Chapter 869 Sadistic

This did not even seem like revenge. It was clearly a case of sadistic torture.

Thud! Hayden's body fell heavily from mid-air, and it landed on the ground like a pile of mud. Except for his head, he could not move any part of his entire body. Furthermore, all his bones were shattered by Jared's blows.

Blood gushed from Hayden's nose and mouth. His face was hideous.

"Kill me... Please kill me..."

Hayden's eyes were full of hatred as he shouted, glaring at Jared. With every shout, blood spurted from his mouth.

Hayden was better off dead and he hoped Jared would just kill him.

Jared had no wish to let Hayden die so quickly. He wanted to keep him alive and finally, he would use the Focus Technique to absorb all Hayden's martial energy for his own use.

At this point in time, Jared had almost used up the spiritual energy in draconic essence. Apparently, it could not be used for much longer for it had to recover slowly. The best way for Jared to practice now was to absorb the martial energy of others.

Although this method was banned by the martial arts world as it was considered to be a technique of Demonic Cultivation. At this point in time, Jared could not be bothered at all. There were so many people targeting him, that he needed to increase his power in the fastest way.

When Jared refused to kill him, Hayden turned his gaze to Declan, hoping that Declan would kill him, because he was better off dead.

In the meantime, Declan could not be bothered about him. Declan's brows were knitted tight as his eyes were glued to Jared.

They had underestimated Jared's powers and they had been too reckless in approaching him.

"You are next..."

Jared looked at Declan and said plainly.

"Jared, it looks like the draconic essence has given you a lot of advantages. No wonder you are being sought after. However, it will not be easy for you to kill me today even if you want to..."

After Declan finished speaking, he waved his hands suddenly, and a black mist swept over him and at the same time, he disappeared.

"Look after Hayden, don't let him kill himself."

After Jared spoke, he disappeared into thin air.

The moment Jared chased after Declan, he had already opened his spiritual sense and determined Declan's location.

Fleeing the courtyard, Declan ran into a grove of trees. He looked back and saw that no one was following. Silently, he heaved a sigh of relief.

"Darn it! This Jared is a sadist..."

Declan cursed! He had never been so humiliated before.

Right after that, his expression changed. Quickly, he clasped his hands together and muttered softly. Clouds of black fog enveloped him.

He could feel Jared's spiritual sense and knew that Jared had found him, so he hurriedly used spiritual arts to conceal himself.

However, he was too late. At that very moment, Jared appeared and saw him. Without hesitation, Jared smashed him with his fist.

Seeing that, Declan hurriedly shouted, "Dragon Crushing Formation..."

In an instant, the black fog shrouding Declan turned into chains binding Jared's body, incapacitating the latter.

"Your Dragon Crushing Formation is useless on me..."

Jared sneered as he saw Declan trying to bind him with Dragon Crushing Formation.

"If it does not bind you up, it can delay you and I can escape without a trace."

Declan did not intend to use the Dragon Crushing Formation to trap Jared. After all, even during the Medicine God Sect incident, the chains had failed to trap him. Now that Jared's power had increased so much, there was no way he could be bound by this art.

"Delay me?" Jared's lips curled in a smile and he quickly used his Focus Technique. The chains formed by the energy of Declan's lethal intent were quickly absorbed into Jared's body.

The triumphant expression on Declan's face froze as he saw what was happening before his eyes.

Chapter 870 Protecting The Public

Declan could see that things were not going well. Quickly, he turned around using spiritual arts to flee!

"Yet, you try to flee..."

Jared wielded the Dragonslayer Sword and slashed out.

An incomparably sharp sword energy went straight towards Declan, and all the trees along the way were cut down in unison.

Declan felt the danger behind him, and hurriedly turned around to dodge the sword, but his arm was still lacerated by the sharp sword energy, and blood flowed from the wound.

Looking at his wound, Declan gritted his teeth and suddenly roared angrily. The ground began to shake, and skulls emerged from the ground unexpectedly.

There were a total of nine skulls, constantly spinning around Declan, and a cloud of black mist emerged from the skulls' mouths, which was sucked into his body.

"I see that you are practicing Demonic Cultivation..."

Jared snorted in contempt.

This guy had been very good at concealing his secret activities and showed the public that he practiced Taoism. Unexpectedly, he was actually into Demonic Cultivation. It was apparent that these Demonic Cultivators have all worked hard to hide their identities.

"It is no longer important whether I am into Demonic Cultivation or not because you are dying now..."

As Declan spoke, his body became enlarged as if he was being inflated. At a height of more than two meters, he looked down at Jared like a giant.

"Nine skulls attack!"

Declan shouted loudly. The nine skulls made a clicking sound and then broke up into countless fragments which then shot towards Jared.

Under the sunlight, these fragments exuded a cold air and surrounded Jared in a complete circle, sealing him in an inescapable sphere.

Declan had learned that Jared could absorb lethal intent power. This time, he had used skull fragments which did not contain lethal intent. He wanted to fire these fragments like bullets into Jared which would turn him into a piece of dead meat.

Facing the onslaught of these bone fragments, Jared's lips curved into a sneer. In his recent training, he was able to cultivate his physical body towards invincibility. This was a good opportunity to test the strength of his body.

Jared's body shook slightly, and then a golden light radiated from his whole body. Even his fists radiated golden light, and the exposed skin instantly turned golden. At this moment, Jared looked like a golden statue.

"This..." Seeing the change in Jared, a look of surprise filled Declan's eyes.

Ding! Ding! Ding!

The hard fragments of bone hit Jared's body with powerful martial energy, broke up and bounced off onto the ground. Jared's body was not harmed in any way.

Declan's jaw dropped and his countenance turned hideous.

Each of these nine skulls was the skull of a Top Level Senior Grandmaster. Declan used a trick to lure them and then took the opportunity to absorb the power of these people. In short, the bones of these Top Level Senior Grandmasters were as hard as bullets, but at this moment, there was no harm done to Jared at all.

"Jared, how about you and I cease fighting now and I will never trouble you again in the future?"

Declan looked down at Jared and asked.

"It's too late to ask for that now. I want to break all your bones and then absorb all your spiritual power..."

Jared spoke coldly.

"You... are you also practicing Demonic Cultivation?"

Declan looked at Jared in surprise. Just now, when Jared was able to absorb lethal intent power, Declan had felt that something was amiss. Now, Jared was revealing that he could even absorb someone else's spiritual power. This had to be Demonic Cultivation!

"I am not as shameless as you are. Today, I shall do the public a favor by killing you..."

When Jared finished speaking, his Dragonslayer Sword flamed up.

"You are too arrogant. Are you sure you can beat me today?"

After Declan finished speaking, an ancient character suddenly appeared in the palm of his hand. The character shimmered with light and was dazzling, brighter than the light of the sun.

Chapter 871 Snake

Soon after, Declan kept chanting. After a loud bang, clouds of black smoke rose into the air. The smoke covered a radius of hundreds of meters across the sky and instantly turned day into night.

Despite that, Jared remained calm as ever and swung his Dragonslayer Sword in the air. The sky turned bright again as silver rays appeared.

Declan wasn't fazed by what Jared did. Instead, he started chanting even faster. He then drew a circle in the void with his right hand, and ripples were formed in the circle. It was as if the concept of time and space was defied.

Roar!

Right then, an ear-splitting roar was heard, and a scaly snake appeared. The snake had a blood-red tongue and a bulky body. Besides, the snake seemed to have buried itself in a place full of corpses prior to that because there was a stench of blood on its body.

While looking at the snake, Jared frowned. This is not an illusion! This is a real being that appeared from a different dimension!

"Jared, so what if you can absorb lethal intent? I've summoned an ancient beast to deal with you this time around..." Declan's eyes were filled with excitement as he was looking at the snake. However, his body had returned to its original state. Besides, his face had turned pale before spitting out a mouthful of blood right after he said that.

It seemed like Declan had used up all his energy when he summoned the snake.

Bang!

Jared rushed toward the snake and struck it with his fiery Dragonslayer Sword.

The loud bang was generated when the sword landed on the snake's body with an enormous force. Instantly, sparks flew and splattered everywhere.

Upon that strike, the snake quivered in pain. In retaliation, it spat out a bright ray of light, and the ground below them was shaking violently.

Jared swiftly retreated and dodged its attack. At that moment, pain radiated through the hand Jared was holding his Dragonslayer Sword. The scales on this snake are too tough! It doesn't seem like Dragonslayer Sword had caused much damage to it.

"Jared!" By then, Lyanna and Theodore had caught up.

Prior to that, they could feel the frightening aura coming from the jungle. They were worried about Jared, so they'd gone after him.

To their surprise, they saw a bulky and ten-odd meters long snake battling with Jared when they arrived. Right then, they were scared out of their minds.

Since Horington wasn't located in an area with indigenous forest, they were puzzled as to where the giant snake had come from.

"Don't come near! Get away from here!" Jared quickly warned Lyanna and the rest.

Indeed, the snake was too strong for Lyanna and the rest to handle.

Hiss! Hiss! Hiss!

The snake opened its mouth and started moving rapidly toward Jared. Its tail was sweeping around violently, causing trees in the area to be uprooted. At the same time, rocks and stones were sent flying in all directions.

Again, Jared raised his Dragonslayer Sword and leaped into the air. He then dove toward the snake and stabbed it in the back.

Bang!

Sparks flew when the sword came into contact with the snake. It was as if two giant rocks had crashed into one another.

The snake wailed and swung its tail toward Jared. It was moving with so much force that Jared felt like he was struck by a metal rod.

Like a bullet, Jared was sent crashing into a huge tree in the area.

"Jared!"

"Mr. Chance!"

Lyanna and the rest rushed toward Jared immediately to help him up.

Traces of blood could be seen flowing out from the corners of Jared's mouth. Although his strong body was unharmed, the powerful impact had damaged his vital organs.

Chapter 872 Human Versus Snake

"Haha! Jared, no matter how strong your body is, you're no match for this snake! Kill them! Kill all of them!" As Declan was laughing, he was trying his best to hold on to the black halo.

He couldn't afford to let that halo disappear because the snake would instantly die if that were to happen. Since the snake was from a different dimension, the halo served as a gateway for the snake to enter into the dimension they were at.

In the meantime, Jared was observing Declan. Why is he trying so hard to maintain the halo when he looks like he's struggling? Could it be that if the halo disappears, it'll bring the snake along with it? Yes! That must be it!

With that thought in his mind, Jared held his Dragonslayer Sword and dashed toward Declan while aiming it at his arm.

When the snake noticed that, it swung its tail again to stop Jared in his tracks. After that, it widened its mouth and bit Jared's arm.

Jared froze when he was bitten by the immense force. The snake then flipped Jared into the air.

After getting thrown across the sky, he crashed heavily into the ground.

The impact was so hard that a deep crater was formed due to his fall. Jared was then seen climbing out of the crater with difficulty.

At that moment, streams of blood were flowing down from his arm. Even though he had a tough body, he still bled due to the bite.

"Jared..." Lyanna immediately took off her shirt and wrapped his wound with it.

"Get away from here..." Jared urged when he felt a strong gust of wind approaching them. He shoved her aside and ended up getting smacked by the snake's tail.

Thump!

Jared was sent flying more than ten meters away before falling to the ground with a heavy thud.

Following that, blood was seeping out from the corner of his mouth.

"Mr. Chance!"

When Theodore and Tristan saw that, they immediately drew their weapons and attacked the snack.

Before Jared could tell them to stand down, those two were sent flying away when they were hit by the snake's tail.

Just like that, neither Tristan nor Theodore could stand on their feet again because they were heavily injured.

Jared stood up with his body supported by the Dragonslayer Sword and glared at the snake. The scales on this fellow are just too tough, and there's no way I can harm it. If we continue fighting like this, I'm going to lose.

"Go! Kill them!" Declan was getting weaker by the minute. At that point, his body was trembling, and he knew he couldn't hold on much longer. I have to get the snake to kill Jared as soon as possible.

Hiss!

The snake was angrily hissing away when it was slithering rapidly toward Jared.

It opened its mouth wide and exposed its sharp and venomous teeth before trying to swallow Jared in one bite.

"Jared!"

"Mr. Chance!"

Lyanna, Theodore, and the others instantly got anxious upon seeing that. To their dismay, there was nothing they could do to help Jared.

There wasn't much Jared could do as he watched the snake's mouth approaching him. I'm injured. There's no way I can dodge it!

At that split second, Jared's body started emitting a gentle white beam of light. Soon, the brightness was intensified. It had gotten so bright that Jared's body seemed to have turned transparent.

There, the draconic essence was shining brightly. Under the bright white beam of light, the snake panicked and began rolling on the ground and wailing at the same time.

Right then, the body of the snake was shrinking at a speed visible to the naked eye. From the initial length of more than ten meters, the snake had shrunk to a mere few meters long within a few seconds.

As the snake was rolling in pain, it was trying to make its way toward Declan. With all its might, it leaped into the black halo and tried to escape.
