When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 2055

Chapter 2055

"You drink less, I will ask the bodyguard to take you back later." Mike poured the doctor's wine and the wine glass was brought to the doctor, "I definitely won't let you get drunk. You will have to change Avery's medicine later!"

The doctor reluctantly took the wine glass and took a sip.

"I don't know Margaret very well, but I have friends who admire her very much. She is often mentioned in front of me. I heard that her biggest wish in her life is to win the March Medical Award. Do you know the March Medical Award?" Doctor asked.

Mike shook his head and nodded again: "I heard of it, but I didn't understand it. It seems to be a very good award."

"The March Medical Award is the most authoritative award in our medical field. The last winner of the March Medical Award was Professor James Hough. Margaret likes Professor James Hough, and everyone in the circle knows this. So Margaret naturally wants to win the March Medical Prize, even if it's not to compete with Professor James Hough, but also for himself In the medical field, I have the best explanation in my life."

Mike: "Avery didn't win this award, but Margaret can get it? I don't believe it."

"Since Margaret boasted that She would win this award, she must have privately do her homework." The doctor said here, picked up the phone and glanced at the calendar, "In another month, it will be the four-yearly March Medical Award. I don't know what Margaret will do this time."

Mike: "Oh... If she really makes a drug that can delay aging, will she also be awarded an award?"

The doctor shook his head: "I don't know that. The judges are all the most authoritative people in the medical field. It has its own set of award rules. However, according to the research results of the winners over the years, the March Medical Award is more inclined to award the award to the research that can cure major diseases. If Margaret wants to win steadily, this may be difficult for her to get the prize."

"Oh..." Mike murmured, "It's complicated!"

After Avery lost her medicine, she hugged Elliot's shirt and fell asleep.

Today, she was running around outside for a long time, and she didn't eat much, so her physical strength was obviously weak.

With the breath left on Elliot's shirt, she felt as if she was holding him.

After falling asleep, she had a sweet dream.

In the dream, Elliot was lying beside her, hugging her back like she was hugging him.

This dream made all the pain Avery experienced during this period disappear. Although it only disappeared for a short time, it allowed her to have a moment of relaxation.

After some time, Avery woke up from her dream. Her face was cold, she reached out and touched it, tears all over her face.

She sat up and looked out the window.

Its daybreak.

She immediately lifted the quilt, hugged Elliot's shirt, and came out of the room.

The nanny just got up and didn't have time to make breakfast when she saw Avery come out of the room and came over immediately.

"Avery, why did you get up so early? The doctor said you need to rest in bed."

"I'll go to Mike." Avery strode towards Mike's room.

An hour later –

Mike and Avery appeared at the door of Margaret's company.

Along with them, in addition to eleven bodyguards, there was also a special police officer and a search and rescue dog.

The special police smelled Elliot's shirt to the search and rescue dog, and then brought the search and rescue dog into the company!

Avery strode behind them.

Has Elliot ever been here? There will be an answer soon!

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 2056

"Avery, do you think this method will work?" Mike walked beside her and asked in a low voice.

"Why not?" Avery asked back, "Search and rescue dogs are designed to do this kind of work."

"I'm afraid Elliot has never been here before." Mike said, "It's so close to us, if Elliot was here before, that's too heartbreaking!"

Avery: "Sometimes the most dangerous place is the safest place."

"Well. If Elliot has never been here, you should rest at home for a few days, and then move on to the next plan when the injury is healed." Mike discussed with her.

"I know. I had a dream about him last night, and he said he wasn't dead. I'm sure he wasn't dead." Avery got a little emotional, "Mike, I've made up my mind. If he's really dead, I'll die. Mike, You will take care of our children, I'll leave it to you."

Mike: "???"

"Boss! How can you say such a thing?!" Ali said excitedly, "Even if Elliot really died Now, you can't die! You have to avenge Elliot anyway!"

"I will definitely avenge him. I will kill Travis and Margaret, and then I'll die." Avery had already made up her mind.

Mike glared at Ali.

Ali said excitedly again: "Boss! You can't die! You still have three such lovely children! Ah, no, four! You haven't found Haze, how can you die?!"

Mike echoed: "Yes, still I didn't find Haze, what would you do if Haze died? Avery, can you calm down a bit?"

"If Haze is still alive, there should be no problem for her to grow up alive. If Haze is dead, no matter how I look for her, it is impossible for me to find her again." Avery said calmly, "My children and grandchildren will have their own children and grandchildren. Elliot and I think about it earlier, and Elliot won't die."

In the past, Avery put the child first, no matter which child she was, she was always in front of Elliot.

But during the time when Elliot disappeared, there was not a moment in her heart that was not painful.

Once a person loses the belief and meaning of living, every second will become extremely tormented.

This kind of pain cannot be shared with outsiders. Even if it is said, outsiders will not understand.

Avery didn't want to say these words now, but the suppressed emotions in her heart accumulated to the extreme. If she didn't say it, she couldn't express her emotions.

"If you want to die, Hayden and I won't let you die." Mike's face was gloomy and he poured cold water on her, "Once I tell Hayden what you just said, even if Hayden doesn't eat or drink, he will die. Time is a good medicine to heal pain. After a year and a half, you will definitely come out. If a year and a half is not enough, is ten or twenty years enough? We will always with you."

Avery didn't answer him.

She knows that time is a good medicine. When her mother was killed and left her, she seemed to have come out of that grief in order to avenge her mother. Furthermore, she can come out once, but it is impossible for her to come out every time.

Mike and Avery stayed on the first floor and waited.

Mike sent several bodyguards to follow the SWAT upstairs.

After a while, the bodyguard hurried downstairs: "Miss Tate! The search and rescue dog found Elliot's smell on the second floor!"

Avery rushed out like an arrow after hearing this sentence!

Tears welled up in her eyes, and she murmured excitedly: "I knew...he must not be dead...I knew my guess was correct...it was Margaret Kidnapped him..."

Mike quickly followed her pace: "Avery, run slowly! Be careful of the wound!"

Although Mike was worried, he was not so anxious.

After all, they finally found strong evidence!
