes. He treated Tom with hostility from the very start. And now after this incident, his hatred for Tom reached a maximum. If he hadn't been incapable, he could have beaten Tom down even earlier!

Tom looked at them with a calm expression and said kindly, "I just talked with my mother. I know the whole story. You are fooled by the East Sect. I have no contact with them at all, and I even can't collude with them to attack people from our side. I came back this time to fight with you."

Hearing his words, many people present were confused. Did they really misunderstand Tom?

But Fausto snorted heavily and said, "You're just being so deceitful! Tom, you're a renegade and your acting is fantastic. But do you think we're idiots? Many of us saw the video of you and the East Sect that day. That voice, that look, was all you!"

The others, who had been a little confused, became firm again after hearing Fausto's words.

They stared at Tom, and prepared themselves for the fight. As long as Fausto gave the order, they would rush up and take down Tom, the renegade!

Tom frowned and patiently explained, "Fausto, I know you're hostile to me, but I can swear to God that I never betrayed our sect! Those are all made by the East Sect scumbags who wants to slander me!"

"Do you have any evidence to prove your innocence?" Fausto stared at him with no clue to give in.

Tom said, "I don't know anyone from the East Sect at all. Besides, why should I betray our sect with no reasons? I'm the King of Southern State ordered by the Saint King. And my mother is still living in the sect. If I betray the sect, what am I? An idiot?"

However, as he said this, Fausto and the others became even more hostile to him. Fausto roared out, "Your mother left the sect long before the East Sect attacked! Tom, what else do you want to say? If you hadn't betrayed the sect, why would you have sent Luna out?"

Tom frowned more deeply. It seemed that what he said made things even worse.

He wanted to explain, but Fausto's eyes were already red with mad. He couldn't help it to raise his arms and shout, "Let's go together and take this damn renegade down!"

After his words, he was the first to rush out and attack Tom.

Within minute, there was a long sword in his hand. The blades on both sides were extremely sharp, which could seemingly cut iron into mud.

Fausto was the top expert in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. His cultivation was mainly showed by a sword. He, who used the sword, had to improve his strength to reach half a step of the strength of the God Becoming Level.

In addition to him, there were many people who also rushed for Tom.

They were almost all the elites of the LT Sect, and several of them were masters of the Innate Realm of the LT Sect.

All of a sudden, Tom felt a great pressure.

He was also a little angry. He felt Fausto was too prejudiced against him to listen to him at all. It seemed that he couldn't do anything.

Immediately, Fausto was already in front of him. With a wave of his right hand, a layer of sword flowers appeared and covered Tom's acupuncture points. Once Tom was hurt by it, his body would be injured no matter how strong it was!

It had to be admitted that Fausto's strength was not bad. His sword skills had reached the peak.

If it had been six months ago, Tom might not have been his opponent. But now, if Fausto wanted to beat him, it was too difficult and impossible.

Tom knew that this battle was inevitable, so he prepared himself for it right away. When facing Fausto's fierce sword flourish, he did not choose to fight back. Instead, he took a few steps back, pulled away the distance, and then accurately found the trajectory of Fausto's sword before he started to attack.

He reached out his right hand to rebound Fausto's long sword with only his middle finger.

When Fausto saw this, he immediately sneered and thought that Tom was too careless. He felt Tom was looking for death!

Not to mention that Tom had not been to the God Becoming Level yet, even if Tom had really arrived at the God Becoming Level, what he did would be no different from looking for death.

His long sword was made of extraterritorial meteorites, and it was frozen for 20 years in that antarctic low temperature. It could be said to be extremely tough, which could cut iron into mud. It was not any ordinary stainless steel.

After Tom's right hand reached his sword, Fausto sneered, then began to twist his wrist. He intended to cut off Tom's fingers, which could give Tom a hard lesson!

This situation was very critical, and everyone thought that Tom's fingers would definitely be cut off.

However, for Tom himself, he was not in the least panicked. There was still a faint smile on his face. When his fingers were close to Fausto's edge of blade, he dodged Fausto's horizontal chop at an extremely tricky angle. At the same time, he popped out his fingers and, with a bang, it rebounded the sword by touching in the middle of the sword accurately.

At that moment, there was a crack. Fausto's long sword was snapped by the Tom!

Chapter 1090

The moment he felt the weight of his long sword disappear, Fausto saw his long sword was broken by Tom.

In an instant, his eyes widened, looking completely stunned.

For a moment, he was so shocked that his mind went blank and he forgot to attack Tom.

This long sword had been with him for many years. It was his partner and his magic weapon to defeat the enemy.

His cultivation was based on his sword skills, which was his pride and all he had.

He was full of confidence when he used his Rushuang sword against Tom.

However, what happened now slapped him in the face so hard that he was completely stunned. For a moment, he couldn't come back to his senses. He couldn't believe what was happening and kept saying, "Impossible. That's impossible..."

He knew better than anyone how tough the Rushuang sword was. How could Tom break it with a flick?

In fact, not only him, but many of the people present also widened their eyes open and looked like they were in the dark.

They knew that Tom was very powerful. After all, Tom was in the limelight during this period. He was on the List of Immortals and went to Country M to show off his power.

However, they had not watched Tom fight with their own eyes, so they did not have a clear vision of Tom's strength. Before that, they all thought that Fausto had sacrificed the Rushuang sword. Even if he could not defeat Tom, he could at least be stalled for a while. By then, they would definitely be able to win Tom if they piled on.

But now, Tom was much stronger than they had imagined.

Tom broke Fausto's sword with one flick, but he was not surprised. After all, he knew his strength very well.

Besides, he had just found the weakness of the Rushuang sword. Otherwise, no matter how hard he tried, he would not have broken it.

Even so, he could feel the pain in his fingers.

He did not take advantage of the victory but stop, standing with his hands behind his back, faced the crowd proudly, and said in a deep voice, "Calm down. I am not a traitor. If I am a traitor, is there any need for me to come back? I am going in to see the Saint King now. Don't stop me."

Faced with Tom's words, they did not dare to act rashly now. Although they surrounded Tom, they did not dare to attack easily. The strength that he showed just now was too terrifying.

They had a hunch that even if they went together, they might not be Tom's match.

They also didn't understand why he had become so powerful. It was completely unreasonable!

After a while, Fausto finally came back to his senses. He raised his head, stared straight at Tom, and said, "What kind of realm are you at?!"

Tom said coolly, "Half-step God Becoming Level."

"Impossible!" Fausto immediately denied it, and he looked very excited. "If it is Half-step God Becoming Level, you can't be so powerful! Are you already at God Becoming Level?!"

God Becoming Level...

Everyone gasped when they heard Fausto's words.

It was too heavy. It could be said that after reaching the God Becoming Level, Tom was at another level.

But immediately, Fausto shook his head and said, "Impossible, that's impossible! You're not even 35 years old, and you can't be at God Becoming Level... But why do you have such terrifying strength? Who are you? Who the hell are you?!"

Fausto stared at Tom, his eyes filled with fear. It was as if Tom was not human, but a monster.

Tom suddenly had a bad feeling about Fausto's look. Why was Fausto's reaction so great? And this look in Fausto's eyes was too abnormal!

Before he could ask the question in his heart, a loud but weak voice suddenly came from the sky. "Let him in."

It was the Saint King!

Tom immediately heard it clearly.

Although this voice was still very loud, at first glance, it was still full of majesty and unfathomable feeling, but if he listened carefully, he could still hear the weakness in the voice. He was injured.

When the others heard the Saint King, their expressions were especially complicated, awe, heartache, anger, and worry...

Fausto took a deep breath. He heard the Saint King. Knowing that he could no longer stop Tom anymore, he glared at Tom fiercely and said, "Tom, you'd better not be a traitor. If you are a traitor and hurt the Saint King, then I will seek revenge on you even if I will die! If I can't kill you, I'll kill the people around you!"

His words were not a joke, but from the bottom of his heart. Tom did not doubt his words at all.

Although he was a little unhappy, Tom did not bother to argue with him. After all, he was not a traitor, and he would not hurt the Saint King.

In this way, under everyone's attention, he slowly walked into the light screen and successfully entered the LT Sect.

When he walked in, he was shocked violently.

He almost didn't recognize that the mess in front of him was the LT Organization he had been to last time?

The last time he came here, the environment was excellent and lively, birds and flowers were everywhere.

But now, many places had been destroyed, and it was obvious that they had experienced a destruction...

If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, he wouldn't have believed it was the LT Organization he knew.

From this point of view, the excitement of Fausto and the others were completely reasonable.

The first time they met, they had restrained themselves from killing Tom.

Behind him, Fausto and the others came in and saw this scene. Their faces were full of pain and sadness.

The destruction of the environment was not that bad. The saddest thing was that many people died in this battle.

Tom could clearly feel the sadness in the air.

Tom stopped. Looking at this scene, he felt bad. He closed his eyes and could imagine how terrible the battle was.

Moreover, this was a relatively small battle. If the Clan World were to attack the Secular World with all the strength, what would it be like?

To be honest, he didn't even dare to imagine it to happen...

"Sorry, I'm late."

After a while, Tom turned around and said this to Fausto and the others.

They were obviously stunned. They did not expect Tom to say so. Their gloomy expressions softened a lot.
